44 Then shall they also answer Him, saying, Our Master, when did we see You hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not attend to You?

45 Then shall He answer them, saying, Truly I say to you, In so far as you did it not to one of the least of these My Yisraelite brothers, you did it not to Me.⁸

46 And these shall go away into everlasting punishment:⁹ but the tzadikim into chayim eternal.

⁶ The Master's love and care for both Judah and Efrayim's recovered sheep in the nations.

⁷ Demons and s.a.tan burn in the Lake of Fire forever, since they are immortal beings. Lost man dies a second death and perishes.

⁸ This should send chills down the spine of those who do not seek love and care for all brethren in both two houses of redeemed Yisrael. It seems that this issue of love and healing between Judah and Efrayim can have eternal consequences to those who have been quickened by this understanding, and yet fail to walk it out in love.

these sayings, He said to His talmidim,
 2 You know that after two days is the moed of the Pesach, and the Ben Ahdahm is betrayed to be impaled.
 3 Then assembled together the main Kohanim, and the Sophrim, and the zechanim of the people, to the palace of the Kohen HaGadol, who was called Qayapha,
 4 And they consulted just how they might seize יהושע by subtlety, and kill Him.
 5 But they said, Not on the moed day, lest there be an uproar among the people.
 6 Now when יהושע was in Beth Anya, in the bayit of Shimon the jar merchant,¹
 7 There came to Him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on His head, as He sat at the shulchan to eat.
 8 But when His talmidim saw it, they had indignation, saying, For what purpose is this wasted?
 9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.
 10 When יהושע understood it, He said to them, Why do you trouble the woman? For she has done a tov work upon Me.
 11 For you have the poor always with you; but Me you do not have always.
 12 For in that she has poured this ointment on My body, she did it for My burial preparation.
 13 Truly I say to you, Wherever this Besorah shall be proclaimed in the whole olam hazeh, there shall also be told what this woman has done for Me, as a memorial to her.
 14 Then one of the twelve, called Yahudah from Qerioth, went to the Kohanim HaGadolim, 15 And said to them, What will you give me, and I will deliver Him to you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.
 16 And from that time on, he sought an opportunity to betray Him.
 17 Now before^{2 3} the moed of Chag Matzoth the talmidim came to יהושע, saying to Him, Where will You that we prepare for You to eat the Pesach?⁴
 18 And he said, Go into the city to a man who will be a volunteer for the task,⁵ and say to him, The Master said, My time is at hand; I will keep the Pesach at your bayit with My talmidim.

³ Hebrew, Aramaic and Talmud Bavli. Sanhedrin 43, all testify that Yahshua was hung on Passover before Unleavened Bread.

19 And the talmidim⁶ did as יהושע had commanded them; and they made ready the Pesach.
 20 Now when the evening had come, He sat down with the twelve.⁷
 21 And as they did eat, He said, Truly I say to you, That one of you shall betray Me.
 22 And they were exceedingly sorrowful, and began each one of them to say to Him, Master, is it I?
 23 And He answered and said; He that dips his hand with Me in the dish, the same shall betray Me.
 24 The Ben Ahdahm goes as it is written of Him: but woe to that man by whom the Ben Ahdahm is betrayed! It had been tov for that man if he had not even been born.
 25 Then Yahudah, who betrayed Him, answered and said, Rabbi, is it I? He said to him, You have spoken it.
 26 And as they were eating, יהושע took lechem, and made the bracha, and broke it, and gave it to the talmidim, and said, Take, eat; this is My body.
 27 And He took the cup, and gave hodu, and gave it to them, saying, Drink all of it;
 28 For this is My dahm of the Brit Chadasha that is shed for many for the remission of sins.
 29 But I say to you, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine again, until that day when I drink it new with you in My Abba's malchut.
 30 And when they had sung a shir, they went out to the Mount of Olives.
 31 Then said יהושע to them, All of you shall be offended and grieved because of Me this night: for it is written, I will smite the Shepherd,⁸ and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.
 32 But after I am risen again, I will go before you into Galil.
 33 Kepha answered and said to Him, Though all men shall be offended because of You, yet will I never be offended.
 34 יהושע said to him, Truly I say to you, That this night, before the cock crows, you shall deny Me three times.
 35 Kepha said to Him, Though I should die with You, yet will I not deny You. Likewise also said all the talmidim.

⁷ Every chabad orthodox rabbi even to this day has an extra Passover, as a training lesson. Today this practice is seen in the Lubavitch movement when they gather on the last night of Pesach for what they call the Messiah's Supper, looking forward to the coming of Messiah. Rabbi Yisrael Baal Shem Tov instituted the custom of partaking of a "Messiah's meal" on the afternoon of the last day of Passover. Some consider it a Pesach, even though it is officially just a preparation for Messiah's coming. In Yahshua's day, the added "Meal of Messiah" was held before the actual Passover. Yahshua looked and acted as if it were the Passover, without it actually being the Passover. This seeming contradiction is fully understood from a Hebraic mindset. See:

MATTITYAHU – MATTHEW

36 Then came יהושע with them to a place called Gethsemane, and said to the talmidim, Sit here, while I go and make tefillah over there.

37 And He took with Him Kepha and the two sons of Zavdi, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy hearted.

38 Then said He to them, My being is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death: stay here, and watch with Me.

39 And He went a little further, and fell on His face, and made tefillah, saying, O My Abba, if it is possible, let this cup pass from Me: nevertheless not as I will, but as You will.

40 And He came to the talmidim, and found them asleep, and said to Kepha, What, could you not watch with Me one hour?

41 Watch and make tefillah, so that you enter not into temptation: the human ruach indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

42 He went away again the second time, and made tefillah, saying, O My Abba, if this cup may not pass away from Me, except I drink it, let Your will be done.

43 And He came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy.

44 And He left them, and went away again, and made tefillah the third time, saying the same words.

45 Then He came to His talmidim, and said to them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: see, the hour is at hand, and the Ben Ahdahm is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

46 Rise, let us be going: see, he is at hand that does betray Me.

47 And while He yet spoke, see, Yahudah, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and clubs, from the main Kohanim and the zechanim of the people.

48 Now he that betrayed Him gave them a sign, saying, Whomever I shall kiss, it is Him: seize Him.

49 And immediately he came to יהושע, and said, Shalom, Rabbi; and kissed Him.

50 And יהושע said to him, Beloved chaver, why have you come, what have you done? ¹ Then they came, and arrested יהושע, and took Him.

51 And, see, one of them who was with יהושע stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck an eved of the Kohen HaGadol's, and cut off his ear.

52 Then said יהושע to him, Put up again your sword into the sheath: for all those that take the sword shall perish with the sword.

53 Do you not understand that I can meet My enemies ² and that I can now make tefillah to My Abba, and He shall presently give Me more than twelve legions of heavenly malachim?

54 But how then shall the Keetvay HaKadosh of the Tanach be fulfilled, that it has to be this way?

55 In that same hour said יהושע to the multitudes, Are you come out against a thief, as if we were thieves, ³ with swords and clubs to take Me? I sat daily with you teaching in the Beit HaMikdash, and you did not seize Me.

56 But all this was done, that the Keetvay HaKadosh of the neviim might be fulfilled. Then all the talmidim forsook Him, and fled.

57 And they that had laid hold on יהושע led Him away to Qayapha the Kohen HaGadol, where the Sophrim and the zechanim were assembled.

58 But Kepha followed Him from far off to the Kohen HaGadol's palace, and went in, and sat with the avadim, to see the result.

59 Now the main Kohanim, and zechanim, and all the Sanhedrin, sought false witness against יהושע, to put Him to death;

60 But found none: yes, though many false witnesses came, yet they found none. At the end came two false witnesses,

61 And said, This Fellow said, I am able to destroy the Beit HaMikdash of אלהא, and to build it in three days.

62 And the Kohen HaGadol stood, and said to Him, Don't You respond? What is all this that these witness against You?

63 But יהושע kept His silence. And the Kohen HaGadol answered and said to Him, I put You under oath before the living אלהא, that You tell us whether You are The Moshiach, the Son of the Almighty.

64 יהושע said to him, You have said it: nevertheless I say to you, After this you shall see the Ben Ahdahm sitting at the right hand of יהוה, ⁴ and coming in the clouds of the shamayim.

65 Then the Kohen HaGadol tore his clothes, saying, He has spoken blasphemy; what further need do we have for witnesses? See, now you have heard His blasphemy. ⁵

66 What do you think? They answered and said, He is guilty of death.

67 Then they did spit in His face, and beat Him; and others slapped Him with the palms of their hands, 68 Saying, Prophecy to us, Oh You Moshiach, Who is he that smote You?

69 Now Kepha sat outside in the palace: and a girl came to him, saying, You also were with יהושע of Galil.

70 But he denied it before them all, saying, I know not what you are saying.

71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another girl saw him, and said to them that were there, This fellow was also with יהושע of Natzeret.

72 And again he lied with an oath saying, I do not know the man.

73 And after a while came to him those that stood by, and said to Kepha, Surely you also are one of them from this Navi's group; ⁶ for your speech gives you away.

74 Then he began to curse and to swear, saying, I don't know the Man. And immediately the cock crowed.

75 And Kepha remembered the word of יהושע, which said to him, Before the cock crows, you shall deny Me three times. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

27 When the morning had come, all the main Kohanim and zechanim of the people took counsel against יהושע to put Him to death:

2 And when they had bound Him, they led Him away, and delivered Him to Pontius Pilate the governor.

3 Then Yahudah, who had betrayed Him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the main Kohanim and zechanim,

4 Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent dahm. And they said, What is that to us? You take care of that.

5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the Beit HaMikdash, and departed, and went and hanged himself.

6 And the main Kohanim took the silver pieces, and said, It is not right according to Torah to put the coins into the treasury, because it is the price of dahm.

7 And they took counsel, and bought with the coins the Potter's Field, to bury strangers¹ in.

8 Therefore that field is called, Akel-Dahma, to this day.

9 Then was fulfilled that what was spoken by Zecharyah² the navi, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of Him that was appraised, whom the children of Yisrael did appraise;

10 And gave the silver for the Potter's Field, as the Master יהוה appointed me.

11 And יהושע stood before the governor: and the governor asked Him, saying, Are You Melech of the Yahudim? And יהושע said to him, You have said it.

12 And when He was accused by the main Kohanim and zechanim, He answered nothing.

13 Then said Pilate to Him, Do You hear how many things they witness against You?

14 And He answered him not a word; insomuch that the governor marveled greatly.

15 Now at the time of the moed the governor used to release to the people a prisoner, whom they desired.

16 And they had then a notable prisoner who was almost meshugas,³ called Bar-Abba taken in a case of murder who had been placed in a dungeon.

17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said to them, Whom do you wish that I release to you? Bar-Abba, or יהושע who is called the Moshiach?

18 For he knew that for envy and hatred without a cause⁴ they had delivered Him.

19 When he sat down on the mishpat seat, his wife sent to him, saying, Have nothing to do with that Tzadik-Man: for I have suffered many things today in a dream because of Him.

20 But the main Kohanim and zechanim persuaded the multitude that they should ask for Bar-Abba, and destroy יהושע.

21 The governor answered and said to them, Which of the two do you desire that I release to you? They said, Bar-Abba.

22 Pilate said to them, What shall I do then with יהושע who is called the Moshiach? They all said to him, Let Him be hanged.

23 And the governor said, Why, what evil has He done? But they cried out even more, saying, Let Him be hanged on an eytz.

24 When Pilate saw that he could not prevail, but that rather a tumult was made, he took mayim, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the dahm of this tzadik: you see to it.

25 Then answered all the people, and said, His dahm be on us, and on our children.⁵

26 Then he released Bar-Abba to them: and when he had scourged יהושע, he delivered Him to be impaled.

27 Then the soldiers of the governor the horsemen of the court,⁶ took יהושע into the common hall, and gathered to Him the whole band of soldiers.

28 And they stripped Him, and put on Him a scarlet robe.

29 And when they had platted a keter of thorns, they put it upon His head, and a reed in His right hand: and they bowed the knee before Him, and mocked Him, saying, Hail, Melech of the Yahudim!

30 And they spit at Him, and took the reed, and smote Him on the head.

31 And after they had mocked Him, they took the robe off from Him, and put His own clothing on Him, and led Him away to impale Him.

32 And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Shimon by name: they compelled him to bear His execution stake.

33 And when they were come to a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull,⁷

34 They gave Him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when He had tasted it, He would not drink.

35 And they impaled Him, and parted His garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled what was spoken by the navi, They parted My garments among them, and upon My vesture did they cast lots.

36 And sitting down they watched Him there;

37 And set up over His head His accusation written, THIS IS יהושע THE MELECH OF THE YAHUDIM.⁸

38 Then were there two thieves impaled with Him, one on the right hand, and another on the left.⁹

39 And they that passed by reviled Him, shaking their heads,

40 Saying, You that will destroy the Beit HaMikdash, and build it in three days, save Yourself. If You are the Son of אלהא, come down from the execution stake.

41 Likewise also the main Kohanim mocking Him, with the Sophrim and zechanim, said, 43 He trusted in נלהא; let Him deliver Him now, if He will have Him: for He said, I am the Son of נלהא.

 44 The thieves also, who were impaled with Him, reviled Him in the same way.
 45 Now from 12 noon there was darkness over all the olam¹ until 3 in the afternoon.
 46 And at about 3 o'clock יהושע cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli-Yahuweh, Eli-Yahuweh, lemana-shabakthani? That is to say, My El-Yahuweh, My El-Yahuweh, why are You keeping Me?^{2 3}
 47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This Man calls for Eli-Yahu.⁴
 48 And immediately one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave Him to drink.
 49 The rest said, Leave Him alone, let us see whether Eli-Yahu will come to save Him.
 50 יהושע, when He had cried again with a loud voice, He dismissed His ruach.
 51 And, see, the veil of the Beit HaMikdash was rent in two from the top to the bottom;⁵ and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent;
 52 And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the Yisraelite kidushim that slept arose,
 53 And came out of the graves after His resurrection, and went into the kadosh city, and appeared to many.
 54 Now when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching יהושע, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of the Almighty.
 55 And many women were there looking from far off, who followed יהושע from Galil, attending to Him:

² Going with the Aramaic and not the Greek. In the Aramaic Yahshua is basically asking why the suffering is continuing so long. He is not accusing YHWH of forsaking Him, nor is He confused into thinking that He is being forsaken, since He is YHWH and knows the Father's plan. The One who stated that He could call for 12 legions of angels to deliver Himself, and the One who said that the Father would never leave Him alone even if all the disciples did, would never claim to be forsaken. Since it cannot mean forsaken, the word shabakthani can also mean keeping me, or preserving me. In this context, this is the obvious meaning. Since Yahshua would never accuse, or believe that YHWH had forsaken Him, Psalm 22 can still be seen as a narrative of the Suffering Servant, but the literal words of Psalm 22:1-2 would never come out of Yahshua's mouth. In this case, the evidence of the Aramaic meaning is clearly superior to the Greek, and substantiates that Yahshua requested a quickening of His suffering (in its 6th hour), as opposed to an accusation against YHWH of being forsaken.

⁵ The veil to the Set-Apart Place, not the most Set-Apart Place.

56 Among them were Miryam from Magdala, and Miryam the eema of Yaakov and Yoseph, and also the eema of Zavdi's children.
 57 When the evening had come, there came a rich man of Ramathayim, named Yoseph, who also himself was יהושע's talmid:
 58 He went to Pilate, and asked for the body of יהושע. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered.
 59 And when Yoseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,
 60 And laid it in his own new tomb, which he had cut out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed.
 61 And there was Miryam from Magdala, and the other Miryam, opposite the tomb.
 62 Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the main Kohanim and Prushim came together to Pilate,
 63 Saying, Sir, we remember that the deceiver said, while He was yet alive, After three days I will rise again.
 64 Command therefore that the tomb be made secure until the third day, lest His talmidim come by night, and steal Him away, and say to the people, He is risen from the dead: so that the last deception shall be worse than the first ones.
 65 Pilate said to them, You have a guard: go your way; make it as secure as you can.
 66 So they went, and made the tomb secure, sealing the stone, and setting a guard.

28 In the evening of the Shabbat,⁶ as it began to dawn, towards the first of the week,⁷ came Miryam of Magdala and the other Miryam to see the tomb.

2 And, see, there was a great earthquake:

for the heavenly malach of the Master יהוה descended from the shamayim, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

3 His appearance was like lightning, and His clothing white as snow:

4 And for fear of him the guards did shake, and became as dead men.

5 And the heavenly malach answered and said to the women, Fear not: for I know that you seek יהושע, who was impaled.

6 He is not here: for He is risen, as He said. Come; see the place where the Master יהושע lay.

⁶ Around havdalah, or 6PM.

8 And they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great simcha; and did run to bring His talmidim word.

9 And as they went to tell His talmidim, see, יהושיע met them, saying, *Greetings. May The Name¹ deliver you.*² And they came and held Him by the feet, and worshipped Him.

10 Then said יהושיע to them, Be not afraid: go tell My Yisraelite brothers that they go into Galil, and there shall they see Me.

11 Now when they were going, see, some of the guards came into the city, and showed the main Kohanim all the things that were done.

and this saying is commonly reported in secret⁴ among the Yahudim until this day.

The Besorah According To Yochanan – Moshe
יוחנן משה – Mark
To All Nations

1 The beginning of the Besorah of יהושע the Moshiach, the Son of יהוה;

2 As it is written in the neviim, See, I send My messenger before Your face, which shall prepare Your way before You.

3 The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare you the way of the Master יהוה,¹ make His paths straight.

4 Yochanan did mikvah in the wilderness, and proclaimed the mikvah of teshuvah for the remission of sins.

5 And there went out to him all the land of Yahudah, and those of Yahrushalayim, and were all immersed by him in the river of Yarden, confessing their sins.

6 And Yochanan was clothed with camel's hair, and with a girdle of a skin around his loins; and he did eat locusts and wild honey;

7 And proclaimed, saying, There comes One mightier than I after me, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to stoop down and loosen.

8 I indeed have immersed you with mayim: but He shall mikvah you with the Ruach Hakodesh.

9 And it came to pass in those days that יהושע came from Natzeret of Galil, and was immersed of Yochanan in the Yarden.

10 And immediately coming up out of the mayim, He saw the shamayim opened, and the Ruach like a yonah descending upon Him:

11 And there came a voice from the shamayim, saying, You are My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

12 And immediately the Ruach drove Him into the wilderness.

13 And He was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted by s.a.tan; and was with the wild beasts; and the heavenly malachim attended to Him.

14 Now after Yochanan was put in prison, יהושע came into Galil, proclaiming the Besorah of the malchut of יהוה,

15 And saying, *The time is fulfilled, and the malchut of יהוה is at hand: make teshuvah, and believe the Besorah.*²

16 Now as He walked by the Sea of Galil, He saw Shimon and Andri his brother casting a net into the sea: for they were fishermen.

17 And יהושע said to them, *Follow Me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.*³

18 And immediately they forsook their nets, and followed Him.

19 And when He had gone a little further, He saw Yaakov the son of Zavdi, and Yochanan his brother, who also were in the boat mending their nets.

20 And immediately He called them: and they left their abba Zavdi in the boat with the hired avadim, and went after Him.

21 And they went into Kfar Nachum; and immediately on all the Shabbats He entered into the synagogue, and taught.

22 And they were astonished at His teaching: for He taught them as one that had authority, and not as the Sophrim.

23 And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean ruach; and he cried out,

24 Saying, Leave us alone; what have we to do with You, יהושע of Natzeret? Have You come to destroy us? I know You who You are, the Kadosh-One of יהוה.

25 And יהושע rebuked him, saying, Be silent, and come out of him.

26 And when the unclean ruach had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? What new teaching is this? For with authority He commands even the shadim, and they do obey Him.

28 And immediately His fame spread abroad throughout all the regions all around about Galil.⁴

29 And immediately, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the bayit of Shimon and Andri, with Yaakov and Yochanan.

30 But Shimon's wife's eema lay sick of a fever, and immediately they told Him about her.

31 And He came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she attended to them.

32 And at evening, when the sun did set, they brought to Him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with shadim.

33 And the entire city was gathered together at the door.

34 And He healed many that were sick of different diseases, and cast out many shadim; and allowed not the shadim to speak, because they knew Him.

35 And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, He went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there made tefillah.

36 And Shimon and they that were with Him followed after Him.

37 And when they had found Him, they said to Him, All the men of Yisrael seek for You.

38 And He said to them, *Let us go into the next towns that I may proclaim there also: for therefore came I forth.*⁵

39 And He proclaimed in their synagogues throughout all Galil, and cast out shadim.

MARK

² The King was here and Yisrael was about to be restored and enter the kingdom.

⁴ See comments for Matthew 4:15.

⁵ That is the primary reason for His coming. To reach Yisraelites in all their towns both in Judah and all the nations.

40 And there came a leper to Him, beseeching Him, and kneeling down to Him, and saying to Him, If You will, You can make me clean.
 41 And יהושע, moved with rachamim, put out His hand, and touched him, and said to him, I will; be clean.
 42 And as soon as He had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed.
 43 And He strictly ordered him, and immediately sent him away;
 44 And said to him, *See you say nothing to any man: but go your way, show yourself to the kohen, and offer for your cleansing those things which Moshe commanded, for a testimony to them.*¹
 45 But he went out, and began to greatly publish it, and to spread abroad the matter, insomuch that יהושע could no more openly enter into the city, but was outside in desert places: and they came to Him from every quarter.

2 And again He entered into Kfar Nachum, after some days; and it became known that He was in the bayit.
 2 And immediately many were gathered together,² insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no, not even around the door: and He proclaimed the word to them.
 3 And they came to Him, bringing one sick of the palsy, who was carried by four men.³
 4 And when they could not come near to Him for the press, they removed the roof where He was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the quilt where the sick of the palsy lay.
 5 When יהושע saw their emunah, He said to the sick of the palsy, Son, your sins are forgiven you.
 6 But there were certain of the Sophrim sitting there, and reasoning in their levim,
 7 Why does this man speak blasphemies like this? Who can forgive sins but אלהא only?⁴
 8 And immediately when יהושע perceived in His Ruach that they so reasoned within themselves, He said to them, Why do you reason these things in your levim?
 9 *Which is easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Your sins are forgiven you; or to say, Arise, and take up your quilt, and walk?*⁵
 10 But that you may know that the Ben Ahdahm has power on earth to forgive sins, He said to the sick of the palsy, 11 I say to you, Arise, and take up your quilt, and go your way into your bayit.
 12 And immediately he arose, took up the quilt, and went out before them all; so that they were all amazed, and esteemed יהוה, saying, We never saw anything like this.

³ The four men symbolic of the four corners, or four winds of the earth, bringing sick and lost Yisraelites to the Master.

⁴ Which is why Yahshua was YHWH the Sent One from YHWH the Greater. YHWH can forgive sins on earth as it is done in the heavens.

⁵ Neither, only YHWH can do both.

13 And He went out again by the seaside; and all the multitudes⁶ came to Him, and He taught them.
 14 And as He passed by, He saw Lewi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax office, and said to him, Follow Me. And he arose and followed Him.
 15 And it came to pass, that, as יהושע sat at meat in his bayit, many tax collectors and sinners sat also together with יהושע and His talmidim: for there were many, and they followed Him.
 16 And when the Sophrim and Prushim saw Him eat with tax collectors and sinners, they said to His talmidim, How is it that He eats and drinks with tax collectors and sinners?
 17 When יהושע heard it, He said to them, *They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are seriously sick: I came not to call the tzadikim, but sinners to teshuvah.*⁷
 18 And the talmidim of Yochanan and of the Prushim used to fast: and they came and said to Him, Why do the talmidim of Yochanan and of the Prushim fast, but Your talmidim fast not?
 19 And יהושע said to them, Can the children of the Bridegroom fast, while the Bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the Bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.
 20 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.
 21 No man also sews a piece of new cloth on an old garment: otherwise the new piece that filled it up takes away from the old, and the tear is made worse.
 22 *And no man puts new wine into old wineskins: or else the new wine bursts the wineskins, and the wine is spilled, and the wineskins will be ruined: but new wine must be put into new wineskins.*⁸
 23 And it came to pass, that He went through the cornfields on the Shabbat; and His talmidim began, as they went, to pluck the ears of corn.
 24 And the Prushim said to Him, See, why do they do on the Shabbat day that which is not allowed?
 25 And He said to them, Have you never read what Dawid did, when he had need, and was hungry, he, and they that were with him?
 26 *How he went into the Bayit of the Master יהוה while Aviathar was Kohen HaGadol,*⁹ and ate the Bread of the ⁶ A reference to Yisrael's promised multitudes.

⁷ In Scripture, the sick are equated with the wayward, or backslidden First Covenant sheep of lost Yisrael.

⁸ Meaning Messiah's mission was to renew the wineskin, not the wine of Torah. Yisrael is the wineskin and Renewed Covenant Yisrael is the new wineskin.

Presence, which is not lawful to eat except for the Kohanim, and gave also to them that were with him? ¹

27 And He said to them, The Shabbat was made for man, and not man for the Shabbat:

28 Therefore the Ben Ahdahm is Master also of the Shabbat.

3 And He entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there who had a withered hand.

2 And they watched Him, whether He would heal him on the Shabbat; that they might accuse Him.

3 And He said to the man that had the withered hand, Stand up.

4 And He said to them, Is it lawful to do tov on the Shabbat, or to do evil? To save chayim, or to kill? But they held their silence.

5 And when He had looked all around them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their levim, He said to the man, Stretch out your hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

6 And the Prushim went out, and immediately took counsel with the Herodians against Him, how they might destroy Him.

7 But יהושע withdrew Himself with His talmidim to the sea: and a great multitude from Galil ² followed Him, and from Yahudah, ³

8 And from Yahrushalayim, and from Idumaea, and from beyond Yarden; and those around Tsor and Tsidon, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things He did, came to Him.

9 And He spoke to His talmidim, that a small boat should wait for Him because of the multitude, lest they should throng Him.

10 For He had healed many; so that they pressed upon Him to touch Him, as many as had plagues.

11 And unclean ruachim, when they saw Him, fell down before Him, and cried, saying, You are the Son of אלהים.

12 And He strictly ordered them that they should not make Him known.

13 And He went up into a mountain, and called to Him whom He would: and they came to Him.

14 And He ordained twelve, that they should be with Him, and that He might send them out to proclaim, ⁴

15 And to have power to heal sicknesses,

and to cast out shadim:

16 And Shimon He surnamed Kepha;

17 And Yaakov the son of Zavdi, and Yochanan the brother of Yaakov; and He surnamed them B'nai Regash, which is, The Sons of Thunder:

18 And Andri, and Philip, and Bar-Talmai, and Mattityahu, and Toma, and Yaakov the son of Alphai, and Thaddai, and Shimon the Zealot, 19 And Yahudah from Qerioth, who also betrayed Him: and they went into a bayit.

20 And the multitude ⁵ came together again, so that they could not so much as eat lechem.

21 And when His relatives heard it, they went out to seize Him: for they said, He is out of His mind.

22 And the Sophrim that came down from Yahrushalayim said, He has Baal-Zevuv, and by the prince of the shadim He casts out shadim.

23 And He called them to Him, and said to them in parables, How can s.a.tan cast out s.a.tan?

24 And if a malchut is divided against itself, that malchut cannot stand.

25 And if a bayit is divided against itself, that bayit cannot stand. ⁶

26 And if s.a.tan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but has an end.

27 No man can enter into a strong man's bayit, and spoil his goods, except he will first bind the strong man; and then he will spoil his bayit.

28 Truly I say to you, All sins shall be forgiven to the sons of men, and whatever blasphemies they shall blaspheme:

29 But he that shall blaspheme against the Ruach Hakodesh has no forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation:

30 Because they said, He has an unclean ruach. ⁷

31 There came then His brothers and His eema, and, standing outside, sent to Him, calling Him.

32 And the multitude sat around Him, and they said to Him, See, Your eema and Your brothers outside seek for You.

33 And He answered them, saying, Who is My eema, or who are My Yisraelite brothers?

34 And He looked all around to those who sat around Him, and said; See My eema and My Yisraelite brothers!

35 For whoever shall do the will of יהוה, the same is My brother, and My sister, and eema.

4 And He began again to teach by the seaside: and there

¹ Kal VaChomer. Weightier versus lighter matters. When two Torah principles that are both valid seem to contradict, the weightier, or more important allows action that often violates, or seems to violate the lesser matters. The overriding principle in the spirit of Torah is what is called yeshuat nefesh, or the saving of life, which takes higher precedent than any other statute, and can include breaking all 613 commands to save a single human life. This is the principal at work here. Dawid would have died without food. And that took precedence over the Shabbat, especially since the Shabbat was made for man, and if a man were dead, what good would the Shabbat do for him?

⁴ For all twelve tribes.

⁶ In the pashat, or literal understanding, Yahshua explains how illogical their argument is since s.a.tan would be interested in casting out clean messengers but never himself. In the remez/hint, He is stating the principle, that so long as Yisrael remains divided into two houses, or malchutim, they will be open to various forms of division and diverse fallings and failings, that would not take place were the kingdom already restored to Yisrael.

⁷ Attributing the works of Yahshua to s.a.tan's power. No believer would willfully do that as did the Pharisees.

was gathered to Him a great multitude, so that He entered into a boat, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.¹

2 And He taught them many things by parables, and said to them in His teaching,

3 Listen; See, there went out a sower to sow:

4 And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the wayside, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.

5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth:

6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

8 And some fell on tov ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought out, some thirty, and some sixty, and some a hundred.

9 And He said to them, He that has ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And when He was alone, the twelve that were with Him, asked Him about the parable.

11 And He said to them, To you it is given to know the mystery of the malchut of יהוה: but to them that are outside, all these things are done in parables:²

12 That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should do teshuvah, and their sins should be forgiven them.

13 And He said to them, Don't you know this parable? And how then will you know all other parables?

14 The sower sows the word.

15 And these are they by the wayside, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, s.a.tan comes immediately, and takes away the word that was sown in their levim.

16 And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gilah;

17 And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction, or persecution arises for the word's sake, immediately they are offended.

18 And these are those that are sown among thorns; such as hear the word,

19 And the cares of this olam hazeh, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the desires for other things entering in, choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.

² Believing Yisraelites get the message directly while those outside of believing Yisrael must come through parables. So parables were given to reveal history and future revelation to regathered Yisrael, while blinding the eyes of those outside, in order to force them to inquire on their own.

20 And these are they which are sown on tov ground;³ such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring out fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some a hundred.

21 And He said to them, Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed? And not to be set on a menorah?⁴

22 For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad.

23 If any man has ears to hear, let him hear.

24 And He said to them, Take heed what you hear: with what measure you use, it shall be measured to you: and to you that hear shall more be given.

25 For he that has, to him shall be given: and he that has not, from him shall be taken even that which he has.⁵

26 And He said, So is the malchut of יהוה, as if a man should cast zera into the ground;

27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the zera should spring and grow up, he knows not how.⁶

28 For the earth brings out fruit by itself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

29 But when the fruit is brought out, immediately he puts in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

30 And He said, To what shall we compare the malchut of יהוה? Or, with what comparison shall we compare it?

31 It is like a grain of mustard zera, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth:

32 But when it is sown, it grows up, and becomes greater than all herbs, and shoots out great Netzarim-Branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.⁷

33 And with many such parables He spoke the word to them, as they were able to listen to it.

34 But without a parable He spoke not to them: and when they were alone, He expounded all things to His talmidim.

35 And the same day, when the evening was come, He said to them, Let us pass over to the other side.

36 And when they had sent away the multitude, they took Him along as He was in the boat. And there were also with Him other little ships.

37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the boat, so that it was now full.

38 And He was in the stern, asleep on a cushion: and they

³ Yisrael redeemed and forgiven is the good solid soil that receives His word.

⁴ Once Yisrael receives Messiah's teaching, we are to let our truth and light shine in all the House of Yisrael.

⁵ A spiritual law.

⁷ A clear reference to Yisrael's beginnings with Abraham, and the growth to the present day, where there is so much leaven in both houses, one does not know where to begin to clear house. Thankfully Messiah Yahshua does know and has been doing so.

woke Him, and said to Him, Rabbi, don't You care that we perish?

39 And He arose, and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, Shalom, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

40 And He said to them, Why are you so fearful? How is it that you have no emunah?

41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of Man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?

5 And they came over to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes.

2 And when He was come out of the boat, immediately there met Him out of the tombs a man with an unclean ruach,

3 Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, not even with chains:

4 Because he had often been bound with shackles and chains, and had pulled the chains apart, and the shackles he had broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.

5 And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.

6 But when he saw יהושע far off, he ran and worshipped Him,

7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with You, יהושע: You, Son of El-Elyon? I ask You by אלהה, that You torment me not.

8 For He said to him, Come out of the man, you unclean ruach.

9 And He asked him, What is your name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.

10 And he begged Him much that He would not send them away out of the country.

11 Now there was there near to the mountains a great herd of pigs feeding.

12 And all the shadim begged Him, saying, Send us into the pigs, that we may attack them.

13 And immediately יהושע gave them leave. And the unclean ruachim went out, and attacked the pigs: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, they were about two thousand; ¹ and were choked in the sea. ²

14 And they that fed the pigs fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done.

15 And they came to יהושע, and saw him that was possessed with the s.a.tan, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

16 And they that saw it told them what happened to him that was possessed with the s.a.tan, and also concerning the pigs.

¹ In the hint, or remez level this account teaches us that for 2,000 years (symbolized by the 2,000 pigs) – the time between Yahshua's comings – both houses of Yisrael would enter into the pigs, or into pagan practice and worship, resulting in death in the sea symbolizing the exile and spiritual death into the nations.

² We were choked in the sea of nations.

17 And they began to beg Him to depart out of their coasts.

18 And when He was come into the boat, he that had been possessed with the shad begged that he might go with Him.

19 But יהושע allowed it not, but said to him, Go home to your chaverim, and tell them what great things the Master יהוה has done for you, and how He has had rachamim on you.

20 And he departed, and began to publish in Dekapolis ³ how great things יהושע had done for him: and all men did marvel.

21 And when יהושע had passed over again by boat to the other side, many people gathered to Him: and He was near to the sea.

22 And, see, there came one of the shamashim of the synagogue, Yair by name; and when he saw Him, he fell at His feet,

23 And begged Him greatly, saying, My little daughter lies at the point of death: I beg you, come and lay Your hands on her, that she may be healed; and she shall live.

24 And יהושע went with him; and many people followed Him, and thronged Him. ⁴

25 And a certain woman, who had an issue of dahm for twelve years,

26 Who had suffered many things by many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was not better, but rather grew worse,

27 When she had heard of יהושע, she came in the crowd behind, and touched His garment.

28 For she said, If I may touch even His tzitzit, I shall be whole.

29 And immediately the fountain of her dahm was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague. ⁵

30 And יהושע, immediately knowing in Himself that power had gone out of Him, turned around to the crowd, and said, Who touched My clothes?

31 And His talmidim said to Him, You see the multitude thronging You, and You say, Who touched Me?

32 And He looked all around about to see her that had done this thing.

33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before Him, and told Him all the emet.

34 And He said to her, My daughter of Yisrael, your emunah has made you whole; go in shalom, and be whole of your affliction. ⁶

35 While He yet spoke, there came from the shamesh of ⁴ The multitudes of Yisrael.

⁵ The woman is Yisrael. The twelve years of pain are one year for each tribe, and the tzitzit/fringes are symbolic of remembering all YHWH's torot/laws and the power that goes from the Torah and Messiah that flows back to Yisrael, who then is made whole.

YOCHANAN - MOSHE – MARK

the synagogue's bayit, someone who said, Your daughter is dead: why trouble the Master any further?

36 As soon as יהושע heard the word that was spoken, He said to the shamesh of the synagogue, Be not afraid, only believe.

37 And He allowed no man to follow Him, except Kepha, and Yaakov, and Yochanan the brother of Yaakov.

38 And He came to the bayit of the shamesh of the synagogue, and saw the tumult, and those that wept and wailed greatly.

39 And when He had come in, He said to them, Why do you make this commotion, and weep? The child is not dead, but only sleeping.

40 And they laughed at Him. But when He had put them all out, He took the abba and the eema of the child, and those that were with Him, and entered in where the child was lying.

41 And He took the child by the hand, and said to her, Talitha cumi; which is, translated, Little girl, I say to you, arise.¹

42 And immediately the child arose, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years.² And they were astonished with great astonishment.

43 And He ordered them many times that no one should know it; and commanded that something should be given to her to eat.

6 And He went out from there, and came into His own country; and His talmidim followed Him.

2 And when the Shabbat had come, He began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing Him were astonished, saying, From where has this Man these things? And what chochmah is this, which is given to Him, that even such mighty mitzvot are done by His hands?

3 Is not this the carpenter, the Son of Miryam, the brother of Yaakov, and Yoseph, and of Yahudah, and Shimon?

And are not His sisters here with us? And they were offended by Him.

4 But יהושע said to them, A Navi is never belittled, except in His own country, and among His own kin, and in His own bayit.

5 And He could do no mighty mitzvot there, except that He laid His hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them.³

6 And He marveled because of their unbelief. And He went around their villages, teaching.

7 And He called to Him the twelve, and began to send them out two by two; and He gave them power over unclean ruachim;

8 And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, except a staff only; no bag, no lechem, no copper in their money belts:

9 But to wear sandals; and not put on two coats.

10 And He said to them, In whatever place you enter into a bayit, there abide until you depart from that place.

11 And whoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when you depart from there, shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Truly I say to you, It shall be more tolerable for Sedom and Amarah in the Yom HaDin, than for that city.

12 And they went out, and proclaimed that men⁴ should make teshuvah.

13 And they cast out many shadim, and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.

14 And melech Herod heard of Him; (for His Name had been spread abroad) and he said, That Yochanan ha Matbeel had risen from the dead, and therefore mighty mitzvot do show themselves in him.

15 Others said, That it is Eli-Yahu. And others said, That it is a navi, or someone like one of the neviim.

16 But when Herod heard this, he said, It is Yochanan, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead.

17 For Herod himself had sent out and seized Yochanan, and bound him in the prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife: for he had married her.

18 For Yochanan had said to Herod, It is not permitted in the Torah for you to have your brother's wife.

19 Therefore Herodias had a quarrel against him, and would have killed him; but she could not:

20 For Herod feared Yochanan, knowing that he was a just man and one who was kadosh, and observed him; and when he heard him, he was very convicted, and heard him with gilah.

21 And when a state occasion had come, Herod on his birthday made a supper to his great men, high captains, and head men of Galil;

22 And when the daughter of Herodias came in, and danced, and pleased Herod and those who sat with him, the melech said to the girl, Ask from me whatever you will, and I will give it you.

23 And he swore to her, Whatever you shall ask of me, I will give it to you, up to half of my malchut.

24 And she went out, and said to her eema, What shall I ask for? And she said, The head of Yochanan ha Matbeel.

25 And she came in immediately with haste to the melech, and asked, saying, I will that you give me immediately in a dish the head of Yochanan the Immerser.

26 And the melech was exceedingly sorry; yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes who sat with him, he would not refuse her.

27 And immediately the melech sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison,

28 And brought his head in a dish, and gave it to the girl: and the girl gave it to her eema.

29 And when his talmidim heard of it, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

¹ An alternate rendering for Talitha Cumi would be "you who are under the tallit/prayer shawl rise."

² When this child of Yisrael is healed, she represents all Yisraelites who receive the message of the kingdom as a little child, and each of those twelve years of age, represents the resurrection of all 12 tribes to new life by Messiah. Once alive they are given new manna, or bread to eat as seen in verse 43.

³ He chose not to do so, because there was no faith there to move Him into action.

⁴ Yisraelites.

30 And his talmidim gathered themselves together to עשרה, and told Him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.

31 And He said to them, Come aside by yourselves into a quiet place, and rest a while: for there were many coming and going, and they had no time for themselves, so much as to eat.

32 And they departed into a quiet place by boat privately.

33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew Him, and ran there on foot from all cities, and came before them, and came together to Him.

34 And עשרה, when He came out, saw many people, and was moved with rachamim toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and He began to teach them many things.¹

35 And when the day was now far gone, His talmidim came to Him, and said, This is a deserted place, and now the hour is late:

36 Send them away, that they may go into the country all around, and into the villages, and buy themselves lechem: for they have nothing to eat.

37 He answered and said to them, You give them something to eat. And they said to Him, Shall we go and buy two hundred silver pieces worth of lechem, and give them to eat?

38 He said to them, How many loaves do you have? Go and see. And when they knew, they said, Five, and two fishes.

39 And He commanded them to make them all sit down in groups upon the green grass.

40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties.

41 And when He had taken the five loaves² and the two fishes, He looked up to the shamayim, and said the bracha, and broke the loaves, and gave them to His talmidim to set before them; and the two fishes He divided³ among them all.

42 And they did all eat, and were filled.

43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments,⁴ and also of fishes.

44 And those that did eat of the loaves were about five thousand men.

45 And immediately He made His talmidim get into the boat, and to go to the other side to Beth Saida, while He sent away the people.

46 And when He had sent them away, He departed into a mountain to make tefillah.

47 And when evening was come, the boat was in the midst of the sea, and He was alone on the land.

48 And He saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was against them: and about the fourth watch of the night He came to them, walking upon the sea, and would have passed right by them.

49 But when they saw Him walking upon the sea, they thought it was a ruach, and cried out:

50 For they all saw Him, and were troubled. And immediately He talked with them, and said to them, Be of tov courage: it is I; be not afraid.

51 And He went up to them and into the boat; and the wind ceased: and they were exceedingly amazed within themselves beyond description, and wondered.

52 For they understood not the miracle of the loaves: for their lev was hardened and confused.

53 And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gennesar, and drew to the shore.

54 And when they were come out of the boat, immediately they knew Him,

55 And ran throughout that whole region all around, and began to carry in beds those that were sick, to where they heard He was.

56 And wherever He entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and begged Him that they might touch only His tzitzit: and as many as touched Him were made whole.

7 Then came together to Him the Prushim, and certain of the Sophrim, which came from Yahrushalayim.

2 And when they saw some of His talmidim eat lechem with defiled, that is to say, with unwashed, hands, they found fault.

3 For the Prushim, and all the Yahudim, except they wash their hands often, eat not, holding to the tradition of the zechanim.

4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there are, which they have received and hold fast to such, as the washing of cups, and pots, copper vessels, and tables.

5 Then the Prushim and Sophrim asked Him, Why don't Your talmidim have their halachot according to the tradition of the zechanim, but eat lechem with unwashed hands?

6 He answered and said to them, Well has Yeshayahu prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honors Me with their lips, but their lev is far from Me.

7 But in vain do they worship Me, teaching as Torah the commandments of men.

8 Laying aside the commandment of יהוה, you guard the traditions of men, such as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such things you do.

9 And He said to them, Full well you do reject the mitzvoth of יהוה, that you may keep your own tradition.

10 For Moshe said, Honor your abba and your eema; and, Whoever curses abba, or eema, let him die in death:

11 But you say, If a man shall say to his abba or eema, It is Korban, that is to say, a gift to יהוה, from whatever you might have received from me; he shall be free.

12 *And you no longer allow him to do any tov matter for his abba or his eema;*⁵

13 Making the word of יהוה of no effect through your

³ He came for those two groups of fishes that were divided.

tradition, which you have delivered: and many similar things you do.

14 And when He had called all the people to Him, He said to them, Listen to Me every one of you, and understand:

15 There is nothing from outside a man, that entering into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are the things that defile the man.

16 If any man has ears to hear, let him hear.

17 And when He had entered into the bayit away from the people, His talmidim asked Him concerning the parable.

18 And He said to them, *Are you also without binah? Do you not perceive, that things from outside that enter into the man, cannot defile him;*¹

19 Because it enters not into his lev, but into his stomach, and then is thrown out through the intestines, thereby purifying the food.

20 And He said, That which comes out of the man that defiles the man.

21 For from within, out of the lev of men, proceeds evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

22 Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:

23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

24 And from there He arose, and went into the borders of Tzor and Tsidon, and entered into a bayit, and would have no man know it: but He could not be hidden.

25 For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean ruach, heard of Him, and came and fell at His feet:

26 The woman was a heathen, a Syro-Phoenician by nation; and she begged Him that He would cast s.a.tan out of her daughter.

27 But יהושע said to her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not right to take the children's lechem, and to cast it to the dogs.

28 And she answered and said to Him, Yes, Master: yet the dogs under the shulchan eat of the children's crumbs.

29 And He said to her, *For this saying go your way; the s.a.tan has gone out of your daughter.*²

30 And when she was come to her bayit, she found the s.a.tan gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

31 And again, departing from the coasts of Tzor and Tsidon, He came to the Sea of Galil, through the midst of the coasts of Dekapolis.³

32 And they brought to Him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they begged Him to put

His hand upon him.

33 And He took him aside from the multitude, and put His fingers into his ears, and He spit, and touched his tongue;

34 And looking up to the shamayim, He sighed, and said to him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened.

35 And immediately his ears were opened, and the binding of his tongue was loosed, and he spoke plainly.

36 And He ordered them that they should tell no man: but the more He ordered them, so much the more they published it;

37 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He has done all things well: He makes both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

8 In those days the multitudes⁴ being very great, and having nothing to eat, יהושע called His talmidim to Him, and said to them,

*2 I have rachamim on the multitude, because they have now been with Me three days, and have nothing to eat:*⁵

*3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for some of them came from far.*⁶

4 And His talmidim answered Him, From where can a man satisfy these men with lechem here in the wilderness?

5 And He asked them, How many loaves do you have? And they said, seven.

6 And He commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and He took the seven loaves, and said the bracha, and broke them, and gave to His talmidim to set it before them; and they did set it before the people.

7 And they had a few small fishes: and He said the bracha, and commanded to set them also before them.

8 So they did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken pieces that were left, seven baskets.

9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and He sent them away.

10 And immediately He entered into a boat with His talmidim, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

11 And the Prushim came out, and began to question Him, seeking from Him a sign from the shamayim, trying Him.

12 And He sighed deeply in His Ruach, and said, Why does this generation seek after a sign? Truly I say to you, There shall no sign be given to this generation.

13 And He left them, and entering into the boat again departed to the other side.

14 Now the talmidim had forgotten to take lechem, neither did they have in the boat with them more than one loaf.

15 And He ordered them, saying, Watch out, beware of the chametz of the Prushim, and of the chametz of Herod.

¹ Yahshua in no way is reversing any laws of kashrut/ permitted clean foods, for if He even considered reversing one, He could not by definition be the Messiah. No, instead the topic here regards the traditions of washing hands so as to be considered ritually pure. This was pure tradition finding no basis in Torah instructions. Yahshua gives Yisrael the understanding that washed, or unwashed hands do not change a man, or woman's heart. That is all that is taking place here.

⁴ Of Yisrael.

⁵ Without Messiah, Yisrael's multitudes remain hungry for truth.

⁶ Division is not the answer to our hunger for truth. Our own houses are not what He came to build.

⁷ Efrayimites.

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no lechem.
 17 And when יהושע knew it, He said to them, Why do you reason, because you have no lechem? Don't you yet perceive and understand? Are your levim still hardened?
 18 Having eyes, don't you see? And having ears, don't you hear? And do you not remember?
 19 When I broke the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took you up? They said to Him, Twelve.
 20 And when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took you up? And they said, Seven.
 21 And He said to them, How is it then that you do not understand?
 22 And He came to Beth-Saida; and they brought a blind man to Him, and begged Him to touch him.
 23 And He took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when He had spit on his eyes, and put His hands upon him, He asked him if he saw anything.
 24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as eytzim, walking.
 25 After that He put His hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.¹
 26 And He sent him away to his bayit, saying, *Neither go into the town, nor tell it to anyone in the town.*²
 27 And יהושע went out, and His talmidim, into the towns of Caesarea Philippi: and on the way He asked His talmidim, saying to them, *Who do men*³ say that I am?
 28 And they answered, Yochanan the Immerser: but some say, Eli-Yahu; and others, One of the neviim.
 29 And He said to them, But who do you say that I am? And Kepha answered and said to Him, You are The Moshiach.
 30 And He ordered them that they should tell no man about Him.
 31 And He began to teach them, that the Ben Ahdahm must suffer many things, and be rejected of the zechanim, and by the head Kohanim, and Sophrim, and be killed, and after three days rise again.
 32 And He spoke that saying openly. And Kepha took Him, and began to rebuke Him.

¹ Before two-house restoration is revealed, a man is blind to his own heritage, and that of other men. Men all look fuzzy and all look the same, like gentiles, among gentiles. But when Yahshua touches us a second time, or returns to this earth to restore perfect understanding and vision completing the restoration process, then instead of seeing men of Yisrael as mere uniform trees, the Master's touch will open our eyes to restoration, with our vision having fully been restored. Ezekiel 34:31 refers to Yisraelites as the men of YHWH's pasture, thus when restoration truth affects an individual, the trees come into focus and the trees of Yisrael are clearly seen for who they truly are.

³ Yisraelites according to the biblical definition of men.

33 But when He had turned around and looked at His talmidim, He rebuked Kepha, saying, Get behind Me, s.a.tan: for you are not thinking on the things that are from יהוה, but the things that are from men.
 34 And when He had called the people to Him with His talmidim also, He said to them, Whoever will come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his execution stake, and follow Me.
 35 For whoever will save his chayim shall lose it; but whoever shall lose his chayim for My sake and that of the Besorah, the same shall save it.
 36 For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole olam hazeh, and lose his own being?
 37 Or, what shall a man give in exchange for his being?
 38 Whoever therefore shall be ashamed of Me and of My words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Ben Ahdahm be ashamed, when He comes in the tifereth of His Abba with the kadosh heavenly malachim.

9 And He said to them, *Truly I say to you, That there be some of you that stand here, who shall not taste of death, until they have seen the malchut of יהוה*⁴ *come with power.*⁵

2 And after six days יהושע took with Him Kepha, and Yaakov, and Yochanan, and led them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and He was transformed before them.

3 And His raiment became shining, exceedingly white as snow; like no launderer on earth can whiten them.

4 And there appeared to them Eli-Yahu with Moshe: and they were talking with יהושע.⁶

5 And Kepha answered and said to יהושע, Rabbi, it is tov for us to be here: and let us make three sukkot; one for You, and one for Moshe, and one for Eli-Yahu.⁷

6 For he did not know what to say; for they were very afraid.

7 And there was a cloud⁸ that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, *This is My beloved Son: hear Him.*⁹

⁴ Dawid's throne, back on earth and restored, ruling all 12 tribes.

⁶ According to Luke and Matthew about His soon-coming atonement in Jerusalem, that opens the way for kingdom entry.

⁷ They thought that the kingdom had come, not realizing that it was just a vision of the kingdom, and as such they were required to build booths and celebrate Tabernacles according to Zachariah 14:16-21. So actually, Peter makes a pretty sharp discernment of kingdom responsibility.

⁸ Kingdom shechinah, or presence.

YOCHANAN - MOSHE – MARK

8 And suddenly, when they had looked around, they saw no man any more, except יהושע only with themselves.
 9 And as they came down from the mountain, He ordered them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, until the Ben Ahdahm had risen from the dead.
 10 And they kept that saying within themselves, questioning one another what this rising from the dead should mean.
 11 And they asked Him, saying, Why say the Sophrim that Eli-Yahu must first come?
 12 And He answered and told them, *Eli-Yahu truly comes first, and restores all things;*¹ and how it is written of the Ben Ahdahm, that He must suffer many things, and be despised.
 13 *But I say to you, That Eli-Yahu has indeed come,*² and they have done to him whatever they desired, as it is written of him.
 14 And when He came to His talmidim, He saw a great multitude around them, and the Sophrim disputing with them.
 15 And immediately all the people, when they beheld Him, were greatly amazed, and running to Him greeted Him.
 16 And He asked the Sophrim, What are you disputing about with them?
 17 And one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought to You my son, who has a dumb ruach;
 18 And whenever he seizes him, he tears him: and he foams, and gnashes with his teeth, and wastes away: and I spoke to Your talmidim that they should cast it out; and they could not.
 19 He answered him, and said, O unbelieving generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I preach to you? Bring him to Me.
 20 And they brought him to Him: and when he saw Him, immediately the ruach tore at him; and he fell on the ground, and rolled around foaming.
 21 And He asked his abba, How long has this been happening to him? And he said, From childhood.
 22 And often it casts him into the fire, and into the mayim, to destroy him: but if You can do anything, have rachamim on us, and help us.
 23 יהושע said to him, If you can believe, all things are possible to him that believes.
 24 And immediately the abba of the child cried out, and said with tears, Master, I believe; help my unbelief.
 25 When יהושע saw that the people came running together, He rebuked the foul ruach, saying to him, You dumb and deaf ruach, I charge you, come out of him, and enter no more into him.
 26 And the ruach cried out, after causing convulsions, and came out of him: and he was as one who was dead; so that many said, he is dead.
 27 But יהושע took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose.

28 And when He had come into the bayit, His talmidim asked Him privately, Why could we not cast it out?
 29 And He said to them, This kind can come out by nothing, other than tefillah and fasting.
 30 And they departed from there, and passed through Galil; and He did not desire that any man should know it.
 31 For He taught His talmidim, and said to them, The Ben Ahdahm is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill Him; and after He is killed, He shall rise the third day.
 32 But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask Him.
 33 And He came to Kfar Nachum: and being in the bayit He asked them, What was it that you disputed among yourselves on the way?
 34 But they held their silence: for on the way they had argued among themselves, who should be the greatest.
 35 And He sat down, and called the twelve, and said to them, *If any man desires to be first, the same shall be last of all, and eved of all.*³
 36 And He took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when He had taken him in His arms, He said to them, 37 Whoever shall receive one such child in My Name, receives Me: and whoever shall receive Me, receives not Me, but Him that sent Me.
 38 And Yochanan answered Him, saying, Rabbi, we saw one casting out shadim in Your Name, and he doesn't follow us: and we forbade him, because he doesn't follow us.
 39 But יהושע said, Forbid him not: for there is no man who shall do a miracle in My Name that can ever speak evil of Me.
 40 For he that is not against us is for us.
 41 For whoever shall give you a cup of mayim to drink in My Name, because you belong to The Moshiach, truly I say to you, That he shall not lose his reward.
 42 *And whoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in Me, it is better for him that a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were cast into the sea.*⁴
 43 And if your hand offends you, cut it off: it is better for you to enter into chayim maimed, than having two hands to go into Gei-Hinnom, into the fire that never shall be quenched:
 44 Where their worm dies not, and the fire is not quenched.
 45 And if your foot offend you, cut it off: it is better for you to enter crippled into chayim, than having two feet to be cast into Gei-Hinnom, into the fire that never shall be quenched:
 46 Where their worm dies not, and the fire is not quenched.
 47 And if your eye offends you, pluck it out: it is better for you to enter into the malchut of יהוה with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into Gei-Hinnom fire:
 48 Where their worm dies not, and the fire is not quenched.

² John the Immerser came for the first advent of Yahshua, in Elijah's spirit and power.

³ A principle for Yisraelite living. Service is the road to greatness. Among gentiles rulership leads to domination.

⁴ The little children are the children of Yisrael.

49 For every one shall be salted with fire, and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt.

50 Salt is tov: but if the salt has lost its saltiness, with what will you season it? Have salt in yourselves,¹ and have shalom one with another.²

10 And He arose from there, and came into the coasts of Yahudah by the other side of the Yarden: and the people gathered to Him again; and, as He usually did, He taught them again.

2 And the Prushim came to Him, and asked Him, Is it permitted in the Torah for a man to put away his wife? Trying Him.

3 And He answered and said to them, What did Moshe command you?

4 And they said, Moshe allowed us to write a Get, and to put her away.

5 And יהושע answered and said to them, For the hardness of your lev he wrote you this precept.

6 But from the beginning of the creation יהוה made them male and female.

7 For this cause shall a man leave his abba and eema, and cleave to his wife;

8 *And the two shall be one flesh: so then they are no more two, but one flesh.*³

9 What therefore יהוה has joined together let not man separate.

10 And in the bayit His talmidim asked Him again about the same matter.

11 And He said to them, Whoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, commits adultery against her.

12 And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she commits adultery.

13 And they brought young children to Him, that He should touch them: and His talmidim rebuked those that brought them.

14 But when יהושע saw it, He was much displeased, and said to them, Allow the little children to come to Me, and forbid them not: for of such people is the malchut of יהוה.

15 Truly I say to you, Whoever shall not receive the malchut of יהוה as a little child, he shall not enter into it.

16 And He took them up in His arms, put His hands upon them, and said a bracha upon them.

17 And when He had gone out into the way, there came one running, and bowed before Him, and asked Him, Tov Rabbi, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal chayim?

18 And יהושע said to him, *Why do you call Me tov? There is none tov but One, that is, יהוה.*⁴

19 *You know the mitzvoth, Do not commit adultery, Do not murder, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honor your abba and eema.*⁵

20 And he answered and said to Him, Rabbi, all these have I observed from my youth.

21 Then יהושע beholding him loved him, and said to him, One thing you lack: go your way, sell whatever you have, and give to the poor, and you shall have treasure in the shamayim: and come, take up the execution stake, and follow Me.

22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved and depressed: for he had great possessions.

23 And יהושע looked around and said to His talmidim, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the malchut of יהוה.

24 And the talmidim were astonished at His words. But יהושע answered again, and said to them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the malchut of יהוה.

25 It is easier for a large rope⁶ to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the malchut of יהוה.

26 And they were totally astonished, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved?

27 And יהושע looking at them said, With men it is impossible, but not with יהוה: for with יהוה all things are possible.

28 Then Kepha began to say to Him, Look, we have left all, and have followed You.

29 And יהושע answered and said, Truly I say to you, There is no man that has left bayit, or brothers, or sisters, or abba, or eema, or wife, or children, or lands, for My sake, and that of the Besorah,

30 That he shall not receive one hundredfold now in this time, houses, and Yisraelite brothers, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands with persecutions; and in the olam haba eternal chayim.

31 But many that are first shall be last; and the last first.

32 And they were in the way going up to Yahrushalayim; and יהושע went before them: and they were amazed; and as they followed, they were afraid. And He took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things would happen to Him,

¹ All Torah sacrifices were seasoned with salt a preservative. "Have salt in yourselves" is a Hebraic idiomatic expression, saying in essence "you are the new living Yisraelite sacrifices, and as such must season all you do in the kingdom with salt." For more details see:

<http://restorationscriptures.org/page32.htm>

² "One with another" is a two-house reference.

³ Applies to Yahshua and Yisrael becoming one flesh, as well as the two houses being one again, as well as a man and his wife.

⁴ In essence Yahshua is asking, "Do you realize what you're saying by calling Me good?" That is freewill recognition of His deity by the young ruler, and a confirmation of Yahshua's own testimony about Himself, when in John 10 He refers to Himself as the Good Shepherd. This verse has been twisted to mean that Yahshua is saying that only The Father is good, but the truth here is just the opposite. Both He and The Father are good, and as such He confronts the rich young ruler with this truth.

⁵ Notice that Yahshua teaches Torah to those who are and would be His followers.

⁶ Peshitta: gemala can mean rope, or camel and here in context means rope.

33 Saying, See, we go up to Yahrushalayim; and the Ben Ahdahm shall be delivered to the head Kohanim, and to the Sophrim; and they shall condemn Him to death, and shall deliver Him to the goyim:

34 And they shall mock Him, and shall scourge Him, and shall spit upon Him, and shall kill Him: ¹ and the third day He shall rise again.

35 And Yaakov and Yochanan, the sons of Zavdi, came to Him, saying, Rabbi, we would that You should do for us what we desire.

36 And He said to them, What would you desire that I should do for you?

37 They said to Him, Grant to us that we may sit, one on Your right hand, and the other on Your left hand, in Your tifereth.

38 But יהושע said to them, You know not what you ask: can you drink of the cup that I drink of? And be immersed with the mikvah that I am immersed with?

39 And they said to Him, We can. And יהושע said to them, You shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the mikvah that I am immersed with shall you be immersed:

40 But to sit on My right hand and on My left hand is not mine to give; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared.

41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with Yaakov and Yochanan. ²

42 But יהושע called them to Him, and said to them, You know that they who are chosen to rule over the goyim exercise dominion over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them. ³

43 But so shall it not be among you: but whoever will be great among you, shall be your eved:

44 And whoever of you desires to be the first, shall be eved of all.

45 For even the Ben Ahdahm came not to be attended to, but to serve, and to give His chayim a ransom for many.

46 And they came to Yericho: and as He went out of Yericho with His talmidim and a great number of people, blind Bartimai, the son of Timai, sat by the highway side begging.

47 And when he heard that it was יהושע of Natzeret, he began to cry out, and say, יהושע, Ben Dawid, have rachamim on me.

48 And many ordered him that he should hold his silence: but he cried out even more, Oy! Ben Dawid, have rachamim on me.

49 And יהושע stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they called the blind man, saying to him, Be of tov comfort, rise; He calls for you.

50 And he, casting away his garment, rose, and came to יהושע.

51 And יהושע answered and said to him, What do you desire that I should do for you? The blind man said to Him, Master, that I might receive my sight.

52 And יהושע said to him, Go your way; your emunah has made you whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed יהושע in the derech. ⁴

11 And when they came near to Yahrushalayim, to Beth Phagi and Beth-Anya, ⁵ at the Mount of Olives, He sent out two of His talmidim,

2 And said to them, Go your way into the village opposite you: and as soon as you enter into it, you shall find a colt tied, on which never man sat; loose him, and bring him.

3 And if any man says to you, Why are you doing this? You say that our Rabbi has need of it; and immediately he will send him here.

4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door outside in a place where two ways met; ⁶ and they loosed him.

5 And certain of them that stood there said to them, What are you doing, loosing the colt?

6 And they said to them even as יהושע had commanded: and they let them go.

7 And they brought the colt to יהושע, and cast their garments on him; and He sat upon him.

8 And many spread their garments in the way: and others cut down branches off the eytzim, and spread them in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, shouted, saying, Hoshiana; Baruch Habah Beshem HaAdon יהוה:

10 Blessed is the malchut of our abba Dawid that comes in the Name of יהוה: Hoshiana in the highest.

11 And יהושע entered into Yahrushalayim, and into the Beit HaMikdash: and when He had looked around at all things, and the evening had come, He went out to Beth-Anya with the twelve.

12 And on the next day, when they had come from Beth-Anya, He was hungry:

13 And seeing a fig eytz ⁷ far off having leaves, He came, to see if He might find anything on it: and when He came to it, He found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs had not yet come.

14 And יהושע answered and said to it, No man eat fruit from you after this le-olam-va-ed. And His talmidim

¹ According to Yahshua, the gentiles, or Romans would do the actual killing. Not the Jews.

² The ten here symbolize Efrayim-Yisrael, or the 10 tribes who are jealous of their brothers from Judah, for seeking special privilege and position in the family. The Bible calls this a vexation of Efrayim that causes Judah to be the recipient of Efrayim's jealousy.

³ Further evidence that believers are never referred to as "gentiles" in Scripture.

⁴ Early Nazarene Yisraelites were known as members of "The Way", after Yahshua's proclamation in John 14:6.

⁵ These two disciples represent the two houses, who both are called to do their preparation job to prepare the way for His triumphal return to Jerusalem as King of Yisrael at His second coming.

⁶ Both houses will begin the restoration with the official arrival of the King to Jerusalem, as the "two ways" of Judah and Efrayim become one.

15 And they came to Yahrushalayim: and יהושע went into the Beit HaMikdash, and began to cast out those that sold and bought in the Beit HaMikdash, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves;

16 And would not allow that any man should carry any vessel through the Beit HaMikdash.

17 And He taught, saying to them, *Is it not written, My Bayit shall be called a Beit Tefillah for all nations?*² But you have made it a den of thieves.

18 And the Sophrim and head Kohanim heard it, and sought how they might destroy Him: for they feared Him, because all the people were astonished at His teaching.

19 And when evening had come, they went out of the city.

20 And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig eytz dried up from the roots.

21 And Kepha calling it to remembrance said to Him, Rabbi, see, the fig eytz that You cursed has withered away.

22 And יהושע answering said to them, Have emunah in יהוה.

23 For truly I say to you, That whoever shall say to this mountain, Be removed, and be cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his lev, but shall believe that those things, which he says, shall come to pass; he shall have whatever he says.

24 Therefore I say to you, What things you desire, when you make tefillah, believe that you receive them, and you shall have them.

25 And when you stand making tefillah, forgive, if you have any matter against any: that your Abba also who is in the shamayim may forgive you your trespasses.

26 But if you do not forgive, neither will your Abba who is in the shamayim forgive your trespasses.

27 And they came again to Yahrushalayim: and as He was walking in the Beit HaMikdash, there came to Him the head Kohanim, and the Sophrim, and the zechanim, 28 And said to Him, By what authority are You doing these things? And who gave You this authority to do these things?

29 And יהושע answered and said to them, I will also ask you one question, and answer Me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

30 The mikvah from Yochanan, was it from the shamayim, or from men? Answer Me.

31 And they reasoned within themselves, saying, If we shall say, From the shamayim; He will say, Why then did you not believe him?

32 But if we shall say, Of men; they feared the people: for all men reckoned Yochanan, that he was a navi indeed.

33 And they answered and said to יהושע, We cannot tell. And יהושע answering said to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

12 And He began to speak to them by parables. A certain man planted a vineyard, and set a hedge around it, and dug a place for the winepress, and built a tower, and rented it out to farmers, and went into a far country.

2 And at the season he sent to the farmers an eved, that he might receive from the farmers of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And again he sent to them another eved; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And again he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and killing some.

6 Having yet therefore one Son, His well beloved, He sent him lastly also to them, saying, They will reverence My Son.

7 But those farmers said among themselves, This is the Heir; come, let us kill Him, and the inheritance shall be ours.

8 And they took Him, and killed Him, and cast Him out of the vineyard.

9 What shall therefore the master of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the farmers, and will give the vineyard to others.

10 *And have you not read this Katuv; The Stone, which the builders rejected, has become the Head of the corner:*³

11 This was the Master יהוה's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes?

12 And they sought to lay hold on Him, but feared the people: for they knew that He had spoken the parable against them: and they left Him, and went their way.

13 And they sent to Him certain of the Prushim and of the Herodians, to catch Him in His words.

14 And when they had come, they said to Him, Rabbi, we know that You are emet, and are not concerned with man's opinion: for You regard not the person of men, but teach the way of אלהא in emet: Is it permitted according to Torah to give taxes to Kaiser, or not?

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But He, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, Why do you test Me? Bring Me a penny, that I may see it.

16 And they brought it. And He said to them, Whose image and inscription is this? And they said to Him, Kaiser's.

17 And יהושע answering said to them, Render to Kaiser the things that are Kaiser's, and to יהוה the things that are יהוה's. And they marveled at Him.

18 Then come to Him the Tzadukim, who say there is no resurrection; and they asked Him, saying, 19 Rabbi, Moshe Rabainu wrote to us, If a man's brother dies, and leaves his wife behind him, and leaves no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up zera for his brother.

20 Now there were seven brothers: and the first took a wife, and dying left no zera.

² The plan was always to gather Yisrael and make all nations one in Yisrael.

³ See notes on Matthew 21:33-44.

21 And the second took her, and died, neither left her any zera: and the third likewise.
 22 And the seven all had her, and left no zera: last of all the woman died also.
 23 In the resurrection therefore, whose wife shall she be? Since all seven had her as a wife.
 24 And יהושע answering said to them, Do you not therefore make serious errors, because you know not the Keetvay HaKadosh, or the power of יהוה?
 25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as the heavenly malachim who are in the shamayim.
 26 And concerning the dead, that they will rise: have you not read in the Torah of Moshe, how in the bush יהוה spoke to him, saying, I am the אלהא of Avraham, and the אלהא of Yitzchak, and the אלהא of Yaakov?
 27 He is not the אלהא of the dead, but the אלהא of the living: you therefore do greatly go astray.
 28 And one of the Sophrim came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that He had answered them well, asked Him, Which is the first mitzvah of all?
 29 And יהושע answered him, The first of all the mitzvot is, Shema, Yisrael; the Master יהוה is our אלהא, the Master יהוה is Echad:
 30 And you shall love the Master יהוה your אלהא with all your lev, and with all your being, and with all your mind, and with all your strength: this is the first mitzvah.
 31 And the second is like it, namely this; You shall love your neighbor as yourself. There are no other mitzvot greater than these.
 32 And the Sopher said to Him, Well, Rabbi, You have said the emet: for there is One אלהא; and there is no other besides Him:
 33 And to love Him with all the lev, and with all the binah, and with all the being, and with all the strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself, is more than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices.
 34 And when יהושע saw that he answered discreetly, He said to him, You are not far from the malchut of יהוה. And no man after that did ask Him any questions.
 35 And יהושע responding said, while He taught in the Beit HaMikdash, How do the Sophrim say that the Moshiach is Ben Dawid?
 36 For Dawid himself said by the Ruach Hakodesh, the Master יהוה said to My Master, Sit at My right hand, until I make Your enemies Your footstool.
 37 *Dawid therefore himself called Him Master; in what way then is He Dawid's son? And the common people heard Him with gilah.*¹
 38 And He said to them in His teaching, Beware of the Sophrim, who love to go in long clothing, and love greetings in the marketplaces,
 39 And the best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at moadim:
 40 Who devour widows' houses, and for a public show make long tefillot: these shall receive greater damnation.

¹ Messiah is both the Son of Dawid and the Master of Dawid, a revelation that can become reality only by a revelation from YHWH Himself.

41 And יהושע sat over against the treasury, and beheld how the people cast money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much.
 42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two small copper coins, which make a cent.
 43 And He called His talmidim, and said to them, Truly I say to you, That this poor widow has put more in, than all those who have put into the treasury:
 44 For all they did put in of their abundance; but she of her poverty did put in all that she had, even all her livelihood.

13 And as He went out of the Beit HaMikdash, one of His talmidim said to Him, Rabbi, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here!

2 And יהושע answering said to him, Do you see these great buildings? There shall not be left one stone upon another that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as He sat upon the Mount of Olives opposite the Beit HaMikdash, Kepha and Yaakov and Yochanan and Andri asked Him privately,

4 Tell us, when shall these things be? And what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled?

5 And יהושע answering them began to say, Take heed lest any man deceive you:

6 For many shall come in My Name, saying, I am the Moshiach; and shall deceive many.

7 And when you shall hear of wars and rumors of wars, be not troubled: for such things must indeed be; but the end shall not be yet.

8 *For nation shall rise against nation, and malchut against malchut: and there shall be earthquakes in different places, and there shall be famines and troubles: these are the Shivlai HaMoshiach.*²

9 But take heed to yourselves: for they shall deliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues you shall be beaten: and you shall be brought before rulers and melechim for My sake, for a testimony to them.

10 *And the Besorah must first be published among all nations.*³

11 But when they shall lead you away, and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what you shall speak, neither do you premeditate: but whatever shall be given you in that hour, that you shall speak: for it is not you that speaks, but the Ruach Hakodesh.

12 Now the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the abba the son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

13 And you shall be hated of all men for My Name's sake: but he that shall endure to the end,⁴ the same shall be saved.

14 But when you shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the navi,⁵ set up where it should not be (let him that reads understand), then let them that be in Yahudah flee to the mountains:

² Known as Jacob's Trouble, or Shivlei HaMashiach – the birth pains of Messiah.

³ All Yisraelite nations, who by Yahshua's time had already begun to be filled with Efrayimites.

15 And let him that is on the housetop not go down into the bayit, neither enter in, to take any thing out of his bayit:

16 And let him that is in the field not turn back again to take up his garment.

17 But woe to them that are with child, and to them that nurse in those days!

18 And make tefillah that your flight is not in the winter.

19 For in those days shall be Tribulation, such as was not from the beginning of the creation that יהוה created to this time, neither shall be ever again.

20 And except that the Master יהוה had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved: but for the elect's sake,¹ whom He has chosen, He has shortened the days.

21 And then if any man shall say to you, Look, here is the Moshiach; or look, He is there; believe him not:

22 For false Moshiachs and false neviim shall rise, and shall show signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the chosen people.

23 But take heed: see, I have foretold you all things.

24 But in those days, after that Tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light,

25 And the cochavim of the shamayim shall fall, and the powers that are in the shamayim shall be shaken.

26 And then shall they see the Ben Ahdahm coming on the clouds with great power and tifereth.²

27 And then shall He send His heavenly malachim, and shall gather together His chosen people from the four winds,³ from the uttermost parts of the earth to the uttermost parts of the shamayim.

28 Now learn a parable of the fig eytz; When her branch is yet tender, and puts out leaves, you know that summer is near:

29 So in like manner, when you shall see these things come to pass, know that it is near, even at the doors.

30 Truly I say to you, That this generation shall not pass, until all these things take place.⁴

31 The shamayim and the earth shall pass away: but My words shall not pass away.⁵

32 But of that day and that hour knows no man, no, not the heavenly malachim who are in the shamayim, neither the Son, but the Abba alone.

33 Take heed, watch and make tefillah: for you know not when the time is.

35 Watch therefore: for you know not when the Master of the Bayit comes, at evening, or at midnight, or at twilight, or in the morning:

36 Lest coming suddenly He finds you sleeping.

37 And what I say to you I say to kol Yisrael, Shomer!

14 After two days was the moed of the Pesach, and of Chag Matzoth: and the head Kohanim and the Sophrim sought how they might seize Him by trickery, and put Him to death.

2 But they said, Not on the moed day,⁶ lest there be an uproar of the people.

3 And being in Beth-Anya in the bayit of Shimon the jar merchant,⁷ as He sat at dinner, there came a woman having an alabaster flask of ointment of pistachio very precious; and she broke the flask, and poured it on His head.

4 And there were some that were displeased among themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pieces of silver, and given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

6 And יהושע said, Leave her alone; why do you trouble her? She has done a tov mitzvah for Me.

7 For you have the poor with you always, and whenever you desire, you may do them tov: but Me you have not always.

8 She has done what she could: she has come before the time to anoint My body for its burial.

9 Truly I say to you, Wherever this Besorah shall be proclaimed throughout the whole olam hazeh, what she has done shall be spoken of for her remembrance.

10 And Yahudah from Qerioth, one of the twelve, went to the head Kohanim, to betray Him to them.

11 And when they heard it, they had gilah, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray Him.

12 And before the first day of Chag Matzoth, when they killed the Pesach,⁸ His talmidim said to Him, Where do You desire that we go and prepare so that You may eat

⁴ The rebirth of the state of Yisrael in 1948 and the recapture of Jerusalem in 1967. The generation that sees these events will be the final generation, or generations.

⁵ Meaning He taught Torah and His words were Torah, for only Torah (Genesis-Revelation) cannot pass away.

⁶ His arrest was scheduled before Passover.

13 And He sent out two of His talmidim, and said to them, Go into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of mayim: follow him.
 14 And wherever he shall go in, say to the owner of the bayit, The Rabbi said, Where is the guest room, where I shall eat the Pesach with My talmidim?
 15 And he will show you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make it ready for us.
 16 And His talmidim went out, and came into the city, and found it as He had said to them: and they made ready the Pesach.
 17 And in the evening He came with the twelve.
 18 And as they sat and did eat, יהושע said, Truly I say to you, One of you who eats with Me shall betray Me.
 19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say to Him one by one, Is it I? And another said, Is it I?
 20 And He answered and said to them, It is one of the twelve that dips with Me in the dish.
 21 The Ben Ahdahm indeed is going, as it is written of Him: but woe to that man by whom the Ben Ahdahm is betrayed! Tov were it for that man if he had never been born.
 22 And as they did eat, יהושע took matzah, and said the bracha, and broke it, and gave it to them, and said, Take, eat: this is My body.
 23 And He took the Cup of Geulah, and when He had given hodu, He gave it to them: and they all drank of it.
 24 And He said to them, This is My dahm of the Brit Chadasha, which is shed for many.
 25 *Truly I say to you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the malchut of יהוה.*²
 26 And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.
 27 And יהושע said to them, All you shall be offended because of Me this night: for it is written, I will smite the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.
 28 But after I am risen, I will go before you into Galil.
 29 But Kepha said to Him, Although all shall be offended; yet I will not.
 30 And יהושע said to him, Truly I say to you, That this day, even in this night, before the cock crows twice, you shall deny Me three different times.
 31 But he spoke the more vehemently, If I should die with You, I still will not deny You in any way. Likewise said all of them.
 32 And they came to a place that was named Gat Sh'manim: and He said to His talmidim, Sit here, while I shall make tefillah.
 33 And He took with Him Kepha and Yaakov and Yochanan, and He began to be very pressed down, and to be deeply distressed;
 34 And said to them, My being is exceedingly sorrowful to death: tarry here, and watch.

² When He consummates the marriage with His bride Yisrael.

35 And He went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and made tefillah that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from Him.
 36 And He said, Abba, Abba, all things are possible for You; take away this cup from Me: nevertheless not what I will, but what You will.
 37 And He came, and found them sleeping, and He said to Kepha, Shimon, are you sleeping? Couldn't you watch just one hour?
 38 Watch and make tefillah, lest you enter into temptation. The human ruach truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.
 39 And again He went away, and made tefillah, and spoke the same words.
 40 And when He returned, He found them asleep again, for their eyes were heavy, neither did they know what to answer Him.
 41 And He came the third time, and said to them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, the hour has come; see, the Ben Ahdahm is betrayed into the hands of sinners.
 42 Rise up, let us go; look, he that betrays Me is here.
 43 And immediately, while He yet spoke, came Yahudah, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and clubs, from the head Kohanim and the Sophrim and the zechanim.
 44 And he that betrayed Him had given them a sign, saying, Whomever I shall kiss, that is Him; take Him, and lead Him away safely.
 45 And as soon as he was come, he went immediately to Him, and said, Rabbi, Rabbi; and kissed Him.
 46 And they laid their hands on Him, and took Him.
 47 And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote an eved of the Kohen HaGadol, and cut off his ear.
 48 And יהושע answered and said to them, Are you come out, against a thief, with swords and with clubs to take Me?
 49 I was daily with you in the Beit HaMikdash teaching, and you took Me not: but the Keetvay HaKadosh must be fulfilled.
 50 And they all forsook Him, and fled.
 51 And there followed Him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast around his naked body; and the men laid hold on him:
 52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.³
 53 And they led יהושע away to the Kohen HaGadol: and with him were assembled all the head Kohanim and the zechanim and the Sophrim.
 54 And Kepha followed Him far off, even into the palace of the Kohen HaGadol: and he sat with the avadim, and warmed himself at the fire.
 55 And the head Kohanim and all the Sanhedrin sought for a witness against יהושע to put Him to death; and found none.
 56 For many bore false witness against Him, but their witness did not agree.
 57 And there arose some, and bore false witness against Him, saying,

³ Probably was Moshe-Markus-Mark.

58 We heard Him say, I will destroy this Beit HaMikdash that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.

59 But neither in this accusation did their witness agree.

60 And the Kohen HaGadol stood up in the midst, and asked יהושע, saying, Do You answer nothing? What is this that they witness against You?

61 But He maintained His silence, and answered nothing. Again the Kohen HaGadol asked Him, and said to Him, Are You The Moshiach, the Son of the Blessed?

62 And יהושע said, I Am: and you shall see the Ben Ahdahm sitting on the Right Hand of Power, ¹ and coming on the clouds of the shamayim.

63 Then the Kohen HaGadol tore his clothes, and said, Why do we need any further witnesses?

64 You have heard the blasphemy: what do you think? And they all condemned Him to be guilty of death.

65 And some began to spit on Him, and to cover His face, and to buffet Him, and to say to Him, Prophecy: and the avadim did strike Him with the palms of their hands.

66 And as Kepha was beneath in the palace, there came one of the eved girls of the Kohen HaGadol:

67 And when she saw Kepha warming himself, she looked at him, and said, And you also were with יהושע of Natzeret.

68 But he denied it, saying, I know Him not; neither do I understand what you say. And he went out into the porch; and the cock crew.

69 And an eved girl saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, He is one of them.

70 And he denied it again. And a little after, they that stood by said again to Kepha, Surely you are one of them: for you are a Galilaean, and your speech is like theirs.

71 But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom you speak.

72 And the second time the cock crowed. And Kepha recalled to mind the word that יהושע said to him, Before the cock crows twice, you shall deny Me three times. And when he thought about it, he wept.²

15 And immediately in the morning the head Kohanim held a consultation with the zechanim and Sophrim and the whole Sanhedrin, and bound יהושע, and carried Him away, and delivered Him to Pilate.

¹ A euphemism for YHWH as it appears in Psalm 110:5. Yahshua pronounced the true Name of Yahweh as He correctly quoted Psalm 110:5 to show that YHWH would sit on the right hand of YHWH. According to Jewish man-made fabrication, at that time this was the only crime labeled as blasphemy. We see that in verses 63-64, that they heard the blasphemy, and we know that Yahshua said nothing other than quote Psalm 110:5. He was killed for saying YHWH's Name. Scripture calls on us to proclaim and declare His Name, just like our Master, even in the face of possible death.

² Such detail found about Peter's behaviors leads scholars to suggest that Peter is really the author behind Moshe/Mark's account.

2 And Pilate asked Him, Are You the Melech of the Yahudim? And He answering said to him, You say it.

3 And the head Kohanim accused Him of many things: but He answered nothing.

4 And Pilate asked Him again, saying, You answer nothing? Look at how many things they witness against You.

5 But יהושע again answered nothing; so that Pilate marveled.

6 Now at that moed he released one prisoner to them, whomever they desired.

7 And there was one named Bar-Abba, who was bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.

8 And the multitude crying aloud began to desire him to do as he had always done for them.

9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Do you wish that I release to you the Melech of the Yahudim?

10 For he knew that the head Kohanim had delivered Him because of envy.

11 But the head Kohanim moved the people, that he should release Bar-Abba to them.

12 And Pilate answered and said again to them, What will you then that I shall do to Him whom you call the Melech of the Yahudim?

13 And they cried out again, Impale Him!

14 Then Pilate said to them, Why, what evil has He done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Impale Him!

15 And so Pilate, willing to gratify the people, released Bar-Abba to them, and delivered יהושע, when he had scourged Him, to be impaled.

16 And the soldiers led Him away into the hall, called Praetorium; and they called together the whole company of soldiers.

17 And they clothed Him with purple, and platted a keter of thorns, and put it around His head, 18 And began to salute Him, Hail, Melech of the Yahudim!

19 And they smote Him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon Him, and bowing their knees they mockingly worshipped Him.

20 And when they had mocked Him, they took off the purple from Him, and put His own clothes on Him, and led Him out to impale Him.

21 And they compelled one Shimon a Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the country, the abba of Alexander and Rufus, to bear His execution stake.

22 And they brought Him to the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull.³

23 And they gave Him wine to drink mingled with myrrh: but He received it not.

24 And when they had impaled Him, they parted His garments, casting lots for them, what every man should take.

25 And it was 9 o'clock in the morning, and they impaled Him.

26 And the inscription of His accusation was written above; Y-AHSHUA H-ANOTZREI W-EMELECH H-AYAHUDIM.¹
 27 And with Him they impaled two thieves; the one on His right hand, and the other on His left.²
 28 And the Katuv was fulfilled, that said, And He was numbered with the transgressors.³
 29 And they that passed by blasphemed Him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah-ha, You that destroys the Beit HaMikdash, and builds it in three days, 30 Save yourself, and come down from the execution stake.
 31 Likewise also the head Kohanim mocking said among themselves with the Sophrim, He saved others; Himself He cannot save.
 32 Let the Moshiah the Melech of Yisrael descend now from the execution stake that we may see and believe. And they that were impaled with Him reviled Him.
 33 And when 12 noon had come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.
 34 And at 3 o'clock in the afternoon יהושע cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli-Yahuweh, Eli-Yahuweh, lemana-shabakthani? Which means, My El-Yahuweh, My El-Yahuweh, why are You keeping Me?⁴
 35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, See, He calls for Eli-Yahu.⁵
 36 And one ran and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave Him to drink, saying, Leave Him alone; let us see whether Eli-Yahu will come to take Him down.
 37 And יהושע cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ruach.
 38 And the veil of the Beit HaMikdash was torn in two⁶ from the top to the bottom.
 39 And when the centurion, who stood opposite Him, saw that He cried out, and gave up the ruach,⁷ he said, Truly this Man was the Son of the Almighty.
 40 There were also women looking on far off: among whom was Miryam of Magdala, and Miryam the eema of

Yaakov the Lesser and of Yoseph, and Shlomo;
 41 Who also, when He was in Galil, followed Him, and attended to Him; and many other women who came up with Him to Yahrushalayim.
 42 And now when the evening had come, because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the Shabbat,⁸
 43 Yoseph of Ramathayim, a prominent Sanhedrin member, who also believed in and waited for the malchut of יהוה, came, and went in boldly to Pilate, and asked for the body of יהושע.
 44 And Pilate marveled that He was already dead: and he called the centurion, and asked Him whether He had already been dead.
 45 And when he knew it from the centurion, he gave the body to Yoseph.
 46 And he bought fine linen, and took Him down, and wrapped Him in linen, and laid Him in a tomb that was cut out of a rock, and rolled a stone to the door of the tomb.
 47 And Miryam from Magdala and Miryam the eema of Yoseph beheld the place where He was laid.

16 And when the Shabbat had past,⁹ Miryam from Magdala, and Miryam the eema of Yaakov, and Shlomo, had bought sweet spices that they might come and anoint Him.

2 And very early in the morning mia-ton-sabbat-on,¹⁰ they came to the tomb at the rising of the sun.¹¹

3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll away for us the stone from the door of the tomb?

4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was already rolled away: for it was very great.

5 And entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were greatly frightened.

6 And he said to them, Be not afraid: You seek יהושע of Natzeret, who was impaled: He is risen; He is not here: see the place where they laid Him.

7 But go your way, tell His talmidim and Kepha that He went before you into Galil: there shall you see Him, as He said to you.

8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the tomb; for

¹⁰ Retained the Greek since that served all best. Greek is mia ton sabbaton, or "one of the Shabbats" not "first day." since the word "first" does not appear in the Greek and the word "day" also is missing. Just after one of the Shabbats, very early, would have been say 6-7 PM, and after this time reckoning, they got to the tomb around the rising of the sun at dawn. Moreover, one of the Shabbats refers to one of the seven weekly Shabbats between the start of the omer count on the 16th of Aviv, ending seven weeks later. they trembled and were amazed: neither said they anything to any man; for they were afraid.¹

9 Now when יהושע had risen early mia-ton-sabbat-on,² He appeared first to Miryam from Magdala, out of whom He had cast seven shadim.

10 And she went and told them that had been with Him, as they mourned and wept.

11 And they, when they had heard that He was alive, and had been seen by her, they believed not.

12 After that He appeared in another form to two of them, as they walked, and went into the country.

13 And they went and told it to the rest: neither did the rest believe them.

14 Afterward He appeared to the eleven as they sat to eat, and upbraided them for their unbelief and hardness of lev, because they believed not those who had seen Him after He had risen.

15 And He said to them, Go into all the olam hazeh, and proclaim the Besorah to every creature.

16 He that believes and is immersed shall be saved; but he that believes not shall be condemned.

17 And these signs shall follow them that believe; In My Name shall they cast out shadim; they shall speak with new tongues;

8 And it came to pass, that while he served in the kohen's office before יהוה in the order of his division,
9 According to the custom of the kohen's office, he was chosen by lot to burn incense when he went into the Beit HaMikdash of the Master יהוה.
10 And the whole multitude of the people were making tefillot outside at the time of incense.

¹ The book of Luke was written originally to Theophilus, who served as High Priest from 37 to 42 C.E. Theophilus was both a priest and a Sadducee. 18 And Zacharyah said to the heavenly malach, How shall I know this? For I am an old man, and my wife advanced in years.
19 And the heavenly malach answering said to him, I am Gavriel, that stands in the shechinah of יהוה; and am sent to speak to you, and to show you this tov news.
20 And, see, you shall be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because you believed not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.
21 And the people waited for Zacharyah, and marveled that he waited so long in the Beit HaMikdash.
22 And when he came out, he could not speak to them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the Beit HaMikdash: for he beckoned to them, and remained dumb.
23 And it came to pass, that, as soon as the days of his service were accomplished, he departed to his own bayit.
24 And after those days his wife Elisheva conceived, and hid herself five months, saying,
25 The Master יהוה has dealt with me in the days in which He looked on me, to take away my reproach among men.
26 And in the sixth month the heavenly malach Gavriel was sent from יהוה to a city of Galil, named Natzeret, 27 To a virgin engaged to a man whose name was Yoseph, from the bayit of Dawid; and the virgin's name was Miryam.
28 And the heavenly malach came in to her, and said, Greetings, you that are highly favored, יהוה is with you: favored are you among women.
29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and wondered in her mind what manner of greeting this should be.
30 And the heavenly malach said to her, Fear not, Miryam: for you have found favor with יהוה.
31 And, see, you shall conceive in your womb, and bring forth a Son, and shall call His Name יהושע.
32 He shall be great and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Master יהוה אלהא shall give to Him the kesay of His abba Dawid:⁴
33 And He shall reign over Beit Yaakov le-olam-va-ed; and of His malchut there shall be no end.⁵
34 Then said Miryam to the heavenly malach, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

of El-Elyon shall overshadow you: therefore also that Kadosh-One which shall be born from you shall be called the Son of יהוה.

36 And, see, your cousin Elisheva, she has also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren.

37 For with יהוה nothing shall be impossible.

38 And Miryam said, See the female eved of the Master יהוה; be it to me according to your word. And the heavenly malach departed from her.

39 And Miryam arose in those days, and went into the hill country with speed, into a city of Yahudah;

40 And entered into the bayit of Zacharyah, and greeted Elisheva.

41 And it came to pass, that, when Elisheva heard the greeting of Miryam, the baby leaped in her womb; and Elisheva was filled with the Ruach Hakodesh:

42 And she spoke out with a loud voice, and said, Blessed are you among women, and favored is the fruit of your womb.

43 And who am I that the eema of my Master should come to me?

44 For see, as soon as the voice of your greeting sounded in my ears, the baby leaped in my womb for simcha.

45 And favored is she that believed: for there shall be an accomplishing of those things that were told her from the Master יהוה.

46 And Miryam said, My being does magnify the Master יהוה,

57 Now Elisheva's full time came that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son.

Zacharyah, after the name of his abba.⁴

60 And his eema answered and said, Not so; but he shall be called Yochanan.

61 And they said to her, There is no one from your mishpacha that is called by this name.

62 And they made signs to his abba, how he would have him called.

63 And he asked for a writing tablet, and wrote, saying, His name is Yochanan. And they all marveled.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spoke, and praised יהוה.

65 And fear came on all that dwelt all around them: and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of province of Yahudah.

66 And all they that heard them laid them up in their levim, saying, What manner of boy shall this be! And the hand of the Master יהוה was with him.

67 And his abba Zacharyah was filled with the Ruach Hakodesh, and prophesied, saying,

68 Blessed be the Master יהוה the אלהא of Yisrael; for He has visited and redeemed His people,

69 And has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the bayit of His eved Dawid;

3 And all went to be registered, every one to his own city.
4 And Yoseph also went up from Galil, out of the city of Natzeret, into the province of Yahudah, to the city of Dawid, which is called Beth-Lechem; because he was of the bayit and lineage of Dawid:
5 To be registered with Miryam his engaged wife, being great with child.
6 And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were filled that she should give birth.
7 And she brought forth her bachor Son, and wrapped Him in swaddling clothes, ² and laid Him in a sukkah-feeding trough; because there was no room for them in the family dwelling. ³
8 And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

13 And suddenly there was with the heavenly malach a multitude of the heavenly malachim praising יהוה, and saying,

15 And it came to pass, as the heavenly malachim were gone away from them into the shamayim, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go to Beth-Lechem, and see this thing which has come to pass, which the Master יהוה has made known to us.
16 And they came with speed, and found Miryam, and Yoseph, and the baby lying in a sukkah-feeding trough.
17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.
18 And all they that heard it marveled at those things which were told them by the shepherds.
19 But Miryam kept all these things, and pondered them in her lev.

27 And he came by the Ruach into the Beit HaMikdash: and when the parents brought in the Child יהושע, to do for Him after the command of the Torah, 39 And when they had performed all things according to the Torah of the Master יהוה, they returned into Galil, to their own city Natzeret.

40 And the Child grew, and became strong in Ruach, filled with chochmah; and the rachamim of יהוה was upon Him.

41 Now His parents went to Yahrushalayim every year at the moed of the Pesach.

42 And when He was twelve years old, they went up to Yahrushalayim for the moed.

43 And when they had fulfilled the days of Chag Matzoth, as they returned, the Child יהושע stayed behind in Yahrushalayim; and Yoseph and His eema did not know it.

44 But thinking He was with the children in their company, they went a day's journey; and they sought Him among their relatives and acquaintances.

45 And when they found Him not, they turned back again to Yahrushalayim, seeking Him.

46 And it came to pass, that after three days they found Him in the Beit HaMikdash, sitting in the midst of the Torah teachers, both hearing them, and asking them questions.

47 And all that heard Him were astonished at His binah and answers.

48 And when they saw Him, they were amazed: and His eema said to Him, Son, why have You dealt with us like this? See, Your abba and I have sought You anxiously.

49 And He said to them, How is it that you sought Me? Did you not know that I must be about My Abba's business?

50 And they understood not the saying that He spoke to them.

51 And He went down with them, and came to Natzeret, and was subject to them: but His eema kept all these sayings in her lev.

3 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Kaiser, Pontius Pilate being governor of the province of Yahudah, and Herod being district ruler of Galil, and his brother Philip district ruler of Yetur and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lusaias the district ruler of Abilene, 2 Annas and Caiaphas being the High Kohanim, the word of יהוה came to Yochanan the son of Zacharyah in the wilderness.

3 And he came into all the country around Yarden, proclaiming the mikvah of teshuvah for the remission of sins;

4 As it is written in the scroll of the words of Yeshayahu the navi, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare the way of the Master יהוה, make His paths straight.

5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth; 6 And all flesh shall see the salvation of יהוה.

7 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be immersed by him, O generation of vipers, who has warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of teshuvah, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Avraham as our abba: for I say to you, That יהוה is able of these stones to raise up children to Avraham.²

9 And now also the axe is laid to the root of the eytzim: every eytz therefore which brings not forth tov fruit is cut down, and thrown into the fire.

10 And the people asked him, saying, What shall we do then?

11 He answered and said to them, He that has two coats, let him impart to him that has none; and he that has food, let him do likewise.

12 Then came also tax collectors to be immersed, and said to him, Teacher, what shall we do?

13 And he said to them, take no more than that which is appointed to you.

14 And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said to them, Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely; and be content with your wages.

15 And as the people were in expectation, and all men wondered in their levim about Yochanan, whether he were the Moshiach, or not;

16 Yochanan answered, saying to them all, I indeed mikvah you with mayim; but one mightier than I is coming, the straps of whose sandals I am not worthy to unloose: He shall mikvah you with the Ruach Hakodesh and with fire:

17 Whose winnowing fork is in His hand, and He will thoroughly purge His floor,³ and will gather the wheat into His storehouse; but the chaff He will burn with unquenchable fire.

18 And many other things in his exhortation he proclaimed to the people.

19 But Herod the district ruler, being rebuked by him for Herodias his brother Philip's wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done, 20 Added this also to them, that he locked up Yochanan in prison.

21 Now when all the people were immersed, it came to pass, that יהושע also being immersed, and making tefillot, the shamayim were opened,

22 And the Ruach Hakodesh descended in a bodily shape like a yonah upon Him, and a voice came from the shamayim, which said, You are My beloved Son; in You I am well pleased.

4 And יהושע being full of the Ruach Hakodesh returned from the Yarden, and was led by the

Ruach into the wilderness,

2 Being forty days tested of s.a.tan. And in those days He did eat nothing: and when they were ended, He afterward was hungry.

3 And s.a.tan said to Him, If You are the Son of אלהה, command this stone that it be made lechem.

4 And יהושע answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by lechem alone, but by every word of יהוה.

5 And s.a.tan, taking Him up into a high mountain, showed Him all the malchutim of the olam hazeh in a moment of time.

6 And s.a.tan said to Him, All this power will I give You, and the tifereth of them: for that is delivered to me; and to whomever I will, I give it.

7 If You therefore will worship me, all shall be Yours.

8 And יהושע answered and said to him, Get behind Me, s.a.tan: for it is written, You shall worship יהוה your אלהה, and Him only shall you serve.

9 And he brought Him to Yahrushalayim, and set Him on a pinnacle of the Beit HaMikdash, and said to Him, If You are the Son of אלהה, cast yourself down from here:

10 For it is written, He shall give His heavenly malachim charge over You, to keep You:

11 And in their hands they shall bear You up, lest at any time You dash Your foot against a stone.

12 And יהושע answering said to him, It is said, You shall not try the Master יהוה your אלהה.

13 And when s.a.tan had ended all of the trial, he departed from Him for a while.

14 And יהושע returned in the power of the Ruach into Galil: and there was published His fame through all the regions all around.⁴

15 And He taught in their synagogues, being esteemed by all.

16 And He came to Natzeret, where He had been brought up: and, according to His practice, He went into the synagogue on Shabbat, and stood up to read.

17 And there was delivered to Him the Scroll of the navi Yeshayahu. And when He had opened the scroll, He found the place where it was written,

18 The Ruach of the Master יהוה is upon Me, because He has anointed Me to proclaim the Besorah to the poor; He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those that are bruised,⁵

19 To proclaim the acceptable year of the Master יהוה.

20 And He rolled up the scroll, and He gave it again to the shamesh, and sat down. And the eyes of all of those that were in the synagogue were glued on Him.

21 And He began to say to them, *This day is this Katuv fulfilled in your ears.*⁶

³ Peshitta.

⁴ In the area of the northern tribes of Efrayim.

⁶ The official announcement that Yisrael's nightmare of national exile was over, and that the regathering process had begun that very day in that very synagogue.

22 And all bore Him witness, and wondered at the favorable words that proceeded out of His mouth. And they said, Is not this Moshiaich Ben Yoseph? ¹

23 And He said to them, You will surely say to Me this mishle, Physician, heal Yourself: whatever we have heard done in Kfar Nachum, do also here in Your country.

24 And He said, Truly I say to you, No navi is accepted in his own country.

25 But I tell you the emet; many widows were in Beit Yisrael ² in the days of Eli-Yahu, when the shamayim were shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land;

26 But to none of them was Eli-Yahu sent, except to Tsarephath, a city of Tsidon, to a woman that was a widow.

27 And many lepers were in Beit Yisrael in the time of Elisha the navi; and none of them was cleansed, except Naaman the Aramean.

28 And all those in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath,

29 And rose up, and threw Him out of the city, and led Him to the brow of the hill on which their city was built, that they might cast Him down headlong. ³

30 But He passing through the midst of them went His way, ⁴

31 And came down to Kfar Nachum, a city of Galil, and He taught them on the Shabbat.

32 And they were astonished at His teaching: for His word was with authority.

33 And in the synagogue there was a man, who had an unclean ruach of a shad, and cried out with a loud voice,

² The House of Yisrael as seen in Old Syriac manuscript is telling. Rather than simply "Yisrael," Yahshua's pronouncement was that just as YHWH visited the widow woman from the House of Yisrael, or ten tribes, and just as YHWH visited Naaman from the Arameans, among whom Efrayim mixed, He would come and rescue those same ten tribes and deliver them, using these two figures as examples of His mission as Messiah Son of Joseph. The response of brother Judah can be seen in verses 28-29.

⁴ Regardless of the opponents of two-house restoration, they will not deter Yahshua who merely goes about His way shown Him by the Father.

34 Saying, Leave us alone; what have we to do with You, יהושע of Natzeret? Have You come to destroy us? I know You who You are; the Kadosh-One of יהוה.

35 And יהושע rebuked him, saying, Be silent, and come out of him. And when the s.a.tan had thrown him in their midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 And they were all amazed, and spoke among themselves, saying, What a word is this! For with authority and power He commands the shadim, and they come out.

37 And His fame went out into every place from that country ⁵ all around.

38 And He arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Shimon's bayit. And Shimon's eema-in-law was taken with a great fever; and they asked Him concerning her.

39 And He stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she stood and waited on them.

40 Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them to Him; and He laid His hands on each one of them, and healed them.

41 And shadim also came out of many, crying out, and saying, You are the Moshiaich the Son of מלכה. And He rebuking them allowed them not to speak: for they knew that He was The Moshiaich.

42 And when it was day, He departed and went into a desert place: and the people sought Him, and came to Him, and tried to keep Him from leaving them.

43 And He said to them, I must proclaim the malchut of יהוה to other cities ⁶ also: for that reason I am sent.

44 And He proclaimed in the synagogues of Galil. ⁷

⁵ And it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon Him to hear the word of יהוה, He stood by the Lake of Gennesaret,

2 And saw two boats standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And He entered into one of the boats, which was Shimon's, and asked that he would pull out a little from the land. And He sat down, and taught the people out of the ship. ⁸

4 Now when He had ceased speaking, He said to Shimon, Pull out into the deep, and let down your nets for a catch.

5 And Shimon answering said to Him, Master, we have toiled all night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at Your word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had this done, they caught a great multitude of fishes: and their net broke.

7 And they beckoned to their partners, who were in the other ship, that they should come to help them. And they came, and filled both the boats,

⁵ The north was already considered a different country in Yahshua's day.

so that they began to sink.¹

8 When Shimon Kepha saw it, he fell down at יהושע's knees saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Master.

9 For he was astonished, and all that were with Him, at the catch of the fishes which they had taken:²

10 And so was also Yaakov, and Yochanan, the sons of Zavdi, who were partners with Shimon. And יהושע said to Shimon, *Fear not; from now on you shall catch men.*³

11 And when they had brought their boats to land, they forsook all, and followed Him.

12 And it came to pass, when He was in a certain city, see a man full of leprosy: who seeing יהושע fell on his face, and asked Him, saying, Master, if You will, You can make me clean.

13 And He put forth His hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.

14 And He ordered him to tell no man, But go, and show yourself to the kohen, and offer for your cleansing, what Moshe commanded, as a testimony to them.

15 But all the more His fame went all around: and great multitudes⁴ came together⁵ to hear, and to be healed by Him of their infirmities.

16 And He withdrew Himself into the wilderness, and made tefillah.

17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as He was teaching, that there were Prushim and teachers of the Torah sitting by, who were come out of every town of Galil, and the province of Yahudah, and Yahrushalayim: and the power of the Master יהוה was present to heal them.

18 And, see, men brought in a quilt a man who was taken with a paralysis: and they sought a means to bring him in, and to lay him before Him.

19 And when they could not find how they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went up to the roof, and let him down through the tiling with his quilt into the midst before יהושע.

20 And when He saw their emunah, He said to him, Man, your sins are forgiven you.

21 And the Sophrim and the Prushim began to reason, saying, Who is this who speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but אללה alone?

22 But when יהושע perceived their thoughts, He answering said to them, What are you reasoning in your levim?

23 Which is easier, to say, Your sins are forgiven you; or to say, Rise up and walk?

24 But that you may know that the Ben Ahdahm has power upon earth to forgive sins, (He said to the sick of the paralysis,) I say to you, Arise, and take up your quilt, and go into your bayit.

25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that on which he lay, and departed to his own bayit, esteeming יהושע.

26 And they were all amazed, and they esteemed יהוה, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things today.

27 And after these things He went forth, and saw a tax collector, named Lewi, sitting at the tax office: and He said to him, Follow Me.

28 And he left all, rose up, and followed Him.

29 And Lewi made Him a great reception in his own bayit: and there was a great company of tax collectors and of others that sat down with them.

30 But the Sophrim and Prushim grumbled against His talmidim, saying, Why do You eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?

31 And יהושע answering said to them, They that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick.

32 *I came not to call the tzadikim, but sinners to teshuvah.*⁶

33 And they said to Him, Why do the talmidim of Yochanan fast often, and make tefillot, and likewise the talmidim of the Prushim; but Yours eat and drink?

34 And He said to them, Can you make the children of the Bridegroom fast, while the bridegroom is with them?

35 But the days will come, when the Bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

36 And He spoke also a parable to them; No man puts a piece of a new garment upon an old; otherwise the new one makes a tear, and also the piece that was taken out of the new one does not match the old.

37 And no man puts new wine into old wineskins, since then the new wine will burst the wineskins, and be spilled, and the wineskins shall perish.

38 *But new wine must be put into new wineskins; and both are preserved.*⁷

39 *No man also having drunk old wine immediately desires new: for he said, The old is better.*⁸

6 And it came to pass on the second Shabbat after the first, that He went through the corn fields; and His talmidim plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

2 And certain of the Prushim said to them, Why do You do that which is prohibited in Torah on the Shabbat?

3 And יהושע answering them said, Have you not read so much as this, what Dawid did, when he was hungry, and they who were with him;

4 How he went into the Bayit of the Master יהוה, and did take and eat the Lechem ha Panayim,¹ and gave also to those that were with him; which it is not lawful to eat except for the Kohanim alone?²

5 And He said to them, *Therefore the Ben Ahdahm is Master also of the Shabbat.*³

6 And it came to pass also on another Shabbat, that He entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered.

7 And the Sophrim and Prushim watched Him, whether He would heal on the Shabbat; that they might find an accusation against Him.

8 But He knew their thoughts, and said to the man who had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth.

9 Then said יהושע to them, *I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on the Shabbat to do tov, or to do evil? To save chayim, or to destroy it?*⁴

10 And looking all around upon them all, He said to the man, Stretch forth your hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

11 And they were filled with bitterness; and discussed with each other what they might do to יהושע.

12 And it came to pass in those days, that He went out into a mountain to make tefillah, and continued all night in tefillah יהרהר.

13 And when it was day, He called to Himself His talmidim: and from them He chose twelve, whom also He named shlichim.⁵

14 Shimon (whom He also named Kepha) and Andri his brother, Yaakov and Yochanan, Philip and Bartholomi, 15 Mattityahu and Toma, Yaakov the son of Alphai, and Shimon called Zealot, 16 And Yahudah the brother of Yaakov, and Yahudah from Qerioth, who also was the traitor.

17 And He came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the crowd of His talmidim, and a great multitude of people out of all the provinces of Yahudah and Yahrushalayim, and from the sea coast of Tsor and Tsidon, who came to hear Him, and to be healed of their diseases;

18 And they that were vexed with shadim: and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought to touch Him: for there went power out of Him, and healed them all.

20 And He lifted up His eyes on His talmidim, and said, Blessed are you poor: for yours is the malchut of יהרהר.

21 Blessed are you that hunger now: for you shall be filled. Blessed are you that weep now: for you shall laugh.

22 Blessed are you, when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and publish your names as evil, for the Ben Ahdahm's sake.

23 Rejoice in that day, and leap for simcha: for, see, your reward is great in the shamayim: for in the like manner did their ahvot to the neviim.

24 But woe to you that are rich! For you have received your consolation.

25 Woe to you that are full! For you shall hunger. Woe to you that laugh now! For you shall mourn and weep.

26 Woe to you, when all men shall speak well of you! For so did their ahvot to the false neviim.

27 But I say to you who hear, Love your enemies, do tov to them who hate you,

28 Bless them that curse you, and make tefillah for them who despitefully use you and burden you.

29 And to him that smites you on one cheek offer also the other; and he that takes away your robe forbid him not to take your shirt also.

30 Give to every man that asks from you; and of him that takes away your goods do not ask them to return it.

31 And as you would desire that men should do to you, do also to them likewise.

32 For if you only love them who love you, what blessing do you have? For sinners also love those that love them.

33 And if you only do tov to them who do tov to you, what blessing have you? For even sinners also do the same.

34 And if you lend to them from whom you hope to receive again, what blessing have you? For sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

35 But love you your enemies, and do tov, and lend, hoping for nothing in return; and your reward shall be great, and you shall be the children of El-Elyon: for He is kind to the thankless and to the evil.

36 Be therefore full of rachamim, as your Abba also is full of rachamim.

37 Judge not, and you shall not be judged: condemn not, and you shall not be condemned: forgive, and you shall be forgiven:

38 Give, and it shall be given to you; tov measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure with which you measure it shall be measured back to you again.

39 And He spoke a parable to them, Can the blind lead the blind? Shall they not both fall into the ditch?

40 The talmid is not above His Master: but every one that is perfect shall be as His Master.

41 And why do you see the mote that is in your brother's eye, but perceive not the beam that is in your own eye?

42 *Or, how can you say to your brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in your eye, when you yourself see not the beam that is in your own eye? You hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of your own eye, and then shall you see clearly to pull out the mote that is in your brother's eye.*⁶

44 For every eytz is known by its own fruit. For from thorns men do not gather figs, nor from a bramble bush do they gather grapes.

45 A tov man out of the tov treasure of his lev brings forth that which is tov; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his lev brings forth that which is evil: for out of the abundance of the lev his mouth speaks.

46 *And why do you call Me, Master, Master, and do not the things that I say?*¹

47 *Whoever comes to Me, and hears My sayings, and does them, I will show you to whom he is like:*²

48 *He is like a man who built a bayit, and dug deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that bayit, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock.*³

49 *But he that hears, and does not what I say, is like a man that built a bayit upon the earth without a foundation; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that bayit was great.*⁴

7 Now when He had ended all His sayings in the audience of the people, He entered into Kfar Nachum.

2 And a certain centurion's eved, who was dear to him, was sick, and ready to die.

3 And when he heard of יהושע, he sent zechanim of the Yahudim, asking Him that He would come and heal his eved.

4 And when they came to יהושע, they asked Him immediately, saying, That he was worthy for whom He should do this:

5 For he loves our nation, and he has built us a synagogue.

6 Then יהושע went with them. And when He was now not far from the bayit, the centurion sent chaverim to Him, saying to Him, Master, trouble not yourself: for I am not worthy that You should enter under my roof:

7 Therefore neither thought I myself worthy to come to You: but just say Your word, and my eved shall be healed.

8 For I also am a man set under authority,⁵ having under me soldiers, and I say to one, Go, and he goes; and to another, Come, and he comes; and to my eved, Do this, and he does it.

⁵ The centurion perceived well, that even Yahshua was under The Father's authority, who remains the Greater YHWH.

9 When יהושע heard these things, He marveled at him, and turned around, and said to the people that followed Him, *I say to you, I have not found so great emunah, no, not in Yisrael.*⁶

10 And they that were sent, returning to the bayit, found the eved whole that had been sick.

11 And it came to pass the day after, that He went into a city called Naim; and many of His talmidim went with Him, and many people.

12 Now when He came near to the gate of the city, see, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his eema, and she was a widow: and many people of the city were with her.

13 And when יהושע saw her, He had compassion on her, and said to her, Weep not.

14 And He came and touched the casket: and they that carried him stood still. And He said, Young man, I say to you, Arise.

15 And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And He delivered him to his eema.

16 And there came a fear on all: and they esteemed יהוה, saying, That a great Navi has risen up among us; and, That אלהים has visited His people.

17 And this news about Him went forth throughout all the province of Yahudah, and throughout the entire region all around.

18 And the talmidim of Yochanan showed him of all these things.

19 And Yochanan calling to him two of His talmidim⁷ sent them to יהושע, saying, Are You He that should come? Or, do we look for another?

20 When the men were come to Him, they said, Yochanan ha Matbeel has sent us to You, saying, Are You He that should come? Or, should we look for another?⁸

21 And in that same hour He cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and shadim; and to many that were blind He gave them sight.⁹

22 Then יהושע answering said to them, Go your way, and tell Yochanan what things you have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and to the poor the Besorah is proclaimed.

23 *And favored is he, who does not stumble because of Me.*¹⁰

36 And one of the Prushim desired that He would eat with him. And He went into the Prush's bayit, and sat down to eat.

37 And, see, a woman in the city, who was a sinner, when she knew that יהושע sat to eat in the Prush's bayit, brought an alabaster vase of oil,

38 and stood at His feet behind Him weeping, and began to wash His feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed His feet, and anointed them with oil.

39 Now when the Prush who had invited Him saw it, he spoke within himself, saying, This Man, if He were a navi, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that touches Him: for she is a sinner.

40 And יהושע answering said to him, Shimon, I have something to say to you. And he said, Master, say it.

41 There was a certain creditor who had two debtors: the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty.

42 *And when they had nothing to pay, he forgave them both. Tell Me therefore, which of them will love him most?*²

43 Shimon answered and said, I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And He said to him, You have rightly judged.

44 And He turned to the woman, and said to Shimon, See this woman? I entered into your bayit, you gave Me no mayim for My feet: but she has washed My feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

45 You gave Me no kiss: but this woman since the time I came in has not ceased to kiss My feet.

46 My head with oil you did not anoint: but this woman has anointed My feet with perfume.

47 Therefore I say to you, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loves little.

48 *And He said to her, Your sins are forgiven.*³

49 And they that sat at the shulchan with Him began to say within themselves, Who is this that forgives sins also?

50 And He said to the woman, Your emunah has saved you; go in shalom.

8 And it came to pass afterward, that He went throughout every city and village, proclaiming and showing the Besorah of the malchut of יהוה: and the twelve were with Him,

2 And certain women, who had been healed of shadim and infirmities, Miryam called Magdala, out of whom went seven shadim,

3 And Yochana the wife of Chuza Herod's manager, and Shoshanna, and many others, who attended to Him from their substance.

4 And when many people were gathered together, and had come to Him out of every city, He spoke by a parable:

5 A sower went out to sow his zera: and as he sowed, some fell by the wayside; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.

6 And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

8 And some fell on tov ground, and sprang up, and produced fruit a hundredfold. And when He had said these things, He cried, He that has ears to hear let him hear.

9 And His talmidim asked Him, What is this parable about?

10 And He said, To you it is given to know the mysteries of the malchut of יהוה: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

11 Now the parable is this: The zera is the word of יהוה.

12 Those by the wayside are those that hear; then comes s.a.tan, and takes away the word out of their levim, lest they should believe and be saved.

13 Those on the rock are those, who, when they hear, receive the word with simcha; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of trial fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns are they, who, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with the cares and riches and pleasures of this chayim, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that zera on the tov ground are those, who in an honest and tov lev, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

16 No man, when he has lit a candle, covers it with a

18 Be careful therefore how you hear: for whoever has, to him shall be given; and whoever has not, from him shall be taken even that which he seems to have.

19 Then came to Him His eema and His brothers, and could not come to Him because of the crowd.

20 And it was told to Him by certain men who said, Your eema and Your brothers stand outside, desiring to see You.

21 And He answered and said to them, *My eema and My Yisraelite brothers are those who hear the word of יהוה, and are doing it.*²

22 Now it came to pass on a certain day, that He went into a ship with His talmidim: and He said to them, Let us go over to the other side of the lake. And they set out.

23 But as they sailed He fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with mayim, and were in jeopardy.

24 And they came to Him, and awoke Him, saying, Master, Master, we perish. Then He arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the mayim: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

25 And He said to them, Where is your emunah? And they being afraid wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this; for He commands even the winds and mayim, and they obey Him?

26 And they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is opposite Galil.

27 And when He went forth to land, there met Him out of the province a certain man, who had a shad a long time, and wore no clothes, neither stayed in any bayit, but in the tombs.

28 When he saw יהושע, he cried out, and fell down before Him, and with a loud voice said, What do we have in common, יהושע, Son of El-Elyon? I beg You, torment me not.

29 For He had commanded the shad to come out of the man. For often it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in shackles; and he broke the bands, and was driven by the shad into the wilderness.

30 And יהושע asked him, saying, What is your name? And he said, Legion: because many shadim were entered into him.

31 And they asked Him that He would not command them to go out into the bottomless pit.

32 And there was there a herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they asked Him that He would allow them to attack them. And He allowed them.

33 Then went the shadim out of the man, and attacked the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked.

34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country.

35 Then they went out to see what was done; and came to יהושע, and found the man, out of whom the shadim had departed, sitting at the feet of יהושע, clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it told them by what means he that was possessed of the shadim was healed.

37 Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes all around asked Him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and He went up into the ship, and returned back again.

38 Now the man out of whom the shadim were departed asked Him if he might stay with Him: but יהושע sent him away, saying,

39 Return to your own bayit, and show what great things יהוה has done to you. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city what great things יהושע had done to him.³

40 And it came to pass, that, when יהושע returned, the people gladly received Him: for they were all waiting for Him.

41 And, see, there came a man named Yair, and he was a shamesh of the synagogue: and he fell down at יהושע's feet, and asked Him to come into his bayit:

42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay dying. But as He went the people thronged Him.⁴

43 And a woman having an issue of dahm twelve years, who had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed by any,⁵

44 Came behind Him, and touched the tzitzit of His garment:⁶ and immediately her issue of dahm stopped.

45 And יהושע said, Who touched Me? When all denied it, Kepha and they that were with Him said, Master, the multitudes throng You and press You, and yet You ask, Who touched Me?

46 And יהושע said, Somebody has touched Me: for I perceive that power has gone out of Me.

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hidden,⁷ she came trembling, and falling down before Him, she declared to Him before all the people the reason she had touched Him and how she was healed immediately.

48 And He said to her, *Daughter, be of tov comfort: your emunah has made you whole; go in shalom.*⁸

49 While He yet spoke, there came one from the shamesh of the synagogue's bayit, saying to him, Your daughter is dead; trouble not the Master.¹

50 But when יהושע heard it, He answered him, saying, *Fear not: believe only, and she shall be made whole.*²

51 And when He came into the bayit, He allowed no man to go in, except Kepha, and Yaakov, and Yochanan, and the abba and the eema of the girl.

52 And all wept, and mourned her: but He said, *Weep not; she is not dead, but only sleeping.*³

53 And they laughed Him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54 And He put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Young girl, arise.

55 And her ruach returned, and she arose immediately: and He commanded them to give her something to eat.

56 And her parents were astonished: but He ordered them that they should tell no man what was done.

9 Then He called His twelve talmidim⁴ together, and gave them power and authority over all shadim, and to cure diseases.

2 And He sent them to proclaim the malchut of יהוה, and to heal the sick.

3 And He said to them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staffs, nor bags, neither lechem, neither money; neither have two coats apiece.

4 And whatever bayit you enter into, there abide, and then depart.

5 And whoever will not receive you, when you go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a witness against them.

6 And they departed, and went through the towns, proclaiming the Besorah, and healing everywhere.

7 Now Herod the district ruler heard about all that was done by Him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said by some, that Yochanan was risen from the dead;

8 And by some, that Eli-Yahu had appeared; and by others, that one of the old neviim had risen again.

9 And Herod said, Yochanan have I beheaded: but who is this, of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see Him.

10 And the shlichim, when they had returned, told Him all that they had done. And He took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Beth-Saida.

11 And the people, when they knew it, followed Him: and He received them, and spoke to them of the malchut of יהוה, and healed them that had need of healing.

⁴ For the 12 tribes.

12 And when the day began to wane, then came the twelve, and said to Him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country all around, and lodge, and get food: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But He said to them, You give them to eat. And they said, We have only five loaves and two fishes;⁵ unless we go and buy food for all this people.

14 For there were about five thousand men. And He said to His talmidim, *Make them sit down by fifties in a company.*⁶

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16 Then He took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to the shamayim, He said the bracha, and broke them, and gave to the talmidim to set before the multitude.⁷

17 And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up from the fragments that remained to them twelve baskets.⁸

18 And it came to pass, as He was alone making tefillot, His talmidim were with Him: and He asked them, saying, Who do the people say that I am?

19 They answering said, Yochanan ha Matbeel; but some say, Eli-Yahu; and others say, that one of the old neviim has risen again.

20 He said to them, But who do you say that I am? Kepha answering said, The Moshiach of יהוה.

21 And He strictly ordered them, and commanded them to tell this to no man.

22 Saying, The Ben Ahdahm must suffer many things, and be rejected by the zechanim and chief Kohanim and Sophrim, and be killed, and be raised the third day.

23 And He said to them all, If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his execution stake daily, and follow Me.

24 For whoever will save his chayim shall lose it: but whoever will lose his chayim for My sake, the same shall save it.

25 For what is a man advantaged, if he gains the whole olam hazeh, and loses himself, or is thrown away?

26 For whoever shall be ashamed of Me and of My words, of him shall the Ben Ahdahm be ashamed, when He shall come with the tifereth of His Abba, accompanied by the kadosh heavenly malachim.

27 But I tell you the emet, there are some standing here, who shall not taste of death, until they see the malchut of יהוה.

28 And it came to pass about eight days after these sayings, He took Kepha and Yochanan and Yaakov, and went up into a mountain to make tefillah.

29 And as He made tefillah, the appearance of His countenance was altered, and His garment was white and dazzling.

30 And, see, there talked with Him two men, who were Moshe and Eli-Yahu:

31 Who appeared in tifereth, and spoke of His death that He would accomplish at Yahrushalayim.

32 But Kepha and they that were with Him were heavy with sleep: and when they awoke, they saw His tifereth, and the two men that stood with Him.

33 And it came to pass, as they departed from Him, Kepha said to יהושע, Master, it is tov for us to be here: and let us make three sukkot; one for You, and one for Moshe, and one for Eli-Yahu: not knowing what he said.

34 While He spoke, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud.

35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, *This is My beloved Son: Hear Him.*¹

36 And when the voice was past, יהושע was found alone. And they kept it quiet, and told no man in those days any of those things that they had seen.

37 And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, many people met Him.

38 And, see, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beg You, look upon my son: for he is my only child.

39 And, see, a ruach seizes him, and he suddenly cries out; and it convulses him with foaming, and it hardly departs from him bruising him.

40 And I asked Your talmidim to cast it out; and they could not.

41 And יהושע answering said, O unbelieving and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and put up with you? Bring your son here.

42 And as he was coming, the shad threw him down, and tore at him. And יהושע rebuked the shad, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his abba.

43 And they were all amazed at the mighty power of יהוה. But while they all marveled every one at all the things that יהושע did, He said to His talmidim, 44 Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Ben Ahdahm shall be delivered into the hands of men.

45 But they understood not this saying, and it was hidden from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask Him about that saying.

46 Then there arose a dispute among them, which of them should be greatest.

47 And יהושע, perceiving the thoughts of their levim, took a child, and set him by His side, 48 And said to them, Whoever shall receive this child in My Name receives Me: and whoever shall receive Me receives Him that sent Me: for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

49 And Yochanan answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out shadim in Your Name; and we rebuked him, because he is not with us as Your follower.

50 And יהושע said to him, Forbid him not: for he that is not against us is for us.

51 And it came to pass, when the time had come that He should be offered up, He prepared His face to go to Yahrushalayim,

52 And sent messengers before His face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Shomronites, to make ready for Him.²

53 And they did not receive Him, because His face was directed as though He would go to Yahrushalayim.³

54 And when His talmidim Yaakov and Yochanan saw this, they said, Master, let You that we command fire to come down from the shamayim, and consume them, even as Eli-Yahu did?

55 But He turned, and rebuked them, and said, You know not what manner of ruach you are of.

56 For the Ben Ahdahm has not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

57 And it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said to Him, Master, I will follow You wherever You go.

58 And יהושע said to him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Ben Ahdahm has nowhere to lay His head.

59 And He said to another, Follow Me. But he said, Master, allow me first to go and bury my abba.

60 יהושע said to him, Let the dead bury their dead: but you go and proclaim the malchut of יהוה.

61 And another also said, Master, I will follow You; but let me first entrust my home to someone and then come.⁴

62 And יהושע said to him, No man, having put his hand to the plough handle, and looking back, is fit for the malchut of יהוה.

10 After these things He appointed seventy others,⁵ and sent them two by two before His face into every city and place, where He Himself would come.

2 Therefore He said to them, The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few: make tefillah therefore to the Master of the harvest, that He would send forth laborers into His harvest.

3 *Go your ways: see, I send you forth as lambs among wolves.*⁶

4 Carry neither purse, nor bag, nor sandals: and join with no man along the way.

5 And into whatever bayit you enter, first say, Shalom to this bayit.

6 And if the son of shalom is there, your shalom shall rest upon it: if not, it shall return to you again.

7 And in the same bayit remain, eating and drinking such things as they give you: for the laborer is worthy of his

10 But into whatever city you enter, and they receive you not, go out into the streets, and say,

11 Even the very dust of your city, which cleaves on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding be you sure of this, that the malchut of יהוה is offered to you.²

13 Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Beth-Saida! For if the mighty works had been done in Tsor and Tsidon, which have been done in you, they would have a great while ago made teshuvah, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

14 But it shall be more tolerable for Tsor and Tsidon at the Yom HaDin, than for you.³

15 And you, Kfar Nachum that is exalted to the shamayim shall be thrown down to Sheol.

16 He that hears you hears Me; and he that despises you despises Me; and he that despises Me despises Him that sent Me.

17 And the seventy returned again with simcha, saying, Master, even the shadim were subject to us through Your Name.

18 And He said to them, I beheld s.a.tan as lightning fall from the shamayim.

19 See, I give to you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

20 But rejoice not, that the shadim are subject to you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in the shamayim.⁴

21 In that hour יהושע rejoiced in the Ruach HaKodesh, and said, Todah raba, O Abba, Sovereign of the shamayim and earth, that You have hid these things from the wise and prudent, and have revealed them to babes: even so, Abba; for so it seemed tov in Your sight.

22 All things are delivered to Me by My Abba: and no man knows who the Son is, but the Abba; and who the Abba is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son wishes to reveal Him.

23 And He turned to His talmidim, and said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that you see:

24 For I tell you, that many neviim and melechim have desired to see those things which you see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which you hear, and have not heard them.⁵

25 And, see, a certain Torah teacher stood up, and tested Him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal chayim?

26 He said to him, What is written in the Torah? How do you read it?

27 And he answering said, You shall love the Master יהוה your אלהים with all your lev, and with all your being, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself.

28 And He said to him, You have answered right: these do, and you shall live.

29 But he, willing to justify himself, said to יהושע, And who is my neighbor?

30 And יהושע answering said, A certain man went down from Yahrushalayim to Yericho, and fell among thieves, who stripped him of his garment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

31 And by chance there came down a certain kohen that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise a Lewi, when he was at the place, came and looked at him, and passed by on the other side.

33 But a certain Shomronite, as he journeyed, came to where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him,

34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

35 And in the morning when he departed, he took out two pieces of silver, and gave them to the innkeeper, and said to him, Take care of him; and whatever more you spend, when I come again, I will repay you.

36 Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbor to him that fell victim among the thieves?

37 And he said, He that showed rachamim to him. Then said יהושע to him, Go, and do likewise.

38 Now it came to pass, as they went, that He entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named Martha received Him into her bayit.

39 And she had a sister called Miryam, who also sat at יהושע's feet, and heard His word.

40 But Martha was occupied with much serving, and came to Him, and said, Master, don't You care that my sister has left me to serve alone? Speak to her therefore that she help me.

41 And יהושע answered and said to her, Martha, Martha, you are worried and troubled about many things:

42 But one thing is required: and Miryam has chosen that tov part, which shall not be taken away from her.

11 And it came to pass, that, as He was making tefillot in a certain place, when He ceased, one of His talmidim said to Him, Master, teach us to make tefillah, as Yochanan also taught His talmidim.

2 And He said to them, When you make tefillah, say, Our Abba who is in the shamayim, kadosh be Your Name. Your malchut come. Your ratzon be done, as in the 6 For a chaver of mine in his journey has come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?

7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give you.

8 I say to you, If he will not rise and give him because he is his chaver, yet because of his persistence he will rise and give him as much as he needs.

9 And I say to you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and you shall find; knock, and it shall be opened to you.

10 For every one that asks receives; and he that seeks finds; and to him that knocks it shall be opened.

11 If a son shall ask for lechem from any of you that is an abba, will he give him a stone? Or, if he asks for a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?

13 If you then, being evil, know how to give tov gifts to your children: how much more shall your Heavenly Abba give the Ruach Hakodesh to them that ask Him?

14 And He was casting out a shad, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the shad was gone out, the dumb spoke; and the people wondered.

15 But some of them said, He casts out shadim through Ba'al-Zevuv the chief of the shadim.

16 And others, testing Him, sought from Him a sign from the shamayim.

17 But He, knowing their thoughts, said to them, Every malchut divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a bayit divided against a bayit falls.²

18 If s.a.tan also were divided against himself, how shall his malchut stand? Because you say that I cast out shadim through Ba'al-Zevuv.

19 And if I by Ba'al-Zevuv cast out shadim, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore shall they be your shophtim.

20 But if I with the finger of יהוה cast out shadim no doubt the malchut of יהוה is offered to you.

26 Then he goes, and takes with him seven other shadim more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first.

27 And it came to pass, as He spoke these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said to Him, Blessed is the womb that bore You, and the breasts which You have sucked.

28 But He said, Yes rather, favored are they that hear the word of יהוה, and guard it.

29 And when the people were gathered thick together, He began to say, This is an evil generation: they seek a sign; and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Yonah the navi.

30 For as Yonah was a sign to the Ninevites, so also shall the Ben Ahdahm be to this generation.

31 The queen of the south shall rise up in the Yom HaDin with the men of this generation, and condemn them: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the chochmah of Shlomo; and, see, a greater than Shlomo is here.

32 The men of Ninveh shall rise up in the Yom HaDin with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the proclaiming of Yonah; and, see, a greater than Yonah is here.

33 No man, when he has lit a candle, puts it in a secret place, neither under a bushel, but on a menorah, that those who come in may see the light.

34 The light of the body is the eye: therefore when your eye is single, your whole body also is full of light; but when your eye is sick, your body also is full of darkness.⁴

35 Take heed therefore that the light that is in you be not darkness.

36 If your whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle does give you light.⁵

37 And as He spoke, a certain Prush asked Him to dine with him: and He went in, and sat down to eat.

38 And when the Prush saw it, he marveled that He had not first washed before dinner.

39 And יהושע said to him, Now do you Prushim make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inward part is full of greed and wickedness.

¹ The kadesh. A prayer for the coming restored kingdom to all Yisrael, as the earthly Jerusalem becomes free like the Jerusalem above.

² See note on Mark 3:25. Also note the exact wording "house against a house." Two-house reference.

³ People will either gather Yisrael, or scatter her anew. Both houses must work together on His agenda, not their own kingdom.

⁴ Stingy people don't have the necessary receptivity to kingdom things. Financial greed is a good indicator of a state of mind, which is not fully open to the things of the kingdom.

⁵ YHWH expects His children to be generous with others, especially so in extending mercy and compassion, which is the heart of the Torah.

40 You fools, did not He that made that which is on the outside make that which is within also?
 41 But rather give kindness of such things as you have within; and, see, all things are clean to you.
 42 But woe to you, Prushim! For you tithe the mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass over mishpatim and the ahava of יהוה: these you should have done, and not to leave the others undone.
 43 Woe to you, Prushim! For you love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.
 44 Woe to you, Sophrim and Prushim, hypocrites! For you are as graves that are not seen, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.
 45 Then answered one of the Torah teachers, and said to Him, Master, with this saying You insulted us also.¹
 46 And He said, Woe to you also, you Torah teachers! For you load men² with burdens hard to bear, and you yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.
 47 Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the neviim, and your ahvot killed them.
 48 Truly you bear witness that you allow the deeds of your ahvot: for they indeed killed them, and you built their tombs.
 49 Therefore also said the Chochmah of אלהא, I will send them neviim and shlichim, and some of them they shall slay and persecute:
 50 That the dahm of all the neviim that was shed from the foundation of the olam hazeh may be required of this nation;
 51 From the dahm of Hevel to the dahm of Zacharyah, who perished between the altar and the Beit HaMikdash: truly I say to you, It shall be required of this nation.
 52 Woe to you, Torah teachers! For you have taken away the key of da'at:³ you entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in you hindered.
 53 And as He said these things to them, the Sophrim and the Prushim began to oppose Him vehemently, and to provoke Him to speak on many subjects:
 54 Lying in wait for Him, and seeking to catch something out of His mouth, that they might accuse Him.

12 In the meantime, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, so that they trampled one another, He began to say to His talmidim first, Beware of the chametz of the Prushim, which is hypocrisy.
 2 For there is nothing covered that shall not be revealed; neither hidden, that shall not be known.
 3 Therefore whatever you have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which you have spoken in the ear in inner rooms shall be proclaimed

 4 And I say to you My chaverim, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.
 5 But I will show you whom you shall fear: Fear Him, who after He has killed has power to throw into Gei-Hinnom; yes, I say to you, Fear Him.
 6 Are not five sparrows sold for two copper coins, and not one of them is forgotten before יהוה?
 7 But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: you are of more value than many sparrows.
 8 Also I say to you, Whoever shall confess Me before men, Him shall the Ben Ahdahm also confess before the heavenly malachim of יהוה:
 9 But he that denies Me before men shall be denied before the heavenly malachim of יהוה.
 10 And whoever shall speak a word against the Ben Ahdahm, it shall be forgiven him: but to him that blasphemes against the Ruach Hakodesh it shall not be forgiven.
 11 And when they bring you to the synagogues, and to rulers, and authorities, take no thought how, or what thing you shall answer, or what you shall say:
 12 For the Ruach Hakodesh shall teach you in the same hour what you ought to say.
 13 And one of the company said to Him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me.
 14 And He said to him, Man, who made Me a shophet, or a divider over you?⁴
 15 And He said to them, Take heed, and beware of greed: for a man's chayim consists not in the abundance of the things that he possesses.
 16 And He spoke a parable to them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully:
 17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to store my fruits?
 18 And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build larger ones; and there will I store all my fruits and my goods.
 19 And I will say to my being, Being, you have much goods laid up for many years; take it easy, eat, drink, and be celebrate.
 20 But יהוה said to him, You fool, this night your being shall be required from you: then whose shall those things be, which you have prepared?
 21 So is he that lays up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward יהוה.⁵
 22 And He said to His talmidim, Therefore I say to you, Take no thought for your chayim, what you shall eat; neither for the body, what you shall put on.
 23 Your chayim is more than food, and your body is more than a garment.

⁴ Like Yahshua, we who are serious about restoration ought to avoid worldly entanglements that are not absolutely essential.

⁵ Yisraelites must be building the kingdom of Yisrael, not bigger barns, symbolic of bigger plans for, of, and by self.

24 Consider the ravens: for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouses nor barns; and יהוה feeds them: how much more are you better than the fowls?
 25 And which of you by worrying can add to his height one cubit?
 26 If you then are not able to do the thing that is least, why worry about the rest?
 27 Consider the lilies how they grow: they toil not, they spin not; and yet I say to you, That Shlomo in all his tifereth was not dressed like one of these.
 28 If then יהוה so clothe the grass, which today is in the field, and tomorrow is thrown into the fireplace; how much more will He clothe you, O you of little trust?
 29 And seek not what you shall eat, or what you shall drink, neither keep worrying.
 30 For all these things do the gentiles of the olam hazeh seek after: and your Abba knows that you have need of these things.¹
 31 But rather seek the malchut of יהוה; and all these things shall be added to you.
 32 Fear not, little flock;² for it is your Abba's tov pleasure to give you the malchut.
 33 Sell what you have, and give in kindness; provide yourselves bags which grow not old, a treasure in the shamayim that fails not, where no thief approaches, neither moth corrupts.
 34 For where your treasure is, there will your lev be also.
 35 Let your loins be bound, and your lights burning;
 36 And you yourselves like men³ that wait for their Master, when He will return from the wedding; that when He is coming and knocks, they may open to Him immediately.
 37 Blessed are those avadim, whom the Master when He is coming shall find watching: truly I say to you, That He shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to eat, and will go around and serve them.
 38 And if He shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them watching, favored are those avadim.
 39 And this know, that if the owner of the bayit had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have allowed his bayit to be broken into.
 40 Be you therefore ready also: for the Ben Ahdahm is coming at an hour when you think not.
 41 Then Kepha said to Him, Master, are You speaking this parable to us, or even to everyone?
 42 And יהושע said, Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom His Master shall make ruler over His household, to give them their portion of food in due season?
 43 Blessed is that eved, whom His Master when He comes shall find so doing.

¹ Yisraelite believers are not gentiles. There is no such thing as saved gentiles.

² The redeemed remnant from both houses is referred to here as a small "called out" flock. Remnant Yisrael, as opposed to all of physical Yisrael will be a very small remnant.

³ Like other Yisraelites.

44 Of an emet I say to you, That He will make him ruler over all that He has.
 45 But if that eved says in his lev, My Master delays His coming; and shall begin to beat the male avadim and female avadim, and to eat and drink, and to be drunk;
 46 The Master of that eved will come in a day when he looks not for Him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in two, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers.
 47 And that eved, who knew His Master's will, and did not prepare himself, neither did according to His will, shall be beaten with many stripes.
 48 But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For to whom much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the most.
 49 I am come to send fire on the earth; and how I wish that it be already lit?⁴
 50 But I have a mikvah to be immersed with; and how am I greatly afflicted until it be accomplished!
 51 Do you think that I have come to give shalom to the earth? I tell you, No; but rather division:
 52 For from now on there shall be five in one bayit divided, three against two, and two against three.
 53 The abba shall be divided against the son, and the son against the abba; the eema against the daughter, and the daughter against the eema; the eema-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and the daughter-in-law against her eema-in-law.⁵
 54 And He said also to the people, When you see a cloud rise out of the west, immediately you say, There is coming a shower; and so it is.
 55 And when you see the south wind blow, you say, There will be heat; and it comes to pass.
 56 You hypocrites, you can discern the face of the sky and of the earth; but how is it that you do not discern this time?
 57 Yes, and why even yourselves you judge not what is right?
 58 When you go with your adversary to the ruler, as you are in the way, give diligence that you may be delivered from him; lest he drag you to the shophet, and the shophet deliver you to the officer, and the officer cast you into prison.
 59 I tell you, you shall not depart from there, until you have paid the very last coin.

13 There were present at that season some that told Him of the Galilaeans, whose dahm Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

2 And יהושע answering said to them, Do you think that these Galilaeans were sinners above all the Galilaeans, because they suffered such things?

⁴ He was sent to purify and cleanse the earth.

3 I tell you, No: but, except you make teshuvah, you shall all likewise perish¹

4 Or, those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and killed them, do you think that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Yahrushalayim?

5 I tell you, No: but, except you make teshuvah, you shall all likewise perish.

6 He spoke also this parable; A certain man had a fig eytz² planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit on it, and found none.

7 Then he said to the dresser of his vineyard, See, these three years I came seeking fruit on this fig eytz, and found none: cut it down; why should the ground be wasted?

8 And he answering said to him, Master, leave it alone this year again, until I shall dig around it, and cast manure on it:

9 And if it bears fruit, well: and if not, then after that You shall cut it down.³

10 And He was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Shabbat.

11 And, see, there was a woman who had a ruach of infirmity eighteen years, and was bent over, and could in no way lift herself up.

12 And when יהושע saw her, He called her to Him, and said to her, Woman, you are loosed from your infirmity.

13 And He laid His hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and esteemed יהוה.

14 And the rabbi of the synagogue answered with indignation, because יהושע had healed on the Shabbat, and said to the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the Shabbat.

15 יהושע then answered him, and said, You hypocrite, does not each one of you on the Shabbat loose his ox, or his donkey from the stall, and lead him away to watering?

16 And should not this woman, being a daughter of Avraham, whom s.a.tan has bound, see, these eighteen years, be set free from this bond on the Shabbat?⁴

17 And when He had said these things, all His adversaries were ashamed: and the entire nation had gilah for all the wonderful things that were done by Him.

18 Then He said, To what is the malchut of יהוה like? And to what shall I compare it?

19 It is like a grain of mustard zera, which a man took, and threw into his garden; and it grew, and grew into a great eytz; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.⁵

20 And again He said, To what shall I liken the malchut of יהוה?

21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, until the whole was leavened.⁶

22 And He went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Yahrushalayim.

23 Then someone said to Him, Master, are there few that will be saved? And He said to them, 24 Strive to enter in at the narrow gate: for many,⁷ I say to you, Will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

25 Once the Master of the bayit is risen up, and has shut the door, and you begin to stand outside, and to knock on the door, saying, Master, Master, open to us; and He shall answer and say to you, I know you not where you are from:

26 Then shall you begin to say, We ate and drank in your presence, and You have taught in our streets.

27 But He shall say, I tell you, I know you not where you are from; depart from Me, all you workers of Torah-less-ness.⁸

28 There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when you shall see Avraham, and Yitzchak, and Yaakov, and all the neviim, in the malchut of יהוה, and you yourselves thrown out.⁹

29 And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the malchut of יהוה.¹⁰

30 And, see, there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last.¹¹

31 The same day there came certain of the Prushim, saying to Him, Get going, and depart from here: for Herod will kill You.

32 And He said to them, You go, and tell that fox, See, I cast out shadim, and I do cures today and tomorrow, and on the third day I shall be finished.

33 Nevertheless I must work today, and tomorrow, and the day following: for it cannot be that a navi perishes contains both spirit-born and spiritually dead members. Fowls represent demons and falsehoods.

⁶ See note on Matthew 13:33.

⁷ Many from the multitudes of Yisrael.

⁸ Without Torah obedience, Yahshua will not recognize one's service, or the spirit under which that person operates.

¹⁰ In contrast to the Jewish leaders of that generation, the reference here is to the return of the exiles of Yisrael from the four corners of the earth to which they were scattered. Four-corner references, such as Isaiah 11:12 and Jeremiah 31:8, always refer to Yisrael alone and her return in the last days through Messiah. These verses then are not a removal of the kingdom from Yisrael, but rather an expansion of the kingdom to all Yisrael, even those at the earth's four corners, that is Efrayim-Yisrael.

¹¹ Role reversal of the two houses. Efrayim enters before Judah, who fully enters at the Second Advent.

¹ Jews as well as Efrayimites must repent from sin, to prevent a second death of perishing in the Lake of Fire.

⁵ A parable of Renewed Covenant Yisrael's growth in accordance with physical multiplicity, so that it outside of Yahrushalayim.

34 O Yahrushalayim, Yahrushalayim, which kills the neviim, and stones them that are sent to you; how often would I have gathered your children together, as a hen does gather ¹ her chicks under her wings, and you O' Yisrael did not want it!

35 See, Beit Yisrael is left to you desolate: and truly I say to you, You shall not see Me, until the time comes when you shall say, baruch haba beshem HaAdon יהוה. ²

14 And it came to pass, as He went into the bayit of one of the chief Prushim to eat lechem on the Shabbat, that they watched Him.

2 And, see, there was a certain man before Him who had the dropsy.

3 And יהושע answering spoke to the Torah teachers and Prushim, saying, Is it permitted in Torah to heal on the Shabbat?

4 And they held their silence. And He took him, and healed him, and let him go;

5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shall have a donkey, or an ox fall into a pit, and will not immediately pull him out on the Shabbat day?

6 And they could not answer Him about these things.

7 And He put forth a parable to those who were invited, when He noted how they chose out the best places at moadim; saying to them,

8 When you are invited by any man to a wedding, do not sit down in the best place; lest he invite a more honorable man than you;

9 And he that invited both of you comes and says to you, Give this man the best place; and you begin with shame to take the last place.

10 But when you are invited, go and sit down in the last place; so that when he that invited you comes, he may say to you, Chaver, go up higher: then shall you have honor in the presence of those that recline at the moed with you.

11 For whoever exalts himself shall be humbled; and he that humbles himself shall be exalted.

12 Then He said also to the one that invited Him, When you make a dinner, or a supper, call not your chaverim, nor your Yisraelite brothers, neither your relatives, nor your rich neighbors; lest they also invite you again, and a repayment be made to you.

13 But when you observe a moed, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, and the blind: ³

14 And you shall be favored; for they cannot repay you: for you shall be repaid at the resurrection of the just.

15 And when one of them that was reclining with Him, heard these things, he said to Him, Blessed is he that shall eat lechem in the malchut of יהוה.

¹ Gathering Yisrael. The true and primary mission of Messiah.

² Rather than gather Yisrael at that time, the house would remain divided and therefore desolate of unity and immediate healing.

³ When a biblical feast is celebrated it can and should be used to reach the lost. YHWH's feasts are evangelistic in nature.

16 Then He said to him, A certain man made a great supper, and invited many:

17 And sent his eved at supper time to say to them that were invited, Come; for all things are now ready.

18 And they all began making excuses. The first said to him, I have bought a piece of property, and I must go and see it: I ask you have me excused.

19 And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to try them out: I ask you have me excused.

20 And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come. ⁴

21 So that eved came, and showed His Master these things. Then the Master of the bayit being angry said to his eved, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in here the poor, and the crippled, the lame, and the blind. ⁵

22 And the eved said, Master, it is done as you have commanded, and yet there is still room.

23 And the Master said to the eved, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that My bayit may be filled. ⁶

24 For I say to you, That none of those men who were invited shall taste of My supper. ⁷

25 And there went great multitudes with Him: and He turned, and said to them,

26 If any man comes to Me, and does not put aside his abba, and eema, and wife, and children, and brothers, and sisters, yes, and his own chayim also, he cannot be My talmid. ⁸

27 And whoever does not bear his execution stake, and come after Me, cannot be My talmid.

28 For which of you, intending to build a tower, sits not down first, and counts the cost, whether he has sufficient supplies to finish it?

29 Otherwise, after he has laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that see it begin to mock him,

30 Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish. ⁹

31 Or, what melech, going to make war against another melech, sits not down first, and consults whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him that is coming against him with twenty thousand?

32 If not, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends a delegation, and desires conditions of shalom.

33 So likewise, any of you that forsakes not all that he has, he cannot be My talmid.

34 Salt is tov: but if the salt becomes tasteless, with what shall it be seasoned? ¹⁰

⁹ Those who fall away after an initial expression of trust, like those who have fallen prey to the anti-Yahshua missionaries and who now are mocked as those who are dazed and confused, and as those without endurance.

¹⁰ See note on Mark 9:50.

35 It is neither fit for the land,¹ nor yet for the dunghill; but men² cast it out. He that has ears to hear let him hear.

15 Then drew near to Him all the tax collectors and sinners to hear Him.

2 And the Prushim and Sophrim grumbled, saying, This Man receives sinners, and eats with them.

3 And He spoke this parable to them, saying,

4 *What man among you, having a hundred sheep, if he loses one of them, does not leave the ninety nine in the wilderness, and goes after that which is lost, until he finds it?*³

5 *And when he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing.*⁴

6 And when he is coming home, he calls together his chaverim and neighbors, saying to them, Rejoice with me; for I have found My sheep that was lost.

7 I say to you, That likewise simcha shall be in the shamayim over one sinner that repents, more than over ninety-nine tzadikim, who need no teshuvah.

8 *Or, what woman having ten pieces of silver,⁵ if she loses one piece, does not light a candle, and sweep the bayit,⁶ and seek diligently until she finds it?*⁷

9 *And when she has found it, she calls her chaverim and her neighbors together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece that I had lost.*⁸

10 Likewise, I say to you, There is simcha in the presence of the heavenly malachim of יהוה over one sinner that repents.

11 And He said, A certain man had two sons:⁹

12 And the younger of them said to his abba, Abba, give me the portion of goods that belongs to me. And he divided to them his living.

13 And not many days after the younger son gathered all things together, and took his journey into a far country,¹⁰ and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want.

15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

16 And he was longing to fill his belly with the pods that the swine did eat: and no man gave to him.

17 And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired avadim of my abba's have lechem enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

18 I will arise and go to my abba, and will say to him, Abba, I have sinned against the shamayim, and before you,

19 *And am no more worthy to be called your son: make me as one of your hired avadim.*¹¹

20 *And he arose, and came to his abba. But when he was yet a great way off, his abba saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.*¹²

21 And the son said to him, Abba, I have sinned against the shamayim, and in Your sight, and am no more worthy to be called Your son.

22 But the abba said to his avadim, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet:

23 And bring here the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and celebrate:

24 *For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to celebrate.*¹³

25 Now his elder son¹⁴ was in the field: and as he came and drew near to the bayit, he heard music and dancing.

26 *And he called one of the avadim, and asked what these things meant.*¹⁵

27 And he said to him, Your brother has come; and your abba has killed the fatted calf, because he has received him safe and sound.

28 *And he was angry, and would not go in: therefore his abba came out, and pleaded with him.*¹⁶

29 And he answering said to his abba, See, these many years do I serve you, neither transgressed I at any time your commandment:¹⁷ and yet you never gave me a goat, that I might celebrate with my chaverim:

30 But as soon as this your son¹⁸ has come, who has devoured your living with harlots, you have killed for him the fatted calf.

31 And he said to him, Son, you are always with Me, and all that I have is yours.

32 *It was right that we should celebrate, and be in simcha: for this your brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.*¹⁹

¹³ Rejoicing at Efrayim's return in The Father's House.

¹⁴ Judah.

¹⁵ Many in Judah have always had a problem with understanding what Efrayim's return really meant.

¹⁶ Judah's typical initial reaction to Efrayim's return from the nations. This reaction is still prevalent today.

¹⁷ Upheld Torah.

¹⁸ Notice the reaction of Judah. "Your son," not "my brother." He refuses to recognize Efrayim as a brother, seeing him rather as a pagan who betrayed YHWH, and remains a pig farmer.

¹⁹ The Father's commentary on family reunion.

16 And He said also to His talmidim, There was a certain rich man, who had a steward; and the same steward was accused of wasting his wealth.
 2 And he called him, and said to him, How is it that I hear this about you? Give an account of your stewardship; for you may no longer be steward.
 3 Then the steward said to himself, What shall I do? For my master takes away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed.
 4 I know what to do, so that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.
 5 So he called every one of his master's debtors to him, and said to the first, How much do you owe my master?
 6 And he said, A hundred measures of oil. And he said to him, Take your bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.
 7 Then said he to another, And how much do you owe? And he said, A hundred measures of wheat. And he said to him, Take your bill, and write eighty.
 8 *And the master commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of the olam hazeh are in their generation wiser than the children of light.*¹
 9 *And I say to you, Make for yourselves chaverim of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when you fail, they may receive you into everlasting dwellings.*²
 10 He that is faithful in that which is least, is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least, is unjust also in much.
 11 *If therefore you have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the emet riches?*³
 12 And if you have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?
 13 No eved can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. You cannot serve יהוה and wealth.
 14 And the Prushim also, who were covetous, heard all these things: and they ridiculed Him.
 15 And He said to them, You are they which justify yourselves before men; but יהוה knows your levim: for that which is highly esteemed among men is an *abomination in the sight of יהוה.*⁴

 16 *The Torah and the nevim were concerning Yochanan:*⁵ since that time the malchut of יהוה is proclaimed, and every man presses into it.
 17 And it is easier for the shamayim and earth to pass, than one letter of the Torah to fail.
 18 *Whoever puts away his wife, and marries another, commits adultery: and whoever marries her that is undivorced*⁶ from her husband commits adultery.
 19 *There was a certain rich man, who was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared very well every day:*⁷
 20 And there was a certain beggar named El-Azar, who was laid at his gate, full of sores,
 21 Desiring to be fed with the crumbs that fell from the rich man's shulchan: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.
 22 And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the heavenly malachim into Avraham's Bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried;
 23 And in Sheol he lifts up his eyes, being in torment, and saw Avraham far off, and El-Azar in his bosom.
 24 And he cried and said, Abba Avraham, have rachamim on me, and send El-Azar, that he may dip the tip of his finger in mayim, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.
 25 But Avraham said, Son, remember that you in your lifetime received your tov things, and likewise El-Azar evil things: but now he is comforted, and you are tormented.
 26 *And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that those who would pass from here to you cannot; neither can they pass to us that would come from there.*⁸
 27 Then he said, I ask you therefore, abba Avraham that you would send him to my abba's bayit:
 28 For I have five brothers; that he may testify to them, lest they also come into this place of torment.
 29 Avraham said to him, They have Moshe Rabainu and the nevim; let them hear them.
 30 And he said, No, Abba Avraham: but if one went to them from the dead, they will make teshuvah.
 31 And he said to him, If they listen not to Moshe Rabainu

¹ A stern rebuke that shows how worldly children of s.a.tan are more shrewd in money matters than Yisraelites, who ought to be the best stewards around, since they are full of the Spirit's wisdom and discernment. Yet due to this lack of financial shrewdness, the majority of Yisraelites wrongly believe that asking for money for the kingdom is begging, or carnal. In this fault, Yahshua shines His light by teaching us that we have much to learn from the children of darkness, when it comes to funding YHWH's will in the earth.

² A sarcastic addendum that though we can learn from the world, we cannot go to the carnal for everlasting life and blissful eternal dwelling. That can only be given by Yahshua.

³ A key position in the kingdom of Messiah.

⁴ Putting greed before YHWH.

⁵ See note on Matthew 11:13.

⁶ See note on Matthew 19:9.

⁷ This is not a parable, but a real afterlife account. In a parable, names are not used. Here they are, so we should see this as a true account of the afterlife.

⁸ Abraham's bosom was the abode of the righteous before Messiah. When Messiah came, He emptied Abraham's Bosom and took the spirits (not bodies) of the trusting to heaven. Today the believer's spirit is righteous and according to Hebrews 11, joins the patriarchs and matriarchs in heaven waiting for the resurrection of the last day. and the neviim, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.¹

17 Then said He to the talmidim, It is impossible that offences will not come: but woe to him, through whom they come!

2 It were better for him that a millstone were hung around his neck, and he was thrown into the sea rather, than that he should offend one of these little ones.

3 Take heed to yourselves: If your brother trespasses against you, rebuke him; and if he makes teshuvah, forgive him.

*4 And if he trespasses against you seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turns again to you, saying, I make teshuvah; you shall forgive him.*²

5 And the shlichim said to יהושע, Increase our emunah.

6 And יהושע said, If you had emunah as a grain of mustard zera, you might say to this mulberry eytz, Be plucked up by the root, and be planted in the sea; and it should obey you.^{3 4}

7 But which of you, having an eved plowing, or feeding cattle, will say to him immediately, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to eat?

8 But would you not rather say to him, Make ready for my supper, and dress yourself, and serve me, until I have eaten and drunk; and afterward you shall eat and drink?

9 Does he thank that eved because he did the things that were commanded him? I think not.

10 So likewise you, when you shall have done all those things that are commanded to you, say, We are unworthy avadim: we have done only that which was our duty to do.

11 And it came to pass, as He went to Yahrushalayim that He passed through the midst of Shomron and Galil.⁵

12 And as He entered into a certain village, there He met ten men⁶ that were lepers, who stood far off:⁷

13 And they lifted up their voices, and said, יהושע, Master, have rachamim on us.⁸

14 And when He saw them, He said to them, Go show yourselves to the Kohanim. And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed.⁹

15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice esteemed יהוה,

16 And fell down on his face at His feet, giving Him hodu: and he was a Shomronite.

17 And יהושע answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? But where are the nine who separated?

18 *There are not found any that returned to give tifereth to יהוה, except this stranger.*¹⁰

19 And He said to him, *Arise, go your way: your emunah has made you whole.*¹¹

20 And the Prushim demanded to know, when the malchut of יהוה should come, He answered them and said, The malchut of יהוה is not coming with observation:

21 *Neither shall they say, See here! Or, See there! For, see, the malchut of יהוה is within you.*¹²

22 And He said to the talmidim, The days will come, when you shall desire to see one of the days of the Ben Ahdahm, and you shall not see it.

23 And they shall say to you, See here; or See there: go not after them, nor follow them.

24 For as the lightning, that flashes out from one part under the shamayim, and shines to the other part under the shamayim; so shall also the Ben Ahdahm be in His day.

25 But first He must suffer many things, and be rejected by this generation.

26 And as it was in the days of Noach, so shall it be also in the days of the Ben Ahdahm.

27 They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noach entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

28 Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built;

29 *But the same day that Lot went out of Sedom it rained fire and brimstone from the Master יהוה from the shamayim, and destroyed them all.*¹³

30 Even so shall it be in the day when

¹ The Torah speaks of Messiah, and if they won't believe the witness of the author Moses, they won't believe even though Yahshua rises.

² Behavior in Yisrael.

³ The issue is not how great our faith is, but how big our YHWH is, since even a tiny seed of faith moves Him.

⁵ The north, or land of Efrayim where Samaria was the capital.

⁷ "Far off." A catch term, or scriptural euphemism for the ten tribes who were far off from Yisrael and Torah.

⁹ Yahshua, instructs the ten tribes, in their return to perform Torah, which is what they were doing when they became cleansed.

¹¹ Only a full return through Yahshua leads to complete wholeness.

¹² It starts with an inward desire. Inward desire leads to entry. This does not mean that the kingdom won't manifest on earth.

¹³ Judgment came the same day that the righteous were sealed and protected, and in like manner shall be the return of Messiah. There will not be any interval between the sealing and protection of the righteous, and the coming of judgment, as pre-tribulation rapture theology teaches.

the Ben Ahdahm is revealed.

31 In that day, he who shall be upon the housetop, with his belongings in the bayit, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

32 Remember Lot's wife.

33 Whoever shall seek to save his chayim shall lose it; and whoever shall lose his chayim shall preserve it.

34 I tell you, in that night there shall be two men in one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.

35 Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

36 Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

37 *And they responded and said to Him, Where, Master? And He said to them, Wherever the body is, there will the eagles be gathered together.*¹

18 And He spoke a parable to them to this end, that men ought always to make tefillah, and not to faint;

2 *Saying, There was in a city a shophet, who feared not יהוה, neither regarded man.*²

3 And there was a widow in that city; and she came to him, saying, Do right to me regarding my adversary.

4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said to himself, Though I fear not אלהא, nor regard man;

5 Yet because this widow troubles me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she wears me out.

6 And יהושע said, Hear what the unjust shophet said.

7 And shall not יהוה do tov to His own elect, who cry day and night to Him, as He has patience with them?

8 I tell you that He will do tov to them speedily.

*Nevertheless when the Ben Ahdahm comes, shall He find emunah in the earth?*³

9 And He spoke this parable to certain people who trusted in themselves that they were tzadik, and despised others:

10 Two men went up into the Beit HaMikdash to make tefillah; the one a Prush, and the other a tax collector.

11 The Prush stood and made tefillah within himself,

אֱלֹהִים, I thank You, that I am not as other men are, extortionists, unjust, adulterers, or even as this tax collector.

12 I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.

13 And the tax collector, standing far off, would not lift up so much as his eyes to the shamayim, but smote his breast, saying, אֱלֹהִים be merciful to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, this man went down to his bayit justified rather than the other: for every one that exalts himself shall be humbled; and he that humbles himself *shall be exalted.*⁴

15 And they brought to Him also infants, that He would touch them: but when His talmidim saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But יהושע called them to Him, and said, Allow the little children to come to Me, and forbid them not: for of such is the malchut of יהוה.

17 Truly I say to you, Whoever shall not receive the malchut of יהוה as a little child shall in no way enter there.

18 And a certain ruler asked Him, saying, Tov Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal chayim?

19 *And יהושע said to him, Why do you call Me tov? No one is tov, except One, that is, יהוה.*⁵

20 You know the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honor your abba and your eema.

21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now when יהושע heard these things, He said to him, Yet you lack one thing: sell all that you have, and distribute to the poor, and you shall have treasure in the shamayim: and come, follow Me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.

24 And when יהושע saw that he was very sorrowful, He said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the malchut of יהוה.

25 For it is easier for a large rope⁶ to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the malchut of יהוה.

26 And they that heard it said, Who then can be saved?

27 And He said, The things, which are impossible with men, are possible with יהוה.

28 Then Kepha said, Look, we have left all, and followed You.

29 And He said to them, Truly I say to you, There is no man that has left bayit, or parents, or brothers, or wife, or children, for the malchut of יהוה's sake,

30 Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the olam haba chayim everlasting.

31 Then He took aside the twelve, and said to them, See, we go up to Yahrushalayim, and all things that are written by the neviim concerning the Ben Ahdahm shall be accomplished.

32 For He shall be delivered to the gentiles, and shall be mocked, and insulted, and spit on:

33 *And they shall scourge and curse Him, and put Him to death: and the third day He shall rise again.*⁷

¹ It is clear from this verse and the comparison to Noah's days, that the ones "taken away" are not the saved but the lost. If there was any doubt, this verse seals it, as the disciples asked where will those "taken away" go, and what will be their end. Yahshua, answers them by telling them that those "taken away" will go to the vultures for food and judgment. As Yisrael, you ought to pray to be left behind.

² Yisraelite Torah justice.

³ True Torah-based trust in Messiah.

⁴ The Pharisee represents Judah, and the "far off" tax collector represents the heathen Efrayimites. If Efrayim humbles himself, he can and will return in full acceptance by the Father. Judah, on the other hand, must also show this attitude of repentance and change, or they will be like the one who has the right liturgy in prayer, but does not return to the Commonwealth of Yisrael justified by Messiah.

⁵ See note on Matthew 19:17.

⁶ See note on Mark 10:25.

⁷ As confirmed in Mark 10 the gentiles, or non-Jews did the actual killing according to Yahshua Himself.

34 And they understood none of these things: and this saying was hidden from them, neither knew they the things that were spoken.
 35 And it came to pass, that as He was coming near to Yericho, a certain blind man sat by the wayside begging:
 36 And hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant.
 37 And they told him, that יהושע of Natzeret passes by.
 38 And he cried, saying, יהושע, Ben Dawid, have rachamim on me.
 39 And those who went before rebuked him, that he should hold his shalom: but he cried much more, You Ben Dawid, have rachamim on me.
 40 And יהושע stood, and commanded him to be brought to Him: and when he had come near, He asked him,
 41 Saying, What will you that I shall do for you? And he said, Master, that I may receive my sight.
 42 And יהושע said to him, Receive your sight: your emunah has saved you.
 43 And immediately he received his sight, and followed Him, esteeming יהוה: and all the people, when they saw it, gave hallel to אלה.

19 And יהושע entered and passed through Yericho.
 2 And, see, there was a man named Zakkai, who was the chief among the tax collectors, and he was rich.
 3 And he sought to see יהושע who He was; and could not due to the pressing crowds, because he was short in height.
 4 And he ran ahead, and climbed up into a leafless eytz to see Him: for He was to pass that way.
 5 And when יהושע came to the place, He looked up, and saw him, and said to him, Zakkai, hurry, and come down; for today I must abide at your bayit.
 6 And he hurried, and came down, and received Him with simcha.
 7 And when they saw it, they all grumbled, saying, That He had gone to be a guest with a man that is a sinner.
 8 And Zakkai stood, and said to יהושע; See, Master, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore all things to him fourfold.¹
 9 And יהושע said to him, This day is salvation come to this bayit because he also is a b'nai Avraham.
 10 *For the Ben Ahdahm has come to seek and to save that which was lost.*²
 11 And as they heard these things, He added another parable, because He was near to Yahrushalayim, and because they thought that the malchut of יהוה should immediately appear.
 12 He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a malchut, and to return.

² Nothing can be clearer. Yahshua visited Zacchaeus because he was a lost sheep of Yisrael. Yahshua stated that was the main and primary purpose for His coming.

13 And he called his ten avadim,³ and delivered to them ten pounds, and said to them, Occupy until I come.
 14 But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.
 15 And it came to pass, that when he returned, having received the malchut, then he commanded these avadim to be called to him, to whom he had given the money that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.
 16 Then came the first, saying, Master, Your pound has gained ten pounds.
 17 *And he said to him, Well done, you tov eved: because you have been faithful in very little, take authority over ten talents.*⁴
 18 And the second came, saying, Master, Your pound has gained five pounds.
 19 And He said likewise to him, Take authority also over five talents.
 20 And another came, saying, Master, see, here is Your pound, which I have kept laid up in a purse:
 21 For I feared you, because you are a harsh man: you take up that which you laid not down, and reap that which you did not sow.
 22 And he said to him, Out of your own mouth will I judge you, you wicked eved. You supposedly knew that I was a harsh man, taking up what I laid not down, and reaping what I did not sow:
 23 Then why didn't you put my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have collected my own with interest?
 24 And he said to them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that has ten pounds.
 25 And they said to Him, Master, he has ten pounds.
 26 For I say to you, That to every one who has shall be given; and from him that has not, even that which he has shall be taken away from him.
 27 But these enemies, who did not desire that I should reign over them, bring here, and slay them before me.
 28 And when He had spoken this, He went ahead, ascending up to Yahrushalayim.
 29 And it came to pass, when He was come near to Beth Phagi and Beth Anya, at the mount called the Mount of Olives, He sent two of His talmidim,⁵ 30 Saying, Go into the village opposite you; in which as you enter you shall find a colt tied, on which no man has sat: loose him, and bring him here.
 31 And if any man asks you, Why do you loose him? This shall you say to him, Because the Master has need of him.
 32 And they that were sent went their way, and found it even as He had said to them.
 33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners of it said to them, Why do you loose the colt?
 34 And they said, the Master has need of him.

³ Another reference to the ten tribes of Yisrael coming home and waiting, sometimes faithfully, sometimes unfaithfully, for His return to establish the kingdom on earth.

⁴ Aramaic word is kakra, not karkha, mistranslated in most Greek texts as "city."

⁵ See note on Matthew 21:1.

35 And they brought him to יהושע: and they threw their garments upon the colt, and they set יהושע on it.
 36 And as He went, they spread their clothes in the way.
 37 And when He had come near, even now at the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of talmidim began to have gilah and give tehilla to יהוה with a loud voice for all the mighty mitzvot that they had seen;
 38 Saying, Blessed be the Melech that is coming in the Name of the Master יהוה: shalom in the shamayim, and tifereth in the highest.
 39 And some of the Prushim from among the multitude said to Him, Master, rebuke Your talmidim.
 40 And He answered and said to them, I tell you that, if these should hold their shalom, the stones would immediately cry out.
 41 And when He came near, He beheld the city, and wept over it,
 42 Saying, If you only knew, even in this your day, the things that belong to your shalom! But now they are hidden from your eyes.
 43 For the days shall come upon you, that your enemies shall cast a trench around you, and surround you, and press you in on every side,
 44 *And shall lay you even with the ground, and your children within you; and they shall not leave in you one stone upon another; because you knew not the time of your visitation.*¹
 45 And He went into the Beit HaMikdash, and began to cast out them that sold there, and them that bought;
 46 Saying to them, It is written, My Bayit is the Bayit of Tefillah: but you have made it a den of thieves.
 47 And He taught daily in the Beit HaMikdash. But the chief Kohanim and the Sophrim and the chief of the people sought to destroy Him, 48 And could not find what they might do: for all the people were very attentive to hear Him.

20 And it came to pass, that on one of those days, as He taught the people in the Beit HaMikdash, and proclaimed the Besorah; the chief Kohanim and the Sophrim came to Him with the zechanim,
 2 And spoke to Him, saying, Tell us, by what authority do You do these things? Or, who is he that gave You this authority?
 3 And He answered and said to them, I will also ask you one thing; and answer Me:
 4 The mikvah of Yochanan, was it from the shamayim, or from men?
 5 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, If we shall say, From the shamayim; He will say, Why then didn't you believe him?
 6 But if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: for they are persuaded that Yochanan was a navi.
 7 And they answered, that they could not tell where it was from.
 8 And יהושע said to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

9 Then He began to speak to the people this parable; A certain man planted a vineyard,² and leased it forth to farmers, and went into a far country for a long time.
 10 And at the season he sent an eved to the farmers, but they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the farmers beat him, and sent him away empty.
 11 And again he sent another eved: and they beat him also, and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.
 12 And again he sent a third: and they wounded him also, and threw him out.
 13 Then said the master of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him.
 14 But when the farmers saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: come; let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.
 15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the master of the vineyard do to them?
 16 He shall come and destroy these farmers, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, Let it not be.
 17 And He beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, The Stone that the builders rejected, the same has become the Rosh Pina?
 18 Everyone who falls upon that Stone shall be broken; but on whoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.
 19 And the chief Kohanim and the Sophrim the same hour sought to lay hands on Him; but they feared the people: for they perceived that He had spoken this parable against them.
 20 And they watched Him, and sent forth spies, who pretended to be just men, that they might trap Him in His words, that so they might deliver Him to the power and authority of the governor.
 21 And they asked Him, saying, Master, we know that You say and teach rightly, neither are You partial to any man, but teach the halacha of אלהים truly:
 22 Is it right for us to give taxes to Kaiser, or not?
 23 But He perceived their craftiness, and said to them, Why do you try Me?
 24 Show Me a silver piece. Whose image and inscription does it have? They answered and said, Kaiser's.
 25 And He said to them, Render therefore to Kaiser the things that are Kaiser's, and to יהוה the things that are יהוה's.
 26 And they could not catch Him in His words before the people: and they marveled at His answer, and held their silence.
 27 Then came to Him certain of the Tzadukim, who deny that there is any resurrection; and they asked Him,
 28 Saying, Master, Moshe Rabainu wrote to us, If any man's brother dies, having a wife, and he dies without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up zera for his brother.
 29 There were therefore seven brothers: and the first took a wife, and died without children.
 30 And the second took her as a wife, and he died childless.

31 And the third took her; and in like manner all seven also: and they all left no children, and died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.

33 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife is she? For all seven had her as a wife.

34 And יהושע answering said to them, The children of the olam hazeh marry, and are given in marriage:

35 But those who shall be accounted worthy to obtain the olam haba, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage:

36 Neither can they die any more: for they are like the heavenly malachim; and are the children of אלהא, being the children of the resurrection.

37 Now that the dead are raised, even Moshe showed at the bush, when he called the Master יהוה the אלהא of Avraham, and the אלהא of Yitzchak, and the אלהא of Yaakov.

38 For He is not the אלהא of the dead, but of the living: for all live to Him.

39 Then certain of the Sophrim answering said, Master, You have well said.

40 And after that they did not ask Him any question at all.

41 And He said to them, How do they say that the Moshiach is Dawid's Son?

42 And yet Dawid himself said in the Scroll of Tehillim, the Master יהוה said to My Master, Sit on My Right Hand,

43 Until I make Your enemies Your footstool.

44 Dawid therefore called Him Master, how is He then Dawid's son?

45 Then in the presence of all the people He said to His talmidim,

46 Beware of the Sophrim, who desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the best places at moadim;

47 Who embezzle widows' houses, and for a show make long tefillot: these shall receive greater damnation.

21 And He looked up, and saw the rich men casting their gifts into the treasury.

2 And He saw also a certain poor widow casting in there her two small coins.

3 And He said, Of an emet I say to you, That this poor widow has thrown in more than all of them:

4 For all these have from their abundance thrown into the terumah אלהא: but she from her poverty has thrown in all that she had to live on.

5 And as some spoke of the Beit HaMikdash, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and gift offerings, He said,

6 As for these things which you see, the days will come, in which there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

7 And they asked Him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? And what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass?

8 And He said, Take heed that you be not deceived: for many shall come in My Name, saying, I am the Moshiach; and the time draws near: go not therefore after them.

9 But when you shall hear of wars and unrest, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass; but the *end is not immediately.*¹

10 Then He said to them, Nation shall rise against nation, and malchut against malchut:

11 *And great earthquakes shall be in diverse places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from the shamayim; and the winters shall be severe.*²

12 But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before melechim and rulers for My Name's sake.

13 And it shall turn into a testimony for you.

14 Settle it therefore in your levim, not to meditate before what you shall answer:

15 For I will give you a mouth and chochmah, that all your adversaries shall not be able to refute nor resist.

16 And you shall be betrayed both by parents, and brothers, and mishpacha, and chaverim; and some of you shall they cause to be put to death.

17 And you shall be hated of all men for My Name's sake.

18 But there shall not a hair of your head perish.

19 Possess your lives by your endurance to the end.

20 *And when you shall see Yahrushalayim surrounded with armies, then know that the destruction of it is near.*³

21 *Then let those who are in province of Yahudah flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter into it.*⁴

22 For these are the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.

23 But woe to them that are with child, and to them that nurse, in those days! For there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.

24 *And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations:*⁵ *and Yahrushalayim shall be trodden down by the gentiles, until the times of the gentiles be fulfilled.*⁶

² Peshitta.

³ 70 CE under Titus the Roman general, along with an end-time application as well.

⁶ Not to be confused with the "fullness of the gentiles" which speaks of Efrayim's seed (10 tribes) filling the

25 *And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the cochavim; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring;*¹
 26 Men's levim failing them for fear, and for looking after those things that are coming on the earth: for the powers of the shamayim shall be shaken.
 27 And then shall they see the Ben Ahdahm coming on clouds with a large army² and great tifereth.
 28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your geulah draws near.
 29 *And He spoke to them a parable; See the fig eytz, and all the eytzim;*³
 30 When they already budded, you see and know for yourselves that summer is now near at hand.
 31 So likewise, when you see these things come to pass, know that the malchut of יהוה is near at hand.
 32 Truly I say to you, This generation shall not pass away, until all be fulfilled.
 33 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but My words shall not pass away.
 34 And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your levim be weighed down with gluttony, and drunkenness, and worries of this chayim, so that day comes upon you suddenly.
 35 For like a downpour shall it come to trap all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.
 36 Watch therefore, and make tefillah always, that you may be accounted worthy to escape⁴ all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Ben Ahdahm.
 37 And in the daytime He was teaching in the Beit HaMikdash; and at night He went out, and stayed on the mount that is called the Mount of Olives.
 38 And all the people came early in the morning to Him in the Beit HaMikdash, to hear Him.

earth. The "time of the gentiles" refers to the pagans' control over Jerusalem coming to an end. That event, as prophesied here, already took place in 1967 CE when the state of Yisrael recaptured Jerusalem from Jordan ending a 2,000-year domination of Jerusalem by non-Yisraelite foreign powers and gentile religious orders.

³ The fig tree (Jewish-Yisrael) and all the trees (the nations) all bud at the same time (post-1996 CE) as Yisrael is awakened simultaneously in all the nations. The fig tree (Judah) and the other trees (Efrayim) both wake up and perceive one another, as a budding part of the people of Yisrael.

⁴ Escape death and famine – not the Tribulation itself.

⁵ Technically it starts at sundown just after the Passover meal.

3 Then entered s.a.tan into Yahudah surnamed Qerioth, being from the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way, and communed with the chief Kohanim and captains, how he might betray Him to them.

5 And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money.

6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray Him to them in the absence of the multitude.

7 Then approached Chag Matzoth, when the Pesach must be killed.⁶

8 And He sent Kepha and Yochanan, saying, Go and prepare for us the Pesach that we may eat.

9 And they said to Him, Where do You want us to prepare?

10 And He said to them, See, when you enter into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of mayim; follow him into the bayit where he enters in.

11 And you shall say to the owner of the bayit, The Master says to you, Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Pesach with My talmidim?

12 And he shall show you a large upper room furnished: there make ready.

13 And they went, and found as He had said to them: and they made ready the Pesach.

14 And when the hour was come, He sat down, and the twelve shlichim with Him.⁷

15 And He said to them, With desire I have desired to eat this Pesach with you before I suffer:

16 *For I say to you, I will not any more eat of it, until it be fulfilled in the malchut of יהוה.*⁸

17 And He took the cup, and gave hodu, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves:

18 For I say to you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the malchut of יהוה shall come.

19 And He took matzah, and said the bracha, and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, This is My body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of Me.

20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the Brit Chadasha in My dahm, which is shed for you.

21 But, see, the hand of him that betrays Me is with Me on the shulchan.

22 And truly the Ben Ahdahm goes, as it was determined: but woe to that man by whom He is betrayed!

23 And they began to inquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this act.

24 And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be the greatest.

25 And He said to them, The melechim of the gentiles exercise rule over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called doers of tov.

⁶ See notes on Mark 14:12.

⁷ A type of the kingdom, and all 12 tribes of Yisrael in full and total restoration harmony.

⁸ Notice that He wants to, and all is prepared, but He says very clearly that He will not. This assures us that he had a "rabbinical Pesach," traditionally held the night before, as did most rabbis (since he was a rabbi after all), without actually eating it that year.

26 But you shall not be so: ¹ but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the least; and he that is a leader, be as he that does serve.

27 For who is greater, he that sits down, or he that serves the one sitting? Is it not he that sits to eat? But I am among you as one that serves.

28 You are those who have continued with Me in My trials. ²

29 And I appoint to you a malchut, as My Abba has appointed to Me;

30 That you may eat and drink at My shulchan in My malchut, and sit on thrones being judges over the twelve tribes of Yisrael. ³

31 And He said, Shimon, Shimon, see, s.a.tan has desired to have you, that he may sift all of you as wheat:

32 But I have made tefillah for you, that your emunah fails not: and when you have repented, strengthen your Yisraelite brothers.

33 And he said to Him, Master, I am ready to go with You, both into prison, and to death.

34 And He said, I tell you, Kepha, the cock shall not crow this day, before you shall three times deny that you know Me.

35 And He said to them, When I sent you without purse, and bag, and sandals, did you lack anything? And they said, Nothing.

36 Then said He to them, But now, he that has a purse, let him take it, and likewise his bag: and he that has no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.

37 For I say to you, That this that was written must yet be accomplished in Me, I was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning Me must be fulfilled.

38 And they said, Master, see, here are two swords. And He said to them, It is enough. ⁴

39 And He came out, and went, as He was accustomed, to the Mount of Olives; and His talmidim also followed Him.

40 And when He was at the place, He said to them, Make tefillah that you enter not into trial.

41 And He was withdrawn from them about a stone's throw, and kneeled down, and made tefillah, 42 Saying, Abba, if You are willing, remove this cup from Me: nevertheless not My will, but Yours, be done.

43 And there appeared a heavenly malach to Him from the shamayim, strengthening Him.

44 And being in agony He made tefillah more earnestly: and His sweat became like great drops of dahm as He fell down to the ground.

45 And when He rose up from tefillah, and came to His talmidim, He found them sleeping due to sorrow, 46 And said to them, Why do you sleep? Rise and make tefillah, lest you enter into trial.

47 And while He yet spoke, see a multitude, and he that was called Yahudah, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near to יהושע to kiss Him.

48 But יהושע said to him, Yahudah, do you betray the Ben Ahdahm with a kiss?

49 When those who were around Him saw what would follow, they said to Him, Master, shall we smite with the sword?

50 And one of them smote the eved of the Kohen HaGadol, and cut off his right ear.

51 And יהושע answered and said, Enough already. And He touched the ear of the one who was struck, and healed him. ⁵

52 Then יהושע said to the chief Kohanim, and captains of the Beit HaMikdash, and the zechanim, who had come to Him, Have you come out, like against a thief, with swords and staves?

53 When I was daily with you in the Beit HaMikdash, you did not even point your hands against Me: but this is your time, and the power of darkness.

54 Then they took Him, and led Him, and brought Him into the Kohen HaGadol's bayit. And Kepha followed far off.

55 And when they had lit a fire in the midst of the hall, and were sat down together, Kepha sat down among them.

56 But a certain eved girl beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked at him, and said, This man was also with Him.

57 And he denied Him, saying, Woman, I know Him not.

58 And after a little while another saw him, and said, You are also one of them. And Kepha said, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of one hour later another confidently affirmed, saying, Of an emet this fellow also was with Him: for he is a Galilaean.

60 And Kepha said, Man, I know nothing of what you are saying. And immediately, while he was yet speaking, the cock crew.

61 And יהושע turned, and looked at Kepha. And Kepha remembered the word of יהושע, how He had said to him, Before the cock crows, you shall deny Me three times.

62 And Kepha went out, and wept bitterly.

63 And the men that held יהושע mocked Him, and smote Him.

64 And when they had blindfolded Him, they struck Him on the face, and asked Him, saying, Prophecy, who is it that smote You?

65 And many other things blasphemously they spoke against Him.

66 And as soon as it was day, the zechanim of the people and the chief Kohanim and the Sophrim came together, and led Him into their council chamber, saying,

67 Are You Moshiach? Tell us. And He said to them, If I tell you, you will not believe:

² Yahshua commends those who endure and overcome, not those who confess and don't follow.

³ If Yahshua came to build a "gentile church" with a few token Jews thrown in, rather than rebuilding Yisrael from the nations, He certainly would never have made this statement.

⁵ Peshitta.

68 And if I also ask you, you will not answer Me, nor let Me go.

69 Hereafter shall the Ben Ahdahm sit on the Right Hand of the Power of יהוה.

70 Then they all said, Are You then the Son of El-Elyon? And He said to them, You say that I am.

71 And they said, What need we any further witness? For we ourselves have heard from His own mouth.¹

23 And the whole multitude of them arose, and led Him to Pilate.

2 And they began to accuse Him, saying, We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding giving taxes to Kaiser, saying that He Himself is the Moshiach, a Melech.

3 And Pilate asked Him, saying, Are You the Melech of the Yahudim? And He answered him and said, You said it.

4 Then said Pilate to the chief Kohanim and to the people, I find no fault in this Man.

5 And they were angrier, saying, He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all the province of Yahudah, beginning from Galil to this place.

6 When Pilate heard of Galil, he asked whether the Man were a Galilaean.

7 And as soon as he knew that He belonged to Herod's jurisdiction, he sent Him to Herod, who himself also was at Yahrushalayim at that time.

8 And when Herod saw יהושע, he was exceedingly in simcha: for he had desired to see Him for a long time, because he had heard many things about Him; and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by Him.

9 Then he questioned Him in many words; but He answered him nothing.

10 And the chief Kohanim and Sophrim stood and vehemently accused Him.

11 And Herod with his men of war insulted Him, and mocked Him, and dressed Him in a scarlet robe, and sent Him again to Pilate.

12 And the same day Pilate and Herod were made chaverim: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13 And Pilate, when he had called together the chief Kohanim and the rulers of the people,

14 Said to them, You have brought this Man to me, as one that misleads your people: and, see, I, having examined Him before you, have found no fault in this Man concerning those things of which you accuse Him:

15 No, not even Herod: for I sent you to him; and, see, nothing worthy of death is done by Him.

16 I will therefore chastise Him, and release Him.

17 For because of a necessity he must release one to them at the moed.

18 And they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this Man, and release to us Bar-Abba:

19 Who for a certain uprising made in the city, and for murder, was thrown into prison;

20 Pilate therefore, willing to release יהושע, spoke again to them.

21 But they cried, saying, Impale Him! Impale Him!

22 And he said to them the third time, Why, what evil has He done? I have found no cause of death in Him: I will therefore chastise Him, and let Him go.

23 And they insisted with loud voices, requiring that He might be impaled. And the voices of them and of the chief Kohanim prevailed.

24 And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required.

25 And he released to them, the one that for sedition and murder was thrown into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered יהושע to their will.

26 And as they led Him away, they laid hold upon one Shimon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the execution stake, that he might bear it after יהושע.

27 And there followed Him a great group of people, and of women, who also mourned and lamented Him.

28 But יהושע turning to them said, Daughters of Yahrushalayim, weep not for Me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.

29 For, see, the days are coming, in which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never nursed.

30 Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us.

31 For if they do these things in a green eytz, what shall be done in the dry?^{2 3}

32 And there were also two others, they were wicked ones, who were led with Him to be put to death.

33 And when they were come to the place, which is called The Skull, there they impaled Him, with the wicked ones, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.⁴

34 Then said יהושע, Abba, forgive them; for they know not what they do. And they parted His garment, and cast lots.

35 And the people stood staring. And the synagogue rulers also with them sneering, saying, He saved others; let Him save Himself, if He is The Moshiach, the chosen One of אלהא.

36 And the soldiers also mocked Him, coming to Him, and offering Him vinegar, 37 And saying, If You are the Melech of the Yahudim, save Yourself.

38 And an inscription also was written over Him in letters of Greek, and Latin, and Ivrit, THIS IS THE MELECH OF THE YAHUDIM.

39 And one of the wicked ones who were hanged blasphemed against Him, saying, If You are the Moshiach, save Yourself and us.

40 But the other answering rebuked him, saying, Don't you fear אלהא, seeing you are under the same condemnation?

41 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this Man has done nothing wrong.

LUKA – LUKE

42 And he said to יהושע, Master, remember me when You come into Your malchut.
43 And יהושע said to him, *Truly I say to you, Today shall you be with Me in Gan Ayden.*¹
44 And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour.
45 And the sun was darkened, and the veil at the Hekel of the Beit HaMikdash was torn in the midst.²
46 And when יהושע had cried with a loud voice, He said, O My Abba, into Your hands I commit My ruach: and having said this, He gave up the ruach.
47 Now when the centurion saw what was done, he esteemed אלהא, saying, Certainly this was a tzadik Man.
48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things that were done, smote their breasts, and returned.
49 And all His acquaintances, and the women that followed Him from Galil, stood far off, beholding these things.
50 And, see, there was a man named Yoseph a Sanhedrin member; and he was a tov tzadik man,
51 He had not agreed with the counsel and their deed – he was from Ramathayim, a city of Yahudah: who also himself waited for the malchut of יהוה.
52 This man went to Pilate, and asked for the body of יהושע.
53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a tomb that was cut in stone, in which never a man before was laid.
54 And that day was the preparation, and the Shabbat drew near.³
55 And the women also, who came with Him from Galil, followed after, and beheld the tomb, and how His body was laid.
56 And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments; and rested on the Shabbat day according to the commandment.

24 Now upon one of the weekly Shabbats,⁴ very early towards the morning,⁵ they came to the tomb, bringing the spices that they had prepared, and certain others with them.
2 And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb.
3 And they entered in, and found not the body of יהושע.
4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed about it, see, two men⁶ stood by them in shining garments:
5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said to them, Why seek you the living among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: remember how He spoke to you when He was yet in Galil,
7 Saying, The Ben Ahdahm must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be impaled, and the third day rise again.
8 And they remembered His words,
9 And returned from the tomb, and told all these things to the eleven, and to all the rest.
10 It was Miryam from Magdala, and Yochanan, and Miryam the eema of Yaakov, and other women that were with them, who told these things to the shlichim.
11 And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.⁷
12 Then arose Kepha, and ran to the tomb; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering within himself about all that which had come to pass.
13 And, see, two of them went that same day to a village called Amma-Us, which was from Yahrushalayim about six miles.⁸
14 And they talked together about all those things that had happened.
15 And it came to pass, that, while they communed together and reasoned, יהושע Himself drew near, and went with them.⁹
16 But their eyes were restrained so that they could not recognize Him.
17 And He said to them, What manner of communications are these that you have with each other, as you walk, and are sad?
18 And one of them, whose name was Qleophas, answering said to Him, Are You only a ger¹⁰ in Yahrushalayim, and have not known the things that have come to pass in it in these days?
19 And He said to them, What things? And they said to Him, Concerning יהושע of Natzeret, who was a Navi mighty in mitzvoth and word before אלהא and all the people of Yisrael:
20 And how the chief Kohanim and our rulers delivered Him to be condemned to death, and have impaled Him.
21 But we trusted that it was He who should have redeemed Yisrael:¹¹ and besides all this, today is the third day since these things were done.
22 Yes, and certain women also of our group made us astonished, who were earlier at the tomb;
23 And when they found not His body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of heavenly malachim,

³ Annual Shabbat of Aviv 15.

⁴ Mia ton sabbaton in Greek. The words "first" and "day" do not appear in the Greek.

⁵ Say about 6-8 PM during havdalah, or motzei/departure of the Shabbat.

⁶ Possibly as a dual witness to Judah and Efrayim.

⁷ Probably because they were women in a male-dominated society.

⁸ A type of both houses, wandering in exile outside of Jerusalem, blind to their Messiah and His Torah.

⁹ Two-house brotherhood waiting for a revelation from Yahshua.

¹⁰ For returning Efrayimites who have been called strangers, or non-Yisraelites, don't feel bad. You're in very elite company, as here Yahshua's own disciples called Him a "stranger."

who said that He was alive.
 24 And certain of those who were with us went to the tomb, and found it even as the women had said: but Him they did not see.
 25 Then He said to them, O fools, and slow of lev to believe all that the neviim have spoken:
 26 Did not the Moshiach have to suffer all these things, in order to enter into His tifereth?
 27 And beginning at Moshe Rabainu and all the neviim, He expounded to them in all the Keetvay HaKadosh the things concerning Himself.¹
 28 And they drew near to the village, where they went: and He made them think He was going to a far place.²
 29 But they constrained Him, saying, Remain with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is nearly dark. And He went in to stay with them.
 30 And it came to pass, as He sat to eat with them, He took lechem, and said the bracha, and broke it, and gave some to them.
 31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew Him; and He vanished out of their sight.
 32 And they said one to another, Were not our minds dull within us, while He talked with us on the road, and interpreted the Keetvay HaKadosh to us?³
 33 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Yahrushalayim, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them,
 34 Saying, our Master is risen indeed, and has appeared to Shimon.
 35 And they told what things were done on the road, and how He was known by them in the breaking of lechem.
 36 And as they spoke, יהושע Himself stood in the midst of them, and said to them, *Shalom Aleichem. It is I; don't be afraid.*⁴
 37 But they were confused and frightened, and thought that they had seen a ruach.
 38 And He said to them, Why are you troubled? And why do thoughts arise in your levim?
 39 *See My hands and My feet, that it is I Myself: handle Me and understand, and see; for a ruach has no flesh and bones, as you see I have.*⁵
 40 And when He had spoken this, He showed them His hands and His feet.
 41 And while they yet believed not for simcha, and wondered, He said to them, Have you here any food?

⁵ This text declares that Yahshua did not rise as a spirit, or an invisible spirit. Rather, He arose as a glorified human without the blood, since that was shed for our atonement and forgiveness. While it was a different form of body, or a spiritual body, it was still with a form, having both flesh and bones, which allowed the disciples to touch and feel Him.

42 And they gave Him a piece of broiled fish, and a honeycomb.
 43 And He took it, and did eat before them.
 44 And He said to them, These are the words that I spoke to you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the Torah of Moshe, and in the Neviim, and in the Tehillim, concerning Me.
 45 Then He opened their binah, that they might understand the Keetvay HaKadosh, 46 And said to them, So it is written, and so it was necessary that the Moshiach suffer, and rise from the dead on the third day:
 47 *And that teshuvah for remission of sins should be proclaimed in His Name among all nations,*⁶ beginning at Yahrushalayim.
 48 And you are witnesses of these things.
 49 And, see, I send the Promise of My Abba upon you: but remain in the city of Yahrushalayim, until you are clothed with power from on high.
 50 And He led them out as far as to Beth-Anya,⁷ and He lifted up His hands, and made a bracha over them.⁸
 51 And it came to pass, while He blessed them, He departed from them, and went up into the shamayim.
 52 And they worshipped Him, and returned to Yahrushalayim with great simcha:
 53 And were continually in the Beit HaMikdash, giving tehillot and brachot to יהוה.⁹
 Amein. א

He Has Risen Indeed!

⁶ The fullness of all nations, or Efrayim-Yisrael.

⁷ Beth-Anya, or “House of Figs.” There is tremendous symbolism here, as Yahshua blesses both houses in His final earthly benediction, as both houses make up the fig tree, a symbol of national Yisrael throughout Scripture.

⁸ Possibly the Aaronic Benediction.

⁹ That’s why in Acts chapter 2, they were in The Father’s House, or the Temple, when the Spirit fell, since they were carefully commanded not to depart from the tarrying place, until the promise of the Spirit had arrived. This will become critical in understanding Renewed Covenant Yisrael, in the follow-up of Luke’s account as found in the Scroll of Acts.

The Besorah According To Yochanan – יוחנן – John
To All Nations

1 Beresheeth was the living Torah, ¹ and the living Torah ² was with יהוה, and the living Torah was יהוה.
2 The same was in the beginning with יהוה.
3 All things were made by Him; and without Him was not anything made that was made.
4 In Him was chayim; and the chayim was the Light of men.
5 And the Light shines in darkness; and the darkness did not overcome it.
6 There was a man sent from יהוה, whose name was Yochanan.
7 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through Him might believe.
8 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.
9 That was the emet Light, which lights every man that comes into the olam hazeh.
10 He was in the olam hazeh, and the olam hazeh was made by Him, and the olam hazeh knew Him not.
11 He came to His own, and His own received Him not.
12 But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of יהוה, even to them that believe on His Name:
13 Which were born, not of dahm, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of יהוה.
14 And the living Torah was made flesh, and dwelt among us, and we saw His tifereth, the tifereth as of the only brought forth of the Abba, full of unmerited favor and emet.
15 Yochanan bore witness of Him, and cried, saying, This was He of who I spoke, He that comes after me is preferred before me: for He was before me.
16 And of His fullness all we have received, unmerited favor upon unmerited favor.
17 For the Torah was given by Moshe; its unmerited favor and emet came by יהושע the Moshiach.
18 No man has seen the Abba at any time; the only brought forth Son, who was in the bosom of the Abba, He has declared Him.
19 And this is the witness of Yochanan, when the Yahudim sent Kohanim and Lewiym from Yahrushalayim to ask him, Who are you?
20 And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am

JOHN

¹ The Torah became flesh and thus the Torah is the true eternal word.

² Aramaic word is miltha, meaning force, emanation, power, substance and Torah. It is a unique word, to apply a unique term to the many manifestations of YHWH. Unlike the Hebrew davar, or Greek logos, or the Aramaic memra, miltha has no direct equivalent term in any other language including Hebrew. This is more proof of the Aramaic primacy of the Renewed Covenant.

³ The leadership of Jewish-Yisrael, not the people who heard Him gladly.

not the Moshiach.

21 And they asked him, What then? Are you Eliyahu? And he said, I am not. Are you Ha Navi? And he answered, No.

22 Then said they to him, Who are you? That we may give an answer to them that sent us. What are you saying about yourself?

23 He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the derech of the Master יהוה, as said the navi Yeshayahu.

24 And they that were sent were of the Prushim.

25 And they asked him, and said to him, Why are you doing mikvot, if you are not the Moshiach, nor Eliyahu, neither Ha Navi?

26 Yochanan answered them, saying, I mikvah with mayim: but there stands One among you, whom you know not;

27 He it is, whose coming after me is preferred before me, whose sandals I am not worthy to unloose.

28 These things were done in Beth-Bara beyond Yarden, where Yochanan was doing mikvah.

29 The next day Yochanan saw יהושע coming to him, and said, Behold the Lamb of יהוה, who takes away the sin of the olam hazeh.

30 This is He of whom I said, After me comes a Man who is preferred before me: for He was before me.

31 And I knew Him not: but that He should be made manifest to Yisrael, ⁴ therefore am I come performing mikvah with mayim.

32 And Yochanan bore witness, saying, I saw the Ruach descending from the shamayim like a yonah, and it stayed upon Him.

33 And I knew Him not: but He that sent me to mikvah with mayim, the same said to me, Upon whom you shall see the Ruach descending, and remaining on Him, the same is He who performs mikvot with the Set-Apart Ruach.

34 And I saw, and bore witness that this is The Son of יהוה. ⁵

35 Again the next day after Yochanan stood up with two of his talmidim;

36 And looking right at יהושע as He walked, he said, Behold the Lamb of יהוה!

37 And the two talmidim heard him speak, and they followed יהושע.

38 Then יהושע turned, and saw them following, and said to them, What are you seeking? They said to Him, Rabbi (Teacher), where do You live?

39 He said to them, Come and see. They came and saw where He dwelt, and stayed with Him that day: for it was about the tenth hour.

40 One of the two who heard Yochanan speak, and followed Him, was Andri, Shimon Kepha's brother.

41 He first found his own brother Shimon, and said to him, We have found the Moshiach.

⁴ The true and primary purpose of His coming.

⁵ Not a son but "the" Son. Not the Father in a costume.

42 And he brought him to יהושע. And when יהושע saw him, He said, You are Shimon bar Yonah: you shall be called Kepha, a stone.

43 The day following יהושע wished to go into Galil, and found Philip, and said to him, Follow Me.

44 Now Philip was of Beth-Tsaida, the city of Andri and Kepha.

45 Philip found Nathan-El, and said to him, We have found Him, of whom Moshe in the Torah, and the neviim, did write, יהושע of Natzeret, the Son of Yoseph.¹

46 And Natan-El said to him, Can any tov thing come out of Natzeret? Philip said to him, Come and see.

47 יהושע saw Natan-El coming to Him, and said of him, Behold a Yisraelite indeed, in whom is no guile!

48 Natan-El said to Him, From where do You know me? יהושע answered and said to him, *Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig eytz, I saw you.*²

49 Natan-El answered and said to Him, Rabbi, You are the Son of יהודה; You are Melech Yisrael.

50 יהושע answered and said to him, Because I said to you, I saw you under the fig eytz, you believe? You shall see greater things than these.

51 And He said to him, *Amein, amein, I say to you, From now on you shall see the shamayim opened, and the heavenly malachim of יהודה ascending and descending upon the Ben Ahdahm.*³

2 And on Yom Shleshi there was a marriage in Qanah of Galil; and the eema of יהושע was there:

2 And both יהושע was invited, and His talmidim, to the marriage.

3 And when they needed more wine, the eema of יהושע said to Him, They have no wine.

4 יהושע said to her, *Woman, what is it to Me and you? My hour has not yet come.*⁴

5 His eema said to the avadim, Whatever He says to you, do it.⁵

6 And there were set there six stone jars, after the manner of the purifying of the Yahudim, containing two, or three gallons apiece.

¹ In the literal, this is the stepson of Joseph, but in the hint application, Philip confesses that Messiah Son of Joseph, or the Suffering Messiah, has arrived to die and regather the lost sheep of Yisrael.

² Yahshua sees all true believers as standing under the fig tree, symbolic of national Yisrael. He does not recognize any believer that does not abide in the Commonwealth of Yisrael, under the fig tree.

⁴ The hour to break His Nazarite vow.

⁵ Note how Mary was fully subject to YHWH in Him, and didn't pull fleshly rank.

7 יהושע said to them, Fill the stone jars with mayim. And they filled them up to the brim.

8 And He said to them, Draw out with them now, and bring them to the master of ceremonies of the wedding. And they took them.

9 When the master of ceremonies of the wedding had tasted the mayim that was made wine, and knew not where it came from – but the avadim who drew the mayim knew – the master of ceremonies of the wedding called the bridegroom,

10 And said to him, Every man at the beginning does serve tov wine; and when men have drunk, afterwards that which is poorer: but you have kept the tov wine until now.

11 This is the beginning of the nisim that יהושע did in Qanah of Galil, and manifested forth His tifereth; and His talmidim believed on Him.⁶

12 After this He went down to Kfar Nachum, with His eema, and His brothers, and His talmidim: and they continued there a few days.

13 And the Yahudim's Pesach was at hand, and יהושע went up to Yahrushalayim,

14 And found in the Beit HaMikdash those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting:

15 And when He had made a whip of small cords, He drove them all out of the Beit HaMikdash, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables;

16 And said to them that sold doves, *Take these things away; make not My Abba's Bayit into a Bayit of merchandise.*⁷

17 And His talmidim remembered that it is written, The zeal for Your Bayit has given Me courage⁸ and eaten Me up.

18 Then answered the Yahudim and said to Him, What sign will You show us, seeing that You are doing these things?

19 יהושע answered and said to them, Destroy this Beit HaMikdash, and in three days I will raise it up.

20 Then said the Yahudim, Forty-six years this Beit HaMikdash was being built, and will You raise it up in three days?

21 But He spoke of the Beit HaMikdash of His body.⁹

22 When therefore He was risen from the dead, His talmidim remembered that He had said this to them; and they believed the Keetvay HaKadosh,¹⁰ and the word which יהושע had said.

⁶ As Messiah Son of Joseph, the gatherer of Yisrael's exiles, it was necessary that His work begin in the northern territories of the exiles of the House of Yisrael as seen here.

⁷ The moneychangers were allowed to be there according to Torah in Deuteronomy 14:24-26. What they were not allowed to do was operate in dishonesty, and on days when work was forbidden as per Torah.

23 Now when He was in Yahrushalayim at the Pesach, during the moed, many believed in His Name,¹ when they saw the nisim that He did.

24 But יהושע did not commit Himself to them, because He knew all men,²

25 And needed not that any should testify of man: for He knew what was in the sons of men.

3 There was a man of the Prushim, named Nakdimon, a ruler of the Yahudim:

2 The same came to יהושע by night, and said to Him, Rabbi, we know that You are a Moreh come from אלהה: for no man can do these nisim that You are doing, except אלהה be with Him.

3 יהושע answered and said to him, *Amein, amein, I say to you, Except a man be born again-brit halev,*³ he cannot see the malchut of יהוה.⁴

4 Nakdimon said to Him, How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter the second time into his eema's womb, and be born?

5 יהושע answered, *Amein, amein, I say to you, Except a man is born of mayim and of the Ruach, he cannot enter into the malchut of יהוה.*⁵

6 *That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Ruach is Ruach.*⁶

7 Marvel not that I said to you, You must be born from above.

8 The wind blows where it desires, and you hear the sound of it, but cannot tell where it comes from, and where it goes: so is every one that is born of the Ruach.

9 Nakdimon answered and said to Him, How can these things be?

10 יהושע answered and said to him, Are you a moreh of Yisrael, and you do not know these things?^{7 8}

¹ Faith in the true Name is essential according to the word.

² He knew the hearts of all Yisrael both good and bad.

³ A Hebraic requirement to follow and obey Torah as recorded in Deuteronomy 10:16, where YHWH requires Jacob/Yisrael to have circumcised hearts.

⁴ Yisrael restored under Messiah, through the new birth.

⁵ A reference to Ezekiel 36:25-27, where Renewed Covenant Yisrael was promised to have a new heart to obey, along with a change of thinking, as well as having water poured on them to purify them. That water is both the water that poured from Yahshua's side on the stake, as well as the sealing into the faith by full water immersion in Yahshua's Name. The Ezekiel reference is a clear statement that Yahshua came to pour water on unclean Yisrael, not to birth a separate gentile entity apart from historic Yisrael.

⁶ The principle of "like kind."

⁷ True teachers of Yisrael teach people how to be born again and follow Torah, and Nicodemus was not doing that.

⁸ Teachers who don't know Yahshua, or who are still "seeking" truth should be students in Yisrael, not teachers.

11 Amein, amein, I say to you, We⁹ speak what we do know, and testify what we have seen; and you receive not our witness.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and you believe not, how shall you believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?

13 *And no man has ascended up to the shamayim, but He that came down from the shamayim, even the Ben Ahdahm who is in the shamayim.*¹⁰

14 *And as Moshe lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Ben Ahdahm be lifted up:*¹¹

15 That whoever believes in Him should not perish, but have eternal chayim.

16 For יהוה so loved the olam hazeh, that He gave His only brought forth Son, that whoever believes on Him should not perish, but have everlasting chayim.

17 For יהוה sent not His Son into the olam hazeh to condemn the olam hazeh; but that the olam hazeh through Him might be saved.

18 He that believes on Him is not condemned: but he that believes not is condemned already, because he has not believed in the Name¹² of the only brought forth Son of יהוה.

19 And this is the condemnation, that Light has come into the olam hazeh, and men loved darkness rather than Light, because their deeds were evil.

20 For everyone that does evil hates the Light, neither comes to the Light, lest his deeds should be exposed.

21 But he that does emet comes to the Light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are done through אלהה.

22 After these things came יהושע and His talmidim into the province of Yahudah; and there He tarried with them, and was doing mikvot.

23 And Yochanan also was performing mikvah in Ayin near to Salim, because there was much mayim there: and they came, and were immersed.

24 For Yochanan was not yet cast into prison.

25 Then there arose a question between some of Yochanan's talmidim and the Yahudim about cleansing ceremonies.

26 And they came to Yochanan, and said to him, Rabbi, He that was with you beyond Yarden, to whom you bore witness, see, the same does mikvot, and all men come to Him.

27 Yochanan answered and said, A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from the shamayim.

28 You yourselves bear me witness that I said; I am not the Moshiach, but that I am sent before Him.

29 He that has the bride is the Bridegroom: but the chaver of the Bridegroom, who stands and hears Him, rejoices

⁹ He and the Father in Him.

¹⁰ This does not mean that believers' spirits do not go to heaven as some claim. Rather, it means what it says. That no one before Yahshua's death, burial and resurrection went to heaven, as seen in Luke 16, where they were preserved in Abraham's Bosom, or Paradise, later to be released at Messiah's ascension.

¹¹ Numbers 21:6-9. Look at Golgotha and live.

¹² What is His Name? Without knowing it and all that it entails, a man stands condemned.

greatly because of the Bridegroom's voice: in His voice, my simcha therefore is complete.

30 He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 He that comes from above is above all: he that is of the earth is earthly and speaks of the earth: He that comes from the shamayim is above all.¹

32 And what He has seen and heard, that He testifies; and no man receives His testimony.²

33 He that has received His testimony has received the seal that אלהא is emet.

34 For He whom יהוה has sent speaks the words of יהוה: for יהוה gives not the Ruach to Him by limited increments.

35 The Abba loves the Son, and has given all things into His hand.

36 He that believes on the Son has everlasting chayim: and he that believes not on the Son shall not see chayim; but the wrath of יהוה remains upon him.

4 When therefore the Master knew how the Prushim had heard that יהושע made and immersed more talmidim than Yochanan,

2 Though יהושע Himself did not do mikvot, but His talmidim.

3 He left Yahudah, and departed again into Galil.

4 And He needed to go through Shomron.³

5 He came to a city of Shomron, which is called Shechem, near to the parcel of ground that Yaakov gave to his son Yoseph.⁴

6 Now Yaakov's Well was there. יהושע therefore, being wearied with His journey, sat on the well: and it was about the sixth hour.

7 There came a woman of Shomron to draw mayim: יהושע said to her, Give Me to drink.

8 His talmidim had gone away to the city to buy food.

9 Then said the woman of Shomron to Him, How is it that You, being a Yahudi, asks a drink from me, who is a woman of Shomron? For the Yahudim have no dealings with the Shomronites.^{5 6}

¹ The Son pre-existed as YHWH's Word. Proverbs 30:4.

² Yahshua alone while in heaven, has seen and heard things from the Father and desires to reveal them to us if we know who Yahshua truly is.

³ The need was the actual calling by His Father to open up the door to the former capital of Efrayim.

⁴ This entire fascinating event takes place in a land given to Joseph and his children Efrayim and Manasseh. Later on, Samaria would be the actual capital of the northern kingdom.

10 יהושע answered and said to her, If you knew the gift of אלהא, and who it is that said to you, Give Me a drink; you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living mayim.

11 The woman said to Him, Master, You have no bucket, and the well is deep: from where then do You have this living mayim?

12 Are You greater than our abba Yaakov, who gave us the well, and drank from it himself, and his children, and his cattle?⁷

13 יהושע answered and said to her, Whoever drinks of this mayim shall thirst again:

14 But whoever drinks of the mayim that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the mayim that I shall give him shall be in him a well of mayim springing up into everlasting chayim.

15 The woman said to Him, Master, give me this mayim, that I thirst not, neither come here to draw.

16 יהושע said to her, Go, call your husband, and come here.

17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband.

18 יהושע said to her, You have well said, I have no husband:

19 For you have had five husbands;⁸ and the one whom you now have is not your husband:⁹ what you have said is emet.

20 The woman said to Him, Master, I perceive that You are a Navi.¹⁰

21 Our ahvot worshipped in this mountain; and yet You say, that in Yahrushalayim is the place where men¹¹ should worship.

22 יהושע said to her, Woman, believe Me, the hour comes, when you shall neither in this mountain,¹² nor at Yahrushalayim, worship the Abba.

Yisraelite Woman Of Shechem at:

<http://restorationscriptures.org/link5.htm>

⁷ She makes a direct claim to being a Yisraelite from Jacob's loins in the land of Joseph. It was common knowledge at the time that despite Jewish objections, Samaritans were in fact children of historic Yisrael.

⁹ Meaning Yahshua Himself, making sure she has no ideas.

¹⁰ Note that Yahshua rebuked her immoral lifestyle, but never responded to her claim to be a Yisraelite connected to Jacob, since that was common knowledge. Also from history we know that many early first-century believers came from Samaria. We have to assume they had offspring in later generations of believers, meaning many of their children today are still in the believing community.

¹¹ Yisraelites.

¹² Mt. Gerazim.

22 You worship you know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is from the Yahudim.¹
 23 But the hour comes, and now is, when the emet worshippers shall worship the Abba in Ruach and in Emet: for the Abba seeks such to worship Him.
 24 אלהא is Ruach: and they that worship Him must worship Him in Ruach and in Emet.²
 25 The woman said to Him, I know that the Moshiach comes, when He has come, He will tell us all things.
 26 יהושע said to her, I that speak to you am He.
 27 And at this time came His talmidim, and marveled that He talked with the woman: yet no man said, What do You want with her, or Why do You talk with her?³
 28 The woman then left her jug of mayim, and went on her derech into the city, and said to the men,
 29 Come, see a Man, who told me all things that I ever did: is not this the Moshiach?
 30 Then they went out of the city, and came to Him.
 31 In the meantime His talmidim urged Him, saying, Master, eat something.
 32 But He said to them, I have food to eat that you know nothing about.
 33 Therefore said the talmidim one to another, Has any man brought Him anything to eat?
 34 יהושע said to them, My food is to do the will of Him that sent Me, and to finish His work.
 35 *Do you not say, There are yet four months, and then comes the harvest? See, I say to you, Lift up your eyes, and look at the fields; for they are white already to harvest.*⁴
 36 And he that reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit to *chayim eternal: that both he that sows and he that reaps may gilah as echad.*⁵ 37 And in this case is that saying emet, One sows, and another reaps.

 38 I sent you to reap that on which you bestowed no labor: other men labored, and you have entered into their labors.
 39 And many of the Shomronites of that city believed on Him for the saying of the woman, which she testified, He told me all that I ever did.
 40 So when the Shomronites came to Him, they asked Him to stay with them: and He stayed there two days.⁶
 41 And many more believed because of His own word;
 42 And said to the woman, Now we believe, not because of your saying: for we have heard Him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Moshiach, the Savior of the olam hazeh.
 43 Now after two days He departed from there, and went into Galil.⁷
 44 For יהושע Himself testified, that a Navi has no honor in His own country.
 45 Then when He had come into Galil, the Galileans received Him, having seen all the nisim that He did at Yahrushalayim at the moed: for they also went to the moed.⁸
 46 So יהושע came again into Qanah of Galil, where He made the mayim wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Kfar Nachum.
 47 When he heard that יהושע had come out of Yahudah into Galil, he went to Him, and asked Him if He would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.
 48 Then said יהושע to him, Except you see signs and wonders, you will not believe.
 49 The nobleman said to Him, Master, come down before my child dies.
 50 יהושע said to him, Go on your way; your son lives. And the man believed the word that יהושע had spoken to him, and he went on his derech.
 51 And as he was now going down, his avadim met him, and told him, saying, Your son lives.
 52 Then he asked the time when his son began to improve. And they said to him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.
 53 So the abba knew that it was at the same hour, in which יהושע said to him, Your son lives: and he himself believed, and his bayit as well.
 54 This is the second ness that יהושע did, when He came out of Yahudah into Galil.

⁵ After this there was a moed of the Yahudim; and יהושע went up to Yahrushalayim.

² Those who do so are called in Scripture the "Yisrael of YHWH."

³ It was unheard of for a rabbi to be alone with a woman, let alone a Samaritan woman who was considered to be less than a pagan.

⁵ Yisraelites are the reapers, and the Son of Man is the sower of the word of reconciliation.

⁶ He stayed for two days, or 2,000 years, and has been staying primarily (not exclusively) in the House of Efrayim for that time.

⁷ From one former territory of the north to another.

⁸ Efrayimites at the feasts.

2 Now there is at Yahrushalayim by the sheep market a mikvah, which is called in the Ivrit tongue Beth Chesed,¹ having five porches.²

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folks, blind, crippled, and paralyzed, waiting for the moving of the mayim.

4 For a heavenly malach went down at a certain season into the mikvah, and stirred the mayim: whoever was first in after the stirring of the mayim was made well of whatever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, who had an illness thirty-eight years.

6 When יהושע saw him lying down, He knew that he had been in that condition for a long time, said to him, Do you wish to be made well?

7 The impotent man answered Him, Master, I have no one, when the mayim is stirred, to put me into the mikvah: but while I am coming, another steps down before me.

8 יהושע said to him, Rise, take up your quilt, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made well, and took up his quilt, and walked: and that day was the Shabbat.

10 The Yahudim therefore said to him that was cured, It is Shabbat: it is not allowed by Torah for you to carry your quilt.

11 He answered them, He that made me well, the same One said to me, Take up your quilt, and walk.

12 Then they asked him, What man is that who said to you, Take up your quilt, and walk?

13 And he that was healed did not know who it was: for יהושע had moved Himself away, into a large multitude in that place.

14 Afterward יהושע found him in the Beit HaMikdash, and said to him, Behold, you are made well: sin no more, lest a worse thing come to you.

15 The man departed, and told the Yahudim that it was יהושע, who had made him well.

16 And therefore did the Yahudim persecute יהושע, and sought to kill Him, because He had done these things on the Shabbat.

17 But יהושע answered them, *My Abba works until now, and I work.*³

18 Therefore the Yahudim sought even more to kill Him, because He not only had broken the Shabbat,⁴ but said also that אלהא was His Abba, making Himself equal with אלהא.⁵

² For the five books of Torah, symbolizing the great mercy outlined in the Torah.

³ This does not mean that Yisrael can now work on Shabbat. It means when it comes to the Father's work of rebuilding Yisrael, and healing injured sheep, we are to do the Father's work without cessation, seven days a week. Worldly and personal labors, especially labor for pay as an employee of another, remains forbidden.

⁴ A false accusation.

⁵ Another false accusation. Throughout the scroll of John, He says that while being YHWH, He is the lesser YHWH, subject and in full dependence on The Father

19 Then answered יהושע and said to them, *Amein, amein, I say to you, The Son can do nothing by Himself, but only what He sees the Abba doing: for the things He does, these also does the Son likewise.*⁶

20 For the Abba loves the Son, and shows Him all things that He Himself does: and He will show Him greater works than these that you may marvel.

21 For as the Abba raises the dead, and makes alive; even so the Son makes alive whom He will.

22 For the Abba judges no man, but has entrusted all mishpat to the Son:

23 *That all men should honor the Son, even as they honor the Abba. He that honors not the Son honors not the Abba who has sent Him.*⁷

24 Amein, amein, I say to you, He that hears My word, and believes on Him that sent Me, has everlasting chayim, and shall not come into condemnation; but has passed from death to chayim.

25 Amein, amein, I say to you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of יהוה: and they that hear shall live.

26 For as the Abba has chayim in Himself; so has He given to the Son to have chayim in Himself;

27 And has given Him authority to execute mishpat also, because He is the Ben Ahdahm.

28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, that all that are in the graves shall hear His voice,

29 And shall come forth; they that have done tov, to the resurrection of chayim; and they that have done evil, to the resurrection of damnation.

30 I can by My own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and My mishpat is righteous; because I seek not My own will, but the will of the Abba who has sent Me.

31 If I bear witness of Myself, My witness is not emet.

32 There is Another⁸ that bears witness of Me; and I know that the witness which He witnesses of Me is emet.

33 You sent to Yochanan, and he bore witness to the Emet.

34 But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that you might be saved.

35 He was a burning and a shining light: and you were willing for a season to gilah in His light.

36 But I have a greater witness than that of Yochanan: for the works which the Abba has given Me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of Me, that the Abba has sent Me.

37 And the Abba Himself, who has sent Me, has borne witness of Me. You have neither heard His voice at any time, nor seen His appearance.

38 And you have not His word living and abiding in you: for whom He has sent, Him you believe not.

YHWH. At no time does He equate the Sent One as equal to the Sender.

⁶ Here Yahshua clarifies that He is fully reliant on the Father, thus negating their false accusation.

⁷ This is a clear warning, to those running to embrace any faith system that leaves out Yahshua as YHWH's Son.

⁸ Note the Father is a second witness and thus must be the other power in the plurality of one.

39 Search the Keetvay HaKadosh; ¹ for in them you think you have eternal chayim: and these are those, which testify of Me.

40 And you will not come to Me, that you might have chayim. ²

41 I receive not honor from men.

42 But I know you, that you have not the ahava of אלהא in you.

43 I am come in My Abba's Name, and you receive Me not: if another shall come in his own name, him you will receive. ³

44 How can you believe, you who receive honor from each other, and seek not the honor that comes from יהוה only?

45 Do not think that I will accuse you to the Abba: there is one that accuses you, even Moshe, in whom you trust. ⁴

46 For had you believed Moshe, you would have believed Me: for he wrote of Me.

47 But if you believe not his Ketuvim, how shall you believe My words? ⁵

6 After these things יהושע went over the Sea of Galil, which is the Sea of Kinnereth.

2 And a great multitude followed Him, because they saw His nisim that He did on those that were diseased.

3 And יהושע went up into a mountain, and there He sat with His talmidim.

4 And the Pesach, a moed of the Yahudim, was near.

5 When יהושע then lifted up His eyes, and saw a great company come to Him, He said to Philip, Where shall we buy lechem that these may eat?

6 And this He said to test him: for He Himself knew what He would do.

7 Philip answered Him, Two hundred pieces of silver worth of lechem is not enough for them, even if each one of them took a little.

8 One of His talmidim, Andri, Shimon Kepha's brother, said to Him,

9 There is a lad here, who has five barley loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many? ⁶

² Some of the saddest words in Scripture.

³ YHWH saves and became Yahshua, and thus the Son's Name contains both the Name and the action taken by the Father on our behalf. Since Messiah is a literal person on earth, so is the end-time anti-messiah, who will come in his own Name and authority and not that of Yahweh's. s.a.tan's promotion of a generic mighty one, fits in well with the concept of coming in his own name and authority.

⁵ Since they are the same with the same authority.

⁶ See notes on Matthew 14:19, Mark 6:41.

10 And יהושע said, Make the men ⁷ sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

11 And יהושע took the loaves; and when He had said the bracha, He distributed to the talmidim, and the talmidim to them that were sitting down; and likewise from the fishes as much as they could.

12 When they were filled, He said to His talmidim, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.

13 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above that which they had eaten. ⁸

14 Then those men, when they had seen the ness that יהושע did, said, This is truly Ha Navi ⁹ that should come into the olam hazeh.

15 When יהושע therefore perceived that they would come and take Him by force, to make Him Melech Yisrael, He departed again into a mountain Himself alone.

16 And when evening came, His talmidim went down to the sea,

17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Kfar Nachum. And it was now dark, and יהושע had not come to them.

18 And the sea arose because of a great wind that blew.

19 So when they had rowed about twenty-five, or thirty furlongs, they saw יהושע walking by the sea, ¹⁰ and drawing near to the ship: and they were afraid.

20 But He said to them, It is I; be not afraid.

21 Then they willingly received Him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the province where they were going.

22 The day following, the people who stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, except for the one into which His talmidim had entered, and that יהושע had not entered with His talmidim.

23 But other boats from Tiberias came from near the place where they had eaten lechem, after יהושע had said the bracha:

24 When the people therefore saw that יהושע was not there, neither His talmidim, they also took boats, and came to Kfar Nachum, seeking for יהושע.

25 And when they had found Him at the seaport, they said to Him, Rabbi, when did You come here?

26 יהושע answered them and said, Amein, amein, I say to you, You seek Me, not because you saw the nisim, but because you did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

27 Labor not for the food that perishes, but for that food that endures to everlasting chayim, which the Ben Ahdahm shall give you: for Him has the Abba sealed.

28 Then they said to Him, What should we do, that we might do the works of אלהא?

29 יהושע answered and said to them, This is the great mitzvah of אלהא, that you believe on Him whom He has sent.

30 They said therefore to Him, What sign will You show us, that we may see, and believe You? What mitzvah do You perform?

31 Our ahvot did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, He gave them manna from the shamayim to eat.

32 Then יהושע said to them, Amein, amein, I say to you, Moshe gave you not that manna from the shamayim; but My Abba gives you the emet lechem from the shamayim.

33 For the lechem of אלהא is He who comes down from the shamayim, and gives chayim to the olam hazeh.

34 Then they said to Him, Master, Always and le-olam-va-ed give us this lechem.

35 And יהושע said to them, I am the lechem of chayim: he that comes to Me shall never hunger; and he that believes on Me shall never thirst.

36 But I said to you, That you also have seen Me, and believe not.

37 All that the Abba gives to Me shall come to Me; and he that comes to Me I will in no way cast out.

38 For I came down from the shamayim, not to do My own will, but the will of Him that sent Me.

39 *And this is the Abba's will who has sent Me, that of all those He has given Me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.*¹

40 And this is the will of Him that sent Me, that everyone who sees the Son, and believes on Him, may have everlasting chayim: and I will raise him up at the last day.

41 The Yahudim then murmured at Him, because He said, I am the lechem who came down from the shamayim.²

42 And they said, Is not this יהושע, the ben of Yoseph,³ whose abba and eema we know? How is it then that He said, I came down from the shamayim?

43 יהושע therefore answered and said to them, Murmur not among yourselves.

44 No man can come to Me, except the Abba who has sent Me draws him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 *It is written by the navi, And they shall be all taught of יהוה.*⁴ Every man therefore that has heard, and has learned from the Abba, comes to Me.

46 *Not that any man has seen the Abba, except the One who is from יהוה*⁵ He can seen the Abba.

47 Amein, amein, I say to you, He that believes on Me has everlasting chayim.

48 I am that lechem of chayim.

49 Your ahvot did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

¹ The Father's will is resurrection not rapture.

² Just like in the wilderness with the first descent of manna. Here, some 1,500 years later, they still complain about heavenly bread.

³ Messiah Son of Joseph, the Messiah who would suffer so that Efrayim-Yisrael could return with Judah.

⁴ Isaiah 54:13. Here Yahshua refers to himself as YHWH, who has arrived to teach all Yisrael.

⁵ Greek: "para" meaning, "out from," or "taken out from." See John 1:18.

50 This is the lechem that comes down from the shamayim that a man may eat of it, and not die.

51 I am the living lechem who came down from the shamayim: if any man eats of this lechem, he shall live le-olam-va-ed: and the lechem that I will give is My flesh, which I will give for the chayim of the olam hazeh.

52 The Yahudim therefore argued among themselves, saying, How can this man give us His flesh to eat?⁶

53 Then יהושע said to them, Amein, amein, I say to you, Except you eat the flesh of the Ben Ahdahm, and drink His dahm; you have no chayim in you.

54 Whoever eats My flesh, and drinks My dahm, has eternal chayim; and I will raise him up on the last day.

55 For My flesh is meat indeed, and My dahm is drink indeed.

56 He that eats My flesh, and drinks My dahm, dwells in Me, and I in him.

57 *As the living Abba has sent Me, and I live by the Abba: so he that eats of Me, even he shall live by Me.*⁷

58 *This is that lechem*⁸ that came down from the shamayim: not as your ahvot did eat manna, and are dead: he that eats of this lechem shall live le-olam-va-ed.

59 These things said He in the synagogue, as He taught in Kfar Nachum.

60 Many therefore of His talmidim, when they had heard this, said, Oy vey! This is a difficult teaching; who can hear and obey it?

61 When יהושע knew within Himself that His talmidim murmured, He said to them, *Does this offend you?*⁹

62 What if you shall see the Ben Ahdahm ascend up to where He was before?

63 *It is the Ruach that makes alive; the flesh profits nothing: the words that I speak to you, they are Ruach, and they are chayim.*¹⁰

64 But there are some of you that believe not. For יהושע knew from Beresheeth¹¹ whom they were that believed not, and who should betray Him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I to you that no man can come to Me, except it is given to him by My Abba.

66 From that time on many of His talmidim backslid, and had their halacha no longer with Him.

67 Then said יהושע to the twelve, Will you also go away?

⁶ Cannibalism is forbidden in Torah.

⁷ Yahshua is in no way promoting cannibalism. Rather He is speaking in the sod/mystery, or esoteric, stating that spiritual abiding is the key and that symbols of that spiritual trust and abiding can be soon found in his flesh and blood, which will serve as symbols and reminders of His date with the execution stake. His flesh will soon represent the true bread of life that had been under prior discussion.

⁸ His sacrificed flesh.

⁹ Truth will always offend overly-sensitive people, and in Yisrael a battle-tested army cannot afford to be too sensitive, or they'll turn their backs on truth, and on the men who are bold enough to proclaim truth, who do not look at men's faces for reactions.

¹⁰ "Chayim" literally means "lives" as in temporal + eternal lives.

¹¹ Genesis chapter one.

68 Then Shimon Kepha answered Him, Rabbi, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal chayim.
 69 And we believe and are sure that You are the Moshiach, the Son of the living יהוה.
 70 יהושע answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and yet one of you is a shad?
 71 He spoke of Yahudah from Qerioth the son of Shimon: for he it was that was chosen to betray Him, being one of the twelve.

7 After these things יהושע walked only in Galil: for He would not walk in the province of Yahudah because the Yahudim sought to kill Him.¹
 2 Now the Yahudim's moed of Sukkot was at hand.²
 3 His brothers therefore said to Him, Depart from here,³ and go into Yahudah, that Your talmidim also might see the works that You are doing.
 4 For there is no one who does anything in secret, who himself seeks to be known openly. If You do these nisim, show Yourself to the olam hazeh.
 5 For neither did His brothers believe in Him.⁴
 6 Then יהושע said to them, My time is not yet⁵ come: but your time to go up is always ready.
 7 The olam hazeh cannot hate you; but Me it hates, because I testify against it, that its deeds are evil.
 8 Go up to this moed: I do not go up to this moed; for My time is not yet come.
 9 When He had said these words to them, He stayed still in Galil.
 10 But when His brothers had gone up, then He went also up to the moed, but not openly, but as it were in secret.
 11 Then the Yahudim sought Him at the moed, and said, Where is He?
 12 And there was much murmuring among the people concerning Him: for some said, He is a tov man: others said, No; but He just deceives the people.
 13 But no man spoke openly about Him for fear of the Yahudim.
 14 Now about the midst of the moed⁶ יהושע went up into the Beit HaMikdash, and taught.

¹ Not all Jews. Just the Jewish leaders in Judea.

² These references don't change YHWH's feasts into Jewish feasts, but simply point out that Efrayim is still in the nations, or else they too would be celebrating them like they were supposed to. All these references to the Jewish feasts merely prove that Efrayim had not returned at that time, and this is the Spirit's way of hinting that Efrayim was missing.

³ Northern territory.

⁴ Physical brothers, for if they were spiritual brothers, they would be "unbelieving spiritual brothers" – surely an oxymoron.

⁵ Apparently He had taken a new Nazarite vow, and appears to have done this throughout His life on earth.

⁶ Here we see during the intermediate days of the feast, somewhere between the 16th and 20th of the 7th month during Tabernacles, where Yahshua does a healing on the weekly Shabbat. This is proof positive that the weekly Shabbat does not fall on any of the patterns put forth by Lunar Sabbatarians. The Aramaic of John 7:

15 And the Yahudim marveled, saying, How does this man know how to read the scrolls, having never learned in a yeshiva?⁷

16 יהושע answered them, and said, My teaching is not Mine, but His who sent Me.

17 If any man desires His will, he shall know of the teaching, whether it be from יהוה, or if I speak from My own thoughts.

18 He that speaks of himself seeks his own tifereth: but He that seeks the tifereth of the One who sent Him, the same is emet, and there is no unrighteousness in Him.

19 Did not Moshe give you the Torah, and yet none of you keeps the Torah? Why do you try to kill Me?

20 The people answered and said, You have a shad: who is trying to kill You?

21 יהושע answered and said to them, I have done one mitzvah, and you all marvel.

22 Moshe therefore gave you brit milah – not because it is from Moshe, but from the ahvot – and you on the Shabbat brit milah a man.

23 If a man on the Shabbat receives brit milah, that the Torah of Moshe is not broken; are you angry with Me, because I have made a man fully healed on the Shabbat?

24 Shophet not according to appearance, but judge a tzadik mishpat.

25 Then said some of them from Yahrushalayim, Is not this the One whom they seek to kill?

26 But look, He speaks boldly, and they say nothing to Him. Perhaps our rulers have found out that this is the actual Moshiach?

27 But on the other hand we know this man and where He comes from: but when the Moshiach comes, no man will know where He is from.

28 Then cried יהושע in the Beit HaMikdash as He taught, saying, You both know Me, and you know where I am from: and I am not come by Myself, but He who sent Me is Emet, whom you know not.

29 But I know Him: for I am from Him, and He has sent Me.

30 Then they sought to take Him: but no man laid hands on Him, because His hour had not yet come.

31 And many of the people believed on Him, and said, When the Moshiach comes; will he do more nisim than those that this Man has done?

32 The Prushim heard the people muttering such things about Him; and the Prushim and the chief Kohanim sent officers to seize Him.

33 Then said יהושע to them, Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go to Him that sent Me.

34 You shall seek Me, and shall not find Me: and where I am, there you cannot come.

35 Then said the Yahudim among themselves, Where will He go, that we shall not find Him? Will He go to the 23 indicates a just completed and yet ongoing healing on a weekly Shabbat that does not fit any Lunar Sabbatarian reckoning.

⁷ Deuteronomy 31:10-13 commands the entire Torah to be read at Sukkot in a year of shmetah, or sabbatical year, and that's exactly what Yahshua was doing. This ability is what shocked the rabbis.

dispersed among the Greeks¹ and the pagan nations,² and teach them?
 36 What kind of saying is this that He said, You shall seek Me, and shall not find Me: and where I am, there you cannot come?
 37 On the last and greatest day of the moed, יהושע stood and cried, saying, *If any man thirsts, let him come to Me, and drink.*³
 38 *He that believes on Me, as the Keetvay HaKadosh*⁴ have said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of mayim chayim.
 39 And this He spoke of the Ruach, which they that believe on Him would receive: for the Ruach Hakodesh was not yet given; because יהושע was not yet esteemed.
 40 Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Truly this is Ha Navi of Sefer Devarim.
 41 Others said, This is the Moshiach. But some said, Shall the Moshiach come out of Galil?
 42 Have not the Keetvay HaKadosh said, that the Moshiach comes from the zera of Dawid, and out of the town of Beth-Lechem, where Dawid was from?
 43 So there was a division among the people because of Him.
 44 And some of them would have taken Him; but no man laid hands on Him.
 45 Then came the officers to the chief Kohanim and Prushim; and they said to them, Why have you not brought Him to us?
 46 The officers answered, Never has any man spoken like this man.
 47 Then answered the Prushim, Are you also deceived?
 48 Have any of the rulers, or any of the Prushim believed on Him?
 49 But these people⁵ who know not the Torah are cursed.
 50 Nakdimon said to them – he that came to יהושע by night, being one of them –
 51 Does our Torah judge any man,⁶ before it hears him, and knows what he does?

8 יהושע went to the Mount of Olives.

2 And early in the morning He came again into the Beit HaMikdash, and all the people came to Him; and He sat down, and taught them.

3 And the scribes and Prushim brought to Him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had placed her in the midst,

4 They said to Him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 Now Moshe in the Torah commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what are you saying?

6 This they said, tempting Him, that they might be able to accuse Him. But יהושע stooped down, and with His finger wrote on the ground, as though He heard them not.

7 So when they continued asking Him, He lifted Himself up, and said to them, He that is without sin among you, let him be the first to cast a stone at her.

8 And again He stooped down, and wrote on the ground.^{9 10}

9 And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning with the eldest, even to the youngest: and יהושע was left alone, with the woman standing in the midst.

10 When יהושע had lifted Himself up, and saw no one but the woman, He said to her, Woman, where are your accusers? Has no man condemned you?

11 She said, No man, Master. And יהושע said to her, Neither do I condemn you: go, and sin no more.

12 Then spoke יהושע again to them, saying, I am the Light of the olam hazeh: he that follows Me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the Light of chayim.

13 The Prushim therefore said to Him, You bare witness of Yourself; Your witness is not emet.

14 יהושע answered and said to them, Though I bear witness of Myself, yet My witness is emet: for I know where I came from, and where I am going; but you cannot tell where I came from, or where I go.

15 You judge after the flesh; I judge no man.

16 And yet if I do judge, My mishpat is emet: for I am not doing it alone, but I and the Abba that sent Me.

⁷ Aramaic Peshitta refers to The Prophet, or the Messiah, who it was believed could not come from Galilee. Of course, Yahshua was actually from Bethlehem of Judea and only lived in Galilee, thus confusing their ability to grasp the situation.

⁸ These verses, from chapter 7:53 to chapter 8:11, are not found in either the Peshitta, or the four oldest Greek manuscripts.

18 *I am one that bears witness of Myself, and the Abba that sent Me bears witness of Me.*¹

19 Then they said to Him, Where is Your Abba? יהושע answered You neither know Me, nor My Abba: if you knew Me, you would have known My Abba also.

20 These words spoke יהושע in the treasury, as He taught in the Beit HaMikdash: and no man laid hands on Him; for His hour had not yet come.

21 Then said יהושע again to them, I go on My derech, and you shall seek Me, and shall die in your sins: where I go, you cannot come.

22 Then said the Yahudim, Will He kill Himself?

Because He said, Where I go, you cannot come.

23 And He said to them, You are from beneath; I am from above: you are of the olam hazeh; I am not of the olam hazeh.

24 *I said therefore to you, that you shall die in your sins: for if you believe not that I AM, you shall die in your sins.*²

25 Then said they to Him, Who are You? And יהושע said to them, Even though I have just begun to speak to you;

26 I have many things to say and to judge you for: but He that sent Me is emet; and I speak to the olam hazeh those things which I have heard from Him.

27 They did not understand that He spoke to them of the Abba.

28 Then said יהושע to them, When you have lifted up the Ben Ahdahm, then shall you know that I am, and that I do nothing by Myself; but as My Abba has taught Me, I speak these things.

29 *And He that sent Me is with Me: the Abba has not left Me alone; for I do always those things that please Him.*³

30 As He spoke these words, many believed on Him.

31 Then said יהושע to those Yahudim who believed on Him, *If you continue in My word, then are you My talmidim indeed;*⁴

32 And you shall know the emet, and the emet shall make you free.

33 They answered Him, We are Avraham's zera, and were never in bondage⁵ to any man: how are You saying,

You shall be made a free people?

34 יהושע answered them, Amein, amein, I say to you, Whoever commits sin is the eved of sin.

35 And the eved stays not in the bayit le-olam-va-ed: but a son stays le-olam-va-ed.

36 If the Son therefore shall make you free, you shall be free indeed.

37 I know that you are Avraham's zera; but you seek to kill Me, because My word has no place in you.

38 I speak that which I have seen with My Abba: and you do that which you have seen with your abba.

39 They answered and said to Him, Avraham is our abba. יהושע said to them, If you were Avraham's children, you would do the works of Avraham.

40 But now you seek to kill Me, a man that has told you the emet, which I have heard from יהוה: this Avraham did not do.

41 You do the deeds of your abba. Then they said to Him, We are not born of fornication; we have one Abba, even אלהא.⁶

42 יהושע said to them, If אלהא יהוה were your Abba, you would love Me: for I proceeded forth and came from יהוה; neither came I by My own accord, but He sent Me.

43 Why do you not understand My speech? Even because you cannot hear My word.

44 *You are of your abba s.a.tan,*⁷ and the lusts of your abba you will do. He was a murderer from Beresheeth, and stayed not in the emet, because there is no emet in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks his own lie: for he is a liar, and the abba of it.

45 And because I tell you the emet, you do not believe Me.

46 Which of you can rebuke Me because of sin? And if I say the emet, why do you not believe Me?

47 He that is of יהוה hears יהוה's words: you therefore hear them not, because you are not of יהוה.

48 Then answered the Yahudim, and said to Him, Don't we say the emet, that You are a Shomronite, and have a shad?⁸

49 יהושע answered, *I have not a shad; but I honor My Abba, but you do dishonor and curse Me.*⁹

50 And I seek not My own tifereth: there is One that seeks and judges.

51 Amein, amein, I say to you, If a man guards My words,

¹ This passage gives insight into the two powers of the Father and Son that serve as dual witnesses. Yahshua Himself declares the Father and Son as one, yet two witnesses according to Torah, not one witness in different costumes.

² It is required that every man, or woman believe in Yahshua as the "I Am" of Exodus 3:14-15, or the consequences will be a second and eternal death. This includes all from the House of Judah.

⁴ The test of discipleship is endurance to the end of one's life on earth.

⁵ The Aramaic word abdota more accurately means in a "debtor relationship" to anyone, and not their historical physical slavery which the Jewish leaders were certainly aware of. Yet their sin debt to YHWH which had not been paid, is what Yahshua is addressing.

⁶ Even then the accusations of Yahshua being illegitimate were circulating.

⁸ A dual accusation. That He is demon-driven, and is an Efrayimite, again displaying the contempt and hate between Yisrael's two houses.

⁹ Notice how He so identified with Efrayim-Yisrael as Messiah Son of Joseph, in that He refuses to answer the Samaritan accusation, seeing Himself as a Yisraelite in suffering, like they themselves were.

he shall never see death.

52 Then said the Yahudim to Him, Now we know that You have a shad. Avraham is dead, and the neviim; and You are saying, If a man guards My words, he shall never taste death.

53 Are You greater than our abba Avraham, who is dead? And the neviim who are dead: who do You make Yourself to be?

54 יהושע answered, If I honor Myself, My honor is nothing: it is My Abba that honors Me; the One who you say, is your אלה:

55 Yet you have not known Him; but I know Him: and if I should say, I don't know Him, I shall be a liar like all of you: but I know Him, and shomer His word.

56 *Your abba Avraham rejoiced to see My day: and he saw it, and had gilah.*¹

57 Then said the Yahudim to Him, You are not yet fifty years old, and You have seen Avraham?

58 יהושע said to them, *Amein, amein, I say to you, Before Avraham was, I am.*²

59 Then they took up stones to cast at Him: but יהושע hid Himself, and went out of the Beit HaMikdash, going through the midst of them, and so went away.³

9 And as יהושע passed by, He saw a man who was blind from his birth.

2 And His talmidim asked Him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?

3 יהושע answered, Neither has this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of אלה should be made manifest through him.

4 I must do the works of Him that sent Me, while it is day: the night comes, when no man can do works.

5 As long as I am in the olam hazeh, I am the Light of the olam hazeh.

6 When He had spoken this, He spat on the ground, and made clay with the saliva, and He anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay,

7 And said to him, Go, wash in the Mikvah of Shiloach – which is by interpretation, Sent – he went on his derech therefore, and washed, and came back seeing.

8 The neighbors therefore, and those who before had seen him blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?

9 Some said, This is that man: others said, No he only resembles him: but he said, I am the one.

10 Therefore they said to him, How were your eyes opened?

11 He answered and said, A Man they call יהושע made clay, and anointed my eyes, and said to me, Go to the Mikvah of Shiloach, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received my sight.

12 Then they said to him, Where is He? He said, I don't know.

13 They brought to the Prushim him that was blind before.

14 And it was Shabbat when יהושע made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then again the Prushim asked him how he had received his sight. He said to them, He put clay upon my eyes, and I washed, and do see.

16 Therefore said some of the Prushim, This Man is not from אלה, because He does not shomer the Shabbat! Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such nisim? And there was a division among them.

17 They said to the blind man again, What do you say about Him, who has opened your eyes? He said to them, I say He is a Navi.

18 But the Yahudim did not believe him, who had been blind, and received his sight, until they called in the parents of him that had received his sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?

20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

21 But by what means he now sees, we don't know; or who has opened his eyes we don't know: he is bar mitzvah;⁴ ask him: he can speak for himself.

22 These words spoke his parents, because they feared the Yahudim: for the Yahudim had agreed already, that if any man did confess that He was the Moshiach, he would then be put out of the synagogue.⁵

23 Because of this his parents said, He is bar mitzvah; ask him.

24 Then they again called the man that was blind, and said to him, Give אלה the tehilla: we know that this Man is a sinner.

25 He answered and said, Whether He is a sinner, or not, I don't know: one thing I know, that, before I was blind, but now I see.

26 Then said they to him again, What did He do to you? How did He open your eyes?

27 He answered them, I have told you already, and you do not hear: why do you want to hear it again? Do you also desire to be His talmidim?

28 Then they cursed him, and said, You are His talmid; but we are Moshe's talmidim.

29 We know that אלה spoke to Moshe: as for this fellow, we don't even know where He comes from.

30 The man answered and said to them, Why here is an interesting thing, that you don't know from where He comes from, and yet He has opened my eyes.

31 Now we know that אלה listens not to sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of אלה, and does His will, He listens to him.

32 Since the olam hazeh began it was never heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

33 If this man were not from אלה, He could do nothing.

34 They answered and said to him, You were altogether born in sins, and yet you teach us? And they cast him out.

35 יהושע heard that they had cast him out; and when He had found him, He said to him, Do you believe on the Son of יהוה?

² A claim to be YHWH.

³ They understood His claim to be YHWH even if some today don't.

⁴ A child of the covenant, and thus 13 and older.

⁵ The leaders agreed, not the people who heard him gladly.

36 He answered and said, Who is He, Master, that I may believe on Him?
 37 And יהושע said to him, You have seen Him, and it is He that is speaking with you right now.
 38 And he said, Master, I believe. And he worshipped Him.
 39 And יהושע said, For mishpat I am come into this olam hazeh, that they who see not might see; and that they who see might be made blind.
 40 And some of the Prushim who were with Him heard these words, and said to Him, Are we blind also?
 41 יהושע said to them, If you were blind, you would have no sin: but now you say, We see; therefore your sin remains.

10 Amein, amein, I say to you, He that enters not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbs up some other derech, the same is a thief and a robber.

2 But He that enters in by the door is the Shepherd of the sheep.

3 To Him the doorkeeper opens; and the sheep hear His voice: and He calls His own sheep by name, and leads them out.

4 And when He puts forth His own sheep, He goes before them, and the sheep follow Him: for they know His voice.

5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

6 This figure of speech יהושע used with them: but they understood not these things that He spoke to them.

7 Then said יהושע to them again, Amein, amein, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep.

8 All that ever came before Me are thieves and robbers: ¹ but the sheep did not hear them.

9 I am the door: by Me if any man enters in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

10 The thief comes not, but to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have chayim, and that they might have it more abundantly.

11 I am the Tov Shepherd: the Tov Shepherd gives His chayim for the sheep.

12 But he that is a hired person, and not the Shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, sees the wolf coming, and leaves the sheep, and runs away: and the wolf catches them, and scatters the sheep.

13 The hired person runs away, because he is a hired person, and cares not for the sheep.

14 I am the Tov Shepherd, and know My sheep, and am known by My sheep: ²

15 As the Abba knows Me, even so I know the Abba: and I lay down My chayim for the sheep.

16 And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring in, and they shall hear My voice;

¹ By definition this must include ancient “so-called” eastern masters like Buddha, Confucius and Krishna.

² Ezekiel 34:11-31 is where YHWH Himself promises to come to earth to look for and find His lost sheep. The speech here is used to alert anyone familiar with Scripture that Yahshua Himself is the one who has come to look for and return Yisrael’s wandering exiles back to the fold.

and there shall be one fold, and one Shepherd. ³
17 Therefore does My Abba love Me, because I lay down My chayim, that I might take it again. ⁴
18 No man takes it from Me, but I lay it down by Myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received from My Abba. ⁵

19 There was a division therefore again among the Yahudim for these sayings. ⁶

20 And many of them said, He has a shad and is meshugas; why do you listen to Him? ⁷

21 Others said, These are not the words of Him that has a shad. Can a shad open the eyes of the blind? ⁸

22 And it was at Yahrushalayim at Chanukah, and it was winter.

23 And יהושע walked in the Beit HaMikdash in Shlomo’s Porch.

24 Then came the Yahudim around Him, and said to Him, How long do You make us doubt? If You are the Moshiaich, tell us plainly.

25 יהושע answered them, I told you, and you believed not: the works that I do in My Abba’s Name, they bear witness of Me.

³ A plain reference to the other fold, or flock of Yisrael, Efrayim-Yisrael, that Yahshua says He must bring in by command of the Father. Note that even before He died and rose, He had two existing Yisraelite flocks, not one. Through His mission as the Good Shepherd, both folds will become one.

⁴ The Father loves Yahshua, because He is faithful to His primary mission of taking two Yisraelite folds, and making them one Yisrael, knowing YHWH.

⁵ The mission to die for both houses is called a commandment by Yahshua.

⁶ The truth about the true purpose of Yahshua’s death, which is to restore and regather both houses of Yisrael, brings sharp division among the Jewish community. It seems like whenever Judah hears of YHWH’s love for both houses as in Luke 15, it brings out the worst in them. The message of the true kingdom always brings division, and those who teach the truth will always be labeled as divisive. Yet it is that message alone that heals and ends vexation and jealousy.

⁷ Yahshua was called insane and demon-influenced due to His teachings regarding His Shepherd’s role in the regathering of both houses of Yisrael. Today, those Jews who proclaim YHWH’s plan to reunite non-Jewish Yisrael with Jewish-Yisrael, are also accused of being insane and of promoting a teaching of demons, just like Yahshua was accused in this text.

Nevertheless, YHWH is working in the earth, as more and more Jewish believers are seeing the two-house restoration.

⁸ Both houses are being restored as blindness is removed. Judah’s blindness to Yahshua, and Efrayim’s blindness to Torah and their Hebraic identity, constitutes blindness removed from each house. This is healing and is not a demonic activity as Yahshua Himself taught us.

26 But you believe not, because you are not My sheep, as I said to you.
 27 My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me:
 28 And I give to them eternal chayim; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man snatch them out of My hand.
 29 My Abba, who gave them to Me, is greater than all; and no man is able to snatch them out of My Abba's hand.
 30 *I and My Abba are Echad and in one accord.*¹
 31 Then the unbelieving Yahudim took up stones again to stone Him.
 32 יהושע answered them, Many tov works have I shown you from My Abba; for which of those works do you stone Me?
 33 The Yahudim answered Him, saying, For a tov mitzvah we don't stone You; but for blasphemy; because You, being only a man, make Yourself אלהא.²
 34 יהושע answered them, *Is it not written in your Torah, I said, you are אלהא?*³
 35 *If He called them אלהא, to whom the word of יהוה came, then the Katuv cannot be broken;*⁴
 36 Why do you say of Him, whom Abba has set-apart, and sent into the olam hazeh, You blaspheme; because I said, I am the Son of אלהא?^{5 6}
 37 If I do not the works of My Abba, believe Me not.
 38 But if I do, though you believe Me not, believe the works: that you may know, and believe, that the Abba is in Me, and I in Him.
 39 Therefore they sought again to take Him: but He escaped out of their hand,
 40 And He went away again beyond Yarden into the place where Yochanan at first immersed; and there He stayed.
 41 And many came to Him, and said, Yochanan did not even do one ness: but all the things that Yochanan spoke about this Man are emet.

 42 And many believed on Him there.

11 Now a certain man was sick, named El-Azar, of Beth Anya, the town of Miryam and her sister Martha.
 2 It was that Miryam who anointed יהושע with ointment, and wiped His feet with her hair, whose brother El-Azar was sick.
 3 Therefore his sisters sent to Him, saying, Master, see, he whom You love is sick.
 4 When יהושע heard that, He said, This sickness is not to death, but for the tifereth of יהוה, that the Son of יהוה might be esteemed by this.
 5 Now יהושע loved Martha, and her sister, and El-Azar.
 6 When He had heard that he was sick, He stayed two days still in the same place where He was.
 7 Then after that He said to His talmidim, Let us go into Yehudah again.
 8 His talmidim said to Him, Master, the Yahudim recently sought to stone You; and You go there again?
 9 יהושע answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walks in the day, he stumbles not, because he sees the Light of the olam hazeh.
 10 But if a man walks in the night, he stumbles, because there is no Light in him.
 11 These things He said: and after that He said to them, Our chaver El-Azar sleeps; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.
 12 Then said His talmidim, Master, if he sleeps, he shall get well.
 13 But יהושע spoke of His death: but they thought that He had spoken of taking a rest in sleep.
 14 Then said יהושע to them plainly, El-Azar is dead.
 15 And I am glad for your sake that I was not there, to the intent that you may believe; nevertheless let us go to him.
 16 Then said Toma, who is called the Twin, to his fellow talmidim, Let us also go, that we may die with Him.
 17 Then when יהושע came, He found that he had been in the tomb for four days already.
 18 Now Beth-Anya was near to Yahrushalayim, about two miles away:
 19 And many of the Yahudim came to Martha and Miryam, to comfort them concerning their brother.
 20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that יהושע was coming, went and met Him: but Miryam sat still in the bayit.
 21 Then said Martha to יהושע, Master, if You had been here, my brother would not have died.
 22 But I know, that even now, whatever You will ask of יהוה, יהוה will give it to You.
 23 יהושע said to her, Your brother shall rise again.
 24 Martha said to Him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection on the last day.
 25 יהושע said to her, I am the resurrection, and the chayim: he that believes in Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:
 26 And whoever lives and believes in Me shall never die. Do you believe this?
 27 She said to Him, Yes, Master: I believe that You are the Moshiach, the Son of יהוה, who should come into the olam hazeh.

¹ Aramaic: “are of one accord.” Father and Son are both one, and in full power and authority sharing in full accord, yet all flows from the Father to Yahshua.

³ Actual Hebrew says Elohim in Psalm 82:6.

⁴ Psalm 82:6.

28 And when she had said so, she went on her derech, and called Miryam her sister secretly, saying, The Master has come, and calls for you.
 29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came to Him.
 30 Now יהושע had not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met Him.
 31 The Yahudim then who were with her in the bayit, comforting her, when they saw Miryam, that she rose up quickly and went out, followed her, saying, She goes to the tomb to weep there.
 32 Then when Miryam had come to where יהושע was, and saw Him, she fell down at His feet, saying to Him, Master, if You had been here, my brother would not have died.
 33 When יהושע therefore saw her weeping, and the Yahudim also weeping who came with her, He groaned in the Ruach, and was troubled,
 34 And said, Where have you laid him? They said to Him, Master, come and see.
 35 יהושע wept.
 36 Then said the Yahudim, Behold how He loved him!
 37 And some of them said, Could not this Man, who opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?
 38 יהושע therefore again being troubled within came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was placed at the entrance.
 39 יהושע said, Take away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, said to Him, Master, by this time he stinks: for he has been dead four days.
 40 יהושע said to her, Did I not say to you, that, if you would believe, you would see the tifereth of יהוה?
 41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead man was laid. And יהושע lifted up His eyes, and said, Abba, todah that You have heard Me.
 42 And I know that You hear Me always: but because of the people who stand by I said it, that they may believe that You have sent Me.
 43 And when He had spoken, He cried out with a loud voice, El-Azar, uhrach vetzeah; come forth.
 44 And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with burial clothes: and his face bound with a burial napkin. יהושע said to them, Loose him, and let him go.
 45 Then many of the Yahudim who came to Miryam, and had seen the things that יהושע did, believed on Him.
 46 But some of them went to the Prushim, and told them what things יהושע had done.
 47 Then gathered the chief Kohanim and the Prushim a sanhedrin, and said, What do we do? For this Man does many nisim.
 48 If we just leave Him alone, all men will believe on Him: and the Romayim shall come and take away our position, our Beit HaMikdash and our nation.
 49 And one of them, named Qayapha, being the Kohen HaGadol that same year, said to them, You know nothing at all,
 50 Nor do you consider that it is better for us that one

Man should die for the people, than for the entire nation to perish.¹
 51 And this he spoke not by himself: but being Kohen HaGadol that year, he prophesied that יהושע should die for that nation;²
 52 And not for that nation only, but that also He should gather together into echad the b'nai אלהא that were scattered abroad.³
 53 Then from that day forward they took counsel together to put Him to death.
 54 יהושע therefore walked no more openly among the Yahudim; but went there to a country near to the wilderness, into a city called Efrayim, and there continued with His talmidim.⁴
 55 And the Yahudim's Pesach was at hand: and many went out of the country up to Yahrushalayim before the Pesach, to purify themselves.
 56 Then they sought for יהושע, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the Beit HaMikdash, What do you think; will He not come to the moed?
 57 Now both the chief Kohanim and the Prushim had given a commandment, so that, if any man knew where He was, he should reveal it, that they might seize Him.

² The House of Judah.

³ The children of Yisrael, or Eloah that were already “scattered abroad” can only be referring to non-Jewish, or Efrayim-Yisrael, from the ten northern tribes. No other group of people possibly fits this description. Note that they were not pagans, but already covenant people in exile. Note also that they are called “children of Eloah,” an end-time term referring to the 10 tribes of the north according to Hosea 1:10. Since Judah was mostly in the land of Yisrael at the time of this prophecy, it certainly points to Efrayim-Yisrael. Ciaphas pronounces this, and the Spirit elaborates by saying that it is far better for Yahshua to die than for both houses to perish. Both those in the land, and those “scattered abroad,” return by His death according to Ciaphas and John, so that both folds can become one again.

12 Then יהושע six days before the Pesach came to Beth Anya, where El-Azar was who יהושע had raised from the dead.

2 There they made Him a supper; and Martha served: and El-Azar was one of them that sat at the shulchan with Him.¹

3 Then Miryam took an alabaster of tov pistachio, very expensive, and anointed the feet of יהושע, and wiped His feet with her hair: and the bayit was filled with the fragrance of the oil.²

4 Then said one of His talmidim, Yahudah from Qerioth, Shimon's son, who would betray Him,

5 Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred silver pieces, and given to the poor?

6 This he said, not because he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the moneybag, and stole what was put in it.

7 Then said יהושע, Leave her alone: she has kept it for the day of My burial.

8 For the poor you always have with you; but Me you do not have always.

9 Many people of the Yahudim therefore knew that He was there: and they came not for יהושע's sake only, but that they might also see El-Azar, who He had raised from the dead.

10 But the chief Kohanim conspired that they might put El-Azar also to death;

11 Because on account of him many of the Yahudim were leaving the Kohanim, and believed on יהושע even more.

12 On the next day many of the people that had come early for the moed, when they heard that יהושע was coming to Yahrushalayim, 13 Took branches of palm eytzim, and went forth to meet Him, and cried, Hoshiana: Blessed is the Melech of Yisrael; Baruch haba beshem HaAdon יהוה.

14 And יהושע, when He had found a young donkey, sat on it; as it is written,

15 Fear not, daughter of Tzion: see, your Melech comes, sitting on a donkey's colt.

16 These things His talmidim understood not at that time: but when יהושע was esteemed, then they recalled that these things were written about Him, and that they had done these things to Him.

17 The people therefore that were with Him when He called El-Azar out of his tomb, and raised him from the dead, bore witness.

18 For this cause the people also met Him, for they heard that He had done this ness.

19 The Prushim therefore said among themselves, Do you perceive how we prevail nothing? Behold, the entire olam has gone after Him.

¹ This could have been one of those pre-Pesach rehearsal meals, done by most rabbis in the first century that Yahshua later did with the 12 disciples.

² A true thanksgiving offering by Mary for what Yahshua did by raising her brother. This is the true worship, that doesn't seek a gift, but returns in pure adoration.

20 And there were certain Greeks and others among them that came up to worship at the moed:³

21 The same came near to Philip, who was from Beth-Tsaida of Galil, and sought him, saying, sir, we would like to see יהושע.

22 Philip told Andri: and Andri and Philip told יהושע.

23 And יהושע answered them, saying, *The hour has come, that the Ben Ahdahm should be esteemed.*⁴

24 *Amein, amein, I say to you, Except a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it stays alone: but if it dies, it brings forth much fruit.*⁵

25 He that loves his chayim shall lose it; and he that has no concern for his chayim in the olam hazeh shall keep it to chayim eternal.

26 If any man serve Me, let him follow Me; and where I am, there also shall My eved be: if any man serve Me, him will My Abba honor.

27 Now My being is troubled; and what shall I say? Abba, save Me from this hour: but it was for this cause that I came to this hour.

28 Abba, bring tifereth to Your Name. Then there came a voice from the shamayim, saying, *I have both esteemed it, and will esteem it again.*⁶

29 The people therefore, that stood by, and who heard it, said that it thundered: others said, A heavenly malach spoke to Him.

30 יהושע answered and said, *This voice came not because of Me, but for your sakes.*⁷

31 Now is the mishpat of the olam hazeh: now shall the prince of the olam hazeh be cast out.

32 *And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men*⁸ to Me.

33 This He said, signifying what death He should die.

34 The people answered Him, We have heard out of the Torah that the Moshiach remains on earth le-olam-va-ed: so how are You saying, the Ben Ahdahm must be lifted up? Who is this Ben Ahdahm?

35 Then יהושע said to them, Yet a little while is the Light with you. Walk while you have the Light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walks in darkness knows not

³ See note on John 7:35.

⁵ In context, Efrayim's massive return depends upon the grain of wheat (Yahshua) falling into the ground at death, in order to bring forth much fruit among the exiles of non-Jewish Yisrael.

⁷ That we would know of a certainty that the Father expects us to esteem and proclaim His true Name.

⁸ The drawing back of Yisrael.

36 While you have Light, believe in the Light, that you may be the children of Light. These things spoke יהושע, and departed, and was hidden from them.

37 But though He had done so many nisim before them, yet they believed not on Him:

38 That the saying of Yeshayahu the navi might be fulfilled, which he spoke saying יהוה, who has believed our report? And to whom has the Arm of the Master יהוה been revealed?

39 Therefore they could not believe, because Yeshayahu said again,

40 They have ¹ blinded their eyes, and hardened their levim; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their levim, and return, and I would heal them.

41 These things said Yeshayahu, when he saw His tifereth, and spoke of Him.

42 Nevertheless among the leading rulers also many believed on Him; but because of the Prushim they did not confess Him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:

43 For they loved the tehillot of men more than the tehillot of יהוה.²

44 יהושע cried and said, He that believes on Me, believes not on Me, but on Him that sent Me.

45 And he that sees Me sees Him that sent Me.

46 I have come a Light into the olam hazeh that whoever believes on Me should not live in darkness.

47 And if any man hears My words, and believes not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the olam, but to save the olam hazeh.

48 He that rejects Me, and receives not My words, has One that judges him. The Word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him on the last day.

49 For I have not spoken by Myself; but the Abba who sent Me, He gave Me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.

50 And I know that His commandment is eternal chayim: whatever I speak therefore, even as the Abba said to Me, so I speak.

13 Now before the moed of the Pesach, when יהושע knew that His hour had come and that He should depart out of the olam hazeh back to the Abba, having loved His own who were in the olam hazeh, He loved them to the end.

2 During supper, s.a.tan put into the lev of Yahudah from Qerioth, Shimon's son, the desire to betray Him;

3 יהושע knowing that the Abba had given all things into His hands, and that He had come from יהוה, and was going to יהוה;

4 Rose from supper, and laid aside His garments; and took a towel, and girded Himself.

5 After that He poured mayim into a basin, and began to observe Rachatz and washed the talmidim's feet, and wiped them with the towel with which He was girded.

6 Then He came to Shimon Kepha: and Kepha said to Him, Master, do You wash my feet?

7 יהושע answered and said to him, What I do you do not know now; but you shall know after this.

8 Kepha said to Him, You shall never wash my feet.

9 יהושע answered him, If I wash you not, you have no part with Me.

10 Shimon Kepha said to Him, Master, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.³

11 יהושע said to him, He that is bathed need not wash except his feet, but is clean already: and you are clean, but not all.

12 For He knew who should betray Him; therefore He said, You are not all clean.

13 So after He had washed their feet, and had taken off His garments, and was sitting down again, He said to them, Now do you know what I have done to you?

14 You call Me Master and Rabbi: and you say well; for I am.

15 If I then, Your Rabbi and Master, have washed your feet; you also should wash one another's feet.

16 For I have given you an example that you should do as I have done to you.

17 Amein, amein, I say to you, The eved is not greater than His Master; neither He that is sent, greater than He that sent Him.

18 *If you know these things, happy are you if you do them.*⁴

19 *I speak not of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that the Katuv may be fulfilled, He that eats lechem with Me has lifted up his heel against Me.*⁵

20 Now I tell you before it comes to pass, so that, when it is come to pass, you may believe that I am.

21 Amein, amein, I say to you, He that receives whomever I send receives Me; and he that receives Me receives Him that sent Me.

22 When יהושע had said this, He was troubled in ruach, and testified, and said, Amein, amein, I say to you, That one of you shall betray Me.

23 Then the talmidim looked at each other, not knowing of whom He spoke.

24 Now there was leaning on יהושע's bosom one of His talmidim, whom יהושע loved.⁶

25 Shimon Kepha therefore beckoned to him that he should ask who it was that He spoke about.

26 He then lying on יהושע's breast said to Him, Master, who is it?

27 יהושע answered, It is he, to whom I shall give a matzah piece, when I have dipped it. And when He had dipped the matzah piece, He gave it to Yahudah from

⁶ John the author.

¹ Peshitta.

² One of the saddest verses in Scripture.

Qerioth, the son of Shimon.

27 And after the matzah piece s.a.tan entered into him. Then said יהושע to him, *What you are doing, do quickly.*¹

28 Now no man at the shulchan knew why He said this to him.

29 For some of them thought, because Yahudah had the moneybag, that יהושע had said to him, Buy those things that we need for the moed; or that he should give something to the poor.

30 He then having received the matzah piece went out immediately: and it was night.

31 Therefore, when he had gone out, יהושע said, Now is the Ben Ahdahm esteemed, and יהרה is esteemed in Him.

32 If יהרה be esteemed in Him, יהרה shall also esteem Him in Himself, and shall esteem Him immediately.

33 My sons, yet a little while I am with you. You shall seek Me: and as I said to the Yahudim, Where I go, you cannot come; so now I say to you.

34 A renewed commandment I give to you, That you have ahava towards one another; as I have loved you, that you also love one another.

35 By this shall all men know that you are My talmidim, if you have ahava one to another.

36 Shimon Kepha said to Him, Master, where are You going? יהושע answered him, Where I go, you cannot follow Me now; but you shall follow Me afterwards.

37 Kepha said to Him, Master, why can't I follow You now? I will lay down my chayim for Your sake.

38 יהושע answered him; Will you lay down your chayim for My sake? Amein, amein, I say to you, The cock shall not crow, until you have denied Me three times.

14 Let not your lev be troubled: you believe in יהרה, believe also in Me.

2 *In My Abba's bayit are many abiding chambers: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.*²

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there you may be also.

4 And where I go you know, and the derech you know.

5 Toma said to Him, Master, we know not where You are going; so how can we know the derech?

6 יהושע said to him, I am the Derech, the Emet, and the Chayim: no man comes to My Abba, except through Me.

7 If you had known Me, you would have known My Abba also: and from now on you know Him, and have seen Him.

8 Philip said to Him, Master, show us the Abba, and it will be enough for us.

9 יהושע said to him, Have I been so long a time with you, and yet have you not known Me, Philip? He that has seen Me has seen the Abba; how then are you saying, show us the Abba?

¹ A double infilling of s.a.tan after the initial influence of v. 2.

² Dual application. Heavenly dwellings, and earthly dwellings, in the Renewed Jerusalem on earth.

10 Do you not believe that I am in the Abba, and the Abba is in Me? The words that I speak to you I speak not from Myself: but the Abba that dwells in Me, He does the works.

11 Believe Me that I am in the Abba, and the Abba in Me: or else believe Me because of the works.

12 *Amein, amein, I say to you, He that believes on Me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go to My Abba.*³

13 *And whatever you shall ask in My Name, that will I do, that the Abba may be esteemed in the Son.*⁴

14 *If you shall ask anything in My Name, I will do it.*⁵

15 *If you love Me, keep My mitzvoth.*⁶

16 And I will ask the Abba, and He shall give you another Comforter, that He may stay with you le-olam-va-ed;

17 Even the Ruach of Emet; whom the olam hazeh cannot receive, because it sees Him not, neither knows Him: but you know Him; for He dwells with you, and shall be in you.

18 I will not leave you as orphans: I will come to you after a little while.

19 Yet a little while, and the olam hazeh will see Me no more; but you will see Me: because I live, you shall live also.

20 In that day you shall know that I am in My Abba, and you in Me, and I in you.

21 He that has My mitzvoth, and keeps them,⁷ he it is that loves Me: and he who loves Me, shall be loved by My Abba, and I will love him, and will reveal Myself to him.

22 Yahudah, not from Qerioth, said to Him, Master, how is it that You will reveal Yourself to us, and not to the olam hazeh?

23 יהושע answered and said to him, If a man loves Me, he will guard My words: and My Abba will love him, and He will come to him, and make Our stay with him.

24 He that loves Me not keeps not My sayings: and the word which you hear is not Mine, but the Abba's who sent Me.

25 These things have I spoken to you, being yet present with you.

26 But the Comforter, which is the Ruach Hakodesh, whom the Abba will send in My Name, He shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatever I have said to you.

27 Shalom I leave with you; My own shalom I give to you: but not as the olam hazeh gives it. Let not your lev be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

³ Greater numerically and quantitatively, not in terms of actually raising dead people on a weekly basis. This means that Yahshua's followers not having the full measure of the Spirit, cannot possibly do what only He could do.

⁴ Prayers in Nazarene Yisrael must be sealed in Yahshua's Name.

⁵ In His Name and according to His will (First John 5:14).

⁶ A short but sweet warning to all who love Yahshua. The proof is full Torah compliance.

⁷ Torah-keeping is a precondition, in order for Yahshua to reveal Himself to individual Yisraelites.

28 You have heard what I said to you, I go away, and come again to you. If you loved Me, you would gilah, because I said, I go to the Abba: for My Abba is greater than I. ¹

29 And now I have told you before it comes to pass, so that, when it is come to pass, you might believe.

30 I will no longer talk much with you: for the prince of the olam hazeh is coming, and has nothing against Me.

31 But that the olam hazeh may know that I love My Abba; and as the Abba gave Me orders, even so I do them. Rise up; let us go away from here.

15 I am the Emet Vine, and My Abba is The Gardener. ²

2 Every branch in Me that bears not fruit He takes away: and every branch that bears fruit, He purges it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 Now you are clean through the word that I have spoken to you.

4 Remain in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, except it stays in the Vine; neither can you, except you remain in Me.

5 I am the Vine, you are the netsarim: ³ He that stays in Me, and I in him, the same brings forth much fruit: for without Me you can do nothing.

6 If a man stays not in Me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. ⁴

7 If you stay in Me, and My words stay in you, you shall ask what you desire, and it shall be done for you.

8 By this is My Abba esteemed, that you bear much fruit; so shall you be My talmidim.

9 As the Abba has loved Me, so have I loved you: continue in My ahava.

10 If you keep My mitzvoth, you shall stay in My ahava; even as I have kept My Abba's mitzvoth, and stay in His ahava. ⁵

11 These things have I spoken to you, that My simcha might remain in you, and that your simcha might be full.

12 This is My commandment, That you love one another, as I have loved you.

13 Greater ahava has no man than this that a man lay down His chayim for His chaverim.

14 You are My chaverim, if you do all I command you.

15 No longer do I call you avadim; for the eved knows not what His Master does: but I have called you chaverim; for all things that I have heard from My Abba I have made known to you.

16 You have not chosen Me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that you should go and bring forth more fruit, and that your fruit should remain: whatever you shall ask of the Abba in My Name, He will give it to you. ⁶

17 These things I command you, that you love one another.

18 If the olam hazeh hates you, you know that it hated Me before it hated you.

19 If you were of the olam hazeh, the olam hazeh would love its own: but because you are not of the olam hazeh, but I have chosen you out of the olam hazeh, therefore the olam hazeh hates you.

20 Remember the word that I said to you, The eved is not greater than His Master. If they have persecuted Me, they will also persecute you; if they have guarded My words, they will guard yours also.

21 But all these things will they do to you for My Name's sake, because they know not Him that sent Me.

22 If I had not come and spoken to them, they would have no sin: but now they have no excuse, or sacrifice ⁷ for their sin.

23 He that hates Me hates My Abba also. ⁸

24 If I had not done among them the works that no other man did, they would have no sin: but now have they seen and hated both My Abba and Me. ⁹

25 But this comes to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their Torah, They hated Me without a cause.

26 But when the Comforter will come, whom I will send to you from the Abba, the Ruach of Emet, which proceeds from the Abba, He shall testify of Me:

27 And you also shall bear witness, because you have been with Me from the beginning.

16 These things have I spoken to you, that you should not stumble.

2 They shall put you out of the synagogues: ¹⁰ yes, the time comes, that whoever kills you will think that he performs an offering in יהוה's service.

3 And these things will they do to you, because they have not known Me, or the Abba.

4 But these things have I told you, so that when the time shall come, you may remember that I told you about them. And these things I did not tell you before, because I was with you.

² This discourse is given in light of Isaiah 5, where the vineyard is Yisrael and the Beloved who owned the vineyard is The Father-YHWH.

³ Both literally and figuratively.

⁴ Those who deny Him, after having at one time believed in Him.

⁵ Both Yahshua and Yisrael must guard YHWH's Torah as a sign of affection, submission and obedience. To claim a love for Yahshua apart from Torah obedience, will result in being cut off from the Vine, along with suffering the consequences of that removal.

⁶ Yisrael is chosen and as such is the restored nation of His choosing.

⁷ Aramaic Peshitta; word alatha, means sacrifice, or offering.

⁸ Let the House of Judah take careful note.

⁹ Clearly Yahshua is not the Father, as some dangerously teach.

¹⁰ The early Nazarenes were officially thrown out at the Council of Yavneh in 70CE, with the addition of the curse on the Nazarenes in the Shmonei-Esreh –18 Benedictions – called the Birchat HaMinim. At that point, this prophecy officially came true.

5 But now I go on My derech to Him that sent Me; and none of you asks Me, Where are you going?

6 But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your lev.

7 Nevertheless I tell you the emet; It is better for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come to you; but if I depart, I will send Him to you.

8 And when He has come, He will reprove the olam of sin, and of tzedakah, and of mishpat:

9 Of sin, because they believe not on Me;

10 Of tzedakah, because I go to My Abba, and you see Me no more;

11 Of mishpat, because the ruler of the olam hazeh is being judged.

12 I have yet many other things to say to you, but you cannot grasp them now.¹

13 But when He, the Ruach of Emet, has come, He will guide you into all emet: for He shall not speak of Himself; but whatever He shall hear, that shall He speak: and He will show you things to come in the future.

14 He shall esteem Me: for He shall receive from Me what is Mine, and shall show it to you.

15 All things that My Abba has are Mine: that is why I said, that He shall take of Mine, and shall show it to you.

16 A little while, and you shall not see Me: and again, a little while later, and you shall see Me, because I go to the Abba.

17 Then said some of His talmidim among themselves, What is this that He said to us, A little while, and you shall not see Me: and again, a little while, and you shall see Me: and, Because I am going to the Abba?

18 They said therefore, What is this that He said, A little while? We do not understand what He is saying.

19 Now יהושע knew that they desired to ask Him, and said to them, Do you inquire among yourselves what I said, A little while, and you shall not see Me: and again, a little while, and you shall see Me?

20 Amein, amein, I say to you, That you shall weep and lament, but the olam hazeh shall gilah: and you shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into simcha.

21 A woman when she is in labor has grief, because her hour has come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembers no more the pain, for the simcha that a son is born into the olam hazeh.²

22 And you now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your lev shall gilah, and your simcha no man takes from you.

23 And in that day you shall ask Me nothing. Amein, amein, I say to you, Whatever you shall ask My Abba in My Name, He will give it to you.

24 Until now you have asked nothing in My Name: now ask, and you shall receive, that your simcha may be full.

25 These things have I spoken to you in figures of speech: but the time comes, when I shall no more speak to you in figures of speech, but I shall show you in the pashat, things concerning the Abba.

26 In that day you shall ask in My Name: and I say not to you, that I will ask the Abba for you:

27 For the Abba Himself loves you, because you have loved Me, and have believed that I came out from within יהוה.

28 I came out from the Abba, and have come into the olam hazeh: again, I leave the olam hazeh, and go back to the Abba.

29 His talmidim said to Him, See, now You speak in pashat, and speak without drash.

30 Now we are sure that You know all things, and need not that any man should ask You: by this we believe that You came forth from within יהוה.

31 יהושע said to them, Do you now believe?

32 Behold, the hour comes, yes, has now come, that you shall be scattered, every man to his own country, and shall leave Me alone: and yet I am not alone, because My Abba is with Me.

33 These things I have spoken to you, that in Me you might have shalom. In the olam hazeh you shall have tribulation: but be of tov courage; I have overcome and conquered the olam hazeh.³

17 These words spoke יהושע, and lifted up His eyes to the shamayim, and said, Abba, the hour has come; esteem Your Son, that Your Son also may esteem You:

2 As You have given Him power over all flesh that He should give eternal chayim to as many as You have given Him.

3 And this is eternal chayim, that they might know You, the only emet אלהא, and יהושע ha Moshiach, whom You have sent.

4 I have esteemed You on the earth: I have finished the work that You gave Me to do.

5 And now, O Abba, esteem Me by Your own self with the esteem that I had with You before the olam hazeh was created.⁴

6 I have manifested Your Name to the men whom You gave Me out of the olam hazeh:⁵ Yours they were, and

² In Hebraic culture when a son is born, the mother is immediately informed. When a daughter is born, the news is withheld from the mother for a while. Here Yahshua speaks of the immediate joy the believers will have upon the news of His resurrection, and return to the Father.

You gave them to Me; and they have kept Your word.
 7 Now they have known that all things whatever You have given Me are from You.
 8 For I have given to them the words which You gave Me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from You, and they have believed that You did send Me.
 9 I request for them: I request not for the olam hazeh, but for those whom You have given Me; for they are Yours.
 10 And all Mine are Yours, and Yours are Mine; and I am esteemed in them.
 11 *And now I am no more in the olam hazeh, but these are in the olam hazeh, and I come to You Kadosh Abba, shomer through Your own Name those whom You have given Me, that they may be echad, as we are Echad.*¹
 12 *While I was with them in the olam hazeh, I guarded them in Your Name: those that You gave Me I have kept, and none of them is lost, except the son of perdition; that the Katuv might be fulfilled.*²
 13 And now I return to You; but these things I speak in the olam hazeh, that they might have My simcha completed within themselves.
 14 I have given them Your word; and the olam hazeh has hated them, because they are not of the olam hazeh, even as I am not of the olam hazeh.
 15 *I request not that You should take them out of the olam hazeh, but that You should keep them from the evil.*³
 16 They are not of the olam hazeh, even as I am not of the olam hazeh.
 17 *Set them apart through Your emet: Your word is emet.*⁴
 18 As You have sent Me into the olam hazeh, even so have I also sent them into the olam hazeh.
 19 And for their sakes I set Myself apart, that they also might be kadosh through the emet.
 20 *Neither do I make tefillah for these alone, but for them also who shall believe on Me through their word,*⁵
 21 That they all may be echad; as You, Abba, are with Me, and I with You, that they also may be echad with Us: that the olam hazeh may believe that You have sent Me.
 22 And the tifereth, which You gave Me, I have given them; that they may be echad, even as we are echad:
 23 I with them, and You with Me, that they may be perfected into echad; and that the olam hazeh may know that You have sent Me, and have loved them, as You have loved Me.

 24 Abba, I will that they also, whom You have given Me, be with Me where I am; that they may see My tifereth, which You have given Me: for You loved Me before the foundation of the olam hazeh.
 25 O My Tzadik-Abba, the olam hazeh has not known You: but I have known You, and these have known that You have sent Me.
 26 *And I have declared to them Your Name, and will yet declare it: so that the ahava with which You have loved Me may be in them, and I in them.*⁶

18 After יהושע had spoken these words, He went forth with His talmidim over the brook Qidron, where there was a garden, into which He entered, with His talmidim.
 2 And Yahudah also, who betrayed Him, knew the place: for יהושע often would stay there with His talmidim.
 3 Yahudah then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief Kohanim and Prushim, came there with lanterns and torches and weapons.
 4 יהושע therefore, knowing all things that should come upon Him, went forward, and said to them, Whom do you seek?
 5 They answered Him, יהושע of Natzeret. יהושע said to them, I am. And Yahudah also, who betrayed Him, stood with them.
 6 As soon as He had said to them, I am, they went backwards, and fell to the ground.
 7 Then He asked them again, Whom do you seek? And they said, יהושע of Natzeret.
 8 יהושע answered, I have told you that I am: if therefore you seek Me, let these go their way:
 9 That the saying might be fulfilled, that He spoke, Of those whom You gave Me have I lost none.
 10 Then Shimon Kepha having a sword drew it, and smote the Kohen HaGadol's eved, and cut off his right ear. The eved's name was Melech.
 11 Then said יהושע to Kepha, Put your sword into the sheath: the cup, which My Abba has given Me, shall I not drink it?
 12 Then the company of soldiers and the captain and officers of the Yahudim took יהושע, and bound Him,

⁴ Torah and Tanach/First Covenant was the only word recorded at this time. The Renewed Covenant had not yet been written.

⁵ All of redeemed Yisrael.

⁶ The final item in this High Priest's prayer is the understanding that not only does the Name of YHWH protect and guard Yisrael, but also it is the means by which Yahshua loves His people. He states here that He will continue to declare YHWH's true Name until the end of time, so that His disciples can receive His love, even as Yahshua receives the Father's love, also through and by the Name of YHWH. The Name of YHWH then is the "love channel," through which we receive that unconditional acceptance and sonship. Moreover, all high priests had to carry YHWH's Name as found in the tetragrammaton on their foreheads in the First Covenant. Yahshua being the High Priest of the Renewed Covenant, also must carry and have YHWH's Name upon Him, as He ministers to His Father on our behalf.

13 And led Him away to Chanan first; for he was abba-in-law of Qayapha, who was the Kohen HaGadol that same year.

14 Now Qayapha was he, who gave counsel to the Yahudim, that it was better that one Man should die for the people.¹

15 And Shimon Kepha followed יהושע, and so did another talmid: that talmid was known to the Kohen HaGadol, and went in with יהושע into the palace of the Kohen HaGadol.

16 But Kepha stood at the door outside. Then went out that other talmid,² who was known to the Kohen HaGadol, and spoke to her that guarded the door, and brought in Kepha.

17 Then said the girl that guarded the door to Kepha, Are not you also one of this Man's talmidim? He said, I am not.

18 And the avadim and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Kepha stood with them, and warmed himself.

19 The Kohen HaGadol then asked יהושע about His talmidim, and about His doctrine.

20 יהושע answered him, I spoke openly to the olam hazeh; I always taught in the synagogue, and in the Beit HaMikdash, where the Yahudim always assemble; and in secret have I said nothing.

21 Why do you ask Me? Ask those who heard Me, what I have said to them: see, they know what I said.

22 And when He had spoken this, one of the officers who stood by struck יהושע with the palm of his hand, saying, Is that the way You answer the Kohen HaGadol?

23 יהושע answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why did you strike Me?

24 Now Chanan had sent Him bound to Qayapha the Kohen HaGadol.

25 And Shimon Kepha stood and warmed himself. They said therefore to him, Are not you also one of His talmidim? He denied it, and said, I am not.

26 One of the avadim of the Kohen HaGadol, being a relative of the one whose ear Kepha cut off, said, Did I not see you in the garden with Him?

27 Kepha then denied again: and immediately the cock crowed.

28 Then they led יהושע from Qayapha to the hall of mishpat: and it was early; but they themselves went not into the Mishpat Hall, lest they should be defiled; so that they might eat the Pesach.

29 Pilate then went out to them, and said, What accusation do you bring against this Man?

30 They answered and said to him, If He were not an evildoer,³ we would not have brought Him up to you.

31 Then said Pilate to them; You take Him, and judge Him according to your Torah. The Yahudim therefore said to him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:⁴

32 That the word of יהושע might be fulfilled, that He spoke, signifying what kind of death He should die.

33 Then Pilate entered into the Mishpat Hall again, and called יהושע, and said to Him, Are You the Melech of the Yahudim?

34 יהושע answered him, Are you asking this on your own, or did others tell you this about Me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Yahudi? Your own nation and the chief Kohanim have brought You to me: what have You done?

36 יהושע answered, My malchut is not of this olam hazeh: if My malchut were of this olam hazeh, then would My avadim fight, that I should not be delivered to the Yahudim: but now is My malchut not from here.

37 Pilate therefore said to Him, Are You a melech then? יהושע answered, You are right in saying that I am a Melech. For this very reason was I born, and for this cause I came into the olam hazeh, that I should bear witness to the Emet. Everyone that is of the Emet hears My voice.

38 Pilate said to Him, What is emet? And when he had said this, he went out again to the Yahudim, and said to them, I find in Him no fault at all.

39 But you have a custom that I should release to you one prisoner on the Pesach: will you therefore that I release to you the Melech of the Yahudim?

40 Then they all cried again, saying: Not this man, but Bar-Rabba. Now Bar-Rabba was a robber.

19 Then Pilate therefore took יהושע, and scourged Him.

2 And the soldiers wove a keter of thorns, and put it on His head, and they put on Him a purple robe,⁵

3 And said, Hail, Melech of the Yahudim! And they smote Him with their hands.

4 Pilate therefore went forth again, and said to them, Behold, I bring Him forth to you, that you may know that I find no fault in Him.

5 Then came יהושע forth, wearing the keter of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate said to them, Behold the Man!

6 When the chief Kohanim therefore and officers saw Him, they cried out, saying, Impale Him! Impale Him! Pilate said to them, You take Him, and impale Him: for I find no fault in Him.

7 The Yahudim answered him; We have a Torah, and by our Torah He has to die, because He made Himself the Son of אלהים.⁶

8 When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was even more afraid;

9 And went again into the Mishpat Hall, and said to יהושע, Where are You from?

¹ As seen earlier, for the people found in both houses.

² John the Beloved himself, speaking in the second person.

⁵ Carrying the curse of the earth symbolized by the thorns.

⁶ They were fully and willfully ignorant of such verses as Psalm 2:7, Psalm 2:12, Proverbs 30:4, Psalm 82:6 and others.

But יהושע gave him no answer.

10 Then said Pilate to Him, You speak not to me? Don't you know that I have power to impale You, and have power to release You?

11 יהושע answered, You would have no power at all against Me, unless it was given to you from above: therefore he that delivered Me to you has the greater sin.

12 And from that time on Pilate sought to release Him: but the Yahudim cried out, saying, If you let this Man go, you are not Kaiser's chaver: whoever makes Himself a Melech speaks against Kaiser.

13 When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought יהושע forth, and sat down in the mishpat seat in a place that is called Pavement, but in Ivrit, Gavatha.

14 And it was during the preparation for the Pesach, at about noon he said to the Yahudim, Behold your Melech!

15 But they cried out, Away with Him, away with Him, Impale Him! Pilate said to them, Shall I impale your Melech? The Kohen HaGadol answered; We have no melech but Kaiser.

16 Then Pilate delivered Him to them to be impaled. And they took יהושע, and led Him away.

17 And He bearing His stake went forth into a place called the Place of The Skull, which is called in Ivrit; Golgotha:

18 Where they impaled Him, and two others with Him, on either side one, and יהושע in the midst.¹

19 And Pilate wrote on a stone sign, and put it on the stake. And the writing was, Yahshua HaNotsri WeMelech HaYahudim – YHWH.

20 This sign then read many of the Yahudim: for the place where יהושע was impaled was near to the city: and it was written in Ivrit, and Greek, and Latin.

21 Then said the chief Kohanim of the Yahudim to Pilate, Write not, The Melech of the Yahudim; but that He said, I am Melech of the Yahudim.

22 Pilate answered, What I have written, I have written.

23 Then the soldiers, when they had impaled יהושע, took His garments, and made four parts,² to every soldier a part; and also His coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout.

24 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it, to see whose it should be: that the Katuv might be fulfilled, which said, They parted My clothes among them, and for My robe they did cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did.

25 Now there stood by the stake of יהושע His eema, and His eema's sister, Miryam the wife of Qlophah, and Miryam from Magdala.

26 When יהושע therefore saw His eema, and the talmid standing by, whom He loved, He said to His eema, Woman, see your son!

27 Then He said to the talmid, See your eema! And from that hour that talmid took her to his own home.

28 After this, יהושע knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the Katuv might be fulfilled, said, I thirst.

29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and lifted it to His mouth.

30 When יהושע therefore had received the vinegar, He said, *KALA:*³ and He bowed His head, and dismissed His ruach.

31 The Yahudim therefore, because it was the Preparation Day, that the bodies should not remain upon the stake on the Shabbat, - for that Shabbat day was a Shabbat Gadol, a high day -⁴ besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.⁵

32 Then came the soldiers, and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who were impaled with Him.

33 But when they came to יהושע, and saw that He was dead already, they broke not His legs:

34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced His side, and instantly came out dahm and mayim.

35 And he that saw it bore witness, and his witness is emet: and he knows that what he said is emet, that you might believe.

36 For these things were done, that the Katuv should be fulfilled, A bone of His shall not be broken.

37 And again another Katuv said, They shall look on Him whom they pierced.

38 And after this Yoseph of Ramathayim, being a talmid of יהושע, but secretly for fear of the Yahudim, asked Pilate if he could take away the body of יהושע: and Pilate gave him permission. He came therefore, and took the body of יהושע.

39 And there came also Nakdimon, who in the beginning came to יהושע by night, and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred-pint weight.

40 Then they took the body of יהושע, and wound it in linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the

³ In the Greek He is saying "it is finished." But in the Hebrew there is another significant utterance that many have missed. In the Hebrew the word for "finish," or "is finished" is kala, also meaning bride. These words uttered by Yahshua prior to His death was a cry for His kala to return and be cleansed and forgiven, showing that even while dying He had Yisrael on His mind and in His heart. In essence by crying for the kahal, or the congregation/bride of Yisrael, He is displaying the true reason He hanged Himself on the tree. An alternative word for finished is neshalem, whose root word is shalom. Combining these two variations in Hebrew, we get Shalom My bride; be made whole! YHWH has only one bride and the Son was sent to fetch that wandering bride, even as Eliezer was sent to fetch a bride for Isaac. That one word kala is the message of the kingdom in a nutshell.

² Thus signifying His death was the atonement for all Yisrael from both houses scattered to the four corners of the earth.

Yahudim is to bury.

41 Now in the place where He was impaled there was a garden; and in the garden a new tomb, where no man was ever laid.

42 There they laid יהושע because of the Yahudim's Preparation Day; for the tomb was nearby.

20 And on one of the weekly Shabbats ¹ came Miryam from Magdala early, when it was still dark, to the tomb, and saw the stone taken away from the tomb.

2 Then she ran, and came to Shimon Kepha, and to the other talmid, whom יהושע loved, and said to them, They have taken away יהושע out of the tomb, and we know not where they have laid Him.

3 Kepha therefore went forth, and that other talmid, and came to the tomb.

4 So they ran both together: and the other talmid did outrun Kepha, and came first to the tomb.

5 And stooping down, and looking in, he saw the linen clothes lying; yet he did not go in. ²

6 Then came Shimon Kepha following him, and went into the tomb, and saw the linen cloths lying,

7 And the cloth, that was around His head, not lying with the linen cloths, but folded up in a place by itself.

8 Then went in also that other talmid, who came first to the tomb, and he saw, and believed. ³

9 For as yet they knew not the Katuv, that He must rise again from the dead. ⁴

10 Then the talmidim went away again to their own home.

11 But Miryam stood outside at the tomb weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the tomb,

12 And saw two heavenly malachim in white sitting, one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of יהושע had lain.

13 And they said to her, Woman, why do you weep? She said to them, Because they have taken away my Master and I know not where they have laid Him. ⁵

14 And when she had said that, she turned herself back, and saw יהושע standing, and knew not that it was יהושע.

15 יהושע said to her, Woman, why do you weep? Whom do you seek? She, supposing Him to be the gardener, said to Him, Sir, if You have taken Him away, tell me where You have laid Him, and I will take Him away. ⁶

16 יהושע said to her, Miryam. She turned herself, and said to Him, Rabboni; which is to say, my Great Master.

17 יהושע said to her, Touch Me not; for I am not yet ascended to My Abba: ⁷ but go to My Yisraelite brothers, and say to them, I ascend to My Abba, and your Abba; and to My אלהא, and your אלהא. ⁸

18 Miryam from Magdala came and told the talmidim that she had seen יהושע, and that He had spoken these things to her.

19 Then the same day at evening, being Yom Rishon, when the doors were shut where the talmidim were assembled for fear of the unbelieving Yahudim, came יהושע and stood in their midst, and said to them, Shalom aleichem.

20 And when He had said this, He showed them His hands and His side. Then were the talmidim in gilah, when they saw יהושע.

21 Then said יהושע to them again, Shalom aleichem: as My Abba has sent Me, even so I send you.

22 And when He had said this, He breathed on them, and said to them, Receive the Ruach Hakodesh:

24 But Toma, one of the twelve, called The Twin, was not with them when יהושע came.

25 The other talmidim therefore said to him, We have seen יהושע. But he said to them, Except I shall see in His hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into His side, I will not believe.

26 And after eight days again His talmidim were inside and Toma with them: then came יהושע, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Shalom aleichem.

27 Then He said to Toma, Reach here your finger, and see My hands; and reach here your hand, and thrust it into My side: and be not faithless, but believing.

⁹ One must be very careful here to understand this in the light of all of Scripture, including Yahshua's admonition to Yisrael to forgive all men 70 times 7. This declaration can be understood only in terms of evangelism and sharing the Good News (glad tidings) of eternal life in Messiah. When we proclaim as we are sent by YHWH, and men respond to the Good News of Messiah, that person has been forgiven by us personally, in the sense that we were the ones delivering the message. Likewise, when we do not deliver the message of the only One by whom man can be saved, we do not allow for forgiveness to flow through us. Thus in essence, we don't forgive others their sins. This declaration is all about delivering the message, and not about the establishment of a religious hierarchy that has power to send people to a second death.

 28 And Toma answered and said to Him, My Master and my אלהא.
 29 יהושע said to him, *Toma, because you have seen Me, you have believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.*¹
 30 And many other signs truly did יהושע in the presence of His talmidim, which are not written in this scroll:
 31 But these are written; that you might believe that יהושע is the Moshiach, the Son of יהוה; and that by believing you might have chayim through His Name.

21 After these things יהושע showed Himself again to the talmidim at the Sea of Kinnereth; and in this manner did He show Himself.
 2 There were together Shimon Kepha, and Toma called the Twin, and Natan-El of Qanah in Galil, and the sons of Zavdi, and two others of His talmidim.
 3 Shimon Kepha said to them, I'm going fishing. They said to him, We'll also go with you. They went forth, and climbed into a boat immediately; and that night they caught nothing.
 4 But when the morning had come, יהושע stood on the shore: but the talmidim knew not that it was יהושע.
 5 Then יהושע said to them, Children, have you any food? They answered Him, No.
 6 And He said to them, *Cast the net on the right side of the ship,*² and you shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it in for the multitude of fishes.
 7 Therefore that talmid whom יהושע loved said to Kepha, It is יהושע. Now when Shimon Kepha heard that it was יהושע, he put on his outer fisher's coat – for he was stripped – and did cast himself into the sea.
 8 And the other talmidim came in a little boat – for they were not far from land, but as it were about a hundred yards – dragging the net with the fishes.
 9 As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid on it, and lechem.
 10 יהושע said to them, Bring of the fish that you have now caught.
 11 Shimon Kepha went up, and drew the net to land³ full of great fishes,⁴ one hundred fifty three: for even though there were so many,

yet was not the net broken.⁵
 12 יהושע said to them, Come and break your fast. And none of the talmidim did ask Him, Who are You? Knowing that it was the Master-Yah.⁶
 13 יהושע then came, and took lechem, and gave it to them, and also fish.
 14 This is now the third time that יהושע showed Himself to His talmidim, after He was risen from the dead.
 15 So when they had eaten, יהושע said to Shimon Kepha,⁷ Shimon, bar Yonah, Do you love Me more than these? He said to Him, Yes, Master Yah; You know that I love You. He said to him, Feed My lambs.
 16 He said to him again the second time, Shimon, bar Yonah, do you love Me? He said to Him, Yes, Master Yah; You know that I love You. He said to him, Feed My sheep.
 17 He said to him the third time, Shimon, bar Yonah, do you love Me? Kepha was grieved because He said to him the third time, Do you love Me? And he said to Him, Master Yah, You know all things; You know that I love You. יהושע said to him, Feed My ewes.
 18 Amein, amein, I say to you, When you were young, you dressed yourself, and walked wherever you desired: but when you shall be old, you shall stretch forth your hands, and another shall dress you, and carry you where you do not want to go.
 19 This He spoke, signifying by what death Kepha should esteem יהוה.⁸ And when He had spoken this, He said to him, Follow Me.
 20 Then Kepha, turning around, saw the talmid whom יהושע loved following; who also was the one that leaned on His breast at supper, who said, Master-Yah, who is he that betrays You?
 21 Kepha seeing him said to יהושע, Master-Yah, and what about him?
 22 יהושע said to him, If I desire that he lives until I come again, what is that to you? You just follow Me.
 23 Then this saying went around among the Yisraelite brothers, that this talmid would not die: yet יהושע said

⁶ Mar-Yah in Aramaic, improperly translated in Greek simply as "Lord," instead of "Master-Yah."

⁷ This conversation took place in Aramaic. As such, unlike the Greek, there are three different words used in verses 15-17 for sheep, or lambs. The first reference is to amrea, or young sheep, or young disciples, the second to male adult sheep with the term aerba, and the final reference to sheep is niquia, a female word used to refer to His adult female disciples. The Aramaic challenges Peter to look after all three categories of His disciples, thus explaining the repetitive nature of Yahsha's questions.

² The four evangels are summations of the major events of Messiah's life. But enough has been recorded, so that mankind is without excuse, real, or imagined.

מעשה שליחים – Maaseh Shlichim Acts Of The Apostles To All Nations

When attending "Bible College," or seminary, or other such religious-based classes, often the teacher or instructor will make a startling statement that seems logical, but is the cause for great misunderstandings of the true faith of the disciples. Usually the remark will sound something like this: "The Book of Acts is a historical book used to record the transition between the Jewish dispensation and the 'New Yisrael' church. Therefore this book should not and cannot be used for doctrine, or to establish church theological positions as the rest of Scripture, which can, and should be used for doctrine." Now years later, understanding the Two-House truth, we can understand why this was taught to many. These statements were designed to keep believers away from Torah and a first-century Yisraelite lifestyle. As you will shortly see, the Book of Acts is a most Hebraic resource, showing vividly the practice of Torah in the life of all believers in Moshiach. In this book, we see the apostles wrestling with how to incorporate the returning non-Jews into a Torah-based lifestyle. As such, these issues are all doctrinal issues ranging from ecclesiology (the study of just who is the one true elect bride of YHWH), to soteriology (the study of salvation itself). Therefore the Book of Acts must be viewed and studied not merely as a historical, or transitional document as some claim, but as a worthy book from which we can derive practical instruction, as well as settle ongoing doctrinal issues, as we receive clarity from its pages. Second Timothy 3:16 reminds us of this truth, by stating that all Scripture is profitable for any and every use, including doctrine. Let those who have been discouraged from doing so in the past, begin to look to this book again, not merely as a record of early Nazarene history, but as a guidebook in our cultural return back into the Commonwealth of Yisrael.

³ When there is togetherness in believing Yisrael, the main concern will be the restoration and regathering of the two houses. These folks hardly agreed on anything, but with one accord were concerned that Yahshua was returning to the Father without Efrayim and Judah first being joined again as one in YHWH's hand. This question set in a future tense, is valid and ample evidence that the restoration was paramount in Yahshua's ministry, and moreover had never fully taken place previously, at the time of the Jews' return from Babylonian exile, nor in Hezekiah, or Josiah's days, as some erroneously claim.

⁵ Note the plan for regathering Yisrael clearly outlined. In context, this commission is given in response to the disciples' question on how to restore Yisrael. He told them that they could not know when it would be fully accomplished, but He told them the method by which it would come to pass. He sent them out to all Yisrael, both in Judea, in Samaria and the entire world. There is only one Great Commission, not three. In all three areas, lost sheep of Yisrael are to be found.

13 And when they came back, they went up into an upper room, where there were staying Kepha, and Yaakov, and Yochanan, and Andri, Philip, and Toma, Bartholomi, and Mattityahu, Yaakov the son of Alphai, and Shimon the Zealot, and Yahudah the brother of Yaakov.

14 These all continued with one accord in the tefillot and supplication,⁴ with the women, and Miryam the eema of יהושע, and with His brothers.

15 And in those days Kepha stood up in the midst of the talmidim – the number of names together were about a hundred twenty – and said,

16 Men and Yisraelite brothers, this Katuv had to have been fulfilled, which the Ruach Hakodesh by the mouth of Dawid spoke before concerning Yahudah, who was a guide to them that took יהושע.

17 For he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this service.

18 Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity; and falling head first, he burst open in the middle, and all his intestines gushed out.

19 And it was known to all the dwellers at Yahrushalayim; so that field is called in their own language, Akel-Dahma, that is to say, The Field of Dahm.

20 For it is written in the Scroll of Tehillim, Let his dwelling be desolate, and let no man dwell in it: and let his office of service be given to another.

21 It is therefore necessary that one of these men who have been with us all the time that the Savior יהושע went in and out among us,

22 Beginning from the mikvah of Yochanan ha Matbeel, to the same day that He was taken up from us, one must be ordained to be a witness with us of His resurrection.

23 And they appointed two, Yoseph called Bar-Abba, who was surnamed Justus, and Mattityahu.

24 And they made tefillah, and said, You, Master יהוה, who knows the levim of all men, show which of these two You have chosen,⁵

25 That he may take part of this service and calling, from which Yahudah by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.⁶

26 And they gave out their lots; and the lot fell upon Mattityahu; and he was numbered with the eleven shlichim.

2 And when the moed of Shavuot was fully counted by the omer, they were all with one accord in one place.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from the shamayim as of a groaning Ruach, and it filled all the Bayit⁷ where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared to them divided tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.⁸

4 And they were all filled with the Ruach Hakodesh, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Ruach Hakodesh gave them the utterance.

5 And there were dwelling at Yahrushalayim, Yahudim,⁹

5 They prayed and asked simply because there were twelve disciples from each of the twelve tribes ordained for kingdom rulership, and the one that needed to be chosen was one who was first and foremost faithful and also one who would be from the same tribe that Judas was from. Only YHWH knew that for certain.

6 As opposed to a faithful Yisraelite, who is said to be gathered to his people.

7 The House is not a room. And is not an upper room. It is merely a Hebraic way of identifying the place as the House of YHWH on Mt. Moriah. Even in the land of Yisrael today, the Temple Mount is known as Har HaBayit, or the Mountain of the House. The Spirit fell in The Temple, or the "House" of YHWH, since that was the only place Yisraelites would be gathered by commandment according to Deut. 16 and Lev. 23. Had these Yisraelites been in an upper room, the Set-Apart-Spirit could not have been given, since they would be in disobedience to the Torah, as would YHWH, if He gave it to those who were not in His House, but rather in a prayer room of their own choosing. The so-called church as a separate entity from Yisrael, was never born on that day, since the events were promised and prophesied and fulfilled to Yisraelites in the Temple in YHWH's House. For a full treatment of Yisrael's promised renewal on this day, see: A Celebration Of Renewed Life at:

8 Another indication that Yisrael was being renewed, as opposed to a gentile church being birthed, as the Torah was also given in voices of thunderings, or (as the sages teach) in the 70 known tongues of the nations. The Torah was now being placed in their hearts, and this sign of divided tongues indicated that very implanting within the disciples.

9 Note that these people were not pagans but returning Yisraelites in varying stages of return. No pagans would go and worship YHWH on Shavuot/Feast of Weeks. Later in verses 8-11 we see that these men

¹ In context, one messenger representing both houses that would be coming together by the proclaiming of the Good News.

² Physically, bodily and back to the Mt. of Olives.

³ As determined by the Sanhedrin of that day. This concept became part of the Jewish oral law.

⁴ The upper room was the place where the prayer meeting of the leaders of Renewed Covenant Yisrael took place, but was not the place where the Spirit fell. The error of superimposing this prayer venue onto and into the events of chapter 2 has resulted in untold horror, tragedy and error, as seen in the alleged birth of a so-called gentile church.

6 Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together,² and were confused, because every man heard them speak in his own language.³
7 And they were all amazed and marveled, saying one to another, See, are not all these who speak Galilaeans?
8 How then do we hear them speaking in our own native language?
9 Parthians, and Medes, and Eylamites, and those Yisraelites dwelling in Aram, among whom were Yahudim, and those from Kappadokia, those from Pontos, and also Asia Minor,^{4 5}
10 Phrygia, and Pamphulia, in Mitzrayim, and in the parts of Libya near Cyrene, and Yahudim and gerim from Romiyah, along with the Yireh-יהוה,^{6 7}
11 Cretes and Arabians,⁸ we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of אלהים.
12 And they were all amazed and stunned, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What does this mean?⁹

were Yisraelites but not Jews, even though the term Jew is used here to include other Yisraelites both natural and by conversion.

² The “multitudes of the nations.” We see both the devout Jews and the multitudes from the nations coming together around the feasts as the restoration work begins.

³ Native tongue of the many Yisraelite nations that were visiting.

⁵ The exiles from Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia and Asia, were all to be considered the dispersed exiled chosen people according to Peter in 1 Peter 1.1.

⁶ Known in Hebrew as Yireh-YHWH, or YHWH fearers who were not natives.

⁷ Clearly many non-Yisraelites by birth were also in YHWH's House joining Yisrael and thus being Yisrael as seen by the term gerim/strangers and Yireh-YHWH converts. Notice that Libyans and Egyptians also become Yisrael and received the seal of the Spirit.

⁸ Arabs can and have always been welcome to become Yisrael based on Torah terms.

⁹ Most believers still don't clearly see the significance of this event, seeing it as the birth of a new religion, or 13 Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine.

14 But Kepha, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said to them, You men of Yahudah, and all you that are staying at Yahrushalayim,¹⁰ be this known to you, and listen to my words:

15 For these men are not drunk, as you suppose, seeing it is but nine o'clock in the morning.

16 But this is that which was spoken by the navi Yo-El;¹¹

17 And it shall come to pass in the yamim acharonim, said יהוה, I will pour out from My Ruach upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:

18 And on My avadim and on My female avadim I will pour out in those days from My Ruach; and they shall prophesy:

19 And I will show wonders in the shamayim above, and signs in the olam beneath; dahm, and fire, and vapor of smoke:

20 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into dahm, before that great and terrible Yom יהוה comes:¹²

21 And it shall come to pass, that whoever shall call on the Name of the Master יהוה shall be saved.¹³

22 You men of Yisrael,¹⁴ listen to these words; יהושע of Natzeret, a man approved of יהוה among you by nisim and wonders and signs, which יהוה did through Him in the midst of you, as you yourselves also know:

non-Yisraelite entity, rather than as the fulfillment of Jeremiah 31:31.

¹⁰ A clear two-house reference. The Jews, and those non-Jews staying for the feast.

¹¹ Joel's prophesy in Joel 2:28-32 was given exclusively to Yisraelites and not to pagans, or gentiles. Peter states that this Yisraelite prophecy is fulfilled in the men and women standing there that day. This prophecy states that the “all flesh” under consideration in the context of Joel 2:27, is the flesh of Yisrael and Yisrael alone. In Joel 2:27, YHWH states that this promise is to Yisrael, since it is He who dwells in the midst of Yisrael. YHWH further elaborates about this last days outpouring of the Spirit upon all Yisraelite flesh in Joel chapter 2:28, 29. The promised outpouring of the Spirit would take place upon your sons, your daughters, your old men, your young men, your men servants, and your female servants. Obviously the key word here is “your,” or Joel's people. If we are honest with Scripture and we let Scripture interpret Scripture, the “all flesh” that received the Spirit had to be Yisrael's sons, daughters, young men, old men and all sojourners among them. Yisrael was being renewed without any new church being born.

¹² At the second coming.

¹³ MarYah in the Peshitta, literally meaning that to call on YHWH through Yahshua is salvation itself.

¹⁴ The multitudes from all the nations despite not being Jewish, or speaking Hebrew, are called “Yisrael” by Peter.

MAASEH SHLICHIM – ACTS

23 Him, being delivered by the determined counsel and foreknowledge of יהוה, you have taken, and by the hands of Torah-less men, you have impaled and killed: ¹

24 Whom יהוה has raised up, having demolished the cords ² of death: because it was not possible for Sheol to hold Him.

25 For Dawid spoke concerning Him, I saw my יהוה always before my face, for He is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:

26 Therefore did my lev have gilah, and my tongue had simcha; moreover also my body shall rest in tikvah:

27 Because You will not leave my being in Sheol, neither will You allow the Kadosh-One of Yisrael to see corruption.

28 You have made known to me the ways of chayim; You shall make me full of simcha with Your presence.

29 Men and Yisraelite brothers, let me freely speak to you of the patriarch Dawid, that he is both dead and buried, and his tomb is with us to this day.

30 Being a navi, and knowing that יהוה had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up the Moshiach to sit on his kesay;

31 He seeing this before spoke of the resurrection of the Moshiach, that His being was not left in the Sheol, neither did His flesh see corruption.

32 This יהושע has יהוה raised up, of which we all are witnesses.

33 Therefore being by the Right Hand of יהוה exalted, and having received from Abba the promise of the Ruach Hakodesh, He has sent out all this, which you now see and hear.

34 For Dawid is not ascended into the shamayim: ³ but he said himself, the Master יהוה said to My Master, Sit at My right hand,

35 Until I make Your enemies Your footstool.

36 Therefore let kol Beit Yisrael know ⁴ assuredly, that the Master יהוה has made known that same יהושע, whom you have impaled, as both Melech and Moshiach.

37 Now when they heard this, they were pierced in their levim, and said to Kepha and to the rest of the shlichim, Men and Yisraelite brothers, what shall we do?

¹ Yahshua's death was arranged by the will of the Father, in order to redeem man individually and Yisrael collectively, as seen in John 10:16-17. This was and remains the Father's plan to cleanse all His children from both houses. The Jews did not kill Messiah. The Father's predetermined plan did.

² Peshitta term khabelyeh in context means ropes not pain.

³ Dawid's spirit ascended only after the resurrection of Messiah, and his body remains in the grave for the return of Messiah. For more details see Restoring Heaven's Gates at:

<http://restorationscriptures.org/link17.htm>

⁴ In the setting, an obvious reference to kol, or all Yisrael, or those returning from both houses.

38 Then Kepha said to them, Shuv, and be immersed every one of you in the Name of the Master-Yah ⁵ יהושע ha Moshiach for the forgiveness of sins, and you shall receive the gift of the Ruach Hakodesh.

39 For the promise is to you, and to your children, and to all that are far off, ⁶ even as many as יהוה our אלהא shall call. ⁷

40 And with many other words did he testify and exhort them, saying, Save yourselves from this sinful generation.

41 Then they that gladly received his word were immersed: and the same day there were added to them about three thousand beings. ⁸

42 And they continued steadfastly in the shlichim's Torah and chavurah, and in breaking of lechem, and in the tefillot. ⁹

43 And fear came upon every being: and many wonders and signs were done by the shlichim.

44 And all that believed were echad, and had all things be-yachad;

45 And sold their possessions and goods, and divided them to all men, as every man had need.

46 And they, continuing daily as echad in the Beit HaMikdash, ¹⁰ breaking lechem from bayit to bayit, ¹¹ ¹² did eat their food with simcha and a pure lev, 47 Offering tehilla to יהוה, and having favor with all the people. And יהוה added to the congregation of Yisrael daily all those being saved.

3 Now Kepha and Yochanan went up together into the Beit HaMikdash at the hour of tefillah, being the ninth hour.

2 And a certain man lame from his eema's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the Beit HaMikdash which is called the Yahpha Gate, to ask assistance from those that entered into the Beit HaMikdash;

3 Who seeing Kepha and Yochanan about to go into the Beit HaMikdash asked for assistance.

⁵ Aramaic Mar-Yah Yahshua, a clear reference to His deity.

⁶ A Hebraic idiom as outlined in Ephesians 2:13 and Daniel 9:7 and elsewhere, that speak of the 10 tribes of Efrayim-Yisrael.

⁷ The perpetual promise to all of Joel's regenerated children, even as many as are generations away.

⁸ Further proof that this event could not have taken place in the so called "upper room" since that tiny upper room of the last supper can't hold 3,000 people, or even 120, and certainly did not have a baptismal pool.

⁹ Three times daily.

¹⁰ The final proof that these events did not birth an upper room church, as by definition they could not continue in the temple, unless they were there in the first place.

¹¹ This is a remez (scriptural hint) on the unity of Yisrael being restored from house to house, between Judah and Efrayim.

MAASEH SHLICHIM – ACTS

4 And Kepha, staring at him with Yochanan, said, Look at us.
5 And he listened to them, expecting to receive something from them.
6 Then Kepha said, Silver and gold I have none; but what I have I give you: In the Name of יהושע ha Moshiach of Natzeret rise up and walk.
7 And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength.
8 And he leaped up and stood, and he walked, and entered the Beit HaMikdash with them, walking, and leaping, and giving tehilla to אלהא.
9 And all the people saw him walking and giving tehilla to אלהא:
10 And they knew that it was the one who sat for assistance at the Yahpha Gate of the Beit HaMikdash: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened to him.
11 And as the lame man who was healed held Kepha and Yochanan, all the people ran together to them in the porch that is called Shlomo's, greatly wondering.
12 And when Kepha saw it, he answered the people, You men of Yisrael, ¹ why do you marvel at this? Or, why do you look so intently at us, as though by our own power or set-apartness we have made this man to walk?
13 The אלהא of Avraham, and of Yitzchak, and of Yaakov, the אלהא of our ahvot, has esteemed His Son יהושע; whom you delivered up, and denied Him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let Him go.
14 But you denied the Kadosh-One and the Tzadik-One of Yisrael, and desired that a murderer be released to you;
15 And killed the Sar of Chayim, whom יהוה has raised from the dead; of which we are witnesses.
16 And His Name through emunah in His Name has made this man strong, whom you see and know: yes, the emunah, which is by Him, has given him this perfect soundness in the presence of all of you.
17 And now, Yisraelite brothers, I know that through ignorance you did it, as did also your rulers.
18 But those things, which אלהא before had shown by the mouth of all His neviim, that the Moshiach should suffer, He has now fulfilled.
19 Make teshuvah therefore, and be converted in lev, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Master יהוה;
20 And He shall send יהושע ha Moshiach, who before was proclaimed to you:
21 Whom the shamayim must receive until the times of the restoration of all things, which יהוה has spoken by the mouth of all His kadosh neviim since the olam began.²
22 For Moshe truly said to the ahvot, A Navi shall the Master יהוה your אלהא raise up to you from your

² This does not mean that Yahshua will not return until all things are fully restored as some teach. Rather He will not return until He has begun an irreversible process in all things that need restoration, such as His Father's Name, Torah and the two houses of Yisrael. What He starts will be completed in the millennium.

Yisraelite brothers, like me; you shall listen to Him in all things and whatever He shall say to you.
23 And it shall come to pass, that every being, who will not hear that Navi, shall be destroyed from among the people of Yisrael.
24 Yes, and all the neviim from Schmuel and those that followed after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days.
25 You are the children of the neviim, and of the brit that יהוה made with our ahvot, saying to Avraham, And in your zera shall all the nations of the olam be blessed/mixed.³
26 To you first יהוה, having raised up His Son יהושע, sent Him to give you brachot, in turning away all of you from your iniquities.

4 And as they spoke to the people, the Kohanim, and the leaders of the Beit HaMikdash, and the Tzadukim, came upon them,
2 Being disturbed that they taught the people of Yisrael, and proclaimed through יהושע the resurrection from the dead.
3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in prison until the next day: for it was now evening.
4 But many of them who heard the word believed; and the number of the men were about five thousand.
5 And it came to pass on the next day, that their rulers, and zechanim, and Torah Sophrim,
6 And Chanan the Kohen HaGadol, and Cayapha, and Yochanan, and Alexander, and as many as were from the mishpacha of the Kohen HaGadol, were gathered together at Yahrushalayim.
7 And when they had set the talmidim in their midst, they asked, By what power, or by what Name, have you done this?
8 Then Kepha, filled with the Ruach Hakodesh, said to them, You rulers of the people, and zechanim of Yisrael,
9 If we are examined today because of the tov mitzvah done to the helpless man, by what means he is made healthy;
10 Be it known to you all, and to kol Yisrael, ⁴ that by the Name of יהושע ha Moshiach of Natzeret, whom you impaled, whom יהוה raised from the dead, even by Him does this man stand here before you healthy.
11 This is the Stone that was rejected by you builders, that has become the Rosh Pina.
12 Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is no other Name under the shamayim given among men, whereby we must be saved.
13 Now when they saw the boldness of Kepha and Yochanan, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marveled; and they took special note, that they had been with יהושע.⁵
14 And beholding the man who was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.
15 But when they had commanded them to go outside out of the Sanhedrin, they conferred among themselves,

16 Saying, What shall we do to these men? For that indeed a notable ness has been done by them is manifest to all them that dwell in Yahrushalayim; and we cannot deny it.

17 But that it spreads no further among the people, let us strictly threaten them that they speak to no man in this Name from now on.

18 And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the Name of יהושע.

19 But Kepha and Yochanan answered and said to them, Whether it is right in the sight of אלהה to listen to you more than to יהוה, you can judge.

20 We just cannot stop speaking about the things, which we have seen, and heard.

21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing on how they might punish them, because of the people: for all men gave tehilla to יהוה for that which was done.

22 For the man was above forty years old, on whom this ness of healing was done.

23 And being let go, they went to their own people, and reported all that the chief Kohanim and zechanim had said to them.

24 And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice to יהוה with one accord, and said, Master יהוה, You are אלהה, who has made the shamayim, and the olam, and the sea, and all that is in them:

25 Who by the mouth of Your eved Dawid has said, Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine worthless things?

26 The melechim of the olam stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Master יהוה, and against His Moshiach.

27 For of an emet against Your kadosh Son יהושע, whom You have anointed, both Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the gentile pagans, and the people of Yisrael, were gathered together, 28 To do whatever Your hand and Your counsel determined before to be done.

29 And now, Master יהוה, see their threats: and grant to Your avadim, that with all boldness they may speak Your word,

30 By stretching out Your hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by the Name of Your kadosh Son יהושע.

31 And when they had made tefillah, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Ruach Hakodesh, and they spoke the word of יהוה with boldness.

32 And the multitude of them that believed were echad: no one claimed that any of the things, which he possessed, was his own; but they had all things be-yachad.

33 And with great power gave the shlichim witness of the resurrection of the Savior יהושע: and great favor was upon them all.

34 Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands, or houses sold them, and brought the prices of those things that were sold,

35 And laid them down at the shlichim's feet: and then distributions were made to every man according as he had need.

36 And Yoseph, who by the shlichim was surnamed Bar-Navah,¹ which is, being interpreted, The Son of Encouragement a Lewi, and of the country of Cyprus, 37 Had a field, and sold it, and brought the money, and placed it at the disposal of the shlichim.

5 But a certain man named Chananyah, with Shappirah his wife, sold a field,

2 And kept back part of the proceeds, his wife also knowing about it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the shlichim's feet.

3 But Kepha said, Chananyah, why has s.a.tan filled your lev to lie to the Ruach Hakodesh, to keep back part of the price of the field?

4 While it remained in your care, was it not your own? And after it was sold, was it not under your own authority? Why have you conceived this thing in your lev? You have not lied to men, but to יהוה.²

5 And Chananyah hearing these words fell down, and gave up the ruach: and great fear came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the young men arose, wrapped him up, and carried him out, and buried him.

7 And it was about three hours later, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

8 And Kepha asked her, Tell me whether you sold the field for this much? And she said, Yes, for this much.

9 Then Kepha said to her, How is it that you have agreed together to tempt the Ruach of the Master יהוה? See, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and shall carry you out.

10 Then she fell down at his feet immediately, and yielded up the ruach: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carried her out, and buried her next to her husband.

11 And great fear came upon all the congregation of Yisrael, and upon as many as heard these things.

12 And by the hands of the shlichim were many signs and wonders done among the people; and they were all with one accord in Shlomo's Porch.

13 And of the rest of the leaders in the Beit HaMikdash, dared not seize them: but the people magnified them.

14 And believers were added to יהוה, more and more even multitudes both of men and women.

15 So that they brought out the sick into the streets, and laid them on mats and couches, so that at the very least, the shadow of Kepha passing by might overshadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities around Yahrushalayim, bringing sick folks, and those who were troubled with shadim:³ and they were healed every one.

17 Then the Kohen HaGadol rose up, and all they that were with him, which is the sect of the Tzadukim, and were filled with indignation,

MAASEH SHLICHIM – ACTS

18 And laid their hands on the shlichim, and put them in the common prison.
19 But a heavenly malach of the Master יהוה opened the prison doors at night, and brought them out, and said,
20 Go, stand and speak in the Beit HaMikdash to the people of Yisrael all the words of this Way of chayim.
21 And when they heard that, they entered into the Beit HaMikdash early in the morning, and taught. But the Kohen HaGadol came, and they that were with him, and called the Sanhedrin together, and all the Sanhedrin of the children of Yisrael sent word to the prison to have them brought out.
22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned,
23 Saying, The prison truly we found shut with all safety, and the guards standing outside the doors: but when we had opened the doors, we found no man inside.
24 Now when the Kohen HaGadol and the captain of the Beit HaMikdash and the chief Kohanim heard these things, they were puzzled and wondered how this could happen.
25 Then came one and told them, saying, See, the men whom you put in prison are standing in the Beit HaMikdash, and teaching the people of Yisrael.
26 Then the captain with the officers brought the talmidim in without violence: for they feared the people, lest they should be stoned.
27 And when they had brought them, they sat them before the Sanhedrin: and the Kohen HaGadol asked them,
28 Saying, Did not we strictly command you that you should not teach in this Name? ¹ And, see, you have filled Yahrushalayim with your teaching, and now you intend to bring this Man's dahm upon us.
29 Then Kepha and the other shlichim answered and said, We must first obey אלהא rather than men.
30 The אלהא of our ahvot raised up יהושע, whom you killed and hanged on an eytz of execution.
31 This very One has יהוה exalted with His Right Hand to be the Sar and Savior, to grant teshuvah to Yisrael, and the forgiveness of sins.
32 And we are His witnesses of these things; and so is also the Ruach Hakodesh, whom אלהא has given to them that obey Him. ²
33 When they heard these words, they were enraged, and took counsel to murder them.
34 Then stood up one in the Sanhedrin, a Prush, named Gamliel, an honored Torah teacher, held in the highest esteem among all the people of Yisrael, who commanded that the shlichim be taken out of the chamber for a while;
35 And said to them, You men of Yisrael, ³ take heed to yourselves what you intend to do to these men.
36 For before these days rose up Todah, boasting himself to be somebody great; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: he was killed; and all, that obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nothing.

37 After this man rose up Yahudah of Galil in the days of the taxing, and drew away many people after him: he also perished; and all those who obeyed him were dispersed.
38 And now I say to you, Refrain from hurting these men, and leave them alone: for if these ideas, or this work be from men, it will come to nothing:
39 But if it be of אלהא, you cannot overthrow it; lest you be found in a fight against אלהא.
40 And they agreed with him: and when they had called the shlichim, and had beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the Name of יהושע, and let them go.
41 And they departed from the presence of the Sanhedrin, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for His Name.
42 And daily in the Beit HaMikdash, and in every bayit, they ceased not to teach and proclaim יהושע ha Moshiach.

6 And in those days, when the number of the talmidim was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Hellenists against the Ivrim, because their widows were neglected in the daily distribution. ⁴

2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the talmidim to them, and said, It is not right that we should leave the word of יהוה, and serve food.

3 Therefore, Yisraelite brothers, look for seven men of honest report, full of the Ruach of the Master יהוה and chochmah, whom we may appoint over this business.

4 But we will give ourselves continually to tefillah, and to the service of the word.

5 And the saying pleased the entire multitude: and they chose Tzephanyah, a man full of emunah and the Ruach Hakodesh, and Philip, and Prochoros, and Nikanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nikolaos a Yisraelite of Antioch. ⁵

6 Who were set before the shlichim: and when they had made tefillah, they laid their hands on them.

7 And the word of יהוה increased; and the number of the talmidim multiplied in Yahrushalayim greatly; and a large group of the Kohanim and others from the Yahudite emunah were obedient to the Netsarim emunah.

8 And Tzephanyah, full of emunah and power, did great wonders and nisim among the people.

9 Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the Synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of them of Cilikia and of Asia Minor, disputing with Tzephanyah. ⁶

⁵ Greek converts, especially in Asia Minor, were clearly lost sheep as outlined elsewhere.

MAASEH SHLICHIM – ACTS

10 And they were not able to resist the chochmah and the Ruach by which he spoke.

11 Then they instigated other men, who said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moshe, and against אלהא.

12 And they stirred up the people, and the zechanim, and the Sophrim, and all these came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the Sanhedrin,

13 And set up false witnesses, who said, This man ceases not to speak blasphemous words against the Kadosh-Place, and the Torah:

14 For we have heard him say, that this יהושע of Natzeret shall destroy this place, and shall change the ways that Moshe delivered to us.

15 And all that sat in the Sanhedrin, looking steadfastly at him, saw his face as if it had been the face of a heavenly malach.

7 Then the Kohen HaGadol said, Are these things the emet?

2 And he said, Men, Yisraelite brothers, and ahvot, listen to me; The אלהא of tifereth appeared to our abba Avraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charan,

3 And said to him, Get out of your country, and from your mishpacha, and come into the land that I shall show you.

4 Then he came out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Charan: and from there, when his abba was dead, he moved into this land, in which you now dwell.

5 And He gave him no inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet He promised that He would give it to him for a possession, and to his zera after him, when as yet he had no children.

6 And אלהא spoke saying, That his zera should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and mistreat them with evil four hundred years.

7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said יהוה: and after that shall they come out, and serve Me in this place.

8 And He gave him the brit of brit milah: and so Avraham brought out Yitzchak, and performed brit milah on him the eighth day; and Yitzchak brought out Yaakov; and Yaakov brought out the twelve ahvot.

9 And the ahvot, moved with envy, sold Yoseph into Mitzrayim: but אלהא was with him,

10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favor and chochmah in the sight of Pharaoh melech of Mitzrayim; and He made him governor over Mitzrayim and all his bayit.

11 Now there came a famine over all the land of Mitzrayim and Kanaan, and great affliction: and our ahvot found no food.

12 But when Yaakov heard that there was corn in Mitzrayim, he sent out our ahvot first.

13 And the second time Yoseph was made known to his brothers; ¹ and Yoseph's mishpacha was made known to Pharaoh.

14 Then Yoseph sent, and called his abba Yaakov to him, and all his mishpacha, seventy-five beings. ²

15 So Yaakov went down into Mitzrayim, and died, he, and our ahvot,

16 And were carried over into Shechem, and laid in the tomb that Avraham bought for a sum of money from the sons of Chamor the abba of Shechem.

17 But when the time of the promise drew near, which אלהא had sworn to Avraham, the people grew and multiplied in Mitzrayim, 18 Until another melech arose, who knew not Yoseph.

19 The same dealt deceitfully with our people, and mistreated our ahvot; so that they made them cast out their young children, so that they might not live.

20 In which time Moshe was born, and was favored and pleasing to אלהא, and was raised in his abba's bayit three months:

21 And when he was exposed, Pharaoh's daughter took him in, and nourished him even as her own son.

22 And Moshe was learned in all the chochmah of the Mitzrites, and was mighty in words and in deeds.

23 And when he was forty years old, it came into his lev to visit his brothers the children of Yisrael. ³

24 And seeing one of them mistreated, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Mitzri:

25 For he supposed his Yisraelite brothers would have understood how אלהא by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not.

26 And the next day he showed himself to them as they fought, and would have made them echad again, saying, Men, you are Yisraelite brothers; why do you do wrong to one another?

27 But he that did his neighbor wrong pushed him away, saying, Who made you a ruler and a shophet over us?

28 Will you kill me, as you did the Mitzri yesterday?

29 Then Moshe ran at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Midyan, where he brought forth two sons.

30 And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of Har Senai the Malach-יהוה ⁴ from the Master יהוה in a flame of fire in a bush.

31 When Moshe saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to see it, the voice of the Master יהוה came to him, 32 Saying, I am the אלהא of your ahvot, the אלהא of Avraham, and the אלהא of Yitzchak, and the אלהא of Yaakov. Then Moshe trembled, and dared not look.

33 Then said the Master יהוה to him, Take off your sandals from your feet: for the place where you stand is kadosh ground.

including this place known as the Synagogue of Freedom, or Freemen. There is little doubt that these were in fact the early seeds of the later-developed Roman-Greek church system, that paraded and boasted in their status as freemen, or those freed from obedience and compliance to Torah.

⁴ Yahshua.

34 I have seen, yes I have seen the affliction of My people who are in Mitzrayim, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send you into Mitzrayim.
 35 This Moshe whom they refused, saying, Who made you a ruler and a shophet? The same one did יהוה send to be a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the Malach-יהוה who appeared to him in the bush.
 36 He brought them out, after that he had shown wonders and signs in the land of Mitzrayim, and in the Sea of Reeds, and in the wilderness for forty years.
 37 This is that Moshe, who said to the children of Yisrael, A Navi shall the Master יהוה your אלהא raise up to you from your Yisraelite brothers, like me; to Him shall you listen.
 38 This is he, that was in the eidta-ekklesia-congregation of Yisrael in the wilderness^{1 2} with the Malach-יהוה who spoke to him on Har Senai, and with our ahvot: who received the living words³ to give to us:
 39 To whom our ahvot would not obey, but threw him from them, and in their levim turned back again into Mitzrayim,
 40 Saying to Aharon, Make us mighty ones to go before us: for as for this Moshe, who brought us out of the land of Mitzrayim, we do not know what is become of him.
 41 And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifices to the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.
 42 Then אלהא turned, and gave them up to worship the cochavim of the shamayim; as it is written in the scroll of the neviim, O you people of Yisrael, why have you offered to Me slain beasts and sacrifices during forty years in the wilderness?

 43 Yes, you took up the tent of Moloch, and the cochav of your mighty one Remphan-Derphan, and made images to worship: and so I will carry you away beyond Bavel.⁴
 44 Our ahvot had the tent of witness in the wilderness, as He had appointed, speaking to Moshe, that he should make it according to the pattern that he had seen.
 45 Which also our ahvot that came after brought in with Yahoshua son of Nun, into this land of the gentiles, whom אלהא drove out before the faces of our ahvot, up until the days of Dawid;
 46 Who found favor before יהוה, and desired to find a tent for the אלהא of Yaakov.
 47 But Shlomo built Him a Bayit.
 48 But El-Elyon dwells not in temples made with hands; as said the navi,
 49 Heaven is My kesay, and the olam is My footstool: what bayit will you build Me? Says the Master יהוה: or where is the place of My rest?
 50 Has not My hand made all these things?
 51 You stiff-necked and uncircumcised⁵ in lev and ears, you do always resist the Ruach Hakodesh: as your ahvot did, so do you.
 52 Which of the true neviim have not your ahvot persecuted? And they have also killed those who spoke before of the coming of the Tzadik-One; whom you now have betrayed by murder:
 53 Who have received the Torah like the very commands given to heavenly malachim, but have not kept it.
 54 When they heard these things, they were enraged, and they gnashed on him with their teeth.
 55 But he, being full of the Ruach Hakodesh, looked up staring into the shamayim, and saw the tifereth of יהוה, and יהושע standing on the right hand of El-Elyon,
 56 And said, See, I see the shamayim opened, and the Ben-Ahdahm standing on the right hand of יהוה.⁶
 57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, and covered their ears, and ran upon him with one accord,
 58 And cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Shaul.
 59 And they stoned Tzephanyah, while he was calling

¹ Acts 7:38 speaks of the eidta, or congregation (mistranslated as “church” in most English Bibles) that was in the wilderness, which clearly indicates that those of first-century Yisrael thought that the people being called forth in Messiah, were “one and the same” with those of ancient Yisrael. YHWH's Spirit, not man, wrote this Acts 7 quotation. He placed this verse here, to make sure that the disciples understood, just as Stephen the Jewish martyr understood things. Namely, that the Renewed Covenant Yisraelite community was the historic and prophetic continuation of the people of Yisrael, made up of twelve tribes plus strangers. It is not the birth of a new and separate entity of elect called “the church.” It is the historic continuation of Yisrael, through Messiah's renewal of Yisrael. But, ultimately, this congregation has a name, and it is not “Messianic Judaism,” or “Christian church,” but “Yisrael.” Hence the term “eidta,” or “congregation” of Yisrael.

² In The LXX (Greek Septuagint) the Hebrew word for “congregation,” or “kahal” Yisrael was translated by 70 Jewish rabbis in 150 CE into the Greek word ekklesia – the same word used here in the “Greek New Testament” for all Renewed Covenant congregations throughout the Renewed Covenant, meaning that the authors considered the congregations that believed in Yahshua as the same Yisrael that was at Mt. Sinai.

³ Apparently Stephen also believed that the Torah was still in effect after Yahshua came, since he calls the Torah's teachings “ongoing,” or “living words.”

⁴ Speaking of Yisrael's exile to all four corners of the earth.

⁶ Why standing? Because Yahshua honored him as the first Renewed Covenant martyr, and stood in his honor.

MAASEH SHLICHIM – ACTS

upon אלהא, and saying, Master יהושע, receive my ruach.
60 And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Master יהושע; lay not this sin against them. And when he had said this, he died.

8 And Shaul was approving of Tzephanyah's death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the congregation of Yisrael at Yahrushalayim; and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Yahudah and Shomron, except the shlichim.¹

2 And devout men carried Tzephanyah to his burial, and mourned over him in great human sorrow.

3 As for Shaul, he made havoc of the congregation of Yisrael, entering into every bayit, and seizing men and women, throwing them into prison.

4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad went everywhere proclaiming the word.

5 Then Philip went down to the city of Shomron,² and proclaimed the Moshiach to them.

6 And the people with one accord gave heed to those things that Philip spoke, hearing and seeing the nisim that he did.

7 For shadim, crying with loud voices, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many who were paralyzed, and that were lame, were healed.

8 And there was great simcha in that city.³

9 But there was a certain man, called Shimon, who in the past in the same city used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Shomron, claiming to be I AM:⁴

10 To whom they all prayed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of אלהא.

11 And to him they paid careful attention, because for a long time he had amazed them with sorceries.

12 But when they believed Philip proclaiming the things concerning the malchut of יהוה, and the Name of יהושע ha Moshiach, they were immersed, both men and women.

13 Then Shimon himself believed also: and when he was immersed, he continued with Philip, and was impressed, beholding the nisim and signs that were done.

14 Now when the shlichim who were at Yahrushalayim heard that Shomron had received the word of יהוה, they sent to them Kepha and Yochanan:

15 Who, when they had come down, made tefillah for them, that they might receive the Ruach Hakodesh:

16 For until then He had not fallen upon them: they only were immersed in the Name of the Savior יהושע.

17 Then they laid their hands on them, and they received the Ruach Hakodesh.

18 And when Shimon saw that through laying on of the shlichim's hands that the Ruach Hakodesh was given, he offered them money,⁵

19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whoever I lay hands; he may receive the Ruach Hakodesh.

20 But Kepha said to him, Your money perishes with you, because you have thought that the gift of יהוה may be purchased with money.

21 You have nothing to do with our emunah: for your lev is not right in the sight of יהוה.

22 Repent therefore of your wickedness, and make tefillah to אלהא, if perhaps the thoughts of your lev may be forgiven you.

23 For I perceive that you are poisoned with bitterness, bound by Torah violations.

24 Then answered Shimon, and said, Make tefillah to the Savior for me, that none of these things that you have spoken come upon me.

25 And, when they had testified and proclaimed the word of יהוה, they returned to Yahrushalayim, and proclaimed the Besorah in many villages of the Shomronim.

26 And a heavenly malach of the Master יהוה spoke to Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south to the derech that goes down from Yahrushalayim to Azah, which is desert.

27 And he arose and went: and, see, a man of Kush, a faithful believer,⁶ a treasurer of great authority under Kandace malqa of the Kushim, who was in charge of all her treasure, and had come to Yahrushalayim to worship,⁷ 28 Was returning, and sitting in his mirkavah reading Yeshayahu the navi.

29 Then the Ruach said to Philip, Go near, and join this mirkavah.

30 And Philip ran to him, and heard him reading Yeshayahu the navi, and said; Do you understand what you read?

31 And he said, How can I, except some man should teach me? And he desired that Philip would come up and sit with him.

32 The place of the Katuv from where he read was this, He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a Lamb is dumb before His shearer, so He opened not His mouth:

33 In His humiliation His mishpat was taken away: and who shall declare His generation? For His chayim is taken from the olam.

34 And the faithful believer asked Philip, and said, I ask you, of whom does the navi speak this? Of himself, or of some other man?

⁷ A black man, who had joined himself to Yisrael, either as a stranger in the gates, or a seeking Efrayimite.

¹ This among many other persecutions was used by YHWH, to spread both the message, and the people of the message, so that they would go gathering the lost sheep.

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same Katuv, and proclaimed to him יהושע.

36 And as they went on their derech, they came to a certain mayim; and the faithful believer said, See, here is mayim; what does stop me from being immersed?

37 And Philip said, If you believe with all your lev, you may. And he answered and said, I believe that יהושע ha Moshiach is the Son of יהוה.

38 And he commanded the mirkavah to stop: and they both went down into the mayim, both Philip and the faithful believer; and he immersed him.

39 And when they had come up out of the mayim, the Ruach of the Master יהוה caught Philip away to another place, so that the faithful believer saw him no more: and he went on his derech with gilah.¹

40 But Philip was found at Ashdod: and passing through he proclaimed in all the cities, until he came to Caesarea.

9 And Shaul, yet breathing out threatening and slaughter against the talmidim of the Savior, went to the Kohen HaGadol,

2 And desired letters from him to Dameshek to the synagogues,² that if he found any of this Way, whether they were men, or women, he might bring them bound to Yahrushalayim.

3 And as he journeyed, he came near Dameshek: and suddenly there shone all around him a light from the shamayim:

4 And he fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to him, *Shaul, Shaul, why are you persecuting Me?*³

5 And he said, Who are You, Master? And He said, I am יהושע whom you are persecuting: it is hard for you to offer against Me this worthless resistance.

6 And he trembling and astonished said, Master, what will You have me to do? And יהושע said to him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told to you what you must do.

7 And the men who journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.

8 And Shaul arose from the ground; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Dameshek.

9 And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

10 And there was a certain talmid at Dameshek, named Chananyah; and יהושע said to him in a vision, Chananyah. And he said, See, Hinani, my Master יהוה.

11 And יהושע said to him, *Arise, and go into the street which is called Yahshar, and ask in the bayit of Yahudah for one called Shaul, of Tarsus: for, see, he makes tefillah,*⁴

12 And has seen in a vision a man named Chananyah coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then Chananyah answered, Master, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to Your Yisraelite kidushim at Yahrushalayim:

14 And here he has authority from the chief Kohanim to imprison all that call on Your Name.

15 But the Master יהוה said to him, *Arise and go: for he is a chosen vessel to Me, to bear My Name before the nations, and melechim, and the children of Yisrael:*⁵

16 *For I will show him how many great things he must suffer for My Name's sake.*⁶

17 And Chananyah went on his derech, and entered into the bayit; and putting his hands on him said, Brother Shaul, the Savior יהושע, that appeared to you in the derech as you came, has sent me, that you might receive your sight, and be filled with the Ruach Hakodesh.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes something like scales: and he received sight immediately, and arose, and was immersed.

19 And when he had received food, he was strengthened. Then Shaul stayed for a while with the talmidim that were at Dameshek.

20 And right away he proclaimed יהושע in the synagogues,⁷ that יהושע is the Son of יהוה.

21 But all that heard him were amazed, saying; Is not this the one that destroyed those who called on this Name in Yahrushalayim, and came here for that purpose, that he might bring them bound to the chief Kohanim?

22 But Shaul increased even more in strength, and confused the Yahudim who dwelt at Dameshek, proving that this is the Moshiach.

23 And after many days, the Yahudim took counsel to kill him:

24 But Shaul knew their laying in wait. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

25 Then the talmidim took him by night, and let him down

¹ When this man returned to Kush, or Ethiopia (where the Scroll of Jasher asserts Moses was once king), he went around proclaiming the Good News, and much of Ethiopia and later India received the Good News. If this man had children and was an Efrayimite, or even a Jew, then today millions of Ethiopians and Indians (from India) are believing Yisraelites. As we see, Yisrael is not limited to the white Caucasians. Rather Yisrael is Joseph's coat of many colors.

² True believers prior to the hellenization of the faith met in Torah-honoring synagogues and congregations.

³ Note that Yahshua chose to speak Hebrew not Greek, as Shaul is his Hebrew name. He also calls him Shaul not Paul.

⁶ Those who use the true Names of the Father and the Son will be under extraordinary pressure to compromise.

⁷ A pattern we see throughout his ministry, and the pattern given to him by the Father YHWH.

MAASEH SHLICHIM – ACTS

from the wall in a basket.

26 And when Shaul had come to Yahrushalayim, he desired to join himself to the talmidim: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a talmid.

27 But Bar-Nava took him, and brought him to the shlichim, and declared to them how he had seen the Master יהוה in the derech,¹ and that He had spoken to him, and how he had proclaimed boldly at Dameshek in the Name of יהושע.

28 And he was with them coming in and going out at Yahrushalayim.

29 And he spoke boldly in the Name of the Savior יהושע, and disputed against the Hellenists: and they went about to murder him.²

30 Which when the Yisraelite brothers knew, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him out to Tarsus.

31 Then had the congregations of Yisrael shalom throughout all Yahudah and Galil and Shomron, and were built up; having their halacha in the fear of יהוה, and in the comfort of the Ruach Hakodesh, and were multiplied.

32 And it came to pass, as Kepha passed through various cities, he came down also to the Yisraelite kidushim who dwelt at Lod.

33 And there he found a certain man named Anyah, who had been bound to his mat eight years, and was sick from paralysis.

34 And Kepha said to him, Anyah, יהושע ha Moshiach makes you healthy: arise, and take your mat. And he arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt at Lod and Sharon saw him, and turned to יהוה.

36 Now there was at Yapho a certain talmida named Tavitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas: this woman was full of tov mitzvoth and kind acts that she did.

37 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: who when they had washed her, they laid her in an upper room.

38 And since Lod was near to Yapho, and the talmidim had heard that Kepha was there, they sent to him two men, desiring that he would not delay to come to them.

39 Then Kepha arose and went with them. When he had come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments that Dorcas made, while she was with them.

40 But Kepha put them all out, and kneeled down, and made tefillah; and turning to the body said, Tavitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Kepha, she sat up.

41 And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up, and when he had called the Yisraelite kidushim and widows, he presented her alive.

42 And it was known throughout all Yapho; and many believed in יהושע because of it.

43 And it came to pass, that he stayed many days in Yapho with Shimon a leather-tanner.

10 There was a certain man in Caesarea called Cornelius, a captain of the Italian regiment,

2 A tzadik³ man, a Yireh יהוה along with all his bayit, who gave much assistance to the people, and made tefillah to אלהים always.

3 He saw in a vision evidently about three o'clock a heavenly malach of יהוה coming in to him, and saying to him, Cornelius.

4 And when he looked at him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Master? And he said to him, your tefillot and your mitzvoth have come up as a memorial before אלהים.

5 And now send men to Yapho, and call for Shimon, who is called Kepha:

6 He lodges with Shimon a tanner, whose bayit is by the sea:

7 And when the heavenly malach who spoke to Cornelius had departed, he called two of his household avadim, and a tzadik soldier from those that waited on him continually;

8 And when he had declared all these things to them, he sent them to Yapho.

9 On the next day, as they went on their journey, and drew near to the city, Kepha went up to the housetop to make tefillah about noon:

10 And he became very hungry, and desired to eat: but while they prepared food for him, he fell into a trance,

11 And he saw the shamayim opened, and a certain vessel descending to him, like a large linen cloth⁴ at the four corners,⁵ and let down into the olam:

12 In it were all manner of four-footed beasts of the olam, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowl of the air.⁶

13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Kepha; kill, and eat.

14 But Kepha said, Not so, Master; for I have never eaten anything that is not kadosh, or that is unkosher.

15 And the voice spoke to him again the second time, *What יהוה has cleansed, that you should not call unkosher.*⁷

³ Peshitta. Greek: Strong's H #2152 Eusebes; Sabbath keeping.

⁴ Probably a tallit/prayer shawl.

⁵ Four-cornered prayer shawl represents the four corners of Yisrael's exiles. Yisrael's exiles were scattered into the four corners of the globe.

⁶ Unclean foods are not even considered to be food according to YHWH's commands.

⁷ In context as seen later, YHWH was not reversing the eternal laws of keeping kosher, but was showing Peter that Yisrael's exiles were about to return in an unclean state, or condition. As such, his unkosher/unclean attitude towards them had to change, or they would not be received back into the commonwealth. The vision is well-timed, as Cornelius the non-Jew, is about to seek his rightful place among the people of Yisrael. The "kill and eat" part, would soon be understood as ¹ Mar-Yah in Aramaic used in reference to Messiah, showing Messiah to be YHWH fully manifested.

² The same battle rages today. Hebrews who desire the faith of Yahshua versus those with a mere mental assent to the Greco-Roman version called Je- - s. How could Paul be a Hellenist, when he argued with them over their false anti-Torah views?

16 This was done three times: and the vessel was received up again into the shamayim.

17 Now while Kepha doubted within himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, ¹ see, the men who were sent from Cornelius had arrived and asked for Shimon's bayit, and stood outside the gate, 18 They called out, and asked whether Shimon, who was surnamed Kepha, was lodged there.

19 While Kepha thought on the vision, the Ruach said to him, See, three men seek you. ²

20 Arise therefore, and go down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.

21 Then Kepha went down to the men who were sent to him from Cornelius; and said, See, I am the one whom you seek: what is the cause for which you came?

22 And they said, Cornelius the captain, a tzadik man, and one that is a Yireh-יהוה, and has a tov report among all the nation of the Yahudim, was instructed by אלהא through a kadosh heavenly malach to send for you to his bayit, and to hear words from you.

23 Kepha invited them in, and lodged them. And the next day Kepha went away with them, and certain Yisraelite brothers from Yapho accompanied him.

24 And the next day after they entered into Caesarea, Cornelius was waiting for them, and had called together his relatives and close chaverim.

25 And as Kepha was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him.

26 But Kepha took him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also am only a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that had come together.

28 And he said to them, You know how that it is rabbinically forbidden for a man that is a Yahudi to keep company, or come to one of another nation: ³ but יהוה has shown me that I should not call any man common, unkosher, or unclean. ⁴

29 Therefore I came to you without hesitation, as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what purpose you have sent for me?

30 And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon I made tefillah in my bayit, and, see, a man stood before me in bright clothing,

31 And said, Cornelius, your tefillot are heard, and your mitzvot are had in remembrance in the sight of אלהא.

32 Send therefore to Yapho, and call here Shimon, whose surname is Kepha; he is lodged in the bayit of Shimon a tanner by the sea: who, when he comes, shall speak to you.

33 Immediately therefore I sent for you; and you have done well that you have come. Now therefore we are all here present before אלהא, to hear all things that are commanded you by אלהא.

34 Then Kepha opened his mouth, and said, Of an emet I perceive that יהוה is not a respecter of persons:

35 But in every nation those that fear Him, and work tzedakah, ⁵ are accepted by Him.

36 The word that the Master יהוה sent to the children of Yisrael, proclaiming shalom by יהושע ha Moshiach: He is Master of all:

37 That word, I say, you know, which was published throughout all Yahudah, and began at Galil, ⁶ after the mikvah that Yochanan ha Matbeel proclaimed;

38 How יהוה anointed יהושע of Natzeret with the Ruach Hakodesh and with power: who went about doing all tov, and healing all that were oppressed of s.a.tan; for יהוה was with Him.

39 And we are witnesses of all things which He did both in the land of the Yahudim, and in Yahrushalayim; whom they killed and hanged on an eytz:

40 Him יהוה raised up on the third day, and showed Him openly;

41 Not to all the people, but to witnesses chosen before by יהוה, even to us, who did eat and drink with Him after He rose from the dead.

42 And He commanded us to proclaim to the people, and to testify that it is He who was ordained by יהוה to be the Shophet of the living and dead.

43 To Him give all the neviim witness that through His Name whoever believes in Him shall receive remission of sins.

44 While Kepha yet spoke these words, the Ruach Hakodesh fell on all them who heard the word.

45 And the Yahudim who believed were astonished, all those who came with Kepha, because that on the nations also was poured out the same gift of the Ruach Hakodesh.

46 For they heard them speak with other languages, and magnify יהוה. Then answered Kepha, 47 Can any man forbid mayim for their mikvah, that these should not be immersed, who have received the Ruach Hakodesh as well as we have?

YHWH showing Peter that all men who were willing, would soon be considered clean, regardless of whether, or not they were Jewish.

¹ If YHWH was reversing the kosher food laws, then why did Peter not know it, and why was he confused and not sure, since certain groups claim that this was exactly what was being done here.

² The voice of YHWH came three times, one for each of the three arriving men.

⁴ Here then is the full understanding of the vision. It was not as many false religions teach to reverse the eternal laws of YHWH. Rather, it was to show the Jews that those previously unclean men and women in the globe's four corners, would be cleansed by Yahshua's mercy, and as such should be received into the community of Yisrael.

⁵ Faith and commands.

⁶ The message was proclaimed in both the north and the south, or in both houses of Yisrael.

MAASEH SHLICHIM – ACTS

48 And he commanded them to be immersed in the Name of יהושע.¹ Then they asked him to stay certain days.

11 And the shlichim and Yisraelite brothers that were in Yahudah heard that the nations had also received the word of יהוה.

2 And when Kepha had come up to Yahrushalayim, they that were of the brit milah contended with him,

3 Saying, You went in with uncircumcised men, and did eat with them.

4 But Kepha rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and explained it in order to them, saying,

5 I was in the city of Yapho making tefillah: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descended, as it had been a great sheet, let down from the shamayim by four corners; and it came even to me:

6 When I had intently looked inside, I considered, and saw four-footed beasts of the olam, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

7 And I heard a voice saying to me, Arise, Kepha; kill and eat.

8 But I said, Not so, Master: for nothing common, or unkosher has at any time entered into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me again from the shamayim, What יהוה has cleansed, that call not common.

10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into the shamayim.

11 And, see, immediately there were three men already who had come to the bayit where I was, sent from Caesarea to me.

12 And the Ruach told me go with them, doubting nothing. Moreover, these six Yisraelite brothers accompanied me too, and we entered into the man's bayit:

13 And he showed us how he had seen a heavenly malach in his bayit, who stood and said to him, Send men to Yapho, and call for Shimon, whose surname is Kepha;

14 Who shall tell you words, whereby you and all your bayit shall be saved.

15 And as I began to speak, the Ruach Hakodesh fell on them, as on us at the beginning.

16 Then I remembered the word of יהושע, how that He said, Yochanan ha Matbeel indeed immersed with mayim; but you shall be immersed with the Ruach Hakodesh.

17 Forasmuch then as יהוה gave them the same gift as He did to us, who believed on יהושע ha Moshiach; who was I, that I could withstand יהוה?

18 When they heard these things, they became silent, and gave tehilla to יהוה, saying, So then יהוה has also granted teshuvah unto chayim to all the nations.²

19 Now they who were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose over Tzephanyah traveled as far as Phoenicia, and Cyprus, and Antioch, proclaiming the word to none but to the Yahudim only.³

² To recover Yisrael's lost sheep, who had become the fullness of the nations.

³ If Judah, was scattered in these areas, how much more and further was Efrayim scattered? Phoenicia was a well-known colony of Yisrael in the days of 20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they were come to Antioch, spoke to the Hellenists, proclaiming יהושע ha Moshiach.

21 And the hand of the Master יהוה was with them: and a great number believed, and returned to יהוה.

22 Then tidings of these things came to the ears of the congregation of Yisrael, which was in Yahrushalayim: and they sent out Bar-Nava, that he should go as far as Antioch.

23 Who, when he came, and had seen the favor of יהוה, had gilah, and exhorted them all, that with a full purpose of lev they must cleave to יהוה.

24 For he was a tov man, and full of the Ruach Hakodesh and of emunah: and many people were added to יהוה.

25 Then Bar-Nava departed to Tarsus, to seek Shaul:⁴

26 And when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. And it came to pass, that for a full year they assembled themselves with the congregation of Yisrael, and taught many people. And the talmidim were called Notsrim first in Antioch.⁵

27 And in those days came neviim from Yahrushalayim to Antioch.

28 And there stood up one of them named Hagavus, and signified by the Ruach that there should be great famine throughout all the land: which came to pass in the days of Claudius Kaiser.

29 Then the talmidim, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief to the Yisraelite brothers who dwelt in Yahudah:

30 Which also they did, and sent it to the zechanim by the hands of Bar-Nava and Shaul.

12 Now about that time Herod the melech stretched out his hands to do evil to certain of the congregation of Yisrael.

2 And he killed Yaakov the brother of Yochanan with the sword.

3 And because he saw it pleased the unbelieving Yahudim, he proceeded further to take Kepha also. These were the days of Chag Matzoth.

4 And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four squads of soldiers to guard him; intending after Pesach to bring him

Solomon, as outlined in Scripture and by author Steven Collins in The Ten Lost Tribes Of Yisrael Found.

⁴ To find someone who actually spoke Greek.

⁵ This term is "Christian" as it appears in both the Aramaic and Greek versions. This was a derogatory term, as those at Antioch made fun of the "little moshiachs." The fact that the Greek preserves this term through transliteration from the Aramaic and not translation, is further evidence that this was a title assigned "by men to men," and never by YHWH. For when YHWH speaks such as in Galatians 6:16, or through the use of eidta/ekklessia, all believers in Yahshua are called and known as Yisrael. If one is called a "Christian," it is man's terminology. If one is called Yisrael, he has adopted YHWH's terminology and viewpoint.

5 Kepha therefore was kept in prison: but tefillah was made without ceasing by the congregation of Yisrael to יהוה for him.

6 And when Herod would have brought him out, the same night Kepha was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the guards in front of the door guarded the prison.

7 And, see, the heavenly malach of the Master יהוה came upon him, and a light shone in the prison: and he touched Kepha on the side, and raised him up, saying, Rise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

8 And the heavenly malach said to him, Gird yourself, and tie your sandals. And so he did. And he said to him, Cast your garment around you, and follow me.

9 And he went out, and followed him; and did not know that it was real which was done by the heavenly malach; but thought he saw a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second guard posts, they came to the iron gate that leads to the city; which opened to them on its own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and at once the heavenly malach departed from him.

11 And when Kepha had come to himself, he said, Now I know for sure, that the Master יהוה has sent His heavenly malach, and has delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people among the unbelieving Yahudim.

12 And when he had realized this, he came to the bayit of Miryam the eema of Yochanan, whose surname was Moshe-Markus; where many were gathered together making tefillah.

13 And as Kepha knocked at the door of the gate, a young girl came to listen, named Rhoda.

14 And when she knew Kepha's voice, she did not open the gate due to uncontrollable simcha, but ran in, and told how Kepha stood outside the gate.

15 And they said to her, You are meshugas. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then they said, It is his heavenly malach.

16 But Kepha continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.

17 But he, beckoning to them with the hand to be quiet, declared to them how the Master יהוה had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go show these things to Yaakov, and to the Yisraelite brothers. And he departed, and went into another place.

18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, about what had become of Kepha.

19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he questioned the guards, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Yahudah to Caesarea, and stayed there.

20 And Herod was highly displeased with them of Tsor and Tzidon: but they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus the melech's officer their chaver, desired shalom; because their country was nourished by the melech's country.

21 And upon a set day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his kesay, and made a verbal address to them.

22 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a mighty one, and not of a man.

23 And immediately the heavenly malach of the Master יהוה killed him, because he gave not יהוה the tifereth: and he was eaten by worms, and gave up the ruach.

24 But the word of יהוה grew and multiplied.

25 And Bar-Nava and Shaul returned from Yahrushalayim, when they had fulfilled their service, and took with them Yochanan, whose surname was Moshe-Markus.

13 Now there were in the congregation of Yisrael that was at Antioch certain neviim and morim; as Bar-Nava, and Shimeon that was called Niger,¹ and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manachem, who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Shaul.

2 As they made tefillah and fasted to יהוה, the Ruach Hakodesh said, *Appoint for Me Bar-Nava and Shaul for the work for which I have called them.*²

3 Then having fasted and prayed, and having laid hands on them, they sent them away.

4 So they, being sent out by the Ruach Hakodesh, departed to Seleukia; and from there they sailed to Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of יהוה in the synagogues of the Yahudim: and they had also Yochanan-Moshe-Markus with them.

6 And when they had gone through the island to Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false navi, a Yahudi, whose name was Bar-Yeshua:³

7 Who was with the deputy of the country, Sergesus Paulus, a wise man; who called for Bar-Nava and Shaul, and desired to hear the word of אלהה.

8 But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the emunah.

9 Then Shaul, who also is called Paul, filled with the Ruach Hakodesh, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all deceit and all mischief, you child of the devil, you enemy of all tzedakah, will you not cease to pervert the right halachot of the Master יהוה?

11 And now, see, the hand of the Master יהוה is upon you, and you shall be blind, not seeing the sun for a season.⁴ And immediately there fell on him a mist and darkness; and he went about seeking someone to lead him by the hand.

² The work of rescuing Efrayim-Yisrael from the nations.

³ A very interesting remez/hint here with this Jew named Jesus a real devil in disguise, seeking to stop Yisrael from hearing the Good News. Historically we have seen this play out, as the devil has again disguised himself as a person named "Jesus the son," or "bar-Jesus," who breaks Torah, eats bacon, and hates Jews. This is mere sorcery designed to enslave and confuse the masses from recognizing and accepting the real Yahshua, who lived and does yet live.

⁴ A valid punishment, considering Jesus is affiliated with sun infatuation such as Sun Day, Easter Sun-Day, and Whit Sun-Day and Sun-Day Pentecost worship and more.

MAASEH SHLICHIM – ACTS

12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the Torah of the Master יהוה.

13 Now when Shaul and his company left from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and Yochanan Moshe-Mark departed from them and returned to Yahrushalayim.

14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the Shabbat, and sat down.¹

15 And after the reading of the Torah parsha and the haftarah, the rulers of the synagogue sent for them, saying, Men and Yisraelite brothers, if you have any word of exhortation for the people, go ahead and say it.

16 Then Shaul stood up, and beckoning with his hand said, Men of Yisrael, and you that fear אלהא,² pay attention!

17 The אלהא of this people of Yisrael chose our ahvot, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Mitzrayim, and with a Mighty Arm He brought them out.

18 And for forty years He preserved them in the wilderness.

19 And when He had destroyed seven nations in the land of Kanaan, He divided their land by inheritance.

20 And after that He gave to them shophtim for around four hundred fifty years, until Schmu'el the navi.

21 And afterward they desired a melech: and יהוה gave to them Shaul the son of Kish, a man from the tribe of Benyamin, for about forty years.

22 And when He had removed him, He raised up Dawid to be their melech; and regarding him He gave testimony, and said, I have found Dawid the son of Yishai, a man after My own lev, who shall do all My will.

23 Of this man's zera has יהוה according to His promise raised up for Yisrael a Savior, יהושע:

24 Whom Yochanan ha Matbeel had first proclaimed even before his coming by the mikvah of teshuvah, to all the people of Yisrael.

25 And as Yochanan ha Matbeel fulfilled his course, he said, Who do you think that I am? I am not He. But, see, there comes One after me, whose sandals I am not worthy to loose.

26 Men and Yisraelite brothers, children of the race of Avraham, and whoever among you are Yireh-יהוה,³ to you is the word of this salvation sent.

27 For they that dwell at Yahrushalayim, and their rulers, because they knew Him not, nor the voices of the neviim that are read every Shabbat, they have fulfilled those words by condemning Him.

28 And though they found no cause of death in Him, yet they asked Pilate that He should be killed.

29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written of Him, they took Him down from the eytz, and laid Him in a tomb.

¹ Following the pattern and looking for the lost sheep in both houses, while still keeping Shabbat. In all the nations this remained Shaul's pattern.

² Men of Yisrael are Judah and the Yireh-YHWH, or YHWH-fearers were mostly returning Efrayim.

³ Two-house reference.

30 But יהוה raised Him from the dead:

31 And He was seen many days by those who came up with Him from Galil to Yahrushalayim, who are His witnesses to the people.

32 And we declare to you the Besorah, how that the promise which was made to the ahvot,

33 יהוה has fulfilled the same promise to us their children,⁴ in that He has raised up יהושע again; as it is also written in Tehillim Bet, You are My Son, this day have I begotten You.

34 And since He raised Him up from the dead, no more to return to corruption, He said this, I will give You the sure rachamim of Dawid.

35 For this reason He said also in another mizmor, You shall not allow Your Kadosh- One to see corruption.

36 For Dawid, after he had served his own generation by the will of יהוה, died, and was laid with his ahvot, and saw corruption:

37 But He, whom יהוה raised again, saw no corruption.

38 Be it known to you therefore, men and Yisraelite brothers, that through this Man is proclaimed to you the forgiveness of sins:

39 And by Him all that believe are justified from all things, from which you could not be justified by the Torah of Moshe.

40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in the neviim;

41 See, you despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which you shall in no way believe, though a man declare it to you.

42 And when the Yahudim had gone out of the synagogue, the non-Yahudim begged that these words might be proclaimed to them the next Shabbat.

43 Now when the congregation was dismissed, many of the Yahudim and religious proselytes followed Shaul and Bar-Nava: who were speaking to them, and persuaded them to continue in the favor of יהוה.

44 And the next Shabbat almost the entire city came together to hear the word of יהוה.

45 But when the Yahudim saw the multitudes,⁵ they were filled with envy, and spoke against those things, which were spoken by Shaul, contradicting and blaspheming him.

46 Then Shaul and Bar-Nava grew bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of יהוה should first have been spoken to you: but seeing you put it away from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting chayim, look, we turn to the nations.

47 For this is what יהוה commanded us, saying, I have set you to be a light of the nations that you should be for salvation to the ends of the olam.

48 And when the non-Yahudim heard this, they were full of simcha, and gave tehilla to the word of יהוה: and as many as were ordained to eternal chayim believed.

49 And the word of the Master יהוה was published throughout that entire region.

50 But the Yahudim stirred up the devout and honorable women, and the ruling men of the city, and raised persecution against Shaul and Bar-Nava, and expelled them out of their borders.

51 But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came to Ikonium.

52 And the talmidim were filled with simcha, and with the Ruach Hakodesh.

14 And it came to pass in Ikonium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Yahudim, and so spoke, that a great multitude both of the Yahudim and also of the Greeks believed.¹

2 But the unbelieving Yahudim stirred up the non-Yahudim, and affected their minds with evil against the Yisraelite brothers.

3 So they remained there a long time speaking boldly in the Master יהוה, who gave testimony to the word of His favor, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was divided: a part sided with the unbelieving Yahudim, and a part sided with the shlichim.

5 And when there was an assault made by the non-Yahudim, and also by the unbelieving Yahudim with their rulers, to use them despitefully, and to stone them,

6 They were made aware of it, and fled to Lustra and Derbe, cities of Lukaonia, and to the region all around:

7 And there they proclaimed the Besorah.

8 And there sat a certain man at Lustra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his eema's womb, who never had walked:

9 The same heard Shaul speak: who firmly looked at him, and perceived that he had emunah to be healed,

10 Said with a loud voice, Stand up straight on your feet. And he leaped and walked.

11 And when the people saw what Shaul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of the Lukaonians, The mighty ones have come down to us in the likeness of men.

12 And they called Bar-Nava, Zeus; and Shaul, Hermes, because he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the priest of Zeus, who was before their city, brought oxen and wreaths to the gates, and wanted to sacrifice to them along with the people.

14 Which when the shlichim, Bar-Nava and Shaul, heard of it, they tore their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,

15 And saying, Sirs, why do you do these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and proclaim to you that you should make teshuvah from these vanities to the living אלהים, who made the shamayim, and the olam, and the sea, and all things that are in them:

16 Who in times past allowed all nations to have their halacha in their own ways.

17 Nevertheless He left not Himself without witness, in that He did tov, and gave us rain from the shamayim, and fruitful seasons, filling our levim with food and simcha.

18 And with these sayings they barely restrained the people, so that they did not sacrifice to them.

19 And there came certain unbelieving Yahudim from Antioch and Ikonium, who persuaded the people to turn against the shlichim, and, having stoned Shaul, drew him out of the city, thinking he was dead.

20 But, as the talmidim stood all around him, he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Bar-Nava to Derbe.

21 And when they had proclaimed the Besorah to that city, and had taught many, they returned again to Lustra, and to Ikonium, and Antioch, 22 Exhorting the talmidim, and reminding them to continue in the emunah, and that we must through great tribulation² enter into the malchut of יהוה.

23 And when they had ordained zechanim in every congregation of Yisrael, and had made tefillah and fasted, they commended them to יהושע, on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphulia.

25 And when they had proclaimed the word of the Master יהוה in Perge, they went down into Attalia:

26 And from there they sailed to Antioch, from where they had been recommended to the favor of the Master יהוה for the work that they fulfilled.

27 And when they had come, and had gathered the congregation of Yisrael together, they rehearsed all that יהוה had done with them, and how He had opened the door of emunah to the nations.

28 And there they stayed a long time with the talmidim.

15 And certain men which came down from Yahudah taught the Yisraelite brothers, and said, Except you receive brit-milah after the manner of Moshe, you cannot be saved.³

2 When therefore Shaul and Bar-Nava had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that Shaul and Bar-Nava, and certain others of them, should go up to Yahrushalayim to the shlichim and zechanim about this question.

3 And being sent on their derech by the congregation of Yisrael, they passed through Phoenicia and Shomron, declaring the return of the nations: and they caused great simcha to all the Yisraelite brothers.

4 And when they had come to Yahrushalayim, they were received by the congregation of Yisrael, and by the shlichim and zechanim, and they declared all things that יהוה had done through them.

5 But there rose up certain of the sect of the Prushim who believed, saying, That it was needful to give them brit milah, and to command them to keep the Torah of Moshe.¹

6 And the shlichim and zechanim came together to consider this matter.

7 And when there had been much disputing, Kepha rose up, and said to them, Men and Yisraelite brothers, you know how that a long time ago יהוה made choices among us, that the nations by my mouth should hear the word of the Besorah, and believe.

8 And יהוה, who knows the levim, bore them witness, giving them the Ruach Hakodesh even as He did to us;

9 And put no difference between us and them; purifying their levim by emunah.²

10 Now therefore why do you tempt יהוה, to put a yoke upon the neck of the talmidim, which neither our ahvot nor we were able to bear?³

11 But we believe that through the favor of יהושע ha Moshiach we shall be saved, even as they will.

12 Then the entire multitude kept silent, and listened to Bar-Nava and Shaul, declaring what nisim and wonders יהוה had done among the nations by them.

13 And after they had kept silent, Yaakov answered, saying, Men and Yisraelite brothers, listen to me:

14 Shimon has declared how יהוה at first did visit the nations, to take out from them a people for His Name.⁴

15 And to this agree the words of the neviim; as it is written,⁵

16 After this I will return, and will rebuild⁶ again the

Sukkah of Dawid, which has fallen down; and I will rebuild again its ruins, and I will set it up once more:⁷

17 That the remnant of men might seek after the Master יהוה, and all the nations, upon whom My Name is called,⁸ said the Master יהוה, who does all these things.

18 Known to יהוה are all His works from the beginning of the olam.

19 Because of this, my mishpat is that we trouble not those, who are from among the nations and who are returning⁹ to יהוה:

20 But that we write to them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from dahm.¹⁰

21 For Moshe from old times has in every city those that proclaim his teachings, with his Torah being read in the Strong's Hebrew #1129, as used ("to rebuild") in Jeremiah 31:4. This means that the rebuilding of both houses into the Tabernacle of Dawid of all twelve tribes was still a future event in the first century, not an alleged past one in 520 BCE as some try to claim. ⁷ The focus of the Renewed Covenant in Acts 15:15-16 is the rebuilding, the return, the re-establishment of the Tabernacle of Dawid, which had fallen. Thus for the Tabernacle of Dawid to be rebuilt, the original components would have to be used. Obviously, the components are the twelve tribes living in harmony and unity under the new and Greater Dawid, the Messiah Yahshua Himself. Verse 17 of Acts 15 tells you that this rebuilding will be done by finding and rescuing the nations, or the gentiles "upon whom My Name is (already) called."

⁸ Yisraelite nations.

² Note that all believers are Yisrael and there is to be no difference between believers, meaning divisions into Jew and non-Jew, or Torah-keeping versus those who are told they do not have to keep Torah. All such classifications are an abomination to YHWH. All Yisrael must follow Torah and love Yahshua.

³ Added "works of law" of men being taught as if they were Torah, and clouding the difference between man's law and YHWH's Torah. This burden Peter speaks of is man's "works of law" that is being presented as if it were the real and full Torah. Neither Yisraelites of that day nor the disciples could keep all those added burdens.

⁴ Efrayimites and others coming from out of the pagan nations will be called to carry and proclaim His Name. Yisrael will be a people that knows and proclaims YHWH's Name.

⁵ Amos 9:11-12.

22 Then it pleased the shlichim and zechanim, with the entire congregation of Yisrael, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Shaul and Bar-Nava; namely, Yahudah surnamed Bar-Savas, and Sila, key men among the Yisraelite brothers:

23 And they gave them written letters to be delivered saying; The shlichim and zechanim and Yisraelite brothers send greetings to the Yisraelite brothers, which are of the nations in Antioch and Syria and Cilikia:

24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your beings, saying, You must receive brit-milah first, and keep the Torah immediately: to whom we gave no such commandment:

25 It seemed tov to us, being assembled as echad, to send chosen men to you with our beloved Bar-Nava and Shaul, 26 Men that have risked their chayim for the Name of our Master יהושיע ha Moshiach.

27 We have sent therefore Yahudah and Sila, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed tov to the Ruach Hakodesh, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary initial things;

29 That you abstain from meats offered to idols, and from dahm, and from things strangled, and from fornication: if you guard yourselves regarding these, you shall do well. Be strong!

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the letter:

31 Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the encouragement.

32 And Yahudah and Sila, being neviim also themselves, exhorted the Yisraelite brothers with many words, and confirmed them.

33 And after they had stayed a while, they were let go in shalom from the Yisraelite brothers back to the shlichim.

34 But it pleased Sila to stay there still.

35 Shaul also and Bar-Nava continued in Antioch, teaching and proclaiming the word of יהוה, with many others also.

36 And some days later Shaul said to Bar-Nava, Let us go again and visit our Yisraelite brothers in every city where we have proclaimed the word of יהוה, and see how they are doing.

37 And Bar-Nava determined to take with them Yochanan, whose surname was Moshe-Markus.

38 But Shaul thought it not tov to take him with them, because he departed from them from Pamphylia, and continued not with them in the work.

39 And the contention was so sharp between them that they departed after separating from each other: and so Bar-Nava took Moshe-Markus, and sailed to Cyprus;

40 And Shaul chose Sila, and departed, being recommended by the Yisraelite brothers to the favor of יהוה.

41 And he went through Syria and Cilikia, confirming the congregations of Yisrael.

16 Then he came to Derbe and Lustra: and, see, a certain talmid was there, named Timtheous, the son of a certain woman, who was a Yahudi, and believed; but his abba was an Aramean:

2 Which was well reported of by the Yisraelite brothers that were at Lustra and Ikoniom.

3 Shaul desired to have him travel with him; and took him and conducted brit-milah for him because of the Yahudim who were in those quarters:³ for they all knew that his abba was an Aramean.

4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered to them the decrees to keep that were ordained by the shlichim and zechanim who were at Yahrushalayim.

5 And so the congregations of Yisrael were established in the emunah, and increased in number daily.

6 Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia and the region of Galutyah, they were forbidden by the Ruach Hakodesh to proclaim the word in Asia Minor,⁴

7 After they were come to Mysia, they desired to go into Bitunyah: but the Ruach did not allow them.

8 And they passing by Mysia came down to Troas.

9 And a vision appeared to Shaul in the night; There stood a man of Makedonia, and begged him, saying, Come over into Makedonia, and help us.⁵

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go into Makedonia, knowing for sure that יהוה had called us to proclaim the Besorah to them.

11 We left Troas; we came with a straight course to Samothrake, and the next day to Neapolis;

12 And from there to Philippi, which is the main city of that part of Makedonia, and a colony:⁶ and we were in

¹ The returning tribes were to continue their Torah education in the Shabbat portions read every week, in every city, from which they came. Then, eventually all the details would be received and incorporated into their lifestyles. Sadly, most religions stop reading in the previous verse, and try to make a case for non-Jews not having to obey all of Torah. A careful study of these verses proves that YHWH requires all Yisrael to be equal with identical requirements, and the identical benefits and blessings, associated with Torah compliance.

² Note also that all believers are required to keep and guard the Shabbat, and not to pick their own favorite day of worship, out of the proverbial hat.

³ Proof that circumcision was approved of in Renewed Covenant Yisrael, as long as done in proper order. Obviously this man was mature enough to be ready to travel with Paul, as opposed to John Mark and thus ready for a full Torah commitment.

⁴ Apparently based on his first journey, there was a proliferation and abundance of the Good News in Asia, and YHWH wanted Paul to head west to reach Greek-speaking wandering sheep in Eastern Europe.

⁵ A vision from YHWH that allowed the Good News to reach the lost sheep of Yisrael in a key area. This vision is directly related to the regathering of the two houses, since it is YHWH directing Paul's steps, so as to find those wandering sheep in Europe.

that city abiding certain days.

13 And on the Shabbat we went out of the city by a riverside, where tefillah was always made; and we sat down, and spoke to the women who assembled there: ¹

14 And a certain woman named Lydyah, a seller of purple, from the city of Thyatira, who worshipped יהוה, ² listened to us: whose lev יהוה opened, that she received those things that were spoken of by Shaul.

15 And when she was immersed, and her household, she asked us, saying, If you have judged me to be faithful to יהוה, come into my bayit, and stay there. And she urged us.

16 And it came to pass, as we went to Shabbat tefillot, a certain young girl possessed with an unclean ruach of divination met us, who brought her masters much profit by fortune telling:

17 The same followed Shaul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the avadim of El-Elyon, who show to us the derech of salvation.

18 And this she did many days. But Shaul, being disturbed, turned and said to the unclean ruach, I command you in the Name of יהושע ha Moshiach to come out of her. And it came out the same hour.

19 And when her masters saw that the ongoing possibility of further gain was gone, they caught Shaul and Sila, and dragged them into the marketplace to the rulers,

20 And brought them to the authorities, saying, These men, being Yahudim, do exceedingly trouble our city,

21 And teach customs, ³ which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romayim. ⁴

22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the authorities tore off their clothes, and commanded to beat them.

23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, commanding that the prison guard keep them safely:

24 Who, having received such a charge, threw them into the inner prison, and made their feet secure in the stocks.

25 And at midnight Shaul and Sila made tefillah, and sang tehillim to יהוה: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone's chains were loosed.

27 And the keeper of the prison woke out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped.

28 But Shaul shouted with a loud voice, saying, Do yourself no harm: for we are all here.

29 Then the keeper of the prison called for a light, and ran in, and came trembling, and fell down before Shaul and Sila,

30 And having led them out, he said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

31 And they said, Believe on the Master יהושע ha Moshiach, and you shall be saved, and also your bayit.

32 And they spoke to him the word of the Master יהוה, and to all that were in his bayit.

33 And he took them in that same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was immersed, he and all his mishpacha, right away.

34 And when he had brought them into his bayit, he prepared food for them, and rejoiced, believing in יהוה with all his bayit.

35 And when it was day, the authorities sent the prison officers, saying, Let those men go.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this to Shaul, The authorities have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in shalom.

37 But Shaul said to them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, being Romiyah citizens, and have cast us into prison; and now do they throw us out privately? No! Indeed; let them come here themselves and bring us out.

38 And the prison officers told these words to the authorities: and they feared, when they heard that they were Romayim.

39 And they came and pleaded with them, and brought them outside the gates, and desired them to depart out of the city.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entered into the bayit of Lydyah and when they had seen the Yisraelite brothers, they comforted them, and left.

17 Now when they had passed through Apollonia, they came to Tesloniqyah, where was a synagogue of the Yahudim:

2 And Shaul, as his manner was, ⁵ went in, and for three Shabbats reasoned with them from the Keetvay HaKadosh,

3 Opening and alleging, that Moshiach needed to have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this יהושע, whom I proclaim to you, is Moshiach.

4 And some of them believed, ⁶ and joined with Shaul and Sila; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, ⁷ and many of the leading women.

5 But the Yahudim who believed not, moved with envy, took some wicked men from the city streets, and gathered a large mob, and caused disturbances in the city, and assaulted the bayit of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain Yisraelite brothers to the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the olam upside down have come here also;

7 Whom Jason has received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Kaiser, saying that there is another Melech, named יהושע.

8 And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken bail from Jason, and from the others, they let them go.

10 And the Yisraelite brothers immediately sent away Shaul and Sila by night to Berea: who coming there went into the synagogue of the Yahudim.

11 These were more noble than those in Tesloniqyah, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the Keetvay HaKadosh daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed; also many honorable women and men who were Greeks.

13 But when the unbelieving Yahudim of Tesloniqyah had knowledge that the word of יהוה was proclaimed by Shaul at Berea, they came there also, and stirred up the people.

14 And then immediately the Yisraelite brothers sent away Shaul to go as it were to the sea: but Sila and Timtheous stayed there still.

15 And they that conducted his trip brought Shaul to Athens: and receiving a commandment to Sila and Timtheous to come to him fast, they departed.

16 Now while Shaul waited for them at Athens, his ruach was stirred in him, when he saw the city totally given to idolatry.

17 Therefore he disputed in the synagogue with the Yahudim, and with the devout persons,¹ and in the market daily with them that met with him.

18 Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoicks, encountered him. And some said: What will this babblers say? Others said, He seems to be a proclaimer of strange mighty ones: because he proclaimed to them יהושע, and the resurrection.

19 And they arrested him, and brought him to Areopagus, saying, May we know what is this new teaching, that you bring?

20 For you bring certain strange things to our ears: we would like to know therefore what these things mean.

21 For all the Athenians and strangers who were there, spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.

22 Then Shaul stood in the midst of Areopagus, and said, You men of Athens, I perceive that in all things you are very religious.

23 For as I passed by, and looked at your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN MIGHTY ONE. Whom you therefore ignorantly worship, him I do declare to you.

24 יהוה that made the olam and all things in it, seeing that He is Ruler of the shamayim and the olam, dwells not in temples made with hands;

25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though He needed anything, seeing He gives to all chayim, and breath, and all things;

26 And has made all nations of men² from one dahm to dwell on all the face of the olam, and has determined the times before appointed,³ and the bounds of their dwelling;

27 That they should seek Him, if possibly they might reach out for Him, and find Him, though He be not far from any one of us:

28 For in Him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also His offspring.

29 Now then since we are the offspring of יהוה, we should not think that El-Elyon is anything like gold, or silver, or stone, created by man's mind, or devices.

30 For the past times of ignorance יהוה overlooked; but now commands all men every where to make teshuvah:

31 Because He has appointed a Yom Din, in which He will judge the olam in tzedakah by that Man whom He has ordained; by which He has given proof to all men, in that He has raised Him from the dead.

32 And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will listen to you again on this matter.

33 So Shaul departed from among them.

34 But certain men joined him, and believed: among whom was Dionusios the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

18 After these things Shaul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth;

2 And found a certain Yahudi named Aquila, born in Pontus, who had recently come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla; because Claudius had commanded all Yahudim to depart from Romiyah and they came to them.

3 And because he was of the same trade, he stayed with them, and they worked together: for by their occupation they were tallit makers.⁴

4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every Shabbat, and persuaded the Yahudim and the Greeks.⁵

5 And when Sila and Timtheous were come from Makedonia, Shaul was pressed in the Ruach, because the Yahudim opposed and blasphemed as he testified that יהושע was the Moshiach.

6 And when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook off his garment, and said to them, Your dahm be upon your own heads; I am clean: from now on I will go to the nations.

7 And he departed there, and entered into a certain man's bayit, named Justus, one that worshipped יהוה, whose bayit was next to the synagogue.

8 And Crispus, the rabbi of the synagogue, believed on יהושע with all his bayit; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were immersed.

9 Then spoke the Master יהוה to Shaul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and do not keep silent:

*you: for I have many people in this city.*¹

11 And he stayed there a year and six months, teaching the word of יהוה among them.

12 And when Gallion was the proconsul of Achayah, the unbelieving Yahudim made insurrection with one accord against Shaul, and brought him to the mishpat bema, 13 Saying, This fellow persuades men to worship אלהא contrary to the Torah.

14 And when Shaul was now about to open his mouth, Gallion said to the Yahudim, If it were a matter of criminal wrong, or wicked lewdness, O you Yahudim, there would be a reason that I should listen to you:

15 But if it is a question of words and names,² and of your Torah, you can settle it; for I do not wish to be a judge of such matters.

16 And he removed all of them from the mishpat bema.

17 Then all the pagans³ took Sosthenes, the rabbi of the synagogue, and beat him before the mishpat seat. And Gallion cared for none of those things.

18 And Shaul after this stayed there yet a tov while, and then took his leave from the Yisraelite brothers, and sailed from there into Aram, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having shaved his head in Cenchrea: for he was under a Nazarite vow.

19 And he came to Ephsiyah, and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Yahudim.

20 When they desired him to stay longer with them, he declined;

21 But bade them farewell, saying, I must by all means keep this moed⁴ that comes in Yahrushalayim: but I will return again to you, if יהוה wills. And he sailed from Ephsiyah.

22 And when he had landed at Caesarea, and went up, and greeted the congregation of Yisrael, then he went down to Antioch.

23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of Galutyah and Phrygia, strengthening all the talmidim.

24 And a certain Yahudi named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the Keetvay HaKadosh, came to Ephsiyah.

25 This man was instructed in the Torah and halacha of the Master יהוה; and being fervent in the Ruach, he spoke and taught diligently the things of יהוה, knowing only the mikvah of Yochanan ha Matbeel.

26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: and when Aquila and Priscilla had heard him, they took him to them, and expounded to him the derech of יהוה more fully.

27 And when he was disposed to pass into Achayah, the Yisraelite brothers wrote, exhorting the talmidim to receive him, and when he arrived, helped them much who had believed through favor:

28 For he mightily refuted the Yahudim, publicly, showing by the Keetvay HaKadosh that יהושע was in fact the Moshiach.

19 And it came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Shaul having passed through the upper borders came to Ephsiyah: and finding certain talmidim,

2 He said to them, Have you received the Ruach Hakodesh when you believed? And they said to him, We have not even heard whether there is any Ruach Hakodesh.

3 And he said to them, Into what then were you immersed? And they said, Into Yochanan ha Matbeel's mikvah.

4 Then said Shaul, Yochanan ha Matbeel truly immersed with the mikvah of teshuvah, saying to the people, that they should believe on Him who should come after him, that is, on Moshiach יהושע.

5 When they heard this, they were immersed in the Name of the Master יהושע.

6 And when Shaul had laid his hands upon them, the Ruach Hakodesh came on them; and they spoke with tongues, and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 And he went into the synagogue, and spoke boldly for around three months, disputing and persuading the things concerning the malchut of יהוה.

9 But when some were hardened, and believed not, but spoke evil of the Way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the talmidim, and they held midrash daily in the yeshiva of Tyrannus.

10 And this continued for around two years; so that all those who dwelt in Asia Minor heard the word of the Master יהושע, Yahudim, Greeks and Arameans.

11 And יהוה worked special nisim by the hands of Shaul:

12 So that even from the clothes on his body were brought to the sick handkerchiefs, or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, the shadim went out from them, and the insane were restored.

13 Then certain roving Yahudim, exorcists, took it upon themselves to call out over those who had shadim in the Name of the Master יהושע, saying, We adjure you by יהושע who Shaul proclaims.

14 And there were seven sons of Skeua, a Yahudi, and the head of the roving exorcist priests, who did the same thing.

15 And the evil shad answered and said, יהושע I know, and Shaul I know; but who are you?

16 And the man in whom the evil ruach was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that bayit naked, beaten and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Yahudim and Greeks⁵ also dwelling at Ephsiyah; and fear fell on them all, and the Name of the Savior יהושע was magnified.

18 And many that believed came, and confessed, and showed their s.a.tanic deeds.
19 Many of them also who used magic brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of the books, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.
20 So mightily grew the word of יהוה and prevailed.
21 After these things were ended, Shaul purposed in the Ruach, when he had passed through Makedonia and Achayah, to go to Yahrushalayim, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Romiyah.
22 So he sent into Makedonia two of them that attended to him, Timtheous and Erastos; but he himself stayed in Asia Minor for a while.
23 At the same time there arose a big stir about the Way.
24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, who made silver shrines for Artemis the pagan mighty one, brought no small gain to the craftsmen;
25 When he called together the shrine makers, and said, Sirs, you know that by this craft we have our wealth.
26 Moreover you see and hear, that not only at Ephsiyah, but almost throughout all of Asia Minor, this Shaul has persuaded and turned away many people, saying that they are not mighty ones which we make with our hands:
27 So that not only our livelihood is in danger to come to nothing; but also that the shrine of the great female mighty one Artemis should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all in Asia Minor and the olam worships.
28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Artemis of the Ephesians.
29 And the entire city was filled with confusion: and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Makedonia, Shaul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.
30 And when Shaul would have entered into the mob, the talmidim did not allow him.
31 And certain of the officials of Asia Minor, who were his chaverim, sent for him, desiring that he would not risk his chayim in the theatre.
32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the mob was confused; and most did not know why they had come together.
33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Yahudim putting him forward. And Alexander motioned for silence with his hand, and would have made his defense to the people.
34 But when they knew that he was a Yahudi, all with one voice for about two hours cried out, Great is Artemis of the Ephesians.
35 And when the mayor had quieted the people, he said, You men of Ephsiyah, what man is there that knows not how that the city of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great female mighty one Artemis, and her image which fell down from Zeus in heaven?
36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, you should be quiet, do nothing in haste.
37 For you have brought here these men, who are neither robbers of temples, nor blasphemers of your female mighty one.

38 Therefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen who are with him, have a matter against any man, the courts are open, and there are proconsuls: let them accuse one another.
39 But if you inquire anything concerning any other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful court.
40 For we are in danger to be called to an account for this day's riot, there being no reason we can give to account for this mob scene.
41 And when he had spoken, he dismissed the crowd.

20 And after the uproar had ceased, Shaul called to him the talmidim, and embraced them, and departed to go into Makedonia.
2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece,
3 And there he stayed three months. And when the unbelieving Yahudim lay in wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Makedonia.
4 And there accompanied him into Asia Minor Sopater from Berea; and from Tesloniqyah, Aristarchos and Secundos; and Gaios from Derbe, and Timtheous; and from Asia Minor, Tuchicos and Trophimos.
5 These going on ahead waited for us at Troas.
6 And we sailed away from Philippi after the days of Chag Matzoth,¹ and came to them at Troas in five days; where we stayed seven days.
7 And after havdalah, when the talmidim stayed together to break lechem, Shaul proclaimed to them, ready to depart the next day; and continued his speech until midnight.
8 And there were many lights in the upper chamber, where they were gathered together.
9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutuchos, who fell into a deep sleep: and as Shaul was sharing a long teaching, he sank into deep sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was picked up dead.
10 And Shaul went down, and fell on him, and embraced him and said, Don't worry; for his chayim is now in him.
11 When he therefore had come up again, and had broken lechem, and eaten, and talked a long while, even until daybreak he then departed.
12 And they brought the young man alive, and rejoiced exceedingly.
13 And we went ahead by ship, and sailed to Assos, there intending to take in Shaul: for so had he appointed, having gone there by land.
14 And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitulene.
15 And we sailed there, and came the next day opposite Chios; and the next day we arrived at Samos, and stayed at Trogullium; and the next day we came to Miletus.
16 For Shaul had determined to sail by Ephsiyah, because he would not spend the time in Asia Minor: for he rushed, if it were still possible for him, to be at Yahrushalayim for

Yom Shavuot.¹

17 And from Miletus he sent to Ephsiyah, and called the zechanim of the congregation of Yisrael.

18 And when they had come to him, he said to them, You know, from the first day that I came into Asia Minor, what kind of lifestyle I had with you at all times,

19 Serving יהוה with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, what befell me by the lying in wait of the unbelieving Yahudim:

20 And how I kept back nothing that was profitable for you, but have shown you, and have taught you publicly, and from bayit to bayit,²

21 Testifying both to the Yahudim, and also to the Greeks,³ teshuvah before יהוה, and emunah toward our Master יהושע ha Moshiach.

22 And now, see, I go bound in the Ruach to Yahrushalayim, not knowing the things that shall befall me there:

23 Except that the Ruach Hakodesh witnesses in every city, saying that prison and afflictions await me.

24 But none of these things move me, neither count I my chayim dear to myself, so that I might finish my course with simcha, and the service, which I have received from the Master יהושע, to testify the Besorah of the favor of יהוה.

25 And now, see, I know that you all, among whom I have gone proclaiming the malchut of יהוה, shall see my face no more.

26 Therefore I take you to record this day that I am pure from the dahm of all men.

27 For I have not held back to declare to you the complete counsel of יהוה.

28 Take heed therefore to yourselves, and to all the flock, over which the Ruach Hakodesh has made you overseers, to feed the congregation of Yisrael in יהוה, which He has purchased with His own dahm.⁴

29 For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.⁵

30 Also from among your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away talmidim after themselves.

31 Therefore watch, and remember, that for about three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

32 And now, Yisraelite brothers, I commend you to יהוה, and to the word of His favor, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them who are kadosh.

33 I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel.

34 Yes, you yourselves know, that these hands have supplied my necessities, for me and for those that were with me.

35 I have shown you all things, how that by working hard you also must support the weak, and to remember the words of the Master יהושע, how He said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

36 And when he had spoken this, he kneeled down, and made tefillah with them all.

37 And they all wept hard, and fell on Shaul's neck, and kissed him,

38 Sorrowing most of all for the words that he spoke, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him to the ship.

21 And it came to pass, that after we had separated from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course to Coos, and the day following to Rhodes, and from there to Patara:

2 And finding a ship sailing over to Phoenicia,⁶ we went aboard, and set out.

3 Now when we had seen Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Syria, and landed at Tsor: for there the ship was to unload her cargo.

4 And finding talmidim, we stayed there seven days: who said to Shaul through the Ruach that he should not go up to Yahrushalayim.

5 And when we had accomplished those days, we departed and went our derech; and they all brought us on our derech, with their wives and children, until we were out of the city: and we kneeled down on the shore, and made tefillah.

6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we sailed; and they returned home again.

7 And when we had finished our course from Tsor, we came to Ptolemais, and greeted the Yisraelite brothers, and stayed with them one day.

8 And the next day we that were of Shaul's group departed, and came to Caesarea: and we entered into the bayit of Philip the Proclaimer, who was one of the seven; and stayed with him.

9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, who did prophesy.

10 And as we stayed there many days, there came down from Yahudah a certain navi, named Hagav.

11 And when he had come to us, he took Shaul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, This says the Ruach Hakodesh, So shall the Yahudim at Yahrushalayim bind the man that owns this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the pagans.

12 And when we heard these things, both we, and those of that place, begged him not to go up to Yahrushalayim.

¹ He kept the feasts and counted the omer as well.

⁶ According to Scripture (First Kings 9:27-28) and history, the Phoenicians were Yisraelites as far back as the days of king Solomon. These Phoenician city-states helped build YHWH's Temple and later traveled the world with their fleets. According to many they had even reached North America, with Phoenician inscriptions having been verified there. The Phoenician and Hebrew alphabets are virtually identical.

13 Then Shaul answered, What do you mean by weeping and breaking my lev? For I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Yahrushalayim for the Name of the Master יהושע.¹

14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of יהוה be done.

15 And after those days we prepared, and went up to Yahrushalayim.

16 There went with us also certain of the talmidim of Caesarea, and brought with them Menason of Cyprus, an old talmid, with whom we should lodge.

17 And when we had come to Yahrushalayim, the Yisraelite brothers received us with simcha.

18 And the day following Shaul went in with us to Yaakov; and all the zechanim were present.

19 And when he had greeted them, he declared particularly what things יהוה had done among the nations by his service.

20 And when they heard it, they gave tehilla to יהוה, and said to him, You see, brother, how many tens of thousands there are who believe among the Yahudim,² and they are all zealous for the Torah:

21 And they are wrongly informed about you, that you teach all the Yahudim who are among the nations to forsake Moshe's Torah, saying that they should not brit milah their children, neither walk after the halacha of Torah.³

22 What is this therefore? The multitudes will hear that you have come.

23 So do what we tell you: We have four men who have a Nazarite vow on them;

24 Take them, and cleanse yourself with them, and pay their expenses, that they may shave their heads: and then all will know that those things, of which they were informed about you, are false and nothing; but that you yourself also have your halacha orderly, guarding all of the Torah.⁴

¹ Are you ready to die for the kiddushat hashem, or the set-apartness of the Name Yahweh?

² This is a reference to Devarim/Deuteronomy 33:17, where Yisrael was prophesied to become the tens of thousands of Efrayim-Yisrael and the thousands of Manasseh. Many of these settled amongst Judah, and along with Jewish-Yisrael, loved Yahshua and His Torah.

⁴ This is a test by the elders designed to do three things. First, to see if Paul objects. If so, they'll know that the accusations are true. Secondly, this Torah command is designed to be a witness to other Jews, that the accusation is a lie. Thirdly, it is a command to the poor brothers, and they can receive assistance in ending their vow. If there ever was a time, or place, or an opportunity for Paul to refuse to perform this Torah command, or to tell the elders that they were wrong, or any other such thing, this was his big chance. He had

25 As touching the returning nations which believe, we have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, except only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from dahm, and from strangled things, and from fornication.⁵

26 Then Shaul took the men, and the next day cleansed himself with them and entered into the Beit HaMikdash, to signify the completion of the days of their separation, until the offering should be given for every one of them.

27 And when the seven days were almost ended, the Yahudim who were from Asia Minor, when they saw him in the Beit HaMikdash, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him,

28 Crying out, Men of Yisrael, help: This is the man, that teaches all men everywhere against the people of Yisrael, and the Torah, and this makom kadosh: and furthermore he brought Greeks⁶ into the Beit HaMikdash, and has polluted this makom kadosh.

29 For they had been seen before with him in the city Trophimos the Ephesian, whom they supposed that Shaul had brought into the Beit HaMikdash.

30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Shaul, and dragged him out of the Beit HaMikdash: and immediately shut the doors.

31 And as they went about to kill him, news came to the chief captain of the company, that all Yahrushalayim was in an uproar.

32 He immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down to them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they stopped beating Shaul.

33 Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains;⁷ and demanded to know who he was, and what he had done.

34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the real reason for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the headquarters.

35 And when he came to the stairs, so it was, that he had to be carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the unbelieving people followed after him, shouting, Away with him.

37 And as Shaul was about to be led into the headquarters, he said to the chief captain, May I speak to you? The chief captain said, Can you speak Greek?

38 Are not you that Mitzri, who a while back made a the attention of the entire believing Jewish leadership, as well as the leaders of unbelieving Judah. But as seen a couple of verses later, he did obey, and did show the world for all times, that he did and taught the Torah, but just didn't do it in the way the Pharisees demanded that he do it.

revolt, and led out into the wilderness four thousand men that were assassins?

39 But Shaul said, No. I am a man, a Yahudi of Tarsus, a city in Cilikia, a citizen of a well known city: and, I beg you, allow me to speak to my people Yisrael.

40 And when he had given him permission, Shaul stood on the stairs, and motioned with the hand to the people. And when there was a great silence, he spoke to them in the Ivrit tongue, saying,

22 Men, Yisraelite brothers, and ahvot of Yisrael,¹ listen to my defense, which I make to you now.

2 And when they heard that he spoke in the Ivrit tongue, they kept even quieter and he said,

3 I am indeed a man who am a Yahudi, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilikia, yet brought up in this city at the yeshiva of Gamliel, and taught according to the perfect manner of the Torah of the ahvot, and was zealous towards אלהא, as you all are this day.

4 And I persecuted the Way to the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.

5 As also the Kohen HaGadol does bear me witness, and all the zechanim of the Sanhedrin: from whom also I received letters to the Yisraelite brothers, and went to Dameshek, to bring them who were there bound to Yahrushalayim, to be punished.

6 And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and had come near to Dameshek around noon, suddenly there shone from the shamayim a great light all around me.

7 And I fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to me, Shaul, Shaul, why do you persecute Me?

8 And I answered, Who are You, Master? And He said to me, I am יהושע of Natzeret, whom you persecute.

9 And they that were with me saw the light, and were afraid; but they did not hear the voice of Him that spoke to me.

10 And I said, What shall I do, Master? And יהושע said to me, Arise, and go into Dameshek; and there it shall be told you all things which are appointed for you to do.

11 And when I could not see for the tifereth of that light, being led by the hand of those that were with me, I came into Dameshek.

12 And one Chananyah, a devout man following the Torah, having a tov report among all the Yahudim who dwelt there, 13 Came to me, and stood, and said to me, Brother Shaul, receive your sight. And the same hour I looked up at him.

14 And he said, The אלהא of our ahvot has chosen you, that you should know His will, and see that Tzadik-One, and should hear the voice from His mouth.

15 For you shall be His witness to all men² of what you have seen and heard.

16 And now why do you delay? Arise, and be immersed, and wash away your sins, calling on the Name of יהוה.

17 And it came to pass, that, when I had come again to Yahrushalayim, even while I made tefillah in the Beit HaMikdash, I went into a trance;

18 And saw Him saying to me, Hurry, and get quickly out of Yahrushalayim: for they will not receive your testimony concerning Me.

19 And I said, Master, they know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue those that believed on You:³

20 And when the dahm of Your martyr Tzephanyah was shed, I also was standing by, and approving of his death, and held the garments of those that killed him.

21 And He said to me, Depart: for I will send you far from here to the nations.⁴

22 And they gave him their attention up to this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, Away with such a fellow from the olam: for it is not fit that he should live.⁵

23 And as they shouted, they cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air,

24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the headquarters, and ordered that he should be examined after a scourging and beating; that he might know the reason they shouted against him.

25 And as they bound him with straps, Shaul said to the captain that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a citizen of Romiyah, and yet uncondemned?

26 When the captain heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Be careful what you do: for this man is a citizen of Romiyah.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said to him, Tell me, are you a Romiyah citizen? He said, Ken.

28 And the chief captain answered, I paid a great price for my citizenship. And Shaul said, But I was freely born as a Romiyah citizen.

29 Then right away those who should have examined him left him alone: and the chief captain also was worried, after he knew that he was a Romiyah citizen, because he had bound him unlawfully.

30 On the next day, because he desired to know the true reason why he was accused by the unbelieving Yahudim, he unbound and released him, and commanded the chief Kohanim and all their Sanhedrin to appear, and brought Shaul down, and set him before them.

23 And Shaul, intently beholding the Sanhedrin, said, Men and Yisraelite brothers, I have lived in all tov conscience before יהוה until this day.

2 And the Kohen HaGadol Chananyah commanded them that stood by him to hit him on the mouth.

3 Then said Shaul to him, יהוה shall hit you, you whited wall: for you sit to judge me by the Torah, and then command me to be hit contrary to the Torah.

4 And they that stood by said, Do you even revile אלהא's Kohen HaGadol?

5 Then said Shaul, I did not know brothers, that he was the Kohen HaGadol: for it is written, You shall not speak evil of the ruler of your people.¹

6 But when Shaul perceived that the one part were Tzadukim, and the other Prushim, he cried out in the Sanhedrin, Men and brothers, I am a Prush, the son of a Prush: because of my tikvah in the resurrection of the dead – the mee-chayai hamaytiim – I am being questioned.

7 And when he had said this, there arose a dissension between the Prushim and the Tzadukim: and the multitude was divided.

8 For the Tzadukim say that there is no resurrection, or heavenly malachim and shadim: but the Prushim confess both.

9 And there arose a great tumult: and the Sophrim who were of the Prushim's viewpoint arose, saying, We find no evil in this man: but if a ruach, or a heavenly malach has spoken to him, let us not fight against אלהים.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Shaul might have been pulled to pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the headquarters.

11 And the night following יהושע stood by him, and said, *Be of tov ruach, Shaul: for as you have testified of Me in Yahrushalayim, so must you bear witness in Romiyah.*²

12 And when it was daylight, certain of the Yahudim banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Shaul.

13 And there were more than forty who had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief Kohanim and zechanim, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have killed Shaul.

15 Now therefore you with the Sanhedrin tell the chief captain so that he brings him down to you tomorrow, and pretend as if you are seeking more information from him: and we, whenever he comes near, are ready to kill him.

16 And when Shaul's nephew heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the headquarters, and told Shaul.

17 Then Shaul called one of the centurions to him, and said, Bring this young man to the chief captain: for he has something to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Shaul the prisoner called me to him, and asked me to bring this young man to you, who has something to tell you.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that you have to tell me?

20 And he said, The unbelieving Yahudim have agreed to ask you that you would bring down Shaul tomorrow into the Sanhedrin, as though they would inquire something of him more fully.

21 But do not yield to them: for they lie in wait for him more than forty men who, have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink until they have killed him: and now they are ready, looking for the promise from you.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and said, See that you tell no man that you have shown these things to me.

23 And he called to him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Caesarea, and seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen, at three o'clock in the morning;

24 And provide them beasts that they may set Shaul on them, and bring him safely to Felix the governor.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

26 Claudius Lysias sends greetings to the most excellent Governor Felix.

27 This man was taken by the unbelieving Yahudim, and would have been killed by them: then I came with an army, and rescued him, having understood that he was a citizen of Romiyah.

28 And when I wanted to know the reason why they accused him, I brought him out into their Sanhedrin:

29 Whom I perceived to be accused of questions about their Torah, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death, or even of prison.

30 And when it was told to me how the unbelieving Yahudim lay in wait for the man, I sent right away to you, and gave commandment to his accusers also to speak before you exactly what they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Shaul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 On the next day they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the headquarters:

33 Who, when they came to Caesarea, and delivered the letter to the governor, presented Shaul also before him.

34 And when the governor had read the letter, he asked what province he was from. And then he understood that he was of Cilikia;

35 I will listen to you, when your accusers have also come, he said. And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's Praetorium.

24 And after five days Chananyah the Kohen HaGadol descended with the zechanim, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Shaul.

2 And when he was called out, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by you we enjoy great shalom, and that very worthy deeds are done to this nation by your care,

3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all hodu.

4 But, that I not weary you with long explanations, I ask you that you would listen to us in your kindness just a few of our words.

5 For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Yahudim throughout the olam, and a ringleader of the sect of the Notsrim:³

6 Who also has gone about to profane the Beit HaMikdash: whom we took, and would have judged according to our Torah.
7 But the chief captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,
8 Commanding his accusers to come to you: so that by examining him yourself you will have the knowledge of all these things, of which we accuse him.
9 And the unbelieving Yahudim also agreed, saying that these things were so.
10 Then Shaul, after the governor had motioned to him to speak, answered, Knowing that you have been for many years a shophet to this nation, I gladly defend myself:
11 So that you may understand, about twelve days ago I went up to Yahrushalayim to worship.
12 And they neither found me in the Beit HaMikdash disputing with any man, nor stirring up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:
13 Neither can they prove the things of which they now accuse me.
14 But this I confess to you, that after the Way which they call heresy, so I worship the אלהים of my ahvot, believing all things which are written in the Torah and in the Neviim:¹
15 Having tikvah toward אלהים, which they themselves also believe, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the tzadikim and the unjust.²
16 It is for this reason that I labor, to always have a conscience void of offense toward אלהים, and toward men.
17 Now after many years I came to bring assistance to my nation, and terumah offerings.
18 At which time certain Yahudim from Asia Minor found me cleansed in the Beit HaMikdash, neither with a multitude, nor with tumult.
19 Who should be here before you, and object, if they had something against me.
20 Or, else let those here say, if they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the Sanhedrin,
21 Except it be for this one declaration, that I shouted standing among them. It is regarding the resurrection of the dead that I am called into questioning by you this day.
22 And when Felix heard these things, having more exact da'at of the Way, he deferred and said, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will decide your matter.
23 And he commanded a captain to keep Shaul, and to let him have liberty, and that he should not forbid any of his acquaintances to attend to, or visit him.

24 And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was a female Yahudi, he sent for Shaul, and heard him concerning the emunah in the Moshiach.
25 And as he reasoned of tzedakah, self-control, and the mishpat to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go your derech for now; when I have some time, I will call for you.
26 He hoped also that money should have been given to him by Shaul, that he might free him: therefore he sent for him often, and communed with him.
27 But after two years Porcius Festus succeeded Felix: and Felix, willing to do the unbelieving Yahudim a favor, left Shaul in prison.

25 Now when Festus had come into the province, after three days he ascended from Caesarea to Yahrushalayim.
2 Then the Kohen HaGadol and the leaders of the Yahudim informed him against Shaul, and begged him,
3 Asking a favor from him, that he would send him to Yahrushalayim, laying wait in the derech to kill him.
4 But Festus answered, that Shaul should be kept at Caesarea, and that he himself would depart there shortly.
5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him.
6 And when he had stayed among them more than ten days, he went down to Caesarea; and the next day sitting on the mishpat seat commanded Shaul to be brought out.
7 And when he had come, the unbelieving Yahudim who came down from Yahrushalayim stood around, and laid many and grievous complaints against Shaul, which they could not prove.
8 When he answered for himself he said, Neither against the Torah of the Yahudim, neither against the Beit HaMikdash, nor yet against Kaiser, have I offended in any thing at all.
9 But Festus, willing to do the unbelieving Yahudim a favor, answered Shaul, and said, Will you go up to Yahrushalayim, and there be judged of these things before me?
10 Then said Shaul, I stand at Kaiser's mishpat seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Yahudim have I done no wrong, as you very well know.
11 For if I be an offender, or have committed anything worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things of which these accuse me, no man may deliver me to them. I appeal to Kaiser.
12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the Sanhedrin, answered, Have you appealed to Kaiser? To Kaiser shall you go.
13 And after certain days Melech Agrippa and Bernice came to Caesarea to greet Festus.
14 And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Shaul's cause to the melech, saying, There is a certain man left in prison by Felix:
15 About whom, when I was at Yahrushalayim, the chief Kohanim and the zechanim of the Yahudim informed me, desiring to have mishpat against him.
16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romayim to deliver any man to die, before the one accused has an opportunity to answer the accusers face to face, and have a chance to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore, when they were come here, without any delay on the next day I sat on the mishpat seat, and commanded the man to be brought out.

18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none of the accusations about such things as I thought:

19 But had certain issues against him about their own worship, and about someone named יהושע, who was dead, whom Shaul affirmed to be alive.¹

20 And because I was uncertain about these matters, I asked him whether he would go to Yahrushalayim, and there be judged on these matters.

21 But when Shaul had appealed to be kept for a hearing before Augustus, I commanded him to be kept until I might send him to Kaiser.

22 Then Agrippa said to Festus, I would also like to hear the man myself. Tomorrow, he said, you shall hear him.

23 And the next day, when Agrippa had come, and Bernice, with great show, and had entered into the place of hearing, with the commanders, and important men of the city, at Festus's commandment Shaul was brought out.

24 And Festus said, Melech Agrippa, and all men who are here present with us, you see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Yahudim have dealt with me, both at Yahrushalayim, and also here, screaming that he should not live any longer.

25 But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself had appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him.

26 Of whom I have no certain charges to write to my master. Therefore I have brought him out before you, and especially before you, O melech Agrippa, so that, after your examination, I might have something to charge him with.

27 For it seems to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not signify the crimes brought against him.

26 Then Agrippa said to Shaul, You are permitted to speak for yourself. Then Shaul stretched out his hand, and answered for himself:

2 I think of myself as favored, Melech Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before you touching all the things that I am accused of by the unbelieving Yahudim:

3 Especially because I know you to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Yahudim: therefore I ask you to listen to me patiently.

4 My manner of chayim from my youth, which was from the start known by my own nation of Yisrael at Yahrushalayim, is known by all the Yahudim;

5 Who knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after the strictest sect of our observance I lived as a Prush with their excellent teaching.

¹ If you are living a daily Nazarene Yisraelite lifestyle, many will have questions and take issue with your "new" style of worship.

6 And now I stand and am judged for the tikvah of the promise made by יהוה to our ahvot:

7 To which promise our twelve tribes, diligently praying to אללה day and night, have tikvah to come. For which tikvah's sake, Melech Agrippa, I am accused by the unbelieving Yahudim.²

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that יהוה should raise the dead?

9 I truly thought to myself, that I should do many things contrary to the Name of יהושע of Natzeret.

10 Which things I also did in Yahrushalayim: and many of the Yisraelite kidushim did I lock in prison, having received authority from the chief Kohanim; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

11 And I punished them often in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad at them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities.

12 While doing this, as I went to Dameshek with authority and commission from the chief Kohanim, 13 At midday, O Melech, I saw on the road a light from the shamayim, greater than the brightness of the sun, shining all around me and on those who journeyed with me.

14 And when we all were fallen to the ground, I heard a voice speaking to me, and saying in Ivrit, Shaul, Shaul, why do you persecute Me? It is hard for you to offer against Me this worthless resistance.³

15 And I said, Who are You, Master? And He said, I am יהושע whom you persecute.

16 But rise, and stand upon your feet: for I have appeared to you for this purpose, to make you an eved and a witness both of these things which you have seen, and of those things which I will reveal to you;

17 Delivering you from the people,⁴ and from the nations,⁵ to whom I now send you,

18 To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of s.a.tan to יהוה, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and an inheritance among them who are kadosh by emunah that is in Me.

19 Therefore, O Melech Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision:

20 But showed it first to them of Dameshek, and at Yahrushalayim, and throughout all the borders of Yahudah, and then to the nations,⁶ that they should make teshuvah and turn to יהוה, and do mitzvot meet for teshuvah.

21 For these reasons the unbelieving Yahudim caught me in the Beit HaMikdash, and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore obtained help from יהוה, I continue to this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying no other things than those, which the neviim and Moshe Rabainu said, would come:

23 That the Moshiach should suffer, and that He should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should show Light to the people, and to the nations.¹
24 And as he was speaking for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Shaul, you are beside yourself; much learning has made you meshugas.
25 But he said, I am not meshugas, most noble Festus; but speak out the words of emet and common sense.
26 For the melech knows of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from you; for this thing was not done in a corner.
27 Melech Agrippa, do you believe the neviim? I know that you believe.
28 Then Agrippa said to Shaul, You almost are persuading me to be a Notsri.
29 And Shaul said, I would to אלהים, that not only you, but also all that hear me today, might become fully as I am, except for these chains.
30 And when he had spoken all this, the melech rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them:
31 And when they had left, they talked between themselves, saying, This man does nothing worthy of death, or of prison.
32 Then said Agrippa to Festus; This man could have been set free, if he had not appealed to Kaiser.

27 And when it was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Shaul and certain other prisoners to one named Julius, a captain of the Augustan regimen.
2 And entering into a ship from Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the borders of Asia Minor; with Aristarchos, a Makedonian of Tesloniqyah, being with us.
3 And the next day we landed at Tzidon. And Julius courteously treated Shaul, and gave him liberty to go to his chaverim to refresh himself.
4 And when we had launched from there, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.
5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilikia and Pamphylia, we came to Mura, a city of Lucia.
6 And there the captain found a ship from Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us on board.
7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and barely were come opposite Cnidus, the wind did not allow us to proceed, we sailed close to Crete, off Salmone;
8 And, hardly passing it, came to a place which is called The Fair Havens; near the city of Lasea.
9 Now we remained there a long time, even until the Yom Kippur fast was past,² and since it had become dangerous for anyone to sail, Shaul admonished them,
10 And said to them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the cargo and ship, but also of our chayim.
11 Nevertheless the captain believed the navigator and the owner of the ship, more than those things that were spoken by Shaul.

12 And because the harbor was not suited to winter in, most advised to depart from there also, if by any means they might get to Phoenicia, and spend the winter there; which is a harbor of Crete, facing southwest and northwest.
13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, leaving there, they sailed close by Crete.
14 But not long after there arose against us a hurricane, called Euroclydon.
15 And when the ship was caught, and could not hold up against the wind, we yielded control of it.
16 And passing under a certain island that is called Clauda, we could hardly retain the ship's lifeboat:
17 Which when they had taken it up, we girded up and prepared the ship and, feared lest we should fall into the downward rapids, we pulled down the sail, and drifted.
18 And we being exceedingly tossed with the hurricane, the next day they began to throw our belongings into the sea;
19 And the third day we cast out with our own hands the rigging of the ship.
20 And when neither sun nor cochavim in many days appeared, and the hurricane beat on us, all tikvah that we should be saved was then lost.
21 But after a long abstinence from food Shaul stood out in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, you should have listened to me, and not have sailed from Crete, only to have experienced this harm and loss.
22 And now I exhort you to be of tov courage: for there shall be no loss of any man's chayim among you, but only of the ship.
23 For there stood by me this night a heavenly malach of יהוה, whose I am, and whom I serve,
24 Saying, Fear not, Shaul; you must be brought before Kaiser: and, look, יהוה has given you all them that sail with you.
25 Therefore, sir, be of tov courage: for I believe יהוה, that it shall be even as it was told to me.
26 But first we must run aground upon a certain island.
27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors determined that they had drawn near to some country;
28 And taking sounding measurements, they found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.
29 Then fearing lest we should run aground, they dropped four anchors out of the stern, and made tefillah for the day to come.
30 And as the sailors were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the lifeboat into the sea, under pretense as though they were casting out anchors to fasten the ship,
31 Shaul said to the captain and to the soldiers, If these people do not stay in the ship, they cannot survive.
32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the lifeboat, and let it fall off.
33 And while the day was dawning, Shaul besought them all to take food, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that you have stayed and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

34 Therefore I beg you to take some food: for this is for your health: for there shall not a hair fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had spoken, he took lechem, and gave hodu to יהוה in the presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat.

36 Then were they all of tov courage, and they also took some food.

37 And we were in the ship a total of two hundred seventy six beings.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they did not recognize the land: but they discovered a certain bay with a shore, into which they planned, if it were possible, to run the ship.

40 And when they had cut off the anchors, they threw them into the sea, and loosed the rudder ropes, and hoisted up the main sail to the wind, and made it to shore.

41 And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the front stuck fast, and remained unmovable, but the back of it was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim away, and escape.

43 But the captain, willing to save Shaul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that those who could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and go to land:

44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they all escaped safely to land.

28 And having come to safety, then they learned that the island was called Melita.

2 And the barbarians who lived there showed us much kindness: for they lit a fire, and received each one of us, because of the falling rain, and because of the cold.

3 And when Shaul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and bit his hand.

4 And when the barbarians saw the creature hanging on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, who, though he has escaped the sea, yet mishpat does not allow him to have his chayim.

5 And he shook off the viper into the fire, and felt no harm.

6 But they looked to see when he would swell up, or die suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a mighty אלהא.

7 In the same area were lands belonging to the chief of the island, whose name was Publius; who received us, and lodged us at his home for three days most courteously.

8 And it came to pass, that the abba of Publius lay sick of a fever and of a bowel pain: to whom Shaul entered in, and made tefillah, and laid his hands on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also, who had diseases in the island, came, and were healed:

10 Who also honored us with many honors; and when we departed, they gave us such basic things as were necessary.

11 And after three months we departed in a ship from Alexandria, which had wintered on the island, whose carved figurehead was Castor and Pollux.

12 And landing at Syracuse, we stayed there three days.

13 And from there we got hold of a compass, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli:

14 Where we found Yisraelite brothers, and were invited to stay with them for seven days: and so we went toward Romiyah.

15 And from there, when the Yisraelite brothers heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Appiiforum, and the Three Taverns: who when Shaul saw, he gave hodu to יהוה, and took courage.

16 And when we came to Romiyah, the captain delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Shaul was allowed to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him.

17 And it came to pass, that after three days Shaul called the rulers of the Yahudim together: and when they had come together, he said to them, Men and Yisraelite brothers, though I have committed nothing against the Yahudim, or the Torah of our ahvot, yet was I delivered as a prisoner from Yahrushalayim into the hands of the Romayim.

18 Who, when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no reason for death to be brought against me.

19 But when the unbelieving Yahudim spoke against it, I was obliged to appeal to Kaiser; not that I had anything to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because it is for the tikvah of Yisrael ¹ ² that I am bound with these chains.

21 And they said to him, We neither received letters out of the province of Yahudah concerning you, neither did any of the Yisraelite brothers that came here show, or speak any lashon hara against you.

22 But we desire to hear from you what you think: for as concerning this sect, ³ we know that everywhere it is spoken against. ⁴

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging; to whom he expounded and testified about the malchut of יהוה, persuading them concerning יהושע, both out of the Torah of Moshe, and out of the Neviim, from morning until evening. ⁵

25 And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after Shaul had spoken one final word, Well did the Ruach Hakodesh speak by Yeshayahu the navi to our ahvot,
26 Saying, Go to this people, and say, Hearing you shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing you shall see, and not perceive:
27 For the lev of this people is grown hardened, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their lev, and should make teshuvah, and I should then heal them.¹
28 Be it known therefore to you, that the יהוה of יהושע is being sent to the nations,² and that they will listen to it.
29 And when he had said these words, the Yahudim departed, and had great reasoning and arguing among themselves.
30 And Shaul dwelt two full years in his own rented bayit at his own expense, and received all that came in to him,

This "missing chapter" is educational and informative, particularly historically speaking. Moreover in the light of the purposes of this unique edition, which seeks to show the overwhelming evidence for two-house restoration, we have included the "missing chapter" of Acts. We feel, however, based on lack of valid second and third witnesses, that while this may be a very useful missing chapter, it must nonetheless be considered an item of topical interest and therefore must remain solely apocryphal. What you are about to read below cannot be considered Scripture and is not presented as such.

Acts. Details the approximately six-year history of Shaul/Paul's 4th and 5th missionary journeys, which here includes Sepharad - Spain (See Acts 15:28, Romans 15:24, 28) and Barat-Anat (though some scholars dispute this) after his forced residence and subsequent trial and acquittal in Romulus. He later is arrested again and returns to Romulus to be martyred while supporting and defending the thousands of other Nazarene believers during the reign of the Roman Emperor Nero. Modern Christian congregations often view their ministries as living-out "Acts 29" (the as yet un-written chapter) - yet few grasp the true calling and purpose that Paul exhibits in this chapter – namely, the search for and regathering of scattered Efrayimites back to their true calling as Yisraelites. While admittedly speculative, it is interesting and yet possible that this apocryphal manuscript has remained so under the purposeful hand of YHWH during the mandatory exile (diaspora/scattering) and punishment of Efrayim into the nations. For had it been considered canonical during any of the preceding 2,700 years of history, Efrayim's identity would likely have been revealed prematurely thereby violating the Torah-mandated exile. Because the punishment came from YHWH through His Torah, it thus was impossible for man to "see" its prophetic and historical significance at any time prior to the end of Efrayim's punishment.

16 And Shaul preached in the Romulusan garrison and among the people, exhorting all men to repent and confess their sins.

17 And there came to him certain of the Belgae² to inquire of him of the new teaching, and of the Man יהושע. And Shaul opened his lev to them and told them all things that had befallen him, and how Moshiach יהושע came into the world to save sinners; and they departed pondering among themselves the things which they had heard.

18 And after much proclaiming and toil, Shaul and his fellow laborers passed into Helvetia, and came to Mount Pontius Pilate, where he who condemned the Master יהושע dashed himself down headlong,³ and so miserably perished.

19 Immediately a torrent gushed out of the mountain and washed his body, broken in pieces, into a lake.

20 And Shaul stretched out his hands upon the mayim, and made tefillah to יהוה; saying O אלהא-יהוה, give a sign to all nations that here Pontius Pilate who condemned Your only-begotten Son, plunged down headlong into the pit.

21 And while Shaul was yet speaking, see, there came a great earthquake, and the face of the mayim was changed,

22 And a voice came out of the shamayim⁵ saying; Even Pilate has escaped the wrath to come for he washed his hands before the multitude at the dahm shedding of the Master יהושע.

23 When, therefore, Shaul and those that were with him saw the earthquake, and heard the voice of the malach,⁶ they esteemed יהוה, and they were mightily strengthened in the Ruach.

24 And they journeyed and came to Mount Julius where there stood two pillars,⁷ one on the right hand and one on the left hand, erected by Kaiser Augustus.

25 And Shaul, filled with the Ruach Hakodesh, stood up between the two pillars, saying, Men and Yisraelite brothers these stones that you see this day shall testify of my journey here; and I say, they shall remain until the outpouring of the Ruach upon all nations, neither shall the Derech be hindered throughout all generations.

26 And they went out and came to Illtricum, intending to go by Makedonia into Asia, and grace was found in all the Yisraelite congregations, and they prospered and had shalom.

2 My Yisraelite brothers, ² count it all simcha when you fall into divers trials;
3 Knowing this, that the trying of your emunah produces patience.
4 But let patience be a perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, wanting nothing. ³
5 If any of you lack chochmah, let him ask of יהוה who gives to all men liberally, without reproach; and it shall be given to him.
6 But let him ask in emunah, nothing wavering. For he that wavers is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.
7 For let not that man think that he shall receive anything from the Master יהוה.
8 A double minded ⁴ man ⁵ is unstable in all his ways.
9 Let the brother of low degree gilah in that he is exalted: ⁶
10 But the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.
11 For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, so that it withers the grass, and the flower falls, and the pretty appearance of it perishes: so also shall the rich man fade away in the course of his chayim.
12 Blessed is the man that endures trials: for when he is tried, he shall receive the keter of chayim that יהוה has promised to those that love Him. ⁷
13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted by

יהוה for יהוה cannot be tempted with evil, neither does He tempt any man: ⁸
14 But every man ⁹ is tempted, when he is drawn away by his own desires, and is taken away. ¹⁰
15 Then when desire has conceived, it births sin: and sin, when it is spread, brings forth death.
16 Do not go astray, my beloved Yisraelite brothers.
17 Every tov gift and every perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Abba of Lights, in whom there is no changing, nor shadows that turn.
18 Of His own will He brought us forth with the Torah of emet, that we should be the bikkurim of His recreation. ¹¹
19 So then, my beloved Yisraelite brothers, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, and slow to anger:
20 For the wrath of man does not bring about the tzedakah of יהוה.
21 Therefore lay aside all filthiness and the multitude of evils, and receive with meekness the engrafted Torah, ¹² which is able to save your beings.
22 But be doers of the Torah, ¹³ and not hearers only deceiving yourselves. ¹⁴
23 For if any be a hearer of the Torah, and not a doer, he is like a man beholding his natural face in a mirror:
24 For he sees himself, and goes away, and immediately forgets what type of man he was. ¹⁵
25 But whoever looks into the perfect Torah of freedom, and continues in it, he will not be a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the mitzvoh; this man shall be

JAMES

² The born-again believers are called brothers from the 12 tribes. James who was Yahshua's half-brother, had no problem understanding just who all the believers in Messiah truly are.

³ Even in exile, Yisrael can be fully provided for through one's own patience, as they wait on YHWH.

⁴ The imagery here is that double-mindedness is likened unto spiritual exile, a situation the 12 tribes can well identify with.

⁵ "Men" in Scripture almost always refers to Yisrael in a believing context.

⁶ Speaking of the former Lo-Ami, or Efrayim-Yisrael.

⁷ Being Yisrael means that by trusting YHWH, a man can overcome trials and be rich in faith.

⁸ "Man" is a synonym for "Yisrael," and Yisraelites know that YHWH tries and tests us, but never tempts us. That job is done by s.a.tan.

⁹ See the footnote regarding "man" in James 1:8.

¹⁰ Just like the lost during the Great Tribulation, as the saved are left behind, and the lost are "taken away."

¹¹ James expects his Hebrew readers to understand Shavuot and First Fruits, both referred to as first-fruit feasts. We will be the first-fruits to rise from the dead at Yahshua's return.

¹² The promise to both houses found in Jeremiah 31:31.

¹³ The only word that believers knew was Torah, since most of the Renewed Covenant had not yet been written.

¹⁴ Torah-keeping guards us from possible self-deceptions.

¹⁵ When the exiles hear the Torah and do not perform it, they continue in the path of all who are Yisrael, and at one time knew who they were, but became the lost tribes due to a departure from doing Torah. Since they did not continue in observing it, they need to be constantly reminded that they are the lost sheep of the House of Yisrael. They need to look into the mirror of Torah, in order to have their memory jarred as to their identity. Looking carefully at Torah then will reestablish their identity and end their amnesia.

blessed in his mitzvoth.¹

26 If any man among you seems to be an eved of the Master, and controls not his tongue, he deceives his own lev, and this man's service is in vain.²

27 Pure and undefiled service to Abba יהוה is this: to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the olam hazeh.³

2 My Yisraelite brothers, have not the emunah in our Master יהוה אלהי משיח, the Master of tifereth, with partiality.⁴

2 For if there comes into your synagogue a man with a gold ring, in costly apparel, and there comes in also a poor man in soiled clothing;

3 And you show favor to him that wears the beautiful clothing, and say to him, Sit here in a tov place; and say to the poor, Stand over there, or sit here under my footstool:

4 Are you not then being partial among yourselves, and have become shophtim with evil thoughts?

5 Listen carefully, my beloved Yisraelite brothers, Has not יהוה chosen the poor of this world rich in emunah, and heirs of the malchut which He has promised to them that love Him?

6 But you have despised the poor.⁵ Is it not rich men that oppress you, and drag you before their bema of mishpat?

7 Do they not blaspheme that worthy Name by which you are called?⁶

8 If you fulfill the royal Torah according to the Katuv, You shall love your neighbor as yourself; you will do well:

9 But if you show partiality among men, you commit sin, and are convicted by the Torah as transgressors.⁷

10 For whosoever shall keep the entire Torah, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.⁸

11 For He that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now even if you commit no adultery, yet if you kill, you have become a transgressor of the Torah.⁹

12 So act, and do, as those that shall be judged by the Torah of liberty.

13 For He shall have mishpat without rachamim to him that has shown no rachamim; for you exalt yourselves by desiring rachamim instead of mishpat.^{10 11}

14 What does it profit, my Yisraelite brothers, if a man says he has emunah, and has not mitzvoth? Can emunah save him?

15 If a brother, or sister is naked, and destitute of daily food,

16 And one of you says to them, Depart in shalom, may you be warm and filled; but you give them not those things that are needful to the body; what use is it?

17 Even so emunah, if it has not mitzvoth, is dead, being alone.

18 Yes, a man may say, You have emunah, and I have mitzvoth: show me your emunah without your mitzvoth, and I will show you my emunah by my mitzvoth.¹²

19 You believe that there is אלהים Echad; you do well: the shadim also believe, and tremble.¹³

20 But will you know, O vain man,¹⁴ that emunah without mitzvoth is dead?

21 Was not Avraham our abba¹⁵ made tzadik by mitzvoth, when he had offered Yitzchak his son upon the altar?

22 Do you see how emunah worked with his mitzvoth, and by mitzvoth was his emunah made perfect?

23 And the Katuv was fulfilled which said, Avraham believed יהוה, and it was counted to him for tzedakah: and he was called the chaver of יהוה.

24 You see then how that by mitzvoth a man is made tzadik, and not by emunah only.^{16 17}

25 Likewise also was not Rachav the harlot made tzadik

¹ See footnote for James 1:24. A doer of Torah will soon remember his ancient heritage, causing the amnesia of his heritage to dissipate.

² Lashon hara, or "evil speech," that can defile a Yisraelite's walk and calling.

³ In a Hebraic mindset, it is not merely believing that displays a man's character, but his performance of what he believes, as opposed to a mere mental assent to facts.

⁴ A warning to all returning Yisraelites.

⁵ And thereby violated Torah.

⁶ Many people including the rich hate YHWH's true Name.

⁷ If Judah shows partiality towards Judah alone and doesn't receive Efrayim back, they are considered transgressors, just as if they had abused the poor.

⁸ What one point is under discussion? Showing partiality. If a Jewish believer keeps the whole Torah, and yet mistreats, or refuses to recognize Efrayim, it is as if he has violated the entire Torah. There is much more on this in Galatians, or Galut-Yah.

⁹ See the footnote for James 2:10.

¹⁰ Aramaic Peshitta.

¹¹ These verses (8-13) are a call to returning Yisrael to walk in mercy and patience towards the other house, so that our national civil war can be over and our unity can be a peace offering before YHWH.

¹² James is not negating either. Rather he is showing the exiles the difference between a balanced Hebraic approach to faith in Yahshua, as opposed to the Greco-Roman heretical approach, that had begun to seep in.

¹³ The point here is the faith in a superpower, or an almighty is nice, but it is necessary to trust in YHWH alone, and then act like it, unlike demons that neither use YHWH's Name, nor do they act like Him.

¹⁴ Reference to Yisrael.

¹⁵ Believers are both the physical and spiritual offspring of Abraham.

¹⁶ Unlike Luther, Abraham and other Torah-keepers understand this very well. The Torah is an outlet through which we shower The Father with obedience, and our fellow man with set-apart living. It is the natural expression of our faith.

¹⁷ If Abraham was justified by the work he did in Genesis 22, it seems that the work was truly completed in order for him to be commended.

by mitzvoth, when she had received the spies, and had sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the ruach is dead, so emunah without mitzvoth is dead also.

3 My Yisraelite brothers, not many should be rabbis,¹ knowing that we shall receive a stronger mishpat.²

2 For in many things we offend all people. If any man offend not in speech, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

3 Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, so that they may obey us; and we turn their whole body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven by fierce winds, yet they are turned around with a very small rudder, in any way that the captain desires.

5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and yet boasts great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire ignites!

6 And the tongue is a fire, and the sinful world a forest: so is the tongue among our members, it can defile the whole body, and sets on fire the course of our Yisraelite race that rolls on like a wheel; and it burns on with the fire of Gei-Hinnom.³

7 For every kind of beast, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and has been tamed by mankind:

8 But the tongue can no man tame; it is unruly, evil, and full of deadly poison.⁴

9 With it we bless אלהא, even our Abba; and with it we curse men, who are made after the image of the Master יהוה.

10 Out of the same mouth proceeds brachot and cursing. My Yisraelite brothers, these things should not be so.⁵

11 Does a fountain send forth at the same place sweet mayim and bitter?

12 Can the fig eytz, my Yisraelite brothers, bear olive berries? Or, a vine, figs? So likewise saltwater cannot be made sweet.

13 Who is a wise man and endued with training among you? Let him show a tov lifestyle with his mitzvoth in meekness of chochmah.

14 But if you have bitter envy and self-seeking in your levim, boast not, and lie not against the emet.

15 This chochmah descends not from above, but is earthly, sensual, and from s.a.tan.

16 For where envy and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work.

17 But the chochmah that is from above is first perfect, then full of shalom,⁶ gentle, and ready to obey, full of rachamim and tov fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.⁷

18 And those that make shalom sow the fruit of tzedakah in shalom.⁸

4 From where do wars and fighting among you come? Do they not come from your desires that war in your members?

2 You desire, and have not: you kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: you strive and fight; yet you have not, because you ask not.

3 You ask, and receive not, because you ask wickedly, that you may satisfy your lusts.

4 You adulterers and adulteresses, know you not that chavurah with worldly things is enmity with יהוה? Whoever therefore wants to be a chaver of worldly things is the enemy of יהוה.

5 Do you think that the Katuv said in vain, The ruach that dwells in us is being provoked to envy?

6 But He gives more favor. Therefore He said, יהוה resists the proud, but gives favor to the humble.

7 Submit yourselves therefore to יהוה. Resist s.a.tan, and he will flee from you.

8 Draw near to יהוה, and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your levim, you double minded.

9 Lament, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your simcha to heaviness.

10 Humble yourselves in the sight of the Master יהוה, and He shall lift you up.

11 Speak not evil one of another, Yisraelite brothers. He that speaks evil of his brother, and judges his brother, speaks evil of the Torah, and judges the Torah: But if you judge the Torah, you are not a doer of the Torah, but a judge of it.⁹

12 There is one Lawgiver and Shophet, who is able to

¹ Usage of the word rabbi is due to the obvious reference to believers attending a synagogue in chapter 2, verse 2, as well as this scroll being sent to all twelve tribes, who called their teachers "rabbi."

² Sentencing by YHWH takes into account the greater responsibilities given to teachers, and more will be required of teachers, as opposed to this being any sort of personal condemnation, which, based on Romans 8:1, is not for any believer.

³ The Aramaic describes the tongue as a destructive tool to the Yisraelite race that is like a wheel symbolizing the ongoing iniquity of the people of Yisrael.

⁴ Sadly in Yisrael's history, our tongues have gotten us in much trouble with YHWH, and with our fellow brother.

⁵ Remember that not even Yisraelites can curse other Yisraelites, since Torah tells us that no man can curse what YHWH has blessed.

⁶ Isaiah 26:3.

⁷ Heavenly wisdom is ready to obey and do all of Torah, without jealousy and arguing, and also without partiality towards either returning house of Yisrael.

⁹ Judah and Efrayim must both be doing Torah, not judging each other's styles and quirks in applying the Torah, for if we do so, we become Torah judges, rather than doers of Torah on an equal footing with others in Yisrael. If we are always judging others, we have no time to get reacquainted with His love for all Yisrael.

save and to destroy: who are you to judge your neighbor?
13 Come now, you that say, Today, or tomorrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and prosper:

14 You do not know what shall be tomorrow. For what is your chayim? It is even a vapor that appears for a little time, and then vanishes away.

15 For what you should say is, The Master יהוה willing, we shall have chayim, and do this, or that.¹

16 But now you gilah in your boastings: all such pride is evil.

17 Therefore to him that knows to do tov, and does it not, to him it is sin.²

5 Come now, you rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

2 Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten.

3 Your gold and silver is tarnished; and their rust shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh, as it was fire. You have stored up treasure together for the yamim acharonim.

4 Behold, the wages of the laborers who have reaped your fields, that you hold back by fraud, cries: and the cries of those who have reaped have entered into the ears of the Master יהוה tzevaoth.

5 You have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been in luxury; you have nourished your levim, as in a day of slaughter.

6 You have condemned and killed the tzadik man; and he does not resist you.

7 Be patient therefore, Yisraelite brothers, to the coming of the Master יהוה. Behold, the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, and has great patience for it, until it receives the early and latter-rain.

8 You also be patient; establish your levim: for the coming of the Master draws near.³

9 Grumble not one against another, Yisraelite brothers, lest you be condemned: behold, the Shopet stands before the door.⁴

10 Take, my Yisraelite brothers, the neviim, who have spoken in the Name of the Master יהוה, as our example of suffering, affliction, and of patience.

11 Behold, we count them blessed who endure. You have heard of the patience of Iyov, and have seen the purpose of the Master יהוה; that the Master יהוה is full of pity, and full of tender rachamim.

12 But above all things, my Yisraelite brothers, swear not, neither by the shamayim, neither by the olam, neither by any other oath: but let your yes be yes; and your no be no; lest you fall into condemnation.⁵

13 Is any among you afflicted? Let him make tefillah. Is any in tov mood? Let him sing from the Tehillim.

14 Is any sick among you? Let him call for the shamashim of the congregation; and let them make tefillah over him, anointing him with oil in the Name of יהוה:⁶

15 And the tefillah of emunah shall save the sick, and יהוה shall raise him up; and if he has committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.

16 Confess your faults one to another, and make tefillah one for another, that you may be healed. The effectual fervent tefillot of a tzadik man is powerful accomplishing much.

17 Eliyahu was a man subject to many emotions as we are, and he made tefillah earnestly that it would not rain: and it rained not on the earth for three years and six months.

18 And he made tefillah again, and the shamayim gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 Yisraelite brothers, if any of you does stray from the emet, and one of you helps him make teshuvah;

20 Let him know, that he who turns the sinner from the error of his derech, shall save a being from death, and shall even wipe out a multitude of sins.⁷

Amein. ׀

¹ Yisraelites take one day at a time, even as our Master taught us to do.

² Knowing the word is not the answer. Knowing it and not obeying it is sin. Obedience is knowing the word and obeying it.

³ Even the rich will have to give account for their riches at Yahshua's coming. Are you investing what you have in the kingdom, or in yourself alone, on an ongoing basis?

⁴ All Yisrael must unlearn the vanity of our fathers, as they were a people of constant murmuring and complaining. We on the other hand, who are called to be renewed Yisraelites, must learn how not to complain, but rather to give praise while we walk in restoration love.

⁶ True healing that lasts and is not simply dramatics is done in petition to YHWH, not any other name, or substitute title.

⁷ An apparent reference to those Yisraelites thinking of leaving true faith in Yahshua by denying Him. Notice these stray sheep can be rescued while straying, but not after they have denied and forsaken Yahshua. By displaying a strong stance against the evil forces that steal wayward sheep into denying Yahshua as YHWH's Son, there is a promised reward of extra mercy to those fighting those anti-missionary battles in front line positions. Their deeds cover other shortcomings they may have before YHWH, since He counts this battle as most crucial.

Ivrim – עבריים – Hebrews
To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

1 ¹ אלהא, who at various times and in different ways spoke in times past to the ahvot of Yisrael by the neviim,
2 Has in these yamim acharonim spoken to us by His Son, whom He has appointed heir of all things, through whom also He made the olamim;²
3 Who being the brightness of His tifereth, and the express image of His Person, and upholding all things by the word of His power, when He had by Himself purged our sins, sat down on the Right Hand of the Majesty on high;
4 Being made so much better than the heavenly malachim, as He has inherited a more excellent Name than them.³
5 For to which of the heavenly malachim said He at any time, You are My Son, this day have I brought You forth? And again, I will be to Him an Abba, and He shall be to Me a Son?⁴
6 And again, when He brings in the first brought-forth into the olam, He says, And let all the heavenly malachim of אלהא worship Him.
7 And of the heavenly malachim He says, Who makes His heavenly malachim ruachim, and His avadim a flame of fire.
8 But to the Son He says, Your kesay, O אלהא, is le-olam-va-ed: a scepter of tzedakah is the scepter of Your malchut.
9 You have loved tzedakah, and hated iniquity; therefore אלהא, even Your אלהא,^{5,6} has anointed You with the oil of gladness above Your fellows.
10 And, You, יהוה, in the beginning have laid the foundation of the earth; and the shamayim are the works of Your hands:
11 They shall perish; but You remain; and they all shall grow old as does a garment;
12 And like a mantle You shall fold them up, and they shall be changed: but You are the same, and Your years shall not fail.
13 But to which of the heavenly malachim said He at any time, Sit on My right hand, until I make Your enemies Your footstool?
14 Are they not all serving ruachim, sent forth to serve those who shall be heirs of salvation?

2 Therefore we have to give the more earnest attention to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip.⁷

2 For if the word spoken by heavenly malachim⁸ was firm, and every transgression and act of disobedience received a correct reward;
3 How shall we escape, if we neglect so great a salvation; which at first began to be spoken by the Master Himself, and was confirmed to us by them that heard Him;
4 יהוה also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with different nisim, and gifts of the Ruach Hakodesh, according to His own will?
5 For it is not to the heavenly malachim that He has subjected the olam haba, of which we speak.
6 But the Katuv testifies, saying, What is man, that You are mindful of him? Or, the ben adam, that You visited him?
7 You made him a little lower than the heavenly malachim; You crowned him with tifereth and honor, and did set him over the works of Your hands:
8 You have put all things in subjection under His feet. For in that He put all in subjection under Him, He left nothing that is not put under Him.⁹ But now we see not yet all things put under Him.
9 But we see יהושע, who was made a little lower than the heavenly malachim for the suffering of death, crowned with tifereth and honor; because He tasted death for every man, apart from אלהא of course.¹⁰
10 For it was fitting for Him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons¹¹ to tifereth, to make the Sar of their salvation perfect through sufferings.
11 For both He that sets-apart and those who are being set-apart are all echad: for which reason He is not ashamed to call them Yisraelite brothers,¹²
12 Saying, I will declare Your Name to My Yisraelite brothers,¹³ in the midst of the congregation will I sing tehilla to You.
13 And again, I will put My trust in Him. And again, Behold I and the children¹⁴ that יהוה has given Me.
14 Since the children¹⁵ share in flesh and dahm, He also Himself likewise took part of the same; that through death He might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, s.a.tan;

⁷ These warnings to believing Yisrael are sprinkled throughout the Renewed Covenant and should be very sobering to the faithful.

⁸ Torah was given with the assistance of heavenly messengers.

⁹ Except The Father Himself of course.

¹⁰ Peshitta.

¹¹ Of Yisrael.

¹² In YHWH and in Yisrael.

¹³ Any faith, or religion that does not do what Yahshua did, which is teach The Father's only true Name to the brethren in the congregation, is not Yahshua's ministry, though it may be one of their own making.

² The true Creator.

³ The Name of YHWH.

⁴ Plurality in one.

⁵ Messiah has an Eloah and Messiah is not just another Name for the Father, but is His brought-forth Son.

⁶ Yahshua has an Eloah, even though He is Eloah.

15 And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to slavery.
 16 For truly He took not on Himself the nature of heavenly malachim; but He took on Himself the offspring of Avraham.
 17 So in every way it behooved Him to be made like His Yisraelite brothers, so that He might be full of rachamim as a faithful Kohen Gadol in things pertaining to יהוה, to make keporah for the sins of the people.¹
 18 For in that He Himself has suffered being tried, He is able to help them that are tried.

3 Therefore, kadosh Yisraelite brothers, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Sholiach and Kohen Gadol of our confession, the Moshiach עֲשׂוּי;

2 Who was faithful to Him that appointed Him, as also Moshe was faithful in all his bayit.²

3 For this Man was counted worthy of more tifereth than Moshe, seeing that He who has built the bayit has more honor than the bayit.³

4 For every bayit is built by some man; but He that built all things is אֱלֹהִים.

5 And Moshe truly was faithful in all his bayit,⁴ as an eved, for a testimony of those things that were to be spoken later;

6 But the Moshiach as a Son over His own bayit; whose bayit we are, if we hold fast the confidence and the gilah of our tikvah firm to the end.

7 Therefore as the Ruach Hakodesh says, Today if you will hear His voice,

8 Harden not your levim, as in the rebellion, in the day of trials in the wilderness:

9 *When your ahvot tried Me, proved Me, and saw My works forty years.*⁵

10 Therefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do always go wayward in their levim; and they have not known My halachot.

11 So I swore in My wrath, They shall not enter into My rest.

12 Listen, Yisraelite brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil lev of unbelief, in departing from the living אֱלֹהִים.

² House of Yisrael where Moses served.

⁴ First-Covenant Yisrael was a foreshadow of the renewal that was to come through the Builder Himself.

⁵ The Spirit that speaks today is begging Renewed Covenant Yisrael to do differently and have different results than the death of our fathers. He wants us to obey and have eternal life.

13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called today; lest any of you become hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

14 For we are made partakers of the Moshiach, if we hold onto the beginning of our confidence firm to the end;

15 While it is said, today if you will hear His voice, harden not your levim, as in the rebellion.

16 For some, when they had heard, did rebel: was it not those that came out of Mitzrayim with Moshe? Although not all of them.

17 But with whom was He grieved for forty years? Was it not with them that had sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness?

18 And to whom did He swear that they should not enter into His rest, but to them that believed not?

19 So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

4 Let us therefore fear, while the promise of entering into His rest remains, lest any of you should seem to come short of it.

2 For to us was the Besorah proclaimed, as well as to them:⁶ but the word proclaimed did not profit them, since it was not mixed with emunah in them that heard it.

3 For we who have believed do enter into the rest, as He said, As I have sworn in My wrath, they shall not enter into My rest: for behold the works were finished from the foundation of the olam.

4 For He spoke in a certain place of the Shabbath in this manner, And אֱלֹהִים did rest on the seventh day from all His works.

5 And in this place again, They shall not enter into My rest.

6 Seeing therefore it stands that some will surely enter into it, and they to whom it was first proclaimed entered not because of unbelief:

7 Again, after so long a time; He appointed another day as it is written above, for Dawid said,⁷ Today if you will hear His voice, harden not your levim.

8 For if Yahoshua son of Nun had given them rest, then would He not afterward have spoken of another day.

9 There remains therefore a Shabbat-keeping duty to the people of אֱלֹהִים.⁸

10 For the one that is entered into His rest, he also has ceased from his own works, as יהוה did from His.

11 Let us labor therefore to enter into that future Shabbat, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

12 For the word of יהוה is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing between the being and the ruach, and between the joints and marrow and bone, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the lev.

13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in His sight: but all things are naked and open before the eyes of Him to whom we have to answer.

14 Seeing then that we have a great Kohen Gadol, that is passed into the shamayim, יהושע the Son of יהוה, let us hold fast our confession.¹

15 For we have not a Kohen HaGadol who cannot be touched with the feeling of our weaknesses; but He was in all points tried like we are, yet He was without sin.

16 Let us therefore come boldly to the kesay of favor, that we may obtain rachamim, and find favor to help in our time of need.

5 For every Kohen HaGadol taken from among men is appointed for men in things pertaining to יהוה, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

2 He is the one who can humble Himself² and have rachamim on the ignorant who go astray; for that He Himself also is surrounded with weaknesses.³

3 And because of these he is obliged, to sacrifice for the people, and also for himself, on account of his own sins.

4 And no man takes this honor to himself, but he that is called of יהוה, as was Aharon.

5 So also the Moshiach esteemed not Himself to be made a Kohen Gadol; but He that said to Him, You are My Son, today have I brought You forth.

6 As He says also in another place, You are a Kohen le-olam-va-ed after the order of Melech-Tzadik.

7 Who in the days of His flesh, when He had offered up tefillot and supplications with strong crying and tears to Him that was able to save Him from death, and was heard;

8 Though He was The Son, yet He learned obedience by the things that He suffered;

9 And He grew to be perfect, and He became the author of eternal salvation to all them that obey Him;⁴

10 Called of יהוה a Kohen HaGadol after the order of Melech-Tzadik.

11 About whom we have many things to say, but some are hard to explain, seeing you are dull of hearing.⁵

² Peshitta.

³ The High Priest can have mercy on those going astray, but cannot bring them back. Only the eternal High Priest Messiah, who loves the deceived despite their ignorance and deception, can do that.

⁴ The emphasis is on obeying.

⁵ YHWH wanted to reveal many mysteries of Melech-Tzadik through the centuries to believers, but because of their falling away from Yahshua into forms of first-century Judaism and false Jewish concepts, He simply cannot speak about these advanced topics. Nothing has changed. Today we spend much time chasing many who have exchanged Yahshua for Moses, and monotheism in plurality for extreme monotheism that denies the Son and the Father as one. Therefore many mysteries of the faith remain veiled and unexplored.

12 For when by this time you ought to be morim, you have the need that someone teach you again the first principles of the primary writings of יהוה;⁶ and have become those that need milk, and not strong meat.

13 For everyone that uses milk is unskilled in the word of tzedakah: for he is a baby.

14 But strong meat belongs to them that are mature, even those who by reason of using the word, have their senses exercised to discern both tov and evil.

6 Therefore leaving the elementary principles of the teaching of the Moshiach, let us go on to perfection; not laying again the foundation of teshuvah from past evil works, and of emunah towards יהוה,

2 Of the teachings of mikvot, and of laying on of hands, and of our resurrection from the dead, and of eternal mishpat.⁷

3 And this will we do, if the Master יהוה permits.

4 For it is impossible for those who were once immersed in mikvah,⁸ and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Ruach Hakodesh,

5 And have tasted the tov word of יהוה, and the powers of the olam haba,

6 And they fall away, to renew them again to teshuvah; seeing they impale by themselves the Son of יהוה again, and put Him to an open shame.⁹

7 For the earth which drinks in the rain that comes upon it, and brings forth plants fit for them by whom it is tilled, receives brachot from אלהים:

8 But that which bears thorns and thistles is rejected, and is near to cursing; whose end is to be burned.¹⁰

⁶ Torah.

⁷ The things religion calls crucial, the word calls elementary. The problem with today's believers is called "Believer's Boredom," where they cannot enter the deep things of YHWH because, every week they are told by false teachers to stay away from Torah, and delve deeper into the elementary school program of Messiah. The problem then results in Yisraelites staying home, completely bored, dazed, and confused. Only the truth of Torah, Yahshua and the eternal matters of the Commonwealth of Yisrael can keep us busy, on fire, and maturing in the faith.

⁸ Peshitta perfectly fits the context in verse 2.

¹⁰ Burned with cessation of being. That is the Scriptural destination of those who start out as 9 But, beloved, we expect better things from you, and things that accompany salvation; that's why we speak like this.

10 For יהוה is not unrighteous to forget your work and labor of ahava, which you have shown toward His Name, in that you have served the Yisraelite kidushim, and still do serve.¹

11 And we desire that every one of you show the same eagerness to the full assurance of your tikvah to the end:²

12 That you be not lazy in the malchut, but followers of them who through emunah and patience will inherit the promises.

13 For when יהוה made a promise to Avraham, because He could swear by no one greater, He swore by Himself,

14 Saying, Surely in brachot I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply you.³

15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.⁴

16 For men truly swear by the greater than themselves: and in every dispute among them, the true settlement is by the oath.⁵

17 In like manner יהוה, willing more abundantly to show to the heirs of promise that His promise was unchangeable,⁶ sealed it by an oath:

18 That by two immutable things, the promise and the tikvah, in which it was impossible for יהוה to lie, we might have a strong encouragement, we who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the tikvah set before us:

19 Which tikvah we have as an anchor of our being, both sure and firm, and that tikvah enters within the veil;⁷

20 There יהושע has previously entered in for our sakes, even יהושע, made a Kohen HaGadol le-olam-va-ed after the order of Melech-Tzadik.⁸

believers, but wind up in some perversion of the truth about The Father and His Son.

² Endurance, endurance, endurance are the three keys in YHWH's word.

³ Notice that this one promise to Abraham of physical multiplicity dominates Scripture in both covenants, for from it comes a nation whose seed filled the globe, a Messiah who saves that globe, and YHWH's manifold wisdom and kingdom declared in that same congregation. Believing this promise saved Abraham. As Abraham's children, do we believe what Abraham believed about the fullness of the nations?

⁴ Not in its end-time fulfillment, but being the first recipient of it.

⁵ By invoking the Name of YHWH according to the Torah command in Deuteronomy 10:20.

⁶ To Yisrael.

⁷ Our hope and promise is within the veil and penetrates within the veil, but we ourselves do not enter there. Only Yahshua can do that.

⁸ He entered as High Priest, not we who are merely priests.

7 For this Melech-Tzadik, melech of Salem, kohen of El-Elyon, who met Avraham returning from the slaughter of the melechim, and blessed him;

2 To whom also Avraham gave a ma'aser; first being by interpretation Melech of Tzedakah, and after that also Melech of Salem, which is, Melech of Shalom;

3 Neither his eema nor abba are recorded in the genealogies, without beginning of days, nor end of chayim; but made like the Son of יהוה;⁹ who is the One that abides as a Kohen continually.⁹

4 Now consider how great this man was,¹⁰ to whom even the patriarch Avraham gave the ma'aser of the best.

5 And truly they that are of the sons of Lewi, who receive the office of the Kohanim, have a mitzvah to take the ma'aser from the people according to the Torah, that is, from their Yisraelite brothers, even though they come out of the loins of Avraham:

6 But he whose descent is not recorded in their genealogies received the ma'aser from Avraham, and blessed him that had the promises.¹¹

7 And without any contradiction the lesser is blessed by the greater.¹²

8 And here mortal men¹³ receive the ma'aser; but there he received them, of whom the Katuv says that he lives continually.¹⁴

9 And one might say, that through Avraham even Lewi, who received the ma'aser, gave ma'aser.¹⁵

10 For he was yet in the loins of his abba Avraham, when Melech-Tzadik met him.

11 If therefore perfection were by the Lewitical priesthood – for under it the people received the Torah –

⁹ This simply means that the original Melech-Tzadik was Shem, as confirmed in the Scroll of Jasher.

Yahshua was born into that existing order and became Melech-Tzadik as Shem before Him (as seen in v. 4 where Abraham pays Shem tithes). In this verse the author states that both the original Shem and the One sworn into that order by the oath of YHWH, are not listed in the Levitical genealogies. No record of any of their parents being from Lewi are recorded, since neither was a priest in the order of Lewi. Neither Shem, nor Yahshua has beginning of days, nor end of a priestly Levitical life, since neither was ordained to begin, or end, or in that service. Both however do have genealogies listed in Scripture. Shem like Yahshua served in an eternal order and positionally he prefigured Yahshua, who serves in that same eternal order that can never pass away.

¹⁰ Shem son of Noah.

¹¹ Shem blessed Abraham.

¹² Shem was greater than Abraham.

¹³ Levitical priests.

¹⁴ Note that this verse does not say Shem is immortal. Rather that he lives continually as do all the righteous in redemption as seen in Hebrews 11. Shem established the eternal order, so that it is said that he lives forever in spirit, as his reward for establishing the eternal order bearing his title, as does the One he prefigured, the Messiah Yahshua.

¹⁵ As part of Yisrael.

what further need was there that another Kohen should arise after the order of Melech-Tzadik, and not be called after the order of Aharon? ¹

12 For the priesthood being transferred, there is made of necessity an adjustment also in the Torah. ²

13 For He of whom these things are spoken of pertains to another tribe, of which no man ever served at the altar.

14 For it is evident that our Master sprang out of Yahudah; of which tribe Moshe said nothing concerning the priesthood.

15 And it is yet clearer: that after the likeness of Melech-Tzadik there arises another Kohen, 16 Who is not appointed by the Torah of a carnal mitzvah, but by the power of an endless chayim.

17 For He testifies, You are a Kohen le-olam-va-ed after the order of Melech-Tzadik.

18 For there is truly a setting-aside of the former command, because of its weakness and unprofitableness. ³

19 For the Torah made nothing perfect, ⁴ but the bringing in of a better tikvah did; through which we draw near to יהוה.

20 And He confirmed it to us by an oath: ⁵

21 For those Kohanim were made without an oath; but this One with an oath by Him that said to Him, the Master יהוה swore and will not relent, You are a Kohen le-olam-va-ed; after the order of Melech-Tzadik:

22 By that oath יהושיע was made a guarantor of a better brit.

23 And they truly were many Kohanim, because they were not allowed to continue by reason of their death:

24 But this Man, because He is Immortal, ⁶ has an unchangeable priesthood.

⁴ Pertaining to atonement and priesthood. The ongoing subject is the sacrifices and the priesthood, not the Torah itself.

⁵ Lamsa's Peshitta p.1200.

⁶ Only Messiah is immortal. Believers do not become immortal, until the return of Messiah.

25 Therefore He is able also to save them to the uttermost that come to יהוה through Him, seeing He lives le-olam-va-ed to make intercession for them.

26 For such a Kohen HaGadol became fully fit for us, who is kadosh, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the shamayim;

27 Who need not daily, as those Kohanim Gedolim, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this He did once, when He offered up Himself.

28 For the Torah makes men Kohanim Gedolim, who have human weakness; but the word of the oath, which was after the Torah, appointed the Son, who has been perfected le-olam-va-ed.

8 Now of the things that we have spoken this is the summary: We have such a Kohen HaGadol, who is set on the right hand of the kesay of the Majesty in the shamayim;

2 An attendant of the Kadosh-Place, and of the emet Tent of Meeting, which יהוה pitched, and not man.

3 For every Kohen HaGadol is appointed to offer gifts and sacrifices: So it was also necessary that this Man have something to offer.

4 For if He were on earth, He would not be a kohen, seeing that there are Kohanim that offer gifts according to the Torah:

5 Who serve as the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moshe was admonished by אלהים when he was about to make the Tent of Meeting: for, See, He said, that you make all things according to the pattern shown to you on the mountain.

6 But now יהושיע ha Moshiach has obtained a greater service, by which He also is the Mediator of a more advantageous ⁷ brit, which was given as Torah ⁸ based upon more advantageous promises.

7 For if that first brit people had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

8 For finding fault with them, ⁹ He says, Behold, the days come, says the Master יהוה, when I will make a Brit Chadasha with Beit Yisrael and

⁷ Strong's Greek # 2909; kreitton meaning "more advantageous," or "more useful," as opposed to strictly "better."

⁹ The Torah and First Covenant were not the problem. The problem as clearly stated here was with them. The next verse qualifies the "them."

with Beit Yahudah: ¹ ²

9 Not according to the brit that I made with their ahvot in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Mitzrayim; because they continued not in My brit, and I regarded them not, ³ says the Master יהוה.

10 For this is the brit that I will make with Beit Yisrael ⁴ after those days, says the Master יהוה; I will put My Torah into their mind, and write it on their levim: and I will be their אלהא, and they shall be My People-Ami:

11 And they shall not teach every man his fellow Yisraelite citizen, ⁵ and every man his Yisraelite brother, saying, Know the Master יהוה for kol Yisrael shall know Me, from the least to the greatest of them.

12 For I will forgive their unrighteousness, and their sins and their Torah-less-ness will I remember no more.

¹ Both houses had faults, causing the need for a new priesthood, a new sacrifice, and a Renewed Covenant. According to this promise quoted from Jeremiah 31:31, there are no gentiles in the Renewed Covenant, as it was cut exclusively with Yisrael's two houses. Those two houses are Jews and Efrayimites, not Jews and gentiles. Of course, non-biological Yisraelites also join as the chaverim/ friends of Yisrael (Ezekiel 37:16-17).

³ An anti-missionary favorite. The text was changed from "though I was a husband to them," to "I disregarded them." The reason for the change is that this paraphrase is not meant to be an exact quote. Rather it is a paraphrase to show that only one generation of Yisrael was discarded, not the whole nation. That is, the one-generation that died in the wilderness was discarded, without the entire nation being discarded. The point is that those who don't enter the Renewed Covenant will be discarded like those in the wilderness, and not that all Yisraelites will be replaced by a gentile church. Therefore this is not a text that teaches that the church is the "New Yisrael," or that the Jews have been discarded.

⁴ The Renewed Covenant is not only designed to bring eternal life and forgiveness to all Yisrael, but also to take the eternal Torah and place it within the hearts of the returning Efrayimites, who will then have the desire to freely obey it. This promise of a subsequent work in Efrayim-Yisrael after salvation in the Renewed Covenant is what we see today. Judah is not mentioned here because they come into the Renewed Covenant with a decent grasp of Torah (though not always living it), and therefore YHWH focuses in on Efrayim's return to Torah.

⁵ Aramaic Peshitta phrase is bar medintheh, literally "son of the state," or nation.

13 In that He says, a new priesthood, ⁶ He has made the first old. Now that which decays and becomes old is near disappearing. ⁷

⁹ Then truly the first priesthood ⁸ also had regulations of worship, and an earthly Kadosh-Place.

2 For there was a Tent of Meeting made; the first area, where the menorah, and the shulchan, and the lechem of the shechinah was; which is called the Makom Kadosh.

3 And after the second veil, the area of the Tent of Meeting which is called the Kadosh HaKedoshim;

4 Which had the golden censer, ⁹ and the Ark of the Testimony covered on all sides with gold, in which was the golden pot that had manna, and Aharon's rod that budded, and the tablets of the testimony;

5 And over it the cheruvim of tifereth shadowing the mercy seat; of which we won't now speak in detail.

6 Now when these things were prepared, the Kohanim went always into the Makom Kadosh of the Tent of Meeting, performing the services.

7 But into the Kadosh HaKedoshim went the Kohen HaGadol alone once every year, with dahm, which he offered for himself, and for the sins of the people:

8 The Ruach Hakodesh therefore signifying, that the way into the Makom Kadosh was not yet made manifest for believers, while the first Tent of Meeting was still standing: ¹⁰

⁷ The first thing to grasp is that the topic through these chapters is the priesthood. So what is about to grow old and pass away is the priesthood that then ministered in the Temple. Not the Torah itself. Even the language bears this out, as the term "near disappearing" means that the Temple had not yet been destroyed, and therefore the Levitical priesthood was still functional despite Yahshua's role as the High Priest in the order of Melech-Tzadik. In essence then, this is a prophesy of the Temple's imminent destruction, along with all its altars, priesthood and functions, that will soon be gone, or altered.

⁸ The added word "covenant" in most translations, does not appear in any Greek, or Aramaic texts. Clearly in context the subject is still the Levitical priesthood.

⁹ Peshitta: Besma, or golden censer, not altar as in the Greek.

¹⁰ Meaning Yahshua's way into the Holy of Holies was not accomplished as long as the earthly priests did their service. Our way into the Set-Apart Place also was not made manifest. It does not mean that believers enter the Holy of Holies. None do. The veil that ripped was that of the Hekel/ Holy Place curtain, gaining us access into the Holy Place, as our High Priest does His work alone in the Holy of Holies, a place to where no believers have ever gone, for we are priests not the

9 Which was a parable ¹ for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make the one that did the service perfect, regarding his conscience;
 10 Which stood only in food offerings and drink offerings, and different washings, and flesh-related regulations, imposed on the Kohanim until the time of reformation ² and restoration. ³
 11 But Moshiach has now become a Kohen HaGadol of tov things to come, by a greater and more perfect Tent of Meeting, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this creation;
 12 Neither by the dahm of goats and calves, but by His own dahm He entered in once into the Kadosh HaKedoshim, having obtained eternal geulah for us.
 13 For if the dahm of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of a red heifer sprinkling the defiled, sets-apart the flesh:
 14 How much more shall the dahm of Moshiach, who through the eternal Ruach offered Himself without blemish to אלהא, purify your conscience from dead works to serve the living אלהא?
 15 And for this cause He is the Mediator of the Brit Chadasha, by means of His death, for the geulah of the sins that were done in the first brit, so that those who are called, might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.
 16 For where a will is presented it shows the death of its maker.
 17 For a will is in force only after men are dead: otherwise it is useless while its maker lives.
 18 For this reason not even the first will was dedicated without dahm.
 19 For when Moshe had spoken every precept to all the people according to the Torah, he took the dahm of calves, with mayim, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the scroll, and all the people,
 20 Saying, This is the dahm of the will ⁴ which יהוה has commanded for you.
 21 In like manner later, he sprinkled with dahm both the Tent of Meeting, and all the vessels of the service.
 22 And almost all things are by the Torah purged with dahm; and without the shedding of dahm there is no forgiveness.
 23 It was therefore necessary that the images of the heavenly things should be purified with these; although the heavenly objects are from a better sacrifice than these. ⁵
 24 For the Moshiach is not entered into the Kadosh-Place made with hands, which is an image of the true one; but into the shamayim itself, now to appear in the presence of יהוה for us: ⁶

 25 For He does not need to offer Himself often, as the Kohen HaGadol who enters into the Kadosh HaKedoshim every year with dahm that is not His own;
 26 For then He would have to suffer often from the foundation of the olam: but now once at the end of the olam hazeh, He has appeared to abolish sin by the sacrifice of Himself.
 27 And as it is appointed to men once to die, but after this the mishpat: ⁷
 28 So Moshiach was once offered to bear the sins of many; and to those that look for Him shall He appear the second time for our deliverance, this time not carrying our sins.

10 For the Torah having a shadow of tov things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually, make those who draw near perfect.
 2 Otherwise would they not have ceased to be offered? Because then the worshippers once cleansed, should have had no more awareness of their sins.
 3 But in those sacrifices there is a yearly reminder of sins.
 4 For it is impossible that the dahm of bulls and goats can take away sins.
 5 Therefore when He comes into the olam hazeh, He says, Sacrifice and offering You did not desire, but a body You have prepared for Me: ⁸
 6 In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin You have had no pleasure.
 7 Then said I, Behold, I come: in the volume of the scroll it is written of Me, to do Your will, O יהוה.
 8 In the above quote when He said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin You did not desire, neither do You have pleasure in them; which are offered according to the Torah;
 9 Then He said, Behold, I come to do Your will, O יהוה. He takes away the first, that He may establish the second. ⁹
 10 By that desire we are now kadosh through the offering of the body of יהושע ha Moshiach once for all.
 11 And every kohen stands daily serving and offering the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins:
 12 But this Man, after He had offered one sacrifice for sins le-olam-va-ed, sat down on the right hand of יהוה;
 13 Waiting from then on until all His enemies are made His footstool.
 14 For by one offering He has perfected le-olam-va-ed them that are being set-apart.
 15 And the Ruach Hakodesh also is a witness for us: for after that He had said before,
 16 This is the brit that I will make with them after those

⁶ If all believers were High Priests in the Holy of Holies as religion teaches, we wouldn't need Yahshua to be there for us.

days, says the Master יהוה, I will put My laws into their levim, and in their minds will I write them;

17 And their sins and Torah-less-ness will I remember no more.

18 Now where forgiveness of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 Having therefore, Yisraelite brothers, boldness to enter into the Makom Kadosh by the dahm of יהושע,¹

20 By a new and living way, which He has set-apart for us, through the veil, that is to say, His flesh;

21 And having a Kohen HaGadol over the Beit HaMikdash of יהוה;²

22 Let us draw near with a true lev in full assurance of emunah, having our levim sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure mayim.

23 Let us hold fast the confession of our emunah without wavering; (for He is faithful that promised;)

24 And let us care for one another to stir up ahava and tov mitzvoth:

25 Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another; and so much the more, as you see the Yom approaching.³

26 For if we sin willfully after that we have received the da'at of the emet, there remains no more sacrifice for sins,

27 But a certain fearful anticipation of mishpat and fire, which shall devour His enemies.

28 He that despised Moshe's Torah died without rachamim under two, or three witnesses:

29 Of how much worse punishment, do you think, he shall deserve, who has trampled under foot the Son of יהוה, and has counted the dahm of the brit, by which he was made kadosh as a common thing, and has insulted the Ruach of favor?⁴

30 For we know Him that has said, Vengeance belongs to Me, I will repay, says the Master יהוה. And again, יהוה shall judge His people.⁵

31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living אלהא.

32 But remember the former days, in which, after you were immersed in mikvah, you endured great fights and sufferings;⁶

33 On one hand you were exposed to reproaches and pressures; and on the other hand you became sharers with those who were so treated.

34 And you had pity on those who were prisoners and you allowed the seizure of your property cheerfully, for you yourselves know that you have a better and more enduring possession in the shamayim.⁷

35 Do not lose your confidence, which has great reward.

36 For you have need of patience, that, after you have done the will of יהוה, you will receive the promise.⁸

37 In yet a little while, He that shall come will come, and will not tarry.

38 But the just shall live by My emunah: but if anyone draws back, My being shall have no pleasure in him.⁹

39 But we are not of those who draw back to perdition; but of them that believe to the saving of the being.¹⁰

11 Now emunah is the substance of things now hoped for, as it was the substance of things which have already come to pass, as it is the evidence of things not yet seen.¹¹

2 For by it zichnai – Yisrael obtained a tov report.¹²

3 Through emunah we understand that the olamim were framed by the word of אלהא, so that things that are seen were made by the invisible.

4 By emunah Hevel offered to יהוה a more excellent sacrifice than Qayin, by which he obtained witness that he was tzadik, יהוה testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaks.

5 By emunah Chanok was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because יהוה had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony; that he pleased יהוה.

6 But without emunah it is impossible to please Him: for he that comes to יהוה must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those that diligently seek Him.

7 By emunah Noach, being warned by יהוה of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, made an ark to save his bayit; by it he condemned the olam, and became heir of the tzedakah that is by emunah.

 8 By emunah Avraham, when he was called to go out into a place that he would later receive as an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing where he was going.
 9 By emunah he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tents with Yitzchak and Yaakov, the heirs with him of the same promise: ¹
 10 For he looked for a city that has foundations, whose Builder and Maker is יהוה.
 11 Through emunah also Sarah herself received strength to conceive offspring, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she deemed Him faithful who had promised.
 12 Therefore sprang forth one, from him almost dead; and then later others, as many as the cochavim of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable. ²
 13 These all died in emunah, not having received the heavenly promised land, ³ but having seen it far off, and were persuaded of it, and embraced it, and confessed that they were gerim and pilgrims on the earth.
 14 For they that say such things declare plainly that they seek a country.
 15 And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from where they came out, they might have had the opportunity to return.
 16 But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one: ⁴ therefore יהוה is not ashamed to be called their אלהים: for He has prepared for them a city. ⁵
 17 By emunah Avraham, when he was tried, offered up Yitzchak: and he that had received the promises offered up his only brought-forth son,
 18 Of whom it was said, That in Yitzchak shall your zera be called:
 19 Accounting that יהוה was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from where also he received Him in a figure. ⁶
 20 By emunah Yitzchak blessed Yaakov and Esav concerning things to come.
 21 By emunah Yaakov, when he was dying, blessed both the sons of Yoseph; and worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.
 22 By emunah Yoseph, when he died, made mention of the exodus of b'nai Yisrael; and gave them a commandment concerning his bones.
 23 By emunah Moshe, when he was born, was hidden three months by his parents, because they saw he was a beautiful child; and they were not afraid of the melech's commandment.
 24 By emunah Moshe, when he was grown, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter;

⁶ As a figure, or type of the coming Messiah who would also die.

25 Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of יהוה, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a short while;
 26 Esteeming the reproach of the Moshiach as greater riches than the treasures in Mitzrayim: for he looked forward to receive the reward. ⁷
 27 By emunah he forsook Mitzrayim, not fearing the wrath of the melech: for he endured, as seeing Him who is invisible.
 28 Through emunah he kept the Pesach, and the sprinkling of dahm, lest He that destroyed the bachorim should touch them.
 29 By emunah they passed through the Sea of Reeds on dry land: which the Mitzrites attempting to do were drowned.
 30 By emunah the walls of Yericho fell down, after they were circled around for seven days.
 31 By emunah the harlot Rachav did not perish with them that believed not, when she had received the spies with shalom.
 32 And what more shall I say? For the time would fail me to tell of Gidyon, and of Baraq, and of Shimshon, and of Yiftach; of Dawid also, and Schmueel, and of the neviim:
 33 Who through emunah subdued malchutum, worked tzedakah, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,
 34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, became valiant in fight, routed the armies of the foreigners.
 35 Women received their dead raised to chayim again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:
 36 And others had trials of cruel mockings and scourgings, yes, and also chains and imprisonment:
 37 They were stoned, they were sawn apart, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;
 38 (Of whom this olam was not worthy they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth).
 39 And these all, having obtained a tov report through emunah, received not the promise:
 40 יהוה having provided for us too; so that they without us should not be made perfect. ⁸

12 Therefore seeing that we ⁹ also are surrounded with so great a cloud of Yisraelite witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin that does so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,
 2 Looking to יהושע the Author and Finisher of our emunah; who for the simcha that was set before Him endured the execution eytz, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the kesay of יהוה.
 3 For consider Him that suffered such opposition from those sinners against Himself, from those who opposed their own beings, so that you do not become discouraged,

⁷ Moses had a basic understanding of Messiah.

nor your being become remiss.¹

4 Ye have not yet resisted to dahm, striving against sin.²

5 And you have forgotten the exhortation that speaks to you as to children, My son, despise not the chastening of the Master יהוה, nor grow weak when you are rebuked by Him:

6 For whom the Master יהוה loves He chastens, and scourges every son whom He receives.

7 If you endure discipline, יהוה deals with you as with sons; for what son does the abba not discipline?

8 But if you are without discipline, by which we all are trained, then are you gerim, and not sons.³

9 Furthermore we have had ahvot of our flesh who corrected us, and we gave them respect: shall we not much rather be subject to the Abba of Ruachim, and live?

10 For they truly for a few days disciplined us after their own understanding; but He for our profit, that we might be partakers of His kadosh nature.⁴

11 Now no discipline for the present seems to be fun, but sorrowful: nevertheless afterwards, it yields fruits of shalom to those who are trained by that discipline.

12 Therefore lift up the hands that hang down, and the feeble knees;

13 And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed.

14 Follow shalom with all men, and set-apartness, without which no man shall see יהוה:

15 Taking heed lest any man fall short of the favor of יהוה; lest any root of bitterness spring up to harm you, and by which many be defiled;

16 Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esav, who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright.⁵

17 For you know how that afterwards, when he would have inherited the bracha,⁶ he was rejected: for he had no chance of recovering it, though he sought it carefully with tears.

18 For you have not come to the mountain that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor to blackness, and darkness, and tempest,

19 And the sound of a shofar, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard begged that the word should not be spoken to them any more:

20 For they could not endure what was commanded, And if so much as a beast touched the mountain, it was to be stoned, or thrust through with a spear:

21 And so terrible was the sight that Moshe said, I exceedingly fear and quake:

22 But you have come to Har Tzion, and to the city of the living אלהא, the heavenly Yahrushalayim, and to an innumerable multitude of heavenly malachim,

23 To the gathering⁷ and congregation of the bachorim,⁸ that is enrolled in the shamayim, and to יהוה the Shophet of all, and to the ruachim of tzadikim made perfect,⁹

24 And to יהושע the Mediator of the Brit Chadasha, and to the dahm of sprinkling, that speaks better things than that of Hevel.

25 See that you refuse Him not that speaks. For if they escaped not who refused him that spoke on earth, how much more shall we not escape, if we turn away from Him that speaks from the shamayim:

26 Whose voice then shook the earth: but now He has promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also the shamayim.

27 And this word, Yet once more, signifies the removing of those things that are shaken, the things that have been made, so that those things that cannot be shaken may remain.¹⁰

28 Therefore receiving a malchut that cannot be moved, let us have favor, by which we may serve יהוה acceptably with reverence and fear:

29 For our אלהא is a consuming fire.

13 Let Yisraelite brotherly ahava continue.¹¹

2 Be not forgetful to entertain gerim:¹² for in that manner some have entertained heavenly malachim unaware.

3 Remember them that are in prison, as in prison with them; and them who suffer adversity, for you also are human.

4 Marriage is honorable in all situations, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers יהוה will judge.

5 Let your behavior be without greed; and be content with such things as you have: for the Master יהוה Himself has said, I will never leave you, nor forsake you.

6 So that we may boldly say, יהוה is my Helper, and I

Kepha Aleph – א כפא – First Peter To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

1 Shimon Kepha, a sholiach of יהושע ha Moshiach, to the pilgrims of the galut in Pontos, Galut-Yah, Kappadokia, Asia, and Bithunia,¹
2 Chosen² according to the foreknowledge of Abba יהוה, and set-apart by the Ruach, for obedience³ and sprinkling of the dahm of יהושע ha Moshiach: favor to you and shalom be multiplied.
3 Blessed be the אלהא and Abba of our Master יהושע ha Moshiach, who according to His abundant rachamim has begotten us again to a living tikvah through the resurrection of יהושע ha Moshiach from the dead,
4 To an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled that does not fade away, reserved in the shamayim for you,⁴
5 Who are kept by the power of יהוה through emunah for salvation and deliverance ready to be revealed in the yamim acharonim.
6 In this you greatly gilah, though now for a little while, if need be, you have been burdened by various trials,
7 That the testing of your emunah, being much more precious than gold that perishes, though it is tested by fire, may be found to tehilla, honor, and tifereth at the revelation of יהושע ha Moshiach,
8 Whom having not seen, you love. Though now you do not see Him, yet believing, you gilah with simcha unspeakable and full of tifereth,
9 Receiving the end result of your emunah – the salvation of your beings.
10 Of this salvation the neviim have inquired and searched carefully, who prophesied of the favor that would come to you,
11 By searching to know when, or in what time frame, the Ruach of Moshiach that was in them was indicating concerning Moshiach, when it testified beforehand of the sufferings of the Moshiach, and the esteem that would follow.
12 To them it was revealed that they weren't really serving themselves, but were ministering to us the things which now have been reported to you through those who have proclaimed the Besorah to you by the Ruach Hakodesh sent from the shamayim; things which heavenly malachim desire to look into.
13 Therefore prepare the loins of your mind, be sober, and rest your tikvah fully upon the favor that is to be brought to you at the revelation of יהושע ha Moshiach;
14 As obedient children,⁵ not conforming yourselves to the former lusts, as in your ignorance;
15 But as He who called you is kadosh, you also be kadosh in all your conduct,

17 And if you call on Abba, who without partiality judges according to each one's mitzvot,⁷ conduct yourselves throughout the time of your sojourning in fear;
18 Knowing that you were not redeemed with corruptible things, like silver, or gold, from your futile spiritual conduct received by tradition from your ahvot,
19 But with the precious dahm of Moshiach, as of a Lamb without blemish and without spot.
20 He indeed was foreordained before the foundation of the olam, but was manifest in these last times for you
21 Who through Him believe in יהוה, who raised Him from the dead and gave Him tifereth, so that your emunah and tikvah are in יהוה.
22 Since you have cleansed your beings in obeying the emet⁸ through the Ruach in sincere ahava of the Yisraelite brothers, love one another fervently with a clean lev,⁹

6 Therefore also it is contained in the Katuv, Behold, I lay in Tzion a chief Corner Stone, elect, precious: and he that believes on Him shall not be put to shame.

7 To you therefore who believe He is precious: but to those who are disobedient, the Stone that the builders disallowed, the same is made the Rosh Pina,

10 Who in times past were Lo-Ami-Not a People³ but are now the people of יהוה: who were Lo-Ruchamah – No-Mercy, but now have obtained rachamim.⁴

11 Dearly beloved, I beg you as strangers and sojourners in the olam hazeh, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the being;

12 Having your behavior honest among the gentiles:⁵ that, when they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your mitzvot, which they shall behold, esteem יהוה in a future day of personal visitation.

13 Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for יהוה's sake: whether it is to the melech, as supreme;

14 Or, to governors, as to those that are sent by Him for the punishment of evildoers, and for the tehilla of those that do well.

15 For so is the will of יהוה, that with well doing⁶ you may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:

16 As free, and not using your liberty for a cloak of evil, but as the avadim of יהוה.

17 Honor all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear יהוה. Honor the Melech.⁷

18 Avadim, be subject to your human masters with all fear; not only to the tov and gentle, but also to the crooked ones.

19 For this is true favor, if because of a tov conscience to יהוה anyone endures grief, or suffering wrongfully.

20 For what tifereth is it, if, when you are beaten for your own faults, you shall take it patiently? But if, when you do well, and still suffer for it, and you take it patiently, this is acceptable with יהוה.

21 For even to this were you called: because Moshiach also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that you should follow His steps:

22 Who did no sin, neither was deceit found in His mouth:

23 Who, when He was reviled, reviled not again; when He suffered, He threatened not; but committed Himself to Him that judges righteously:

24 Who His own self carried our sins in His own body on the eytz that we, being dead to sins, should live to tzedakah: by whose stripes you were healed.⁸

25 Because you were as sheep going astray; but now have made teshuvah⁹ to the Shepherd and Guardian¹⁰ of your beings.

3 Likewise, wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the behavior of the wives;

2 While they behold your pure behavior coupled with your fear of יהוה.

3 Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

4 But let it be the hidden man of the lev, that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet ruach, which is in the sight of יהוה of great price.¹¹

5 For after this manner in the former times the kadosh women also, who trusted in יהוה, adorned themselves, being in proper relationship to their own husbands:

6 Even as Sarah obeyed Avraham, calling him master: whose daughters you are, as long as you do well, and are not frightened by them with any fear.

7 In like manner, you husbands, dwell with them according to da'at, giving honor to the wife, as to the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the favor of chayim; that your tefillot be not hindered.

8 Finally, let all be of an echad mind, having rachamim on each another, ahava as Yisraelite brothers, be tender of ¹ Yisrael is not just a mystical body but also a literal nation.

² Believers are not just individuals, but a nation. The nation of Yisrael regathered from exile.

³ In times past, Efrayim-Yisrael alone was called Lo-Ami by YHWH. Today the non-Jews in the exile who now believe in Yisrael's Messiah, are called the former Lo-Ami, or "Not My People" pronounced in Hosea 1:9 and Hosea 2:23. Peter quotes Hosea directly and attributes these prophecies about the ten tribes as finding full fulfillment in the non-Jewish Yisraelite believers in the exile, who are coming to the faith, in order to form a royal priesthood. This answers the rhetorical question of whether Peter knew about the two houses being restored.

⁴ Peter quotes Hosea 1:8 the Lo-Ruchamah/no mercy pronouncement over Efrayim, or non-Jewish Yisrael. And he directly attributes it to the exiles of Pontus, Galut-Yah, and Asia etc., whom he calls the chosen people. Through Messiah, the Lo-Ruchamah exiles, become recipients of both mercy and compassion, as foretold in Hosea 2:23. It is most vital to see the direct connection between the actual prophecy and its fulfillment among the latter-day believing non-Jews. A fuller treatment is available at:

⁵ Believers are called the chosen people, or Yisrael, and the non-believers who walk in lust are referred to as gentiles, confirming that the term "saved gentile," or "believing gentile" is an oxymoron.

¹¹ Yisraelite women must not dress like the world. They ought to be fully covered, so other righteous men can focus in on YHWH alone. Dressing modestly is a very serious issue with YHWH, which no true woman of YHWH should take lightly. Scripture teaches us that the outward dress of a woman is indicative of the modesty in her heart towards YHWH.

KEPHA ALEPH - FIRST PETER

lev, be courteous:

9 Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: on the contrary, brachot; knowing that you are called to this, that you shall inherit the great bracha.

10 For he that will love chayim, and see tov days, let him refrain his tongue from lashon hara, and his lips that they speak no deceit:

11 Let him make teshuvah from evil, and do tov; let him seek shalom, and pursue it.¹

12 For the eyes of the Master יהוה are over the tzadik, and His ears are open to their tefillot: but the face of the Master יהוה is against them that do evil.

13 And who is he that will harm you, if you are followers of that which is tov?

14 But if you suffer for tzedakah's sake, favored are you: and be not afraid of their terror threats, neither be troubled;²

15 But set-apart the Master יהוה אלהא in your levim: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asks you for a reason for the tikvah³ that is in you with meekness and fear:

16 Having a tov conscience; that, when they speak lashon hara about you, as evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your tov behavior in Moshiach.

17 For it is better, if the will of יהוה be so, that you suffer for well doing, rather than for evil doing.

18 For Moshiach also has once suffered for sins, the tzadik for the unjust, that He might bring us to יהוה, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Ruach:

19 Through which He also went and proclaimed to the ruachim in prison;⁴

20 Who before that time were disobedient, when the patience of יהוה waited in the days of Noach, while the tayvah was being prepared, when few, that is, eight beings were saved through the mayim.

21 Whose true likeness and reality also saves us, even mikvah,⁵ not the putting away of the dirt of the flesh, but the answer of a tov conscience towards יהוה, by the resurrection of יהושע ha Moshiach:

22 Who has gone into the shamayim, and is on the right hand of יהוה; heavenly malachim and authorities and powers being made subject to Him.⁶

4 Since then Moshiach has suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin;

2 That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh for the lusts of men, but for the will of יהוה.

3 For in past times in our chayim it sufficed us to have done the will of the gentiles,⁷ when we walked in indecencies, lusts, drunkenness, orgies, wild parties, and detestable idolatries:⁸

4 They think it strange that you do not associate with them in that same excess of loose living, even speaking lashon hara about you:

5 They shall give an account to Him that is ready to judge the living and the dead.

6 For this reason was the Besorah proclaimed also to them that are dead, that they might be judged as men in the flesh, but live according to יהוה in the Ruach.

7 But the end of all things is at hand: be therefore sober, and be attentive in tefillah.

8 And above all things have fervent ahava among yourselves: for ahava shall cover a multitude of sins.

9 Be like mishpacha one to another without grumbling.

10 As every man has received a gift,⁹ even so serve the same gift to another, as tov stewards of the manifold favor of יהוה.

11 If any man speaks, let him speak the oracles of יהוה; if any man serve, let him do it with the ability which יהוה gives: that in all things יהוה may be esteemed through יהושע ha Moshiach, to whom be tehilla and the rule in Yisrael le-olam-va-ed. Amein.

12 Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trials which are to test you, as though some strange thing has happened to you:

13 But gilah, in the fact that you share Moshiach's sufferings; that, when His tifereth shall be revealed, you may gilah also with exceeding simcha.

14 If you are reproached for the Name of Moshiach,¹⁰ happy are you; for the Ruach of tifereth and of יהוה rests upon you: on their part He is evil spoken of, but on your part He is praised.

15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men's matters.

16 Yet if any man suffer as a Notzri in Yisrael, let him not be ashamed; but let him esteem יהוה in this matter.

17 For the time has come that Yom HaDin must begin in Beit יהוה: and if it first begins with us, what shall be the ¹ Many Yisraelites seek peace once, or twice, but don't go on to pursue peace.

² A good word for all Yisrael after 9/11/01.

³ According to Paul, the reason he was in prison and the reason we suffer is for the hope of Yisrael, which is the end of the exile and the regathering of both houses of Yisrael back into His kingdom (Acts 28:20).

⁴ Tartaros: is a special place for the imprisoned spirits at the time of the flood (Genesis 6).

⁶ Two shared Powers, two shared thrones (Revelation 22:1 Daniel 7:9) in one YHWH-Echad.

end of them that obey not the Besorah of יהוה? ¹

18 And if the tzadikim barely are saved, where shall the wicked and the sinner appear?

19 So then let those that suffer according to the will of יהוה commit the keeping of their beings to Him in well doing, as to a faithful Creator.

5 Therefore the zechanim who are among you I exhort, who am also a zachan, and a witness of the sufferings of Moshiach, and also a partaker of the tifereth that shall be revealed:

2 Feed the flock of יהוה which is among you, taking the oversight of it, not by compulsion, but willingly; not for greed, or dirty gain, but of a willing mind;

3 Neither as being masters over those trusted to you, but by being examples to the flock.

4 And when the Roei-HaGadol shall appear, you shall receive a keter of tifereth that fades not away.

5 Likewise, you younger Yisraelites, submit to the shamashim. Yes, all of you are to be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for יהוה resists the proud, and gives favor to the humble.

6 Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of יהוה, that He may exalt you in due time:

7 Casting all your anxiety upon Him; for He cares for you.

8 Be sober, be vigilant; because your enemy s.a.tan, as a roaring lion, walks around on earth, seeking whom he can devour:

9 Resist him steadfast in the emunah, knowing that the same afflictions are experienced in your Yisraelite brothers that are all over the olam. ²

10 But may the אלהא of all favor, who has called us to His eternal tifereth by Moshiach יהושע, after you have suffered a while, make you perfect, establish, strengthen, and settle you.

11 To Him be tifereth and rule over kol Yisrael le-olam-va-ed. Amein.

12 By Sila, a faithful brother to you, as I count him to be, I have written briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true favor of יהוה by which you stand.

13 The chosen Yisraelite congregation that is at Bavel, ³ ⁴ elected together with you, salutes you; and so does Moshe-Marcus my son.

14 Greet one another with a kiss of ahava. Shalom be with you all that are in Moshiach יהושע. Amein. ת

¹ Great question. If many of the former faithful deny His divinity and His Messianic position, and we are then judged, what about the world? YHWH always cleanses Yisrael first (to obtain clean vessels for His use), before He tells them to go out and cleanse the world through the message of the Good News.

² Scattered Yisrael and her exiles are being tested in the entire world.

⁴ At that time, the largest population of Jews outside of Yisrael was in Babylon. These Jews stayed behind and did not return with Ezra and Nehemiah and they translated the Torah from Hebrew into the Aramaic language. Today we have this portion in the Peshitta Tanach. It is these Jews that Peter went to see, and he met with them in synagogues and huts. This verse has nothing to do with Rome.

Kepha Bet – כַּפְּתָא בְּ – Second Peter To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

1 Shimon Kepha, an eved and a sholiach of יהושע ha Moshiach, to them that have obtained like precious emunah with us through the tzedakah of יהוה and our Savior יהושע ha Moshiach:
2 Favor and shalom be multiplied to you through the da'at of יהוה, and of יהושע our Master,
3 According as His divine power has given to us all things that pertain to chayim and Shabbat-guarding piety,¹ through the da'at of Him that has called us to tifereth and power:
4 By these are given to us exceedingly great and precious promises: that by these you might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the olam hazeh through lust.
5 And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your emunah power; and to power da'at;
6 And to da'at temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience Shabbat-guarding piety;
7 And to Shabbat-guarding piety, brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness, ahava.
8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they shall cause that you shall neither be inactive nor unfruitful in the da'at of our Master יהושע ha Moshiach.
9 But he that lacks these things is blind, and cannot see far off,² and has forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.
10 For this reason, Yisraelite brothers, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if you do these things, you shall never fall:
11 For in this manner an entrance shall be provided for you abundantly into the everlasting malchut³ of our Master and Savior יהושע ha Moshiach.
12 And so I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though you know them, and are established in the present emet.

SECOND PETER

¹ Strong's Greek # 2150 eusebeia, literally meaning "good well-done Shabbat-keeping," is a key word used throughout the epistles of the Renewed Covenant. The root word is # 2152 Greek root eusebia. There is no Greek word for Shabbat for obvious reasons and in the Hebraic mind (i.e., that of the authors of the Scriptures), a Shabbat-keeper was one whose lifestyle was pious, or eu sebio, or into faithful Shabbat-keeping, and all that it entails. One could not be considered pious without being a Shabbat-keeper, and it was considered a basic test of piety then, as it is now. Therefore the translators did not transliterate this word, but translated it, and put the word "godly," or "godliness" in the text instead of the true meaning of a pious life bent toward Shabbat piety. The Restoration Scriptures has restored this key word in its correct context throughout the letters to Renewed Covenant Yisrael.

² One who does not walk in full Torah truth and a life of visible fruit in the Spirit, cannot see the Efrayimites who are "far off" in their ongoing return to our nation.

³ The restored kingdom.

13 Yes, I think it is right, as long as I am in this earthly tent, to stir you up by a reminder;
14 Knowing that shortly I must put off my earthly tent, even as our Master יהושע ha Moshiach has shown me.
15 Moreover, I will endeavor that you may be able after my death to have these things always as a reminder.
16 For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known to you the power and coming of our Master יהושע ha Moshiach, but were eyewitnesses of His majesty.⁴
17 For He received from Abba יהוה honor and tifereth, when there came a voice to Him from the excellent tifereth, This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.
18 And this voice that came from the shamayim we heard, when we were with Him in the Har-Kadosh.
19 We have also a more sure word of prophecy; to which you do well that you take heed, as to a Light that shines in a dark place, until the day dawns, and the Day Star rises in your levim:
20 Knowing this first that no prophesy of the Keetvay HaKadosh is of any private interpretation.⁵
21 For prophecy came not in ancient times by the will of man: but kadosh men of יהוה spoke as they were moved by the Ruach Hakodesh.

2 But there were false neviim also among the people, even as there shall be false morim among you, who privately shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Master that bought them,⁶ and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

2 And many shall follow their paths of destruction; because of them the halacha of Emet shall be evil spoken of.

3 And through greed shall they with fabricated words make merchandise of you: whose mishpat now is from a long time and lingers not, and their damnation does not slumber.

4 For if יהוה spared not the heavenly malachim that sinned, but cast them down to the Tartaros,⁷ and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved for mishpat;

5 And spared not the ancient olam, but saved Noach one of eight people, a proclaimer of tzedakah, bringing in the flood upon the olam of the wicked;

6 And turning the cities of Sodom and Amora into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an example to those that after should live wickedly;

7 And delivered just Lot, oppressed with the filthy behavior of the wicked:

KEPHA BET – SECOND PETER

8 (For that tzadik dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, tortured his tzadik being from day to day with their anti-Torah deeds):

9 The Master יהוה knows how to deliver the Shabbat-guarding pious ones out of trials, and to reserve the unjust until Yom HaDin to be punished:

10 But mostly those that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. Presumptuous are they, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of the honored.

11 Whereas heavenly malachim, which are greater in power and might, bring not a slanderous accusation against them before יהוה.

12 But these, as natural brute beasts, ¹ made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; ² and shall utterly perish in their own corruption;

13 And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to indulge in the daytime. Spots they are and blemishes, mitzvoth themselves with their own deceptions while they celebrate their moeds with you; ³

14 Having eyes full of adultery, that cannot cease from sin; enticing unstable beings, having a lev of greed they have exercised covetous practices; children under a curse:

15 Who have forsaken the tzadik derech, and have gone astray, following the way of Bilam the son of Be'or, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

16 But was rebuked for his Torah-less-ness: the dumb donkey speaking with a man's voice forbad the madness of the navi.

17 These are wells without mayim, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved le-olam-va-ed.

18 For when they speak arrogant nonsense, they entice through the lusts of the flesh, through many indecencies, those that had indeed escaped from them who live in error.

19 While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the avadim of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

20 For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the olam hazeh through the da'at of the Master and Savior יהושע ha Moshiach, and if they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter-end is worse with them than the beginning. ⁴

21 For it had been better for them not to have known the halacha of tzedakah, than, after they have known it, to turn from the kadosh mitzvoth ⁵ delivered to them.

22 But it is happened to them according to the mishle

emet, The dog has returned to its own vomit again; and the pig that was washed to her rolling in the mud. ⁶

3 This second letter, beloved, I now write to you; in both letters I have stirred up your sincere minds by way of a reminder:

2 That you may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the kadosh neviim, and by the directions from us the shlichim of the Master and Savior:

3 Knowing this first, that there shall come in the acharit hayamim scoffers, walking after their own lusts,

4 And saying, Where is the promise of His coming? For since the ahvot ⁷ fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beresheeth of creation.

5 For they willingly are ignorant of this fact, that by the word of יהוה the shamayim were of old, and the earth standing out of the mayim and in the mayim:

6 Through which the olam that then was, being overflowed with mayim, perished:

7 But the shamayim and the earth, which are now, by the same word ⁸ are kept in store, reserved for the fire at the Yom HaDin and destruction of wicked men.

8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with Master יהוה as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

9 The Master יהוה is not slack concerning His promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering towards us, not willing that any should perish, ⁹ but that all should come to teshuvah.

10 But the day of the Master יהוה will come as a thief in the night; in which the shamayim shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are in it shall be burned up.

11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons should you be in all kadosh conduct and Shabbat-guarding piety,

12 Looking for and earnestly desiring the coming of the יהוה, in which the shamayim being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat!

13 Nevertheless we, according to His promise, look for renewed shamayim and a renewed olam, where tzedakah dwells.

14 So then, beloved, seeing that you look for such things, be diligent that you may be found by Him in shalom, without spot, and blameless.

15 And consider the long patience of our Master as salvation; even as our beloved brother Shaul also according to the chochmah given to him has written to you;

16 As also in all his letters, speaking in them of these things; in which some things are hard to understand, which they that are unlearned and unstable twist, as they do also the other Keetvay HaKadosh, to their own destruction.¹

17 You then, beloved ones, seeing you know these things² beforehand, beware lest you also, being led away with the delusion³ of Torah-less-ness, fall from your own steadfastness.⁴

18 But grow in favor, and in the da'at of our Master and Savior יהושע ha Moshiach. To Him be tifereth both now and le-olam-va-ed.

Amein. ׀

¹ The way YHWH has designed Paul's letters, is that they are a bit difficult to grasp through a Greco-Roman mindset. As such, YHWH tests us to see if we will adopt a Hebrew mindset instead. Also by twisting the true pro-Torah meanings of Paul's letters, we see for ourselves how highly unstable and immature we still are. So rather than complain about them and ignore them, or remove them (thinking incorrectly that they somehow violate Torah), let us use them as a test of our spiritual progress, which is what they were designed for. Even many rabbis fall into this immature and dangerous category. YHWH Himself calls us through Peter, to use Paul's letters as an ongoing test of our personal maturity and stability, in the things of Yahshua and His restored kingdom.

² About developing a mature attitude and understanding concerning Paul's letters.

³ The delusion that Paul is anti-Torah puts one in a delusion of lawlessness, when that is not the message being delivered by YHWH through him. Many in those days were denying Yahshua as YHWH's Son, because of delusions and misconceptions about Paul. Peter steps forward to warn Torah-guarding Yisraelites, not to do likewise, and not to fall prey to such delusion.

⁴ This Yisraelite walk is a lifelong pursuit.

Yochanan Alef – יוחנן א – First John
To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

1 He who ¹ was from Beresheeth, who we ² have heard, who we have seen with our eyes, who we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, we declare to you that He is the Torah of chayim.

2 And the chayim was manifested, and we have seen, and bear witness to, and declare to you that eternal chayim, that was with Abba and was manifested to us.

3 We announce to you that which we have seen and heard; that we declare to you, that you also may have chavurah with us; and truly our chavurah is with Abba and with His Son יהושע ha Moshiach.

4 And these things we write to you that your simcha may be full.

5 This is the message which we have heard from Him and declare to you, that יהוה is Light and in Him is no darkness at all.

6 If we say that we have chavurah with Him, and walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the emet.

7 But if we walk in the Light as He is in the Light, we have chavurah with one another, ³ and the dahm of יהושע ha Moshiach His Son cleanses us from all sin.

8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the emet is not in us.

9 If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His word is not in us.

2 My little children of Yisrael, these things I write to you, so that you may not sin. But if anyone sins, we have an Intercessor with Abba, יהושע ha Moshiach Ha-Tzadik.

2 And He Himself is the keporah offering for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the whole olam hazeh. ⁴

3 Now by this we know that we know Him, if we guard His mitzvoth. ⁵

4 He who says, I know Him, and does not guard His mitzvoth, is a liar, and the emet is not in him. ⁶

5 But whoever keeps His word; truly the ahava of יהוה is perfected in him. By this we know that we are in Him. ⁷

6 He who says he stays in Him, should himself also have his halacha just as He had His halacha. ⁸

7 Brothers, I write no new mitzvah to you, but an old mitzvah, which you have had, from Beresheeth. The old mitzvah is the word that you have heard from Beresheeth. ⁹

8 Again, a new mitzvah I write to you, which thing is emet in Him and in you, because the darkness is passing away, and the emet of Light is already shining.

9 He who says he is in the Light, and hates his brother, is in darkness until now. ¹⁰

10 He who loves his brother stays in the Light, and there is no cause for stumbling in him.

11 But he who hates his brother is in darkness and has his halacha in darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes. ¹¹

12 I write to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven for His Name's sake.

13 I write to you, ahvot, ¹² because you have known Him who is from Beresheeth. I write to you, young men, because you have overcome the wicked one. I write to you, little children, because you have come to know Abba.

14 I have written to you, ahvot, because you have known Him who is from Beresheeth. I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of יהוה stays in you, and you have overcome the wicked one.

15 Do not love the olam hazeh, or the things in the olam hazeh. If anyone loves the olam hazeh, the ahava of Abba is not in him.

16 For all that is in the olam hazeh; the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of chayim; is not of Abba but is of the olam hazeh.

17 And the olam hazeh is passing away, and the lust of it; but he who does the will of יהוה lives le-olam-va-ed.

18 Little children, it is the last hour; and as you have heard that the anti-Moshiach is coming, even now many anti-Moshiachs have come, by which we know that it is the final hour.

19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us; but they went out that they might be made manifest, that none of them were of us. ¹³

⁴ This is not teaching globalism, or salvation for every human, but rather displays the scope of His atonement as embracing all peoples and all Yisraelites in all nations.

⁵ Keeping Torah is a true yet simple test of anyone claiming discipleship status and, or Yisraelite citizenship.

⁶ How true.

⁷ Torah perfects Yisrael's love for The Father and Yahshua, and gives us assurance of salvation.

⁸ An evangelical talk without Yahshua's Torah walk is a lie.

¹⁰ In light of the two houses of Yisrael being restored, the hatred among brothers refers to Judah and Efrayim. The Good News is that in Yahshua's Light, there can be no more of that historical hatred.

¹¹ A key rebuke to all who deny Efrayim's existence as the latter-day gentiles, returning through Messiah to join Judah in the Light.

¹² Proof that mature believers in Yisrael are called spiritual fathers. Not a violation of Matthew 23 since there, Yahshua rebukes man's bestowing of titles, as opposed to YHWH doing the bestowing Himself.

YOCHANAN ALEF - FIRST JOHN

20 But you have an anointing from the Kadosh-One, and you know all things.

21 I have not written to you because you do not know the emet, but because you know it, and know that no lie is of the emet.¹

22 Who is a liar but he who denies that יהושע is the Moshiach? He is an anti-Moshiach, whoever denies the Abba and the Son.^{2 3}

23 Whoever denies the Son does not have Abba either; but he who acknowledges the Son has Abba also.⁴

24 As for you, let that stay in you which you have heard from Beresheeth. If what you heard from Beresheeth stays in you, you also will stay in the Son and in Abba.⁵

25 And this is the promise that He has promised us; eternal chayim.⁶

26 These things I have written to you concerning those who try to deceive you.⁷

27 But the anointing which you have received from Him stays in you, and you do not need that anyone teach you differently;⁸ but as the same anointing teaches you concerning all emet things, and is emet, and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, then you will stay in Him.⁹

28 And now, little children, stay in Him, so that when He appears, we may have confidence and not be ashamed before Him at His coming.

29 If you know that He is tzadik, you know that everyone who practices tzedakah is born of Him.

the faith, not a particular local assembly. That is not considered leaving the faith.

¹ Yisraelite believers can guard themselves from apostasy in the here and now. Once a Yisraelite becomes a heretic by denying either the Father, or His Son, Ivrim/Hebrews 6:4 states that it is no longer possible to return them to truth. See also Hebrews 10:29 and Second Peter 2:20-22.

² Those who teach unscriptural ideas of The Father and Son being the same as opposed to two powers (not persons) of the one-echad are called liars. This would also apply to those who bypass Yahshua entirely, claiming only the need for the Father as their Savior. That also is a devilish spirit.

⁴ From this alone, we see the "grave" errors of rabbinic Judaism.

⁵ In other words, if you really understand Torah from Genesis forward, you will always stay in the Son. Denying the Son displays one's ignorance of Torah and Torah justification.

⁶ The promise of life eternal is conditional based on our ability to recognize that the Father is not the Son and the Son is not the Father, and by a trust in both as YHWH.

⁷ Such as anti-Yahshua missionaries.

⁸ We all need solid biblical teaching.

⁹ If one listens to His teaching and not liars.

3 Behold what manner of ahava Abba has bestowed on us, that we should be called b'nai יהוה! Therefore the olam hazeh does not know us, because it did not know Him.¹⁰

2 Beloved, now we are b'nai יהוה; and it has not yet been revealed what we shall be, but we know that when He is revealed, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is.

3 And everyone who has this tikvah in Him purifies himself, just as He is pure.

4 Anyone who commits sin violates Torah, for sin is the transgression of the Torah.¹¹

5 And you know that He was manifested to take away our sins,¹² and in Him there is no sin.

6 Whoever stays in Him does not sin.¹³ Whoever sins has neither seen Him nor known Him.

7 Little children, let no one deceive you. He who does tzedakah¹⁴ is tzadik, just as He is tzadik.

8 He who sins is of s.a.tan, for s.a.tan has sinned from Beresheeth. For this purpose the Son of יהוה was manifested, that He might destroy the works of s.a.tan.

9 Whoever has been born of יהוה does not sin, for His zera remains in him; and he cannot sin, because he has been born of יהוה.¹⁵

10 In this the b'nai יהוה and the children of s.a.tan are manifest: Whoever does not do tzedakah is not of יהוה, nor is he who does not love his brother.¹⁶

11 For this is the message that you heard from Beresheeth, that we should love one another,¹⁷

12 Not as Qayin, who was of the wicked one, and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his works were evil and his brother's were tzadik.

13 Do not marvel, my Yisraelite brothers, if the olam hazeh hates you.

14 We know that we have passed from death to chayim, because we have ahava for the Yisraelite brothers. He who does not love his brother stays in death.

15 Whoever hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal chayim abiding in him.

16 By this we know ahava, because He laid down His chayim for us. And we also ought to lay down our chayim for our Yisraelite brothers.¹⁸

17 But whoever has this olam's necessities, and sees his brother in need, and shuts his lev from him, how does the ahava of יהוה live in him?

18 My little children let us not love in word, or in tongue,

¹⁰ Children of YHWH are reborn children of Yisrael.

¹¹ Therefore most believers who consider themselves "saints" are still sinning sinners. It may be a great time for a personal reality check, based on Scripture's definition of sin and sinful behavior.

¹² Take away our sins, not our Torah.

¹³ As a lifestyle. All can fall into sin.

but in mitzvoth and in emet.

19 And by this we know that we are of the emet, and shall establish our levim before Him.

20 For if our lev condemns us, יהוה is greater than our lev, and knows all things.

21 Beloved, if our lev does not condemn us, we have confidence towards יהוה.

22 And whatever we ask we receive from Him, because we guard His mitzvoth, and do those things that are pleasing in His sight.¹

23 And this is His great mitzvah: that we should believe on the Name² of His Son יהושע ha Moshiach and love one another, as He gave us that mitzvah.

24 Now he who keeps His mitzvoth stays in Him, and He in him. And by this we know that He stays in us, by the Ruach that He has given us.

4 Beloved Yisrael, do not believe every ruach, but test all the ruachim, whether they are of יהוה; because many false neviim have gone out into the olam hazeh.

2 By this shall you know the Ruach of יהוה: Every ruach that confesses that יהושע ha Moshiach has come in the flesh is from יהוה,

3 And every ruach that does not confess that יהושע ha Moshiach has come in the flesh is not from יהוה.³ And this is the ruach of the anti-Moshiach, which you have heard was coming, and is now already in the olam hazeh.

4 You are of יהוה, little children, and have overcome them,⁴ because He who is in you is greater than he who is in the olam hazeh.

5 They are from the olam-hazeh.⁵ Therefore they speak as from the olam-hazeh, and the olam-hazeh hears them.

6 We are from יהוה. He who knows יהוה hears us; he who is not from יהוה does not hear us. By this we know the Ruach of Emet and the ruach of error.

7 Beloved, let us love one another, for ahava is from יהוה; and everyone who has ahava is born from יהוה and knows יהוה.

8 He who does not have ahava does not know יהוה, for יהוה is Ahava.

9 In this the ahava of יהוה was manifested toward us; that יהוה has sent His only begotten Son into the olam hazeh, that we might live through Him.

10 In this is found that ahava, not that we loved יהוה, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the keporah for our sins.

11 Beloved, if יהוה so loved us; we also should love one another.⁶

12 No one has seen יהוה at any time. If we love one another, יהוה stays in us, and His ahava has been perfected in us.

13 By this we know that we stay in Him, and He in us, because He has given to us from His Ruach.

14 And we have seen and testify that the Abba has sent the Son as Savior of the olam-hazeh.⁷

15 Whoever confesses that יהושע is the Son of יהוה, יהוה stays in him, and he in יהוה.⁸

16 And we have known and believed the ahava that יהוה has for us. יהוה is Ahava, and he who stays in ahava, stays in יהוה, and יהוה in him.

17 Ahava has been perfected among us in this: that we may have boldness in the Yom HaDin; because as He is, so are we in the olam-hazeh.⁹

18 There is no fear in ahava; but perfect ahava casts out fear, because fear involves punishment. But he who fears punishment has not been made perfect in ahava.

19 We love Him because He first loved us.¹⁰

20 If someone says, I love יהוה, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love יהוה whom he has not seen?

21 And this mitzvah we have from Him: that he who loves יהוה must love his Yisraelite brother also.¹¹

5 Everyone who believes that יהושע is the Moshiach is begotten of יהוה: and every one that loves Him who begot, loves Him also who is begotten of Him.

2 By this we know that we love the b'nai יהוה, when we love יהוה, and guard His mitzvoth.¹²

3 For this is the ahava of יהוה, that we guard His mitzvoth: and His mitzvoth are not heavy and hard.¹³

4 For whoever is born of יהוה overcomes the olam-hazeh: and this is the victory that overcomes¹⁴ the olam-hazeh, even our emunah.

5 Who is he who overcomes the olam-hazeh, but he that believes that יהושע is the Son of יהוה?

6 This is He that came by mayim and dahm, even יהושע ha Moshiach; not by mayim only, but by mayim and dahm.¹⁵ And it is the Ruach that bears witness of this, because the Ruach is Emet.

⁶ Two-House admonition.

⁷ So much for those who believe that only The Father is called Savior. Technically, He saves through the Son making Him the Savior-Designer, not the Savior-Executor.

⁸ Staying in Him is harder than believing in Him.

⁹ Torah guardians.

¹⁰ Quite an understatement.

¹¹ Efrayim and Judah must learn to love and be one in Yahshua, but not in their own programs of restoration without King Yahshua.

¹² Torah trains us in love.

¹³ Despite what religion claims.

¹⁴ Notice the frequency of the word "overcomes." "Yisrael" means "overcomer with El," and therefore those trusting in Messiah are overcomers, or Yisra-El in Hebrew.

¹⁵ He shed blood and gushed water from His side.

¹ That and faith in Messiah is what identifies us as reborn Yisrael.

² Meaning that false names are not kosher for the believer.

³ Very simple. Many false Moshiachs came in the flesh. What John speaks of here is a coming in the flesh from eternity past to this world as stated in Micah 5:2. A warning to those who deny His pre-existence, and subsequent virgin birth. These denials were already problems for some back in the first century CE.

⁴ False doctrines, anti-missionaries and lying spirits.

⁵ Anti-Yahshua missionaries in all their variations.

YOCHANAN ALEF - FIRST JOHN

7 For there are three that bear witness:

8 The Ruach, and the mayim, and the dahm: and these three agree as Echad.

9 If we receive the witness of men, the witness of יהוה is greater: for this is the witness of יהוה that He has testified concerning His Son.

10 He that believes on the Son of יהוה has the witness in himself: he that believes not יהוה has made Him a liar; because he believes not the witness that יהוה gave of His Son.

11 And this is the witness, that יהוה has given to us eternal chayim, and this chayim is in His Son.

12 He that has the Son has chayim; and he that has not the Son of יהוה has not chayim.

13 These things have I written unto you that believe on the Name of the Son of יהוה; that you may know that you have eternal chayim, and that you may believe on the Name of the Son of יהוה.

14 And this is the confidence that we have in Him, that, if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us: ¹

15 And if we know that He hears us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desire from Him.

16 If any man sees his brother sin a sin, which is not unto death, he shall ask, and He shall give him chayim for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall make tefillah for it. ²

17 All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin that is not unto death.

18 We know that whoever is born of יהוה sins not; ³ but he that is begotten of יהוה guards himself, and the wicked one touches him not.

19 And we know that we are of יהוה, and that the whole olam-hazeh lies in the wicked one.

20 And we know that the Son of יהוה has come, and has given us binah, that we may know Him that is Emet, and we are in Him that is Emet, even in His Son יהושע ha Moshiach. He is the אלהא-Emet, and He is eternal chayim.

21 B'nai Yisrael, guard yourselves ⁴ from idols. ⁵

¹ All answered prayer is based on His will, not on commands given to YHWH by the proud and arrogant through formulas.

² Once someone truly falls away, they cannot be brought back, which is why we guard our faith before that happens and why we don't pray for those who have turned their back on Messiah Yahshua forever, as stated by the Spirit here. This may not be what we like to hear, but this is what Scripture teaches us here and in Ivrim/Hebrews 6:4. The purpose of this Scripture is to make sure all Yisraelites work overtime to guard their faith while they still have it, and while they still can. Of course, all things are still possible with YHWH on an exception basis, based on His mercy.

³ As a lifestyle.

Yochanan Bet – יוחנן ב – Second John To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

1 The zachen¹ to the chosen elect lady Kuria² and her children,³ whom I love in the emet; and not I only, but also all they that have known the emet;⁴
2 For the emet's sake, which dwells in us, and shall be with us le-olam-va-ed.⁵
3 Favor be with you, rachamim, and shalom, from Abba, and from the Master יהושע ha Moshiach, the Son of Abba, in emet and ahava.
4 I rejoiced greatly because I found your children having their halacha in emet,⁶ as we have received the same commandment from the Abba.⁷
5 And now I beseech you, lady,⁸ not as though I wrote a new commandment to you, but that which we had from Beresheeth,⁹ that we love one another.¹⁰
6 And this is ahava, that we have our halacha after His commandments. This is the commandment, as you have heard from Beresheeth, that you should have your halacha in it.¹¹
7 For many deceivers have entered into the olam hazeh, who confess not that יהושע ha Moshiach has come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an anti-Moshiach.¹²
8 Shomer yourselves, that we lose not those things for which we have worked and attained, but that we receive a full reward.¹³

9 Everyone committing Torah violation, by not staying in the teaching of Moshiach, has not אלהה. He that stays in the teaching of Moshiach has both the Abba and the Son.¹⁴
10 If anyone comes to you, and brings not this teaching,¹⁵ receive him not into your bayit, neither offer him shalom:¹⁶
11 For he that greets him even with a shalom, is a partaker of his wicked works.¹⁷
12 Having many things to write to you, I would not write with paper and ink: but I trust to come to you, and speak panayim-el-panayim, that our simcha may be full.¹⁸
13 The children of your elect sister greet you.¹⁹
Amein. ׀

SECOND JOHN

² Kuria - representing the House of Efrayim.
³ Efrayim's multitudes.
⁴ The common bond that unites both houses in truth and love. Both Kuria and her children and all those with John.
⁵ The truth of the kingdom restored which is an everlasting truth.
⁶ Through Messiah, Judah learns to rejoice greatly with Efrayim's return and position in the truth of restoration.
⁷ Torah.
⁸ Efrayim.
⁹ Torah.
¹⁰ That is what Messiah came to do. To end the war between the two houses.
¹¹ YHWH wants us to walk in this truth of Yisrael's redemption and healing that dates back to the Book of Genesis.
¹² Brother Judah warning returning Efrayim not to become so caught up in being like Judah, that she gives up and forfeits her elect status as Messiah's redeemed. Even in those days, just as today in larger numbers, many who are Efrayim have such a zeal for anything perceived to be Jewish, that they even go so far as denying Yahshua as YHWH manifested as the Son of YHWH. Note the tender care and affection of the elder sister.
¹³ It is up to the individual Yisraelite to guard the truth of YHWH coming in the flesh as Yahshua. It's not only the job of the rabbi, or spiritual leader. It's your job. Today, just as back then, Efrayimites and Jews are tossing in their elected lady status for a bowl of lentils and some orthodox tzitzit/ fringes. For assistance in guarding what Messiah has given His elect, see: <http://restorationscriptures.org/link11.htm>

¹⁴ Let this verse be the clearest and most clarion of all warnings to both chosen sisters. Any doctrine that denies Yahshua as YHWH manifested in the flesh commits sin, and is a violator of the Torah they claim to trust. The actual denial of Yahshua by either house, especially returning Efrayim, results in that poor soul not having the Father either. John deals with many falling away, even as we do today. They were falling away from the true Nazarene faith, since there was no false church system to fall away from in those days.
¹⁵ Plurality of divinity (biblical monotheism), and the divinity of Messiah.
¹⁶ If someone is known as a denier of Yahshua and the truth that He is YHWH's Only begotten Son (and not just another Name for the Father, or any similar perversion), as a believer, we are forbidden to allow him entry, or even to say a hearty "welcome." In this manner, both elected ladies will protect themselves. Of course Judah in the person of John, is seen as being the caring and older guardian of newly returning Efrayim.
¹⁷ Very personal, plain and chilling.
¹⁸ Just the way it should be. Judah and Efrayim face to face.
¹⁹ One elect sister writing to another. A continuation of the two twisted sisters of Ezekiel 23, becoming straightened out in righteousness by the truth of Messiah and His kingdom.

Yochanan Gimel – יוחנן ג –Third John
To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

1 The zachen to the beloved Gaios, whom I love in the emet.

2 Beloved, I wish above all things that you may prosper and be in health, even as your chayim prospers.

3 For I rejoiced greatly, when the Yisraelite brothers came and testified of the emet that is in you even as you have your halacha in the emet.

4 I have no greater simcha than to hear that my children have their halacha in emet.

5 Beloved, do faithfully whatever you do for the Yisraelite brothers, ¹ and also for the gerim; ²

6 Who have borne witness of your ahava before the congregation: who if you send them forward worthy of אלהים, then you shall do tov:

7 Because for His Name's sake they went forth, taking nothing from the gentiles. ³

8 Therefore we should receive such men, that we might be their fellow helpers for the emet.

9 I wrote to the Yisraelite congregation: but Diotrephes, who loves to be in the first position among them, receives us not.

10 So, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he does, gossiping against us with lashon hara: and not content with that, neither does he himself receive the Yisraelite brothers, and forbids them that would, and casts them out of the congregation. ⁴

11 Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is tov. He that does tov is of יהוה: but he that does evil has not seen יהוה.

12 Demetrios has a tov report among all men, and about the emet itself: yes, and we also bear record of him; and you know that our witness is emet.

13 I have many things to write, but I will not with ink and pen write to you:

14 But I trust I shall shortly see you, and we shall speak panayim-el-panayim. Shalom be to you. Our chaverim greet you. Greet the chaverim by name.

Amein. ת

THIRD JOHN

² Believers not born as physical Yisraelites who have become Yisrael through Yahshua.

³ A clear reference here that believers are Yisraelites and not gentiles. Those who live like Yisrael are to do the work of YHWH to bring honor to His true Name, staying set-apart from the pagans.

⁴ Sheep stealing.

Yahudah – יהודה – Jude
To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

1 Yahudah, the eved of יהושע ha Moshiach, and brother of Yaakov, to them that are kadosh by Abba יהוה, and preserved in יהושע ha Moshiach, and called:

2 Rachamim to you, and shalom, and ahava, be multiplied.

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write to you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write to you, and exhort you that you should earnestly contend for the emunah which was once for all time delivered to the Yisraelite kidushim.

4 For there are certain men who slipped in secretly, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, wicked men, turning the favor of our אלהא into indecency, and denying the only Master אלהא, and our Master יהושע ha Moshiach.¹

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though you once knew this, how that the Master יהוה, having saved the people out of the land of Mitzrayim, afterward destroyed them that believed not.

6 And the heavenly malachim who kept not their first dwelling, but left their own dwelling, He has reserved in everlasting chains under darkness for the mishpat of the great Yom HaDin.

7 Even as Sedom and Amora, and the cities around them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth as an example, suffering the mishpat of eternal fire.

8 Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, reject authority, and speak evil of His tifereth.

9 Yet Micha-El the chief malach, when contending with s.a.tan about the body of Moshe, did not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, the Master יהוה rebuke you.

10 But these speak evil of those things that they do not know: but what they know naturally, as unreasoning beasts,² in those things they corrupt themselves.

11 Woe to them! For they have gone in the way of Qayin, and ran with greed after the delusion of Bilam for a reward, and perished in the rebellion of Korach.

12 These are rocky reefs in your moadim of ahava to יהוה, when they feast³ with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without mayim, carried about by the winds; eytzim whose fruit decays, twice dead,⁴ plucked up by the roots;

13 Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering cochavim, for whom is reserved the blackness of darkness le-olam-va-ed.

14 And Chanok also, the seventh from Ahdahm, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Master יהוה comes with ten thousands of His Yisraelite kidushim,⁵

15 To execute mishpat upon all, and to convince all that are wicked among them of all their wicked deeds, which they have wickedly committed, and of all their harsh words which wicked sinners have spoken against Him.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaks proud words, being respecters of persons in order to seek gain.

17 But, beloved, remember the words which were spoken before by the shlichim of our Master-Yah יהושע ha Moshiach;

18 How that they told you there would be mockers in the yamim acharonim, who would walk after their own wicked lusts.

19 These are those who cause divisions, sensual, having not the Ruach.

20 But you, beloved, build yourselves up in your most kadosh emunah, making tefillot in the Ruach Hakodesh,⁶

21 Shomer yourselves in the ahava of אלהא, looking for the rachamim of our Master-Yah יהושע ha Moshiach to eternal chayim.

22 And have rachamim on some who doubt, making a difference:

23 And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even a garment defiled by the things of the flesh.

24 Now to Him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you blameless before the presence of His shechinah with exceeding simcha,

25 To the only אלהא our Savior, through יהושע ha Moshiach our Master-Yah be tifereth and majesty, authority and power, both now and le-olam-va-ed. Amein. ׀

Romiyah – רומי'א – Romans To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

1 Shaul, an eved of יהושע ha Moshiach, called to be a sholiach, set-apart to the Besorah of יהוה,
2 Which He had promised before by His neviim in the Keetvay HaKadosh,
3 Regarding His Son יהושע ha Moshiach our Savior, who was born of the zera of Dawid in the flesh;
4 And declared to be the Son of יהוה with power, according to the Ruach of set-apartness, by His resurrection from the dead:
5 By whom we have received unmerited favor and the calling of a sholiach, for obedience to the emunah that bears His Name¹ among all nations.²
6 Among whom are you also the called of יהושע ha Moshiach:
7 To all that be in Romiyah,³ beloved of יהוה, called to be Yisraelite kidushim: unmerited favor to you and shalom from יהוה our Abba, and the Savior יהושע ha Moshiach.
8 First, I thank my אלהא through יהושע ha Moshiach for you all, that your emunah is spoken of throughout the whole olam.
9 For יהוה is my witness, whom I serve with my ruach in the Besorah of His Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my tefillot;
10 Making requests, if at all possible that I might have a prosperous journey by the will of יהוה to come to you.
11 For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, so that you may be established;
12 That is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual emunah both yours and mine.
13 Now I would not have you ignorant, Yisraelite brothers, that oftentimes I purposed to come to you, but was previously hindered, that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other nations.
14 I am a debtor both to the Greeks, and to the foreigners;⁴ both to the wise, and to the unwise.
15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to proclaim the Besorah to you that are at Romiyah also.
16 For I am not ashamed of the Besorah of Moshiach: for it is the power of יהוה for salvation to every one that believes; to the Yahudi first, and also to the Greek and Aramean.⁵

17 For by the Besorah is the tzedakah of יהוה revealed from emunah to emunah:⁶ as it is written, The tzadik shall live by emunah.⁷
18 For the wrath of יהוה is revealed from the shamayim against all wickedness and all unrighteousness of men, who suppress the emet in unrighteousness;
19 Because that which could be known about יהוה is manifest in them; for יהוה has shown it to them.⁸
20 For the invisible things coming from Him from the creation of the olam hazeh are clearly seen, being understood by the things of creation, even His eternal power and divine nature; so that they are without excuse:⁹
21 Because that, when they knew יהוה, they esteemed Him not as אלהא, neither did they show hodu; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish lev became darkened.¹⁰
22 Claiming themselves to be wise, they became fools,¹¹
23 And changed the tifereth of the incorruptible אלהא into an image made like corruptible man, such as birds, and four footed beasts, and other creeping things.
24 Therefore יהוה also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own levim, to dishonor their own bodies between themselves:
25 Who changed the emet of יהוה into a lie,¹² and worshipped and served the creation more than the Creator, baruch shemoh.
26 For this cause יהוה gave them up to vile affections: for even their women did change the natural sexual relations into that which is against nature:
27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural sexual

¹ The one true faith must bear, or deliver His Name to the nations. Any message not sealed in YHWH's Name is not the real message.
² The faith is to all nations in whom the seed of Jacob is found. The word ethnoses does not necessarily mean gentile pagans and cannot be limited to such. Paul was an apostle to the nations, not the pagans in the nations.
³ Correct Aramaic word.
⁴ Notice the contrast between Greeks and foreigners. The Greeks of that day were known to be Yisraelites, as stated in First Maccabees 12. For more details see The Greeks Of The Brit Chadasha at: <http://restorationscriptures.org/link28.htm> or the article at: <http://restorationscriptures.org/link52.htm>

⁵ Arami Strong's Hebrew # 761, using both the Greek and Aramaic versions. In either case, the Greeks were known to be Yisraelites, and the Arameans were the actual ancestors of the patriarchs of Yisrael as recorded in Torah. The seven congregations in Asia Minor in Revelation in the area of modern Turkey were also known areas of northward Efrayimite migration. Using both the Greek and Aramaic here, the message to the Yisraelite nations along with Judah becomes even more evident.

⁶ Faith for the Jew and the Greek/Aramean, thus the two-fold, two-house pronouncement.
⁷ Actually more accurately "the just shall live by His faith," or have the faith of Yahshua, not merely faith in Yahshua.
⁸ Creation, or the witness of creation.
⁹ Creation testifies of YHWH in the absence of human messengers, so mankind has no excuse.
¹⁰ Notice this cannot be speaking of pagans, since those being addressed once knew Him as YHWH and Savior, and became foolish and darkened. This again is another indication that Paul knew exactly who these people once were.
¹¹ At one time they were not foolish.

relationship with the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men committing shameful acts, and receiving back in their own selves repayment for their error.

28 And even as they did not like to retain יהוה in their da'at, יהוה released them to a wasted mind, to do those things that are improper;

29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, fighting, deceit, evil thinking; whisperers,

30 Backbiters, haters of יהוה, spiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,

31 Without binah, or discernment, brit breakers, cold and without ahava, unforgiving, ruthless:

32 Who knowing the mishpat of יהוה, that those who commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but also take pleasure in others that do them.

2 Therefore you are inexcusable, O man, whoever you are who judges: for in your mishpat of another, you condemn yourself; because you who judge do the same things.

2 But we are sure that the mishpat of יהוה is according to emet against those who commit such things.

3 And do you really think, O man, that judges them who do such things, and do the same, that you shall escape the mishpat of יהוה?

4 Or, do you stand against the riches of His rachamim and tolerance and patience; by not knowing that the rachamim of יהוה can lead you to teshuvah?

5 But after your hardness and unrepentant lev you are storing up for yourself great wrath against the yom of His wrath and the revelation of the tzadik mishpat of יהוה;

6 Who will render to every man according to his mitzvot:¹

7 To them who by continuing patiently in well doing seek for tifereth, honor, immortality and eternal chayim:²

8 But to those that are contentious against the emet, and do not obey the emet, but actually obey unrighteousness, will come indignation and wrath,

9 Tribulation and anguish, upon every being that does evil, upon the Yahudi first, and also upon the Greek and Aramean;³

10 But tifereth, honor, and shalom, to every man that does tov mitzvot, to the Yahudi first, and also to the Greek and Aramean:⁴

11 For there is no partiality with יהוה.

12 For as many as have sinned without Torah da'at shall also perish without Torah da'at: and as many as have sinned with Torah da'at shall be judged by that Torah da'at;

13 For not the hearers of Torah da'at are just before יהוה, but the doers of the Torah shall be tzadikim.⁵

14 For when the nations, which have not Torah da'at, do by nature the things contained in the Torah, these, having not the Torah da'at, have an inbred Torah for themselves:

15 Which shows the work of the Torah written on their levim, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts will either accuse, or else excuse one another.

16 In the Yom when יהוה shall judge the secrets of men⁶ by יהושע ha Moshiach according to my Besorah.

17 See, you are called a Yahudi, who trusts in the Torah, and makes your boast in your אלהא, 22 You that say a man should not commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You that hate idolatry, do you rob temples?

⁶ A hint, or remez to the men of Yisrael according to Ezekiel 34:31.

⁷ This reference was given to the House of Yisrael, or Efrayim, stating that because of their conduct, YHWH's Name was desecrated among all the nations. Clearly Paul is identifying the believers in Rome as the very same ones who desecrated the Name, as originally admonished in Ezekiel 36:20-23.

⁹ The word for uncircumcision is akrobustia, meaning "tossed-away foreskins," or those once Yisrael, previously confirmed by circumcision. Those who have now tossed it all away, including their obedience to Torah, and their precious heritage to become mixed with and become one flesh with the nations. This term appears throughout the Renewed Covenant when speaking of returning Efrayim-Yisrael. If these were true pagans in Rome, the Greek word to be used would be the word aperitome, or the negation of the word peritome (Strong's Greek # 4061) for circumcision. This unique term gives us great insight that these were the lost sheep of Yisrael, the akrobustia and not the 27 And shall not the akrobustia by nature, if they completely perform³ the Torah, judge you, even though you follow the letter and the brit-milah, but still transgress the Torah?

28 For he is not a Yahudi, which is one outwardly; neither is that brit-milah, which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Yahudi, who is one inwardly; and brit-milah is that of the lev, in the Ruach, and not in the letter; whose tehilla is not from men, but from יהוה.⁴

3 What advantage then has the Yahudi? Or, what profit is there in brit-milah?

2 Much in every way: primarily, because they were the first to be entrusted with the oracles of יהוה and the first to believe in His word.⁵

3 For what if some did not believe? Shall their unbelief nullify emunah in יהוה?

4 By no means: yes, let יהוה be emet, but every man a liar; as it is written, That You might be proven tzadik by Your words, and triumph when You judge.

5 But if our unrighteousness establishes the tzedakah of יהוה,⁶ what shall we say? Is יהוה unrighteous when He inflicts wrath? I speak as a man.

6 By no means: for then how shall He judge the olam hazeh?

7 For if the emet of יהוה has increased through my lying nature for His tifereth; why am I still judged as a sinner?

8 And not rather – as some slander us by reports, and as some affirm that we say, Let us do evil, that tov may come –⁷ Their condemnation for this is le-olam-va-ed.⁸

9 What then? Are we better than them? No, in no way: for we have proven before that the Yahudim, Greeks and Arameans, are all under sin;

10 As it is written, There is not one tzadik, no, not one:

11 There is none that understands, there is none that seeks after אלהא.

12 They are all gone out of the halacha; they have all together become worthless; there is none that does tov, no, not one.

13 Their throat is an open tomb; with their languages they have spoken deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips:

14 Whose mouths are full of cursing and bitterness:

15 Their feet are swift to shed dahm:

16 Destruction and misery are in their halachot:

17 And the halacha of shalom have they not known:

18 There is no fear of אלהא before their eyes.

19 Now we know that what things the Torah says, it says to those who are living by Torah: that every mouth may be stopped, and all of the olam hazeh may become guilty before יהוה.⁹

20 Therefore by the mitzvot of the Torah alone, without heartfelt emunah, there shall no flesh be justified in His sight: for by the Torah comes the da'at of sin.

21 But now the tzedakah of יהוה apart from the Torah is manifested, being witnessed by the Torah and the neviim;¹⁰

22 Even the tzedakah of יהוה which is by emunah on יהושע ha Moshiach to all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:¹¹

23 For all have sinned, and come short of the tifereth of יהוה;

24 Being justified freely by His unmerited favor through the geulah that is in Moshiach יהושע:

25 Who יהוה has set forth to be a keporah through emunah in His dahm, to declare His tzedakah for the remission of sins that are past.

26 To declare, I say, at this time His tzedakah: that He might be tzadik, and the justifier of anyone who believes on יהושע.

27 Where is man's boasting then? It is worthless. By what Torah is man made tzadik? By mitzvot alone? No: but by the Torah of emunah.

28 Therefore we conclude that a man is made a tzadik by emunah apart from the mitzvot of the Torah.

29 Is He the אלהא of the Yahudim only? Is He not also the אלהא of the nations? Yes, of course, aperitome, or true pagans, that had never been circumcised. This word was put into the inspiration of Scripture, to differentiate between the "tossed away foreskinned ones," as opposed to the never-circumcised pagans. Even Greek scholars are stumped by this unique and unusual term, and cannot explain how and why it appears throughout Scripture. But with a proper two-house understanding, it makes perfect sense.

² If returning Efrayim guards Torah, won't YHWH accept them back?

³ Execute and perform. Strong's Greek #5055 teleo.

⁴ This does not mean that the real Jews are now the Christians. It means that a real Jew will have both the heart circumcision and the flesh circumcision, and the akrobustia, or returning Efrayimite will also have both. In this way all are equal in Yisrael having both the physical and spiritual circumcision in place. If either one is missing, then that person cannot be part of the true Yisrael of YHWH, despite their boasting.

⁵ Aramaic Peshitta.

⁶ By Messiah.

⁷ Paul never taught, or allowed Torah-less living among his students, and those who accused him of such things were liars, as there remain many of those same liars today.

⁸ A sober warning to all who insist that the Pauline epistles negate Torah for all believers.

⁹ Both Torah-keepers and those who don't obey Torah are all guilty before YHWH.

¹⁰ Faith in Messiah is spoken of in Torah. Yet eternal life needs to be received apart from Torah, by an open heart to His corporal reality.

¹¹ No difference between both houses and pagans. All need Yahshua and Torah, and all receive Yahshua apart from Torah, by an expression, or exercise of personal trust.

of the nations also:

30 Since it is אלהא-Echad, who shall justify the brit-milah by emunah, and the akrobustia through emunah.

31 Do we then make void the Torah through personal emunah? By no means: actually we establish the Torah.¹

4 What shall we say then about Avraham our abba,² who lived in the flesh, before אלהא called him?

2 For if Avraham were justified by mitzvoth alone, he has something to boast about; but not before יהוה.

3 For what says the Katuv? Avraham believed יהוה, and it was counted to him for tzedakah.³

4 Now to him that performs mitzvoth alone is the reward not given as unmerited favor, but as a debt.

5 But to him that works not, but believes on Him that makes tzadik the unrighteous, his emunah is counted as tzedakah.

6 Even as Dawid also described the blessed status of the man, to whom יהוה imputes tzedakah without mitzvoth,

7 Saying, Blessed are they whose Torah-less-ness is forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

8 Blessed is the man to whom יהוה will not impute sin.

9 Does this blessed status come upon the brit-milah only, or also upon the akrobustia also? For we say that emunah was imputed to Avraham as tzedakah.

10 How was it then imputed? When he was in brit-milah, or in akrobustia? Not in brit-milah, but in akrobustia.⁴

11 And he received the sign of brit-milah, as a seal of the tzedakah of his emunah while he was yet akrobustia: that he might be the abba of all them that believe, though they may not be circumcised; that tzedakah might be imputed to them also:

12 And the abba of brit-milah to them who are not of the brit-milah only, but who also have their halacha in the steps of the emunah of our abba Avraham, which he had being yet akrobustia.⁵

13 For the promise, that he should be the heir of the olam hazeh, was not to Avraham, or to his zera, through the Torah, but through the tzedakah of his emunah.

14 For if those who are of the Torah alone are the heirs, emunah is made void, and the promise made of none effect:

15 Because the Torah works wrath: for where no Torah is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is by emunah, that it might be by unmerited favor; to the end that the promise might be made certain to all the zera; not to that only which is of the Torah,⁶ but to those also who are of the emunah of Avraham; who is the abba of us all,⁷

17 As it is written, I have made you an abba of many nations, before Him whom he believed, even יהוה, who makes alive the dead, and calls those things which are not as though they were.

18 Who against tikvah believed in tikvah, that he might become the abba of many nations; according to that which was spoken, so shall your zera be.⁸

19 And being not weak in emunah, he considered not his own body almost dead, when he was about one hundred years old, neither the deadness of Sarah's womb:

20 He did not doubt the promise of יהוה through any unbelief; but was strong in emunah, giving tifereth to יהוה;

21 And being fully persuaded that, what He had promised, He was able also to perform.⁹

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for tzedakah.

23 Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him alone;

¹ Will religion ever get this right? Faith in Yahshua brings us back home and establishes Torah.

² Father of all Yisraelite nations.

⁴ Some two-house critics use this single verse as some sort of alleged proof text, attempting to negate all other clear akrobustia references to Efrayim, by stating that Abraham was not an Efrayimite. They claim that because YHWH still called him akrobustia, then akrobustia cannot mean "tossed-away foreskins," but simply means "never uncircumcised." The problem with that is that through their ignorance, they forgot that as a descendant of Noah who knew right from wrong (i.e., Torah principles), paganism had set into the family – even into Abraham's father Terah and all in his house. Therefore from YHWH's point of view, Abraham's house had tossed away all the truth and set-apartness of Noah and his son Shem, and thereby the act, or covenant of circumcision was tossed away by Abraham's house, only to again be renewed with Abraham. YHWH knowing that Abraham's ancestors had become akrobustia, applies this term to Abraham before the renewal of the rite, as opposed to using the word aperitome, which would have meant that all of Abraham's ancestors were pagans and had no Torah knowledge.

⁵ He was the father through Isaac and Jacob of both houses. Of the Jews, by being the father of the circumcised and of the akrobustia Efrayimites who are returning, by being himself a returnee - a crossover - or one who ev-ers as a returning Hebrew. In Hebrew, one who crosses over is called an Ivri. Ivri comes from the root word ev-er meaning "to cross over to truth from paganism." So both before and after his circumcision, he still fathered one of the two houses of Yisrael, despite one being circumcised and the other akrobustia, since he at one time was both. YHWH accepted him in both states, even as He accepts both houses in their wanderings and their unfaithfulness, in their return through Messiah.

⁶ Judah in first-century terms.

⁷ Efrayim-Yisrael who shares the patriarchs with Jewish-Yisrael. This applies physically as well as spiritually.

⁸ All of these chosen nations were to come through Jacob. Ishmael and Esau were never promised to birth nations but only a single great nation.

⁹ Fill the world with his seed through Jacob.

ROMIYAH – ROMANS

24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on Him that raised up יהושע our Savior from the dead;

25 Who was delivered for our willful transgressions, and was raised again for our justification.

5 Therefore being justified by emunah, we have shalom with יהוה through our Savior יהושע ha Moshiach:

2 By whom also we have access by this emunah into this unmerited favor in which we stand, and rejoice in the tikvah of the tifereth of יהוה.

3 And not only so, but we tifereth in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation works patience;

4 And patience, experience; and experience, tikvah:

5 And tikvah makes us bold; because the ahava of יהוה is shed abroad in our levim by the Ruach Hakodesh that is given to us.

6 For when we were yet without strength, in due time Moshiach died for the unrighteous.

7 Hardly for a wicked¹ man will one die: yet maybe for a tov man some would even dare to die.

8 But יהוה manifested His ahava towards us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Moshiach died for us.²

9 Much more then, being made tzadik by His dahm, we shall be saved from wrath through Him.

10 For if, when we were enemies, we were restored to יהוה³ by the death of His Son, much more, being restored, shall we be saved by His chayim.⁴

11 And not only this, but we also simcha in יהוה through our Savior יהושע ha Moshiach, by whom we have now received the keporah.

12 Therefore, as by one man sin entered into the olam hazeh, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for all have sinned:

13 For before the Torah sin was in the olam hazeh: but sin is not imputed when there is no Torah.

14 Nevertheless, death reigned from Ahdahm to Moshe, even over all those that had not sinned after the sin of Ahdahm's transgression, who is the type of Him that was to come.

15 But the gift is not like the fall of man. For if through the fall of one man many died, how much more through the unmerited favor of יהוה, and His gift of unmerited favor, which also came by one Man, יהושע ha Moshiach, is increased for many more.

16 And the fall of man is not as great as is the gift: for the mishpat of one led to the condemnation of many, but the free gift of forgiveness from many offences, resulted in the justification of many more.

17 For if by one man's offense death reigned by one; much more they who receive overflowing unmerited favor and the gift of tzedakah shall reign in chayim by One, יהושע ha Moshiach.

18 Therefore as by the offense of one mishpat came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the tzedakah of One, the free gift came upon all men for justification and victory to chayim.

19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of One shall many be made tzadik.

20 Moreover the Torah entered, so that trespasses would officially increase. But where sin increased, unmerited favor did much more abundantly increase:

21 So that as sin has reigned to death, even so might unmerited favor reign through tzedakah to eternal chayim by יהושע ha Moshiach our Savior.

6 What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, so that unmerited favor may increase more than sin?

2 Let it not be! How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer in it?

3 Know you not, that as many of us as were immersed into יהושע ha Moshiach were immersed into His death?

4 Therefore we are buried with Him by mikvah into death: that like our Moshiach who was raised up from the dead by the tifereth of Abba, even so we also should have our halacha in a new chayim.

5 For if we have been planted together in the likeness of His death, we shall be also raised in the likeness of His resurrection:

6 Knowing this, that our old man⁵ has been impaled with Him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that from now on we should not serve sin.

7 For he that is dead is freed from serving sin.

8 Now if we are dead with Moshiach, we believe that we shall also live with Him:

9 Knowing that Moshiach being raised from the dead dies no more; death has no more dominion over Him.

10 For in that He died, He died to sin once: but in that He lives, He lives to יהוה.

11 In like manner consider yourself also to be dead indeed to sin, but alive to יהוה through יהושע ha Moshiach our Savior.

12 Let not sin therefore have rule in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its hurtful desires.

13 Neither yield your members as instruments of unrighteousness to sin: but yield yourselves to יהוה, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of tzedakah to יהוה.

14 For sin shall not have dominion over you: for you are not under the law of sin,⁶ but under unmerited favor.

15 What then? Shall we sin again, because we are free from the law of sin, but under unmerited favor? Let it not be.

16 Know you not, that to whom you yield yourselves avadim to obey, His avadim you become; whether of sin to death, or of Torah obedience to tzedakah?

² Note: Before we were circumcised as an act of obedience.

³ Both houses were restored even while in sin and of course we as individuals as well.

⁴ We are justified and redeemed by His blood, but we are saved by His life.

⁵ Old nature and inclination toward evil called the yetzer harah.

⁶ Not the Torah itself, but the "law of sin", which enslaved us, spoken of further in chapter 7:23, 25 and elsewhere.

ROMIYAH – ROMANS

17 But יהוה be given hodu that you were the avadim of sin, but you have obeyed from the lev that form of instruction that was delivered to you.

18 Being then made free from sin, you became the avadim of tzedakah.

19 I speak like a man does because of the limitations of your comprehension in the flesh: for as you have yielded your body's members as avadim to uncleanness and to Torah-less-ness; even so now yield your body's members as avadim to tzedakah and set-apartness.

20 For when you were the avadim of sin, you were free from tzedakah.

21 What fruit did you have then in those things that you are now ashamed of? For the end of those things is death.

22 But now being made free from sin, having become avadim to יהוה, you have your fruit to set-apartness, with the end result being everlasting chayim.

23 For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of יהוה is eternal chayim through יהושע ha Moshiach our Master.

7 Know you not, Yisraelite brothers, for I speak to them that know the Torah, how that the Torah has dominion over a man as long as he lives?

2 For the woman who has a husband is bound by the Torah to her husband so long as he lives; but if the husband is dead, she is loosed from the torah of her husband.¹

3 So then if, while her husband lives, she is married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress; but if her husband is dead, she is free from the torah of her husband; so that she is not an adulteress, though she gets married to another man.

4 So you see, my Yisraelite brothers, you also have become dead to the torah of your husband by the body of Moshiach; that you should be married to another, even to Him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit to יהוה.²

5 For when we were in the flesh, the passions of sins, through the Torah, did work in our members to bring forth fruit to death.³

6 But now we are delivered from the torah of our husband, being dead to what we were held by; that we should serve in newness of Ruach, and not in the oldness of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the Torah a sinful, or sin-causing instrument? Let it not be! No, I had not known about sin, except by the Torah: for I had not known lust, except the Torah had said, You shall not covet.

8 But sin, by means of the commandment, provoked in me all manner of desire. For without the Torah sin was dead.

9 For I was alive without the full Torah once: ⁴ but when the commandments came, sin revived, and I died.⁵

10 And the commandments, which were ordained to bring chayim, I found to bring death.

11 For sin, taking opportunity by the commandments, deceived me, and by it killed me.

12 Therefore the Torah is kadosh, and the mitzvot are kadosh, and just, and tov.

13 Then was that which is tov made into death for me? Let it not be! But sin, that it might appear to be sin, worked death in me by that which is tov; so that sin by the mitzvot might become exceedingly sinful.⁶

14 For we know that the Torah is full of the Ruach: but I am of the flesh, sold under sin.

15 For I do not know what is going on: for what I purpose to do in obeying Torah, that I do not do; but what I hate in the olam hazeh, that I wind up doing.

16 If then I do that which I do not want to do, I consent to the Torah that it is tov.⁷

17 Now then it is no more I that do sinful deeds, but sin that dwells in my flesh.

18 For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwells no tov thing: for the choice and desire to do the right thing is present with me; but how to perform that which is tov evades me.

19 For the tov that I should do I do not: but the evil that I desire not, that I wind up doing.

20 Now if I do what I should not do, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwells in me.

21 I find then an interesting Torah, that, when I would do tov by the Torah, evil is still present with me.

22 For I delight in the Torah of יהוה after the inward man:

23 But I see another torah in my members, warring against the Torah of my mind,⁸ and bringing me into captivity to the torah of sin, which is in my members.

⁴ Adam and Eve had only one command.

⁵ All humanity.

⁶ It comes down to this. The Torah and the flesh are a deadly combination, for the flesh seeks violation and loopholes. The Spirit and Messiah in us seeks obedience not loopholes, and as such the Torah appeals to the flesh until that flesh is destroyed by Messiah, and thus Torah can become helpful and a blessing again. So YHWH's challenge was removing us from our fallen condition – not removing the Torah from fallen man.

⁷ Therefore the sin nature needs to be impaled – not the set-apart Torah itself.

⁸ The battle is between the Torah in his heart and mind, versus the law of sin and death in his flesh. The battle is between these two factors, not between law and unmerited favor, since walking in Torah is a life full of unmerited favor, and walking in unmerited favor is a life full of laws.

¹ Not the entire Torah but only that aspect of the Torah.

² The death is not to the Torah, but to the particular ordinance of a man and his wife. Since Yisrael was the adulterous bride, YHWH couldn't take her back unless the husband died, and unless she was cleansed and forgiven, which is what happened when Yahshua died. Yisrael was free from the marriage covenant, and YHWH in His love took her back after death, fulfilling both the law of an adulterous woman and the law of jealousy. For more details see: Coming Clean at: <http://restorationscriptures.org/link29.htm>

³ The flesh sought loopholes to avoid Torah, and thus led to sin. The flesh and the Torah are a deadly combination, whereas the Torah and the Messiah, bring life.

ROMIYAH – ROMANS

24 O wretched man that I am! Who shall deliver me from the body of this death?¹

25 Hodu be to יהוה through יהושע ha Moshiach our Savior. So then with the mind I myself serve the Torah of יהוה, but with the flesh the torah of sin.

8 There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Moshiach יהושע, who have their halacha not after the flesh, but after the Ruach.

2 For the Torah of the Ruach of chayim in Moshiach יהושע has made me free from the torah of sin and death.²

3 For what the Torah could not do, because it was powerless regarding man's weak flesh, יהוה sending His own Son in the likeness of that same sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned all sin in man's flesh:

4 That the tzedakah of the Torah might be fulfilled in us, who have their halacha not after the flesh, but after the Ruach.³

5 For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Ruach the things of the Ruach.

6 For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is chayim and shalom.

7 Because the carnal mind is enmity against יהוה: for it is not subject to the Torah of יהוה, neither indeed can be.⁴

8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please יהוה.⁵

9 But you are not in the flesh, but in the Ruach, if in fact the Ruach of יהוה dwells in you. Now if any man does not have the Ruach of Moshiach, he is none of His.⁶

10 And if Moshiach be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the ruach is alive because of tzedakah.

11 But if the Ruach of Him that raised up יהושע from the dead lives in you, He that raised up Moshiach from the dead shall also bring chayim to your mortal bodies by His Ruach that dwells in you.

12 Therefore, Yisraelite brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh and its torah.

13 For if you live after the flesh, you shall die: but if you allow the Ruach to mortify the deeds and desires of your body, you shall live.

14 For as many as are led by the Ruach of יהוה, they are the b'nai יהוה.

15 For you have not received the Ruach of bondage again to fear, but you have received the Ruach of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Abba.⁷

16 The Ruach itself bears witness with our ruach, that we are b'nai יהוה:

17 And if children, then heirs; heirs of יהוה, and joint-heirs with Moshiach; so that since we suffer with Him, we will also be esteemed together.

18 For I'm sure that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the tifereth that shall be revealed in us.

19 For the intense expectation of all of the creation waits for the manifestation of the b'nai יהוה.

20 For creation was made subject to vanity, not willingly, or originally, but by reason of Him who has subjected creation to wait in tikvah, 21 Because the creation itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the beautiful liberty of the b'nai יהוה.

22 For we know that all of creation groans and travails in pain together until now.

23 And not only creation, but we ourselves, who have the bikkurim of the Ruach, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, specifically, the geulah of our body.

24 For we are saved by tikvah: but tikvah that is seen is not tikvah: for what a man actually sees, he does not need to have tikvah for!

25 But if we have tikvah for what we do not yet see, then with patience we willingly wait for it.

26 Likewise the Ruach also helps our weaknesses: for we know not how we should make tefillah as we should: but the Ruach makes tefillah for us with groaning that cannot be described.

27 And He that searches the levim knows what is the mind of the Ruach, because the Ruach makes tefillah for the Yisraelite kidushim according to the will of יהוה.

28 And we know that all things work together for tov to them that love יהוה, to those who are the called⁸ according to His purpose.

29 For whom He did foreknow, He also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of His Son, that He might be the Bachor among many Yisraelite brothers.⁹

30 Moreover whom He did predestine, those He also called: and whom He called, those He also justified: and whom He justified, those He also esteemed.

31 What shall we say then to these things? If יהוה is for us, who can be against us?

32 He that spared not His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things?

33 Can anyone bring any charge against יהוה's chosen people Yisrael? It is יהוה that makes us tzadikim.

34 Who is the only One that could condemn His chosen people? It is the Moshiach who died, yes. But instead of ¹ He cries out for deliverance from the wretched body, not the "wretched Torah" as some have tried to teach.

² Contrast between true versus evil torah of sin.

³ Walking in the Spirit will cause all believers to obey Torah.

⁴ The carnal mind is the mind of the flesh.

⁵ Because people in the flesh cannot be in obedience to Torah, unlike those in the Spirit.

⁶ He is none of His and cannot follow Torah.

⁷ Every human needs adoption into YHWH's family including Judah, and as such we become the Yisrael of YHWH, crying to The Father through Yahshua, and even our speech and lifestyle resemble that of the Hebrew speaker. Notice what doesn't come out from our mouth is false Greek, or Latin titles and substitutes when being led by the Spirit.

ROMIYAH – ROMANS

condemning us, He has risen, to the right hand of יהוה, and He now makes intercession for us.¹

35 Who then shall separate us from the ahava of Moshiach? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

36 As it is written, For Your sake we are killed all day long; we are counted as sheep for the slaughter.²

37 No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us.

38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor chayim, nor heavenly malachim, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creation, shall be able to separate us from the ahava of יהוה, which is in Moshiach יְהוֹשֻׁעַ our Savior.

9 I say the emet in Moshiach, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Ruach, HaKodesh

2 That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my lev.

3 For if it were possible I myself would wish to be banished from Moshiach for my Yisraelite brothers, my kinsmen according to the flesh:³

4 Who are Yisraelites; to whom pertains the adoption, and the tifereth, and the covenants, and the giving of the Torah, and the worship, and the promises;

5 Who are the ahvot, from whom Moshiach came in the flesh, who is the אֱלֹהִים over all, יהוה the Blessed One le-olam-va-ed.

6 Not as though the word of יהוה has failed in Yisrael. For they are not all still Yisrael, who are from Yisrael:⁴

7 Neither, because they are the zera of Avraham, are they all b'nai Yisrael: but, In Yitzchak shall your zera be called.^{5 6}

¹ Meaning how can He condemn us, when He's busy helping and praying for us.

² A quote from Elijah about Yisrael's leaders being killed. This is further evidence that those being persecuted for Messiah in Paul's day were from the same nation as the ones being slaughtered in Elijah's day.

³ Jewish-Yisrael, or House of Judah.

⁴ One of the most misquoted and misunderstood verses used even by haters of Jewish-Yisrael. It simply means that some Jews did not receive the living Word, but there are other parts of Yisrael that have, where the word has taken hold such as in non-Jewish, or Efrayim-Yisrael. Moreover, being born as biological Yisrael, is just step one in a two-step process that must be followed up by the new birth. So the expression "not all Yisrael are Yisrael," applies to anyone who may be biological Yisrael, but has not been regenerated by the Spirit.

⁵ First, Jewish-Yisrael in order to be Yisrael must become like Isaac. Isaac was a regenerated individual in covenant relationship with YHWH, the chosen offspring of Abraham. We see this confirmed in Galatians 4:28. So then Yisrael as a nation cannot be divided along the lines of spiritual, or physical Yisrael, since unless one can claim both physical birth and spiritual rebirth, one may be a biological Yisraelite like those in Judah, and yet not be regenerated like Isaac was.

⁶ Take note: Being a descendant of Abraham does not mean someone is a physical Yisraelite. Rather physical

8 That is, those who are children of the flesh, these are not the b'nai יהוה: but the b'nai-brit are counted as the zera.⁷

9 For this is the word of promise, At this time will I come, and Sarah shall have a son.

10 And not only this; but when Rivkah also had conceived by one, even by our abba Yitzchak;

11 For the children being not yet born, neither having done any tov, or evil, that the purpose of יהוה according to choice might stand, not of works, but of Him that does the calling;

12 It was said to her, The older boy shall serve the younger.⁸

13 As it is written, Yaakov have I loved, but Esav have I hated.

14 What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with יהוה? Let it not be!

15 For He says to Moshe, I will have chen on whom I will have chen, and I will have rachamim on whom I will have rachamim.

16 So then it is not within reach of him that wishes, nor of him that strives in the flesh to be Yisrael, but of יהוה that shows rachamim.

17 For the Katuv says to Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised you up, that I might show My power in you, and that My Name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore He has rachamim on whom He will have rachamim, and He hardens the levim of those He does not choose.

19 You might say then to me, Why does He find fault with some that He does not choose? For who has resisted His will?

20 No but, O man, who are you that replies and talks back to יהוה? Shall the thing formed say to Him that formed it, Why have you made me this way?

21 Does not the potter have power over the clay, from the same lump to make one vessel to honor, and another to dishonor?¹⁰

22 What if יהוה, willing to show His wrath, and to make His power known, endured with much patience the vessels of wrath prepared for destruction:¹¹

Yisraelite descent must be found to be through Isaac and Jacob. Moreover, the Ishmaelites cannot be biological Yisrael, though the door is open for them to join and dwell with Yisrael, at which point after being born again they are to be considered Yisrael both physically and spiritually.

⁷ As stated, the Yisrael of YHWH is both physical and spiritual Yisrael. If one is merely physical Yisrael, they cannot be like Isaac, a spiritual child of promise. This applies equally to both houses.

⁸ Yisrael called to be the head and not the tail.

⁹ When YHWH calls His Yisrael, it is a display of choice not human will, and moreover it is for the purpose of representing all that He is, including His Name YHWH.

¹⁰ Note that the lump is the same, from which both Jews and non-Jews come. That is the lump of the seed of Jacob filling all nations.

¹¹ The vessels of wrath were Efrayim-Yisrael, with whom YHWH has shown extraordinary patience.

ROMIYAH – ROMANS

23 And that He might make known the riches of His tifereth on the vessels of rachamim, that He had prepared beforehand for tifereth,¹

24 Even us, whom He has called, not of the Yahudim only, but also of the nations?²

25 As He says also in Hoshea, I will call them My People-Ami, who were not My People-Lo-Ami; and will call her Ruchamah, who were Lo-Ruchamah.³

26 And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said to them, Ye are not My People-Lo Ami; there shall they be called children of the living אלהים.⁴

27 Yeshayahu also cries on behalf of Yisrael, Though the number of b'nai Yisrael be as the sand of the sea; only a remnant shall be saved:⁵

28 For He will finish the work, and cut it short in tzedakah: because a short work will the Master יהוה make upon the earth.⁶

29 And as Yeshayahu said before, Except the Master יהוה tzeva'oth had left us a surviving remnant, we would have been as Sedom, and been made like Amora.

30 What shall we say then? That the nations, who followed not after the Torah of tzedakah, have attained tzedakah, even the tzedakah that comes by emunah.

31 But Yisrael,⁷ which followed after the Torah of tzedakah, has not attained the goal of the Torah of tzedakah.

32 Why not? Because they sought it not by emunah, but as it were by the mitzv'oth of the Torah alone. For they stumbled at that Stumbling Stone;

33 As it is written, See, I lay in Tzion a Stumbling Stone and Rock of Offense: and whoever believes on Him shall not be ashamed.⁸

10 Yisraelite brothers, my lev's desire and tefillah to יהוה for Yisrael is, that they might be saved.⁹

2 For I bear them record that they have a zeal for יהוה, but not according to da'at.

3 For they being ignorant of יהוה's tzedakah, go about to establish their own tzedakah,¹⁰ have not submitted themselves to the tzedakah of יהוה.

4 For Moshiach is the actual goal of the Torah for an eternal tzadik standing to everyone that believes.

5 For Moshe describes the tzedakah that comes from the Torah; That the man who does those things shall live by them.¹¹

6 But the tzedakah that is of emunah speaks in this manner; Say not in your lev, Who shall ascend into the shamayim? That is, to bring the Moshiach down from above:

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? That is, to bring up the Moshiach again from the dead.

8 But what does Torah actually say? The word is near you, even in your mouth, and in your lev: that is, the word of emunah, which we proclaim;¹²

9 That if you shall confess with your mouth the Master יהושע, and shall believe in your lev that יהוה has raised Him from the dead, you shall be saved.¹³

10 For with the lev man believes to tzedakah; and with the mouth confession is made to Yahshua.

² Both houses have a redeemed remnant prepared to be vessels of honor.

⁶ The restoration and awakening of both houses will be a complete finished work by Messiah's redemption. Yet more than that, it will only be in operation for a limited time from 1996 CE until Yahshua's return and the final ingathering of the nation. See:

<http://restorationscriptures.org/page35.htm>

⁷ In context, a clear reference to Jewish-Yisrael.

⁸ Many in Jewish and non-Jewish-Yisrael stumbled over Messiah as found in Isaiah 8:14.

⁹ For all Yisrael, but the upcoming verses deal with Jewish-Yisrael in context.

¹⁰ "Works of the law," as explained in detail in the footnotes in the Scroll of Galatians.

¹² Deuteronomy 30:12-14: Paul is actually saying that the word that "we preach" is what the Torah aimed at, which is to take the same word given for all times to Yisrael, and by faith in Messiah, place it in the hearts and mouths of regathered Yisrael. This is a direct statement showing that Paul is merely preaching the internalization of Torah, rather than its abrogation.

¹³ Saved from judgment, death, Lake of Fire, the grave, sin, bondage, and slavery, and being in discipleship to s.a.tan. Yisrael must never ridicule the concept of personal salvation as many have done, wrongly thinking it to be a non-Hebraic concept.

ROMIYAH – ROMANS

11 For the Katuv says, Whoever believes on Him shall not be ashamed.
12 For there is no difference between the Yahudi and the Greek or the Aramean: for the same Master יהוה is over all and is rich in rachamim to all that call upon Him.
13 For whoever shall call upon the Name of the Master יהוה shall be saved.¹
14 How then shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a proclaimer?
15 And how shall they proclaim, except they be sent? As it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that proclaim the Besorah of shalom, and bring besorot of tov things!
16 But they have not all obeyed the Besorah. For Yeshayahu says, יהוה, who has believed our report?
17 So then, emunah comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of יהוה.
18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes truly, their sound went into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the olam hazeh.
19 But I say, Did not Yisrael know? First Moshe says, I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are not a people at all, a Lo-Ami, and by this foolish nation I will anger you.²
20 But Yeshayahu is very bold, and says, I was found by them that sought Me not; I was made manifest to them that asked not after Me.³
21 But to Yisrael⁴ He says, All day long I have stretched forth My hands to a disobedient and quarrelsome people.

11 I say then, did יהוה cast away His people? By no means. For I also am a Yisraelite, of the zera of Avraham, of the tribe of Benyamin.⁵
2 יהוה has not cast away His people whom He knew and chose beforehand. Don't you know what the Katuv says of Eliyahu? How he even pleads with יהוה against Yisrael, saying,
3 יהוה, they have killed Your neviim, and overthrown Your altars; and I am left alone,

¹ Make your past calling and election sure and secure, by calling on YHWH, and not on any other substituted and abominable titles.

² Moses in Deuteronomy 32:21 spoke of a part of Yisrael that would become a foolish Lo-Ami, and that would wind up provoking the rest of the nation to jealousy. Of course that speaks of Efrayim provoking Judah.

⁴ Jewish-Yisrael.

⁵ Speaking of Jewish-Yisrael, not being forsaken despite problems with unbelief.

and they seek my chayim.
4 But what says the word of יהוה to him? I have reserved for Myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Ba'al.
5 Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to His election by unmerited favor.⁶
6 And if by unmerited favor, then is it no more by mitzvot: otherwise unmerited favor is not unmerited favor. But if it is by mitzvot, then is it no more unmerited favor: unless work is not work.
7 What then? Yisrael has not obtained that which they sought for; but the chosen remnant has obtained it, and the rest were blinded.⁷
8 According as it is written, יהוה has given them the ruach of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear; to this day.
9 And Dawid says, Let their shulchan be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumbling-block, and a reward to them:
10 Let their eyes become darkened, that they may not see, and be hunchbacked always.⁸
11 I say then, have they stumbled that they should fall le-olam-va-ed? Let it not be: but rather through their fall salvation has gone out to the nations, for to provoke them to jealousy.
12 Now if their temporal fall brought riches to the olam hazeh, and the diminishing of their believing numbers brought riches to the nations; how much more the fullness of their return from blindness?⁹
13 For I speak to you nations, because I am the sholiach to the nations, I magnify my work by explaining this.
14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation those who are of my flesh, and might save some of them.¹⁰
15 For if their temporal setting aside be the reconciling of the olam hazeh, what shall the receiving of them back be, but chayim from the dead?¹¹
16 For if the bikkurim are kadosh, the lump is also kadosh: and if the root is kadosh, so are the branchesnetsarim.¹²

⁶ Both houses have a faithful remnant. Out of the billions of Yisraelites that He used to fulfill covenant, YHWH deals with His remnant today, even as He did in the days of Efrayim's apostasy.

⁷ Deals with Jewish-Yisrael, who did not attain right standing, as opposed to Efrayim-Yisrael who did, though not even seeking it at all.

⁸ Jewish-Yisrael.

⁹ Efrayim gets it while Judah is blinded. But in the end times both houses start seeing clearly.

¹⁰ From Judah.

¹¹ If Judah's blindness brought life to Efrayim, how much more will Judah's regeneration bring greater life in the kingdom?

¹² The olive tree parable speaks of Yisrael and Judah not Judah alone. Here the first-fruits are the patriarchs Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. The lump represents the immediate descendants of those patriarchs, the Root is Yahshua and the branches are both houses. This understanding is detailed in extra great length at: <http://restorationscriptures.org/page17.htm> and is an absolutely recommended study. According to

ROMIYAH – ROMANS

17 And if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive eytz,¹ were grafted in among them, and with them you partake of the Root and fatness of the olive eytz;

18 Boast not against the cultivated branches. But if you boast, you better remember that you do not bear the Root, but the Root bears you.²

19 You will say then, The cultivated branches were broken off,³ that I might be grafted in.⁴

20 True; because of unbelief they were broken off, and you stand by emunah. Be not arrogant, but fear:

21 For if יהוה spared not the cultivated branches, shomer, He may not spare you either.

22 See therefore the chesed and severity of יהוה: on those who fell, severity; but towards you, chesed, if you continue in His chesed: otherwise you also shall be cut off.

23 And they also, if they abide not still in their unbelief, shall be grafted in: for יהוה is able to graft them in again.⁵

24 For if you were cut out of the olive eytz which is uncultivated, and were grafted contrary to nature into a tov olive eytz: how much more shall these, who are the cultivated branches, be grafted into their own olive eytz as well?

25 For I would not, Yisraelite brothers, that you should be ignorant of this mysterious secret, lest you should be wise in your own pride and conceit; that partial blindness has happened to Yisrael,⁶ until the fullness of the nations—the melo hagoyim—comes in.^{7 8}

26 And so kol Yisrael⁹ shall be saved: ¹⁰ as it is written, There shall come out of Tzion the Deliverer, and shall turn away wickedness from Yaakov:

27 For this is My brit with them, when I shall take away their sins.

28 As concerning the Besorah, they are enemies for your sakes: but as far as being the chosen people, they are beloved for the sake of the ahvot.¹¹

29 For the gifts and calling of יהוה are without teshuvah.¹²

30 For as you in times past have not believed יהוה, yet have now obtained rachamim through their unbelief:

31 Even so have these also now not believed, that through your rachamim they also may re-obtain rachamim.

32 For יהוה has put kol Yisrael in various forms of unbelief, that He might have rachamim upon kol Yisrael.

33 O the depth of the riches both of the chochmah and

⁶ If we let Scripture interpret Scripture, then Isaiah 8:14 speaks of both houses as being blind. Judah is blind as to who is their Messiah. Efrayim is blind as to who they are as the other house of Yisrael, and to the relevancy of Torah in their lives, seeing it through a dark glass as a strange Jewish thing, rather than as their own marriage certificate and heritage.

Traditionally these verses have been taught to mean that some Jews see and believe, and some just don't. That meaning is seen as fallacious, when one understands that the olive tree is not strictly Jewish, and that both houses are said to be blind, which is why the terminology "partial blindness" is used to indicate that all twelve tribes are blind in differing areas.

⁷ The only other time this term is used in Scripture is in Genesis 48:19. Jacob laid his hands on Efrayim his grandson and said that his seed would literally become the "fullness of the nations," or the melo-hagoyim. The mystery of the olive tree is not that some day gentiles will be part of Yisrael. That was never a mystery as all of the First Covenant spoke of the gentiles seeing the light of YHWH and Torah. The mystery of the olive tree is the identity of those who are not Jewish coming out of the nations into Messiah. So this partial blindness on both houses according to Paul will come to an end only when the "fullness of the gentiles" comes in. The Hebraic idiom is a reference to the seed of the ten tribes collectively known as Efrayim-Yisrael. When the remnant of all ten tribes comes in, then Yisrael's blinders will be lifted and the kingdom will begin. For more details, we strongly recommend you study:

<http://restorationscriptures.org/page17.htm>

⁸ For more details, also see notes on Genesis 48:19.

⁹ All 12 tribes, not every Yisraelite.

¹⁰ When the melo-hagoyim/ fullness of the gentiles comes in.

¹¹ Speaking of YHWH's special love for Jewish-Yisrael, for the sake of the covenants by YHWH with the patriarchs.

¹² To both houses.

Jeremiah 11:13-14, the branches are Judah and Efrayim, with the cultivated ones being Judah, and the wild ones being Efrayim, but both being Yisrael. When the cultivated branch does not believe, he is cut off. When the wild one does not believe, he is cut off. The issue then is not who is the olive tree, since it is clearly both houses of Yisrael mentioned by name in Jeremiah 11:13-14 and Zechariah chapter 4: The issue is which of the branches have faith in the Root, or the Messiah. That will determine whether that branch abides, or is removed. Another excellent study, proving beyond a shadow of a doubt that this olive tree is not Jewish with non-Jews grafted in, but rather is all Yisraelite branches that get grafted back into their own tree by faith is found at:

<http://restorationscriptures.org/page33.htm>

Understanding the composition of the olive tree parable is a key to Yisrael's return, and your understanding of the two houses.

² Yahshua bears all Yisraelites, and decides who is in and who is out.

³ Jewish-Yisrael.

⁴ Replacement Theology is still around today, believing that in order for non-Jews to return, or come in to the Olive tree, Jews have to have their place taken from them as Yisrael.

⁵ All are Yisrael. Whether you abide with and as Yisrael depends on your faith in Messiah, and your lifestyle to walk as He walked, and not as pagans walk.

ROMIYAH – ROMANS

da'at of יהוה! How unsearchable are His mishpatim, and His halachot past finding out!

34 For who has really known the mind of the Master יהוה? Or, who has been His advisor?

35 Or, who has first given anything to Him, in order to receive something back from Him?

36 For from Him, and through Him, and to Him, are all things: to whom be tifereth le-olam-va-ed. Amein.

12 I beg you therefore, Yisraelite brothers, by the rachamim of יהוה, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, kadosh, acceptable to יהוה, which is your act of reasonable worship.

2 And be not conformed to this olam hazeh: but be transformed by the ongoing renewing of your mind, that you may discern what is that tov, acceptable, and even the perfect, will of יהוה.

3 For I say, through the unmerited favor given to me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he should; ¹ but to think soberly, as יהוה has dealt to every man the measure of emunah.

4 For as we have many members in the one body of Yisrael, and all members have not the same role:

5 So we, being many, are one body of Yisrael in the Moshiach, and each one members one of another.

6 Having then gifts differing according to the unmerited favor that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the measure of emunah;

7 Or, some service, let us serve: or he that teaches, let him teach;

8 Or, he that exhorts, let him exhort: he that gives, let him do it with simplicity; he that oversees, with diligence; he that shows rachamim, with simcha.

9 Let ahava be without deceit in full sincerity. Despise that which is evil; cleave to that which is tov.

10 Be kind and tender to one another with brotherly ahava; in honor preferring another over yourself;

11 Not idle in your duty; fervent in ruach; serving your יהוה;

12 Having gilah in tikvah; be patient in tribulation; continue steadfast in tefillah;

13 Distributing to the necessity of the Yisraelite kidushim; be given to hospitality.

14 Bless them who persecute you: bless, and do not curse.

15 Gilah with them that do gilah, and weep with those that weep.

16 Be of the same mind one towards another. Mind not prideful things and position, but associate with the humble. Be not wise in your own estimation.

17 Repay to no man evil for evil. Do things honestly and right in the sight of all men.

18 If it is possible, on your part, live in shalom with all men.

19 Dearly beloved, revenge not yourselves, but rather give place to wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; and repayment, says יהוה.

¹ Judah and Efrayim must see each other as equal heirs of salvation, with neither house thinking that one is more important, or more special before YHWH.

20 Therefore if your enemy is hungry, feed him. If he is thirsty, give him drink: for in so doing you shall heap coals of fire on His head. ²

21 Be not overcome by evil, but overcome evil with tov. ³

13 Let every Yisraelite be subject to civil governing powers. For there is no power but from יהוה: the civil powers that exist are ordained of יהוה.

2 Whoever therefore resists the civil power, resists the ordained institution of יהוה: and they that resist, shall receive mishpat on themselves.

3 For civil shophtim are not a menace to tov mitzvoth, but to cause men to fear doing evil. Will you then not be afraid of the authorities? Do that which is tov, and you shall have tehilla from the same authorities:

4 For he is the eved of יהוה to you for tov. But if you do that which is evil, then be afraid; for he bears not the sword in vain: for he is the eved of יהוה, an instrument to execute wrath upon the one that does evil.

5 Therefore we must be subject, not only for fear of wrath, but also because of our conscience.

6 For this cause pay taxes also: for they are יהוה's instruments, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 Render therefore to all their dues: tax to whom tax is due; custom to whom custom; reverence to whom reverence is due; honor to whom honor is due.

8 Owe no man anything, but to love one another: for he that loves another has fulfilled the Torah. ⁴

9 For this, you shall not commit adultery, you shall not kill, you shall not steal, you shall not bear false witness, you shall not covet; and if there is any other mitzvah, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely; ahavta re'echa camocha – you shall love your neighbor as yourself. ⁵

10 Ahava seeks no evil to its neighbor: therefore ahava is the completion of the Torah of chayim.

11 And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we first came to believe.

12 The night is far spent, the Yom is at hand: let us therefore cast off the deeds of darkness, and let us put on the tallit of Light.

13 Let us have an honest halacha, as in the day; not in wild parties and drunkenness, not in living together before marriage and indecencies, not in fighting, or envying.

² A Hebraic idiomatic expression meaning: “you'll blow his mind with love.”

³ YHWH is saying in essence “be Yisrael,” by returning good for evil. That spiritual fruit is a manifestation of the true and completed Yisraelite.

⁴ Not that we don't have to do the commands, but rather that a Torah-keeper's attitude should manifest as love, submission and forgiveness.

⁵ It is briefly understood as love, but it is a descriptive summation, not a release from obeying all of Torah.

ROMIYAH – ROMANS

14 But put on יהושע ha Moshiach, and make no provision for the flesh, to fulfill its lust.¹

14 Him that is weak in the emunah receive, but not criticizing his thoughts.

2 For one believes that he may eat all things: another, who is weak, eats only vegetables.

3 Let not him that eats meat despise him that eats no meat; and let not him who does not eat meat judge him that eats meat: for יהוה has received kol Yisrael.

4 Who are you that judges another man's eved? To his own Master יהוה he stands, or falls. Yes, he shall be held up too: for יהוה is able to make him stand.

5 One man esteems one day above another: another esteems every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.²

6 He that regards the day of eating, regards it to יהוה; and he that regards not the day, to יהוה he does not regard it. He that eats, eats to יהוה, for he gives hodu; and he that eats not, before יהוה he eats not, and neither gives יהוה hodu.

7 For no Yisraelite man lives for himself, and no Yisraelite man dies for himself.

8 For whether we live, we live for יהוה; and whether we die, we die for יהוה: whether we live, or whether we die, we belong to and for יהוה.

9 For this purpose Moshiach both died, and rose, and was revived, so that He might be the Master יהוה both of the dead and the living.

10 But why do you judge your Yisraelite brother? Or, why do you despise your Yisraelite brother over these secondary issues? For we shall all stand before the bema seat of our Moshiach.

11 For it is written, As I live, says the Master יהוה, every knee shall bow to Me, and every tongue shall confess to the Master יהוה.

12 So then each one of us shall give an account of himself to יהוה.

13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but rather be mindful of this that no man put any unnecessary stumbling-block, or an occasion to fall into his Yisraelite brother's path.

14 I know, and am persuaded by the Savior יהושע, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteems anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean.³

15 But if your Yisraelite brother is grieved with your food choice, now you are no longer walking in ahava. Do not destroy him with your food choices, for whom Moshiach died.⁴

16 Let not then your tov be evil spoken of:

17 For the malchut of יהוה is not food and drink; but tzedakah, and shalom, and simcha in the Ruach Hakodesh.⁵

18 For he who in these choices serves Moshiach is acceptable to יהוה, and approved of men.

19 Let us therefore follow after the things that make for shalom, and things with which we may edify one another.

20 For food choices will not destroy the work of יהוה. All things indeed are pure;⁶ but it is evil for that man who eats so as to cause stumbling.

21 It is tov neither to eat meat, nor to drink wine, or anything whereby your Yisraelite brother stumbles, or is offended, or is made weak.

22 Have you a certain food emunah? Keep it to yourself before יהוה. Favored is he that condemns not himself in that thing which he allows.⁷

23 And he that doubts and eats violates his own emunah, because he eats not with emunah: for whatever is not of emunah is sin.⁸

15 We then that are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

2 Let every one of us please his neighbor for his tov and edification.

3 For even Moshiach pleased not Himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproached You fell on Me.

4 For all things that were written in the Tanach were written for our learning, that we through the patience and comfort of the Keetvay HaKadosh might have tikvah.

5 Now the אלהא of patience and comfort, grant you the ability to regard one another with equal worth according to Moshiach יהושע:

6 That you may with one mind and one mouth esteem יהוה, even the Abba of our Savior יהושע ha Moshiach.

¹ The actual armor of YHWH, as described in Ephesians 6. See notes in and on Ephesians 6.

² The word "eat" is used six times in these verses. The issue obviously is food. Some eat meat, some don't and the same goes for vegetables. Some eat meat on Thursday some eat meat only on Monday. Some fast every morning, some fast only one morning a week. We are not to make issues out of things that YHWH says are gray areas, such as what days we fast, or eat certain clean foods. In a case of a gray area, do not criticize a new brother, or a weak brother, in the ways of Yisrael. This applies only to gray areas that remain unaddressed by detail in Scripture. Therefore verse 5 does not talk about Shabbat at all, or "pick your own Shabbat," or your own favorite day for your own worship, simply because first the topic is eating habits, and secondly because Shabbat is not a gray area. The Spirit would never tell mankind to pick their own day in direct violation of His word.

³ Again gray area issues that are not black, or white cannot be judged to be clean, or unclean, while Shabbat-breaking and eating pig certainly can be.

⁴ As can be seen, the entire chapter does not depart from this theme and again has nothing on earth to do with Shabbat, or making up your own holidays.

⁵ Man's choices don't matter. It is what the Spirit says about our food and drink choices, which we receive with joy.

⁶ Both meat and vegetables as outlined by Torah.

⁷ Meaning when alone, in your food choices and such, don't do anything against the Torah, lest you wind up condemning yourself with your own unclean behavior.

⁸ Meaning we better get our Yisraelite values from a full trust in Torah and the faith of Messiah, and not man, or man's emotions, or dogmas.

ROMIYAH – ROMANS

7 Therefore be friendly and bear one another's burdens, as Moshiach also brought us close to the tifereth of יהוה.

8 Now I say that יהושע ha Moshiach was an Eved to Yisrael for the emet of יהוה, to confirm the promises made to our ahvot: ¹

9 And that the nations might all esteem יהוה for His rachamim; as it is written, For this cause I will confess You among the nations, and sing to Your Name.

10 And again He says, Gilah, you nations, with His people. ²

11 And again, Hallel the Master יהוה, all you nations; and laud Him, all you people. ³

12 And again, Yeshayahu says, There shall be a Root of Yishai, and He that shall rise to reign over the nations; in Him shall the nations trust.

13 Now the אלהא of tikvah fill you with all simcha and shalom in believing, that you may abound in your tikvah, through the power of the Ruach Hakodesh.

14 And I myself also am persuaded of you, my Yisraelite brothers, that you also are full of much tov, filled with all da'at, able also to admonish one another.

15 Nevertheless, Yisraelite brothers, I have written more boldly partially to remind you, because of the unmerited favor that is given to me by יהוה,

16 That I should be the eved of יהושע ha Moshiach to the nations, serving in the Besorah of יהוה, that the terumah of the nations might be acceptable, being set-apart by the Ruach Hakodesh.

17 I have therefore a cause for boasting through יהושע ha Moshiach in those things that pertain to יהוה.

18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things that Moshiach has not done through me, to make the nations obedient, by word and demands,

19 Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Ruach of יהוה; so that from Yahrushalayim, and all around Illurikon, I have fully proclaimed the Besorah of Moshiach.

20 Yes, so have I strived to proclaim the Besorah, not where Moshiach was already named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation:

21 But as it is written, To whom He was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand.

22 For which cause also I have been much hindered from coming to you.

23 But now having no more a place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come to you;

24 Whenever I take my journey into Sepharad, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and that you will escort me there, after I have more, or less fully enjoyed my visit with you. ⁴

25 But now I go to Yahrushalayim to serve the Yisraelite kidushim.

26 For it has pleased them of Makedonia and Achayah to give a terumah for the poor Yisraelite kidushim who are at Yahrushalayim.

27 It has pleased them truly; and their debtors they are. For if the nations have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to attend to them in material things. ⁵

28 When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed for them this fruit, I will return through you into Sepharad.

29 And I am sure that, when I come to you, I shall come in the fullness of the brachot of the Besorah of Moshiach.

30 Now I beg you, Yisraelite brothers, for the Savior יהושע ha Moshiach's sake, and for the ahava of the Ruach, that you strive together with me in your tefillot to יהוה for me;

31 That I may be delivered from them that do not believe in Yahudah; and that my terumah which I have for Yahrushalayim may be accepted by the Yisraelite kidushim;

32 That I may come to you with simcha by the will of יהוה, and may be refreshed with you.

33 Now the אלהא of shalom be with you all. Amein.

16 I commend to you Phoebe our Yisraelite sister, who is an eved of the congregation that is at Cenchrea:

2 That you receive her in יהוה, as becomes Yisraelite kidushim, and that you assist her in whatever business she has need of: for she has been a great help to many, and to myself also.

3 Greet Priscilla and Aqulas my helpers in Moshiach יהושע:

4 Who have for my chayim laid down their own necks: for whom not only I give hodu, but also all the congregations of the Yisraelite nations.

5 Likewise greet the congregation that is in their bayit. Greet my well beloved Epainetos, who is the bikkurim of Achayah to the Moshiach.

6 Greet Miryam, who worked very hard for us.

7 Greet Andronikos and Yunia, my relatives, and my fellow prisoners, who are of note among the shlichim, who also were in Moshiach before me. ⁶

8 Greet Amplias my beloved in יהוה.

9 Greet Urbanos, our helper in the Moshiach, and Stachus my beloved.

10 Greet Apelles approved in the Moshiach. Greet those who are of Aristobulos' bayit.

11 Greet Herodion my relative. Greet them that are of the bayit of Narkissus, who are in יהוה.

¹ Note again that those who received the First Covenant were our physical and spiritual fathers.

² Here YHWH's will is outlined. All nations are to join and rejoice with His people Yisrael, not try and have Yisraelites mix and assimilate with the nations, or gentile expressions of faith.

³ All nations are to serve YHWH and not their own mighty ones. The "nations" here are Efrayim and the "people" are Judah.

⁴ Spain and Rome were both areas of known prophetic Yisraelite migration as found in Obadiah 1:20. Paul always was out in the nations, looking for the lost sheep of the house of Yisrael.

⁵ Both houses should take good care of each other.

⁶ Junia was a female apostle in Yisrael apparently physically related to Paul.

ROMIYAH – ROMANS

12 Greet Truphanyah and Truphosa, who labor in יהוה.
Greet the beloved Persis, who labored much in יהוה.
13 Greet Rufus chosen in יהוה, and his eema and mine.
14 Greet Asugritos, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the Yisraelite brothers, who are with them.
15 Greet Philologos, and Yulia, Nereus, and his sister, and Olumpas, and all the Yisraelite kidushim that are with them.
16 Greet one another with a kadosh kiss. The Yisraelite congregations of the Moshiach greet you.
17 Now I beg you, Yisraelite brothers, mark those who cause divisions and stumbling contrary to the Torah that you have learned; and avoid them.
18 For they that are such serve not our Savior יהושע ha Moshiach, but their own belly; and by tov words and convincing speeches deceive the levim of the simple.
19 For your obedience is reported to all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf: but yet I would have you wise to that which is tov, but simple concerning evil.
20 And the אלהא of shalom shall bruise s.a.tan under your feet shortly. The unmerited favor of our Savior יהושע ha Moshiach be with you.

21 Timtheous my fellow worker and Lucius, and Jason, and Sosipater, my relatives, greet you.
22 I Tertius, who wrote this letter, greet you in יהוה.
23 Gaios my host, and the whole congregation, greets
you. Erastos the treasurer of the city greets you, and Quartus a Yisraelite brother.
24 The unmerited favor of our Savior יהושע ha Moshiach be with you all.
25 Now to Him that is able to establish you according to my Besorah, and the proclaiming of יהושע ha Moshiach, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept hidden since the olam hazeh began,
26 But now is made manifest, by the Keetvay HaKadosh of the neviim, according to the commandment of the everlasting אלהא, made known to all nations¹ for the obedience of the emunah:
27 To יהוה the only wise One, be tifereth through יהושע
ha Moshiach le-olam-ve-ed.
Amein. ת

Qorintyah Alef – קורנתי א
First Corinthians
To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

1 Shaul, called to be a sholiach of יהושע ha Moshiach through the will of יהוה, and Sosthenes our Yisraelite brother,
2 To the Yisraelite congregation ¹ of יהוה which is at Qorintyah, to them that are kadosh in the Moshiach יהושע, called to be Yisraelite kidushim, with all that in every place call upon the Name of יהושע ha Moshiach our Master, both theirs and ours:
3 Unmerited favor to you, and shalom, from יהוה our Abba, and from the Master יהושע ha Moshiach.
4 I thank my אלהא always on your behalf, for the unmerited favor of יהוה which is given to you by יהושע ha Moshiach;
5 That in everything you are enriched by Him, in all words, and in all da'at;
6 Even as the witness of Moshiach was confirmed in you:
7 So that you were not lacking any gift; while waiting for the coming of our Master יהושע ha Moshiach:
8 Who shall also strengthen you until the end, that you may be blameless in the day of our Master יהושע ha Moshiach.
9 יהוה is faithful, by whom you were called to the chavurah of His Son יהושע ha Moshiach our Master.
10 Now I appeal to you, Yisraelite brothers, by the Name of our Master יהושע ha Moshiach that you all speak as echad, and that there be no divisions among you; but that you be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same opinion.
11 For it has been declared to me about you, my Yisraelite brothers, by those who are of beit Chloe, that there are contentions and disputes among you.
12 Now this I say, because some among you say, I am of Shaul; and I am of Apollos; and I am of Kepha; and I am of Moshiach.
13 Is Moshiach divided? Was Shaul impaled for you? Or, were you immersed in the name of Shaul?
14 I thank יהוה that I immersed none of you, but Crispos and Gaios;
15 So that no one should say that I had immersed in my own name.
16 And I immersed also the bayit of Tzephanyah: but besides them, I do not know whether I immersed anyone else.
17 For Moshiach sent me not to mikvah, but to proclaim the Besorah: not with chochmah of words, lest the offering of Moshiach should be made of no effect.
18 For the proclaiming of the execution stake is to them that are perishing foolishness; but to us who are being saved it is the power of יהוה.
19 For it is written, I will destroy the chochmah of the wise, and will bring to nothing the binah of the prudent.

FIRST CORINTHIANS

¹ Eidta-In the original Aramaic. All of Paul's letters to congregations use this word, the Aramaic cognate of the Hebrew edah used throughout the First Covenant, displaying that Paul knew that these were Yisraelite groups in exile.

20 Where is the wise? Where is the Sopher? Where is the debater of the olam hazeh? Has not יהוה made foolish the chochmah of the olam hazeh?
21 For after that in the chochmah of יהוה the olam hazeh by worldly chochmah knew not יהוה, it pleased יהוה by the simplicity of proclaiming to save them that believe.
22 For the Yahudim require a sign, and the Greeks seek after chochmah:²
23 But we proclaim the Moshiach impaled, to the Yahudim a ştumbling-block, and to the Greeks foolishness;³
24 But to those who are called, both Yahudim and Greeks, the Moshiach is the power of יהוה, and the chochmah of יהוה.⁴
25 For the foolishness of יהוה is wiser than men; and the weakness of יהוה is stronger than men.
26 For you see your calling, my Yisraelite brothers, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called:
27 But יהוה has chosen the foolish things of the olam hazeh to embarrass the wise; and יהוה has chosen the weak things of the olam hazeh to embarrass the things that are mighty;
28 And אלהא has chosen those from humble mishpachot of the olam hazeh, those who are despised, those יהוה has chosen, yes, and the ones who are not, to bring to nothing those that are something:
29 That no flesh should boast in His presence.
30 But of Him are you in Moshiach יהושע, who is from יהוה and has been made to us chochmah, and tzedakah, and set-apartness, and geulah:
31 That, as it is written, He that boasts, let him boast in יהוה.

2 And I, Yisraelite brothers, when I came to you, came not with excellence of speech, or of chochmah, declaring to you the witness of יהוה.

2 For I determined not to know anything among you, except יהושע ha Moshiach, and Him impaled.

3 And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

4 And my speech and my proclaiming was not with enticing words of man's chochmah, but in a demonstration of the Ruach and of power:

5 That your emunah should not stand in the chochmah of men, but in the power of יהוה.

6 Yet we speak chochmah among those that are mature: yet not the chochmah of the olam hazeh, or of the rulers of the olam hazeh, that comes to nothing:

7 But we speak the chochmah of יהוה in a sod mystery, even the hidden chochmah, that יהוה has ordained before the olam hazeh to our tifereth:

² Two-House reference.

³ Two-House reference.

⁴ The power and wisdom to save individuals, and regather both houses through Messiah.

QORINTYAH ALEF - FIRST CORINTHIANS

8 Which none of the rulers of the olam hazeh knew: for had they known it, they would not have impaled the Master of Tifereth.

9 But as it is written, Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, neither has it entered into the lev of man, the things which אלהא has prepared for them that love Him.

10 But יהוה has revealed them to us by His Ruach: for the Ruach searches all things, yes, the deep things of יהוה.

11 For who knows the things of a man, except the ruach of man, which is in him? Even so the things of אלהא no man knows, but the Ruach of אלהא.

12 Now we have received, not the ruach of the olam hazeh, but the Ruach, which is from אלהא; that we might know all the things that are freely given to us by יהוה.

13 Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's chochmah teaches, but which the Ruach Hakodesh teaches; comparing spiritual matters with spiritual matters.

14 But the natural material man receives not the things of the Ruach of יהוה: for they are foolishness to him: neither can he know them, because they need spiritual discernment.

15 But he that is spiritual judges all things, yet he himself is judged by no man.

16 For who has known the mind of the Master יהוה, that he may give Him Torah lessons? But we have the mind of Moshiach.

3 And I, Yisraelite brothers, could not speak to you as spiritual ones, but as to worldly ones, even as to babies in Moshiach.

2 I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for before now you were not able to bear it, neither now are you able.

3 For you are still worldly: since there is among you ongoing envying, and strife, and divisions, are you not worldly, and walking as natural men?

4 For while one says, I am of Shaul; and another, I am of Apollos; are you not still worldly?

5 Who then is Shaul, and who is Apollos, but avadim through whom you believed, even as the Master יהוה gave to every man?

6 I have planted, Apollos gave mayim; but יהוה gave the increased growth.

7 So then neither is he that plants anything, neither he that gives mayim anything; but יהוה who gives the increase.

8 Now he that plants and he that gives mayim are echad: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labor.

9 For we are Yisraelite laborers together with יהוה: you are יהוה's field, you are יהוה's sukkah.¹

10 According to the unmerited favor of יהוה which is given to me, as a wise master builder, I have laid the foundation, and another builds on it. But let every man take heed how he builds on it.²

11 For another foundation can no man lay than that which has been laid, which is יהושע ha Moshiach.³

12 Now if any man builds upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, and straw;

13 Every man's mitzvoh shall be made manifest: for the Light of Yom HaDin shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire⁴ shall try every man's mitzvoh of what sort it is.

14 If any man's mitzvoh remain which he has built on, he shall receive a reward.

15 If any man's mitzvoh shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; as one who has been saved by a fire.

16 Know you not that you are the Beit HaMikdash of יהוה, and that the Ruach of יהוה dwells in you?

17 If any man defiles the Beit HaMikdash of יהוה, him shall יהוה destroy; for the Beit HaMikdash of יהוה is kadosh, which you are.⁵

18 Let no man deceive himself. If any man among Yisrael seems to be wise in the olam hazeh, let him become a natural fool, that he may be spiritually wise.

19 For the chochmah of the olam hazeh is foolishness with יהוה. For it is written, He catches the wise in their own craftiness.

20 And again, the Master יהוה knows the thoughts of the naturally wise, that they are worthless.

21 Therefore let no man boast in other men. For all things are yours;

22 Whether Shaul, or Apollos, or Kepha, or the olam hazeh, or chayim, or death, or the olam haba; all things are yours;

23 And you are Moshiach's; and Moshiach is יהוה's.

4 Let a man regard all of us, as simple avadim of Moshiach, and caretakers of the sod mysteries of יהוה.

2 Moreover it is required in caretakers that a man is found faithful.

3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you, or of man's mishpat: yes, I do not even judge myself.

4 For I do not know of any matter against myself; yet I am not declared tzadik by that: but He that judges me is the Master יהוה.

5 Therefore judge nothing before the time, until יהושע comes, who both will bring to light the hidden things of ² Yisrael must be rebuilt according to First Covenant pattern, with Messiah being the Head Corner Stone.

³ The rebuilding of Yisrael and restoration of the exiles cannot be built by any man, or religion that omits the foundation and Chief Corner Stone the Messiah Yahshua. Unlike some who teach otherwise, Scripture indicates that both houses cannot truly come together without a heartfelt faith in Yahshua as the promised King Messiah. Any other building plan results in leaning, or crumbling towers without a strong foundation.

QORINTYAH ALEF - FIRST CORINTHIANS

darkness, and will make manifest the thoughts of the levim: and then shall every man have tehilla from the Master יהוה.

6 And these things, my Yisraelite brothers, I have in an explainable picture applied to myself and to Apollos for your sakes; that you might learn by us not to think of any man above that which is written, that not one of you be puffed up in favor of one against another.

7 For who makes you to differ from each other? And what do you have that you did not first receive? Now if you did receive it, why do you boast, as if you had not received it?

8 Now you are full, now you are rich, you have reigned as melechim apart from us: and I wished indeed that you did reign, that we also might reign with you.

9 For I think that יהוה has set forth the shlichim to be last in all things, as if we were condemned to death: for we have become a spectacle to the olam hazeh, and to the heavenly malachim, and to all men.

10 We are fools for Moshiach's sake, but you are wise in Moshiach; we are weak, but you are strong; you are honorable, but we are despised.

11 Even to this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are scantily clad, and beaten, and have no permanent home;

12 And labor, working with our own hands: being cursed, we return brachot; being persecuted, we suffer:

13 Being defamed, we help: we are made as the filth of the olam hazeh, and are the revilement of all men to this day.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved children I warn you.

15 For though you have ten thousand Torah teachers in the Moshiach, yet you do not have many spiritual ahvot: for in Moshiach יהושע I have begotten you through the Besorah.

16 Therefore I appeal to you be imitators¹ of me.

17 For this cause have I sent to you Timtheous, who is my beloved ben emunah, faithful in יהוה, who shall bring you into remembrance of my halacha which is in Moshiach, as I teach everywhere in every Yisraelite congregation.

18 Now some are puffed up, as though I were not coming to you.

19 But I will come to you shortly, if the Master יהוה wills, and will know, not the words of those who are puffed up, but the power.

20 For the malchut of יהוה is not in speech only, but in power.

21 What do you desire? Shall I come to you with a rod of correction, or in ahava, and in the ruach of meekness?

5 It is commonly reported that there is fornication among you, and the kind of fornication not even mentioned among the pagan gentiles,² that one should have

² Note the difference between believers in Yisrael's commonwealth, as opposed to the true gentiles, or the pagans. The unfortunate term "saved gentile" is and always will be an oxymoron.

his abba's wife.

2 And you are boasting in this behavior, instead of mourning, so that he that has done this sin might be removed outside the camp.

3 For I truly, I remain absent in body, but present in the Ruach, I have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that has done this sin,

4 In the Name of our Master יהושע ha Moshiach, when you are gathered together, with my ruach, with the power of our Master יהושע ha Moshiach,

5 To deliver such a one to s.a.tan for the destruction of the flesh,³ that his ruach may be saved in the Yom of the Master יהושע.

6 Your boasting is not tov. Don't you know that a little chametz leavens the whole lump?

7 Clean out therefore the old chametz, that you may be a new lump, as you are unleavened. For even Moshiach our Pesach was sacrificed for us:

8 So then let us keep the moed,⁴ not with old chametz, neither with the chametz of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened matzah of sincerity and emet.

9 I wrote to you in a prior letter not to associate with fornicators and immoral persons:

10 I did not mean with the fornicators out in the olam hazeh, or with the covetous, or swindlers, or with idolaters; since you would literally have to leave the olam hazeh.

11 But now I have written to you not to keep company, or associate, with any man that is called a Yisraelite brother who is a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or a swindler; with such a one do not even eat.

12 For what business do I have with judging those that are in the olam hazeh? But you must judge them that are in the Yisraelite congregation.⁵

13 But those that are in the olam hazeh יהוה judges. Therefore put that wicked person outside the camp yourselves.

6 How dare any of you, having a matter against another Yisraelite, go to court before the unsaved, and not before a Bet Din of the Yisraelite kidushim?

2 Do you not know that the Yisraelite kidushim shall judge the olam hazeh? And if you shall judge the entire olam hazeh, are you unworthy and unable to judge even the smallest matters?

3 Don't you know that we shall judge the heavenly malachim? How much more things that pertain to this chayim?

³ A term for excommunication, which is an eternal Torah principle of dealing with improper, or unclean conduct.

⁵ Only and solely by the word of YHWH, not based on hearsay, allegation, or emotional likes and dislikes.

QORINTYAH ALEF - FIRST CORINTHIANS

4 If then you have mishpatim to render in things pertaining to this chayim, why then do you appoint as shophtim in the Bet Din those who are least esteemed in the Yisraelite congregation.

5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you to sit on the Bet Din? Is there not even one that shall be able to judge between Yisraelite brothers?

6 But Yisraelite brother goes to court against Yisraelite brother, and that before the unbelievers!

7 Now therefore you are all already at fault, because you go to court one against another. Why do you not rather receive being wronged? Why do you not rather allow yourselves to be cheated?

8 No, you do wrong, and cheat, even your Yisraelite brothers.

9 Know you not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the malchut of יהוה? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor homosexuals,

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers, shall inherit the malchut of יהוה.¹

11 And such were some of you: but you are washed, but you are kadosh, but you are declared to be a tzadik in the Name of the Master יהושע, and by the Ruach of our אלהא.

12 All things are permitted to me, but not all things profit: all things are permitted for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.²

13 Foods for the stomach, and the stomach for foods: but יהוה shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for יהוה; and יהוה for the body.

14 And יהוה who has raised up יהושע, will also raise us by His own power.

15 Don't you know that your bodies are the members of Moshiach? Shall I then take the members of Moshiach, and make them the members of a harlot? Let it never be!

16 What? Know you not that he who is joined to a harlot is one body? For the two, says He, shall become basar echad.

17 But he that is joined to יהוה becomes one with Him in Ruach.

18 Flee fornication. Every sin that a man does is outside the body; but he that commits fornication sins against his own body.

19 Do you not know that your body is the Beit HaMikdash of the Ruach Hakodesh which is in you, which you have from יהוה, and you are not your own?

20 For you are bought with a price: therefore bring tifereth to יהוה in your body, and in your ruach, which are from Him.

7 Now concerning the matters of which you wrote to me: It is tov for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have

¹ These prohibitions and warnings are straight out of Torah, and are being restated to these troubled and confused Yisraelites.

² Speaking of gray areas not forbidden in Torah, but that do not serve his inner man, or his spiritual growth.

his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3 Let the husband render to the wife the ahava he owes her: and likewise also the wife to her husband.

4 The wife does not have full authority over her own body, without the husband: and likewise also the husband does not have full authority over his own body, without the wife.

5 Do not deprive one another, except it be with consent for a short time, that you may give yourselves to fasting and tefillot; and afterwards come together again, so that s.a.tan does not tempt you in the area of sexual self-control.

6 But I speak this as a concession, but it is not part of the Torah.

7 For I would prefer that all men were like myself in purity. But every man has his own proper gift from יהוה, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 I say therefore to the unmarried and the widows, It is tov for them if they remain single even as I am now.

9 But if they do not have the self-control, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn with passion.

10 And to the married I command, yet not I, but יהוה, Let not the wife depart from her husband:

11 But if she departs let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband divorce his wife.

12 But to the rest speak I, not יהוה: If any Yisraelite brother has a wife that believes not, and she is pleased to stay with him, let him not divorce her.

13 And the woman who has a husband that believes not, if he is pleased to stay with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is set-apart by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is set-apart by the husband: otherwise your children would be unclean; but now are they kadosh.³

15 But if the unbelieving insists on departing, let him depart. A Yisraelite brother, or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but יהוה has called us to have shalom.

16 For who knows, O wife, whether you shall bring salvation to your husband? Or, who knows, O man, whether you shall bring salvation to your wife?

17 But as the Master יהוה has distributed a purpose to every man, as יהושע has called each one; so let him have his halacha. And this is what I ordain in all the congregations of Yisrael.

18 Is any man called being circumcised? Let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? Let him not be circumcised.⁴

³ These are spiritual unseen laws at work in the heavens. If the house has one believing spouse, the likelihood for the other spouse to be saved, as well as the children, are increased greatly. Set-apart means they are under a spiritual covering, with a great advantage and head start in coming to eternal life. That motive alone should cause many unequally yoked relationships to consider staying the course.

⁴ It is essential to go to the Greek here for exact clarification. The word for circumcision meaning

QORINTYAH ALEF - FIRST CORINTHIANS

19 Brit milah is nothing, and uncircumcision¹ is nothing, but the keeping of the Torah of יהוה is everything.²

20 Let every man remain in the same calling in which he was before he was called to salvation.

21 Were you called being an eved? It matters not: but even though you can be made free, choose rather to serve.

22 For he that was called in יהושע, being an eved, is יהושע's freeman: likewise also he that was called, being free, is Moshiach's eved.

23 Ye were bought with a price; do not be the avadim of men.

24 Yisraelite brothers, let every man, in whatever station of chayim he was called, remain in it serving יהוה.

25 Now concerning virgins I have no Torah commandment from יהוה: yet I give my mishpat, as one that has obtained the rachamim of יהוה to be faithful.

26 I suppose therefore that this is tov due to the present distress and persecutions, I say, that it is tov for a man, or a woman to remain as a virgin.

27 Are you married to a wife? Seek not to be divorced. Are you divorced from a wife? Do not seek a wife.

Yisraelites is peritemno (Strong's Greek # 4059), a form of peritome meaning "circumcised." Let that Yisraelite already circumcised, walk in Yahshua and not seek uncircumcision, or epispaomai. This is a very rare word for uncircumcised which usually appears as akrobustia, or aperitome. This word comes from the days of Antiochus Epiphanes, when Jewish Yisraelite men hid, or concealed their circumcision in order to be considered Greek. So in essence, Paul states that all Corinthian Yisraelites must not be ashamed, or try and hide their Yisraelite roots and heritage in Messiah. And finally, the last word used here for "uncircumcised," as in a person who is uncircumcised is the word akrobustia. Akrobustia means "tossed-away-foreskinned ones," thereby alluding to Efrayim (the northern kingdom) who had been circumcised only to toss it all away to paganism. These returning Efrayimites should not seek another circumcision now since they were circumcised before breaking the Torah. These are the plain and literal understandings. The overriding theme in this verse as with the verses on marriage, being single, and divorce, is that whatever state one is in as a believing Nazarene Yisraelite, one should remain in that calling, without seeking another's status, or another's calling.

¹ Peritome and akrobustia - a clear two-house reference in the Greek.

² The keeping of Torah is the main thing for all believers. This declaration is not in opposition to circumcision. Rather it is simple kal vachomer - meaning if one thing like circumcision is an important issue, then how much more the keeping of all the commands of Torah, which includes circumcision. So circumcision is a waste of time if your life is not in obedience to Torah. For example, this is like someone who seeks circumcision, only to continue to celebrate pagan days like Christmas. Only within a Torah framework does circumcision matter at all. That is exactly what is being expressed here.

28 But and if you marry, you have not sinned; and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have pressure in the flesh: but I will spare you more details.

29 But this I say, Yisraelite brothers, the time is short: from now on, even those who have wives should act as though they had none;

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that have gilah, as though they have none; and they that buy, as though they did not possess anything.

31 And they that use the olam hazeh, as not misusing it, for the design of the olam hazeh passes away.

32 But I would have you without worldly cares. He that is unmarried cares for the things that belong to יהוה, how he may please יהוה:

33 But he that is married cares for the things that are of the olam hazeh, how he may please his wife.

34 There is a difference also between a wife and a virgin, or a single. The unmarried woman cares for the things of יהוה, that she may be kadosh both in body and in ruach: but she that is married cares for the things of the olam hazeh, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speak for your own tov; not to place a restraint on you, but for that which is proper, so that you may serve יהוה without distraction.

36 But if any man thinks that he behaves himself improperly toward his maiden, if she is past the marriage age, and his need requires marriage, let him do what he desires, he sins not: let them marry.

37 But he that stands steadfast in his lev, having no necessity for marriage, but has power over his own desire, and has determined in his lev that he will keep his maiden single, also does well.

38 So then as for ahvot, he that gives her in marriage does well; but he that gives her not in marriage does even better.

39 The wife is married by the Torah as long as her husband lives; but if her husband is dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she desires; of course, only to those of like emunah.³

40 But she is happier if she remains unmarried, in my opinion: and I think also that I have the Ruach of יהוה.

8 Now as regarding food offered to idols, we know that we all have da'at. Da'at puffs up, but ahava edifies.

2 And if any man think that he knows anything, he knows nothing yet as he should know.

3 But if any man love יהוה, this person is known by Him.

4 As concerning therefore the eating of food that is offered in sacrifice to idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the olam hazeh, and that there is no other אלה but the Echad of Yisrael.

³ This is exactly how Yahshua was able to remarry Yisrael by becoming the dead Husband, freeing Yisrael to remarry her new resurrected Husband and Master. The Husband was new, and the bride was made a new creation as well by Yahshua's death, making both Yahshua and Yisrael eligible to remarry each other in holiness. QORINTYAH ALEF - FIRST CORINTHIANS

5 For though there are many who are called אלהא, or master, whether in the shamayim, or on earth, as there are many mighty ones, and many masters,

6 But to us there is but One אלהא, Abba, from whom are all things, and we in Him; and One Master-Yah, יהושע ha Moshiach, through whom are all things, and through whom we live.

7 However every man does not have that correct da'at: for some with a clear conscience being aware of the idolatrous sacrifice, still eat things offered to idols and their conscience being weak becomes defiled.

8 But food commends us not to יהרה: for neither, if we eat this kind of food, are we better in His sight; neither, if we do not eat this kind of food, are we worse in His sight.

9 But beware lest by any means this liberty of yours becomes a stumbling-block to those that are weak.

10 For if any believing man sees you who has a true da'at of יהרה sitting to eat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him who is weak be encouraged to eat those things which are offered to idols?

11 And through your indifference shall the weak Yisraelite brother perish, for whom Moshiach died?

12 But when you sin in this manner against the Yisraelite brothers, and wound their weak conscience, you sin against Moshiach Himself.

13 So, if meat causes my Yisraelite brother to stumble, I will eat no meat while the olam hazeh stands, lest I cause my Yisraelite brother to stumble.

9 Am I not a sholiach? Am I not a free man? Have I not seen יהושע ha Moshiach our Master? Are not you my work in יהרה?

2 If I am not a sholiach to others, yet doubtless I am to you: for you are the seal of my sholiach's work in יהרה.

3 My answer to them that do examine my credentials is this,

4 Have we not authority to eat and to drink?

5 Have we not authority to travel with a sister, a wife, or relative, just like the other shlichim, and other Yisraelite brothers of the Master יהושע, and Kepha?

6 Or, is it only Bar-Nabah and I alone, that have no authority to stop secular work?

7 What officer, or soldier goes into a war at any time at his own expenses? Who plants a vineyard, and eats not of its fruit? Or, who feeds a flock, and eats not from the milk of the flock?

8 Do I say these things, as a man would talk? Or, does not the Torah say the same thing also?

9 For it is written in the Torah of Moshe, You shall not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treads out the corn. Is יהרה concerned only about the oxen?

10 Or, does He say it for all our sakes? Yes. For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he that plows should plow in tikvah; and that he that threshes should thresh in tikvah so that both can be partakers of His tikvah of harvest.

11 If we have sown to you the spiritual things, is it too much if we should reap your material things?

12 If others are partakers of this authority over you, what about us? But we have not used this authority; but we put up with all things, lest we should hinder the Besorah of the Moshiach.

13 Do you not know that those who serve the Kadosh-Place receive their provision from the things of the Set Apart Place? And those who serve at the altar have their share of the offerings from the altar?

14 Even so has יהרה ordained that those who proclaim the Besorah should live from the Besorah.¹

15 But I have used none of these things: neither have I written that these compensations should be done to me: for it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my boasting worthless.

16 For though I proclaim the Besorah, I have nothing to boast about: for necessity is laid upon me; yes, woe to me, if I proclaim not the Besorah!

17 For if I do this thing voluntarily, then I have a reward: but if not voluntarily I am entrusted with mere management duties.

18 What is my reward then? Truly that, when I proclaim the Besorah, I may make the Besorah of Moshiach without cost, that I do not abuse my authority in the Besorah.

19 For though I am free from all men, yet have I made myself an eved to all, so that I might gain more beings.

20 And to the Yahudim I became as a Yahudi, that I might gain the Yahudim; to them that are under the Torah, as under the Torah,² that I might gain them that are under the Torah;³

21 To them that are without Torah, as without Torah, being not without Torah before יהרה, but guarded by the Torah for the Moshiach, that I might gain them that are without Torah.⁴

22 To the weak I became as one who is weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by any means lead some to salvation.

23 And this I do for the sake of the Besorah that I might be a fellow partaker of it with you.

24 Don't you know that they who run in a race all run, but only one receives the prize? So when you run, run in such a way that you may obtain it.

25 And every man that competes for the prize controls himself in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible keter; but we an incorruptible one.

26 So I run, not with uncertainty; so I fight, not as one that aimlessly beats the air:

27 But I conquer and subdue my body, so that when I have proclaimed to others, I myself should not become a castaway.

10 Moreover, Yisraelite brothers, I would not that you

¹ Yisraelite congregations are expected to provide for their hard working leaders.

² "Under the Torah" means guarded, or protected by its loving boundaries. Yisrael and specifically Jewish-Yisrael were all protected under the Torah's covering from pagan dominance.

³ House of Judah.

⁴ Efrayim-Yisrael, or House of Yisrael.

QORINTYAH ALEF - FIRST CORINTHIANS

should be ignorant,¹ how that all our ahvot² were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea;

2 And were all immersed into Moshe in the cloud and in the sea;

3 And did all eat the same spiritual food;

4 And did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they all drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them:³ and that Rock was and is Moshiach.

5 But with many of them יהוה was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness.

6 Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.⁴

7 Neither let us be idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

8 Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and there fell in one day twenty three thousand.

9 Neither let us test Moshiach, as some of them also tested, and were destroyed by serpents.

10 Neither let us murmur, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed by the destroyer.

11 Now all these things happened to them for examples: and they are written as our warning,⁵ upon whom the end of the olam hazeh has come.

12 Therefore let him that thinks he stands take careful watch, lest he fall.

13 There has no trial come upon you but such as is common to all men: but יהוה is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted above that which you are able to bear; but will with the trial also make a way of escape, that you may be able to bear it.

14 Therefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry.⁶

15 I speak as to wise men; you are the judge of what I say.

16 The kiddish cup of bracha which we bless, is it not the sharing of the dahm of the Moshiach? The matzah which we break, is it not the sharing of the body of the Moshiach?

17 For we being many are one lechem, and one body: for we are all partakers of that lechem ehad.⁷

18 Behold Yisrael whose observance is after the flesh:⁸ are not those who eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?

19 What then do I say? That the idol is anything, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is anything?

20 But I say, that the things that the gentiles sacrifice,⁹ they sacrifice to shadim, and not to אלהא: and I would not that you should have chavurah with shadim.^{10 11}

21 You cannot drink the kiddish cup of יהוה, and the cup of shadim: you cannot be partakers of יהוה's shulchan, and the shulchan of shadim.

22 Do we provoke יהוה to jealousy? Are we stronger than He is?

23 All things are permitted for me, but all things are not profitable: all things are permitted for me, but all things do not build up my emunah.

24 Let no man seek his own interests only, but every man another's well-being and welfare.

25 Whatever is sold in the meat market, that eat, asking no questions for conscience sake:¹²

¹ How many born again people sadly remain ignorant of the fact that their physical fathers were the ones coming out of Egypt? This chapter is written so that your ignorance in this area can pass.

² Paul, a Jewish Rabbi and Pharisee, stated that the physical fathers of the Corinthian congregation, or eidta, were the very ones who along with his physical fathers (notice the term "our"), left Egypt, and disobeyed YHWH in the wilderness. Also note the term "all our fathers" which means all the patriarchs we share, and also can mean the fathers of us all. All Jewish believers along with the Efrayimites at Corinth, had the same biological fathers who experienced the same historical events.

³ Notice that the Rock (Yahshua-YHWH) was spiritual. But the physical ancestors of our Corinthian Efrayimite brothers were physical.

⁴ These things that happened to our forefathers to serve us as our examples that we should not repeat the very same mistakes of our Yisraelite forefathers.

⁵ The warning is simple. It happened to Yisrael before and it can happen to the last few generations of Yisrael as well.

⁶ If Efrayim is going to truly be repatriated back into Yisrael with Judah, he has to fully and completely renounce all forms of idolatry on an ongoing basis.

⁸ An obvious reference to unsaved parts of Jewish-Yisrael.

¹⁰ This may seem harsh but Scripture is clear here. A Torah-guarding born-again Yisraelite cannot have close fellowship with anyone who sees himself as a gentile, for by biblical definition, gentiles worship demons.

¹² This does not mean we can eat unkosher (unclean) foods. Rather if an animal is clean as defined in Torah,

QORINTYAH ALEF - FIRST CORINTHIANS

26 For the earth is the Master יהוה's, and the fullness of it.

27 If any of them that believes not invites you to a feast, and you desire to go; whatever is set before you, eat, asking no questions for conscience sake.¹

28 But if any man says to you, This is offered in sacrifice to idols, do not eat it for his sake that showed it, and for conscience sake: for the earth is the Master יהוה's, and the fullness thereof:

29 The conscience, of which I speak is not yours, but others: for why is my liberty judged by another man's conscience?

30 For if I by unmerited favor be a partaker, why should evil be spoken against me for that thing for which I give hodu?

31 Therefore whether you eat, or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the tifereth of יהוה.

32 Give no offense, neither to the Yahudim,² nor to the nations,³ nor to the Yisraelite congregation⁴ of יהוה:

33 Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking my own advantage, but the advantage of many, that they may be saved.

11 Be imitators of me, even as I also am of Moshiach.

2 Now I praise you, Yisraelite brothers, that you remember me in all things, and keep the chukim and mishpatim,⁵ as I delivered them to you.

3 But I would have you to know, that the head of every man is Moshiach; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Moshiach is יהוה.⁶

4 Every man making tefillot, or prophesying, having his head veiled and hanging down, dishonors his head.

5 But every woman that makes tefillot, or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonors her head: for that is the same as if she were shaven.⁸

6 For if the woman does not have a head covering, let her also be shorn: but if it is a shame for a woman to be shorn, or shaven, let her be covered.

7 For a man indeed ought not to veil his head,⁹ because he is the image and tifereth of יהוה: but the woman is the tifereth of the man.

8 For the man is not from the woman; but the woman from the man.

9 Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man.

10 For this cause ought the woman to have a symbol of authority on her head because of the unclean fallen shadim.¹⁰

11 Nevertheless neither is the man independent of the woman, neither the woman independent of the man, in יהוה.

12 For as the woman is from the man, even so is the man also through the woman; but all things are from יהוה.

13 Shophet for yourselves: is it proper that a woman prays to יהוה uncovered?

14 Does not nature itself teach you, that, if a man has long hair,¹¹ it is a shame to him?

15 But if a woman has long hair, it is a tifereth for her: for her hair is given to her as a covering.¹² the people of Yisrael should just eat, since they are not held responsible for the origins of the meat. In pagan areas, it was not always possible to determine beyond any doubt, whether, or not the meat had been used in a pagan temple rite.

¹ Meaning as long as it is clean/kosher and the origin cannot be determined, a Yisraelite may eat with a clear conscious.

² Unbelieving Jews.

³ Unbelieving Efrayimites, or pagans.

⁴ The redeemed of both houses and those who join them.

⁵ Statutes and judgments of Torah.

⁶ The Father is the head of Yahshua, not His co-equal, for The Father was, is, and always will be greater. That is Scripture. But we cannot inherit eternal life without the Son.

⁷ Head veiled (Strong's Greek # 2596 kata, meaning hanging down). This is not any kind of prohibition against yarmulkes, or skull caps, since all the priests of Yisrael as well as the kings wore them. As His kings and priests, Revelation 1:6, we also as Yisraelite men are required to wear head coverings especially in public worship and in times of ministry. The prohibition here is against veils hanging down like a woman, since that was a sign of cross-dressing which is forbidden in Torah as found in Deuteronomy 22:5. Also the veil even if in the form of long hair worn over the forehead as a woman, is also a type of cross-dressing, or gender confusion, and as such the principle being taught here is the Torah warning against all cross-dressing, whether it be veiling the face as the temple prostitutes did in Athens and Corinth, or using long hair for similar purposes. For more details on this subject see: Reclaiming A Lost Priestly Tool available at:

<http://restorationscriptures.org/link30.htm>

⁸ Denominations can and indeed have fought over ladies' head coverings. For Yisraelite ladies however, this is not an option but like their male counterparts their head must be covered in public worship settings, and by choice in private settings. If a woman does not wear a head covering, she is acting like a pagan, since pagan female temple prostitutes shaved their heads as seen here.

⁹ With a hang-me-down veil, or long hanging frontal hair.

¹⁰ This is a clear reference back to Genesis 6 where women who were not under a spiritual authority, or covering like the one provided for them by Noah, were molested and had demons that cohabitated with them. Due to the reality of unclean demons desiring to physically violate and emotionally scar women through vaginal entry, women are strongly urged to do what is proper and not make this a contentious issue like some who feel this is not important.

¹¹ Worn like a woman, but OK for Nazarite vows and such other pursuits of YHWH.

¹² The point being that nature is the ultimate instructor. If women have longer hair, it is because YHWH is

QORINTYAH ALEF - FIRST CORINTHIANS

16 But if any man seems to be contentious, we have no such custom of contention, neither the congregations of יהוה.¹

17 Now in declaring this to you I do not commend you, since when you come together you have not made progress but have become worse.²

18 For first of all, when you come together in the Yisraelite congregation, I hear that there are divisions among you; and I partly believe it.

19 For there must be controversies and also heresies among you, that those who are approved may be made manifest among you.³

20 When you come together therefore into one place as Yisrael, do not eat and drink inappropriately on the day of Shabbat, the day of our Master.⁴

21 For in eating every one takes his own meal first: and one is hungry, and another is drunk.

22 What's going on? Don't you have houses to eat and to drink in? Or, do you despise the Yisraelite congregation of יהוה, and shame those that have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall I give tehilla to you for this? I will not give you tehilla.

23 For I have received from יהוה that which also I delivered to you, that the Master יהושע the same night in which He was betrayed took lechem:

24 And when He had said the bracha, He broke it, and said, Take, eat: this is My body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of Me.

25 After the same manner also He took the kiddush cup, after He had eaten, saying, This cup of geulah is the Brit Chadasha in My dahm: this do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me.

26 For as often as you eat this lechem, and drink this cup, you do show יהושע's death until He returns.⁵

27 Therefore whosoever shall eat this lechem, and drink this cup of the Master יהוה, unworthily,⁶ shall be guilty of the body and dahm of the Master יהוה.

28 But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that lechem, and drink of that cup.

29 For he that eats and drinks unworthily, eats and drinks damnation to himself, not discerning the body of the Master יהוה.⁷

30 For this reason many are weak and sickly among you, and many are dead.⁸

31 For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged, we are disciplined by יהוה, that we should not be condemned with the olam hazeh.

33 Therefore, my Yisraelite brothers, when you come together to eat, wait one for the other.

34 And if any man is hungry, let him eat at home; so that when you come together it is not for condemnation. And the rest of the Pesach procedures I will set in order when I come.

12 Now concerning spiritual gifts, my Yisraelite brothers, I would not have you ignorant.

2 You know that you were gentiles,⁹ carried away to and by those dumb idols, even as you were led.

3 Therefore I want you to understand, that no man speaking by the Ruach of יהוה calls יהושע a curse: and that no man can say that יהושע is the Master יהוה,¹⁰ but by the Ruach Hakodesh.

4 Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Ruach.

5 And there are differences in callings, but the same Master יהוה.

saying that women are to be covered. Nature and Scripture each teach likewise.

¹ The congregations of Yisrael have no custom that makes this a side issue, or worse yet a contentious one. It is a main issue showing rebellion, or submission to kingdom life and must not be treated as a side issue and must not be made into a contentious matter. It is given to the congregations as divine guidance. Paul states here clearly that this Corinthian custom of contention is not found in other congregations in Renewed Covenant Yisrael.

² In many issues, including the one he has addressed for 16 verses.

³ Therefore believers are responsible for making sure that heresy is not being taught and thereby true teachers will be recognized as those approved by the word.

⁵ "As often as you do this" means that when the proper time rolls around annually on the 14th of Aviv between the evenings, that is to say 3-6 PM, then do it in remembrance of Me. This does not mean that a believing congregation is to do this as often as they feel like it. Rather they are to do it by submitting to the times and frequencies that Yahshua did, since after all, we are remembering what He did, not what the church council, or the elder board command us to do. Communion is taken once a year during Passover, not as an event divorced from Passover.

⁶ Is later defined in verse 29 as not discerning His broken body for our sins, and the great eternal consequences associated with that, as well as not discerning the unity and love required in the body of Yisrael before this meal can ever be shared.

⁷ See the note on 1st Corinthians 11:27.

⁸ There cannot be unforgiveness and divisions in the camp during this solemn time. Many had already found that out the hard way.

⁹ Note the tense here. These are non-Jewish Yisraelites and it's time for believers to walk like Yahshua walked.

¹⁰ Mar-Yah in Aramaic, showing Yahshua to be the Master-Yah Himself.

QORINTYAH ALEF - FIRST CORINTHIANS

6 And there are diversities of powers and manifestations,
¹ but it is the same אלהים who works all and through all.
7 But the manifestation of the Ruach is given to every man to profit himself and all others.
8 For to one is given by the Ruach the word of chochmah; to another the word of da'at by the same Ruach;
9 To another emunah by the same Ruach; to another the gifts of healing by the same Ruach;
10 To another the working of nisim; to another prophecy; to another the discerning of the emet Ruach; to another divers kinds of languages; to another the interpretation of diverse languages:
11 But all these are done by that one and the same Ruach, dividing to every man individually as He will.
12 For as the body of Yisrael is one, and has many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are still one body: so also is Moshiach.
13 For by one Ruach are we all immersed into one body, whether we be Yahudim, or Greeks, or Arameans, whether we be avadim, or free; and have been all made to drink from Ruach echad.
14 For the body is not one member, but many.
15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?
16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?
17 If the whole body was an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were for hearing, what part would the smelling come from?
18 But now has אלהים set the members every one of them in the body, as it has pleased Him.
19 And if they were all the same member, where would the body be?
20 But now there are indeed many members, yet just one body.
21 And the eye cannot say to the hand, I have no need of you: nor can the head say to the feet, I have no need of you.
22 No, rather those members of the body, which seem to be weakest, are the most necessary:
23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less respected, upon these we present greater respect; and our uncomely parts we dress up with greater care.
24 For our nicer looking parts have no need for special attention: but אלהים has blended the body together, having given more abundant respect to the parts that lack respect, or are inferior:
25 That there should be no discord, or division in the body; but that the members should have the same ahava one for another.
26 And whether one member suffers, all the members suffer with it; or if one member is honored, all the members gilah with it.
27 Now you are the body of the Moshiach, and members individually.
28 And יהוה has set some in the Yisraelite congregation, first shlichim, secondarily neviim, thirdly morim, after that nisim, then gifts of healings, helpers, leaders, and diverse languages.

29 Are all shlichim? Are all neviim? Are all morim? Are all workers of nisim?
30 Do all have the gifts of healings? Do all speak with diverse languages? Do all interpret?
31 But seek earnestly the best gifts: and yet I will show you a more excellent halacha.

13 Though I speak with the diverse languages of men and of heavenly malachim, and have not ahava, I am become as sounding brass, or a clanging cymbal.
2 And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all sod mysteries, and all da'at; and though I have all emunah, so that I could remove mountains, and have not ahava, I am nothing.
3 And though I distribute all my material things to feed the poor, and thus give my body to boasting, but have not ahava, it profits me nothing.
4 Ahava suffers long, and is kind; ahava envies not; ahava does not boast, is not puffed up,
5 Does not behave itself indecently, seeks not its own, is not easily provoked, thinks no evil;
6 Has no gilah in Torah-less-ness, but has simcha in the emet;
7 Bears all things, believes all things, has tikvah for all tov things, endures all things.
8 Ahava never fails: but whether there are prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be diverse languages, they shall cease; whether there be da'at, it shall vanish away.²
9 For we know in part, and we prophecy in part.
10 But when that which is Perfect has come, then that which is in part shall be done away.³
11 When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.
12 For now we see in a mirror, dimly; but then panayim-el-panayim:⁴ now I know in part; but then shall I know Him, even as also He has known me.

² All these gifts of the Spirit will one day vanish away and cease. The question then is when?

³ The Perfect One is Yahshua. When Yahshua returns, we will see Him and therefore all temporary manifestations will no longer be needed. "The Perfect" cannot be speaking of the completion of the Bible, as some believe, since all translations are not perfect and moreover as seen in verse 12 the Perfect object that comes has a face, not a book cover. Therefore all the gifts remain in full operation until His return. Of course, this means so do the abuses of those same gifts. Returning Efrayimites and Jews coming out of the Sunday system often are scared of these manifestations and merely dismiss them because they are too discomforting. However, that is sadly setting aside the written word in exchange for imagined emotional tranquility. Truth is truth, regardless of some people's excess and abuse.

⁴ The Perfect One with a face is Yahshua and when He returns we will be with Him face to face and all gifts of the Spirit naturally will cease.

QORINTYAH ALEF - FIRST CORINTHIANS

13 And now abides these three – emunah, tikvah, ahava; but the greatest of these is ahava.¹

14 Follow after ahava, and desire spiritual gifts, but specifically that you may prophesy.

2 For he that speaks in an unknown language² speaks not to men, but to אלהא: for no man understands him; but in the Ruach he speaks sod mysteries.

3 But he that prophesies speaks to men to edification, and encouragement, and comfort.

4 He that speaks in an unknown language edifies himself; but he that prophesies³ edifies the Yisraelite congregation.

5 I would that you all spoke with diverse languages, but rather that you prophesied: for greater is he that prophesies than he that speaks with diverse languages, unless the same one interpret, that the Yisraelite congregation may receive edifying.

6 Now, Yisraelite brothers, if I come to you speaking with diverse languages, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by da'at, or by prophesying, or by teaching?

7 And even lifeless instruments that give musical sounds, whether flute, or harp, except they give a distinct sound, how shall it be known what is played on the flute, or harp?

8 For if the shofar gives out an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself for the battle?

9 So likewise, unless you utter by the tongue words that are easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? For you shall be speaking into the air.

10 There are, undoubtedly, so many kinds of voices and sounds in the olam hazeh, and none of them is without significance.

11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be to him that speaks a foreigner, and he that speaks shall be a foreigner⁴ to me.

12 So since, you are zealous for spiritual gifts, seek gifts that will allow you to excel in the edifying of the entire Yisraelite congregation.

13 Therefore let him that speaks in an unknown language make tefillah that he may also be given the interpretation.

14 For if I make tefillah in an unknown language, my Ruach makes tefillah, but my binah is unfruitful.

15 What then shall I do? I will make tefillah with the Ruach, and I will make tefillah with binah also: I will sing with the Ruach, and I will sing with binah also.

16 Or, else when you shall bless with the Ruach, how shall he that is in a place of not being learned say, Amein, when you give hodu, seeing he does not understand what you are saying?

17 For you truly do well to give hodu in the Ruach, but the others are not edified.

18 I thank my אלהא; I speak with diverse languages more than all of you combined:

19 Yet in the Yisraelite congregation I had rather speak five words with my binah, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown language.

20 Yisraelite brothers, be not children in binah: but in evil and Torah breaking, that's where you can be children, but in binah be men.

21 In the Torah it is written, With men of other diverse languages and other lips will I speak to this people; and yet for all that will they not hear Me, says the Master יהוה.⁵

22 So diverse languages are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serves not for unbelievers, but for those who believe.

23 If therefore the whole Yisraelite congregation comes together into one place, and all speak with diverse languages, and there comes in a visitor, or those that are unlearned in the gifts, or even unbelievers, will they not say that you are meshugoyim?

24 But if all prophesy, and there comes in a visitor, one that believes not, or one who is unlearned, he will be convinced by all the words, and he will be set right by all the words:

25 And the secrets of his lev will be openly revealed; and so falling down on his face he will worship אלהא, and report that אלהא is truly among you.

26 How is it then, Yisraelite brothers? When you come together, each one of you has a mizmor, has a different doctrine, has a language, has a revelation, and has an interpretation. Let all things be done to build up the people of Yisrael.

27 If any man speaks in an unknown language, let two, or at most three take their turns, and let someone interpret.

28 But if there is no interpreter, let him keep silent in the Yisraelite congregation; and let him speak to himself, and to His אלהא.

29 Let the neviim speak two, or three in their turns, and let the others discern their words.

30 If anything is simultaneously revealed to another that sits by, let the first hold his silence and not interrupt.

31 For you may all prophesy one by one in your turn, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.

32 And the ruachim of the neviim are subject to the neviim.⁶

² These tongues are not gibberish, or lip gyrations, but true and fully recognized languages spoken in the world today.

³ Prophecy is a forth-telling of the written word more than a declaration of the future, which usually falls under the category of words of knowledge about specific things that YHWH reveals.

⁵ Tongues were given to assist others in identifying the ten tribes of returning Yisrael.

⁶ Meaning that no one with a word from YHWH has to do anything like interrupt, disrupt worship, or liturgy, or the like. If he has the true and pure gift, he can hold

QORINTYAH ALEF - FIRST CORINTHIANS

33 For אלה is not the author of confusion, but of shalom, as He is in all congregations of the Yisraelite kidushim.

34 Let your women keep silent in the congregations: for it is not permitted for them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also says the Torah.

35 And if they will learn anything, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak out in the Yisraelite congregation.¹

36 What? Came the word of יהוה out from you only? Or, came it to you only?

37 If any man thinks himself to be a navi, or a spiritual being, let him acknowledge that the things that I write to you are in fact from the Torah of יהוה.

38 But if any man is ignorant, let him be ignorant.²

39 Wherefore, Yisraelite brothers, seek to prophesy, and also forbid not to speak with diverse languages.

40 Of course let all things be done decently and in order.

15 Moreover, Yisraelite brothers, I declare to you the Besorah which I proclaimed to you, which also you have received, and in which you stand;

2 By which also you are saved, if you keep in memory what I proclaimed to you, unless you have believed in vain.

3 For I delivered to you first of all that which I also received, how that Moshiach died for our sins according to the Keetvay HaKadosh;

4 And that He was buried, and that He rose again the third day according to the Keetvay HaKadosh:³

5 And that He was seen of Kepha, then of the twelve:

6 After that, more than five hundred Yisraelite brothers saw Him at once; of whom a great many remain alive, but some are dead.

7 After that, He was seen by Yaakov; then of all the shlichim.

8 And last of all He was seen by me also, ignorant and imperfectly trained as I was.

that word even for months, until he has an unction, or an opening in the service, to give it without causing confusion.

¹ This does not mean women cannot talk, or minister. It simply means that they cannot shout out questions to their husbands during meetings. They need to wait until they arrive home. This condition was caused because the first-century Nazarene Yisraelite synagogues met in places where the men and women sat separate, and had to yell across the room to get one another's attention. The cause of this command to keep silent is not the women themselves, but rather the orthodox Jewish seating arrangement of the early Nazarene Yisraelites who met in synagogues until about 130 CE.

² Yisraelites should teach only those who want to be taught, not those who think they have nothing more to learn, or unlearn. Move on from these to others.

³ Hosea 6:2 Yisrael and Yahshua both YHWH's Son, were raised after 3 days to life.

9 For I am the least of the shlichim, that am not even fit to be called a sholiach, because I persecuted the Yisraelite congregation of אלה.

10 But by the unmerited favor of יהוה today I am what I am: and His unmerited favor that was showered upon me was not in vain; but I labored even more abundantly than them: yet not I, but the unmerited favor of יהוה which was in me.

11 Therefore whether it was I, or they; so we proclaimed, and so you believed.

12 Now if Moshiach is proclaimed that He rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then is Moshiach not risen:

14 And if Moshiach has not risen, then is our proclaiming in vain, and your emunah is also in vain.

15 Yes, and worse than that we are found to be false witnesses of יהוה; because we have testified about יהוה that He raised up Moshiach: whom He did not raise up, if it be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then Moshiach is not raised:

17 And if Moshiach is not raised, your emunah is in vain; you are still in your sins.

18 Then those also who died with emunah in Moshiach have perished.

19 If for this chayim only we have tikvah in Moshiach, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now is Moshiach risen from the dead, and become The Bikkur⁴ of those that died in emunah.

21 For since by man came death, by Man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Ahdahm all die, even so in Moshiach shall all be made alive.

23 But every man in his own order: Moshiach the Bikkur; afterwards they that are Moshiach's at His coming.

24 Then comes the end of the olam hazeh, when He shall have delivered up the malchut to יהוה, even Abba; when He shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.

25 For He must reign, until He has put all enemies under His feet.

26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

27 For He has put all things under His feet. But when He says, all things are put under Him, it is clear that the One who did put all things under Him, Abba Himself, is excluded.⁵

⁴ Yahshua was the Firstfruit and Nazarene Yisraelites are the firstfruits. Scripture does not teach that Messiah had to rise on the Feast of Firstfruits. Rather, it proclaims Him as The Firstfruit. He rose on Aviv 17, the day after the Feast of Firstfruits.

QORINTYAH ALEF - FIRST CORINTHIANS

28 And when all things shall be subdued under Him, then shall the Son also Himself be subject to Abba that put all things under Him, so that יהוה may be all in all.¹

29 Otherwise what shall they do who are immersed for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? Why are they then immersed for the dead?²

30 And why do we stand in jeopardy every hour?

31 I affirm by my boasting over you that I have in Moshiach יהושע our Master, I die daily.

32 If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephsiyah,³ what advantage is it to me, if the dead rise not? Let us eat and drink; for tomorrow we die.

33 Be not deceived: evil company corrupts tov manners and habits.

34 Awake, to tzedakah, and sin not; for some have not the da'at of אלהא: I speak this to your shame.

35 But someone will say, How are the dead raised up? And with what body do they come?

36 You fool, that which you sow is not made alive, except it die:

37 And that which you sow, you sow not the body that shall be, but the bare grain, that it may by chance result in wheat, barley, or even some other grain:

38 But אלהא gives it a body as it has pleased Him, and to every zera its own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also heavenly bodies, and earthly bodies: but the tifereth of the heavenly is one kind, and the tifereth of the earthly is another kind.

41 There is one tifereth of the sun, and another tifereth of the moon, and another tifereth of the cochavim: for one cochav differs from another cochav in tifereth.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:

43 It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in tifereth: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written, The first man Ahdahm was made a living being; the last Ahdahm was made a chayim giving Ruach.

46 But the spiritual Ahdahm was not first, but the natural Ahdahm; and afterwards the spiritual One.

47 The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second Man is the Master יהוה from the shamayim.

48 As is the earthy, so also are those that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, so also are those that are heavenly.

¹ Let freedom's truth ring in this verse. When the age-come dawns and Yahshua rules on Dawid's throne, He still takes all commands and orders from the greater part of YHWH.

² This is not approving of immersion by proxy as practiced by the Mormons. Rather it was a memorial service, or act to remember the memory of the blessed dead, similar to the modern rabbinical Jewish memorial service known as Yizkor, in the hope of resurrection.

³ Local anti-Yahshua missionaries.

49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy one, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly One.

50 Now this I say, Yisraelite brothers, that flesh and dahm cannot inherit the malchut of יהוה;⁴ neither does corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I show you a sod mystery; We shall not all die, but we shall all be changed,⁵

52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last shofar: for the shofar shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.⁶

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

55 O death, where is your sting? O Sheol, where is your victory?

56 The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the Torah violations.

57 But thanks be to יהוה, who gives us the victory through our Master יהושע ha Moshiach.

58 Therefore, my beloved Yisraelite brothers, be steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the mitzvot and assignments of the Master יהוה, for you must know that your labor is not in vain in Him.

16 Now concerning the collection for the Yisraelite kidushim, as I have given orders to the Yisraelite congregations of Galutyah, the same applies to you.

2 After one of the Shabbats⁷ let every one of you lay aside and store up, what יהוה has prospered him with, so that there be no collections when I come.⁸

3 And when I come, whoever you shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your liberal gift to Yahrushalayim.

4 And if it is right that I go also, they shall go with me.

5 Now I will come to you, when I shall pass through Makedonia: for I do pass through Makedonia.

6 And it may be that I will remain, and spend the winter with you, that you may bring me on my journey wherever I go.

7 For I will not see you now on the way; but I trust to stay a while with you, if יהוה permits.

⁴ In other words our body must - and will - be changed.

⁵ One last final generation that will escape death and be changed without dying.

⁷ In the Greek: kata mia sabbaton literally "after one of the Shabbats."

⁸ Giving should be prepared before and with thought, as a serious and conscientious worshipper of YHWH. He desired collections (not tithes) to be made before, or after Shabbat.

QORINTYAH ALEF - FIRST CORINTHIANS

8 But I will stay at Ephsiyah until Shavuot.¹

9 For a great and effective door has opened to me, but there are many adversaries.

10 Now if Timtheous comes, see that he may be with you without worry: for he works the mitzvoth of the Master יהיה, as I also do.

11 Let no man therefore despise him: but send him forth in shalom, that he may come to me: for I am waiting for him with my other Yisraelite brothers.

12 As touching our Yisraelite brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come to you with the Yisraelite brothers: but his desire was not to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have a convenient time.

13 Watch, stand fast in the emunah, be like men, and be strong.

14 Let all your mitzvoth be done with ahava.

15 I appeal to you, Yisraelite brothers, you know the bayit of Tzephanyah, how they are the bikkurim from Achayah, and that they have fully dedicated themselves to the service of the Yisraelite kidushim,

16 Submit yourselves to them, and to everyone that helps us, and labors with us.

17 I am in simcha about the coming of Tzephanyah and Fortunatos and Achaicos: for that which was lacking on your part they have supplied.

18 For they have refreshed my ruach and yours: therefore recognize them that are like that.

19 The congregations of Asia Minor greet you. Aquilas and Priscilla greet you warmly in the Master, with the Yisraelite congregation that is in their bayit.

20 All the Yisraelite brothers greet you. Greet one another with a kadosh kiss.

21 The salutation of Shaul with my own hand.

22 If any man love not the Master יהושע ha Moshiach, let him be a curse. Maranatha;² - Oh Master come!

23 The unmerited favor of our Master יהושע ha Moshiach be with you.

24 My ahava be with you all in Moshiach יהושע.
Amein. ׀

¹ Paul, like us, had to guard YHWH's eternal feasts.

² An Aramaic term meaning "Master come." In the Hebrew however, Mah-aaron-atah can mean "will you be at the coming," or "will you be gathered at the coming." Either, or both Semitic understandings remain Scriptural. Some claim that this phrase in the Hebrew served as a code word between believers, so as to differentiate their friends from their foes. By Paul placing the term here, he identifies his deep love and friendship even for the worldly Yisraelite believers at Corinth through a code.

Qorintyah Bet – קורנתי ב
Second Corinthians
To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

1 Shaul, a sholiach of יהושע ha Moshiach by the will of יהוה, and Timtheous our brother, to the Yisraelite congregation of יהוה which is at Qorintyah, with all the Yisraelite kidushim that are in all Achayah:

2 Unmerited favor be to you and shalom from יהוה our Abba, and from the Master יהושע ha Moshiach.

3 Blessed be יהוה, even the Abba of our Master יהושע ha Moshiach, the Abba of all rachamim, and the אלהא of all comfort;

4 Who comforts us in all our tribulation that we may be able to comfort those who are in any trouble, by the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by אלהא.

5 For as the sufferings of Moshiach abound in us, so our comforts also abound by Moshiach.

6 And whether we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation, being worked out in enduring the same sufferings, which we also suffer: or if we are comforted, it is for your comfort and salvation.

7 And our tikvah for you is steadfast, knowing, that as you are partakers of the sufferings, so shall you be also of the comforts.

8 For we would not, Yisraelite brothers, have you ignorant of our trouble that came to us in Asia Minor, that we were weighed down, beyond our strength, so that we despaired even of our chayim:

9 But we were even ready to die, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in יהוה who raises the dead:

10 Who delivered us from so great a death, and does deliver: in whom we trust that He will yet deliver us;

11 You also helping together by making tefillah for us that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons, hodu may be given to many on our behalf.

12 For our gilah is this, the testimony of our conscience, in simplicity, sincerity and cleanliness, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the unmerited favor of יהוה, we have had our behavior in the olam hazeh, and even more so to you.

13 For we write no other things to you, than what you read, or acknowledge; and I trust you shall acknowledge even to the end;

14 As also you have understood us in part, that we are also your gilah, even as you also are our gilah in the Yom of the Master יהושע.

15 And in this confidence I desired and intended to come to you before, that you might have a double benefit;

16 And to pass by you into Makedonia, and to come again out of Makedonia to you, and by you to be brought on my way toward the province of Yahudah.

17 When I was therefore considering this, did I do so lightly? Or, the things that I plan, do I plan according to the flesh; that with me there should be the confusion of yes, yes, and no, no?

18 But as יהוה is emet, our word toward you was not even yes and no.

19 For the Son of יהוה יהושע ha Moshiach, who was proclaimed among you by us, even by me and Sila and Timtheous, was not yes and no, but in Him was yes.

20 For all the promises of יהוה in Him are yes, and in Him amein, to the tifereth of יהוה through us.

21 Now He who establishes us with you as echad in Moshiach, and has anointed us all, is יהוה;

22 Who has also sealed us, and given the pledge of the Ruach in our levim.

23 Moreover I call יהוה for a record upon my being, that to spare you I decided not to come yet to Qorintyah.

24 Not that we have rule over your emunah, but are helpers of your simcha: for by emunah you stand.

2 But I determined this within myself that I would not come again to you in sadness.

2 For if I make you sorrowful, who is he then that makes me have simcha, but the same ones who are made sorrowful by me?

3 And I wrote this same to you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from the ones I ought to gilah with; having confidence in you all, that my simcha is your simcha as well.

4 For out of much affliction and anguish of lev I wrote to you with many tears; not that you should be made sad, but that you might know the abundant ahava which I have for you.

5 But if anyone has caused grief, he has not made me sad only, but to a certain degree all of you: therefore the news will not be a shock to you.

6 The rebuke of many persons is sufficient for such a man.

7 So that from now on you should forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with excessive sorrow.

8 Therefore I appeal to you that you would confirm your ahava toward him.

9 For that is why I wrote to you, that I might know by your words to me, whether you are obedient in all things.¹

10 To whom you forgive anything, I forgive also: for anything I have forgiven, to whomever I forgave it, it is for your sakes that I forgave it in the presence of the Moshiach;

11 Lest s.a.tan should get an advantage over us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to proclaim the Besorah of Moshiach, and a door was opened to me by יהוה, 13 I had no rest in my ruach, because I did not find Teitus my Yisraelite brother: therefore I left them and I went from there into Makedonia.

14 Now thanks be to יהוה, who always causes us to triumph in the Moshiach, and makes manifest the fragrance of His chochmah through us in every place.

15 For we are to יהוה a sweet fragrance of Moshiach, in them that are being saved, and in them that are perishing:

16 To the one we are the fragrance of death to death; and

SECOND CORINTHIANS

¹ Yisraelite community living such as care, love, and discipline.

QORINTYAH BET - SECOND CORINTHIANS

to the other the fragrance of chayim to chayim. And who is worthy for these things?

17 For we are not as many, who corrupt the word of יהוה: but as men of sincerity, according to the emet, in the sight of יהוה, we speak through Moshiach.

3 Do we begin again to commend ourselves? Or, do we need, as some others, letters of recommendation to you, or letters of recommendation from you?

2 You are our letter written on our levim, known and read by all men:

3 For you are known to be the letter of the Moshiach served by us, written not with ink, but with the Ruach of the living אלה; not in tablets of stone, but on fleshy tablets of the living lev. ¹

4 And this is the trust we have through Moshiach towards יהוה:

5 Not that we are sufficient in ourselves to think anything of ourselves; but our sufficiency is from יהוה;

6 Who also has made us worthy avadim of the Brit Chadasha; not of the letter, but of the Ruach: for the letter kills, but the Ruach gives chayim. ²

7 But if the administration of death, written and engraved in stones, was full of so much tifereth, that b'nai Yisrael could not behold the face of Moshe for the tifereth of his countenance; which tifereth was not lasting: ³

8 Why then should not the administration of the Ruach be with even more tifereth? ⁴

9 For if the administration of condemnation was with tifereth, much more ⁵ does the administration of tzedakah exceed in tifereth. ⁶

¹ A promise to Yisrael found in Ezekiel 36:25-27.

² Not a comparison between law and grace, but between Spirit-led Torah obedience versus mandated legalism. Legalism is man-imposed regulations upon another man, as found in Galatians.

³ The subject in verse 7 is the beauty on Moses's face that did not last. This does not say that the Torah does not last, or that the Torah was passing away, as many have falsely claimed. The issue is the fading cloud of beauty, on Moses's face. The comparison here then is between the beauty of the First Covenant, compared to the greater beauty of the Renewed Covenant, since one is found on faces and tablets, whereas the other is found in the renewed heart.

⁴ The comparison is between the greater beauty of the Renewed Covenant versus the fading beauty of the First Covenant. What was fading was the beauty, not the entire Torah.

⁵ The beauty of the administration of condemnation does not mean that Torah-keeping and Torah itself is futile leading to death. It means that the knowledge of sin that leads to death comes from Torah. Torah, not the Renewed Covenant, defines sin. In that sense it was and continues to be the instrument of death in that it defines sin and the wages of sin, which is death. The comparison here is that if the Torah which pointed out our sins was full of His beauty, how much more the work of the Spirit in writing the same Torah in our hearts and Yahshua granting forgiveness of our sins.

10 For even that which was made in tifereth had no tifereth in this respect, by reason of the tifereth that exceeds it. ⁷

11 For if that which was not lasting was with tifereth, how much more that which remains is full of tifereth. ⁸ ⁹

12 Seeing then that we have such tikvah, we speak and conduct ourselves bravely:

13 And not as Moshe, who put a veil over his face that b'nai Yisrael should not look on the tifereth that was not lasting: ¹⁰

14 But their minds were blinded: for until this day there remains the same veil not taken away in the reading of the Tanach; which veil is removed by Moshiach. ¹¹

15 But even to this day, when Torah is read, the veil is upon their lev. ¹²

16 Nevertheless, whenever a man makes teshuvah to the Master יהוה, the veil shall be taken away by the Ruach Hakodesh.

What has more beauty? The covenant that points out our sins, or the covenant that takes our sins away forever? The covenant that puts Torah on stone tablets, or puts Torah in our hearts? That's the issue here. The Torah is not the issue. The beauty of the covenant that forgives is by definition more full of beauty, yet recognizing that Torah also has its own measure of beauty.

⁶ The ongoing comparison is between administrations and not the Torah itself. What has more beauty? The administration that placed the Torah on stone tablets before Yisrael through a man, or the placing of the same Torah in men's hearts by the Spirit without the administration of a man? Therefore the issue is between administrations of Torah and not the Torah itself.

⁷ The issue again is tifereth/ beauty versus greater beauty, not grace versus law.

⁸ The greater beauty and greater administration of that beauty has exceeded that of the stone delivery and the human lawgiver, since now the Lawgiver is YHWH and the tablets are regenerated hearts.

⁹ Kal vachomer. If this is true... how much truer is that? If this be done....aren't we then to do that other thing even more? A basic principle of Torah understanding and interpretation from the first century school of Hillel.

¹⁰ The veil covered the beauty that was passing away, since it was on a human being and not on the inner tablets of the heart, where it is now being guarded and can never fade, or pass away.

¹² So they can't see the greater beauty of the covenant that removes sins, found by violation of Torah.

QORINTYAH BET - SECOND CORINTHIANS

17 Now the Master יהוה is that same Ruach: and where the Ruach of the Master יהוה is, there is freedom.

18 But we all, with an open face seeing ourselves in a mirror see the tifereth of the Master יהוה, and are changed into the same likeness from tifereth to tifereth, even by the Ruach of the Master יהוה.¹

4 Therefore we are not weary of this service, just as we are not weary of the rachamim we have received, and so we don't lose lev;

2 But have renounced the hidden things of shame, not practicing cunning, nor handling the word of יהוה deceitfully; but by the manifestation of the emet commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of אלהא.

3 But if our Besorah is hid, it is hid to them that are lost and perishing:

4 In whom the sar-ruler of this olam has blinded the minds of those who believe not, lest the light of the tifereth filled Besorah of Moshiach, who is the image and likeness of יהוה, should shine on them.

5 For we proclaim not ourselves, but the Moshiach יהושע the Master; and ourselves your avadim for יהושע's sake.

6 For יהוה, who commanded the Light to shine out of darkness, has shone in our levim, to give the Light of the chochmah of the tifereth of יהוה in the face of יהושע ha Moshiach.

7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be from יהוה, and not from us.

8 We are distressed on every side, yet not overwhelmed; we are perplexed, but not conquered;

9 Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;

10 Always bearing about in our bodies the death of the Master יהושע, so that the chayim also of יהושע might be made manifest in our bodies.

11 For we who live are always delivered to death for יהושע's sake, that the chayim also of יהושע might be made manifest in our mortal bodies.

12 So then death is close to us, but chayim is in you.

13 We all have the same Ruach of emunah, as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore we also speak;

14 Knowing that He who raised up the Master יהושע shall raise us up also by יהושע, and shall present us with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes that the abundant unmerited favor might through the hodu of many overflow to the tifereth of יהוה.

16 For this reason we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

17 For our light and tiny afflictions, which is just for a moment, prepares for us a far greater and limitless tifereth, le-olam-va-ed;

18 We look not and gilah not at the things, that are seen, but at the things that are not seen: for the things that are seen are temporal; but the things that are not seen are le-olam-va-ed.

5 For we know that if our earthly bayit of this tent were destroyed, we still have a building of אלהא, a bayit not made with hands, eternal in the shamayim.²

2 For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed with our bayit, which is from the shamayim:

3 So that then, unlike now, we will not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tent do groan, because of its weight: not because we are willing to leave it, but rather to add to it and put on the other body, so that mortality might be swallowed by chayim.

5 Now He that has prepared us for the same purpose is אלהא, who also has given to us the pledge of His Ruach.

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, while we are at home in the body, we are absent from יהוה:

7 For we have our halacha by emunah, not by sight:

8 This is why we are confident, I say, willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with יהוה.

9 Therefore we labor, that, whether present, or absent from home, we may be pleasing to Him.

10 For we must all appear before the bema seat of Moshiach; that every one may receive the things done with his body, according to what he has done, whether it be tov, or bad.

11 Knowing therefore the fear of יהוה, we persuade and win men; so that we are understood by יהוה; and I trust also by you in your consciences.

12 For we commend not ourselves again to you, but we give you an occasion to boast about us, that you may have something to answer them who take pride in appearance, and not in lev.

13 For if we are wrong, we answer to אלהא: or if we are tzadikim, it is for your sake.

14 For the ahava of Moshiach compels us; because we have judged this to be emet, that if One died for all, then all were dead:

15 And that He died for all, that those who live should not from now on live for themselves, but for Him who died for them, and rose again.

16 And from now on we know no man after the body: yes, though we have known Moshiach after the body, yet now we don't know Him any longer in this way.

17 Therefore if any man is in Moshiach, he is a renewed creation: old things have passed away; behold, all things have become renewed.

18 And all things are of יהוה, who has restored us to Himself by יהושע ha Moshiach, and has given to us the service of restoration and renewal;³

¹ Our own tifereth/beauty seen by gazing into a mirror is greater than that on Moses's face. Why? Because the administrator is the Spirit of YHWH, or YHWH, as opposed to Moses the man.

² The promise to Renewed Covenant believers. This is one main reason why the beauty of the Renewed Covenant exceeds the beauty of the First Covenant. First Covenant believers went to Abraham's Bosom, but now that Messiah has led captivity captive, our spirits have an abiding place in the heavens, and our bodies await the resurrection of the last day.

³ The commission to all Yisrael. He has restored us to Him individually, as well as restored us as a nation.

QORINTYAH BET - SECOND CORINTHIANS

19 Definitely then יהוה was in Moshiach,¹ restoring the olam to Himself, not counting their trespasses against them; and has committed to us the word of restoration.²

20 Now then we are ambassadors for the Moshiach, as though אלהא is asking you through us: we beg you on Moshiach's behalf, be restored to יהוה.

21 For He has made Him to be the sin sacrifice for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the tzedakah of יהוה in Him.

6 We then, as workers together with Him, appeal to you also that you receive not the unmerited favor of יהוה in vain.

2 For He said, I have heard you in an accepted time, and in the day of salvation have I helped you: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.

3 Giving no offense in anything that the service of restoration is not blamed:

4 But in all things showing ourselves to be the avadim of אלהא, in much patience, in afflictions, in hardships, in distresses,

5 In scourgings, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in vigils, in fastings;

6 In clean Torah living, in da'at, in longsuffering, in chesed, in the Ruach Hakodesh, in sincere ahava,

7 In the word of emet, in the power of אלהא, in the armor of tzedakah on the right hand and on the left,

8 In honor and dishonor, in evil report and tov report: as deceivers, and yet being emet;

9 In unknown, and yet well known; in dying, and, behold, we live; in chastening, and yet not killed;

10 As sad, yet always in gilah; in poverty, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 Oy Qorintyahim, we have told you everything, our lev is exposed.

12 You are not constrained by us, but you are restrained by your own levim.

13 Now repay me the same way; I speak to my children; also become increased in your ahava for me.

14 Do not unite together in marriage with unbelievers: for what fellowship has tzedakah with Torah-less-ness? And what mingling has Light with darkness?

15 And what accord, or brit has Moshiach with s.a.tan? Or, what portion has he that believes with an unbeliever?

Now, having experienced this dual restoration, we have been ordained as Yisraelites to serve Him in the cause of reconciling other lost sheep back to Himself, and restoring all Yisraelites to each other, as YHWH rebuilds and restores the Tabernacle of Dawid, which had fallen.

² The message of restoration is both vertical and horizontal, and has been given to all believing Yisraelites.

16 And what union has the Beit HaMikdash of יהוה with idols? For you are the Beit HaMikdash of the living אלהא; as יהוה has said, *I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their אלהא, and they shall be My Ami-people.*³

17 *Therefore come out from among them, and be kadosh, says the Master יהוה, and touch not the unclean things; and I will receive you,*⁴

18 And will be an Abba to you, and you shall be My sons and daughters, says the Master יהוה the Almighty.

7 Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves⁵ from all filthiness of the flesh and ruach, perfecting our set-apartness in the fear of יהוה.

2 Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.

3 I speak this not to condemn you: for I have said before, that you are in our levim to die and live with you.

4 Great is my boldness of speech towards you, great is my boasting about you: I am filled with comfort, I am exceedingly in simcha in all our tribulation.

5 For, when we were come into Makedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; around us fighting and disputes, within were fears and pressure.

6 Nevertheless אלהא, that comforts those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Teitus;

7 And not by his coming only, but by the comfort with which he was comforted by you, when he told us of your longing desire, your mourning, your zeal towards me; so that I had even more simcha.

8 For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not regret it, though I did regret it before: for I perceive that the same letter has made you sad, though it was only for a little while.⁶

9 Now I have gilah, not that you were made sorry, but that you sorrowed leading you to full teshuvah: for you were made sorry according to the things of יהוה, that you might not be damaged by us in any way.

10 For sorrow according to the things of יהוה leads to teshuvah and to salvation that never needs to be repented of: but the sorrow of the olam hazeh works death.

11 For look; the very thing that was distressing you, that you sorrowed over according to the things of יהוה, that

³ A reference to Efrayim-Yisrael, as Paul paraphrases Hosea 2:23.

⁴ If we as Yisrael come out from among the nations of exile, and the pagan religions of exile, YHWH will surely restore and receive us back, both individually and as a nation. How does Yisrael achieve that separation? By not touching, or partaking of all the unclean things prohibited in Torah, as well as by walking out from the many cathedrals of error and anti-nomianism, which Scripture calls "Babylon."

⁵ Yisrael must respond in obedience to the clear purity laws of Torah in order to truly inherit the promises of YHWH regarding sonship and inheritance in the kingdom.

⁶ The letter of stern and ongoing rebuke, found in First Corinthians, covering many areas of misbehavior and error in the Yisraelite congregation.

QORINTYAH BET - SECOND CORINTHIANS

has resulted from your great effort, yes in your apology, yes in your anger over your sin, yes in your fear of אלהים, yes in your ahava, desire, zeal, and righting of all wrongs! In all things you have proven yourselves to be clear in this matter.

12 So, although I wrote to you, I did not write for the cause of him who had done the wrong, nor for the cause of the one that suffered the wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of אלהים might appear to be evident to you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yes, and exceedingly with even more simcha because of the simcha of Teitus, because his ruach was refreshed by all of you.

14 For if I boasted anything to him about you, I am not ashamed; but as we spoke all things to you in emet, even so our boasting, which I made before Teitus, was truthful.

15 And his deep ahava is more abundant toward you, while he remembers your obedience, how with respect and awe you received him.

16 I gilah therefore that I have confidence in you in all things.

8 Moreover, Yisraelite brothers, we want you to know the unmerited favor of יהוה bestowed on the Yisraelite congregations of Makedonia;

2 How that even in great trial of affliction, the plenty of their simcha despite their deep poverty overflowed into their rich liberality.

3 For to their credit and power, yes I bear witness, that even beyond their ability they were willing to give of themselves;

4 Begging us with much urgency that we would receive the gift, so they could take part in the service of this mitzvah to the Yisraelite kidushim.

5 And this they did, not only as we expected, but first they gave themselves to יהוה, and then to us by the will of יהוה.

6 So that we desired Teitus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish with you the same unmerited favor as well.

7 Therefore, as you excel in all things, in emunah, and clean speech, and in Torah da'at, and in all diligence, and in your ahava for us, see that you excel in the unmerited favor of giving also.

8 I speak not by Torah commandment, but about the sincerity of others, to prove the sincerity of your ahava.

9 For you know the unmerited favor of our Master יהוה ha Moshiach, that, though He was rich, yet for your sake He became poor, that through His poverty you might be made spiritually rich.

10 And with this background I give my advice: for this is for your advantage, who have begun before in your own desire about a year ago, to now do.

11 Now therefore perform the actual mitzvah; that as there was a readiness to perform the mitzvah, so there may be a performance of it also from that which you have.

12 For if there is a willing mind, then every man can give according to what a man has, and not according to what he has not, and then his gift is acceptable.

13 This advice is not intended to relieve other men, for you to be burdened:

14 But that there may be equality, that now at this time your plenty may be a supply for their needs, so that their plenty also may be a supply for your needs: that there may be equality:¹

15 As it is written, He that had gathered much had nothing extra; and he that had gathered little had no lack.²

16 But hodu be to יהוה, who put the same care for you into the lev of Teitus.

17 For indeed he accepted our appeal; but being more eager to receive it, on his own accord he went to see you.

18 And we have sent with him the brother, whose tehilla is in the Besorah throughout all the Yisraelite congregations;

19 And not only that, but he was also chosen by the Yisraelite congregations to travel with us with this financial relief, which is administered by us to the tifereth of the same Master, and to also encourage you to do likewise:

20 We are therefore careful in the collection and distribution, that no man should blame us in this plenty that is administered by us:

21 For we are careful to do the honest things, not only in the sight of יהוה, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have often proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, because of the great trust which he has in you.

23 If anyone asks about Teitus, he is my partner and fellow helper concerning you: or if anyone asks about our Yisraelite brothers, they are the shlichim of the Yisraelite congregations, and the very tifereth of Moshiach.

24 Therefore show them, and all the Yisraelite congregations, the proof of your ahava, and of our boasting on your behalf, by the performance of your intentions.

9 For as touching the service to the Yisraelite kidushim, it is not necessary for me to write to you:

2 For I know the eagerness of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Makedonia, that Achayah was ready to give a year ago; and your zeal

¹ When Yisrael is being restored, equality must be prevalent in all undertakings including giving to each other. This midrash, or explanation is not talking about tithing, or paying tithes which is an eternal Torah command starting at a minimum of ten percent of one's gross income. Tithing is not something an individual does arbitrarily. Instead, what is being addressed here is free-will terumah offerings, or the care and maintenance of the people of scattered Yisrael, where one does have the freedom to dispense according to personal decisions, based upon one's own abundance, however great, or small that may be.

² Speaking of YHWH's equitable system of manna distribution. Note the Yisraelite connection, as Paul applies a Scripture about equity in Yisrael to the Corinthians, which is further evidence of their spiritual and physical roots as Yisrael.

QORINTYAH BET - SECOND CORINTHIANS

has provoked very many.

3 Yet have I sent the Yisraelite brothers to you, lest our boasting of you should be worthless in this matter; that, as I said, you should be ready:

4 Perhaps if some from Makedonia come with me, and find you unprepared (we speak, not you) you would then be ashamed about our confident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to ask the Yisraelite brothers, that they would go before me to you, and make up beforehand your gift, about which you gave notice before, that the gift might be ready, as a bracha for you, and not as an act of extortion.

6 But this I say, He who sows sparingly shall also reap sparingly; and he who sows bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

7 Every man according as he purposed in his lev, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for אלהא loves a cheerful giver.¹

8 And אלהא is able to make all unmerited favor abound towards you; that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every tov mitzvah:

9 As it is written, He has dispersed liberally; He has given to the poor: His tzedakah remains le-olam-va-ed.

10 Now He that gives zera to the sower including lechem for food, shall supply and multiply your zera sown, and increase the fruits of your tzedakah;

11 Being enriched in every way in all liberality, which causes us to give and perfect our hodu to אלהא.

12 For the administration of this service not only supplies the needs of the Yisraelite kidushim, but it causes an overflowing of hodu by many Yisraelites to אלהא;

13 Through the actual evidence of this service they give tifereth to יהוה for your confession and subjection to the Besorah of Moshiach, and for your liberal distribution to them, and to all men;

14 And by their tefillot for you, who long after you for the great unmerited favor of יהוה in you.

15 Hodu also be to יהוה for His incomparable gift.²

10 Now I Shaal myself appeal to you by the meekness and gentleness of Moshiach, who in presence am lowly when among you, but being absent still have confidence towards you:

2 But I appeal to you, not to be troubled when I arrive, since I think I will have to be bold and brave against some, who think that we walk according to the flesh.

3 For though we are walking in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh:

4 For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through our אלהא to the pulling down of strongholds;

5 Casting down imaginations, and every high human matter that exalts itself against the da'at of יהוה, taking captive every thought to be obedient to Moshiach;

6 And we are ready to revenge all disobedience among some, when your obedience is complete.³

7 Do you look on things after the outward appearance? If any man trusts that he belongs to Moshiach, let him rethink and understand, that, as he belongs to Moshiach, even so we belong to Moshiach.

8 For even if I should boast more of our authority, that יהוה has given us, not for your destruction but for your edification, I should not be ashamed:

9 I am hesitant so that I may not terrify you by my letter.

10 For his letters, they say, are weighty and powerful; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech is weak.

11 Let the ones who think this understand, that, such as we are in word by letter when we are absent, so will we be also in action when we are present.

12 For we dare not count, or compare ourselves with those who are proud of, or who commend, themselves, for they measure themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.⁴

13 But we will not boast of things outside our limits, but according to the limits of the authority that יהוה has distributed to us, the limit needed to reach out even to you.

14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our limits of authority, as if we did not ever reach you: for we have come all the way to you also by proclaiming the Besorah of Moshiach:

15 Not boasting of things beyond our limited measure, that is, of other men's labors; but having tikvah, that as your emunah is increased, we also shall be increased by you, according to our limits among you,

16 And so we shall proclaim the Besorah in the regions beyond you, so as not to boast in another man's limited authority, or what others have accomplished.

17 But he that boasts, let him boast about יהוה.

18 For not he that praises himself is approved, but whom the Master יהוה praises.

11 I would that you could bear with me a little in my folly: and indeed you are bearing with me.

2 For I am jealous over you with the jealousy of יהוה: for I have given you in marriage to one Husband, that I may present you as an innocent virgin to Moshiach.

3 But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Chavah through his tricks, so your minds should also be corrupted away from the simplicity that is in Moshiach.

4 For when someone comes and proclaims another יהושע, whom we have not proclaimed, or if you receive another ruach, which you have not before received, or another Besorah, which you have not before accepted, sometimes you still put up with it!

5 For I suppose I am not inferior to the most distinguished shlichim.

6 But though I may be unskilled in speech,⁵ yet not in

¹ Again this speaks of free-will care giving for other Yisraelites, where the percentages are arbitrary. The tithe is not arbitrary, and is not an option, as Paul admits here by stating that he is talking and not the Torah.

² Messiah Yahshua.

³ Obedience to community and Torah is always key.

⁴ Yisraelites must compare their lives to Yahshua, not to one another.

QORINTYAH BET - SECOND CORINTHIANS

da'at; for we have been fully transparent and open among you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offense in humbling myself that you might be exalted, because I have proclaimed to you the Besorah of יהוה without pay?

8 I robbed other Yisraelite congregations, taking assistance from them, to do you tov service.

9 And when I was present with you, and was in lack, I was a burden to no man: for that which was lacking for me the Yisraelite brothers who came from Makedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome to you, and so will I continue to keep myself.

10 As the emet of Moshiach is in me, no man shall stop me from this boasting in the regions of Achayah.

11 Why? Because I don't love you? יהוה knows I do.

12 But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off any opportunity from those who desire opportunity; that in whatever they boast, they may not be found equal to us.

13 For such are false shlichim, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the shlichim of the Moshiach.

14 And no marvel; for s.a.tan himself is transformed into a malach of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if s.a.tan's avadim also become transformed into the avadim of tzedakah; whose end shall be according to their deeds.

16 I say again, Let no man think me to be a fool; if otherwise, yet still as a fool then receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

17 That which I speak here, I speak it not according to יהוה, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.

18 Seeing that many boast after the flesh, I will boast also.

19 For you listen to and put up with fools, despite you yourselves being wise.

20 For you allow them to dominate you, even if a man brings you into bondage, or if a man devours you, or if a man takes from you, or if a man exalts himself, or if a man hits you in the face.

21 I speak this as concerning reproach, as though we have been weak. But in things that others are bold – I speak foolishly – I am bold also.

22 Are they Ivrim? So am I. Are they Yisraelites? So am I. Are they the zera of Avraham? So am I!

23 Are they avadim of Moshiach? – I speak as a fool – I am even more than them; in labors more abundant, in beatings above my limit, in prison more frequently, in near-death experiences more often.

24 From the unbelieving Yahudim five times I received thirty-nine stripes.

25 Three times was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, three times I was shipwrecked, a night and a day I have been in the deep;

26 In many journeys, often, in perils of mayim, in perils of robbers, in perils by my own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brothers;

27 In toils and hardships, in making tefillot often, in hunger and thirst, in much fasting, in cold and in nakedness.

28 Besides those things that are outside attacks and pressures, that which comes upon me daily, the care and well being of all the Yisraelite congregations.

29 Who is sick, that I do not feel their pain? Who stumbles in their halacha, and does not have my inward sympathy?

30 If I must boast, I will boast of the things that concern my own sufferings and weaknesses.

31 The אלהא and Abba of our Master יהושע ha Moshiach, who is blessed le-olam-va-ed, knows that I do not lie.

32 In Dameshek the governor under Aretas the melech guarded the city of Dameshek with a guard, who desired to apprehend me:

33 And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped from his hands.

12 To boast is indeed useless for me. I prefer to relate visions and revelations of יהוה.

2 I knew a man in Moshiach about fourteen years ago – whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: ¹ יהוה knows – such a one was caught up to the third shamayim. ²

3 And I knew such a man – whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: יהוה knows –

4 How he was caught up into Paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter. ³

5 In such a one will I boast: yet about myself I will not boast anymore, except in my weaknesses.

6 For though I would desire to boast more, I shall not be a fool; for I speak the emet: but now I will stop, lest any man should think of me above that which he sees me to be, or that he hears me to be.

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations I have received, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, a malach of s.a.tan to buffet me, lest I should exalt myself.

8 For this thing I sought יהוה three times, that it might depart from me.

9 And He said to me, My unmerited favor is sufficient for you: for My strength is made perfect in your weakness.

With great gilah therefore will I rather boast in my weaknesses, so that the power of Moshiach may rest upon me.

10 Therefore I take pleasure in my weaknesses, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Moshiach's sake: for when I am physically weak, then am I spiritually strong.

11 I have become a fool in boasting; you have compelled me: for I should have been commended by you: for in nothing am I behind the most distinguished of the shlichim, though I be nothing.

12 Truly the signs of a sholiach were done among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty mitzvoth.

13 For in what manner were you inferior to other Yisraelite congregations, except that I myself was not burdensome to you? Forgive me this wrong!

14 Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for I seek nothing from you but just yourselves: for children should not provide for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And I will very willingly pay my expenses and give all of myself for your beings; yet the more I love you, the less I am loved.

16 But so be it, I did not burden you: nevertheless, as a shrewd man, I caught you with your guile.

17 Did I make any financial gain from you, by any of them whom I sent to you?

18 I urged Teitus to go to you, and with him I sent a brother. Did Teitus make a gain of you? Did not we have the same Ruach-led halacha? Was not our halacha in the same steps?

19 Again, do you think that we still need to keep defending and apologizing to you? We speak before יהוה in the Moshiach: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for you to be built up.

20 For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you the way I would like, and that I shall act among you as you would not like: lest there be strife, jealousy, anger, contention, slander, gossip, boasting, and tumults:

21 And perhaps, when I come again, my אלהא will humble me, as I shall bewail many who have sinned already, and have not made teshuvah of the uncleanness and fornication and indecency that they have committed.

13 This is the third time I am coming to you. In the mouth of two, or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 I told you before, and say again before I come, as if I were present, as on my second visit; I write to those who keep sinning until now and have not made teshuvah, and to all others, that, if I come again, I will not spare, though I am absent now:

3 Since you seek a proof of Moshiach speaking through me, who has never been powerless among you, but powerful among you:

4 For though He was impaled through weakness, yet He lives by the power of יהוה. For we also are weak in Him, but we shall live with Him by the power of יהוה towards you.

5 Examine yourselves, whether you be in the emunah; test yourselves. Don't you know yourself, that יהושע ha Moshiach is in you, unless you are rejects?

6 But I trust that you shall know that we are not rejected.

7 Now I make tefillah to יהוה that you do no evil; not so that we should appear approved, but that you should do that which is honest, though we may appear to be rejects before you.

8 For we can do nothing against the emet, but for the emet.

9 For we are in simcha, when we are weak, and you are strong: and this also we wish, even your mature perfection.

10 Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use harshness, according to the power, that יהוה has given to me for your edification, and not destruction.

11 Finally, Yisraelite brothers, farewell. Be perfect, be of tov comfort, be echad, live in shalom; and the אלהא of ahava and shalom shall be with you.

12 Greet one another with a kadosh kiss.

13 All the Yisraelite kidushim greet you.

14 The unmerited favor of the Master יהושע ha Moshiach, and the ahava of יהוה, and the chavurah of the Ruach Hakodesh, be with you all.

Amein. ת

Galutyah – גלטיא – Galatians To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

1 Shaul, a sholiach, not of men, neither by man, but by יהושע ha Moshiach, and Abba יהוה, who raised Him from the dead;
2 And all the Yisraelite brothers, who are with me, to the Yisraelite congregations of Galutyah: ^{1 2 3}
3 Unmerited favor to you and shalom from Abba יהוה, and from our Master יהושע ha Moshiach,
4 Who gave Himself for our sins, that He might deliver us from the evil olam hazeh, according to the will of יהוה our Abba:
5 To whom be tifereth le-olam-va-ed. Amein.
6 I am shocked that you are so soon removed from Him that called you to the unmerited favor of Moshiach to another version of the Besorah:
7 Which is not another; but there are some that trouble you, and do pervert the Besorah of Moshiach.
8 But though we, or a malach from the shamayim, proclaim any other Besorah to you than that which we have proclaimed to you, let him be accursed. ⁴
9 As we said before, so I repeat, if any man proclaims any other Besorah ⁵ to you than the one you have received, let him be accursed. ^{6 7}
10 For do I now persuade men, or יהוה? Or, do I seek to please men? For if I still sought to please men, I should not be the eved of Moshiach.
11 But I certify to you, my Yisraelite brothers, that the Besorah, which was proclaimed by me, is not received from man.
12 For I neither received it from man, neither was I taught it from men, but through the revelation of יהושע ha Moshiach.

GALATIANS

¹ Literally meaning “the exiles of Yah.” The Hebrew root for Diaspora is galut, hence the term Galut-Yah. According to Peter, these were the chosen people of the dispersion scattered through modern day Turkey and the former area of Aramea.

³ Since the congregations of Yisrael were Torah-based, he is writing to exiles from the ten tribes who desire a full Torah-obedient lifestyle.

⁴ A warning to Judah.

⁵ Literally means “the Good News” of Yisrael’s freedom from slavery, or exile.

⁶ A warning to Efrayim.

⁷ Since the Good News is the actual freeing of the exiles of Yisrael that were in slavery, the perversion of that message is considered another evangel. This perversion forces the freed Galatians to become slaves again to a different set of masters.

13 For you have heard of my former halacha in the past in the Yahudim’s religion, how that I intensely and continually persecuted the Yisraelite congregation of יהוה, and tried to destroy it:

14 And I progressed in the Yahudim’s religion above many of my equals in my own nation; above all I was especially zealous of the teachings of my ahvot.

15 But when it pleased יהוה, who chose me from my birth, and called me by His unmerited favor,

16 To reveal His Son in me, that I might proclaim Him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and dahm:

17 Neither did I go to Yahrushalayim to them who were shlichim before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again to Dameshek.

18 Then after three years I went up to Yahrushalayim to see Kepha, and stayed with him fifteen days.

19 But the other shlichim I did not see, other than Yaakov the Master’s brother.

20 Now the things that I write to you, behold, before יהוה, I do not lie.

21 Afterwards I came into the regions of Aram and Cilikia;

22 And was not known personally by sight by any of the Yisraelite congregations in the province of Yahudah who were in Moshiach:

23 But they had heard only, that he who had persecuted us in times past now proclaims the emunah that he once destroyed.

24 And they esteemed יהוה because of me.

2 Then fourteen years after that I went up again to Yahrushalayim with Bar-Nabah, and took Teitus with me also.

2 And I went up by sod-revelation, and communicated to them concerning the Besorah that I proclaim among the nations, ⁸ but privately to them who were of tov reputation, lest by any means I should labor, or had labored, in vain.

3 But neither Teitus, who was with me, being an Aramean, was compelled to be circumcised immediately: ⁹

4 And because of false Yisraelite brothers who sneaked in, and who came in to secretly spy out our liberty that we have in the Moshiach יהושע, that they might bring us into slavery: ¹⁰

⁸ Ending the exile of the House of Efrayim-Yisrael.

¹⁰ The Good News was the proclamation of freedom from slavery and from religion to the exiles of Galut-Yah. These

5 To whom we gave no place by yielding in submission to them, no, not even for an hour; that the emet of the Besorah ¹ might remain among you.

6 But of those who were considered to be somewhat important-whatever they were, it makes no difference to me: יהוה accepts no man's person – for those who seemed to be somewhat important added nothing additional, or new to me:

7 But on the contrary, when they saw that the Besorah of the akrobustia ² was committed to me, as was the Besorah of the brit milah to Kepha;

8 For He that worked vigorously in Kepha for his calling as a sholiach to the brit milah, the same One was mighty in me toward the nations:

9 And when Yaakov, Kepha, and Yochanan, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the unmerited favor that was given to me, they gave to me and Bar-Nabah the right hand of chavurah; that we should go to the nations, and they to the brit milah.

10 Only they desired that we should remember the poor; the same mitzvah which I also was eager to do.

11 But when Kepha had come to Antioch, ³ I withstood him to his face, because he was at fault.

certain brothers from Jerusalem were coming in quietly under the radar and reversing the truth of Scripture by using circumcision in a wrong chronological manner and by manmade standards as requirements for community entry and favor in the community. This was known as "works of the law," or "works of man's laws."

² The Greek word used in Galatians 2:7 for Shaul's ministry to the uncircumcised is the word akrobustia (Strong's Greek # 203), which literally means "tossed-away foreskins." He was contrasting his ministry to the uncircumcised, or the "akrobustia" with James and Peter's ministry to the circumcised, or the "peritome" (Strong's Greek # 4061). The same word peritome is used in describing the mission of James, Peter and John. This peritome means those living and abiding in circumcised identity, or in other words, the "House of Judah." The choice of "akrobustia" is fitting, as it describes just what Shaul was doing in the nations, or among the Galut-Yah. He was first and foremost looking for the lost sheep of the House of Yisrael (Efrayim), as per Yahshua's instructions. Akrobustia, does not mean "pagan gentiles" per se, but a select group within the gentiles, or nations. The term akrobustia, as opposed to peritome, means those who were circumcised, but through disobedience and outright rebellion had their foreskins tossed away, thus becoming like one who is born and raised as an uncircumcised (aperitome) pagan gentile. The opposite of a ministry to the peritome (which James and Peter had) would have been one to the aperitome, or "never-circumcised." Yet Shaul did not claim a ministry to the aperitome, or never-circumcised. His ministry, according to his own description, was to the akrobustia, or those who had undergone circumcision but had tossed it all away.

³ Due north 300 miles from Jerusalem, as detailed in Scripture, which was once part of Assyria, the initial area of Efrayimite dispersion.

12 For before certain men came from Yaakov, he did eat with the peoples: ⁴ but when they had come, he withdrew and separated ⁵ himself, fearing them that were from the Yahudim in Yahrushalayim. ^{6 7}

13 And the other Yahudim joined with him in his hypocrisy; so that even Bar-Nabah was led astray with their hypocrisy. ⁸

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the emet of the Besorah, ⁹ I said to Kepha in front of them all, If you, being a Yahudi in the Light, ¹⁰ live like the Arameans in the darkness, ^{11 12} and not as do the Yahudim, why do you compel the peoples in darkness to live as do the Yahudim in Light? ¹³

⁴ Am-amaya in Aramaic meaning "the nations," or "the people with similar spiritual, or kinship connections held in spiritual darkness." According to the Aramaic Targum, or elaboration on Isaiah 9:2, the people (Hebrew "am") walking in darkness, were the House of Yisrael (ten tribes). They were the am-amaya.

⁵ Hebrew word for separated is prush. So Peter separated, or became a Prush, or a Pharisee in his separatist behavior.

⁶ What message were they coming with? A different message that placed prior conditions upon returning Efrayimites in order for them to even be saved. That is and was a message of slavery. We see these same folks in Acts 15:1-3.

⁷ They came with added conditions established by the Jerusalem rabbinate, placing immediate preconditions such as circumcision upon these returning exiles.

⁸ Instead of unity between Yisrael's two warring houses, this message from the Jerusalem legalists was renewing old wounds and stifling the reconciliation between the two houses that Messiah came to bring, and was hence another evangel.

⁹ The truth of the Good News according to the final ruling of Acts 15 is that returning Yisraelites had to neither perform nor obey any immediate and enforceable act to receive entry into the Commonwealth of Yisrael. However, the ruling strongly implied that like Abraham circumcision would follow at a later date (24 years later), when personal maturity comes.

¹⁰ Living in the light as per Esther 8:16.

¹² Arameans, or "the peoples," were considered to be in darkness as in Isaiah 9:2.

GALUTYAH – GALATIANS

15 For we who are from the Yahudi by nature,¹ are not from the peoples; the sinners,^{2 3 4}

16 Knowing that a man is not ever declared right by the works of law,⁵ but by the emunah in יהושע ha Moshiach, even we who have believed in יהושע ha Moshiach, that we might be declared tzadik by the emunah in Moshiach, and not by the works of law:^{6 7} for by works of law shall no flesh ever be declared tzadik.⁸

² Darkness.

³ Paul reminds Peter that the Jews have the Light to show to those Arameans who desired table fellowship. Rather than being loving and shining the Light, Peter did the same thing to the Aramean Yisraelites that Laban the Aramean did to Jacob. Peter tried to destroy them in their quest for full and equal repatriation back into the commonwealth. As soon as the “circumcision-first club” arrived, he betrayed the Aramean Yisraelites and the message of restoration to both houses. This betrayal displayed contempt and hypocrisy, which was sinful and against the illuminated nature of a regenerated Jew.

⁶ A catch phrase, or “code” vividly describing what the “circumcision-first club” was doing. They were mimicking the Qumran community, by having a self-designated “teacher of righteousness” and his elders decide what salvation and acceptance before YHWH entails. This list includes mostly manmade regulations, along with some Scriptural commands that are either taken out of proper understanding, or misapplied. For example, teaching that no one can be saved until they first avoid pig (i.e., observe the dietary instructions), and performed circumcision, would be taking Scriptural commands out of their proper understanding and misapplying them. The truth is that most of us entered these truths later on down our journey of salvation and not before. This phrase “works of law” will appear throughout Galatians, and does not refer to Torah-keeping. This phrase “works of law” is not found in any of Shaul’s other letters, or anywhere else in Scripture. As such it has no second, or third witness. Therefore it cannot be referring to Torah. For when YHWH confirms a truth in the earth, it is found in several places in His word. The very fact that this term is so isolated and limited in scope to the “circumcision-first club” in one particular community, should lead any open-minded individual to the 17 But if, while we seek to be declared tzadik by Moshiach, we ourselves also are found to be sinners, is therefore Moshiach now an Eved of the sin in our lives? Let it never be!

18 For if I build again the things that I destroyed,⁹ I make myself a transgressor.¹⁰

19 For I through the law, I am dead to the law¹¹ that I might live to יהוה.¹²

20 I am impaled with Moshiach: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Moshiach lives in me: and the chayim which I now live in the flesh I live by the emunah of the Son of יהוה,¹³ who loved me, and gave Himself for me.

21 I do not frustrate the unmerited favor of יהוה: for if becoming a tzadik came by the law,¹⁴ then Moshiach has died in vain.

3 O foolish Galutyah, who has put you under a spell, that you should not obey the emet, since יהושע ha Moshiach has been clearly set forth, before your eyes as impaled among you?

2 This only would I learn from you: Did you receive the Ruach Hakodesh by the works of law, or by your understanding that the phrase “works of law” does not speak of YHWH’s Torah, but rather of man’s perverted permutations.

⁷ “Works of law,” or “works of nomos” can mean any type of law. Examples of the use of nomos can be for farming laws, sanitation laws, army laws, driving laws, transportation laws, federal aviation laws, building code laws, etc. All these laws are described in Greek with the word nomos and unless the context allows for it, the word nomos does not necessarily mean YHWH’s nomos, or Torah.

⁹ Manmade religion in his life that was destroyed when Paul came to Messiah and Torah.

¹⁰ He would violate the real Torah, because he would knowingly be sinning again by partaking in various forms of error and religious elitism, and thus destroy the two-house restoration.

¹² Life in YHWH and His Torah of equality for all is far better than death in man’s ranking systems of spiritual apartheid.

¹³ Note: Not just the faith in Yahshua, but now he lives the actual Torah faith of Yahshua. There is a big difference between “faith in” and “faith of.” Both are needed for the returning Yisraelite.

¹⁴ This applies to both YHWH’s Torah and man’s ranking systems of spirituality.

GALUTYAH – GALATIANS

obedience¹ to emunah?

3 Are you so foolish? Having begun your halacha in the Ruach Hakodesh, are you now made perfect by the flesh?²

4 Have you suffered so many things for nothing? If it is yet for nothing.

5 He that supplies you with the Ruach Hakodesh, and works great nisim among you, does He do it by the works of law, or by your hearing and emunah?³

6 Even as Avraham believed יהוה, and it was counted to him for tzedakah.⁴

7 Know therefore that those who are of the emunah, the same are b'nai Avraham.⁵

8 And the Scripture, foreseeing that יהוה would justify the heathen through emunah, proclaimed before the Besorah to Avraham, saying, In you shall all nations be blessed.⁶

9 So then they that are of emunah are blessed with faithful believing Avraham.

10 For as many as are followers of the works of law are under the curse:⁷ for it is written, Cursed is every one that continues not in all things that are written in the scroll of the Torah to do them.⁸

² Following man's ranking for spiritual positioning will guarantee a life led by the flesh. We cannot begin in Sinai's eternal Torah and His Spirit, and then complete that journey by submitting to man's rules that are either not biblical, or are reversed, or somehow rearranged.

³ This is a rhetorical question and a style used often by Paul. YHWH works among us based on our faith – not based on man's ranking systems of and by the flesh.

⁴ Justification and righteousness can only come by faith alone.

⁵ Physical Yisraelites from either house do not become complete until they express saving faith in Messiah. Even though Abraham had the physical part right, he still had to receive personal redeeming faith.

⁶ See notes on Genesis 12:3. This prophecy had a dual application and was fulfilled in the sense that all nations would receive the hope of salvation in Messiah, the Seed of promise. An alternative reading is "in you all nations will have your seed mixed in," or engrafted.

⁷ Those who substitute man's requirements like the community regulations by the "teacher of righteousness" in Qumran, or at Jerusalem, are under a curse for two reasons. The first reason is they have changed and thereby violated YHWH's own eternal word. And the second reason is stated in part B of this same verse as: "Cursed is every one that continues not in all things which are written in the scroll of the Torah to do them."

⁸ Being meticulous about keeping the requirements of the true Torah given by Moses and yet still refusing to fully accept the returning House of Yisrael/Efrayim is rejecting the stranger, a violation of many explicit warnings not to do so in the Torah (such as Leviticus 19:34). Efrayimites making repentance must not be

11 But that no man is declared a tzadik by the law⁹ in the sight of יהוה, is evident: for, the tzadik shall live by emunah.

12 And the law is not made by emunah:^{10 11} but, The man that does what is written in it shall live in them.¹²

13 Moshiach has redeemed us from the curse of the Torah,¹³ being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangs on an eytz:¹⁴

14 That the bracha upon Avraham might come upon the nations through יהוה שש ha Moshiach; that we might receive the promise of the Ruach Hakodesh through emunah.

15 Yisraelite brothers, I speak after the manner of men; Even if a brit is a man's brit, yet still if it is confirmed, no man sets it aside, or adds to it.^{15 16}

16 Now to Avraham and his zera were the promises made. He said not, And to your seeds, as in many; but as of One, And to your Zera, which is Moshiach.¹⁷ regarded as less than a Jew, by requiring immediate actions on things set as conditions. Those who follow "works of law" may think they are doing all of Torah but are not. In direct violation of Torah they are showing no love to the returning strangers from the nations.

⁹ Any law including Torah.

¹⁰ Aramaic Peshitta reads: "not made by faith."

¹¹ Made by YHWH, not man's faith.

¹² If these spiritual separatists were doing real Torah they wouldn't shut out the non-Jew, or returning stranger, by assigning him Jewish superiors in the kingdom, but would rather treat him as an equal.

¹³ The curse of the Torah was the death incurred by violating any, or all of its precepts, and in context, by rejecting returning Efrayim by placing many pre-conditions on them. These Jews had put themselves under the curse of violating Torah. According to James 2:10-12, this one violation was enough to put them under a curse. The Torah itself is not a curse as some teach, but its violation by these separatists was.

¹⁴ Messiah died to remove these curses and set us free, not to remove the Torah itself. If He removed the Torah's curses, why would we want to be in slavery again by following a new "works of law" program by those who practiced spiritual apartheid?

¹⁷ The Seed, or the Messiah, blesses all the nations (the mixed seed of Abraham), and since Jews and

GALUTYAH – GALATIANS

17 And this I say, that the Brit, that was confirmed by יהוה through Moshiach, the Torah,¹ that came four hundred and thirty years later, cannot nullify the Avrahamic brit, so that it should make the promise of no effect.²

18 For if the inheritance is from the Torah, it is no more by the word of promise: but יהוה gave it to Avraham by promise.

19 What purpose then does the Torah serve? It was added because of transgressions,³ until the Zera should come to whom the promise was made; and heavenly malachim through the hands of a Mediator ordained it.⁴

20 Now a Mediator does not represent one party,⁵ but יהוה is Echad.

21 Is the Torah then against the promises of יהוה? Let it never be! For if there had been a Torah given that could have given us chayim, then truly tzedakah would have been by the Torah.⁶

22 But the Scripture has concluded all under sin, that the promise by emunah of יהוה ha Moshiach might be given to them that believe.⁷

coming of Messiah. The same applies today as we await His return.

¹⁰ Isaiah 56:1.

¹¹ Aramaic Peshitta.

¹² As Romans 10:4 states, Messiah is the teleo, or the goal at which the Torah's path aims.

¹³ Plural in the Aramaic. "Tutors," or "schoolmasters."

The Torah is a singular item and as such cannot be referred to here in the Aramaic. The tutor and tutors are two different categories. The tutor, or schoolmaster is the Torah. The false tutors thought that they were the guardians of tradition and local assembly life. These tutors, or schoolmasters believed that in order to protect the Torah, there had to be additional fences around it and thus they added regulations, making sure no Torah could ever be broken, since there were too many fences around it. Those fences were called "works of law." These tutors were the same ones using these fences to keep returning Efrayim out in the nations, by subjecting Efrayim to the slavery of second class citizenship, instead of enjoying the true Torah freedom that Messiah came to accomplish by setting all of Yisrael's exiles free. This is perfectly applied by Yahshua in Matthew 21:33-43 and by using drash, or allegory in Luke 15:11-32.

¹⁴ The false, or many tutors of Yisrael had always sought to replace the only true Tutor, or the real Torah as seen in Ezekiel 20:18-25 where YHWH says, "do not walk in the statutes of their fathers," and repeats this in Matthew 23:1-4 and Matthew 23:13-15. These tutors that we are no longer under shut out the entry to the kingdom of heaven from men. "Men" as stated elsewhere, are lost Yisraelites as per Ezekiel 34:30-31. These fences by these tutors are also addressed in Acts 15:10-11, and called the "burdens upon men." The "men" are Yisrael, and the burdens are various forms of self-righteousness, summed up in the term "works of law."

¹⁶ Thanks to Yahshua, both houses are now equal, no longer under tutors, but under the guidance of the living Torah Yahshua, and His own written guidelines.

Efrayimites are in all the nations, you have two marvelous concurrent truths flowing from Golgotha. You have the Seed (Messiah) going into all the nations, with His word (Mark 4:14), to gather into one, Abraham, Isaac and Yisrael's scattered physical seed.

¹ The Messiah, or YHWH's brought-forth Word, is the actual giver of the Torah and not the Father YHWH who was the source.

² The same principle must be applied to all covenants. A newer one never annuls a prior one. That would have to mean that just as Torah never negated the Avrahamic Covenant, neither does the Renewed Covenant annul the Torah.

³ Because of man's apostasy, so that man could clearly see what he has done wrong and why. It was added to make the need for a personal redeemer clearer.

⁴ The Mediator was and remains Yahshua, for First Timothy 2:5 teaches us that there is only one eternal Mediator between man and YHWH. Yahshua is the Mediator for Yisrael in both the First and the Renewed Covenant.

⁵ Yahshua represents both YHWH The Father and Yisrael.

⁶ He states the obvious. That since the Torah itself couldn't impart eternal life, how can a cheap and sinful substitute called "works of law" accomplish that impartation?

⁷ All Yisraelites and would-be Yisraelites must come through personal faith in Messiah. All laws, both man's and YHWH's, just are not designed, or empowered to do that.

⁸ Aramaic Peshitta.

⁹ While out in the nations, the blessed Torah protected and preserved Yisrael, while we waited patiently for the

GALUTYAH – GALATIANS

27 For as many of you as have been immersed into Moshiach have put on Moshiach.

28 There is neither Yahudi nor Aramean nor Greek,¹ there is neither eved nor free, and there is neither male nor female: for you are kol Yisrael echad in the Moshiach יְהוֹשֻׁעַ.²

29 And if you are Moshiach's, then are you Avraham's zera,³ and heirs according to the promise.⁴

4 Now I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differs nothing from an eved, even though he is master over all of them;

2 But is under guardians and stewards of the bayit⁵ until the time that has been set by his abba.^{6 7}

² Who is who is determined by what is what. If the body of Messiah is Yisrael renewed, then by definition all its parts, or members are Yisrael.

³ Abraham's sperm. Sperm is derived from the Greek word sperma (Strong's Greek # 4690). Sperma means "Something sown, seed, including the male sperm, offspring, a remnant, issue, seed." The noun is purely physical, pertaining to literal male semen and their offspring, giving forth a remnant issue (people). So if you belong to Messiah, then you are descendants of Abraham, and his "heirs according to the promise." The Bible does not add the word "spiritual" before sperm and neither should anyone else. The Theological Wordbook of the Old Testament says: "Zera (Hebrew equivalent for the Greek sperma) refers to semen." The word is regularly used as a collective noun in the singular (never plural). This is an important aspect of the promise doctrine, for Hebrew never uses the plural of this root to refer to posterity, or offspring. Thus the word is deliberately flexible enough to denote either one person (Messiah) who epitomizes the whole group, or the many persons in that entire lineage of natural-spiritual descendants.

⁴ Salvation is a revelation of who you are and were, despite the fact that you didn't know it. The fact that you belong to Yahshua then becomes the proof and the doorway into the revelation that you are Abraham's seed both physically and spiritually.

⁵ House of Yisrael.

3 Even so, when we were children, we were in slavery under the elements of the olam hazeh:⁸

4 But when the fullness of the time had come,^{9 10 11} יְהוָה sent forth His Son,¹² made of a woman,¹³ made under the law,^{14 15}

5 To redeem those who were under the law,^{16 17} that we might receive the adoption as sons.^{18 19}

6 And because you are sons, יְהוָה has sent forth the Ruach Hakodesh of His own Son into your levim, crying, Abba, Abba.²⁰

⁸ The children of Yisrael were slaves to the world, its elementary base matters, and its civil and religious guardians while roaming the nations.

⁹ See note on Genesis 48:19. The fullness of the nations is the seed of Efrayim-Yisrael.

¹⁰ See note on Romans 11:25-26. All Yisrael will be saved when the "fullness of the gentiles," or Efrayim-Yisrael comes in.

¹¹ Luke 4:18. The task of ransoming the captives and setting them free belongs to Messiah.

¹² Yahshua.

¹⁴ Greek word is nomos. Aramaic word is namosa and means any law, principle, norm, rule, or custom (secular, or religious). It does not mean the Torah of Sinai unless specifically ascertaining it from a given context.

¹⁵ In context Yisrael gave birth to Messiah when the "fullness of the nations" were due to be awakened, and when the Messiah would be born in Yisrael yet under the domination, rulership, oppression, and slavery of Rome. That included politically, as well as various systems of "works of law" spiritually. He was born under national slave laws for sure.

¹⁶ In order that He might redeem those who were under the laws of the dominating power of their master's rules, authority and manmade slave structures like Roman, or Herodian rule.

¹⁷ Moses the author of Torah was born from the woman Yisrael, under the law, rule and authority of Egypt. Likewise Yahshua was born of the woman Yisrael, and born under the law, rule, and authority, of Rome.

¹⁸ According to Lamentations 5:1-3 and Hosea 4:6 and other references, Yisrael though an heir of all, had through rebellion and spiritual adultery become the slaves. Galatians 4:1 begins with the cold hard fact that Yisrael was no different than a slave, due to guardians and others enslaving her by their nomos/laws, or manmade regulations. They had become orphans from YHWH.

¹⁹ Nevertheless, despite having become orphans, in the latter days when the "fullness of time" determined by the Father came, Yisrael was once again restored to sonship and readopted into YHWH's eternal family.

GALUTYAH – GALATIANS

7 So then you are no longer an eved, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of יהוה through Moshiach.¹
8 Back then, when you knew not יהוה, you did service to those who by nature are not יהוה our אלהא.²
9 But now, after that you have known יהוה, or rather are known by יהוה, how do you return again back to the weak and poor elementary matters,³ to which you desire again to be in slavery?⁴
10 You shomer your own days, and months, and times, and years.⁵
11 I am concerned about you, lest I have labored among you for nothing.
12 Yisraelite brothers, put yourself in my place, just as once I put myself in your place. You have not offended me at all.
13 You know how through weakness of the flesh I proclaimed the Besorah to you before.
14 And in my trial that was in my flesh you did not despise, or reject me; but received me as a malach of אלהא, even as Moshiach יהושע.
15 Where then are the brachot and rachamim you had towards me? For I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, you would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.⁶
16 Have I therefore become your enemy, because I tell

¹ Our current standing after Messiah's liberation work. It is this liberty we must guard lest more nomos/laws and manmade spiritual rankings, rules, and rulers return to bring us back into slavery.

² Before Messiah came to liberate Yisrael, they were in bondage to political rulers and their false spiritual leaders, as well as their false mighty ones like Jupiter, Zeus, Hermes etc. Now that Nazarene Yisrael knows YHWH, they must avoid all slave masters, even those coming from Jerusalem and from Judah, if coming with a different Good News.

³ This cannot be speaking of Torah, since Torah is YHWH's word, and is eternal and thus can never be described as weak, poor, or elementary by a Jewish rabbi. What these exiles were returning to was not Torah, but man's nomos/laws in all its variations and permutations, with much of it coming from Jerusalem, leading to a return to slavery to men.

⁵ Calendars and holidays given by those who bring "works of law." This included a pagan calendar of important days and seasons given to them by their masters. Yisrael once set free, must stick to Torah and not the times of their earthly masters.

⁶ Clear evidence that Paul's trial in the flesh was bad eyes, or bad eyesight. His relationships with the Galut-Yah were so strong that they accepted him with his weakness, and would have done all they could to restore his eyes. Now he is trying to restore them back to the truth and correct spiritual vision.

you the emet?⁷

17 They do not desire tov for you, but they desire to dominate you and exclude you from Yisrael that your desire may be to serve them.

18 But it is tov to always desire pleasant things, and not only when I am present with you.⁸

19 My little children, of whom I am again in birth pains until the Moshiach be formed in you again,⁹

20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my tone; but now I stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, you that desire to be under the law; ¹⁰ do you not listen to the Torah?^{11 12}

22 For it is written, that Avraham had two sons, the one by a female eved, the other by a free woman.

23 But he who was from the female eved was born after the flesh;¹³ but he from the free woman was by promise.¹⁴

24 Which things are allegories:¹⁵ for these are the two covenants; the one from Har Senai, that brings forth slavery, which is Hagar.

25 For this Hagar is Har Senai in Arabia, and corresponds to Yahrushalayim that now exists, and is in slavery with her children.¹⁶

⁷ In his attempt to stop them from returning to man's "works of law" he had made many enemies. In our pursuit and guarding of the truth, enemies will be made from former close friends.

⁸ Desiring freedom in Messiah and His Torah is a good thing. Desiring their religious rankings and perverted programs for self-righteousness pursuits, will lead right back to the domination of Efrayim by Judah, and thus a complete negation of Yahshua's restoration work.

⁹ A season of error always needs apostolic oversight until truth can overcome bondage to error. As the one who birthed this congregation, he has gone into spiritual labor until Yisrael returns to truth.

¹⁰ Nomos of man's laws, or the "works of law."

¹¹ The Torah is what you should be hearing to keep you and guard you from man's nomos and all his tutors.

¹² The upcoming allegory has nothing to do with Torah. The issue is over the correct interpretation of Torah. In this case, the ones calling for immediate circumcision for the returning Efrayimites did not have a proper understanding of when and why it should be done. These false teachers were the masters, and the Galatians the slaves, who submitted to their manmade laws and requirements. It was the Torah that had the promise of their return and redemption, not these masters in Jerusalem.

¹³ Ishmael and Esau.

¹⁴ Isaac.

¹⁵ This allegory is a story portraying an underlying truth. It is the Hebraic method of interpretation known as drash.

¹⁶ This does not teach that the Torah is bondage. In this allegory, or story, Mt. Sinai corresponds to, or is like, Jerusalem that produces slaves. Spiritually, the residents at Jerusalem were by and large unsaved and were the ones who were working at "works of law" for their own religious community, so as to make one believer subservient to another. Moreover, Rome was in full and

GALUTYAH – GALATIANS

26 But the Yahrushalayim that is above is free,¹ which is the eema of us all.²

27 For it is written, Gilah, you barren that did not bear; break forth³ and shout for simcha,⁴ you that did not have labor: for the barren and deserted one has many more children⁵ than she who has had a husband.⁶

28 Now⁷ we, Yisraelite brothers,⁸ are like Yitzchak was; we are the children of promise.⁹

29 But as it was then, he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Ruach Hakodesh, total military and political occupation of all the residents of Jerusalem. It was that way in Yahshua's day, and remains so today. Jerusalem operating in, by, and under, the spirit of Ishmael, or Edom, continues to enslave Yisraelites still looking for freedom in all the wrong places. Note again, that the Torah does not produce slaves, but rather it is the people and leaders at Jerusalem operating through the spirit of the slave woman Hagar, who are coming down to Galatia, attempting to do the same to Efrayim, as they have done to many in Judah.

¹ Free from slavery and doctrinal perversion of any kind.

² The Jerusalem above, operating through the Spirit of YHWH and Isaac, sets Yisrael free to be like Yahshua and His Torah, and produces men and women like Yahshua, not like the earthly Jerusalem. All born-again Yisraelites must pledge allegiance to the Jerusalem above, which has begotten us through the Spirit, and not the spirit of Edom that has placed Yisrael's children into functional and terminal slavery. The comparison is not law, or Torah versus grace, as some falsely teach, but two different women, operating by two different spirits from two different Jerusalem's, producing two different kinds of children. One prepared for the devil, one set-apart for YHWH. Despite the clear admonition of Scripture, many still insist in taking this allegory and turning it into an alleged literal diatribe against the Torah.

³ Across the globe.

⁴ Publish the Good News.

⁵ Efrayim's offspring (4 billion, see notes on Devarim 1:10-11) is far more than the 16, or so million of Judah.

⁶ The former barren one is Efrayim-Yisrael, who had no husband due to her divorce. Subsequently and consequentially, she had no children. Now in and through the Good News, she who was divorced and barren is remarried and renewed, and is conceiving multitudes of Yisraelite children for YHWH, since she now has begun to operate in full obedience and compliance to Messiah and His Torah. The former divorced woman (Efrayim, or non-Jewish Yisrael), is still more fruitful than Judah, bound in large part by the spirit of Ishmael working in the earthly city of Jerusalem among its residents.

⁷ At this moment in time after Messiah's first coming.

⁸ Isaac was both physical and spiritual Yisrael, and so are all believers in Messiah, since this verse is clear that we are like Isaac and not limited to just spiritual, or physical Yisraelite status, but now we can claim both roles and positions. This applies for saved Jews and Efrayimites.

⁹ Promised seed through Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

even so, it is now.¹⁰

30 Nevertheless what does the Katuv tell us to do? Cast out the female eved and her son: for the son of the female eved shall not be heir with the son of the free woman.¹¹

31 So then, Yisraelite brothers, we are not children of the female eved, but of the free woman.¹²

5 Stand fast therefore in the liberty in which Moshiaich has made us free, and be not harnessed again under the yoke of slavery.

2 Behold, I Shaul say to you, that if you become circumcised,¹³ Moshiaich shall profit you nothing.¹⁴

3 For I testify again¹⁵ to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole Torah.¹⁶

4 Moshiaich has become of no effect to you, whoever of you are declared to be a tzadik by the Torah; you are fallen from unmerited favor.¹⁷ ¹⁸

¹¹ This is more than another exhortation. It is a biblical command that we are to do as did our father Abraham, namely, throw out from among the people those who are arriving to change obedience to the true Torah, and turn it instead into obedience to their own "teacher of righteousness" and his "works of nomos." Based on this precedent in Yisrael, Paul appeals to the Galut-Yah to take immediate action and send these legalists back on their way to Jerusalem.

¹² Free to serve Messiah and follow the true Torah that holds the promise of repatriation to all who desire to become Yisrael, or find their way home to Yisrael.

¹³ Circumcised as a manmade precondition for salvation, as opposed to an act of obedience after salvation like Abraham and Moses.

¹⁴ First warning is to Judah.

¹⁵ Second warning is for Efrayim.

¹⁶ Which is why circumcision must be done decently and in order, because once the token, or seal is received, that Yisraelite is pledged to full and immediate compliance, which can become so frustrating, that a new convert can give up and fall away from YHWH.

¹⁷ No law – including YHWH's Torah – can forgive sin. Only YHWH the Savior does that. So man's law is bondage, and YHWH's law is a guide for the redeemed, but not an instrument of redemption.

¹⁸ Someone who trusts in Torah for their salvation, has fallen from favor, simply because they have not understood the favor, or the Good News. The Good News is that Yahshua is the Door for eternal life apart from "works of law," or Torah-keeping, which was and always

8 This persuasion comes not of Him that has called you.⁴

9 A little chametz leavens the whole lump.⁵

10 I have confidence in you through יהוה, that you will not think any differently: but he that troubles you shall bear his mishpat, whoever he is.⁶

13 For, Yisraelite brothers, you have been called to liberty;⁹ only use not liberty as an occasion for the flesh, but by ahava serve one another.¹⁰

14 For all the Torah is fulfilled¹¹ in one word, even in this; You shall love your neighbor as yourself.¹²

15 But if you bite and devour one another, take heed that you are not consumed by each other.¹³

16 This I say then, have your halacha in the Ruach Hakodesh, and you shall not fulfill the desires of the flesh.

17 For the flesh craves what is harmful to the Ruach Hakodesh, and the Ruach Hakodesh opposes the desires of the flesh: and these two are contrary to one another: so that you cannot do whatever you please.

¹ The resurrection from the dead and the coming world to come.

² This holds true eternally. First, that circumcision is an act of love to seal one's faith, not to establish it, and neither the Jews, the circumcised, nor the akrobustia the "tossed-away foreskinned ones" have any ranking, or special standing over the other. Neither house of Yisrael should see circumcision, or lack thereof as a means of a spiritual rank over and above the other, but as something that the individual in YHWH's decent order must do on his own. Circumcision avails nothing in the sense that if abused, it establishes one part of Yisrael as master and the other as slaves. So it avails nothing in terms of restoring equality in Yisrael, yet it is a mandate to the individual in his personal walk with YHWH. Messiah came to free both houses, and establish equality, not a new system of "works of law," or ranking, based on an immediate response to mandated corporate physical circumcision, rather than personal physical circumcision.

³ Rhetorical question here. Obviously it was the club from Jerusalem.

⁴ They were tricked and persuaded by men and the spirit of Hagar, Ishmael and Esau. They were not being led by YHWH, who had called them to a different understanding.

⁵ Which is why Paul comes down hard and teaches us to cast out the bondwoman.

⁷ If the message is circumcision like that done by those who placed it before growth and maturity, or before even the message of salvation itself, then why is Paul persecuted, since that would put him in accord with those who pervert the message? He is being persecuted for putting the blood of Yahshua before circumcision.

⁸ A little play on words. He wants them circumcised, or "cut off" from the presence of the congregations of the Galut-Yah.

⁹ The end of the exile, or galut.

¹⁰ This new freedom is to bring unity and harmony between Yisrael's two houses, as we serve each other in equality and truth, not as a new license to engage in the individual temporal pleasures of the flesh.

¹¹ Summarized.

¹² This is a summation of the Spirit behind the true Torah, and not some sort of license to neglect the rest of Torah, as Yahshua personally warned us about in Matthew 5:17-19.

¹⁴ A clear reference to the nomos of the "circumcision club," and/or other legal systems of spiritual ranking. The true Spirit of Truth (Torah) will lead you to obey the Torah from the Jerusalem above, and not from the Jerusalem below, which is a law written and operated by the Spirit of Ishmael and Esau.

¹⁵ A desire to break Torah's standards of unclean, or prohibited things.

against this kind of tov fruit.

24 And they that are Moshiach's have controlled the flesh with its affections and desires.

25 If we live in the Ruach Hakodesh, let us also have our halacha in the Ruach Hakodesh.¹

26 Let us not desire worthless tifereth, provoking, or ridiculing one another, or envying one another.

6 Yisraelite brothers, if a man is overtaken in a trespass, you who are the spiritual ones restore him in the ruach of gentleness; while guarding yourself, lest you also be tempted.

2 Bear one another's burdens, and so complete in practice the Torah of the Moshiach.²

3 For if a man thinks himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceives himself.

4 But let every man examine his own mitzvoth, and then shall he have gilah in himself alone, and not in another.

5 For every man shall bear his own burden.

6 Let him that is taught in the word share with him that teaches in all tov things.³

7 Be not deceived; אלהא is not mocked: for whatever a man sows, that shall he also reap.

8 For he that sows to his flesh shall from the flesh reap corruption; but he that sows into the Ruach Hakodesh shall from the Ruach Hakodesh reap everlasting chayim.

9 And let us not be weary in doing well: for in due season we shall reap, if we do not grow weary.

10 So then, as we have the opportunity, let us do tov to all men, especially to those who are of the household of believing Yisrael.

11 You see how large a letter I have written to you with my own handwriting.

12 Those who desire to make a nice show of your flesh, they compel you to be circumcised; in order to avoid suffering persecution for the execution stake of Moshiach.^{4 5}

14 But יהוה forbid that I should boast, except in the execution stake of our Master יהושע ha Moshiach, through whom the olam hazeh is impaled to me, and I am impaled to the olam hazeh.⁸

15 For in the Moshiach יהושע neither brit milah, nor akrobusia, has strength to save, but only a renewed creation.⁹

persecution. The same practice is found in many modern "Messianic" congregations, where there is such an emphasis on "Hebraic, or Jewish things," that the execution stake and the Son of YHWH almost become afterthoughts.

⁶ Because they violate the equality of believers as outlined in Torah which commands Yisraelites to love, care, and nurture the strangers, or non-Jews in the gates as equal heirs in Yisrael and moreover as those who abide by the same Torah.

⁷ That identifies you as someone belonging to his, or her sect, or religious order that places preconditions and rankings on believers.

⁸ The stake is where our hope lies. The blood of atonement has purchased us, and as such, we are dead to any allegiance to the world, or any of its claims on our lives.

⁹ The strength to become regenerated as a new creation comes only from YHWH's Spirit, and not by any act of circumcision, or any other commandment of YHWH, or men.

¹⁰ As many from both houses living by the priority rule of becoming born of the Spirit and then learning how to follow Torah, upon those with this understanding and proper spiritual priority is placed the title of "Yisrael." The true "Yisrael of YHWH" is composed of returning and redeemed exiles from both houses, and those who desire to join them, their King and His Torah.

² If Yahshua nailed the Torah to the cross, as alleged by some, then what Torah is this speaking of? No doubt it is the same one that His Father has.

⁴ Preaching circumcision without Messiah, or as a precondition for Messiah's acceptance of the individual, is all about parading foreskins in a numbers game, or show, even as modern-day denominations fill out commitment cards of those who profess a desire for baptism, to make a nice show of big numbers. Sadly, many among them have not had a regeneration experience. Efrayim uses "decision cards, while Judah uses "circumcision clubs." Same wrong motive and same wrong reasoning. Circumcision is required only after true salvation and maturity.

⁵ Circumcision is widely accepted in Judah and the atonement of Yahshua is not. It is sinful to place circumcision above the offence of the message of the tree of execution, in order to avoid ridicule and

10 That in the administration of the fullness of times He might gather together in one all things in Moshiach, both which are in the shamayim, and which are on the earth; even in Him:²
11 In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of Him who works all things after the counsel of His own will:
12 That we should be the tehilla of His tifereth, who were the first to trust in the Moshiach.
13 In whom you also trusted, after you heard the word of emet, the Besorah of your Yahshua: in whom also, after you believed, were then sealed with the Ruach Hakodesh of promise,
14 Who is the pledge from יהוה of our future inheritance until the geulah of the purchased possession, our bodies, to the tehilla of His tifereth.
15 Therefore, after I heard of your emunah in the Master

יהושע, and your ahava to all the Yisraelite kidushim,
16 I do not stop to give hodu for you, making mention of you in my tefillot;
17 That the אלהא of our Master יהושע ha Moshiach, the Abba of tifereth, may give to you the Ruach of chochmah and revelation in the da'at of Him:
18 So that the eyes of your lev being enlightened; to know what is the tikvah of His calling, and what are the riches of the tifereth of His inheritance in the Yisraelite kidushim,
19 And what is the exceeding greatness of His power to us, who believe, according to the working of His mighty power,
20 Which He worked in Moshiach, when He raised Him from the dead, and seated Him at His own right hand in the shamayim,
21 Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named,³ not only in the olam hazeh, but also in the olam haba:³
22 And has put all things under His feet, and gave Him to be the head over all things in the Yisraelite congregation,
23 Which is His body, the complete extension of Him who fills all in all.

2 And you has He made alive, who were dead in trespasses and sins;
2 In which in times past you walked according to the course of this olam, according to the prince of the power of the air,⁴ the ruach that now operates in Torah-breaking children:
3 Among whom also we all used to have our conduct in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of our flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as were others.
4 But יהוה, who is rich in rachamim, for His great ahava through which He loved us,
5 Even when we were dead in our sins, has made us alive together with Moshiach – by unmerited favor you are saved –
6 And has raised us up together, and made us sit together in the heavenly places in Moshiach יהושע:⁵
7 That in the olam haba He might show the exceeding riches of His unmerited favor in chesed toward us through Moshiach יהושע.

EPHESIANS

¹ All believers are adopted into YHWH's family. There is no such thing as the Jews being the real chosen children and non-Jews being merely adopted. All human beings are sinners and all need adoption into YHWH's family, including Jewish-Yisrael.

⁴ s.a.tan is called the ruler of the air because he controls that atmosphere, but also because unlike redeemed Yisrael, he will inherit nothing but air.

⁵ All Yisrael is seated together positionally in the heavens. Therefore, we must seat ourselves on earth as one nation, where all believers are considered the Commonwealth of Yisrael, no longer divided amongst ourselves under designations such as "Jew" and "gentile."

EPHSIYAH – EPHESIANS

8 For by unmerited favor are you saved through emunah; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of יהוה:

9 Not by our mitzvoth, lest any man should boast. ¹

10 For we are His masterpiece, recreated in the Moshiach יהושע to tov mitzvoth, which יהוה has ordained beforehand that we should perform as our halacha. ²

11 Therefore remember, that you being in times past gentiles in the flesh, ³ who are called The Uncircumcision ⁴ by those called the Brit-Milah in the flesh made by hands;

12 That at that time you were without Moshiach, being excluded, aliens from the Commonwealth of Yisrael, as gerim from the covenants of promise, having no tikvah, and without אלהא in the olam hazeh: ⁵

13 But now in Moshiach יהושע you who sometimes were far off ⁶ are made near by the dahm of Moshiach.

14 For He is our shalom, who has made both echad, ⁷ and has broken down the middle wall of partition between us; ⁸

15 Having abolished in His flesh the enmity, ⁹ even the law of commandments contained in human dogma; ¹⁰ for to make in Himself from the two ¹¹ one renewed man, ¹² so making shalom; ¹³

16 And that He might reconcile both ¹⁴ to יהוה in one body ¹⁵ by the execution stake, having slain the enmity through it: ¹⁶

17 And came and proclaimed shalom to you who were far off, ¹⁷ and to them that were near. ¹⁸

18 For through Him we both ¹⁹ have access by one Ruach to Abba.

19 Now therefore you are no more gerim and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the Yisraelite kidushim, forming the household of יהוה; Beit Yisrael. ²⁰

20 Beit Yisrael is built upon the foundation of the shlichim and neviim, יהושע ha Moshiach Himself being the Rosh Pina; ²¹

¹ Salvation is by blood atonement and YHWH's acceptance of the blood for our atonement. It has never been by keeping Torah.

² Here is the contrast. Works don't save us, but YHWH's ordained works known as Torah are the ones ordained for they are written, as the way YHWH desires for us to walk. Scripture speaks much about the difference between man's works and ordained works that allow us to be His masterpieces.

³ Note that these Efrayimite believers in Ephesus, were no longer pagans, or gentiles.

⁴ Not much has changed. Most saved Jews refuse to call Efrayimites Yisrael, but keep referring to them as "saved gentiles."

⁵ Before Messiah, non-Jews were considered unclean dogs outside of the nation of Yisrael.

⁷ In order to make two entities into one commonwealth, those near and those far, there must exist two Yisraelite entities in need of shalom-peace between themselves. Yahshua came to bring an end to the civil war between the two houses of Yisrael that make up the commonwealth, as this Scripture so vividly declares.

⁸ The middle wall is not the Torah, but the manmade partition that the Jews illegally added to the temple repaired in the days of Zerubbabel, separating the outer court into subdivisions, including the manmade court of the gentiles. This court did not exist in the wilderness tabernacle, or in Solomon's temple, and most importantly it does not exist in the actual temple in heaven. This is the earthly partition Yahshua came to remove so that all true worshippers entering the temple of YHWH would be considered Yisrael.

⁹ Messiah came to end the enmity, or hatred and enemy status between Yisrael's two houses. Nevertheless, some still want to continue in that enmity despite Yahshua's revealed will for all believers to be considered Yisrael.

¹¹ From the multitudes of the two houses, He took those chosen, from the remnant of Judah and the remnant of Efrayim and has made them into one new man. Notice that the one new man is composed of those from these two prior entities. Like all men, the new man too has a name: Yisrael.

¹² See previous footnote for this verse.

¹³ In fulfillment of many promises such as: Isaiah 11:13-14, Ezekiel 37:15-28 and Hosea chapter one.

¹⁴ Both houses.

¹⁵ Renewed Covenant Yisrael.

¹⁶ To bring life and restoration between the two houses, Yahshua first had to destroy the hatred and enmity, before instituting peace through the one new man, with the name of Yisrael.

¹⁷ Efrayim, or non-Jewish-Yisrael, as per Daniel 9:7, Ezekiel 11:16 and other places.

¹⁸ Judah, near to home, or near to Jerusalem, the center of YHWH's world.

¹⁹ Not only are both houses Yisrael, but both houses share the same Messiah, Spirit, and homeland in the land of Yisrael.

²⁰ Non-Jewish believers must see themselves as Scripture declares them to be. Not as strangers, not as foreigners, not as aliens, but as citizens of physical and spiritual Yisrael, and as the set-apart ones, making up the renewed congregation of YHWH. Until Efrayimites see their heritage clearly, and receive it by faith in Scripture, the nation will remain divided and in exile.

²¹ All true Yisraelite congregations will feature the Messiah, as well as a foundation in the writings of the Tanach (First Covenant), and the foundational writings of the apostles of the Renewed Covenant.

EPHSIYAH – EPHESIANS

21 In whom all the bayit being joined together ¹ grows into a kadosh Beit HaMikdash in יהוה:

22 In whom you also are being built together as the Beit HaMikdash of אלה through the Ruach. ²

3 For this cause I Shaul, ³ am the prisoner of יהושע ha Moshiach for the nations,

2 If you have heard of the administration of the unmerited favor of יהוה which is given to me for you: ⁴

3 How that by revelation He made known to me the mystery; as I wrote before in few words,

4 So that, when you read this, you may understand my da'at into the mystery of the Moshiach; ⁵

5 Which in other olamim was not made known to the sons of men, as it is now revealed to His kadosh shlichim and neviim by the Ruach; ⁶

6 That the nations should be fellow heirs, united in shalom in the same body, and partakers of His promise in Moshiach by the Besorah: ⁷

7 Of which I was made an eved, according to the gift of the unmerited favor of יהוה given to me by the working of His power. ⁸

8 To me, who am the least of all Yisraelite kidushim, is this unmerited favor given, that I should proclaim among the nations the unsearchable riches of Moshiach;

9 And that all men would see what is the purpose of the administration of this mystery, ⁹ which from the beginning of the olam has been hidden in יהוה, who created all things by יהושע ha Moshiach: ^{10 11}

10 For the intent that now through the one reunited Yisraelite congregation, principalities and authorities in the shamayim might learn the manifold chochmah of יהוה, ¹²

11 According to the eternal purpose that He purposed in Moshiach יהושע our Master: ¹³

12 In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the emunah in Him.

13 So I desire that you faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your tifereth.

14 For this cause I bow my knees to the Abba of our Master יהושע ha Moshiach,

15 Of whom the whole mishpacha in the shamayim and on the earth is named, ¹⁴

16 That He would grant you, according to the riches of His tifereth, to be strengthened with might by His Ruach in your inner man;

17 That Moshiach may dwell in your levim by emunah; that you, being rooted and grounded in ahava,

18 May be able to comprehend with all the Yisraelite kidushim what is the width and length and depth and height;

19 To know the ahava of Moshiach, which passes human da'at; that you might be filled with all the fullness of יהוה.

20 Now to Him that is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask, or think, according to the power that is at work in us,

21 To Him be tifereth in the Yisraelite congregation through Moshiach יהושע throughout all olamim, le-olam-va-ed. Amein.

4 I therefore, the prisoner of יהושע, beg of you that your halacha is worthy of the rank to which you are called,

2 With all humility and meekness, with patience, bearing with one another in ahava;

¹ Note that Yahshua's first coming started an ongoing process of joining with each other, to be completed at His return, and not before by man's efforts.

² This temple is called the Tabernacle of Dawid, which is being rebuilt, into a home for all Yisraelites, and also for YHWH through His Spirit. Through the ministry of our Messiah, the Booth of Dawid with all twelve tribes fully represented is being raised up.

⁴ He was administering YHWH's unmerited favor for salvation and their return to the nation of Yisrael.

⁶ See the footnote for Ephesians 3:4.

⁷ That's the crux of the message: The rebuilding and re-gathering of Yisrael, not the building of a gentile church. But this understanding will come only by the word of YHWH, and the illumination of revelation.

⁸ A servant to the nations, to regather the wandering sheep of Yisrael.

⁹ Paul prayed that all men would come to understand the real reason he went to the nations, which was not to meet pagans, but to bring Yisrael back into covenant.

¹⁰ The Good News is the unveiling of the means and the reasons for Messiah's coming, to rebuild the Tabernacle of Dawid for YHWH to inhabit forever. The Creator is Yahshua, and He came to rebuild His nation and all who desire to be part of it under His leadership.

¹¹ Yahshua is the Creator.

¹² In scattering and then re-gathering His people, thereby using Yisrael as an object lesson to show His future and end-time faithfulness to all created spirits as well.

¹³ The purpose He just outlined in the preceding verses.

¹⁴ Yahshua is the personification of Yisrael and is called Yisrael in Hosea 11:1 and Isaiah 49:3. So if Yahshua's Name is prophetically known as Yisrael, then we His people are the children of Yisrael, and all who belong to Yahshua in heaven and on earth, are surely part of the Yisraelite family. Moreover, if Yahshua carries the Name of His Father, as well as all of His titles, since they are one, then the Father is also "Father Yisrael," or the Father of Yisrael and we the children of Yisrael.

EPHSIYAH – EPHESIANS

3 Being eager to guard the unity of the Ruach in the bond of shalom.¹

4 There is one body and one Ruach, even as you are called in one tikvah of your calling;²

5 One Master יהוה, one emunah, one mikvah,

6 One אלהא and Abba of us all, who is above us all, and through us all, and in you all.³

7 But to every one of us is given unmerited favor according to the measure of the gift of the Moshiach.

8 That is why it says, When He ascended up on high, He led captivity captive,⁴ and gave spiritual gifts to men.

9 Now that He ascended, what is it but that He also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?

10 He that descended is the same One also that ascended far above all the shamayim, that He might fill all things.

11 And He gave some, shlichim; and some, neviim; and some, proclaimers; and some, roehim and morim;

12 For the perfecting of the Yisraelite kidushim, for the mitzvoh of service, for the rebuilding of the body of Moshiach:

13 Until we all come into the unity of national emunah, and the full da'at of the Son of יהוה, into a mature and perfect man, according to the same measure and the same stature of the fullness that Moshiach Himself has:

14 That we should no longer be children, tossed around, and carried away with every wind of teaching, by the tricks of men, and human cleverness, used by those who lie in wait to deceive you;

15 But speaking the emet in ahava, that we may progress and grow through Him, who is the Head of kol Yisrael, even the Moshiach:

16 From whom the whole body joined and knit together by what every joint supplies, according to the working of every member doing its share, causing growth for the body, building itself up in ahava.

17 This I say therefore, and testify in יהוה, that from now on you conduct your halacha not as other gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind,⁵

18 Having their binah darkened, being alienated from the chayim of אלהא through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their lev:⁶

¹ Be eager to guard the truth of the peaceful reunification of our people at all times.

² Both houses have been promised the same hope.

³ As far as YHWH is concerned, there is only one faith and one people. That is the body of Renewed Covenant Yisrael, where there are no Jews, or Arameans, or Greeks but all are Yisrael.

⁴ The righteous in Abraham's Bosom. See notes on Luke 16.

⁶ This does not - and cannot - be a description of a believer, who walks in light and revelation. Gentiles are blind and walk in spiritual darkness.

19 Who being past feeling have given themselves over to indecency, to perform all uncleanness with greediness.

20 But you have not learned your chayim in Moshiach that way;

21 If you have heard about Him, and have been taught by Him, as the emet is in יהושע.

22 That you put off concerning the former way of chayim the old man, which is degenerated with deceitful lusts;

23 And be renewed in the ruach of your mind;

24 And that you put on the renewed man, which after אלהא is recreated in tzedakah and real set-apartness.

25 Therefore put away lying, and speak every man the emet with his neighbor: for we are members one of another.⁷

26 Be angry,⁸ but sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath:

27 Do not give s.a.tan a chance, or opening.

28 Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labor, working with his hands the thing that is tov, that he may have something to give to him that needs.⁹

29 Let no lashon hara proceed out of your mouth, but that, which is tov, and useful for edification, that it may impart brachot to the hearers.

30 And grieve not the Ruach Hakodesh of יהוה, by whom you are sealed for Yom HaGeulah.

31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and loud yelling, and lashon hara, be put away from you, along with all malice:

32 And be kind towards one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as יהוה for Moshiach's sake has already forgiven you.

5 Be therefore followers of יהוה, as dear children;

2 And have a halacha of ahava, as Moshiach also has loved us, and has given Himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to יהוה for a sweet smelling fragrance.

3 But fornication, and all uncleanness, or greed for gain, let it not be even once named among you, as is fitting for kidushim in Yisrael;

4 Neither cursing, nor foolish talking, nor insults, nor even flattery, since none of these are necessary: but rather the giving of hodu.

5 For this you know, that no fornicator, no unclean person, no covetous man, no one who is an idolater, has any inheritance in the malchut of Moshiach and of יהוה.

6 Let no man deceive you with meaningless words: for because of these things comes the wrath of יהוה upon the children of disobedience.

7 Be not partakers with them.

8 For you were once darkness, but now are you in the Light of יהוה: have your halacha as children of Light:

⁷ Unlike religion, where people become members of a denomination, in Yisrael we become members of each other.

⁸ Anger is a human emotion. But prolonged anger, or inbred anger will destroy from within. Thus, Yisraelites are encouraged to "let it go" before the new day dawns.

⁹ A true Yisraelite can be detected by fruits of repentance.

EPHSIYAH – EPHESIANS

9 For the fruits of Light are found in chesed and tzedakah and emet;

10 Learn to discern what is acceptable to יהוה.

11 And have no chavurah with the unfruitful deeds of darkness, but rather condemn them.¹

12 For it is a shame to even speak of those things that are done by them in secret.

13 But all things that are under condemnation are made manifest by the Light: for whatever is manifested is manifested by Light.

14 Therefore He said, Awake you that sleep, and arise from the dead, and Moshiach shall give you Light.

15 See then that your halacha is detailed and alert, not as fools, but as wise,

16 Taking advantage of the time and opportunity you are given, because the days are evil.

17 Therefore be not unwise, but understand what the will of יהוה is.²

18 And be not drunk with wine, in which there is excess; but be filled with the Ruach;

19 Speaking to yourselves with the Tehillim and shirim of tehilla and spiritual shirim, singing and making melody in your lev to the Master יהוה;

20 Giving hodu always for all things to Abba יהוה in the Name of our Master יהושע ha Moshiach;³

21 Submit yourselves one to another in the fear of יהוה.⁴

22 Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands, as you would to יהושע.

23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Moshiach is the Head of the Yisraelite congregation: and He is the Savior of the body.

24 Therefore as the Yisraelite congregation is subject to Moshiach, so let the wives be to their own husbands in everything.

25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Moshiach also loved the Yisraelite congregation, and gave Himself for it;

26 That He might set it apart and cleanse it with the washing of mayim by the word,

27 That He might present it to Himself a beautiful Yisraelite congregation, not having spots, or wrinkles, or any such thing; but that it should be kadosh and without blame.

28 Like this, men should love their wives even as their own bodies. He that loves his wife loves himself.

29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourishes and cherishes it, even as יהושע the Yisraelite congregation:

30 For we are members of His body, of His flesh, and of His bones.

31 For this cause shall a man leave his abba and eema, and shall be joined to his wife, and the two shall be basar-echad.⁵

32 This is a great sod: but I speak concerning the Moshiach and the Yisraelite congregation.⁶

33 However let every one of you as an individual so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she respects her husband.

6 Children, obey your parents in the Master: for this is right before יהוה.

2 Honor your abba and eema-which is the first commandment with promise,

3 That it may be well with you, and you may live long on the land.⁷

4 Parents, provoke not your children to anger: but bring them up in the Torah and admonitions of the Master.

5 Avadim, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in sincerity of lev, as to Moshiach;

6 Not with eye-service, as hypocrites; but as the avadim of the Moshiach, doing the will of יהוה from the lev;

7 With a tov will doing service for men, as if to יהוה, and not to men:

8 Knowing that whatever tov thing any man does, the same shall he receive from יהוה, whether he be an eved, or free.

9 And, you masters, do the same things to them, refrain from threatening them: knowing that your own Master יהוה also is in the shamayim; neither is there any partiality with Him.

10 Finally, my Yisraelite brothers, be strong in יהוה, and in the power of His might.

11 Put on the whole armor of אלהא, that you may be able to stand against the strategies of s.a.tan.

12 Because we wrestle not against flesh and dahm, but against principalities, against authorities, against the rulers of the darkness of this olam, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

13 Therefore take up the whole armor of אלהא, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand, stand even more.

14 Stand therefore, having your loins wrapped around with emet, and having on the breastplate of tzedakah;

15 And your feet fitted with the preparation of the Besorah of shalom;

¹ The behavior not the individual.

² Regarding who you are, and how you are to behave as returning Yisrael.

³ Returning Yisraelites are commanded to pray to the Father in Yahshua's Name, never to Yahshua directly.

⁴ In Yisrael, community holds people accountable.

⁵ There's the pashat, or literal understanding. Two people becoming one.

⁷ Quoting one of the ten words/commandments as further evidence that the Ephesian believers will one day inherit the actual land of Yisrael, along with Jewish-Yisrael.

EPHSIYAH – EPHESIANS

16 Above all, taking the shield of emunah, with which you shall be able to quench all the fiery arrows of the wicked one.

17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Ruach, which is the word of יהוה:¹

18 Making tefillot always with all intercession and supplication in the Ruach, and watching in the Ruach with all endurance and petitions for all the Yisraelite kidushim;

19 And for me, that words may be given to me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the Besorah,²

20 For which I am an envoy in prison: that in prison I may speak boldly, as I should speak.

21 But that you also may know my affairs, and how I am doing, Tuchikos, a beloved Yisraelite brother and faithful eved in the Master, shall make known to you all things:

22 Whom I have sent to you for the same purpose, that you might know our affairs, and that he might comfort your levim.

23 Shalom be to the Yisraelite brothers, and ahava with emunah, from Abba יהוה and the Master יהושע ha Moshiach.

24 Unmerited favor be with all those who love our Master יהושע ha Moshiach in sincerity.
Amein. ת

¹ He is not describing a Roman soldier for the simple reason that Isaiah, whom Paul is quoting, never saw a Roman soldier. He is quoting Isaiah 59:17. In context with Isaiah 59:16, Yahshua is the one being described as YHWH's armor. So in essence, these verses are telling Yisrael to put on Yahshua and His fullness.

² We all need prayer for boldness, to proclaim the two houses in the face of the darkness of organized religion.

Phylpsiyah – פיליפטיא – Philippians To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

1 Shaul and Timtheous, the avadim of יהושע ha Moshiach, to all the Yisraelite kidushim in Moshiach יהושע who are at Phylpsiyah, with the teaching overseers and shamashim:
2 Unmerited favor be to you, and shalom, from יהוה our Abba, and from the Master יהושע ha Moshiach.
3 I give hodu to my אלהא upon every remembrance of you,
4 Always in every one of my tefillot for you I make my request with simcha,
5 For your chavurah in the Besorah from the first day until now;
6 Being confident of this very thing, that He who has begun a tov work in you will complete it until the Yom of יהושע ha Moshiach:
7 Even as it is right for me to think this of all of you, because I have you in my lev; because both in my imprisonment, and in the defense and confirmation of the Besorah, you all are partakers of my unmerited favor.
8 For יהוה is my witness, how greatly I long after you all with the affections of יהושע ha Moshiach.
9 And this is my tefillah, that your ahava may abound more and more in chochmah and in all discernment;
10 That you may choose and discern the things that are excellent; that you may be sincere and without offense until the Yom of the Moshiach;
11 Being filled with the fruits of tzedakah, which are by יהושע ha Moshiach, to the tifereth and tehilla of יהוה.
12 But I desire that you should understand, Yisraelite brothers, that the things that happened to me have turned out for the advancement of the Besorah;
13 So that the reasons for my imprisonment in Moshiach are manifest to all the palace, and to Kaiser's court and also in all other places;
14 And many of the Yisraelite brothers in the Master are growing more confident by my imprisonment and are much more bold to speak the word without fear.
15 Some indeed proclaim Moshiach because of envy and strife; and some also in tov will and ahava:
16 The former proclaim Moshiach for selfish ambition, not sincerely, thinking they are adding pressure and stress to my imprisonment:
17 But the latter out of ahava, knowing that I am set for the defense of the Besorah.
18 What then? In every way, whether in pretence, or in emet, Moshiach is proclaimed; and in that I have gilah, yes, and will have more gilah.
19 For I know that this shall turn into my deliverance through your tefillot, and the gift of the Ruach of יהושע ha Moshiach,
20 According to my intense longing and my tikvah, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Moshiach shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by chayim, or by my death.
21 For to me to live is the Moshiach, and to die is gain.¹
22 But if I live in the body, this is the ongoing fruit of my labor: yet what I shall choose I do not know.

23 For I am torn between two desires, having a desire to depart, and to be with Moshiach; which is far better:²
24 Nevertheless to remain in the body is more needful for you.³
25 And having this confidence, I know that I shall stay here for now, and continue with you for your progress and simcha in believing;
26 That your gilah may be more abundant in יהושע ha Moshiach for me by my coming to you again.
27 Only let your behavior be worthy of the Besorah of Moshiach: that whether I come and see you, or whether I am absent, I may hear of your affairs, that you stand fast in one ruach, with one mind excelling as echad for the emunah of the Besorah;
28 And in nothing be terrified by your adversaries: whose personal conduct is the sign of their future destruction, but your conduct speaks of salvation, from יהוה.
29 For to you it is given on Moshiach's behalf, not only to believe on Him, but also to suffer for His sake;
30 Having the same trials that you saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

2 If therefore you have received any encouragement in Moshiach, or any comfort, or ahava, or any chavurah of the Ruach, or any affection, or rachamim,
2 Complete my simcha, that you are likeminded, having the same ahava, being in echad accord and in echad mind.
3 Let nothing be done through strife, or pride, or conceit; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem the other better than themselves.
4 A Yisraelite should look not only on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.
5 Let this mind be in you, which was and is also in Moshiach יהושע:
6 Who, being in the very form of אלהא, thought it not presumptuous, or blasphemous – that He is the equal⁴ of יהוה:^{5 6}

PHILIPPIANS

¹ In order for death to be considered a gain, there must be something to be gained immediately upon death.

² A departure from the body is a release to be with Messiah upon death. Once we discover where Messiah is now, we'll discover where we'll be, while we await the resurrection of the last day.

³ To complete His calling.

⁴ Aramaic word is chatuphya, meaning the same substance as, or equal substance to.

⁵ Aramaic Peshitta.

⁶ Yahshua was and remains YHWH's exact visible form. Paul did not think that it was a non-Hebraic concept for Messiah to be YHWH, since that was a basic belief of many Jews of his day. It is not a mystery to be grasped at, as the faulty Greek text suggests, but a conclusion anyone with an open heart, who desires truth, can arrive at through much study and prayer, just like Paul did.

PHYLYPSIYAH – PHILIPPIANS

7 But made Himself of no reputation, and took upon Himself the form of an eved, and was made in the likeness of the sons of men: ¹

8 And being found fashioned as a man, He humbled Himself, and became obedient to death, even the death of the execution stake.

9 Therefore יהוה also has highly exalted Him, and given Him The Name ² which is above every name:

10 That at The Name of יהושע every knee should bow, of things in the shamayim, and things on earth, and things under the earth; ³

11 And that every tongue should confess that יהושע ha Moshiach is The Master יהוה, to the tifereth of אלהא His Abba.

12 Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. ⁴

13 For it is יהוה who works in you both to will and to do of His tov pleasure.

14 Do all things without murmurings and disputes:

15 So that you may be the blameless and harmless, sons of יהוה, without spot, in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you shine as lights in the olam hazeh;

16 For you are to them the light of chayim, ⁵ that I may gilah in the Yom of Moshiach, that I have not run randomly, neither labored in vain.

17 Yes, and if my dahm is offered in the sacrifice and service for your emunah, I have simcha, and gilah with you all.

18 For the same reason also do you simcha, and gilah with me.

19 But I trust in the Master יהושע to send Timtheous shortly to you, that I also may be of tov comfort, when I know your condition.

20 For I have no others like myself, who will genuinely care for your condition.

21 For all seek their own agendas, and not the things that are יהושע ha Moshiach's.

22 But you know his record, that, as a son with an abba, he has served with me in the Besorah.

23 Therefore I plan to send him shortly, as soon as I see how it goes with me.

24 But I trust in יהוה that I also myself shall come shortly.

25 Yet I thought it necessary to send to you Epaphroditos, my Yisraelite brother, and chaver in labor, and fellow soldier, your sholiach, who also attended to my needs.

26 For he longed for you, and was full of heaviness, because you had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick even close to death: but יהוה had rachamim on him; and not on him only, but on me also, so that I should not have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him to you even more eagerly, so that when you see him again, you may gilah, that I might be less sorrowful.

29 Receive him therefore in the Master with all simcha; and hold him in high regard:

30 Because for the work of Moshiach he was near death, not regarding his chayim, to supply to me what you could not.

3 Finally, my Yisraelite brothers, gilah in our Master. To write the same things to you over and over again, to me is not a bother, but it is safe for you.

2 Beware of dogs, ⁶ beware of evil workers, ⁷ beware of the mutilation.

3 For we are the brit milah, ⁹ who worship יהוה in the Ruach, and gilah in Moshiach יהושע, and have no confidence in the flesh. ¹⁰

4 Though I too could have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinks of trusting in the flesh, I could even more so:

5 I was circumcised the eighth day, of the race of Am-Yisrael, of the tribe of Benyamin, an Ivri, son of an Ivri; regarding Torah, a Prush;

6 Concerning zeal, persecuting the Renewed Yisraelite congregation; regarding the right conduct that is in the Torah, blameless.

7 But what things were once gains for me; I counted lost for Moshiach.

8 Yes doubtless, and I count all things to be lost for the better excellence of the chochmah of the Moshiach יהושע my Master: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them as garbage, that I may gain more of Moshiach,

9 And be found in Him, not having my own tzedakah, which is from the Torah, but that which is through the emunah of Moshiach, the tzedakah that is from יהוה by emunah: ¹¹

10 That I may know Him, and the power of His resurrection, and the chavurah of His sufferings, being made conformable even to a death like His;

11 That by any means necessary I might attain to the resurrection of the dead.

¹ Rather than parade about to seize The Father's position, He humbled Himself to man's lowly position.

² "The Name." The Father's own Name as prophesied in Isaiah 45:23. He would be recognized and known as YHWH in the flesh, which no other man in history could be known as.

³ Isaiah 45:23-24.

⁵ Peshitta.

⁶ Pagans, or gentiles and their conduct.

⁷ Adversaries of the Good News.

⁸ Circumcision, or those who desire to turn believers into traditional Jews.

⁹ Renewed Covenant Yisrael.

¹⁰ Paul does not negate circumcision at all, but merely states that a believer is not to trust in anything but Yahshua for right standing before YHWH.

¹¹ Torah was never given to impart salvation, or an eternal right standing with YHWH. It was used to lead us to Messiah, and now guides us by Messiah, who alone imparts righteousness. Messiah Yahshua uses Torah to guard us from being led astray.

PHYLPSIYAH – PHILIPPIANS

12 Not as though I had already attained it, or was already perfected: but I follow after, so that I may apprehend the reasons why I was also apprehended by Moshiach יהושע.

13 Yisraelite brothers, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things that are behind me, I reach and strive for those things that are yet before me,

14 I press on toward the goal for the prize of victory of the high calling of יהוה in Moshiach יהושע.

15 Let us therefore, as many as are mature, have this mind: and if in anything you think differently, יהוה shall reveal even this to you.

16 Nevertheless, in the main issues we have all already attained maturity, so let us have our halacha by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.

17 Yisraelite brothers, be imitators together of me, and mark those who have that same halacha just as you have us as an example.

18 For many have wrong halacha, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even with weeping, that they are the enemies of the execution stake of Moshiach:¹

19 Whose end is destruction, whose אלהא is their belly, and whose tifereth is in their shameful conduct, who mind earthly things.

20 For our labor and behavior is from the shamayim; from where we also look and eagerly wait for the return of the Savior, the Master יהושע ha Moshiach:

21 Who shall change our poor lowly body, that it may be refashioned just like His new esteemed body, according to His own working by which He is able to subdue all things under His control.

4 Therefore, my Yisraelite brothers dearly beloved and longed for, my simcha and keter, stand fast in the Master, my dearly beloved.

2 I beseech Euodia, and beseech Suntuche, that they be of the same mind in the Master.

3 And I ask you also, emet chaverim, help those women who labored with me in the Besorah, with Qlemes also, and with others of my fellow laborers, whose names are in the Scroll of Chayim.²

4 Gilah in יהושע always: and again I say, Gilah.

5 Let your moderation and humility be known to all men. The Master is at hand.

6 Be anxious for nothing; but in every thing by tefillah and supplication with hodu let your requests be made known to יהוה.

7 And the shalom of יהוה, which passes all binah, shall keep your levim and minds through Moshiach יהושע.

8 Finally, Yisraelite brothers, whatever things are emet, whatever things are honest, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of tov report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any tehilla, think on these things.

¹ Such folks as anti-Yahshua missionaries, and replacement theologians.

² Lamb's Book of Life.

9 Those things, which you have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the אלהא of shalom shall be with you.³

10 But I had gilah in יהוה greatly, that now recently your care and concern for me has been revived again; though you were concerned in the past, but you lacked the means.

11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatever state I am in to be content.⁴

12 I know what it is to be poor, and I know what it is to be rich: I have gone through and experienced many things, both to be full and to be hungry, to have plenty and be in want.⁵

13 I have the strength to do all things through Moshiach who strengthens me.

14 Yet you have done well, that you did share during my affliction.

15 Now you in Phylpsiyah should know, that in the beginning of the Besorah in the nations, when I departed from Makedonia, no Yisraelite congregation communicated with me regarding giving and receiving assistance, but you alone.

16 For even in Tesloniqyah you sent again and again to meet my needs.

17 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire spiritual fruit that may multiply in your account.

18 But I have all, and abound: I am full, having received from Epaphroditos the things that were sent from you, as an odor of a sweet-smelling sacrifice, acceptable and well pleasing to יהוה.

19 But my אלהא shall supply all your needs according to His riches by the tifereth of Moshiach יהושע.

20 Now to יהוה our Abba be tifereth le-olam-va-ed. Amein.

21 Greet every kadosh one in Moshiach יהושע. The Yisraelite brothers who are with me greet you.

22 All the Yisraelite kidushim greet you, most of all those that believe in Kaiser's bayit.

23 The unmerited favor of our Master יהושע ha Moshiach be with you all.

Amein. ת

³ This is not boasting, but a reminder that YHWH requires mature believers and leaders to lead by example.

⁵ Peshitta.

Qolesayah – קולסיאי – Colossians To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

1 Shaul, a sholiach of יהושע ha Moshiach by the will of יהוה, and Timtheous our Yisraelite brother,

2 To the Yisraelite kidushim and faithful Yisraelite brothers in Moshiach who are at Qolesayah: Unmerited favor be to you, and shalom, from יהוה our Abba and the Master יהושע ha Moshiach.

3 We give hodu to יהוה the Abba of our Master יהושע ha Moshiach, making tefillot always for you,

4 Since we heard of your emunah in Moshiach יהושע, and of the ahava which you have to all the Yisraelite kidushim,

5 For the tikvah that is laid up for you in the shamayim, of which you heard before in the word of the emet of the Besorah;

6 Which has come to you, as it has in all the olam; and brings forth fruit, as it does also in you, since the day that you heard of it, and knew the unmerited favor of יהוה in emet:

7 As you also learned of Epaphras our dear fellow eved, who is for you also a faithful eved of Moshiach;

8 Who also declared to us your ahava in the Ruach.

9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard of it, do not cease to make tefillot for you, and to desire that you might be filled with the da'at of His will in all chochmah and spiritual binah;

10 That you might have a halacha worthy of the Master fully pleasing, being fruitful in every tov mitzvah, and increasing in the da'at of אלהא;

11 Strengthened with all koach, according to His beautiful power, to all patience and endurance with simcha;

12 Giving hodu to Abba, who has made us fit to be partakers of the inheritance of the Yisraelite kidushim in light:

13 Who has delivered us from the power of darkness, and has translated us into the malchut of His dear Son:

14 In whom we have geulah through His dahm, even the forgiveness of sins:

15 Who is the image of the invisible אלהא, the Bachor of all creation:

16 For by Him were all things created, that are in the shamayim, and that are on earth, visible and invisible, whether they are thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by Him, and for Him:¹

17 And He is before all things, and by Him all things consist.

18 And He is the Head of the body, the congregation of Yisrael: the Beginning, the Bachor from the dead; that in all things He might be the first.

19 For it pleased Abba that in Him should all fullness dwell;

20 And, having made shalom through the dahm of His execution stake, through Him to restore all things to Himself;² whether they be things on earth, or things in the shamayim.

21 And you, that were sometimes alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now has He restored.³

22 In the body of His flesh through death, to present you kadosh and blameless and without reproach in His sight:

23 If you continue in the emunah grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the tikvah of the Besorah, about which you have heard, and which was proclaimed to every creature that is under the shamayim; by which I Shaul have been made an eved;⁴

24 Who now have simcha in my sufferings for you, that now fills up that which is lacking in the afflictions of the Moshiach in my own flesh for His body's sake, which is the congregation of Yisrael:

25 Of which I am made an eved, according to the administration of אלהא's gift, which is given to me for you, to fulfill the word of יהוה;

26 Even the mystery that has been hidden from olamim and from generations, but now is revealed to His Yisraelite kidushim:

27 To whom יהוה would make known what are the riches of the tifereth of this mystery among all the nations;⁵

which is Moshiach in you, the tikvah of tifereth:

28 Whom we proclaim, warning every man, and teaching every man in all chochmah; that we may present every man mature in Moshiach יהושע:

29 For which I also labor, striving according to His working, which works in me with His power.⁶

2 For I want you to know what a great struggle I have for you, and for those at Laodikeia, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;

2 That their levim might be in full shalom, being knit together in ahava, to all the riches of the full assurance of binah, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of Abba יהוה and of the Moshiach;⁷

3 In whom are hidden all the treasures of chochmah and da'at.

4 And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words.

5 For though I am absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in

² Since Yahshua's blood came to restore all things, that restoration by definition must also include the people of Yisrael scattered into two houses.

³ The alienated ones were Efrayim-Yisrael, who have now been restored to YHWH and to their brothers in Judah.

⁴ This powerful and clear statement should settle the issue of eternal security. Eternity is secure only to all those who remain steadfast and finish the race of faith.

⁵ The fullness of all the end-time nations (Genesis 49:1), or the seed of Efrayim (Genesis 48:19) in those nations. Messiah is now in us.

⁶ To bring in the nations, with and by YHWH's power in Him.

⁷ One of the mysteries of Renewed Covenant Yisrael is that The Father and Son form the one YHWH.

QOLESAYAH – COLOSSIANS

the Ruach, having simcha and beholding your orderliness, and the firmness of your emunah in Moshiach.

6 As you have therefore received Moshiach יְהוֹשֻׁעַ the Master, so have your halacha in Him: ¹

7 Rooted and built up in Him, established in the emunah, as you have been taught, abounding in the emunah with hodu.

8 Beware lest any man devour you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the traditions of men, after the elementary matters of the olam hazeh, and not after Moshiach.

9 For in Him dwells all the fullness of El-Elyon in bodily form.

10 And you are complete in Him, who is the Head of all principality and power: ²

11 In whom also you are circumcised with the brit milah made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the brit milah of the Moshiach: ³

12 Buried with Him in mikvah, by which also you are risen with Him through emunah in the operation of יְהוָה, who has raised Him from the dead. ⁴

13 And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, has He made alive together with Him, having forgiven you all your trespasses;

14 Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, ⁵ and took it out of the way, nailing it to His execution stake;

15 And having spoiled principalities and powers, He made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

16 Let no individual man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of a moed, or in the Rosh Chodesh, or in the Shabbat days:

17 Which are shadows of things to come; except the Yisraelite body of Moshiach. ⁶

18 Let no man beguile you of your reward in a false humility and in the worshipping of heavenly malachim, spiritually standing on things that he has not seen, empty-headed things, created by his fleshly mind, ⁷

19 And not holding to the Head, from which all the body knit together by joints and ligaments receives nourishment, and grows with the increase of אֱלֹהִים.

20 Therefore if you are dead with the Moshiach from the elements of the olam hazeh, why, as though living in the olam hazeh, are you subject to ordinances, ⁸

21 Touch not; taste not; handle not;

22 Which all are to perish with man's using; after the commandments and teachings of men? ⁹

23 Whose rules have a show of wisdom in positive attitude, human-will worship, or self-humiliation of the body type worship, and neglecting of the body type worship; but these have no eternal value, except for the satisfying and parading of the flesh.

3 If you then are risen with Moshiach, seek those things which are above, where Moshiach sits on the right hand of יְהוָה. ¹⁰

2 Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

3 For you are dead, and your chayim is hidden with Moshiach in יְהוָה.

¹ We received Him in joy and confidence, not letting any man entice us away from Him.

² Our completeness is in Yahshua and not in any branch of religion.

⁴ Raised in newness of life, or a new nature.

⁵ This is not the Torah but rather the curses of the adulterous woman, or Yisrael, being nailed to the execution stake as the full and final fulfillment of Numbers 5:23, where the curses were kept in a list in a book. All the ordinances of Torah that we as Yisrael broke, were nailed to the stake. Furthermore YHWH's Torah, or any other part of His word, cannot be against man but for man, for in the Torah itself it states that the Torah was given for man's good. Furthermore, if the Torah was nailed to the stake, that means by definition sin no longer exists, since where there is no Torah, sin cannot be charged. Thankfully, only the lists of broken Yisraelite ordinances were nailed to the Master's stake.

⁶ Since Yisrael is expected to follow all of YHWH's eternal ways, when we do the eternal ordinances, no one outside the body of Renewed Covenant Yisrael can, or has the right to, judge the manner in which we celebrate. The premise here is not if we celebrate, but proper guidance when we celebrate. No one but the congregation of Yisrael, can guide us in the manner that we celebrate. Moreover, verse 17 states that when we do these eternal feasts, we show forth the future kingdom to come, not things in the past. So if the celebration itself is a prophetic foreshadow of coming things, how is it that the celebrating of them takes anyone back to, or back "under the law," when Paul states just the opposite.

¹⁰ His Torah and His gift of eternal life, instead of manmade ordinances like taste not, and touch not, which will pass away, even while man is using them.

QOLESAYAH – COLOSSIANS

4 When Moshiach, who is our chayim, shall appear, then shall you also appear with Him in tifereth.

5 Put to death therefore your bodily members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, perverted affections, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry:

6 Because of these the wrath of יהוה comes upon the deeds of disobedience:

7 In which you also had your halacha in the past, when you lived in them.

8 But now you also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, and filthy speech out of your mouth.

9 Lie not one to another, seeing that you have put off the old man with his wicked deeds;

10 And have put on the renewed man, which is renewed in da'at after the image of Him that created him:

11 Where there is neither Greek, or Yahudi, brit milah, or uncircumcision, foreigner, or Scythian,¹ ² bond, or free: but Moshiach is all, and in kol Yisrael.³

12 Put on therefore, as the chosen people of יהוה, kadosh and beloved, rachamim, chesed, humbleness of mind, meekness, and endurance;

13 Bearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man has a quarrel against anyone else: even as the Moshiach forgave you, so also do you.

14 And above all these things put on ahava, which is the bond of perfection.

15 And let the shalom of Moshiach rule in your levim, to which also you are called in one body;⁴ and be full of hodu.

16 Let the word of the Moshiach dwell in you richly in all chochmah; teaching and admonishing one another in the Tehillim and with Ruach-filled shirim, singing with unmerited favor in your levim to the Master.

17 And whatever you do in word, or mitzvah, do all in the Name of the Master יהושע, giving hodu to Abba יהוה through Him.

18 Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands, as it is fit in the Master.

19 Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them.

20 Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well pleasing to יהוה.

21 Ahvot, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

22 Avadim, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eye-service, as men pleasers; but in sincerity of lev, fearing the Master יהוה:

23 And whatever you do, do it heartily, as to יהוה, and not to men;

24 Knowing that from the Master יהוה you shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for you serve יהושע ha Moshiach.

25 But he that does wrong shall receive for the wrong that he has done: and there is no partiality of persons.

4 Human masters, give to your avadim that which is just and fair; knowing that you also have the Master יהוה in the shamayim.

2 Continue in the tefillot,⁵ and watch in the same with hodu;

3 Offer tefillah also for us, that אלהא would open to us a door for the word, to speak the mystery of Moshiach, for which I am also in prison:

4 That I may make things clear, as I should speak.

5 Have your halacha in chochmah towards those that are outside the emunah, redeeming the time.

6 Let your speech be always with unmerited favor, seasoned with salt, that you may know how you should answer every man.

7 All my affairs shall Tuchikos tell you, who is a beloved Yisraelite brother and a faithful eved in the Master:

8 Whom I have sent to you for the same purpose, that he might know your affairs, and bring shalom to your levim;

9 With Onesimos, a faithful and beloved Yisraelite brother, who is one of you. They shall make known to you all things that are done here.

10 Aristarchus my fellow prisoner salutes you, and Moshe-Marcus, the nephew of Bar-Navah, about whom you received my instructions: if he comes to you, receive him;

11 And Yeshua, who is called Yustus, who is a Yahudi. These only are my fellow workers for the malchut of יהוה, who have been a comfort to me.

12 Epaphras, who is one of you, an eved of Moshiach, salutes you, always laboring fervently for you in tefillot, that you may stand perfect and complete in all the will of יהוה.

13 For I bear him record, that he has a great zeal for you, and for those that are in Laodikeia, and for those in Hierapolis.

14 Luka, the beloved physician, and Demas, greet you.

15 Salute the Yisraelite brothers who are in Laodekeia, and Numpha, and the remnant congregation that meets in his bayit.

16 And when this letter is read among you, make sure that it is read also in the congregation of the Laodikeians; and that you also read the letter from Laodikeia.

17 And say to Archippos, Take heed to the calling, which you have received in the Master, that you complete it.

To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

1 Shaul, and Sila, and Timtheous, to the Yisraelite congregation of Tesloniqyah¹ which is in Abba יהוה and in the Master יהושע ha Moshiach: unmerited favor be to you, and shalom, from יהוה our Abba, and the Master יהושע ha Moshiach.

2 We give hodu to יהוה always for you all, making mention of you in our tefillot;

3 Remembering without ceasing your mitzvoh in the emunah, and labor of ahava, and patience of tikvah in our Master יהושע ha Moshiach, in the sight of יהוה our Abba;

4 Knowing, beloved Yisraelite brothers, your choosing by יהוה.

5 For our Besorah came not to you in word only, but also in power, and in the Ruach Hakodesh,² and in much assurance; as you know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

6 And you became followers of us, and of the Master, having received the word in much tribulation, with the simcha of the Ruach Hakodesh:

7 So that you were examples to all that believe in Makedonia and Achayah.³

8 For from you sounded forth the word of the Master not only in Makedonia and Achayah, but also in every place, so that your emunah towards יהוה is spread abroad; so that we do not need to speak anything more about you.

9 For they themselves relate to us what manner of entry we first had with you, and how you made teshuvah towards יהוה from idols to serve the living and emet אלהה;

10 And to wait for His Son from the shamayim, who He raised from the dead, even יהושע, who delivers us from the wrath to come.⁴

2 For you yourselves, Yisraelite brothers, know our entrance in and among you, that it was not a waste of time:

2 But even after we had suffered and were shamefully treated before, as you know, at Philippi, we were bold in our אלהה to speak to you the Besorah of יהוה in much struggle.

3 For our appeal was not by deceit, nor by uncleanness,⁵ nor by guile:

4 But as we were allowed by יהוה to be put in trust with the Besorah, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but יהוה, who tries our levim.

5 For neither at any time did we use flattering words to make you believe, as you know, nor under a secret desire based upon greed; יהוה is my witness:

⁵ Uncleanness as defined by the Torah alone.

6 We sought not support, either from you, or from others, when we could have been burdensome to you, as the shlichim of Moshiach.

7 But we were gentle among you, even as a nursing eema nurses her children:

8 So having this affectionate desire towards you, we were willing to have imparted to you, not the Besorah of יהוה only, but also our own beings, because you were dear to us.

9 For you remember, Yisraelite brothers, our labor and toil: for laboring night and day when with you, because we would not be burdensome to any of you, we proclaimed to you the Besorah of אלהה.

10 You are witnesses, along with יהוה also, how kadosh and justly and without blame we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

11 As you know how we exhorted and comforted and oversaw each one of you, as an abba does with his children,

12 That you would have your halacha worthy of יהוה, who has called you to His malchut and tifereth.

13 For this cause also we give hodu to יהוה without ceasing, because, when you received the word of יהוה which you heard from us, you received it not as the word of men, but as it is in emet, the word of יהוה, that also works in you that believe.

14 For you, Yisraelite brothers, became followers of the congregations of יהוה which in Yahudah are in Moshiach יהושע: For you also have suffered similar things from your own countrymen, even as they have from the unbelieving Yahudim in the land of Yahudah:⁶

15 Who both killed the Master יהושע,⁷ and their own neviim, and have persecuted us; and they please not אלהה, and are against all men:

16 Forbidding us to speak to the nations⁸ so that they might be saved, to fill up their sins all the way: for His wrath has come upon them to the uttermost.^{1 2}

⁶ Non-believing Jews were persecuting believing Jews in the province of Judah, as were the Thessalonian unbelievers, who were persecuting Thessalonian believers. Both houses were being persecuted for being the believing Torah keeping remnant of Yisrael, by non-believing Yisraelites.

⁷ Not literally killed, but Paul speaks specifically of those leaders who were involved in the conspiracy according to Psalm 2 and Acts 2:23. The charge here is directed at the unbelieving Jewish leaders, not the nation, since many Jews followed Him, and without them there would not be a Renewed Covenant, or a Savior.

17 But we, Yisraelite brothers, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in lev, tried even more earnestly to see your face with great desire.

18 Therefore we would have come to you, even I Shaul, again; but s.a.tan hindered us.

19 For what is our tikvah, or simcha, or keter of gilah? All of you are; now and even then in the presence of our Master יהושע ha Moshiach at His coming?

20 For you are our tifereth and simcha.

3 So when we could no longer stand it, we thought it tov to be left alone at Athens;

2 And sent Timtheous, our Yisraelite brother, and eved of יהוה, and our fellow-laborer in the Besorah of Moshiach, to establish you, and to encourage you concerning your emunah:

3 That no man should be moved by these afflictions; for you yourselves know that we are appointed to this.³

4 For truly, when we were with you, we told you before that we would suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, as you know.

5 For this cause, when I could no longer stand it, I sent to know about your emunah, lest by some means the tempter had tempted you, and our labor among you be in vain.

6 But now when Timtheous came from you back to us, and brought us the tov update of your emunah and ahava, and that you have tov memories of us all the time, desiring greatly to see us again, as we also to see you again:

7 Therefore, Yisraelite brothers, we were comforted over you in all our tribulation and distress by your emunah:

8 For now we live, if you stand fast in the Master.

9 For what hodu can we render to יהוה again for you, for all the simcha in which we rejoiced for your sakes before our אלהא;

10 In maariv and shacrit with many tefillot, so that we might see your face, and might complete that which is lacking in your emunah?

11 Now יהוה Himself our Abba, and our Master יהושע ha Moshiach, direct our way back to you.

12 And יהוה make you increase and abound in ahava one toward another, and towards kol Yisrael, even as we do to you:

13 To establish your levim blameless in set-apartness before יהוה, our Abba, at the coming of our Master יהושע ha Moshiach with all His Yisraelite kidushim.

4 Furthermore we beg you, Yisraelite brothers, and exhort you by the Master יהושע, that as you have received from us how you ought to have your halacha in pleasing יהוה, so you should excel more and more.

2 For you know what commands we gave you by the Master יהושע.

3 For this is the will of יהוה, even your set-apartness that you should abstain from fornication:

4 That every one of you should know how to possess his own body as a vessel in set-apartness and honor;

5 Not in the lust of passions, even as the gentiles who know not יהוה:⁴

6 That no man take advantage, or defraud his brother in Yisrael in any matter: because יהוה is the revenger of all such behavior, as we also have warned you and testified.

7 For יהוה has not called us to unclean behavior, but to set-apartness.

8 Therefore he that despises another Yisraelite, despises not man, but יהוה Himself, who has also given us His Ruach Hakodesh.

9 But as touching brotherly ahava you need not that I write to you again: for your innermost beings are taught by יהוה to love one another.

10 And indeed you do love all the Yisraelite brothers who are in all of Makedonia: but we beg you, Yisraelite brothers that you increase in this even more;

11 And that you study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;

12 That you may have your halacha honestly towards them that are outside the emunah, and that you may lack nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, Yisraelite brothers, concerning those who are dead, that you sorrow not, even as unbelievers who have no tikvah.

14 For if we believe that יהושע died and rose again, even them also who have died believing in יהושע will אלהא bring with Him.⁵

15 For this we say to you by the word of יהוה, that we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Master shall not be resurrected before those who are already dead in the emunah.

16 For the Master Himself shall descend from the shamayim with a shout, with the voice of the chief heavenly malach,⁶ and with His shofar and with the tekiyah-ge-dolah of יהוה: and the dead in Moshiach shall rise first:

17 Then we who are alive and remain at His return shall be caught up together with them onto the clouds, to meet the Master in the air:⁷

⁶ Gabriel.

¹ In addition to conspiring against Messiah, some Jews (not those like Shaul himself) who did not believe (not all Jews) also tried to stop Efrayim from returning home as seen in Galatians. They caused confusion and corruption to enter into both houses of Yisrael, fighting against her promised restoration by Yahshua.

and so shall we ever be with the Master.¹

18 So then comfort one another with these words.

5 But of the times and the seasons, Yisraelite brothers, you have no need that I write to you.

2 For you know perfectly that the Yom of יהוה comes as a thief in the night.²

3 For when they shall say, Shalom-ve betachon;³ then sudden destruction comes upon them, as labor pains upon a woman in labor;⁴ and they shall not escape.

4 But you, Yisraelite brothers, are not in darkness, that the day should overtake you as a thief.⁵

5 You are all the children of Light, and the children of the Yom: we are not of the night, or of the darkness.

6 Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleep, sleep in the night; and they that get drunk, get drunk in the night.

8 But let us, who are of the Yom, be sober, putting on the breastplate of emunah and ahava; and as a helmet, the tikvah of chayim.⁶

9 For יהוה has not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain deliverance by our Master יהושע ha Moshiach,⁷

10 Who died for us, that, whether we are awake, or dead, we should live together with Him.

11 Therefore comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also you already do.

12 And we ask you, Yisraelite brothers, to know them who labor among you, and are over you in יהוה, and who admonish you;

13 And to honor them very highly in ahava for their work's sake. And be at shalom among yourselves.

14 Now we exhort you, Yisraelite brothers, correct them that are unruly, comfort those who lack courage, support the weak, be patient toward all men.

15 See that none repay evil for evil to any man; but always follow that which is tov, both among yourselves, and to all men.

16 Gilah always.

17 Make tefillah without ceasing.

18 In all things give hodv: for this is the will of יהוה in Moshiach יהושע for you.

19 Quench not the Ruach Hakodesh.

20 Do not reject prophecies.

21 Test them all; hold fast to what is tov.

22 Abstain from all forms of evil.

23 And may the very אלהא of shalom separate you completely; so that your whole ruach, nephesh and gooff be preserved without blemish, until the coming of our Master יהושע ha Moshiach.⁸

24 Faithful is He that called you, who also will shomer all of His word.

25 Yisraelite brothers, offer many tefillot for us.

26 Greet all the Yisraelite brothers with a kadosh kiss.

27 I charge you by the Master that this letter is read to all the kadosh Yisraelite brothers.

28 The unmerited favor of our Master יהושע ha Moshiach be with you.

Tesloniqyah Bet – תסלוניקיא ב Second Thessalonians To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

1 Shaul, and Sila, and Timtheous, to the congregation of Tesloniqyah in יהוה our Abba and the Master יהושע ha Moshiach:

2 Favor to you, and shalom, from יהוה our Abba and the Master יהושע ha Moshiach.

3 We are bound to give hodu to יהוה always for you, Yisraelite brothers, as it is proper, because your emunah grows exceedingly, and the ahava of kol Yisrael towards each other abounds more and more;

4 So that we ourselves boast in you in the congregations of יהוה for your patience and emunah even in all your persecutions and tribulations that you endure:

5 Which is clear evidence of the tzadik mishpat of יהוה yet to come to the olam hazeh, that you may be counted worthy of the malchut of יהוה, for which you also now suffer:

6 Seeing it is a righteous thing with יהוה to repay tribulation to them that trouble you;¹

7 And to you who are undergoing tribulation rest with us, when the Master יהושע shall be revealed from the shamayim with His mighty heavenly malachim,

8 In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not יהוה, and that obey not the Besorah of our Master יהושע ha Moshiach:

9 Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction away from the presence of יהוה, and from the tifereth of His power;

10 When He shall come to be esteemed in His Yisraelite kidushim, and to be admired by all those who believe in that Yom, because our testimony among you was believed.

11 Therefore also we make tefillot always for you, that our אלהא would count you worthy of this calling, to fulfill all the tov pleasure of His rachamim, and the work of emunah with power:

12 That the Name of our Master יהושע ha Moshiach may be lifted up in you, and you in Him, according to the unmerited favor of our אלהא and the Master יהושע ha Moshiach.

2 Now we urge you, Yisraelite brothers, by the coming of our Master יהושע ha Moshiach, and by our gathering together to Him,²

2 That you be not soon shaken in mind, or troubled, neither by any ruach, nor by man's word, nor by letter as from us, that the Yom of Moshiach's coming is at hand.

3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that Yom shall not come, except there come a falling away first,³ and that man of sin will be revealed, the son of perdition;⁴

4 Who opposes⁵ and exalts himself above all that is called אלהא, or that is worshipped; so that he showing himself as אלהא,⁶ sits in the Hekel of אלהא,^{7,8}

³ Apostasia in Greek, rebellion in Aramaic. See: Is It Us? at: <http://restorationscriptures.org/link27.htm> for the teaching.

⁴ The revealing of anti-messiah from the revived Ottoman Empire the fourth and final beast of Daniel 7.

⁶ Showing himself which means to prove. He is trying to prove to himself that he is YHWH, because he controls the destiny of people who follow him. This person, the anti-messiah is possessed by s.a.tan. So we have to remember that s.a.tan wanted to sit in the seat of YHWH. So when the anti-messiah sits in the seat of YHWH on the Temple Mount, he sits in the Muslim shrine of Al Aqsa Mosque and thinks to himself that he is YHWH. It is clear that this person is not saying to the world 'I am YHWH almighty' because of the text in Daniel 11:38 which gives us balance. "But in their place he [the anti-messiah] shall honor an elohim of fortresses/brutality [Allah] and an Elohim which his fathers did not know he shall honor with gold and silver, with precious stones and pleasant things." Daniel's text shows us that the anti-messiah himself worships an Elohim of jihad. The anti-messiah is not proclaiming himself to be YHWH, he is in essence saying 'look at me. I am like YHWH and I can control the destiny of all people just like YHWH here on earth, and at my command I can have someone killed or give someone life.'

⁸ The text is saying that he sits in the sanctuary. The word for sanctuary can also be translated as a heathen shrine, as opposed to the actual Temple. This is where anti messiah is sitting, in the Al-Aqsa mosque "the declaring himself to be אלהא.¹

5 Remember, that, when I was still with you, I told you these things?²

6 And now you know what withholds this; so that he might be revealed in his time.³

7 For the mystery of Torah-less-ness does already work: only he who now lets it will let it, until he be taken out of the way.⁴

8 And then shall that Torah-less one be revealed,⁵ whom יהושע shall consume with the Ruach of His mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of His coming:⁶

9 Even him, whose coming is after the working of s.a.tan with all unclean power and signs and lying wonders,⁷ abomination of desolation" upon, or within the site of the ancient Moriah Temple, YHWH's former and future house.

¹ A false and self deluded declaration as anti messiah himself worships Allah, the deity of brute violent force.

² Paul taught them from the book of Daniel.

³ Michael the arch messenger.

⁴ A reference to Mikhael, or Michael the arch messenger, who is said to be Yisrael's warring messenger. He will be taken out of the way by YHWH as prophesied in Daniel 12:1-2, when he is told to cease, or freeze in standing up for Yisrael, so that Jacob's Trouble, or the Great Tribulation, can commence. Once Michael is told to freeze, Islam's attack against Jerusalem can begin. This does not refer to the Set-Apart Spirit, for clearly the Set-Apart Spirit is in the earth during that time, as seen by those who get saved and come to faith during that time.

⁵ The anti messiah and ultimately the beast system he represents fully at the end of the Great Tribulation 3.5 years later.

⁶ An interesting use of words. Yahshua will use the light that He alone possesses to offset the claims of the anti messiah who claims to come bearing the false light of Islam. When Muhammad the Muslim prophet was around, he had on many occasions equaled himself with Allah by saying things that made him on par with Allah, meaning that on the day of judgment he would have the right of committing people to heaven or hell. To prove that Muhammad was the 'seal of the prophets' the Muslims even claimed that he was created from light, he had no shadow and that his body would not rot in the grave.

⁷ This unclean power is obviously not from YHWH, and neither is it YHWH Himself.

⁸ All unbelievers, specifically those trapped by the beast system represented by the anti messiah.

⁹ Those who have bought into the beast, his mark and his religion, will all believe the lie as promoted by that false religion. That lie is recited 5 times daily by

12 That they all might be damned who believed not the emet, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.¹⁰

13 But we are bound to give hodu always to יהרה for you, Yisraelite brothers beloved of the Master, because יהרה has from Beresheeth chosen you as bikkurim to be saved through the set-apartness of the Ruach and emunah in the emet:

14 To which He called you by our Besorah, to obtain the tifereth of our Master יהושע ha Moshiach.

15 Therefore, Yisraelite brothers, stand fast, and hold on to the commandments¹¹ and the traditions¹² that you have been taught, whether by word, or our letter.

16 Now our Master יהושע ha Moshiach Himself, and יהרה, even our Abba, who have loved us, and have given us everlasting comfort and tov tikvah through unmerited favor, 17 Comfort your levim, and establish you in every tov word of the Keetvay HaKadosh and in mitzvot.

3 Finally, Yisraelite brothers, make tefillot for us, that the word of יהרה may spread rapidly, and be praised, even as it has with you:

2 And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not emunah.

3 But the Master יהרה is faithful, who shall establish you, and shomer you from evil.

4 And we have confidence in יהרה about you, that you both do and will do the things that we command you.

5 And the Master direct your levim into the ahava of יהרה, and into the patient waiting for Moshiach.

6 Now we command you, Yisraelite brothers, in the Name of our Master יהושע ha Moshiach that you withdraw yourselves from every Yisraelite brother that has his halacha disorderly, and not after the tradition that he received from us.¹³

7 For you know how you should follow us: for we ourselves behaved not disorderly among you;

8 Neither did we eat any man's lechem without paying for it; but worked with labor and toil night and day, that we might not burden any of you:

9 Not because we have no power to do so, but to make ourselves an example for you to follow us.

10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat.

¹² Greek word is paradosis. This is not a reference to the Oral Torah of the traditional rabbis, but to traditions of the first-century Nazarene Yisraelite community, such as service and worship procedures during feasts and Shabbat.

¹³ The tradition of the ingathering of the exiles, not the tradition of the pre-tribulation rapture, for those who walk that way are called disorderly, as outlined throughout chapter two.

TESLONIQYAH BET - SECOND THESSALONIANS

11 For we hear that there are some who walk among you disorderly, not working at all, but are busybodies.

12 Now those that are like that we command and exhort by our Master יהושע ha Moshiach, that with shalom they should work, and eat their own lechem.

13 But you, Yisraelite brothers, be not weary in well doing.

14 And if any man does not obey our word by this letter, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.¹

15 Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a

Yisraelite brother.

To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

1 Shaul, a prisoner of יהושע ha Moshiach, and Timtheous our Yisraelite brother, to Phileymon our dearly beloved, and fellow laborer,

2 And to our beloved Apphyah, and Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the congregation in your bayit: ¹

3 Favor to you, and shalom, from יהוה our Abba and the Master יהושע ha Moshiach.

4 I give hodu to my אלהא, making mention of you always in my tefillot,

5 Hearing of your ahava and emunah, that you have toward the Master יהושע, and towards all the Yisraelite kidushim;

6 That the sharing of your emunah may work itself out by the acknowledging of every tov thing that is in you in Moshiach יהושע.

7 For we have great simcha and consolation in your ahava, because the affections of the Yisraelite kidushim are refreshed by you, brother.

8 Therefore, though I might have much boldness in the Moshiach to command you to do what is fitting,

9 Yet for ahava's sake I rather appeal to you, now being Shaul the aged, and now also a prisoner of יהושע ha Moshiach.

10 I beg you for my ben emunah Onesimus, whom I have brought to emunah in my imprisonment:

11 Who in times past was to you unprofitable, but now he is profitable to you and to me:

12 Whom I have sent again: therefore receive him, that is, my own desire:

13 Whom I would have retained with me, so that in your place he has served me in the chains of the Besorah:

14 But without your feedback I did nothing; so that your mitzvah should not be as it were from necessity, but willingly.

15 For perhaps he therefore departed from you for a while, that you should receive him back le-olam-va-ed;

16 Not now as an eved, ² but above an eved, a beloved Yisraelite brother, especially to me, but how much more to you, both in the flesh, and in the Master? ³

17 If you count me as your partner, receive him as you would me.

18 If he has wronged you, or owes you anything, put that on my account;

19 I Shaul have written this with my own hand, I will repay it: not to mention how you owe me indeed even your own chayim.

20 Yes, my Yisraelite brother, let me have simcha over you in יהוה: refresh my tender affections in יהוה.

21 Having confidence in your obedience I wrote to you, knowing that you will also do even more than I say.

22 At the same time prepare for me also a place to stay: for I trust that through your tefillot I shall be brought back to you.

23 Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Moshiach יהושע greets you;

24 And also Moshe-Marcus, Aristarchos, Demas, Luka, my fellow laborers.

25 The favor of our Master יהושע ha Moshiach be with your ruach.

² The Torah principle that a Hebrew must not own a Hebrew servant.

³ This runaway slave had gotten saved while Paul was in prison in Rome. He appeals to Philemon as a Yisraelite, asking him to allow Onesimos the slave to remain free in service to Messiah, and not to return to physical slavery. To A Shepherd of Yisrael

1 Shaul, a sholiach of יהושע ha Moshiach by the commandment of יהוה our Savior, and Master יהושע ha Moshiach our tikvah;

2 To Timtheous, my own ben emunah: Unmerited favor, rachamim, and shalom, from יהוה our Abba and יהושע ha Moshiach our Master.

3 As I asked you to stay at Ephsiyah, when I went into Makedonia, ¹ that you might command some that they teach no other teaching,

5 Now the goal of the above commandment is ahava out of a clean lev, a tov conscience, and sincere emunah:

10 For those who whore, for sodomites and lesbians, for kidnappers, for liars, for perjurers, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound Torah-keeping;

11 According to the beautiful Besorah of the blessed אלהה, that was committed to my trust. ⁵

12 And I give hodu to Moshiach יהושע our Master, who has empowered me, in that He counted me faithful, putting me into His service;

13 Even though before I was a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and insulter of believers: I obtained rachamim, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief.

14 And the unmerited favor of our Master was exceedingly abundant to me with the emunah and ahava that is in Moshiach יהושע.

15 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptance: That Moshiach יהושע came into the olam hazeh to save sinners; of whom I am the worst.

16 But for this cause I obtained rachamim, that in me first יהושע ha Moshiach might show forth all patience, as a pattern to those who will believe on Him to everlasting chayim after me.

17 Now to the Melech, Eternal, Immortal. ⁶ Invisible, the only wise אלהה, be honor and tifereth le-olam-va-ed.

18 This charge I commit to you, my son Timtheous, according to the prophecies which went before upon you, that you by them might wage a tov campaign;

19 Holding your emunah, in a tov conscience; because those who have rejected this charge have had their emunah shipwrecked:

20 Among those are Humenaios and Alexander; whom I have delivered to s.a.tan that they may learn not to blaspheme. ⁷

2 I urge that, first of all, supplications, tefillot, intercessions, and hodu, be made for all men;

2 For melechim, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and shalom-filled chayim in all Shabbat-guarding piety and seriousness.

3 For this is tov and acceptable in the sight of יהוה our Savior;

4 Who will have all men to be saved, and come to the da'at of the emet.

5 For there is אלהה-Echad, and One Mediator between אלהה and men, the Man יהושע ha Moshiach; ⁸

6 Who gave Himself a ransom for all, to be proclaimed in due time.

7 Of which I am ordained as a proclaimer, and a sholiach – I speak the emet in Moshiach, and do not lie – a teacher of the nations ⁹ in the emunah and emet.

8 I desire therefore that men make tefillot everywhere,

FIRST TIMOTHY

¹ A hotbed of Efrayimite settlement, as Paul answered that call in the Macedonian vision (Acts 16:8-13).

Greek-speaking exiles were many and were from the lost tribes. For more details, see:

<http://restorationscriptures.org/link28.htm>

² The entire basis for two-house truth and the Yisraelite character of most end-time nations are not based on any kind of genealogy, or any sort of birth validation. They are based only on Scripture and the many promises found for the children of the promise, who would be more than the children of the bondwoman. If the physical sons of Ishmael number one billion, the sons of Jacob cannot number less. These and many other such promises are the basis for the trust that most nations are filled with the seed of Yisrael.

⁴ See note on Second Peter 1:3.

⁵ The Good News is the cure for Torah-breaking, not the cure for Torah itself.

⁶ As seen here, man does not have an immortal soul, or any other such thing. Man can acquire immortality of the soul by being clothed with Yahshua's immortality.

⁸ There is no approach to YHWH other than by Yisrael's King Messiah Yahshua. This includes Torah-keeping without Yahshua as personal Savior.

⁹ Strong's Greek # 1484 word is ethnos, or "nations," not "pagans," or "gentiles." Here in Paul's own words, he outlines his calling to the nations, and the seed of Yisrael now filling those nations.

TIMTHEOUS ALEF - FIRST TIMOTHY

lifting up kadosh hands, without wrath, or doubting.
9 In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with decency and sensitive chochmah; not with braided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly outfits;¹
10 But that which becomes a woman professing Shabbat-guarding piety with tov mitzvot.
11 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.²
12 But I do not allow a woman to teach, or to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.³
13 For Ahdahm was first formed, then Chavah.
14 And Ahdahm was not deceived,⁴ but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.
15 But she shall give brachot and chayim by the children she bears, if of course they continue in emunah, ahava and set-apartness with sensible behavior.

3 This is a true saying, if a man desires the office of a teaching-overseer, or shamesh, he desires a tov work.
2 A teaching overseeing shamesh then must be blameless, the husband of one wife,⁵ vigilant, sober, of tov behavior, given to hospitality, able to teach;
3 Not given to excessive wine, not a short-tempered brawler, not a lover of unjust gains; but patient and gentle;
4 One that oversees his own bayit well, having his children in subjection living in all purity;
5 For if a man knows not how to oversee his own bayit, how shall he take care of the congregation of יהוה ?
6 Not a new believer, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of s.a.tan.
7 Moreover he must have a tov report of those who remain outside Yisrael; lest he fall into the reproach and the snare of s.a.tan.
8 Likewise must the shamashim also be pure, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy for unjust gain;
9 Holding the divine mystery of the emunah in a clean conscience.
10 And let these shamashim also first be tested and

² Silent spirit. Not under a religious gag order.

³ A Yisraelite woman can minister anywhere at any time, as this verse indicates. The main point being that she always must be under a set-apart man's covering, whether it is denominational, ecclesiastical, or marital. Single women called to active ministry simply need to find a man, or set-apart men to be their spiritual covering, to whom they are truly accountable in deed and not in concept only.

⁴ Divine order is the issue, not the verbal gagging of over half the human race.

⁵ A leader in Yisrael in today's times cannot be a polygamist.

examined; then let them use the office of a shamesh, after having been found blameless.

11 Even so must their wives be of tov character, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let the shamashim be the husbands of one wife, overseeing their children and their own houses well.⁶

13 For they that have used the office of a shamesh well, gain a tov standing, and great increase with the emunah which is in Moshiach יהושע.

14 These things I write to you, hoping to come to you shortly:

15 But if I delay, that you may know how you ought to behave yourself in Beit יהוה, which is the congregation of the living אלהים, the pillar and foundation of the Torah of emet.⁷

16 And truly great is the mystery of our Shabbat-guarding piety and tzedakah: He was manifest in the flesh, declared right in the Ruach, seen by heavenly malachim, proclaimed among the house from all the nations,^{8 9} believed on in the olam hazeh, then received up into tifereth.

4 Now the Ruach speaks expressly, that in the yamim acharonim some shall depart from the emunah, giving heed to seducing ruachim, and teachings of shadim;

2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience branded with a hot iron;

3 Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from foods, which יהוה has created to be received with hodu by those who believe and know the emet.^{10 11}

4 For every creature of יהוה is tov, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with hodu:¹²

5 If it has been made kadosh by the word of יהוה and tefillah.¹³

⁶ Polygamy in these times is forbidden for men in all leadership positions in Yisrael.

⁷ Since "truth" is defined as "Torah" in Psalm 119:142, the Nazarene Yisraelite congregation is the pillar of all truth, both Torah and Messiah.

⁸ Aramaic Peshitta.

⁹ Efrayim-Yisrael.

¹⁰ Forbidding to marry, as a human originated doctrine is demonic, for it leads to suppression and unnatural manifestations of sexuality. Only those to whom it is given by Yahshua can lead such a life.

¹¹ All foods are to be considered edible if they are considered food in the first place. But all unclean foods in Torah are not considered food. And as such, Paul tells returning Yisrael that only real foods, or what YHWH calls food fit for human consumption should be received. This is confirmed later in verse 5. So the heresy is religious doctrines that forbid certain clean foods.

¹² Verse 5 defines what creatures YHWH considers good.

¹³ Nothing should be refused and rejected if it is already previously set-apart by the word of YHWH and prayer. So that prayer and thanksgiving should only be given over foods that are already set-apart in YHWH's word, and the only place we find a menu of set-apart

TIMTHEOUS ALEF - FIRST TIMOTHY

6 If then you teach these things to the Yisraelite brothers, you shall be a tov eved of יהושע ha Moshiach, nourished up in the words of emunah and of tov teaching, which you have followed closely.

7 But refuse profane old wives' fables; train yourself rather by Shabbat-guarding piety.

8 For bodily exercise profits some: but Shabbat-guarding piety is profitable for all things, having the promise of the chayim that now is, and of the olam haba that is to come.^{1 2}

9 This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance.

10 For therefore we both labor and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living אלהים, who is the Savior of all men, specifically of those that believe.³

11 These things command and teach.

12 Let no man despise your youth; but be an example to the believers in Yisrael, in word, in behavior, in ahava, in ruach, in emunah, in purity.

13 Until I come, pay attention to reading Torah,⁴ to exhortation, to teaching.

14 Neglect not the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the shamashim.

15 Practice these things; give yourself fully to them; that your progress may appear to kol Yisrael.

16 Take heed to yourself, and to your teachings; continue in them: for in doing this you shall both save yourself, and those that hear you.⁵

5 Rebuke not a shamesh, but treat him as an abba in the emunah; and the younger men as Yisraelite brothers; 2 The elderly women as eemot; the younger as sisters, with all purity.

foods is in Torah. So the doctrine of demons is a religious attempt by demons to try and get mankind to abstain from foods on the list of clean foods, already set-apart by the word. Just like marriage that is already set-apart by the word, the demons try and stop people from marrying and instead introduce substitute perversities.

¹ The eternity of a Shabbat-keeping lifestyle, as found in Isaiah 66, will serve us well in this age and in the age to come, as opposed to bodily exercise whose benefits are limited to this age.

² The Yisraelite mind sees time divided into just two ages. This age and that age. This is how YHWH sees time as well. The redeemed in this age enter the next. This understanding is crucial in letting go of dispensational time frames, which also are doctrines of s.a.tan, since man cannot possibly know when one age begins and the next ends. Man has added ages, not found in Scripture due to severe deceptions about ecclesiology (who it is that actually constitutes the single elect people of YHWH).

³ This is not teaching universalism, but rather that atonement while made available to all men, specifically benefits only those believers who accept it.

⁴ The Renewed Covenant had not yet been written.

⁵ Doctrine that is correct saves. Incorrect doctrine leads astray.

3 Honor widows that are widows indeed.

4 But if any widow have children, or nephews, let them first learn to show Shabbat-guarding piety at home, and let the children care for them and so repay their parents: for that is tov and acceptable before יהוה.

5 And she that is a widow indeed, and is all-alone, trusts in יהוה, and continues in supplications and tefillot both during maariv and shacrit.

6 But she that lives in pleasure is dead while she lives.

7 And these things command, that they may be blameless.

8 But if any does not provide for his own, especially for those of his own bayit, he has denied the emunah, and is worse than an infidel.⁶

9 Let not a widow be enrolled for community support under sixty years old, having been the wife of just one man,

10 Well spoken of for tov mitzvot; if she has brought up children, if she has housed non-Yisraelite gerim, if she has washed the feet of the Yisraelite kidushim, if she has relieved the afflicted, if she has diligently followed every tov mitzvah, then let her be added to the community support rolls.

11 But the younger widows refuse for community enrollment: for when they will begin to be headstrong against Moshiach, they will marry;

12 Having guilt, because they have cast off their first emunah.

13 Also they learn to be idle, wandering about from bayit to bayit; and not only idle, but also become gossiping busybodies, speaking things that they should not.

14 I resolve therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, and guide the bayit, giving no occasion to the adversary to speak disdainfully.

15 For some women have already turned aside after s.a.tan.

16 If any man, or woman that believes has widows in their homes, let them assist them, and let not the congregation be charged; so that the congregation can relieve them that are truly widows.

17 Let the shamashim that oversee well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in the word and in Torah.⁷

18 For the scripture says, You shall not muzzle the ox that treads out the corn. And, The laborer is worthy of his reward.

19 Against a shamesh receive not an accusation, without two, or three witnesses.⁸

20 Those who sin rebuke before all, so that others also may fear.

21 I adjure you before יהוה, and the Master יהושע ha Moshiach, and the elect heavenly malachim, that you shomer these things without preferring one over another,

⁶ This applies first and foremost to the personal home, as well as the House of Yisrael, the community of faith.

⁷ The leader of a Yisraelite Nazarene community, is one who is not merely an elder, but a teaching elder.

⁸ Do not believe any accusation against an elder. The charge does not equal guilt, since the charge is often levied by s.a.tan. If witnesses cannot be found, all further thoughts and actions must be dropped.

TIMTHEOUS ALEF - FIRST TIMOTHY

doing nothing by partiality.

22 Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither be a partaker of other men's sins: keep yourself clean.¹

23 Drink mayim no longer, but use a little wine for your stomach's sake and your ongoing infirmities.

24 Some men's sins are obvious leading to mishpat; but those of others will be seen later.

25 Likewise also the tov mitzvot of some are manifest now; and those who do not perform mitzvot cannot be hidden.

6 Let those who are believing avadim under a yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, that the Name of יהוה and His teaching be not blasphemed.

2 And those that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are Yisraelite brothers; but rather do them service, because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit of the masters. These things teach and exhort.

3 If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Master יהושע ha Moshiach, and to the teaching which is according to Shabbat-guarding piety;

4 He is proud, knows nothing, but is sick, engaging in questions and verbal battles, from which comes envy, contention, strife, blasphemy, evil suspicions,

5 Worthless disputes of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the emet, supposing that serving יהוה is a means to unjust wealth and is the same as Shabbat-guarding piety: from such withdraw yourself.

6 But Shabbat-guarding piety with contentment is the greatest gain.

7 For we brought nothing into the olam hazeh, and it is certain we can carry nothing out of it.

8 And having food and clothing let us be content with these.

9 But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a trap, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which plunge men into destruction and perdition.

10 For the love of money is the root of all evil: which some have longed after, and have fallen from the emunah, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.²

11 But you, O man of יהוה, flee these things; and follow after tzedakah, Shabbat-guarding piety, emunah, ahava, patience, and meekness.

12 Fight the tov fight of emunah, grab hold on eternal chayim, for which you are also called, and have professed a tov profession before many witnesses.

13 I give you charge in the sight of יהוה, who quickens all things, and before Moshiach יהושע, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed a tov confession;

14 That you keep this mitzvah³ without spot, blameless, until the appearing of our Master יהושע ha Moshiach:

15 Who in His own timing shall show, just who is the blessed and only Eternal Ruler, the Melech HaMelechim, and Adon Adonim;

16 Who alone has immortality,^{4 5} dwelling in the Light that no man can approach; whom no man has seen, or can see: to whom be honor and power le-olam-va-ed. Amein.

17 Charge them that are rich in the olam hazeh, that they be not proud, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living אלהים, who gives us richly all things to enjoy;

18 That they do tov, that they are rich in tov mitzvot, ready to give tzedakah, willing to share their wealth;

19 Laying up in store for themselves a tov foundation for the olam haba, that they may grab hold of eternal chayim.

20 O Timtheous, guard that which is committed to your trust, avoiding profane and empty babblings, and the contradictions of false so-called worldly da'at:

21 Who some professing have strayed from the emunah. Unmerited favor be with you.

Amein. ת

¹ A Yisraelite minister must first be tested for doctrine, commitment, stability, consistency and purity prior to any human ordination.

² Chasing money, as opposed to having YHWH provide as per covenant obligation, is step one to a denial of the faith, as so often happens when mammon knocks YHWH off the throne in a believer's heart.

³ To flee unjust gain and a love of money.

טימתאוס ב – Timtheous Bet
Second Timothy
To A Shepherd of Yisrael

1 Shaul, a sholiach of יהושע ha Moshiach by the will of יהוה, according to the promise of chayim, which is in יהושע ha Moshiach,
2 To Timtheous, my dearly beloved son: Unmerited favor, rachamim, and shalom, from Abba יהוה and יהושע ha Moshiach our Master.
3 I give hodu to יהוה, whom I served from boyhood with a clear conscience, that without ceasing, I have remembered you in my tefillot during maariv and shacrit;
4 Greatly desiring to see you, being mindful of your tears, that I may be filled with simcha;
5 When I call to remembrance the sincere emunah that is in you, which dwelt first in your grandmother Lois, and your eema Eunike; and I am persuaded in you also.
6 For this reason I remind you to stir up the gift of יהוה, which is in you by the laying on of my hands.
7 For יהוה has not given us the Ruach of fear; but of power, and of ahava, and of a sound mind.
8 Be not ashamed of the testimony of our Master, nor of me His eved: but be a partaker of the afflictions of the Besorah according to the power of יהוה;
9 Who has saved us, and called us with a kadosh calling, not according to our man-made works, but according to His own purpose and favor, which was given to us in יהושע ha Moshiach even before the olam began,
10 But now has been made manifest by the appearing of our Savior יהושע ha Moshiach, who has abolished death, and has revealed chayim and immortality through the Besorah:¹
11 To which I am appointed a proclaimer, and a sholiach, and a moreh to the nations.²
12 For which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know in whom I have believed, and am persuaded that He is able to take care of me until that day.
13 Hold fast to the form of sound words, which you have heard of me, in emunah and in the ahava that is in יהושע ha Moshiach.
14 That tov thing which was committed to you shomer by the Ruach Hakodesh who dwells in us.
15 This you know, that all those who are in Asia have turned away from me; including Phugellos and Hermogenes.³
16 יהוה give rachamim to the bayit of Onesiphoros; for he often refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my imprisonment:
17 But, when he was in Romiyah, he searched me out very diligently, and found me.
18 יהוה grant to him that he may find rachamim in that day: and in all the ways he attended to me at Ephsiyah, you know very well.

2 You therefore, my son, be strong in the unmerited favor that is in יהושע ha Moshiach.
2 And the things that you have heard from me among many witnesses, the same commit to other faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.⁴
3 You therefore endure hardships, with us as a tov soldier of יהושע ha Moshiach.
4 No man that goes to battle entangles himself with the affairs of this chayim; so that he may please Him who has chosen him to be a soldier.
5 And if anyone competes in a contest, he cannot receive the keter, except he competes by the rules.
6 The farmer that labors must be the first one to eat of his fruits.
7 Consider what I say; and יהוה give you da'at in all things.
8 Remember that יהושע ha Moshiach of the zera of Dawid was raised from the dead according to my Besorah:
9 For which I suffer trouble, as a criminal, even imprisonment; but the word of יהוה is not imprisoned.
10 Therefore I endure all things for the chosen people Yisrael, that they may also obtain the salvation that is in יהושע ha Moshiach with eternal tifereth.
11 It is a faithful saying: For if we are dead with Him, we shall also live with Him:
12 If we suffer, we shall also reign with Him: if we deny Him, He also will deny us:
13 If we believe not, yet He abides faithful: He cannot deny Himself.
14 Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before יהוה that they not engage in word battles – that is useless – since it subverts the hearers of the word.
15 Study to show yourself approved before יהוה, a workman that needs not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of emet.⁵
16 But avoid profane and empty chatter: for they will increase unto more wickedness.
17 And their word will eat through people like gangrene: Humenaios and Philetos are of this group;⁶
18 Who concerning the emet have gone astray, saying that the resurrection is past already; and have overthrown the emunah of some.⁷
19 Nevertheless the foundation of the Master יהוה stands firm, having this seal; the Master יהוה knows those who

SECOND TIMOTHY

¹ Man does not have an immortal soul, but can attain it through Yahshua's pardon of sin.
² The latter-day nations made up mostly of Yisraelites.
³ First-century apostasy was prevalent as it is today. This is not a new phenomenon.

⁴ Torah instruction and the Good News.

⁵ A challenge to all Yisrael to study all of the word and divide it properly, as opposed to manmade divisions like the so-called Old and New Testaments, or such as the dispensation of law versus grace.

are His. And, Let everyone that names the Name of Moshiach depart from Torah breaking.¹

20 But in a great bayit there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honor, and some to dishonor.²

21 If a man therefore cleanses himself from unclean matters, he shall be a vessel of honor, kadosh, and fit for the Master's use, and prepared for every tov mitzvah.

22 Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, emunah, ahava, shalom, with them that call on יהוה out of a pure lev.

23 But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do breed arguments.³

24 And the eved of יהוה must not quarrel; but be gentle to all men, able to teach, patient,

25 In meekness instructing those that oppose him; so יהוה somehow will give them teshuvah to their acknowledging of the emet;

26 And that they may come to their senses and leave the snare of s.a.tan, who has taken them captive to do his will.

3 This know also, that in the yamim ha-acharonim perilous times shall come.

2 For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unclean,

3 Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, addicts to lust, fierce, despisers of those that are tov,

4 Traitors, hasty, proud and arrogant, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of יהוה;

5 Having a form of a Shabbat-guarding pious lifestyle,⁴ but denying the power of it: from such turn away.

6 For these are the people who creep into and infect entire houses away from emunah, and lead captive women weighed down with sins, who are being led away with various lusts,

7 Always learning, and never able to come to the da'at of the emet.

8 Now as Yohane and Mamre opposed Moshe,⁵ so do these also resist the emet: people of corrupt minds, far from the emunah.

9 But they shall go no further: for their folly shall be manifest to all men, as was that of those men.

10 But you have fully known my teaching, manner of chayim, purpose, emunah, endurance, ahava, patience,

11 The persecutions, and afflictions, that came to me at Antioch, at Ikonion, at Lustra; which persecutions I endured: but out of them all יהוה delivered me.

¹ Have you honestly repented of Torah breaking and Sunday worship? Honestly?

² Yisrael contains both, as in days gone by, and as Messiah taught in Matthew 13.

³ In context, arguments about doctrines that are known to be false. We are to rebuke them and avoid long-term entanglement with them.

⁴ Eu-sebeia, or Shabbat piety in the Greek (Strong's Greek #2150). See note on Second Peter 1:3.

⁵ As mentioned in the Scroll of Jasher available at: <http://restorationscriptures.org/link33.htm>

12 Yes, and all that will live a Shabbat-guarding pious lifestyle in יהושע ha Moshiach shall suffer persecution.

13 But evil men and imposters shall get worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.⁶

14 But you on the other hand continue in the things that you have learned and have been assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them;

15 And that from a child you have known the Keetvay HaKadosh, which are able to make you wise about your salvation through emunah which is in יהושע ha Moshiach.⁷

16 All the Keetvay HaKadosh are given by the inspiration of יהוה, and are profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, as Torah in tzedakah:

17 That the man of יהוה may be perfect, fully equipped for all tov mitzvot.

4 I charge you therefore before יהוה, and the Master יהושע ha Moshiach, who shall judge the living and the dead at His appearing and His malchut;

2 Proclaim the word; be ready to do so during moadim, and at regular times; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all patience and teaching.

3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound teaching; but after their own lusts shall they add for themselves extra teachers, tickling the ears.⁸

4 And they shall turn away their ears from the emet, and shall be turned to made up stories.

5 But shomer yourself in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of a proclaimer, fulfill your service.

6 For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.

7 I have fought a tov fight, I have finished my course, and I have kept the emunah:⁹

8 And now there is laid up for me the keter of tzedakah, which יהושע, The Tzadik-Shophet, shall give me on that day: and not to me only, but to all in Yisrael that also love His appearing.

9 Do your best to come shortly to me:

10 For Demas has forsaken me, having loved the olam hazeh, and is departed to Thesloniqyah; Crescens to Galutyah, Teitus to Dalmatyah.

11 Only Luka is with me. Take Moshe-Markus, and bring him with you: for he is profitable to me for the service.

12 And Tuchikos have I sent to Ephsiyah.

13 The scroll carrier that I left at Troas with Karpus, when you come, bring with you, and also the scrolls, specifically the parchment scrolls.

14 Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil: יהוה reward him according to his works:

15 You too be careful also, for he has greatly

16 At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me: I make tefillah that it may not be laid to their charge.

19 Salute Prisca and Aqulas, and the bayit of Onesiphoros.

20 Erastos stayed in Corintyah: but Trophimos have I left at Miletos sick.

21 Do your best to come before winter.

Eubulos greets you, and Pudes, and Linos, and Klaudia, and all the Yisraelite brothers.

22 The Master יהושע ha Moshiach be with your ruach. Unmerited favor be with you.

Amein. ׀

¹ It is not lashon hara/evil speaking to warn brothers of true wolves, if three credible Torah witnesses can establish their error. A true wolf would be someone who denies any of the basics of the faith, and has no heart for people to know truth.

Teitus – טיטוס – Titus To A Shepherd of Yisrael

1 Shaul, an eved of יהוה, and a sholiach of יהושע ha Moshiach, according to the emunah of יהוה's chosen ones,¹ and the acknowledging of the emet that is after a lifestyle of Shabbat-guarding piety;²
2 In the expectation of eternal chayim, which אלהא, who cannot lie, promised before the olam hazeh;
3 But has in a time that now is at hand, manifested His word through proclaiming, which has been committed to me according to the commandment of אלהא our Savior;
4 To Teitus, my own ben emunah according to our common emunah: Favor, rachamim, and shalom, from Abba יהוה and the Master יהושע ha Moshiach our Savior.
5 For this cause I left you in Crete, that you should set in order the things that are not done, and ordain zechanim in every city,³ as I had appointed you:
6 If anyone is blameless, the husband of one wife,⁴ having believing children not accused of loose living, or of being unruly.
7 For a Yisraelite overseer must be blameless, as a spiritual manager of יהוה; not self-seeking, not quick tempered, not excessive in the use of wine, not a brawler, not greedy for filthy gain;
8 But kind to gerim, a lover of tov men, sober, a tzadik, kadosh, self-controlled;
9 Holding fast to the trustworthy word as he has been taught, that he may be able by sound teaching to exhort the believers and rebuke the proud.
10 For there are many unruly men, big talkers, and deceivers, especially those who are circumcised unbelievers;⁵
11 Whose mouths must be stopped, who pervert entire houses of believers, teaching things they should not, for the sake of filthy gain.⁶
12 One of their own, even a so called navi of their own, said, The Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons.⁷

TITUS

¹ Always and exclusively only a reference to the Commonwealth of Yisrael.
² See note in Second Peter 1:3.
³ Every Yisraelite city of exile in that area.
⁴ Polygamy is forbidden for leaders in Renewed Covenant Yisrael.
⁵ Anti-Yahshua missionaries, as seen by their actions in the next verse.
⁶ The anti-missionary scourge was common then as it is today, and Paul is warning Titus and giving the young leader guidance.
⁷ Again we are confronted with an attitude problem towards non-Jews, and specifically returning Efrayimites who filled Crete. Crete was a Greek-influenced and populated area and was home to many of the exiles of Yisrael. So naturally these anti-missionaries would pervert the truth of Yahshua, as well as cloak their message with statements that were harsh towards the exiles in Crete, who desired a return

13 This witness is emet. Therefore rebuke them sharply, so that the believers may be sound in the emunah;⁸
14 Not giving heed to certain Yahudim fables and commandments of men, who hate the emet and turn others from the emet.⁹
15 Unto the clean all things are clean: but to them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing clean; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.
16 They profess that they know יהוה; but in mitzvoh they deny Him, being abominable and disobedient, condemning every tov mitzvah.¹⁰

2 But you must speak the things that are proper for sound instruction:
2 Teach the older men to be sober, tahor, temperate, sound in emunah, in ahava and in patience.
3 Teach the older women likewise, that they be in their behavior as becomes set-apartness, not false accusers, not an eved to much wine, teachers of tov things;
4 That they may teach the young women to be modest, to love their husbands and their children,
5 To be sensible, tahor, tov homemakers, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of יהוה is not reproached.
6 Likewise exhort children to be sensible and modest.
7 In all things showing yourself as a living pattern of tov mitzvoh: in teaching, showing perfection, sincerity, and seriousness.
8 Choose sound words for teaching, so that they cannot be condemned; so that he who opposes us may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say about us.¹¹
9 Let avadim be obedient to their own masters, to please them well in all things; not talking back, or being contentious;¹²
10 Not stealing but showing trustworthiness; so that they to Yisrael through Messiah, rather than through traditional Judaism.

⁸ Rebuke the anti-missionaries so that believers may remain sound.

⁹ An eternal warning to Torah-keeping Yisraelites who love Messiah to stay clear of these sorts, who will come with fables and myths, designed to steal and subvert you and your family. Notice that the way Paul dealt with this is by addressing the shepherds, for it is the shepherds who are responsible for guarding the sheep before the poison is swallowed.

¹⁰ This does not speak of lawless believers. It speaks of unbelievers who claim to know The Father, but hate the Son and are also committed to remove entire houses and families from the gift of eternal life, given by YHWH who does not lie. These persons are worse than mere unbelievers. They are abominations before YHWH, because besides their unbelief, they also work against others who do believe.

¹¹ Yisraelites are to be living examples, patterns and letters, open and available to the world, to read and consider.

¹² Employees must follow this pattern in service to their employers.

TEITUS – TITUS

may embrace the teaching of יהוה our Savior in all things.

11 For the favor of יהוה that brings salvation has appeared to all men,¹

12 Teaching us to renounce wickedness and worldly lusts, and to live sensibly, as tzadikim with a lifestyle of Shabbat-guarding piety,² in the olam hazeh;

13 Looking for that blessed tikvah, and the beautiful appearing of the great אלהא and our Savior יהושע הא משיח;³

14 Who gave Himself for us, that He might save us from all Torah breaking, and cleanse for Himself a renewed people, zealous of tov mitzvot.

15 These things speak and exhort and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise you.

3 Remind the people of Yisrael to be subject to earthly rulers and governors, to be ready to do every tov mitzvah,

2 To speak no lashon hara⁴ of anyone, to not be quarrelsome, but gentle, showing meekness to all men.

3 For we ourselves also were once foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving various lusts and pleasures, living in evil and envy, being hated, and hating one another.

4 But after the chesed and ahava of יהוה our Savior toward man appeared,

5 Not by works of tzedakah which we have done, but according to His rachamim He saved us, by the washing of regeneration and renewing work of the Ruach Hakodesh;

6 Which He shed on us abundantly through יהושע הא משיח our Savior;

7 That being declared a tzadik by His unmerited favor, we should be made heirs of the tikvah of eternal chayim.

8 This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that you affirm constantly, that those who believe in יהוה might be careful to maintain tov mitzvot continually.⁵ These things are tov and profitable to men.⁶

9 But avoid foolish endless questions, and stories of genealogies, and contentions, and quarrels with the Sophrim;⁷ for they are unprofitable and vain.⁸

10 A man that is divisive, or heretical after the first and second warning, just shun him;⁹

11 Knowing that he that is like that is perverted, and sins, being self-condemned.

12 When I shall send Artemas to you, or Tuchikus, be diligent to come to me to Nikopolis: for I have decided to spend the winter there.

13 Make sure that Zenas the Sophier and Apollos are given a tov farewell on their journey so that they lack nothing.

14 And let kol Yisrael also learn to maintain tov mitzvot in urgent needs and times, that they be not unfruitful.

15 All that are with me greet you. Greet them that love us in the emunah. Favor be with you all.

Amein. ׀

Gilyahna – גליינא – Revelation To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael In Asia And Yisrael's Final Generation

1 The Gilyahna of יהושע ha Moshiach, which יהוה gave to Him, to show to His avadim things which must shortly come to pass; and He sent and signified it by His heavenly malach ¹ to His eved Yochanan:
2 Who bore witness of the Word of יהוה, and of the testimony of יהושע ha Moshiach, and of all things that he saw.
3 Blessed is he that reads, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and shomer those things that are written in it: for the time is at hand.
4 Yochanan to the seven Yisraelite congregations, which are in Asia: ² Unmerited favor be to you, and shalom, from Him who is, and who was, and who is to come; and from the seven ruachim which are before His kesay;
5 And from יהושע ha Moshiach, who is the Faithful Witness, and the Bachor from the dead, and the Sar of the melechim of the olam. Unto Him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in His own dahm,
6 And has made us melechim and Kohanim to His אלהא and Abba; to Him be tifereth and dominion le-olam-va-ed. Amein.
7 See, He comes with clouds; and every eye shall see Him, and those also who pierced Him: and all tribes ³ of the olam shall wail because of Him. Even so. Amein.
8 I am the Aleph and Taf, the Beginning and the End, says the Master יהוה, who is, and who was, and who is to come, the Almighty. ⁴
9 I Yochanan, who also am your Yisraelite brother, and chaver in tribulation, and in the malchut and endurance of יהושע ha Moshiach, was on the island that is called Patmos, for the word of יהוה, and for the testimony of יהושע ha Moshiach.
10 I was in the Ruach on Yom יהוה, ⁵ and heard behind me a great voice, as of a shofar,

REVELATION

¹ Possibly Gabriel, since he is the chief messenger of communication and was sent many times by YHWH regarding Yahshua's reality, both before and after His incarnation.

² "Today known as Asia Minor due north of the Middle East between Europe and Far East Asia. The former lands controlled by the Assyrians who were the conquerors of the ten northern tribes in 721 BCE, and the cities in which most of the early believers lived in outside of Jerusalem. Paul knew this and spent much time seeking the lost sheep of the House of Yisrael there. These Efrayimites would break into other nations such as the Scythians, Sacae, and Cimmerians." Collins p. 127, The Lost Ten Tribes of Yisrael Found. Josephus, Antiquities 11, chap 5 verse 2.

³ A dual reference to the 12 tribes of Yisrael and all the nations of the earth.

⁴ Clearly a hard-to-contest reference to Yahshua-YHWH our Messiah.

⁵ Not the Lord's Day, but the "Day of YHWH," a Hebraic idiomatic expression for the entire time period when 11 Saying, I am Aleph and Taf, the First and the Last: and, What you see, write in a scroll, and send it to the seven Yisraelite congregations which are in Asia; to Ephesos, and to Smyrna, and to Beth Togarmah, and to Thyatira, and to Sardis, and to Philadelphia, and to Laodikeia.

12 And I turned to see the voice that spoke with me. And when I turned, I saw seven golden menorot; ⁶

13 And in the midst of the seven menorot one like the Ben Ahdahm, clothed with an ephod down to the feet, and wrapped around the chest with a golden girdle.

14 His head and His hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and His eyes were as a flame of fire;

15 And His feet like fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and His voice as the sound of many streams of mayim.

16 And He had in His right hand seven cochavim: and out of His mouth went a sharp two-edged sword: and His face was as the sun shining in strength. ⁷

17 And when I saw Him, I fell at His feet as dead. And He laid His right hand upon me, saying to me, Fear not; I am the First and the Last:

18 I am He that lives, and was dead; and, see, I am alive le-olam-va-ed. Amein; and have the keys of Sheol and of death.

19 Write the things that you have seen, and the things that are, and the things which shall be after this;

20 The mystery of the seven cochavim that you saw in My right hand, and the seven golden menorot. The seven cochavim are the seven teaching overseers of the seven Yisraelite congregations: and the seven menorot that you saw are the seven Yisraelite congregations. ⁸

2 Unto the teaching overseer of the congregation of Ephsiyah write; These things says He that holds the seven cochavim in His right hand, who walks in the midst of the seven golden menorot;

2 I know your mitzyoth, and your labor, and your endurance, and how you can't bear those who are evil: and you have tried them who say they are shlichim, and YHWH judges the earth. John was fast-forwarded in the Spirit by revelation, to see this entire period. This reference has absolutely nothing to do with any kind of alleged Sunday worship, or John receiving the Book of Revelation on a Sunday.

⁶ Plural for menorahs.

⁷ Same Man seen by Ezekiel in chapter 1.

⁸ These seven congregations are historic Yisraelite congregations and were addressed individually in their first-century historical context. While some of the principles and details in these admonitions have eternal applications to us today, they are not - nor do they represent - periods, or dispensations in ecclesiastical history, as some dispensationalists have tried to portray in their sensationalist twisting of Scripture.

GILYAHNA – REVELATION

are not, and have found them to be liars:¹

3 And have borne, and have endurance, and for My Name's sake have labored, and have not fainted.

4 Nevertheless I have something against you, because you have left your first ahava.

5 Remember therefore from where you are fallen, and make teshuvah, and do the first mitzvoh;² or else I will come to you quickly, and will remove your menorah out of its place, unless you make teshuvah.³

6 But this you have, that you hate the wicked deeds of the Nikolites, which I also hate.⁴

7 He that has an ear, let him hear what the Ruach says to the Yisraelite congregations; To him that overcomes⁵ I will give to eat of the eytz chayim, which is in the midst of the Gan Ayden of אֵלֶּהָא.

8 And to the teaching overseer of the Yisraelite congregation in Smyrna write; These things says the First and the Last, who was dead, and is alive;

9 I know your mitzvoh, and tribulation, and poverty, but you are rich – and I know the blasphemy of them who say they are Yahudim, and are not, but are the synagogue of s.a.tan.⁶

10 Fear none of those things that you shall suffer: see, s.a.tan shall cast some of you into prison, that you may be tried; and you shall have tribulation ten days: be faithful to death, and I will give you the keter chayim.

11 He that has an ear, let him hear what the Ruach says to the Yisraelite congregations; he that overcomes shall not be hurt by the second death.⁷

² Yahshua issues a call for this Yisraelite community to return to the basics of the Shema as found in Devarim/Deuteronomy 6:4.

³ A clear warning that a congregation can lose the approval of Yahshua, even after starting out well.

⁴ Denominational systems that don't serve people, but have people serve them. For more details see: <http://restorationscriptures.org/link34.htm>

⁷ That is what salvation does. It allows humanity to escape the second death.

12 And to the teaching overseer of the congregation in Beth Togarmah write; These things says He who has the sharp sword with two edges;

13 I know your mitzvoh, and where you dwell, even where s.a.tan's seat is: and you hold fast to My Name,⁸ and have not denied the emunah in Me, even in those days when Antipas was My faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where s.a.tan dwells.⁹

14 But I have a few things against you, because you have there them that hold the teaching of Bilam, who taught Balaq to cast a stumbling block before the children of Yisrael, to eat things sacrificed to idols, and to commit fornication.¹⁰

15 So have you also those that hold the teaching of the Nikolites, which teaching I hate.

16 Make teshuvah; or else I will come to you quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of My mouth.

17 He that has an ear, let him hear what the Ruach says to the Yisraelite congregations; To him that overcomes will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a renewed name written, which no man knows other than he that receives it.

18 And to the teaching overseer of the congregation in Thyatira write; These things says the Son of יְהוָה, who has eyes like a flame of fire, and His feet are like fine brass;

19 I know your mitzvoh, and ahava, and service, and emunah, and your endurance, and your mitzvoh; and the last to be more than the first.

20 But I have a few things against you, because you allow that woman Isavel, who called herself a neviyah, to teach and to seduce My avadim to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed to idols.¹¹

21 And I gave her time to make teshuvah from her fornication; and she repented not.

22 See, I will cast her into a coffin,¹² and them that commit adultery with her into Great Tribulation, unless they make teshuvah from their deeds.¹³

23 And I will kill her children with death; and all the Yisraelite congregations shall know that I am He who searches the minds and levim: and I will give to every one of you according to your wicked deeds.

24 But to you I say, and to the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this teaching of uncleanness, and who have not known the depths of s.a.tan, as they call them; I will put upon you no other burden.

25 But that which you have already hold fast until I come.

26 And he that overcomes, and keeps My mitzvoth to the end, to him will I give power over the gentiles:¹

27 And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to pieces: even as I received from My Abba.

28 And I will give him the Morning Cochav.

29 He that has an ear, let him hear what the Ruach says to the Yisraelite congregations.

3 And to the teaching overseer of the congregation in Sardis write; These things says He that has the seven ruachim of יהוה, and the seven cochavin; I know your mitzvoth, that you have a name that you live, and yet are dead.

2 Be watchful, and strengthen the things that remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found your mitzvoth perfect before יהוה.

3 Remember therefore how you have received and heard, and hold fast, and make teshuvah. If therefore you shall not watch, I will come upon you as a thief, and you shall not know what hour I will come upon you.

4 You have a few names even in Sardis who have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with Me in white: for they are worthy.

5 He that overcomes, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the Scroll of Chayim, but I will confess his name before My Abba, and before His heavenly malachim.²

6 He that has an ear, let him hear what the Ruach says to the Yisraelite congregations.

7 And to the teaching overseer of the congregation in Philadelphia write; These things says He that is kadosh, He that is emet, He that has the key of Dawid, He that opens, and no man shuts; and shuts, and no man opens;

8 I know your mitzvoth: see, I have set before you an open door, and no man can shut it: for you have little strength, but have kept My word, and have not denied My Name.³

9 See, I will make them of the synagogue of s.a.tan,⁴ who say they are Yahudim, and are not, but do lie; see, I will make them to come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you.

10 Because you have kept the word of My endurance, I also will shomer you in the hour of testing,⁵ which shall come upon all of the olam hazeh, to test them that dwell in the olam.

⁵ Divine protection during the Great Tribulation, and the "Day of YHWH" and certainly not a reference to the so-called "rapture."

11 See, I come quickly: hold fast to what you have, that no man takes your keter.

12 Him that overcomes will I make a pillar in the Mishkan of My אלהא, and he shall go out no more: and I will write upon him the Name of My אלהא, and the name of the city of My אלהא, which is the Renewed Yahrushalayim, which comes down out of the shamayim from My אלהא: and I will write upon him My renewed Name.⁶

13 He that has an ear, let him hear what the Ruach says to the Yisraelite congregations.

14 And to the teaching overseer of the congregation of the Laodikeia write; These things says The Amein, the Faithful and Emet witness, the first cause of all the creation of יהוה;

15 I know your mitzvoth that you are neither cold nor hot: I desire that you were cold, or hot.

16 So then because you are lukewarm, and are neither cold, or hot, I will vomit you out of My mouth.

17 Because you say, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and know not that you are wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:

18 I counsel you to buy from Me gold tried in the fire, that you may be rich; and white raiment, that you may be clothed, so that the shame of your nakedness does not appear; and anoint your eyes with ointment, that you may see.

19 As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and make teshuvah.

20 See, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hears My voice, and opens the door, I will come in to him, and will dine with him, and he with Me.

21 To him that overcomes will I grant to sit with Me in My kesay, even as I also overcame, and have sat down with My Abba on His kesay.⁷

22 He that has an ear, let him hear what the Ruach says to the Yisraelite congregations.

4 After this I looked and see, a door was opened in the shamayim: and the first voice which I heard was like a shofar talking with me; which said, Come up here, and I will show you things that must be after this.⁸

2 And immediately I was in the Ruach: and see, a kesay was set in the shamayim, and One sat on the kesay.

3 And He who sat there looked like jasper and a ruby stone: and there was a rainbow around the kesay, in sight like an emerald.

4 And all around the kesay were twenty-four seats: and upon the seats I saw twenty-four zechanim sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads ketarim of gold.¹

5 And out of the kesay came lightning and thundering and voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the kesay, which are the seven ruachim of יהוה.

6 And before the kesay there was a sea of glass like crystal: and in the midst of the kesay, and all around the kesay, were four creatures full of eyes before and behind.

7 And the first creature was like a lion, and the second creature like a calf, and the third creature had a face as a man, and the fourth creature was like a flying eagle.

8 And the four creatures each had six wings² around him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Kadosh, kadosh, kadosh, יהוה El-Shaddai, who was, and is, and is to come.

9 And when those creatures give tifereth and honor and hodu to Him that sat on the kesay, who lives le-olam-va-ed,

10 The twenty-four zechanim fell down before Him that sat on the kesay, and worshipped Him that lives le-olam-va-ed, and cast their ketarim before the kesay, saying,

11 You are worthy, O יהוה, to receive tifereth and honor and power: for You have created all things, and for Your pleasure they are and were created.

5 And I saw in the right hand of Him that sat on the kesay a scroll written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals.

2 And I saw a strong heavenly malach proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the scroll, and to loose the seals of it?

3 And no man in the shamayim, or in the olam, or under the olam, was able to open the scroll, or to look at it.

4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the scroll, neither to look at it.

5 And one of the zechanim said to me, Weep not: see, the Lion of the tribe of Yahudah, the Root of Dawid, has prevailed to open the scroll, and to loose its seven seals.

6 And I looked, and in the midst of the kesay and of the four creatures, and in the midst of the zechanim, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven ruachim of יהוה sent forth into all the olam.

7 And He came and took the scroll out of the right hand of Him that sat upon the kesay.

8 And when He had taken the scroll, the four creatures and the twenty-four zechanim fell down before the Lamb, having each one of them harps, and golden bowls full of spices, which are the tefillot of Yisraelite kidushim.

9 And they sang a renewed shir, saying, You are worthy to take the scroll, and to open its seals: for You were slain, and have redeemed us to יהוה by Your dahm out of every kindred and tongue and people and nation;

10 And have made us melechim and Kohanim to our אלהים: and we shall reign in the olam.

11 And I looked, and I heard the voice of many heavenly malachim around the kesay and the creatures and the zechanim: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands,

12 Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and chochmah and strength and honor, and tifereth and brachot.

13 And every creature which is in the shamayim, and on the olam, and under the olam, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, I heard saying, Blessing, and honor, and tifereth, and power, be to Him that sits upon the kesay, and to the Lamb le-olam-va-ed!

14 And the four creatures said, Amein. And the twenty-four zechanim fell down and worshipped Him that lives le-olam-va-ed.

6 And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder and one of the four creatures saying, Come and see.

2 And I saw, and see, a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a keter was given to him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when He had opened the second seal, I heard the second creature say, Come and see.

4 And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat on it to take shalom from the olam, and that they should kill one another: and there was given to him a great sword.⁴

5 And when He had opened the third seal, I heard the third creature say, Come and see. And I looked, and a black horse; and he that sat on it had a pair of balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four creatures say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see that you hurt not the oil and the wine.⁵

7 And when He had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth creature say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and saw a pale horse: and his name that sat on it was Death,⁶ and Sheol followed with him. And power was given to them over the fourth part of the olam, to kill with sword and with hunger and with death and with the creatures of the olam.

9 And when He had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the beings of those that were slain for the word of 10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O יהוה, kadosh and emet, do You not judge and avenge our dahm on them that dwell on the olam?

11 And white robes were given to each one of them; and it was said to them, that they should rest yet for a little while, until their fellow servants and their Yisraelite brothers, should also be killed as they were, was completed. ²

12 And I looked when He had opened the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as dahm; ³

13 And the cochavim of the shamayim fell to the olam, even as a fig eytz casts its unripe figs, when shaken by a strong wind.

14 And the shamayim departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places.

15 And the melechim of the olam and the great men and the rich men and the chief captains and the mighty men and every slave and every free man hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;

16 And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of Him that sits on the kesay, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

17 For the great Yom of His wrath is still yet to come; ⁴

² Some Torah-guarding believers are chosen to be martyred during the time of Jacob's Trouble by Islamists. This may not be popular theology, but it is Scripture.

³ Cosmic disturbance is the sign that He is soon to return at the end of the Great Tribulation, not immediately upon the initial manifestation of the disturbance itself, as taught by some. There is a time gap between Matthew 24:29 and 30. The cosmic disturbance starts here but remains until after the 70th week of Yisrael, when the Master will return.

⁴ Strong's Greek #2064 erchomai, meaning "still," or "yet to come." This sheds a different light on this text, showing that His wrath is yet future at the end of the 70th week of Yisrael, when the world is judged, not at some mid, or early point, or here at this point, where allegedly the Tribulation ends and the wrath starts. That misunderstanding is just more eschatological dispensationalism dividing the last seven years of the age into more bits and pieces of man's flawed timetables.

and who shall be able to stand?

7 And after these things I saw four heavenly malachim standing on the four corners of the olam, holding the four winds of the olam, that the wind should not blow on the olam, nor on the sea, nor on any eytz.

2 And I saw another heavenly malach ascending from the east, having the seal of the living אלהא: and he cried with a loud voice to the four heavenly malachim, to whom it was given to hurt the olam and the sea,

3 Saying, Hurt not the olam, neither the sea, nor the eytzim, until we have sealed the avadim of our אלהא in their foreheads.

4 And I heard the number of those who were sealed: and there were sealed one hundred forty four thousand from all the tribes of the children of Yisrael. ⁵

5 Of the tribe of Yahudah were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuven were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Asher were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Naphtali were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Menashsheh were sealed twelve thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Shimeon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Lewi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Yissacher were sealed twelve thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Zevulon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Yoseph ⁶ were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benyamin were sealed twelve thousand. ⁷

9 After this I looked, and, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations and tribes and peoples and tongues stood before the kesay and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands; ⁸

10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our אלהא who sits upon the kesay, and to the Lamb.

11 And all the heavenly malachim stood around the kesay, and the zechanim and the four creatures, and fell before the kesay on their faces, and worshipped יהוה,

12 Saying, Amein! Blessing and tifereth and chochmah

⁵ These are not 144,000 Jews, since all 12 tribes are represented. These 144,000 are also not "Jewish Billy Grahams," since unlike those folks, these Yisraelites all use the true Names and are sealed with it, as seen in Revelation 14:1. They are sealed to proclaim the Name and His kingdom during the Great Tribulation.

⁶ Joseph is substituted for Efrayim and Dan. For Efrayim because Scripture often uses Joseph and Efrayim interchangeably, and Dan is replaced by Joseph because from Dan came much idolatry in the past. This is YHWH's judgment on Dan, by refusing to seal his children during a time of judgment, when Dan himself will be judged and not sealed. However, in the age to come, or the millennium, Dan does reconstitute its tribal inheritance in the land of Yisrael, as well as in the New Jerusalem coming out of the heavens to the earth. So the judgment appears for a brief point and time only.

⁷ Obviously the ten tribes are not lost, and this is proof that YHWH knows who they are and where they are.

and hodu and honor and power and might, be to our אלהים le-olam-va-ed. Amein.

13 And one of the zechanim answered, saying to me, Who are these who are arrayed in white robes? And where did they come from? ¹

14 And I said to him, Sir, you know. And he said to me, These are those who came out of the Great Tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the dahm of the Lamb.

15 Therefore are they before the kesay of יהוה, and serve Him day and night in His Mishkan: and He that sits on the kesay shall dwell among them.

16 They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat.

17 For the Lamb who is in the midst of the kesay shall feed them, and shall lead them to living fountains of mayim: and יהוה shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

8 And when He had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in the shamayim for about half an hour.

2 And I saw the seven heavenly malachim who stood before יהוה; and to them were given seven shofarim.

3 And another heavenly malach came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given to him much incense, that he should offer it with the tefillot of all the Yisraelite kidushim upon the golden altar that was before the kesay.

4 And the smoke of the incense, which came with the tefillot of the Yisraelite kidushim, ascended up before יהוה out of the heavenly malach's hand.

5 And the heavenly malach took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it onto the olam: and there were voices and thundering and lightning and an earthquake.

6 And the seven heavenly malachim who had the seven shofarim prepared themselves to sound.

7 The first heavenly malach sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with dahm, and they were cast upon the olam: and a third part of the eytzim were burned up, and all the green grass was burned up.

8 And the second heavenly malach sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became dahm;

9 And a third part of the creatures that were in the sea that had chayim, died; and a third part of the ships were destroyed.

10 And the third heavenly malach sounded, and there fell a great cochav from the shamayim, burning as if it were a lamp, and it fell upon a third of the rivers, and upon the fountains of mayim;

11 And the name of the cochav is called Wormwood: and a third part of the mayim became wormwood; and many men died from the mayim, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth heavenly malach sounded, and a third part of the sun was smitten, and a third part of the moon, and a third part of the cochavim; so that a third of them were darkened, and a third part of both day and night did not shine.

¹ See the footnote for Revelation 7:9.

13 And I looked, and listened to a heavenly malach flying through the midst of the shamayim, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabitants of the olam because of the other voices of the shofar of the three heavenly malachim, which are yet to sound!

9 And the fifth heavenly malach sounded, and I saw a cochav fall from the shamayim to the olam: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit. ²

2 And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened because of the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke locusts ³ upon the olam: and to them was given power, as the scorpions of the olam have power.

4 And it was commanded to them that they should not hurt the grass of the olam, neither any green thing, neither any eytz; but only those men who do not have the seal of יהוה in their foreheads. ⁴

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented for five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he stings a man.

6 And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And the shapes of the locusts were like horses prepared to battle; and on their heads were as it were ketarim like gold, and their faces were like the faces of men.

8 And they had hair like the hair of women, and their teeth were like the teeth of lions.

9 And they had breastplates, like breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was like the sound of mirkavot of many horses running to battle.

10 And they had tails like scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men for five months.

11 And they had a melech over them, who is the malach of the bottomless pit, whose name in Ivrit is Avaddon, ⁵ but in the Greek tongue his name is Apolluon. ⁶

12 One woe is past; and, see, there come two more woes after this.

13 And the sixth heavenly malach sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar that is before יהוה,

14 Saying to the sixth heavenly malach who had the shofar, Loose the four heavenly malachim which are bound in the great River Euphrates.¹

15 And the four heavenly malachim were loosed, who were prepared for the hour and day and month and year, in which to slay a third of mankind.

16 And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred million, and I heard the number² of them.

17 And this is how I saw the horses in the vision, and those that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone.

18 By these three were the third part of mankind killed, by the fire and by the smoke and by the brimstone, that issued out of their mouths.

19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like serpents, having heads, and with them they do their harm.

20 And the rest of the men who were not killed by these plagues still did not make teshuvah from the works of their hands, that they should not worship shadim, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which cannot see, hear, nor walk:

21 Neither did they make teshuvah from their murders, nor from their sorceries, nor from their fornication, nor from their thefts.

10 And I saw another mighty heavenly malach come down from the shamayim, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire:

2 And he had in his hand a little scroll open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the olam, 3 And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roars: and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices.

² As with 666, this is not a literal number, but rather a multitude of Islamists crossing the Euphrates coming through Iraq towards Jerusalem. Note that John hears a number, or an Islamic multitude, but not a numeral as a numeral cannot be heard.

9 And I went to the heavenly malach, and said to him, Give me the little scroll. And he said to me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make your belly bitter, but it shall be in your mouth sweet as honey.

10 And I took the little scroll out of the heavenly malach's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he said to me, You must prophesy again⁵ before many peoples and nations and tongues and melechim.

Revelation 1:20. So each congregation of believers is one menorah. Therefore two lampstands are two congregations, or groups of believers. This confirms the entire revelation to Zachariah in chapter 4 of the two anointed olive trees who stand before YHWH. From each of these two houses comes one witness, or two individuals who represent the two houses. John from Judah, since Lewi was and is part of Judah, and Elijah from Efrayim. They do their ministry for 3½ years before being killed for the first time and then rising in Jerusalem. because these two neviim tormented those that dwelt on the land.⁹

11 And after three and a half days the Ruach of chayim from יהוה entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon those who saw them.

12 And they heard a great voice from the shamayim saying to them, Come up here. And they ascended up to the shamayim in a cloud; and their enemies saw them.

13 And the same hour there was a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake seven thousand men were killed:¹⁰ and the remnant became afraid, and gave tifereth to the אלהים of the shamayim.

14 The second woe is past; and see, the third woe comes quickly.

15 And the seventh heavenly malach sounded; and there were great voices in the shamayim, saying, The malchutim of the olam hazeh have become the malchutim of our אלהים, and of His Moshiach; and He shall reign le-olam-va-ed.

16 And the twenty-four zechanim, who sat before יהוה on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped יהוה,

17 Saying, We give You hodu, O Master יהוה El-Shaddai, who was and who is and who is coming; because You have taken Your great power, and have reigned.

 4 And his tail drew a third part of the cochavim of the shamayim, and did cast them to the olam: and the dragon stood poised before the woman who was ready to deliver, in order to devour her Child as soon as it was born.²
 5 And she brought forth a male-Child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her Child was caught up to יהוה, and to His kesay.³
 6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by יהוה, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred sixty days.^{4 5}
 7 And there was war in the shamayim: Micha-El and his heavenly malachim fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought with his heavenly malachim,
 8 And the dragon prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in the shamayim.
 9 And the great dragon was cast out, that head serpent, called the Akel Kartza⁶ and also called s.a.tan, who deceives the entire olam hazeh: he was cast out into the olam, and his heavenly malachim were cast out with him.
 10 And I heard a loud voice saying in the shamayim, Now has come deliverance and strength and the malchut of our מלכה, and the power of His Moshiach: for the Akel Kartza, the accuser of our Yisraelite brothers is cast down, who accused and slandered them before our מלכה day and night.
 11 And they overcame him by the dahm of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their 12 Therefore gilah, you shamayim, and you that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabitants of the olam and of the sea! For s.a.tan has come down to you, having great wrath, because he knows that he has but a short time.

 13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast to the olam, he persecuted the woman who brought forth the Male-Child.
 14 And to the woman was given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.⁸
 15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth mayim as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away by the flood.⁹
 16 And the ground helped the woman, and the land opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood, which the dragon cast out of his mouth.¹⁰

² s.a.tan versus Yisrael.

³ Yahshua.

⁴ A remnant of Yisrael for 3½ years in the wilderness being guarded by YHWH.

⁵ Actually this has a double meaning of Yahshua being born in Yisrael in the past, and a future prophetic time during the Great Tribulation, where through the test of endurance, His true body, or commonwealth children, will yet be birthed during the shivlai haMahshiach, or birth pains of Messiah.

⁶ One of the terms used as a title for s.a.tan in the Aramaic Renewed Covenant is "Akel Kartza." "Akel Kartza" is a compound term. Akel means "to devour," or "to consume." Kartza means "hunch of bread, carping, pulling to pieces, accusation, disparagement, biting words, biting, and current destruction." The Akel Kartza uses biting words and accusation to consume and devour and to destroy. He is a slanderous backbiter. The Scripture warns us that in the last days s.a.tan will wage a special war against the "remnant," a group who "keep the commandments of YHWH and have the testimony of Yahshua" (Rev. 12:17). Those who advocate Yahshua as Messiah and Torah observance are therefore special targets of Akel Kartza and slanderous reports from emotionally unstable persons. As believers, we must be careful not to entertain the Akel Kartza, by entertaining evil speech.

⁷ As Yisrael we overcome the Akel Kartza and his slander with the truth of our testimony in Yahshua's blood, a truth for which s.a.tan has no response.

⁸ YHWH may provide an airlift by plane to the wilderness as He guards His bride for 3.5 years.

⁹ Flood denotes exile, or removal to the wilderness of the nations.

¹⁰ In the past the gentile nations would absorb Yisrael and in many cases save life, by camouflaging them as they became one with and indistinguishable from the heathen gentiles. YHWH as seen in verse 16, ends the 2,700-year-old exile and stops s.a.tan's final attempt to exile Yisrael one final time during the Great Tribulation. The ground and earth in verse 16 are metaphors for the land of Yisrael.

¹¹ s.a.tan the dragon, raises up the end time beast empire to destroy believers in Yahshua, particularly Nazarene Yisraelites, just before the end of the exile of both houses of Israel.

¹² Let this be clear. Only those who have resurrection testimony and Torah witness are His remnant Yisrael. The rest will be carried away, or taken away. Pray to be left behind.

¹³ The four empires of Daniel 7:1-28 all arise from the Mediterranean Sea, or the Middle East. If Babylon, Medo-Persia and Greece all arose from and exercised control over the Middle East, so must the fourth beast, another clear indication that this final beast is Islam and not Rome. All four beasts arise from the same sea and geographical area, which clearly excludes Europe. See: <http://www.restorationscriptures.org/link55.htm>

12 And he exercises all the power of the first beast before him, and causes the olam and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast,⁸ whose deadly wound was healed.⁹

13 And he does great wonders, so that he makes fire come down from the shamayim into the olam in the sight of men,¹⁰

14 And deceives them that dwell in the olam by means of those nisim which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to those that dwell in the olam, that they should make an image to the beast, who had the wound

¹ The beast system of Islam, or the anti messiah leader will rise from the community of Islamic nations, and will be considered Messiah by many, but will not come to proclaim YHWH's Name. Instead he will proclaim the names of blasphemy, especially the mark of this kingdom, the name of the false deity Allah and Mohammed the false prophet. These are the names of blasphemy against YHWH and His Son Yahshua. The anti messiah from Turkey perhaps, a true Islamist spokesman guised in the cloke of peace, will propagatate chilul hashem/desecration of the Name of YHWH, by substituting the worship of Allah in place of YHWH.

² The 7 heads are the 7 Middle Eastern powers that ruled the Middle East. They are Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Medo- Persia, Greece, Rome and the often forgotten, but crucial to end time prophesy, Islamic Turkish Ottoman Empire. From the same land area (today all-Islamic), comes the 8th and final beast empire. Greece was divided amongst Alexander's 4 generals, thus we have the 7 kings, plus the three more who emerged after Alexander's death, making the 10 crowns. No European, or USA end-time scenario can fit like this, as none of these Middle East empires ruled North America, or all of Europe in totality. The beast empire will rule every Middle East nation (except Israel), not necessarily every nation on earth, and must arise from an area previously controlled by all 7 heads and ten crowns. It is a revived beast, not a new one, as the USA might be were that to qualify. For more detail see: <http://www.restorationscriptures.org/link55.htm>

³ The beast arises from parts of several former empires including the eastern part of the Greek empire.

⁴ The Ottoman Empire of Islam in 1920 based in Turkey was cut off, but not destroyed and is now revived and healed as Islam seeks to establish its control over the world with Jerusalem as its final goal. The entire world here is a reference to the entire Islamic world, since most Christians and Jews are sleeping in Zion and will not recognize what they see nightly on their TV as the Ottoman beast revived and healed.

⁵ When anti messiah comes, turning around (teshuvah/repentance) to YHWH will be near impossible, as Torah-less-ness and the Koran reigns. Now is the time to turn around.

⁶ This end time beast is divided between Sunnis and Shiites.

⁷ Islam looks like a religion of peace to the world and the mainstream media, but the false prophet Mohammed established it in innocent blood. The final generation will see the teachings of the false prophet Mohammed in the Koran causing more and more people to worship the beast marked by the name of Allah, and deceive many unsuspecting into thinking that the false prophet is really a lamb of peace propagating a religion of peace. In Mecca based Islam one cannot separate the political from the religious, as both are intertwined into one, and thus both the beast and the false prophet speak a political message, fueled by spiritual fervor.

⁸ Mohammed the false prophet, who causes both Sunnis and Shiites to worship the beast Islam and his image, or the kabbah at Mecca.

⁹ "All" in Scripture is often a metaphor for all in a region, or all in an area, or all under a specific worship system. In context all submitted to this beast, or bought with their corruption, wealth and petrodollars of this beast will pay homage and worship to the beast and its false prophet. The beast can never be Rome as many teach, as 1.5 billion Muslims, most Jews and over 50 official Muslim nations would never submit to the Vatican. Understanding Revelation as it was given will require a major paradigm shift in our outlook.

¹⁰ The fire of wealth and oil and the flawed miracle of accumulated wealth.

by a sword, and did live.¹

15 And he had power to give chayim to the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast should both speak,² and cause as many as would not worship the image of the beast to be killed.³

16 And he causes all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:⁴

17 And that no man might buy, or sell, except he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, even the multitudes who have his name.⁵

18 Here is chochmah. Let him that has binah consider the multitude of the beast: for it is the multitude of a man;⁶ and his multitude is encoded in 'chi, xi, sigma.'^{7 8 9}

14 And I looked, and saw, a Lamb stood on Har Tzion, and with Him one hundred forty four thousand Yisraelites, having His Abba's Name written in their foreheads.¹⁰

2 And I heard a voice from the shamayim, as the voice of many mayim, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpists playing with their harps:

3 And they sang as it were a renewed shir before the kesay, and before the four creatures, and the zechanim: and no man could learn that shir but the hundred forty four thousand, who were redeemed from the olam.¹¹

4 These are those, who were not defiled with women; for they are virgins.¹² These are those who follow the Lamb

¹ Clearly this false one-world religious order desires the beast system of Allah to be worshipped and punishes those who don't conform. The dragon, or s.a.tan gives the false prophet Mohammed power to do 'perceived' miracles and wonders, such as wealth accumulation and material blessings, all pointing people to trust in the first beast. In fact these are not miracles, but self-allusions of grandeur, so that those trusting in him believe him to be a mouthpiece for Allah.

² He promotes the teachings he originated at the kabbah in Mecca, the very image of Allah to Muslims. His purpose is to make the teachings written in Mecca and Medina come alive to the world. He will not reappear personally, but like the beast system, his culture of death will be revived.

³ Islamic evangelism. Accept Islam or die! The Roman church in the 21st century does not do spiritual business this way.

⁴ Mohammed's religion brings people to his Allah.

⁵ The mark of the beast, or the name of Allah is for those who conform to the one-world political and religious order of Islam, both emanating from Mecca in the last generation. That beast system has as its mark the rejection of Yahshua as YHWH's Savior/Son, the changing of the everlasting covenant from Shabbat to Friday, YHWH's Name to Allah, and YHWH's Torah to fables. The name and destruction in the name of Allah is the single most overriding and defining mark of the beast, in addition to its Torah-less-ness. Anyone who has not sold out to their intoxicating wine of oil and thus not given allegiance to the revived end time beast cannot buy or sell energy elsewhere, as all the earth's economies are fully dependant upon black gold, or oil. Think of this! If Rome were the end time beast, what commodity do they sell that would destroy the global economy were it to be withheld?

⁶ The multitudes, or number of Mohammed's followers. Not a literal number.

⁷ The three Greek letters are a code, which portrays a message to John and through John to us, in order to identify the end time beast. This is not a literal number, as no man has a number in place of a name. All men have real names, as does the end time beast.

⁸ Some manuscripts say 614, some 646, some 665, so that 666 is just one reading. Moreover, one cannot use Greek words, or letters to figure gematria, or the numerical value of letters, since that only applies to the Hebrew language. Additionally, the last Greek letter is an accent not a letter. The first Greek letter 'chi' looks like two crossed swords, the very symbol of Islam seen by John before Islam was even invented by Mohammed. The next letter in Greek, 'xi' is written vertically and is the exact name of Allah when written horizontally in Arabic. Thus the symbol of the crossed swords, along with the name of Allah is the mark with the final letter more of an accent mark, known as a 'sigma score' and not a 'sigma' itself. The letter sigma does not even exist in modern Greek. The verse as translated correctly in verse 18 means this. "Here is wisdom. Let him that has understanding decide who the multitude of the beast is, for it is the multitudes of a man (Mohammed) and (the same multitudes) are all involved with the mark, the name of Allah. The Greek word number is more accurately translated as multitudes, or the great number/multitude of those who worship the end time beast day and night.

⁹ The identity of anti messiah will be hidden and kept secret until the last of the last days when a previous empire is revived. But it will not be the Roman Empire that's revived, but the world's last and only Islamic empire the Ottoman Empire that declined in 1920. According to many hundreds of Scriptures such as First John 2: 22, those who deny the Father and, or the Son (as does Islam) are anti messiah, or the anti messiah beast system. All Christians and even Catholics believe in the Father and Son, another indicator that this system is based in Mecca not Rome. For a full detailed and eye opening look at this revealed truth see. GILYAHNA – REVELATION wherever He goes. These were redeemed from among men, being the bikkurim-netsarim to יהוה and to the Lamb.

5 And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the kesay of יהוה.

6 And I saw another heavenly malach fly in the midst of the shamayim, having the everlasting Besorah to proclaim to them that dwell in the olam, and to every nation and kindred and tongue and people,

7 Saying with a loud voice, Fear יהוה, and give tifereth to Him; for the hour of His mishpat has come: and worship Him that made the shamayim and the olam and the sea and the fountains of mayim.

8 And there followed another heavenly malach, saying, Bavel is fallen, is fallen, that great city,¹ because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.²

9 And the third heavenly malach followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worships the beast and his image, and receives his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,

10 The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of יהוה, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of His indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the kadosh heavenly malachim, and in the presence of the Lamb:

11 And the smoke of their torment ascends up le-olam-va-ed: and they have no rest day, or night,³ who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name.⁴

12 Here is the endurance of the Yisraelite kidushim: here are those that shomer the mitzvoth of יהוה, and the emunah of יהושע.⁵

13 And I heard a voice from the shamayim saying to me, Write, Blessed are the dead who die in יהוה from this time forward: Yes, says the Ruach, that they may rest from their labors; and their mitzvoth do follow them.

14 And I looked, and see a white cloud, and upon the cloud One sat like the Ben Ahdahm, having on His head a golden keter, and in His hand a sharp sickle.

15 And another heavenly malach came out of the Mishkan, crying with a loud voice to Him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in Your sickle, and reap: for the time is come for You to reap; for the harvest of the olam is ripe.

16 And He that sat on the cloud thrust in His sickle into the olam; and the olam was reaped.

17 And another heavenly malach came out of the Mishkan that is in the shamayim, he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And another heavenly malach came out from the altar, who had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in your sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the olam; for her grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the heavenly malach thrust in his sickle into the olam, and gathered the vine of the olam, and cast it into the great winepress of the wrath of יהוה.⁶

20 And the winepress was trodden outside the city, and dahm came out of the winepress, even to the horses' bridles, by the space of one thousand six hundred furlongs.

15 And I saw another sign in the shamayim, great and marvelous, seven heavenly malachim having the seven last plagues; for in them is filled up the wrath of יהוה.

2 And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast and over his image and over his mark and over the multitude of his name, standing on the sea of glass, having the harps of אלהא.

3 And they sing the shir of Moshe the eved of the Master יהוה, and the shir of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvelous are Your deeds, Master יהוה El-Shaddai; tzadik and emet are Your halachot, O Melech of the Yisraelite kidushim.

4 Who shall not fear You, O Master יהוה, and glorify Your Name? For You alone are kadosh: for all nations shall come and worship before You; for Your mishpatim are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and, see, the Mishkan of the Testimony in the shamayim was opened:

6 And the seven heavenly malachim came out of the Mishkan, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts wrapped with golden girdles.

7 And one of the four creatures gave to the seven heavenly malachim seven golden bowls full of the wrath of יהוה, who lives le-olam-va-ed.

8 And the Mishkan was filled with smoke from the tifereth of יהוה, and from His power; and no man was able to enter into the Mishkan, until the seven plagues of the seven heavenly malachim were fulfilled.

16 And I heard a great voice out of the Mishkan saying to the seven heavenly malachim, Go your ways, and pour out the bowls of the wrath of יהוה upon the olam.

2 And the first went, and poured out his bowl upon the olam; and there fell severe and malignant sores⁷ upon the men who had the mark of the beast, and upon them who worshipped his image.

3 And the second heavenly malach poured out his bowl

² Oil.

³ Muslims pray 5 times daily from 5 AM to past midnight and have no rest from obligatory service day, or night because they worship the demanding beast.

⁴ The result of their torment from the second death is forever and cannot be reversed, but their torment ends upon the second death.

⁵ This is the formula to escape the second death. Faith in Yahshua and Torah. If Torah is the standard in the last of the last days, and also of yesterday, then it must be so today, since YHWH and Yahshua never change.

upon the sea; and it became as the dahm of a dead man: and every living being died in the sea.

4 And the third heavenly malach poured out his bowl upon the rivers and fountains of mayim; and they became dahm.¹

5 And I heard the heavenly malach of the mayim say, You are tzadik, O יהוה, who is and was and who shall be, because You have judged well.

6 For they have shed the dahm of the Yisraelite kidushim and neviim, and You have given them dahm to drink; for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Master יהוה El-Shaddai, emet and tzadik are Your mishpatim.

8 And the fourth heavenly malach poured out his bowl upon the sun; and power was given to him to scorch men with fire.

9 And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the Name of יהוה, who has power over these plagues: and they did not make teshuvah to give Him tifereth.

10 And the fifth heavenly malach poured out his bowl upon the kesay of the beast;² and his malchut was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain,

11 And blasphemed the אלהא of the shamayim because of their pains and their sores, and did not make teshuvah from their deeds.

12 And the sixth heavenly malach poured out his bowl upon the great River Euphrates;³ and the mayim of it was dried up, so that the way of the melechim of the east might be prepared.⁴

13 And I saw three unclean shadim like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon and out of the mouth of the beast and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

14 For they are the ruachim of shadim, working nisim, who go forth to the melechim of the olam and to the entire olam, to gather them to the battle of that great Yom יהוה the Almighty.

15 See, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watches, and keeps his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

16 And He gathered them together into a place called in Ivrit, Har Meggido.

17 And the seventh heavenly malach poured out his bowl into the air; and there came a great voice out of the Mishkan of the shamayim, from the kesay, saying, It is done.

18 And there were voices and thunders and lightning and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the olam, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.

19 And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Bavel came to remembrance before יהוה, to give to her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of His wrath.

20 And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.⁵

21 And there fell upon men a great hail out of the shamayim, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men blasphemed יהוה because of the plague of the hail; for the plague of it was exceedingly great.

17 And there came one of the seven heavenly malachim who had the seven bowls, and talked with me, saying to me, Come here; I will show to you the mishpat of the great whore that sits upon many mayim:⁶

2 With whom the melechim of the olam have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the olam have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.⁷

3 So he carried me away in the Ruach into the wilderness:⁸ and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet colored beast, full of names of blasphemy,⁹ having seven heads and ten horns.

4 And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet color and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of the abominations and filthiness of her fornication:¹⁰

5 And upon her forehead was a name written,

⁷ Oil is the fornicating wine that causes all peoples small and great to drink of Mecca's power and wealth.

⁸ Arabian wilderness. John was carried away in the Spirit to the desert; the Greek word used here is "eremos" meaning a desert. This is the clue that rules all 'European beast' theories out. He saw the woman symbolic for a city, normally the Greek word 'polis' is used, in Hebrew the word 'eer' and in Arabic the word 'medina' is used, but the more correct word in the Aramaic is the word "mdintha," that could also designate an area or a district/province, or even a country. This place is close to the sea and right in the desert and fits Saudi Arabia perfectly. I believe this could correctly mean a country rather than just a city because Saudi Arabia rides the beast, not just the city Mecca, although the city of Mecca is a better fit for the specific city by the seven mountains.

GILYAHNA – REVELATION

MYSTERY,¹ BAVEL - THE GREAT, THE EEMA OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS² OF THE OLAM.³

6 And I saw the woman drunk with the dahm of the Yisraelite kidushim, and with the dahm of the martyrs of ירושע : and when I saw her, I wondered greatly.⁴

7 And the heavenly malach said to me, Why did you marvel? I will tell you the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads⁵ and ten horns.⁶

8 The beast that you saw was and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell in the olam shall wonder, whose names were not written in the Scroll of Chayim from the foundation of the olam, when they see the beast that was and is not and yet is.⁷

9 And here is the mind that has chochmah. The seven heads⁸ are the seven mountains, on which the woman sits.

10 And there are seven melechim: five are fallen⁹ and one is¹⁰ and the other has not yet come;^{11 12} and when he comes, he must continue a short space.¹³

11 And the beast that was and is not, even he is the eighth and is of the seven and goes into destruction.¹⁴

12 And the ten horns that you saw are ten melechim, who have received no malchut as yet; but receive power as melechim in just one hour with the beast.¹⁵

13 These have one mind,¹⁶ and shall give their power and strength to the beast.

14 These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for He is Master of masters and Melech of melechim: and they that are with Him are called, the chosen and faithful people of Yisrael.¹⁷

15 And he said to me, The mayim that you saw, where the whore sits,¹⁸ are peoples and multitudes and nations and tongues.¹⁹

16 And the ten horns that you saw upon the beast, these shall hate the whore and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.

17 For יהוה has put in their levim to fulfill His will and to agree and give their malchutim to the beast, until the words of יהוה shall be fulfilled.²⁰

18 And the woman that you saw is that great city,²¹ that reigns over the melechim of the olam.

¹ The mystery is revealed. Many who thought the beast of Babylon was Rome, will find out that Mecca in Saudi Arabia proclaims the very religion started in Babylon by Nimrod and now propagated by Mecca to the entire globe.

² Abominations are defined as unclean practices and Torah breaking. The Babylonian religion now found in Mecca, a daughter of the land of its origin proclaims a bible different than the true one and a deity who has a bloodlust causing the beast to be drunk with the blood of those who love Messiah and Torah.

³ That which started in Babylon has blossomed in Mecca and Saudi Arabia.

⁴ The Roman church has stopped killing Yisraelites hundreds of years ago. Only Islam in this final hour has revived itself back to the practices of its founder and is slaughtering true believers.

⁵ Mountains.

⁶ Past kings and subsequent leaders of the House of Saud.

⁸ Mecca in Saudi Arabia. The Greek word used here is not hills but mountains. Rome is in the midst of seven hills. But Mecca is literally in the midst of seven mountains. See: Islam Peace or Beast Simon Altaf p. 188, or:

⁹ Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Medo Persia, Greece.

¹⁰ Roman Empire.

¹¹ Ottoman Empire or Islam, not yet come in John's day. When the Ottomans come they will cease to be in 1920. Yet not forever, but only for about 80 years until the beast is healed and revived.

¹² This couldn't possibly be the revised Roman Empire, since Rome was around in John's day, and this clearly speaks of an empire not yet come in John's time, and yet not only will it be raised up as promised, but it will also be revived at the very end of days. We sadly see that almost every night on the evening news.

¹³ Ottoman Empire.

¹⁴ The eighth to control the Middle East, the Ottomans, were the 7th empire to do so. The eighth, also Islamic, is from the 7th, meaning a revival not of Rome, but of Islam and fundamentalist Islam. The 8th comes from the ruins of the 7th world empire to rule the Middle East, but is ultimately destroyed by Yahshua and His saints and angels at His return. It is destined for future destruction by Yahshua.

¹⁵ Ten formerly moderate Islamic nations will be radicalized and join in the beast's vision. This could be such nations as Iran, Lebanon, Egypt and Jordan, all moderate at recent points in their past. Ten will swear allegiance to the beast by worshipping him.

¹⁶ Islamic nations all with one mind to kill and be killed for Allah.

¹⁷ Revelation is no different than any other book of the bible. Is the battle between Israel and Edom/Esau, or Yisrael versus Islam. The coming Of Yahshua the Lamb will end this end times beast system.

¹⁸ Saudi Arabia surrounded by 8 different bodies of water.

¹⁹ The end time whore as seen is not a city like Rome, but rather a conglomerate of Islamic nations and countries all worshipping and serving their beast. Moreover, Saudi Arabia leads the world in foreign workers or nations being found in her.

²⁰ An Islamic rebellion from within the many Islamic nations that begins to rebel, setting the stage for Yahshua's return to totally finish the job and subdue the revised beast empire.

²¹ Mecca. Rome will never rule all let alone most of the earth, as all the Islamic nations and Israel will not allow that to happen. Only Mecca meets the criteria through the almighty petrodollar of being able to rule the world through economic blackmail and strangulation.

18 And after these things I saw another heavenly malach come down from the shamayim, having great power; and the olam was lit with his tifereth.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Bavel the great has fallen, ¹ has fallen and has become the dwelling of shadim, and the haunt of every foul ruach, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird. ²

3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication and the melechim of the olam have committed fornication with her and the merchants of the olam have grown rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from the shamayim, saying, Come out of her, My people-Ami, ³ ⁴ that you be not partakers of her sins, so that you receive not of her plagues.

5 For her sins have reached to the shamayim, and יהוה has remembered her iniquities.

6 Reward her even as she rewarded you and repay her double according to her works: in the cup that she has filled, fill it double to her.

7 How much she has esteemed herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she says in her lev, I sit a malka, and am not a widow, and shall see no sorrow.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death and mourning and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Master אלהא-יהוה who judges her.

9 And the melechim of the olam, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning, ⁵

10 Standing far off for the fear of her torment, saying, Oy, vey, that great city Bavel, that mighty city! For in one hour is your mishpat come.

11 And the merchants of the olam shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buys their merchandise ⁶ any more:

¹ Mecca.

² False worship and demons along with great wealth proceed from Mecca. They control the economic world and the dark part of the spiritual world by releasing the hateful demons of death and destruction associated with jihad.

³ True Yisrael can indeed be found in these many Muslim nations. But in order to manifest that they are redeemed, Yisrael must manifest that reality by coming out of Babylon/Islamic nations instead of continuing in its deception and under its power to annihilate them. This cry is not a prayer request but a command. Flee while you can.

⁴ No doubt the voice of Yahshua Himself.

⁵ Mourning and fear as panic sets in upon all those who relied on Saudi Arabia for life in the form of oil, which is now burning out of control.

⁶ Rome does not control all the earth's wealth and economies, and neither do they have a marketable commodity that every man woman boy and girl on this planet needs, as does Mecca. If Rome were destroyed, half the world would rejoice and not wail and their loss

12 The merchandise of gold and silver and precious stones and pearls and fine linen and purple and silk and scarlet and all your wood and all the vessels of ivory and all the vessels of most precious wood and of brass and iron and marble,

13 And cinnamon and incense and ointments and frankincense and wine and oil and fine flour and wheat and creatures and sheep and horses and mirkavot and avadim and the beings of men.

14 And the fruits that your being lusted after are departed from you, and all things which were dainty and tov have departed from you, and you shall find them no more at all.

15 The merchants of these things, who were made rich by her, ⁷ shall stand far off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

16 And saying, Oy, vey, that great city, that was clothed in fine linen and purple and scarlet and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls!

17 For in one hour so great riches have come to nothing. And every ship captain and all the passengers and sailors and as many as trade by sea, stood far off, ⁸

18 And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like this great city! ⁹

19 And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Oy, vey that great city, in which all that had ships in the sea were made rich because of her wealth! For in one hour she is made desolate.

20 Gilah over her, you shamayim and you kadosh shlichim and neviim; for יהוה has avenged you on her.

21 And a mighty heavenly malach took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Just like this, with violence, shall that great city Bavel be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.

22 And the voice of harpists and musicians and of flutists and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in you; and no craftsman of any craft, shall be found any more in you; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in you;

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in you; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in you: for your merchants were the great men of the olam; for by your sorceries were all nations deceived.

24 And in her was found the dahm of neviim, and of Yisraelite kidushim, and of all that were ⁹ If Rome were to burn it would be a small three-alarm fire. But when Mecca burns the oil fields aflame will send smoke to the heavens for miles around and for many days, or perhaps months without end.

slain upon the olam.¹

19 And after these things I heard a great voice of many people in the shamayim, saying, Hallel-u-Yah; Salvation and tifereth and honor and power to יהוה our אלהא:
 2 For emet and tzadik are His mishpatim: for He has judged the great whore, who did corrupt the olam with her fornication, and has avenged the dahm of His avadim at her hand.²
 3 And again they said, Hallel-u-Yah. And her smoke rose up le-olam-va-ed.
 4 And the twenty-four zechanin and the four creatures fell down and worshipped יהוה that sat on the kesay, saying, Amein; Hallel-u-Yah.
 5 And a voice came out of the kesay, saying, Tehilla to our אלהא, all of you His avadim and you that fear Him, both small and great.
 6 And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, as the voice of much mayim and as the voice of mighty thundering, saying, Hallel-u-Yah: for the Master יהוה El-Shaddai reigns.
 7 Let us be glad and gilah and give honor to Him: for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His wife has made herself ready.
 8 And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the tzedakah of the Yisraelite kidushim.³
 9 And he said to me, Write, Blessed are they who are called to the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he said to me, These are the emet sayings of יהוה.
 10 And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said to me, See that you do it not: I am your fellow eved and from your Yisraelite brothers who have the testimony of יהושע; worship יהוה, for the testimony of יהושע is the Ruach of prophecy.⁴
 11 And I saw the shamayim opened, and see, a white horse; and He that sat upon it was called Faithful and Emet and in tzedakah He does judge and make war.⁵
 12 His eyes were as a flame of fire and on His head were many ketarim; and He had a Name written, that no man knew, but He Himself.
 13 And He was clothed with a long tallit dipped in dahm: and His Name is called The Devar יהוה.
 14 And the armies that were in the shamayim followed Him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen,

¹ Islam is the later day beast that continues to spill innocent blood from both houses. Rome stopped killing Jews and Protestants way before this final generation. Only Mecca qualifies and meets the biblical criteria.

² Saudi Arabia surely has corrupted all nations with their power base of oil and the largest false religion in the world. Nevertheless Yahshua is coming to personally put a stop to the Jihadists.

³ Yisrael.

⁴ All worship must be directed to The Father and sealed in Yahshua's Name. We are forbidden to worship all messengers true and false, those in heaven and those appearing in the earth.

⁵ As opposed to Islam.

white and clean.

15 And out of His mouth goes a sharp sword, that with it He should smite the nations: and He shall rule them with a rod of iron: and He treads the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of El-Shaddai.

16 And He has on His tallit and on His thigh a Name written, Melech-ha melechim, and Adon-adonim.

17 And I saw a heavenly malach standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of the shamayim, Come and gather yourselves together to the supper of the great אלהא;

18 That you may eat the flesh of melechim and the flesh of captains and the flesh of mighty men and the flesh of horses and of them that sit on them and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.⁶

19 And I saw the beast, and the melechim of the olam, and their armies, gathered together to make war against Him that sat on the horse, and against His army.⁷

20 And the beast was taken, and with him the navi sheker that performed nisim before him,⁸ with which he deceived those that had received the mark of the beast, and those that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a Lake of Fire burning with brimstone.⁹

21 And the remnant was slain with the sword of Him that sat upon the horse, whose sword proceeded out of His mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh.

20 And I saw a heavenly malach come down from the shamayim, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.

2 And he laid hold of the dragon, that old serpent, who is s.a.tan, and bound him a thousand years,

3 And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, until the thousand years are fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed for a short season.

4 And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and mishpat was given to them: and I saw the beings of them that were beheaded¹⁰ for the witness of יהושע, and for the word of יהוה,¹¹ and who had not worshipped the beast, or his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Moshiach a thousand years.

⁶ Of those who were taken away.

⁷ Islam versus Yisrael led personally by the returning Yahshua.

⁸ The false miracle of making a non-existent deity seem like he is talking and is alive. This is how the false prophet makes the beast have a voice, even though there is no such deity called Allah that speaks the truth.

⁹ The end for the false deity and the false prophet from Mecca.

¹⁰ A clear sign that the end time beast will reinstate the beheading of bible believers. Acts unseen since the days of the 7th century. Is there any nation on earth today so barbaric and ruthless so as to practice beheading, as does radical Islam?

¹¹ Faith in Yahshua and Torah obedience. Judah and Efrayim being targeted by the end time beast.

5 This is the first resurrection. (But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished.)
 6 Blessed and kadosh is he that has part in the first resurrection: on such the second death has no power, but they shall be Kohanim of יהוה and of Moshiach and shall reign with Him a thousand years.
 7 And when the thousand years are expired, s.a.tan shall be loosed out of his prison,
 8 And shall go out to deceive the nations who are around the four quarters of the land, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.
 9 And they came over the entire width of the land, and surrounded the camp of the Yisraelite kidushim,¹ and the beloved city:² and fire came down from יהוה out of the shamayim, and devoured them.
 10 And s.a.tan that deceived them was cast into the Lake of Fire and brimstone, where the beast and the navi sheker are, and shall be tormented day and night le-olam-va-ed.^{3 4}
 11 And I saw a great Kesay Lavan, and Him that sat on it, from whose face the olam and the shamayim fled away; and there was found no place for them.
 12 And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before יהוה; and the scrolls were opened: and another scroll was opened, which is the Sefer Ha Chayim: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the scrolls, according to their own mitzvoth.⁵
 13 And the sea gave up the dead that were in it; and death and Sheol delivered up the dead that were in them: and they were judged every man according to their own mitzvoth.⁶
 14 And death and Sheol were cast into the Lake of Fire. This is the second death.
 15 And whoever was not found written in the Sefer Ha Chayim was cast into the Lake of Fire.

² Jerusalem. Notice that the set-apart ones are citizens in Yisrael and thus must be Yisrael.

³ This speaks of the false deity, the false prophet and s.a.tan himself, all under eternal torment.

⁴ Unclean spirit beings suffer forever since they have immortality within them. Human beings who reject the Good News also go to the Lake of Fire to die a second death, since they have no immortality within them to withstand and survive the Lake of Fire.

⁵ The White Throne Judgment is for the lost. It is not a second opportunity. Having understood that, then the reason that the scrolls are still opened, is to show mankind why YHWH is doing what He is about to do, even though He answers to no man. However, His justice demands that He shows His reasoning. Nevertheless, those who have never truly heard the Good News of Yahshua, but rather a cheap lawless imitation, will in fact have their works looked at carefully and fairly before YHWH makes a final judgment.

⁶ See footnote for Revelation 20:12.

21 And I saw a renewed shamayim and a renewed olam: for the first shamayim and the first olam had passed away; and there was no more sea.

2 And I Yochanan saw the kadosh city, the renewed Yahrushalayim, coming down from יהוה out of the shamayim, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of the shamayim saying, See, the Mishkan of יהוה is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people and יהוה Himself shall be with them, and be their אלהא.

4 And יהוה shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things have passed away.

5 And He that sat upon the kesay said, *See Kala, I make all things renewed.*⁷ And He said to me, Write: for these words are emet and faithful.

6 And He said to me, Kala. I am Aleph and Taf, the Beginning and the End. I will give to him that is thirsty of the fountain of the mayim chayim freely.

7 He that overcomes shall inherit all things; and I will be his אלהא, and he shall be My son.

8 But the fearful and unbelieving and the abominable and murderers and those who whore and sorcerers and idolaters and all liars shall have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone: this is the second death.

9 And there came to me one of the seven heavenly malachim who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues and talked with me, saying, Come here, I will show you the bride, Yisrael, the Lamb's wife.

10 And he carried me away in the Ruach to a great high mountain, and showed me that great city, the kadosh Yahrushalayim, descending out of the shamayim from יהוה,

11 Having the tifereth of יהוה: and its light was like a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal;

12 And it had a great high wall, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve heavenly malachim, and names written on the gates, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Yisrael:⁸

13 On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in

There is no gate for gentiles, or Christians, or Jews, and neither is there any other entry. Only blood-washed Yisraelites get into their promised eternal home. If you are a born-again believer, you must be a Yisraelite, as you will be entering through one of those twelve gates.

GILYAHNA – REVELATION

them the names of the twelve shlichim of the Lamb.¹
15 And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, and its gates, and its walls.
16 And the city lies foursquare and the length is as large as the width: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal.
17 And he measured its wall, one hundred forty four cubits, according to the measure of the man, that is, of the heavenly malach.
18 And the building of its wall was jasper: and the city was pure gold, like clear glass.
19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, agate; the fourth, emerald;
20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, ruby; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprase; the eleventh, yacinth; the twelfth, amethyst.
21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls;² every gate was one pearl:³ and the streets of the city were pure gold, as if it were transparent glass.
22 And I saw no Mishkan in it: for the Master יהוה El-Shaddai and the Lamb are the Mishkan of it.
23 And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the tifereth of יהוה did brighten it, and the Lamb is the Light of it.
24 And the nations of those that are saved shall walk in the Light of it: and the melechim of the olam do bring their tifereth and honor into it.
25 And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there.
26 And they shall bring the tifereth and honor of the nations into it.
27 And there shall by no means enter into it anyone that is unclean, or whoever works abomination,⁴ and or makes up lies: but only those who are written in the Lamb's Sefer Ha Chayim.

22 And he showed me a pure river of mayim chayim, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the kesay of יהוה and of the Lamb.
2 In the midst of its street, on either side of the river, there was an eytz-chayim, that bore twelve kinds of fruits, and yielded their fruits every month: and the leaves of the

¹ Paul, or Matthias will most likely be the one to replace Judas.

² Amazingly, pearls start out as mere grains of sand. The sand is a metaphor for all Jacob's children that were promised to fill all the nations. Here those same grains become the 12 pearls that represent Yisrael's glowing final redemption, having been coated by Messiah's blood.

³ The pearl of great price that Yahshua spoke of in Matthew 13 is a parable of the 12 individual pearly gates to the Renewed Jerusalem. By purchasing all 12 of those gates, He allowed all Yisrael to enter their eternal home as one.

⁴ Works Torah-less-ness.

eytzim were for the healing of the nations.^{5 6}
3 And there shall be no more curse: but the kesay of the Master יהוה and of the Lamb shall be in it; and His avadim shall serve Him:
4 And they shall see His face;⁷ and His Name shall be in their foreheads.⁸
5 And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for יהוה אלהא gives them Light: and they shall reign le-olam-va-ed.
6 And he said to me, These sayings are faithful and emet: and יהוה אלהא of the kadosh neviim sent His heavenly malach to show to His avadim the things that must shortly be done.⁹
7 See, I come quickly: blessed is he that guards the sayings of the prophecy of this scroll.¹⁰
8 And I, Yochanan, saw these things, and heard them.¹¹ And when I had heard and seen them, I fell down to worship before the feet of the malach who showed me these things.¹²
9 Then he said to me, See that you do it not: for I am your fellow eved, and of your brothers the neviim, and from those who shomer the sayings of this scroll: worship Abba יהוה.¹³
10 And he said to me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this scroll: for the time is at hand.¹⁴
11 He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which

⁵ The twelve fruits during twelve months for the healing of the nations, indicates that all nations were composed of twelve tribes of Yisraelites. Moreover, the two trees of life, one on each side, are for the two houses and their ultimate and complete spiritual healing.

⁶ Fruit indicates ongoing sustenance, and leaves indicate eternal healing from sin.

⁷ Note that YHWH's servants see the face of the Lamb, never the Father, since no man can see YHWH's face and live. This is as binding on earth as it is in heaven. Our reward is the Lamb's face, as clearly restated here.

⁸ When we are all home, everyone will need the true Name to enter and we will have it on our foreheads as a reward and seal of who we are. The true Name therefore, is not an optional issue in the New Jerusalem.

⁹ The messenger that gave John the vision. Not Yahshua, who speaks in the next verse.

¹⁰ The Scroll of Revelation itself.

¹¹ He saw the messenger, but heard Yahshua at the same time. The messenger should not be confused with Yahshua.

¹² The messenger is probably the same one who was sent by Yahshua back in Revelation 1:1 to show John all things in the next 22 chapters. This is not Yahshua Himself who does receive worship (as seen in the evangels), before redirecting it to His Father.

¹³ John is commanded by the messenger to direct his worship to The Father-YHWH. This confirms what Yahshua taught us in Matthew 6:9 in the true disciples prayer of praise.

¹⁴ The messenger reverses the admonition of Daniel 12:4, where Daniel is told to seal the visions.

is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is a tzadik, let him be a tzadik still: and he that is kadosh, let him be kadosh still.

12 *And, see, I come quickly; and My reward is with Me, to give every man according to his mitzvoth.*¹

13 I am Aleph and Taf, the Beginning and the End, the First and the Last.

14 Blessed are they that do His mitzvoth that they may have the right to the eytzim chayim, and may enter in through the twelve gates into the city.²

15 For outside are dogs³ and sorcerers and whores and murderers and idolaters and whoever loves to make lying the way of their chayim.

16 I יהושע have sent My heavenly malach to testify to you these things in the Yisraelite congregations. I am the Root and the Offspring of Dawid, and the Bright and Morning Cochav.

17 And the Ruach and the bride of Yisrael say, *Boh.*⁴ And let him that hears say, Boh. And let him that is thirsty come. And whoever so desires, let him take the mayim chayim freely.

18 For I testify to every man that hears the words of the prophecy of this scroll, If any man shall add to these things, יהוה shall add to him the plagues that are written in this scroll:

19 And if any man shall take away from the words of this scroll of prophecy, יהוה shall take away his part out of the Sefer Ha Chayim, and out of the kadosh city, and from the things that are written in this scroll.⁵

20 He who testifies of these things says, Surely I come quickly. Amein. Even so, come, Master יהושע.

21 The unmerited favor of our Master יהושע ha Moshiach be with all the Yisraelite kidushim. Amein. ת

Am Yisrael Chai Forever in The Renewed Yahrushalayim

¹ Performed as believers and disciples.

² Keeping Torah is a requirement to kingdom entry.

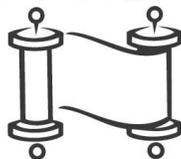

³ A reference to gentiles, or pagans who are kept out of the city, due to their lack of obedience to either Yahshua, or His Torah, while Yisraelite born again believers are in the city.

⁴ A Spirit led Yisraelite congregation will long daily for the end of this wicked age and the coming of Yahshua, as both are in accord through the Spirit.

⁵ This is a warning to those in the first century, working from the original inspired scrolls in Hebrew, Aramaic, Chaldean, or Greek, not to make changes. Those scrolls did exist in the first century and those scribes are the ones that had the temptation to change the original autograph manuscripts. This sin cannot be committed today, since the originals are no longer available. This warning is not referring to later translators, who may have used an English-based text to translate from, or may have had to add such things as definite articles, adjectives, adverbs, or other such methods as word reversal, in order to allow the translation to flow freely from one language to another.
